Matthew 3:3 This is the one of whom the prophet Isaiah spoke when he said, “The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.’“

Matthew 3:4 Now John wore clothing of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 Then the people of Jerusalem and all Judea were going out to him, and all the region along the Jordan,

Matthew 3:6 and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Matthew 3:7 But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Matthew 3:8 Bear fruit worthy of repentance.

Matthew 3:9 Do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Matthew 3:10 Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 3:11 “I baptize you with water for repentance, but one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Matthew 3:12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

Matthew 3:13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him.

Matthew 3:14 John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?”

Matthew 3:15 But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented.

Matthew 3:16 And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him.

Matthew 3:17 And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

Matthew 4:2 He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished.

Matthew 4:3 The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.”

Matthew 4:4 But he answered, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’“

Matthew 4:5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple,

Matthew 4:6 saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’“

Matthew 4:7 Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’“

Matthew 4:8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor;

Matthew 4:9 and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.”

Matthew 4:10 Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’“

Matthew 4:11 Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Matthew 4:12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee.

Matthew 4:13 He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali,

Matthew 4:14 so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

Matthew 4:15 “Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—

Matthew 4:16 the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

Matthew 4:17 From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

Matthew 4:18 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea— for they were fishermen.

Matthew 4:19 And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.”

Matthew 4:20 Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:21 As he went from there, he saw two other brothers,James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.

Matthew 4:22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Matthew 4:23 Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Matthew 4:24 So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought to him all the sick, those who were afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he cured them.

Matthew 4:25 And great crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Matthew 5:1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.

Matthew 5:2 Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Matthew 5:3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Matthew 5:5 “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Matthew 5:6 “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Matthew 5:7 “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Matthew 5:8 “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Matthew 5:9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Matthew 5:10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:11 “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5:13 “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

Matthew 5:14 “You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid.

Matthew 5:15 No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.

Matthew 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill.

Matthew 5:18 For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.

Matthew 5:19 Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:21 “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.’

Matthew 5:22 But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire.

Matthew 5:23 So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:25 Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison.

Matthew 5:26 Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’

Matthew 5:28 But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell.

Matthew 5:31 “It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’

Matthew 5:32 But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Matthew 5:33 “Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’

Matthew 5:34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God,

Matthew 5:35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

Matthew 5:36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black.

Matthew 5:37 Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

Matthew 5:38 “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’

Matthew 5:39 But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also;

Matthew 5:40 and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well;

Matthew 5:41 and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile.

Matthew 5:42 Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you.

Matthew 5:43 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’

Matthew 5:44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

Matthew 5:45 so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous.

Matthew 5:46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?

Matthew 5:47 And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?

Matthew 5:48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Matthew 6:1 “Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:2 “So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:3 But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

Matthew 6:4 so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 “And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:6 But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 “When you are praying, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

Matthew 6:8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 “Pray then in this way: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Matthew 6:10 Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

Matthew 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Matthew 6:13 And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.

Matthew 6:14 For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you;

Matthew 6:15 but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Matthew 6:16 “And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:17 But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face,

Matthew 6:18 so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal;

Matthew 6:20 but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Matthew 6:21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Matthew 6:22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light;

Matthew 6:23 but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

Matthew 6:24 “No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Matthew 6:25 “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?

Matthew 6:26 Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

Matthew 6:27 And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?

Matthew 6:28 And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin,

Matthew 6:29 yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

Matthew 6:30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you— you of little faith?

Matthew 6:31 Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’

Matthew 6:32 For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

Matthew 6:33 But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Matthew 6:34 “So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.

Matthew 7:1 “Do not judge, so that you may not be judged.

Matthew 7:2 For with the judgment you make you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get.

Matthew 7:3 Why do you see the speck in your neighbor’s eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4 Or how can you say to your neighbor, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ while the log is in your own eye?

Matthew 7:5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor’s eye.

Matthew 7:6 “Do not give what is holy to dogs; and do not throw your pearls before swine, or they will trample them under foot and turn and maul you.

Matthew 7:7 “Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Matthew 7:8 For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Matthew 7:9 Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone?

Matthew 7:10 Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake?

Matthew 7:11 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Matthew 7:12 “In everything do to others as you would have them do to you; for this is the law and the prophets.

Matthew 7:13 “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road is easy that leads to destruction, and there are many who take it.

Matthew 7:14 For the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Matthew 7:15 “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

Matthew 7:16 You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles?

Matthew 7:17 In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 7:20 Thus you will know them by their fruits.

Matthew 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 7:22 On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many deeds of power in your name?’

Matthew 7:23 Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; go away from me, you evildoers.'

Matthew 7:24 "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.

Matthew 7:25 The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock.

Matthew 7:26 And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

Matthew 7:27 The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell— and great was its fall!"

Matthew 7:28 Now when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astounded at his teaching,

Matthew 7:29 for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

Matthew 8:1 When Jesus had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him;

Matthew 8:2 and there was a leper who came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean."

Matthew 8:3 He stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I do choose. Be made clean!" Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Matthew 8:4 Then Jesus said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Matthew 8:5 When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, appealing to him

Matthew 8:6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible distress."

Matthew 8:7 And he said to him, "I will come and cure him."

Matthew 8:8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only speak the word, and my servant will be healed.

Matthew 8:9 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and the slave does it."

Matthew 8:10 When Jesus heard him, he was amazed and said to those who followed him, "Truly I tell you, in no one in Israel have I found such faith.

Matthew 8:11 I tell you, many will come from east and west and will eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven,

Matthew 8:12 while the heirs of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Matthew 8:13 And to the centurion Jesus said, “Go; let it be done for you according to your faith.” And the servant was healed in that hour.

Matthew 8:14 When Jesus entered Peter’s house, he saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever;

Matthew 8:15 he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

Matthew 8:16 That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and cured all who were sick.

Matthew 8:17 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah, “He took our infirmities and bore our diseases.”

Matthew 8:18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side.

Matthew 8:19 A scribe then approached and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

Matthew 8:20 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”

Matthew 8:21 Another of his disciples said to him, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

Matthew 8:22 But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Matthew 8:23 And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him.

Matthew 8:24 A windstorm arose on the sea, so great that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep.

Matthew 8:25 And they went and woke him up, saying, “Lord, save us! We are perishing!”

Matthew 8:26 And he said to them, “Why are you afraid, you of little faith?” Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a dead calm.

Matthew 8:27 They were amazed, saying, “What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?”

Matthew 8:28 When he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demoniacs coming out of the tombs met him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way.

Matthew 8:29 Suddenly they shouted, “What have you to do with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”

Matthew 8:30 Now a large herd of swine was feeding at some distance from them.

Matthew 8:31 The demons begged him, “If you cast us out, send us into the herd of swine.”

Matthew 8:32 And he said to them, “Go!” So they came out and entered the swine; and suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water.

Matthew 8:33 The swineherds ran off, and on going into the town, they told the whole story about what had happened to the demoniacs.

Matthew 8:34 Then the whole town came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood.

Matthew 9:1 And after getting into a boat he crossed the sea and came to his own town.

Matthew 9:2 And just then some people were carrying a paralyzed man lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven.”

Matthew 9:3 Then some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man is blaspheming.”

Matthew 9:4 But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?

Matthew 9:5 For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and walk’?

Matthew 9:6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”— he then said to the paralytic— “Stand up, take your bed and go to your home.”

Matthew 9:7 And he stood up and went to his home.

Matthew 9:8 When the crowds saw it, they were filled with awe, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to human beings.

Matthew 9:9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man calledMatthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples.

Matthew 9:11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Matthew 9:12 But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.

Matthew 9:13 Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

Matthew 9:14 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?”

Matthew 9:15 And Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests cannot mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak, for the patch pulls away from the cloak, and a worse tear is made.

Matthew 9:17 Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; otherwise, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved.”

Matthew 9:18 While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

Matthew 9:19 And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples.

Matthew 9:20 Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak,

Matthew 9:21 for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.”

Matthew 9:22 Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well.

Matthew 9:23 When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion,

Matthew 9:24 he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him.

Matthew 9:25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

Matthew 9:26 And the report of this spread throughout that district.

Matthew 9:27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying loudly, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Matthew 9:28 When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.”

Matthew 9:29 Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith let it be done to you.”

Matthew 9:30 And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly ordered them, “See that no one knows of this.”

Matthew 9:31 But they went away and spread the news about him throughout that district.

Matthew 9:32 After they had gone away, a demoniac who was mute was brought to him.

Matthew 9:33 And when the demon had been cast out, the one who had been mute spoke; and the crowds were amazed and said, “Never has anything like this been seen in Israel.”

Matthew 9:34 But the Pharisees said, “By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons.”

Matthew 9:35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.

Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few;

Matthew 9:38 therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Matthew 10:1 Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

Matthew 10:2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew;James son of Zebedee, and his brother John;

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

Matthew 10:4 Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

Matthew 10:5 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans,

Matthew 10:6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Matthew 10:7 As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’

Matthew 10:8 Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Matthew 10:9 Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts,

Matthew 10:10 no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food.

Matthew 10:11 Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave.

Matthew 10:12 As you enter the house, greet it.

Matthew 10:13 If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

Matthew 10:14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town.

Matthew 10:15 Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

Matthew 10:16 “See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

Matthew 10:17 Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues;

Matthew 10:18 and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles.

Matthew 10:19 When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time;

Matthew 10:20 for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

Matthew 10:21 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Matthew 10:22 and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 10:23 When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Matthew 10:24 “A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master;

Matthew 10:25 it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

Matthew 10:26 “So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known.

Matthew 10:27 What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.

Matthew 10:28 Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Matthew 10:29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father.

Matthew 10:30 And even the hairs of your head are all counted.

Matthew 10:31 So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 “Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven;

Matthew 10:33 but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:34 “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

Matthew 10:35 For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

Matthew 10:36 and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.

Matthew 10:37 Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

Matthew 10:38 and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:39 Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:40 “Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous;

Matthew 10:42 and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple— truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

Matthew 11:1 Now when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and proclaim his message in their cities.

Matthew 11:2 When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples

Matthew 11:3 and said to him, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?”

Matthew 11:4 Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see:

Matthew 11:5 the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them.

Matthew 11:6 And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

Matthew 11:7 As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

Matthew 11:8 What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces.

Matthew 11:9 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Matthew 11:10 This is the one about whom it is written, ‘See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

Matthew 11:11 Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Matthew 11:12 From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force.

Matthew 11:13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John came;

Matthew 11:14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come.

Matthew 11:15 Let anyone with ears listen!

Matthew 11:16 “But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another,

Matthew 11:17 ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.’

Matthew 11:18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon’;

Matthew 11:19 the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

Matthew 11:20 Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his deeds of power had been done, because they did not repent.

Matthew 11:21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matthew 11:22 But I tell you, on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matthew 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades. For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Matthew 11:24 But I tell you that on the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom than for you.”

Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants;

Matthew 11:26 yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.

Matthew 11:27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 “Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Matthew 12:1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.

Matthew 12:2 When the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, “Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath.”

Matthew 12:3 He said to them, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Matthew 12:4 He entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests.

Matthew 12:5 Or have you not read in the law that on the sabbath the priests in the temple break the sabbath and yet are guiltless?

Matthew 12:6 I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.

Matthew 12:7 But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless.

Matthew 12:8 For the Son of Man is lord of the sabbath.”

Matthew 12:9 He left that place and entered their synagogue;

Matthew 12:10 a man was there with a withered hand, and they asked him, “Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?” so that they might accuse him.

Matthew 12:11 He said to them, “Suppose one of you has only one sheep and it falls into a pit on the sabbath; will you not lay hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 How much more valuable is a human being than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the sabbath.”

Matthew 12:13 Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and it was restored, as sound as the other.

Matthew 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him.

Matthew 12:15 When Jesus became aware of this, he departed. Many crowds followed him, and he cured all of them,

Matthew 12:16 and he ordered them not to make him known.

Matthew 12:17 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 12:18 “Here is my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

Matthew 12:19 He will not wrangle or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

Matthew 12:20 He will not break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick until he brings justice to victory.

Matthew 12:21 And in his name the Gentiles will hope.”

Matthew 12:22 Then they brought to him a demoniac who was blind and mute; and he cured him, so that the one who had been mute could speak and see.

Matthew 12:23 All the crowds were amazed and said, “Can this be the Son of David?”

Matthew 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons, that this fellow casts out the demons.”

Matthew 12:25 He knew what they were thinking and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand.

Matthew 12:26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

Matthew 12:27 If I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your own exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

Matthew 12:28 But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Matthew 12:29 Or how can one enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property, without first tying up the strong man? Then indeed the house can be plundered.

Matthew 12:30 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Matthew 12:31 Therefore I tell you, people will be forgiven for every sin and blasphemy, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Matthew 12:33 “Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You brood of vipers! How can you speak good things, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

Matthew 12:35 The good person brings good things out of a good treasure, and the evil person brings evil things out of an evil treasure.

Matthew 12:36 I tell you, on the day of judgment you will have to give an account for every careless word you utter;

Matthew 12:37 for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

Matthew 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you.”

Matthew 12:39 But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Matthew 12:40 For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so for three days and three nights the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth.

Matthew 12:41 The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

Matthew 12:42 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here!

Matthew 12:43 “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but it finds none.

Matthew 12:44 Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ When it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

Matthew 12:45 Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So will it be also with this evil generation.”

Matthew 12:46 While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and his brothers were standing outside, wanting to speak to him.

Matthew 12:47 Someone told him, “Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.”

Matthew 12:48 But to the one who had told him this, Jesus replied, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Matthew 12:49 And pointing to his disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers!

Matthew 12:50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

Matthew 13:1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea.

Matthew 13:2 Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach.

Matthew 13:3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: “Listen! A sower went out to sow.

Matthew 13:4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up.

Matthew 13:5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil.

Matthew 13:6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away.

Matthew 13:7 Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

Matthew 13:8 Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Matthew 13:9 Let anyone with ears listen!”

Matthew 13:10 Then the disciples came and asked him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

Matthew 13:11 He answered, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Matthew 13:12 For to those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Matthew 13:13 The reason I speak to them in parables is that ‘seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen, nor do they understand.’

Matthew 13:14 With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah that says: ‘You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive.

Matthew 13:15 For this people’s heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn— and I would heal them.’

Matthew 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Matthew 13:17 Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.

Matthew 13:18 “Hear then the parable of the sower.

Matthew 13:19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path.

Matthew 13:20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

Matthew 13:21 yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away.

Matthew 13:22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing.

Matthew 13:23 But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

Matthew 13:24 He put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field;

Matthew 13:25 but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away.

Matthew 13:26 So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well.

Matthew 13:27 And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?’

Matthew 13:28 He answered, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The slaves said to him, ‘Then do you want us to go and gather them?’

Matthew 13:29 But he replied, ‘No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them.

Matthew 13:30 Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.’“

Matthew 13:31 He put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field;

Matthew 13:32 it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

Matthew 13:33 He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

Matthew 13:34 Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing.

Matthew 13:35 This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet: “I will open my mouth to speak in parables; I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world.”

Matthew 13:36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”

Matthew 13:37 He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man;

Matthew 13:38 the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one,

Matthew 13:39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

Matthew 13:40 Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers,

Matthew 13:42 and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 13:43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Matthew 13:44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Matthew 13:45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls;

Matthew 13:46 on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Matthew 13:47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind;

Matthew 13:48 when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad.

Matthew 13:49 So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous

Matthew 13:50 and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 13:51 "Have you understood all this?" They answered, "Yes."

Matthew 13:52 And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Matthew 13:53 When Jesus had finished these parables, he left that place.

Matthew 13:54 He came to his hometown and began to teach the people in their synagogue, so that they were astounded and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these deeds of power?

Matthew 13:55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

Matthew 13:56 And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all this?”

Matthew 13:57 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor except in their own country and in their own house.”

Matthew 13:58 And he did not do many deeds of power there, because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14:1 At that time Herod the ruler heard reports about Jesus;

Matthew 14:2 and he said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and for this reason these powers are at work in him.”

Matthew 14:3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,

Matthew 14:4 because John had been telling him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”

Matthew 14:5 Though Herod wanted to put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 But when Herod’s birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company, and she pleased Herod

Matthew 14:7 so much that he promised on oath to grant her whatever she might ask.

Matthew 14:8 Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter.”

Matthew 14:9 The king was grieved, yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he commanded it to be given;

Matthew 14:10 he sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

Matthew 14:11 The head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who brought it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 His disciples came and took the body and buried it; then they went and told Jesus.

Matthew 14:13 Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

Matthew 14:14 When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick.

Matthew 14:15 When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

Matthew 14:16 Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.”

Matthew 14:17 They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.”

Matthew 14:18 And he said, “Bring them here to me.”

Matthew 14:19 Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14:20 And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

Matthew 14:21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Matthew 14:22 Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Matthew 14:23 And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

Matthew 14:24 but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them.

Matthew 14:25 And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea.

Matthew 14:26 But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear.

Matthew 14:27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”

Matthew 14:28 Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”

Matthew 14:29 He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus.

Matthew 14:30 But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

Matthew 14:31 Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”

Matthew 14:32 When they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

Matthew 14:33 And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Matthew 14:34 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

Matthew 14:35 After the people of that place recognized him, they sent word throughout the region and brought all who were sick to him,

Matthew 14:36 and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Matthew 15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said,

Matthew 15:2 “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands before they eat.”

Matthew 15:3 He answered them, “And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?

Matthew 15:4 For God said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.’

Matthew 15:5 But you say that whoever tells father or mother, ‘Whatever support you might have had from me is given to God,’ then that person need not honor the father.

Matthew 15:6 So, for the sake of your tradition, you make void the word of God.

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied rightly about you when he said:

Matthew 15:8 ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me;

Matthew 15:9 in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.’“

Matthew 15:10 Then he called the crowd to him and said to them, “Listen and understand:

Matthew 15:11 it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles.”

Matthew 15:12 Then the disciples approached and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?”

Matthew 15:13 He answered, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

Matthew 15:14 Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit.”

Matthew 15:15 But Peter said to him, “Explain this parable to us.”

Matthew 15:16 Then he said, “Are you also still without understanding?

Matthew 15:17 Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer?

Matthew 15:18 But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles.

Matthew 15:19 For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander.

Matthew 15:20 These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.”

Matthew 15:21 Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon.

Matthew 15:22 Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.”

Matthew 15:23 But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, “Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.”

Matthew 15:24 He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

Matthew 15:25 But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

Matthew 15:26 He answered, “It is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.”

Matthew 15:27 She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

Matthew 15:28 Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

Matthew 15:29 After Jesus had left that place, he passed along the Sea of Galilee, and he went up the mountain, where he sat down.

Matthew 15:30 Great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the maimed, the blind, the mute, and many others. They put them at his feet, and he cured them,

Matthew 15:31 so that the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

Matthew 15:32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way.”

Matthew 15:33 The disciples said to him, “Where are we to get enough bread in the desert to feed so great a crowd?”

Matthew 15:34 Jesus asked them, “How many loaves have you?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

Matthew 15:35 Then ordering the crowd to sit down on the ground,

Matthew 15:36 he took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 15:37 And all of them ate and were filled; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

Matthew 15:38 Those who had eaten were four thousand men, besides women and children.

Matthew 15:39 After sending away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to test Jesus they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

Matthew 16:2 He answered them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

Matthew 16:3 And in the morning, ‘It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:4 An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” Then he left them and went away.

Matthew 16:5 When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread.

Matthew 16:6 Jesus said to them, “Watch out, and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Matthew 16:7 They said to one another, “It is because we have brought no bread.”

Matthew 16:8 And becoming aware of it, Jesus said, “You of little faith, why are you talking about having no bread?

Matthew 16:9 Do you still not perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Matthew 16:10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Matthew 16:11 How could you fail to perceive that I was not speaking about bread? Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!”

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”

Matthew 16:14 And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

Matthew 16:15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Matthew 16:16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

Matthew 16:17 And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven.

Matthew 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

Matthew 16:20 Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Matthew 16:21 From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Matthew 16:22 And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.”

Matthew 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 16:26 For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

Matthew 16:27 “For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done.

Matthew 16:28 Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17:1 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.

Matthew 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Matthew 17:3 Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

Matthew 17:4 Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Matthew 17:5 While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!”

Matthew 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

Matthew 17:7 But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.”

Matthew 17:8 And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

Matthew 17:9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Matthew 17:10 And the disciples asked him, “Why, then, do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

Matthew 17:11 He replied, “Elijah is indeed coming and will restore all things;

Matthew 17:12 but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.”

Matthew 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

Matthew 17:14 When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him,

Matthew 17:15 and said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

Matthew 17:16 And I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.”

Matthew 17:17 Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.”

Matthew 17:18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly.

Matthew 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?”

Matthew 17:20 He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

Matthew 17:21

Matthew 17:22 As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands, Matthew 17:23 and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised." And they were greatly distressed.

Matthew 17:24 When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?"

Matthew 17:25 He said, "Yes, he does." And when he came home, Jesus spoke of it first, asking, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their children or from others?"

Matthew 17:26 When Peter said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the children are free.

Matthew 17:27 However, so that we do not give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook; take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a coin; take that and give it to them for you and me."

Matthew 18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

Matthew 18:2 He called a child, whom he put among them,

Matthew 18:3 and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:4 Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:5 Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.

Matthew 18:6 "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Matthew 18:7 Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom the stumbling block comes!

Matthew 18:8 "If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than to have two hands or two feet and to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Matthew 18:9 And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Matthew 18:10 "Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:11

Matthew 18:12 What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?

Matthew 18:13 And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray.

Matthew 18:14 So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

Matthew 18:15 "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one.

Matthew 18:16 But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Matthew 18:17 If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Matthew 18:18 Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 18:19 Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Matthew 18:21 Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?"

Matthew 18:22 Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

Matthew 18:23 "For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves.

Matthew 18:24 When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him;

Matthew 18:25 and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made.

Matthew 18:26 So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

Matthew 18:27 And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt.

Matthew 18:28 But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.'

Matthew 18:29 Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’

Matthew 18:30 But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt.

Matthew 18:31 When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place.

Matthew 18:32 Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.

Matthew 18:33 Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’

Matthew 18:34 And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt.

Matthew 18:35 So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Matthew 19:1 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

Matthew 19:2 Large crowds followed him, and he cured them there.

Matthew 19:3 Some Pharisees came to him, and to test him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?”

Matthew 19:4 He answered, “Have you not read that the one who made them at the beginning ‘made them male and female,’

Matthew 19:5 and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh’?

Matthew 19:6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

Matthew 19:7 They said to him, “Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?”

Matthew 19:8 He said to them, “It was because you were so hard-hearted that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

Matthew 19:9 And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another commits adultery.”

Matthew 19:10 His disciples said to him, “If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry.”

Matthew 19:11 But he said to them, “Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those to whom it is given.

Matthew 19:12 For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by others, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.”

Matthew 19:13 Then little children were being brought to him in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples spoke sternly to those who brought them;

Matthew 19:14 but Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”

Matthew 19:15 And he laid his hands on them and went on his way.

Matthew 19:16 Then someone came to him and said, “Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?”

Matthew 19:17 And he said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

Matthew 19:18 He said to him, “Which ones?” And Jesus said, “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness;

Matthew 19:19 Honor your father and mother; also, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Matthew 19:20 The young man said to him, “I have kept all these; what do I still lack?”

Matthew 19:21 Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

Matthew 19:22 When the young man heard this word, he went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Matthew 19:23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

Matthew 19:25 When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astounded and said, “Then who can be saved?”

Matthew 19:26 But Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.”

Matthew 19:27 Then Peter said in reply, “Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?”

Matthew 19:28 Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name’s sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.

Matthew 20:1 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace;

Matthew 20:4 and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.

Matthew 20:5 When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same.

Matthew 20:6 And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, ‘Why are you standing here idle all day?’

Matthew 20:7 They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’

Matthew 20:8 When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.’

Matthew 20:9 When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage.

Matthew 20:10 Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage.

Matthew 20:11 And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner,

Matthew 20:12 saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’

Matthew 20:13 But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?

Matthew 20:14 Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you.

Matthew 20:15 Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

Matthew 20:16 So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Matthew 20:17 While Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and said to them on the way,

Matthew 20:18 “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death;

Matthew 20:19 then they will hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified; and on the third day he will be raised.”

Matthew 20:20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favor of him.

Matthew 20:21 And he said to her, “What do you want?” She said to him, “Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.”

Matthew 20:22 But Jesus answered, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.”

Matthew 20:23 He said to them, “You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

Matthew 20:24 When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 But Jesus called them to him and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.

Matthew 20:26 It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant,

Matthew 20:27 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave;

Matthew 20:28 just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him.

Matthew 20:30 There were two blind men sitting by the roadside. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Matthew 20:31 The crowd sternly ordered them to be quiet; but they shouted even more loudly, “Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!”

Matthew 20:32 Jesus stood still and called them, saying, “What do you want me to do for you?”

Matthew 20:33 They said to him, “Lord, let our eyes be opened.”

Matthew 20:34 Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they regained their sight and followed him.

Matthew 21:1 When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,

Matthew 21:2 saying to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, just say this, 'The Lord needs them.' And he will send them immediately. "

Matthew 21:4 This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying,

Matthew 21:5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey."

Matthew 21:6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them;

Matthew 21:7 they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them.

Matthew 21:8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 21:9 The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Matthew 21:10 When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?"

Matthew 21:11 The crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

Matthew 21:12 Then Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who were selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

Matthew 21:13 He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer'; but you are making it a den of robbers."

Matthew 21:14 The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he cured them.

Matthew 21:15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing things that he did, and heard the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became angry

Matthew 21:16 and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself'?"

Matthew 21:17 He left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

Matthew 21:18 In the morning, when he returned to the city, he was hungry.

Matthew 21:19 And seeing a fig tree by the side of the road, he went to it and found nothing at all on it but leaves. Then he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree withered at once.

Matthew 21:20 When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, “How did the fig tree wither at once?”

Matthew 21:21 Jesus answered them, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will be done.

Matthew 21:22 Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive.”

Matthew 21:23 When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?”

Matthew 21:24 Jesus said to them, “I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

Matthew 21:25 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’

Matthew 21:26 But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.”

Matthew 21:27 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Matthew 21:28 “What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

Matthew 21:29 He answered, ‘I will not’; but later he changed his mind and went.

Matthew 21:30 The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, ‘I go, sir’; but he did not go.

Matthew 21:31 Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

Matthew 21:32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Matthew 21:33 “Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

Matthew 21:34 When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce.

Matthew 21:35 But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.

Matthew 21:36 Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way.

Matthew 21:37 Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

Matthew 21:38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.'

Matthew 21:39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

Matthew 21:41 They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

Matthew 21:42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'?

Matthew 21:43 Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom.

Matthew 21:44 The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."

Matthew 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them.

Matthew 21:46 They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying:

Matthew 22:2 "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son.

Matthew 22:3 He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come.

Matthew 22:4 Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.'

Matthew 22:5 But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business,

Matthew 22:6 while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them.

Matthew 22:7 The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

Matthew 22:8 Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy.

Matthew 22:9 Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.'

Matthew 22:10 Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe,

Matthew 22:12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless.

Matthew 22:13 Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Matthew 22:14 For many are called, but few are chosen."

Matthew 22:15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap him in what he said.

Matthew 22:16 So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality.

Matthew 22:17 Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?"

Matthew 22:18 But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites?

Matthew 22:19 Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius.

Matthew 22:20 Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?"

Matthew 22:21 They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's."

Matthew 22:22 When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Matthew 22:23 The same day some Sadducees came to him, saying there is no resurrection; and they asked him a question, saying,

Matthew 22:24 "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies childless, his brother shall marry the widow, and raise up children for his brother.'

Matthew 22:25 Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and died childless, leaving the widow to his brother.

Matthew 22:26 The second did the same, so also the third, down to the seventh.

Matthew 22:27 Last of all, the woman herself died.

Matthew 22:28 In the resurrection, then, whose wife of the seven will she be? For all of them had married her.”

Matthew 22:29 Jesus answered them, “You are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God.

Matthew 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God,

Matthew 22:32 ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is God not of the dead, but of the living.”

Matthew 22:33 And when the crowd heard it, they were astounded at his teaching.

Matthew 22:34 When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together,

Matthew 22:35 and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

Matthew 22:36 “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”

Matthew 22:37 He said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’

Matthew 22:38 This is the greatest and first commandment.

Matthew 22:39 And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’

Matthew 22:40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Matthew 22:41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question:

Matthew 22:42 “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.”

Matthew 22:43 He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

Matthew 22:44 ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet” ’?

Matthew 22:45 If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?”

Matthew 22:46 No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23:1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples,

Matthew 23:2 “The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses’ seat;

Matthew 23:3 therefore, do whatever they teach you and follow it; but do not do as they do, for they do not practice what they teach.

Matthew 23:4 They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of others; but they themselves are unwilling to lift a finger to move them.

Matthew 23:5 They do all their deeds to be seen by others; for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long.

Matthew 23:6 They love to have the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues,

Matthew 23:7 and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have people call them rabbi.

Matthew 23:8 But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all students.

Matthew 23:9 And call no one your father on earth, for you have one Father— the one in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Messiah.

Matthew 23:11 The greatest among you will be your servant.

Matthew 23:12 All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted.

Matthew 23:13 “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not go in yourselves, and when others are going in, you stop them.

Matthew 23:14

Matthew 23:15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cross sea and land to make a single convert, and you make the new convert twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

Matthew 23:16 “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the sanctuary is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the sanctuary is bound by the oath.’

Matthew 23:17 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the sanctuary that has made the gold sacred?

Matthew 23:18 And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is on the altar is bound by the oath.’

Matthew 23:19 How blind you are! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

Matthew 23:20 So whoever swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it;

Matthew 23:21 and whoever swears by the sanctuary, swears by it and by the one who dwells in it;

Matthew 23:22 and whoever swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by the one who is seated upon it.

Matthew 23:23 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. It is these you ought to have practiced without neglecting the others.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel!

Matthew 23:25 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

Matthew 23:26 You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may become clean.

Matthew 23:27 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but inside they are full of the bones of the dead and of all kinds of filth.

Matthew 23:28 So you also on the outside look righteous to others, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

Matthew 23:29 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous,

Matthew 23:30 and you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

Matthew 23:31 Thus you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

Matthew 23:32 Fill up, then, the measure of your ancestors.

Matthew 23:33 You snakes, you brood of vipers! How can you escape being sentenced to hell?

Matthew 23:34 Therefore I send you prophets, sages, and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town,

Matthew 23:35 so that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 Truly I tell you, all this will come upon this generation.

Matthew 23:37 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!

Matthew 23:38 See, your house is left to you, desolate.

Matthew 23:39 For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’“

Matthew 24:1 As Jesus came out of the temple and was going away, his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple.

Matthew 24:2 Then he asked them, “You see all these, do you not? Truly I tell you, not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

Matthew 24:3 When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

Matthew 24:4 Jesus answered them, “Beware that no one leads you astray.

Matthew 24:5 For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah!’ and they will lead many astray.

Matthew 24:6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet.

Matthew 24:7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places:

Matthew 24:8 all this is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Matthew 24:9 “Then they will hand you over to be tortured and will put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of my name.

Matthew 24:10 Then many will fall away, and they will betray one another and hate one another.

Matthew 24:11 And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.

Matthew 24:12 And because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold.

Matthew 24:13 But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 24:14 And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations; and then the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 “So when you see the desolating sacrilege standing in the holy place, as was spoken of by the prophet Daniel (let the reader understand),

Matthew 24:16 then those in Judea must flee to the mountains;

Matthew 24:17 the one on the housetop must not go down to take what is in the house;

Matthew 24:18 the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat.

Matthew 24:19 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!

Matthew 24:20 Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a sabbath.

Matthew 24:21 For at that time there will be great suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.

Matthew 24:22 And if those days had not been cut short, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

Matthew 24:23 Then if anyone says to you, 'Look! Here is the Messiah!' or 'There he is!'— do not believe it.

Matthew 24:24 For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce great signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Matthew 24:25 Take note, I have told you beforehand.

Matthew 24:26 So, if they say to you, 'Look! He is in the wilderness,' do not go out. If they say, 'Look! He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

Matthew 24:27 For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:28 Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

Matthew 24:29 "Immediately after the suffering of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

Matthew 24:30 Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see 'the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven' with power and great glory.

Matthew 24:31 And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Matthew 24:32 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Matthew 24:33 So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Matthew 24:34 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

Matthew 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Matthew 24:36 “But about that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Matthew 24:37 For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark,

Matthew 24:39 and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:40 Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left.

Matthew 24:41 Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left.

Matthew 24:42 Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.

Matthew 24:43 But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into.

Matthew 24:44 Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.

Matthew 24:45 “Who then is the faithful and wise slave, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give the other slaves their allowance of food at the proper time?

Matthew 24:46 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.

Matthew 24:47 Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.

Matthew 24:48 But if that wicked slave says to himself, ‘My master is delayed,’

Matthew 24:49 and he begins to beat his fellow slaves, and eats and drinks with drunkards,

Matthew 24:50 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know.

Matthew 24:51 He will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 25:1 “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

Matthew 25:3 When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them;

Matthew 25:4 but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept.

Matthew 25:6 But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.’

Matthew 25:7 Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps.

Matthew 25:8 The foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’

Matthew 25:9 But the wise replied, ‘No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.’

Matthew 25:10 And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut.

Matthew 25:11 Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, ‘Lord, lord, open to us.’

Matthew 25:12 But he replied, ‘Truly I tell you, I do not know you.’

Matthew 25:13 Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Matthew 25:14 “For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them;

Matthew 25:15 to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

Matthew 25:16 The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents.

Matthew 25:17 In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents.

Matthew 25:18 But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

Matthew 25:19 After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.’

Matthew 25:21 His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’

Matthew 25:22 And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.’

Matthew 25:23 His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’

Matthew 25:24 Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed;

Matthew 25:25 so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’

Matthew 25:26 But his master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter?

Matthew 25:27 Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest.

Matthew 25:28 So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents.

Matthew 25:29 For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Matthew 25:30 As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Matthew 25:31 “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory.

Matthew 25:32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats,

Matthew 25:33 and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left.

Matthew 25:34 Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;

Matthew 25:35 for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me,

Matthew 25:36 I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’

Matthew 25:37 Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink?

Matthew 25:38 And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing?

Matthew 25:39 And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?’

Matthew 25:40 And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’

Matthew 25:41 Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels;

Matthew 25:42 for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink,

Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’

Matthew 25:44 Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’

Matthew 25:45 Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’

Matthew 25:46 And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Matthew 26:1 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples,

Matthew 26:2 “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

Matthew 26:3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

Matthew 26:4 and they conspired to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him.

Matthew 26:5 But they said, “Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people.”

Matthew 26:6 Now while Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,

Matthew 26:7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table.

Matthew 26:8 But when the disciples saw it, they were angry and said, “Why this waste?

Matthew 26:9 For this ointment could have been sold for a large sum, and the money given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? She has performed a good service for me.

Matthew 26:11 For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me.

Matthew 26:12 By pouring this ointment on my body she has prepared me for burial.

Matthew 26:13 Truly I tell you, wherever this good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her.”

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

Matthew 26:15 and said, “What will you give me if I betray him to you?” They paid him thirty pieces of silver.

Matthew 26:16 And from that moment he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Matthew 26:17 On the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

Matthew 26:18 He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, My time is near; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.’“

Matthew 26:19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover meal.

Matthew 26:20 When it was evening, he took his place with the twelve;

Matthew 26:21 and while they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.”

Matthew 26:22 And they became greatly distressed and began to say to him one after another, “Surely not I, Lord?”

Matthew 26:23 He answered, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born.”

Matthew 26:25 Judas, who betrayed him, said, “Surely not I, Rabbi?” He replied, “You have said so.”

Matthew 26:26 While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.”

Matthew 26:27 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you;

Matthew 26:28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Matthew 26:29 I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

Matthew 26:30 When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, “You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

Matthew 26:32 But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

Matthew 26:33 Peter said to him, “Though all become deserters because of you, I will never desert you.”

Matthew 26:34 Jesus said to him, “Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.”

Matthew 26:35 Peter said to him, “Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you.” And so said all the disciples.

Matthew 26:36 Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

Matthew 26:37 He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and agitated.

Matthew 26:38 Then he said to them, “I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and stay awake with me.”

Matthew 26:39 And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not what I want but what you want.”

Matthew 26:40 Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, “So, could you not stay awake with me one hour?

Matthew 26:41 Stay awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Matthew 26:42 Again he went away for the second time and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.”

Matthew 26:43 Again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

Matthew 26:44 So leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words.

Matthew 26:45 Then he came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand.”

Matthew 26:47 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him.”

Matthew 26:49 At once he came up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Jesus said to him, “Friend, do what you are here to do.” Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him.

Matthew 26:51 Suddenly, one of those with Jesus put his hand on his sword, drew it, and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Matthew 26:52 Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword.

Matthew 26:53 Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels?

Matthew 26:54 But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, which say it must happen in this way?”

Matthew 26:55 At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me.

Matthew 26:56 But all this has taken place, so that the scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Matthew 26:57 Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas the high priest, in whose house the scribes and the elders had gathered.

Matthew 26:58 But Peter was following him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest; and going inside, he sat with the guards in order to see how this would end.

Matthew 26:59 Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death,

Matthew 26:60 but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward

Matthew 26:61 and said, “This fellow said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.’“

Matthew 26:62 The high priest stood up and said, “Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?”

Matthew 26:63 But Jesus was silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I put you under oath before the living God, tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

Matthew 26:64 Jesus said to him, “You have said so. But I tell you, From now on you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Matthew 26:65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? You have now heard his blasphemy.

Matthew 26:66 What is your verdict?” They answered, “He deserves death.”

Matthew 26:67 Then they spat in his face and struck him; and some slapped him,

Matthew 26:68 saying, “Prophesy to us, you Messiah! Who is it that struck you?”

Matthew 26:69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant-girl came to him and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.”

Matthew 26:70 But he denied it before all of them, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about.”

Matthew 26:71 When he went out to the porch, another servant-girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

Matthew 26:72 Again he denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man.”

Matthew 26:73 After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent betrays you.”

Matthew 26:74 Then he began to curse, and he swore an oath, “I do not know the man!” At that moment the cock crowed.

Matthew 26:75 Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said: “Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people conferred together against Jesus in order to bring about his death.

Matthew 27:2 They bound him, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

Matthew 27:3 When Judas, his betrayer, saw that Jesus was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders.

Matthew 27:4 He said, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.” But they said, “What is that to us? See to it yourself.”

Matthew 27:5 Throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money.”

Matthew 27:7 After conferring together, they used them to buy the potter’s field as a place to bury foreigners.

Matthew 27:8 For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

Matthew 27:9 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah, “And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one on whom a price had been set, on whom some of the people of Israel had set a price,

Matthew 27:10 and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

Matthew 27:11 Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You say so.”

Matthew 27:12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer.

Matthew 27:13 Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?”

Matthew 27:14 But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Matthew 27:15 Now at the festival the governor was accustomed to release a prisoner for the crowd, anyone whom they wanted.

Matthew 27:16 At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Jesus Barabbas.

Matthew 27:17 So after they had gathered, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?”

Matthew 27:18 For he realized that it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over.

Matthew 27:19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, “Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for today I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about him.”

Matthew 27:20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.

Matthew 27:21 The governor again said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

Matthew 27:22 Pilate said to them, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?” All of them said, “Let him be crucified!”

Matthew 27:23 Then he asked, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Let him be crucified!”

Matthew 27:24 So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took some water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood; see to it yourselves.”

Matthew 27:25 Then the people as a whole answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!”

Matthew 27:26 So he released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Matthew 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor’s headquarters, and they gathered the whole cohort around him.

Matthew 27:28 They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him,

Matthew 27:29 and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand and knelt before him and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Matthew 27:30 They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.

Matthew 27:31 After mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

Matthew 27:32 As they went out, they came upon a man from Cyrene named Simon; they compelled this man to carry his cross.

Matthew 27:33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull),

Matthew 27:34 they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it.

Matthew 27:35 And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by casting lots;

Matthew 27:36 then they sat down there and kept watch over him.

Matthew 27:37 Over his head they put the charge against him, which read, “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.”

Matthew 27:38 Then two bandits were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

Matthew 27:39 Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads

Matthew 27:40 and saying, “You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.”

Matthew 27:41 In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking him, saying,

Matthew 27:42 “He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.

Matthew 27:43 He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he wants to; for he said, 'I am God's Son.'"

Matthew 27:44 The bandits who were crucified with him also taunted him in the same way.

Matthew 27:45 From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Matthew 27:46 And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Matthew 27:47 When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "This man is calling for Elijah."

Matthew 27:48 At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink.

Matthew 27:49 But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him."

Matthew 27:50 Then Jesus cried again with a loud voice and breathed his last.

Matthew 27:51 At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split.

Matthew 27:52 The tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised.

Matthew 27:53 After his resurrection they came out of the tombs and entered the holy city and appeared to many.

Matthew 27:54 Now when the centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were terrified and said, "Truly this man was God's Son!"

Matthew 27:55 Many women were also there, looking on from a distance; they had followed Jesus from Galilee and had provided for him.

Matthew 27:56 Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Matthew 27:57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

Matthew 27:59 So Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth

Matthew 27:60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. He then rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and went away.

Matthew 27:61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

Matthew 27:62 The next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate

Matthew 27:63 and said, “Sir, we remember what that impostor said while he was still alive, ‘After three days I will rise again.’

Matthew 27:64 Therefore command the tomb to be made secure until the third day; otherwise his disciples may go and steal him away, and tell the people, ‘He has been raised from the dead,’ and the last deception would be worse than the first.”

Matthew 27:65 Pilate said to them, “You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can.”

Matthew 27:66 So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone.

Matthew 28:1 After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

Matthew 28:2 And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it.

Matthew 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men.

Matthew 28:5 But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.

Matthew 28:6 He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay.

Matthew 28:7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.”

Matthew 28:8 So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

Matthew 28:9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

Matthew 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

Matthew 28:11 While they were going, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened.

Matthew 28:12 After the priests had assembled with the elders, they devised a plan to give a large sum of money to the soldiers,

Matthew 28:13 telling them, “You must say, ‘His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.’

Matthew 28:14 If this comes to the governor’s ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.”

Matthew 28:15 So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story is still told among the Jews to this day.

Matthew 28:16 Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

Matthew 28:17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted.

Matthew 28:18 And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Matthew 28:20 and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Mark

1:1 The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mark 1:2 As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, “See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way;

Mark 1:3 the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,’“

Mark 1:4 John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5 And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Mark 1:6 Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals.

Mark 1:8 I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

Mark 1:9 In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

Mark 1:10 And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him.

Mark 1:11 And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

Mark 1:12 And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness.

Mark 1:13 He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

Mark 1:14 Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God,

Mark 1:15 and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

Mark 1:16 As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea— for they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.”

Mark 1:18 And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets.

Mark 1:20 Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Mark 1:21 They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught.

Mark 1:22 They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Mark 1:23 Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit,

Mark 1:24 and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.”

Mark 1:25 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!”

Mark 1:26 And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

Mark 1:27 They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching— with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.”

Mark 1:28 At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Mark 1:29 As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

Mark 1:30 Now Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once.

Mark 1:31 He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

Mark 1:32 That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons.

Mark 1:33 And the whole city was gathered around the door.

Mark 1:34 And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Mark 1:35 In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed.

Mark 1:36 And Simon and his companions hunted for him.

Mark 1:37 When they found him, they said to him, “Everyone is searching for you.”

Mark 1:38 He answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.”

Mark 1:39 And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Mark 1:40 A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, “If you choose, you can make me clean.”

Mark 1:41 Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, “I do choose. Be made clean!”

Mark 1:42 Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.

Mark 1:43 After sternly warning him he sent him away at once,

Mark 1:44 saying to him, “See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

Mark 1:45 But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

Mark 2:1 When he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home.

Mark 2:2 So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and he was speaking the word to them.

Mark 2:3 Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them.

Mark 2:4 And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay.

Mark 2:5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

Mark 2:6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts,

Mark 2:7 “Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Mark 2:8 At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves; and he said to them, “Why do you raise such questions in your hearts?

Mark 2:9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and take your mat and walk’?

Mark 2:10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”— he said to the paralytic—

Mark 2:11 “I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home.”

Mark 2:12 And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Mark 2:13 Jesus went out again beside the sea; the whole crowd gathered around him, and he taught them.

Mark 2:14 As he was walking along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him.

Mark 2:15 And as he sat at dinner in Levi’s house, many tax collectors and sinners were also sitting with Jesus and his disciples— for there were many who followed him.

Mark 2:16 When the scribes of the Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Mark 2:17 When Jesus heard this, he said to them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

Mark 2:18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and people came and said to him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”

Mark 2:19 Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

Mark 2:20 The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day.

Mark 2:21 “No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear is made.

Mark 2:22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and so are the skins; but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins.”

Mark 2:23 One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain.

Mark 2:24 The Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?”

Mark 2:25 And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food?

Mark 2:26 He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.”

Mark 2:27 Then he said to them, “The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath;

Mark 2:28 so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.”

Mark 3:1 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

Mark 3:2 They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

Mark 3:3 And he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come forward.”

Mark 3:4 Then he said to them, “Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent.

Mark 3:5 He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

Mark 3:6 The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Mark 3:7 Jesus departed with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him;

Mark 3:8 hearing all that he was doing, they came to him in great numbers from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and the region around Tyre and Sidon.

Mark 3:9 He told his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, so that they would not crush him;

Mark 3:10 for he had cured many, so that all who had diseases pressed upon him to touch him.

Mark 3:11 Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and shouted, “You are the Son of God!”

Mark 3:12 But he sternly ordered them not to make him known.

Mark 3:13 He went up the mountain and called to him those whom he wanted, and they came to him.

Mark 3:14 And he appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to proclaim the message,

Mark 3:15 and to have authority to cast out demons.

Mark 3:16 So he appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter);

Mark 3:17 James son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder);

Mark 3:18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean,

Mark 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. Then he went home;

Mark 3:20 and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat.

Mark 3:21 When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.”

Mark 3:22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.”

Mark 3:23 And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan?

Mark 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Mark 3:25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

Mark 3:26 And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come.

Mark 3:27 But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

Mark 3:28 “Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter;

Mark 3:29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”—

Mark 3:30 for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Mark 3:31 Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him.

Mark 3:32 A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.”

Mark 3:33 And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”

Mark 3:34 And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mark 3:35 Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

Mark 4:1 Again he began to teach beside the sea. Such a very large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat on the sea and sat there, while the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land.

Mark 4:2 He began to teach them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them:

Mark 4:3 “Listen! A sower went out to sow.

Mark 4:4 And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Mark 4:5 Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up quickly, since it had no depth of soil.

Mark 4:6 And when the sun rose, it was scorched; and since it had no root, it withered away.

Mark 4:7 Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.

Mark 4:8 Other seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirty and sixty and a hundredfold.”

Mark 4:9 And he said, “Let anyone with ears to hear listen!”

Mark 4:10 When he was alone, those who were around him along with the twelve asked him about the parables.

Mark 4:11 And he said to them, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside, everything comes in parables;

Mark 4:12 in order that ‘they may indeed look, but not perceive, and may indeed listen, but not understand; so that they may not turn again and be forgiven.’“

Mark 4:13 And he said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables?

Mark 4:14 The sower sows the word.

Mark 4:15 These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them.

Mark 4:16 And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy.

Mark 4:17 But they have no root, and endure only for a while; then, when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away.

Mark 4:18 And others are those sown among the thorns: these are the ones who hear the word,

Mark 4:19 but the cares of the world, and the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it yields nothing.

Mark 4:20 And these are the ones sown on the good soil: they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold."

Mark 4:21 He said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under the bushel basket, or under the bed, and not on the lampstand?

Mark 4:22 For there is nothing hidden, except to be disclosed; nor is anything secret, except to come to light.

Mark 4:23 Let anyone with ears to hear listen!"

Mark 4:24 And he said to them, "Pay attention to what you hear; the measure you give will be the measure you get, and still more will be given you.

Mark 4:25 For to those who have, more will be given; and from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away."

Mark 4:26 He also said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground,

Mark 4:27 and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how.

Mark 4:28 The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

Mark 4:29 But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

Mark 4:30 He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth;

Mark 4:32 yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

Mark 4:33 With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it;

Mark 4:34 he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Mark 4:35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side."

Mark 4:36 And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him.

Mark 4:37 A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped.

Mark 4:38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?”

Mark 4:39 He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm.

Mark 4:40 He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?”

Mark 4:41 And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

Mark 5:1 They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes.

Mark 5:2 And when he had stepped out of the boat, immediately a man out of the tombs with an unclean spirit met him.

Mark 5:3 He lived among the tombs; and no one could restrain him any more, even with a chain;

Mark 5:4 for he had often been restrained with shackles and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the shackles he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him.

Mark 5:5 Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always howling and bruising himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him;

Mark 5:7 and he shouted at the top of his voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me.”

Mark 5:8 For he had said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

Mark 5:9 Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He replied, “My name is Legion; for we are many.”

Mark 5:10 He begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country.

Mark 5:11 Now there on the hillside a great herd of swine was feeding;

Mark 5:12 and the unclean spirits begged him, “Send us into the swine; let us enter them.”

Mark 5:13 So he gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea.

Mark 5:14 The swineherds ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came to see what it was that had happened.

Mark 5:15 They came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had had the legion; and they were afraid.

Mark 5:16 Those who had seen what had happened to the demoniac and to the swine reported it.

Mark 5:17 Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their neighborhood.

Mark 5:18 As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him.

Mark 5:19 But Jesus refused, and said to him, “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you.”

Mark 5:20 And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Mark 5:21 When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea.

Mark 5:22 Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet

Mark 5:23 and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.”

Mark 5:24 So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him.

Mark 5:25 Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years.

Mark 5:26 She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse.

Mark 5:27 She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,

Mark 5:28 for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.”

Mark 5:29 Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

Mark 5:30 Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?”

Mark 5:31 And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’“

Mark 5:32 He looked all around to see who had done it.

Mark 5:33 But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

Mark 5:35 While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?”

Mark 5:36 But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.”

Mark 5:37 He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.

Mark 5:38 When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.

Mark 5:39 When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.”

Mark 5:40 And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.

Mark 5:41 He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!”

Mark 5:42 And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement.

Mark 5:43 He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6:1 He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.

Mark 6:2 On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!

Mark 6:3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

Mark 6:4 Then Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.”

Mark 6:5 And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them.

Mark 6:6 And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching.

Mark 6:7 He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

Mark 6:8 He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts;

Mark 6:9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics.

Mark 6:10 He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place.

Mark 6:11 If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.”

Mark 6:12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent.

Mark 6:13 They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Mark 6:14 King Herod heard of it, for Jesus’ name had become known. Some were saying, “John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.”

Mark 6:15 But others said, “It is Elijah.” And others said, “It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.”

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard of it, he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.”

Mark 6:17 For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, because Herod had married her.

Mark 6:18 For John had been telling Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”

Mark 6:19 And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not,

Mark 6:20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him.

Mark 6:21 But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee.

Mark 6:22 When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.”

Mark 6:23 And he solemnly swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.”

Mark 6:24 She went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?” She replied, “The head of John the baptizer.”

Mark 6:25 Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

Mark 6:26 The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her.

Mark 6:27 Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison,

Mark 6:28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

Mark 6:32 And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.

Mark 6:33 Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.

Mark 6:34 As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:35 When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late;

Mark 6:36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat."

Mark 6:37 But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?"

Mark 6:38 And he said to them, "How many loaves have you? Go and see." When they had found out, they said, "Five, and two fish."

Mark 6:39 Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass.

Mark 6:40 So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties.

Mark 6:41 Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all.

Mark 6:42 And all ate and were filled;

Mark 6:43 and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish.

Mark 6:44 Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.

Mark 6:45 Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd.

Mark 6:46 After saying farewell to them, he went up on the mountain to pray.

Mark 6:47 When evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land.

Mark 6:48 When he saw that they were straining at the oars against an adverse wind, he came towards them early in the morning, walking on the sea. He intended to pass them by.

Mark 6:49 But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out;

Mark 6:50 for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.”

Mark 6:51 Then he got into the boat with them and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded,

Mark 6:52 for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Mark 6:53 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat.

Mark 6:54 When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him,

Mark 6:55 and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Mark 7:1 Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him,

Mark 7:2 they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them.

Mark 7:3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders;

Mark 7:4 and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.)

Mark 7:5 So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?”

Mark 7:6 He said to them, “Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me;

Mark 7:7 in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.’

Mark 7:8 You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition.”

Mark 7:9 Then he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition!

Mark 7:10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.’

Mark 7:11 But you say that if anyone tells father or mother, ‘Whatever support you might have had from me is Corban’ (that is, an offering to God)—

Mark 7:12 then you no longer permit doing anything for a father or mother,

Mark 7:13 thus making void the word of God through your tradition that you have handed on. And you do many things like this.”

Mark 7:14 Then he called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand:

Mark 7:15 there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.”

Mark 7:16

Mark 7:17 When he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.

Mark 7:18 He said to them, “Then do you also fail to understand? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile,

Mark 7:19 since it enters, not the heart but the stomach, and goes out into the sewer?” (Thus he declared all foods clean.)

Mark 7:20 And he said, “It is what comes out of a person that defiles.

Mark 7:21 For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder,

Mark 7:22 adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly.

Mark 7:23 All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.”

Mark 7:24 From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice,

Mark 7:25 but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet.

Mark 7:26 Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 He said to her, “Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.”

Mark 7:28 But she answered him, “Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

Mark 7:29 Then he said to her, “For saying that, you may go— the demon has left your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Mark 7:31 Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis.

Mark 7:32 They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him.

Mark 7:33 He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue.

Mark 7:34 Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”

Mark 7:35 And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.

Mark 7:36 Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

Mark 7:37 They were astounded beyond measure, saying, “He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.”

Mark 8:1 In those days when there was again a great crowd without anything to eat, he called his disciples and said to them,

Mark 8:2 “I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been with me now for three days and have nothing to eat.

Mark 8:3 If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way— and some of them have come from a great distance.”

Mark 8:4 His disciples replied, “How can one feed these people with bread here in the desert?”

Mark 8:5 He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven.”

Mark 8:6 Then he ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute; and they distributed them to the crowd.

Mark 8:7 They had also a few small fish; and after blessing them, he ordered that these too should be distributed.

Mark 8:8 They ate and were filled; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

Mark 8:9 Now there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.

Mark 8:10 And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:11 The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, asking him for a sign from heaven, to test him.

Mark 8:12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.”

Mark 8:13 And he left them, and getting into the boat again, he went across to the other side.

Mark 8:14 Now the disciples had forgotten to bring any bread; and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

Mark 8:15 And he cautioned them, saying, “Watch out— beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod.”

Mark 8:16 They said to one another, “It is because we have no bread.”

Mark 8:17 And becoming aware of it, Jesus said to them, “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened?

Mark 8:18 Do you have eyes, and fail to see? Do you have ears, and fail to hear? And do you not remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” They said to him, “Twelve.”

Mark 8:20 “And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?” And they said to him, “Seven.”

Mark 8:21 Then he said to them, “Do you not yet understand?”

Mark 8:22 They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him.

Mark 8:23 He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; and when he had put saliva on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, “Can you see anything?”

Mark 8:24 And the man looked up and said, “I can see people, but they look like trees, walking.”

Mark 8:25 Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he looked intently and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

Mark 8:26 Then he sent him away to his home, saying, “Do not even go into the village.”

Mark 8:27 Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?”

Mark 8:28 And they answered him, “John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.”

Mark 8:29 He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah.”

Mark 8:30 And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Mark 8:31 Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

Mark 8:32 He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

Mark 8:33 But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

Mark 8:34 He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Mark 8:35 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.

Mark 8:36 For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life?

Mark 8:37 Indeed, what can they give in return for their life?

Mark 8:38 Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9:1 And he said to them, “Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power.”

Mark 9:2 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them,

Mark 9:3 and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them.

Mark 9:4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

Mark 9:5 Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Mark 9:6 He did not know what to say, for they were terrified.

Mark 9:7 Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!”

Mark 9:8 Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

Mark 9:9 As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

Mark 9:11 Then they asked him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

Mark 9:12 He said to them, “Elijah is indeed coming first to restore all things. How then is it written about the Son of Man, that he is to go through many sufferings and be treated with contempt?

Mark 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written about him.”

Mark 9:14 When they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 When the whole crowd saw him, they were immediately overcome with awe, and they ran forward to greet him.

Mark 9:16 He asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?”

Mark 9:17 Someone from the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought you my son; he has a spirit that makes him unable to speak;

Mark 9:18 and whenever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so.”

Mark 9:19 He answered them, “You faithless generation, how much longer must I be among you? How much longer must I put up with you? Bring him to me.”

Mark 9:20 And they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 Jesus asked the father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood.

Mark 9:22 It has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you are able to do anything, have pity on us and help us.”

Mark 9:23 Jesus said to him, “If you are able!— All things can be done for the one who believes.”

Mark 9:24 Immediately the father of the child cried out, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

Mark 9:25 When Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You spirit that keeps this boy from speaking and hearing, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!"

Mark 9:26 After crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead."

Mark 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he was able to stand.

Mark 9:28 When he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Mark 9:29 He said to them, "This kind can come out only through prayer."

Mark 9:30 They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it;

Mark 9:31 for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again."

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Mark 9:33 Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?"

Mark 9:34 But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all."

Mark 9:36 Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them,

Mark 9:37 "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Mark 9:38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us."

Mark 9:39 But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me.

Mark 9:40 Whoever is not against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

Mark 9:42 "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.

Mark 9:43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire.

Mark 9:44

Mark 9:45 And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell.,

Mark 9:46

Mark 9:47 And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell,

Mark 9:48 where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

Mark 9:49 “For everyone will be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

Mark 10:1 He left that place and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan. And crowds again gathered around him; and, as was his custom, he again taught them.

Mark 10:2 Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

Mark 10:3 He answered them, “What did Moses command you?”

Mark 10:4 They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.”

Mark 10:5 But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you.

Mark 10:6 But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’

Mark 10:7 ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

Mark 10:8 and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Mark 10:9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

Mark 10:10 Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter.

Mark 10:11 He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her;

Mark 10:12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Mark 10:13 People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them.

Mark 10:14 But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Mark 10:15 Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.”

Mark 10:16 And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Mark 10:17 As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Mark 10:18 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Mark 10:19 You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’“

Mark 10:20 He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.”

Mark 10:21 Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

Mark 10:22 When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Mark 10:23 Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:24 And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:26 They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?”

Mark 10:27 Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Mark 10:28 Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

Mark 10:29 Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, Mark 10:30 who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age— houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions— and in the age to come eternal life.

Mark 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Mark 10:32 They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them; they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was to happen to him,

Mark 10:33 saying, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death; then they will hand him over to the Gentiles;

Mark 10:34 they will mock him, and spit upon him, and flog him, and kill him; and after three days he will rise again.”

Mark 10:35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.”

Mark 10:36 And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?”

Mark 10:37 And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.”

Mark 10:38 But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

Mark 10:39 They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;

Mark 10:40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

Mark 10:41 When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John.

Mark 10:42 So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.

Mark 10:43 But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,

Mark 10:44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.

Mark 10:45 For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:46 They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.

Mark 10:47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:48 Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:49 Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.”

Mark 10:50 So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Mark 10:51 Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.”

Mark 10:52 Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Mark 11:1 When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples

Mark 11:2 and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it.

Mark 11:3 If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.’“

Mark 11:4 They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it,

Mark 11:5 some of the bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

Mark 11:6 They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it.

Mark 11:7 Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it.

Mark 11:8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields.

Mark 11:9 Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Mark 11:10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

Mark 11:11 Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mark 11:12 On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

Mark 11:13 Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see whether perhaps he would find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

Mark 11:14 He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

Mark 11:15 Then they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling and those who were buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves;

Mark 11:16 and he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.

Mark 11:17 He was teaching and saying, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations’? But you have made it a den of robbers.”

Mark 11:18 And when the chief priests and the scribes heard it, they kept looking for a way to kill him; for they were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was spellbound by his teaching.

Mark 11:19 And when evening came, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.

Mark 11:20 In the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots.

Mark 11:21 Then Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.”

Mark 11:22 Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God.

Mark 11:23 Truly I tell you, if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and if you do not doubt in your heart, but believe that what you say will come to pass, it will be done for you.

Mark 11:24 So I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 “Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses.”

Mark 11:26

Mark 11:27 Again they came to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him

Mark 11:28 and said, “By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do them?”

Mark 11:29 Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mark 11:30 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin? Answer me.”

Mark 11:31 They argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’

Mark 11:32 But shall we say, ‘Of human origin’?”— they were afraid of the crowd, for all regarded John as truly a prophet.

Mark 11:33 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Mark 12:1 Then he began to speak to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a pit for the wine press, and built a watchtower; then he leased it to tenants and went to another country.

Mark 12:2 When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants to collect from them his share of the produce of the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 But they seized him, and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Mark 12:4 And again he sent another slave to them; this one they beat over the head and insulted.

Mark 12:5 Then he sent another, and that one they killed. And so it was with many others; some they beat, and others they killed.

Mark 12:6 He had still one other, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

Mark 12:7 But those tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Mark 12:8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Have you not read this scripture: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

Mark 12:11 this was the Lord’s doing, and it is amazing in our eyes’?”

Mark 12:12 When they realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowd. So they left him and went away.

Mark 12:13 Then they sent to him some Pharisees and some Herodians to trap him in what he said.

Mark 12:14 And they came and said to him, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?

Mark 12:15 Should we pay them, or should we not?” But knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, “Why are you putting me to the test? Bring me a denarius and let me see it.”

Mark 12:16 And they brought one. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.”

Mark 12:17 Jesus said to them, “Give to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were utterly amazed at him.

Mark 12:18 Some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, saying,

Mark 12:19 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no child, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother.

Mark 12:20 There were seven brothers; the first married and, when he died, left no children;

Mark 12:21 and the second married her and died, leaving no children; and the third likewise;

Mark 12:22 none of the seven left children. Last of all the woman herself died.

Mark 12:23 In the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had married her.”

Mark 12:24 Jesus said to them, “Is not this the reason you are wrong, that you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God?

Mark 12:25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 And as for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the story about the bush, how God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?

Mark 12:27 He is God not of the dead, but of the living; you are quite wrong.”

Mark 12:28 One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, “Which commandment is the first of all?”

Mark 12:29 Jesus answered, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one;

Mark 12:30 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

Mark 12:31 The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:32 Then the scribe said to him, “You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that ‘he is one, and besides him there is no other’;

Mark 12:33 and ‘to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,’ and ‘to love one’s neighbor as oneself,’— this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

Mark 12:34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” After that no one dared to ask him any question.

Mark 12:35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple, he said, “How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David?

Mark 12:36 David himself, by the Holy Spirit, declared, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet.”‘

Mark 12:37 David himself calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?” And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

Mark 12:38 As he taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces,

Mark 12:39 and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets!

Mark 12:40 They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

Mark 12:41 He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums.

Mark 12:42 A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny.

Mark 12:43 Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury.

Mark 12:44 For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Mark 13:1 As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!”

Mark 13:2 Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

Mark 13:3 When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

Mark 13:5 Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray.

Mark 13:6 Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray.

Mark 13:7 When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come.

Mark 13:8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Mark 13:9 “As for yourselves, beware; for they will hand you over to councils; and you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will stand before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them.

Mark 13:10 And the good news must first be proclaimed to all nations.

Mark 13:11 When they bring you to trial and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say; but say whatever is given you at that time, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

Mark 13:12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Mark 13:13 and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

Mark 13:14 “But when you see the desolating sacrilege set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains;

Mark 13:15 the one on the housetop must not go down or enter the house to take anything away;

Mark 13:16 the one in the field must not turn back to get a coat.

Mark 13:17 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!

Mark 13:18 Pray that it may not be in winter.

Mark 13:19 For in those days there will be suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, no, and never will be.

Mark 13:20 And if the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he has cut short those days.

Mark 13:21 And if anyone says to you at that time, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’ or ‘Look! There he is!’— do not believe it.

Mark 13:22 False messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, the elect.

Mark 13:23 But be alert; I have already told you everything.

Mark 13:24 “But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,

Mark 13:25 and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory.

Mark 13:27 Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

Mark 13:28 “From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Mark 13:29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Mark 13:30 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

Mark 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Mark 13:32 “But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Mark 13:33 Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come.

Mark 13:34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch.

Mark 13:35 Therefore, keep awake— for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn,

Mark 13:36 or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly.

Mark 13:37 And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

Mark 14:1 It was two days before the Passover and the festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him;

Mark 14:2 for they said, “Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people.”

Mark 14:3 While he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Mark 14:4 But some were there who said to one another in anger, “Why was the ointment wasted in this way?

Mark 14:5 For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her.

Mark 14:6 But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has performed a good service for me.

Mark 14:7 For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me.

Mark 14:8 She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial.

Mark 14:9 Truly I tell you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her.”

Mark 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.

Mark 14:11 When they heard it, they were greatly pleased, and promised to give him money. So he began to look for an opportunity to betray him.

Mark 14:12 On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, “Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

Mark 14:13 So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him,

Mark 14:14 and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’

Mark 14:15 He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

Mark 14:16 So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

Mark 14:17 When it was evening, he came with the twelve.

Mark 14:18 And when they had taken their places and were eating, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.”

Mark 14:19 They began to be distressed and to say to him one after another, “Surely, not I?”

Mark 14:20 He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the bowl with me.

Mark 14:21 For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that one not to have been born.”

Mark 14:22 While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.”

Mark 14:23 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it.

Mark 14:24 He said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

Mark 14:25 Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Mark 14:26 When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 And Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'

Mark 14:28 But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee."

Mark 14:29 Peter said to him, "Even though all become deserters, I will not."

Mark 14:30 Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this day, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."

Mark 14:31 But he said vehemently, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And all of them said the same.

Mark 14:32 They went to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

Mark 14:33 He took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be distressed and agitated.

Mark 14:34 And he said to them, "I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and keep awake."

Mark 14:35 And going a little farther, he threw himself on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

Mark 14:36 He said, "Abba, Father, for you all things are possible; remove this cup from me; yet, not what I want, but what you want."

Mark 14:37 He came and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep awake one hour?

Mark 14:38 Keep awake and pray that you may not come into the time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Mark 14:39 And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words.

Mark 14:40 And once more he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to say to him.

Mark 14:41 He came a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come; the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:42 Get up, let us be going. See, my betrayer is at hand."

Mark 14:43 Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived; and with him there was a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.

Mark 14:44 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard.”

Mark 14:45 So when he came, he went up to him at once and said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Mark 14:46 Then they laid hands on him and arrested him.

Mark 14:47 But one of those who stood near drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Mark 14:48 Then Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as though I were a bandit?

Mark 14:49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But let the scriptures be fulfilled.”

Mark 14:50 All of them deserted him and fled.

Mark 14:51 A certain young man was following him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth. They caught hold of him, Mark 14:52 but he left the linen cloth and ran off naked.

Mark 14:53 They took Jesus to the high priest; and all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes were assembled.

Mark 14:54 Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the guards, warming himself at the fire.

Mark 14:55 Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for testimony against Jesus to put him to death; but they found none.

Mark 14:56 For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony did not agree.

Mark 14:57 Some stood up and gave false testimony against him, saying,

Mark 14:58 “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands.’“

Mark 14:59 But even on this point their testimony did not agree.

Mark 14:60 Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Have you no answer? What is it that they testify against you?”

Mark 14:61 But he was silent and did not answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

Mark 14:62 Jesus said, “I am; and ‘you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power,’ and ‘coming with the clouds of heaven.’“

Mark 14:63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “Why do we still need witnesses?

Mark 14:64 You have heard his blasphemy! What is your decision?” All of them condemned him as deserving death.

Mark 14:65 Some began to spit on him, to blindfold him, and to strike him, saying to him, “Prophesy!” The guards also took him over and beat him.

Mark 14:66 While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came by.

Mark 14:67 When she saw Peter warming himself, she stared at him and said, “You also were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth.”

Mark 14:68 But he denied it, saying, “I do not know or understand what you are talking about.” And he went out into the forecourt. Then the cock crowed.

Mark 14:69 And the servant-girl, on seeing him, began again to say to the bystanders, “This man is one of them.”

Mark 14:70 But again he denied it. Then after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, “Certainly you are one of them; for you are a Galilean.”

Mark 14:71 But he began to curse, and he swore an oath, “I do not know this man you are talking about.”

Mark 14:72 At that moment the cock crowed for the second time. Then Peter remembered that Jesus had said to him, “Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15:1 As soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” He answered him, “You say so.”

Mark 15:3 Then the chief priests accused him of many things.

Mark 15:4 Pilate asked him again, “Have you no answer? See how many charges they bring against you.”

Mark 15:5 But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.

Mark 15:6 Now at the festival he used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked.

Mark 15:7 Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection.

Mark 15:8 So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom.

Mark 15:9 Then he answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?”

Mark 15:10 For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed him over.

Mark 15:11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead.

Mark 15:12 Pilate spoke to them again, “Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?”

Mark 15:13 They shouted back, “Crucify him!”

Mark 15:14 Pilate asked them, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Crucify him!”

Mark 15:15 So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas for them; and after flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 Then the soldiers led him into the courtyard of the palace (that is, the governor’s headquarters); and they called together the whole cohort.

Mark 15:17 And they clothed him in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him.

Mark 15:18 And they began saluting him, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Mark 15:19 They struck his head with a reed, spat upon him, and knelt down in homage to him.

Mark 15:20 After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

Mark 15:21 They compelled a passer-by, who was coming in from the country, to carry his cross; it was Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus.

Mark 15:22 Then they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull).

Mark 15:23 And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it.

Mark 15:24 And they crucified him, and divided his clothes among them, casting lots to decide what each should take.

Mark 15:25 It was nine o’clock in the morning when they crucified him.

Mark 15:26 The inscription of the charge against him read, “The King of the Jews.”

Mark 15:28

Mark 15:29 Those who passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying, “Aha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, Mark 15:30 save yourself, and come down from the cross!”

Mark 15:31 In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes, were also mocking him among themselves and saying, “He saved others; he cannot save himself.

Mark 15:32 Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe.” Those who were crucified with him also taunted him.

Mark 15:33 When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

Mark 15:34 At three o’clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

Mark 15:35 When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, “Listen, he is calling for Elijah.”

Mark 15:36 And someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.”

Mark 15:37 Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Mark 15:38 And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was God’s Son!”

Mark 15:40 There were also women looking on from a distance; among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

Mark 15:41 These used to follow him and provided for him when he was in Galilee; and there were many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

Mark 15:42 When evening had come, and since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

Mark 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council, who was also himself waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Mark 15:44 Then Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for some time.

Mark 15:45 When he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph.

Mark 15:46 Then Joseph bought a linen cloth, and taking down the body, wrapped it in the linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where the body was laid.

Mark 16:1 When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.

Mark 16:2 And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb.

Mark 16:3 They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?”

Mark 16:4 When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back.

Mark 16:5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

Mark 16:6 But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him.

Mark 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.”

Mark 16:8 So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mark 16:9 Now after he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

Mark 16:10 She went out and told those who had been with him, while they were mourning and weeping.

Mark 16:11 But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it.

Mark 16:12 After this he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking into the country.

Mark 16:13 And they went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them.

Mark 16:14 Later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were sitting at the table; and he upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen.

Mark 16:15 And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation.

Mark 16:16 The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: by using my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mark 16:18 they will pick up snakes in their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Mark 16:19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20 And they went out and proclaimed the good news everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by the signs that accompanied it.

Luke

1:1 Since many have undertaken to set down an orderly account of the events that have been fulfilled among us,

Luke 1:2 just as they were handed on to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word,

Luke 1:3 I too decided, after investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,

Luke 1:4 so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.

Luke 1:5 In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

Luke 1:6 Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord.

Luke 1:7 But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

Luke 1:8 Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty,

Luke 1:9 he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense.

Luke 1:10 Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside.

Luke 1:11 Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

Luke 1:12 When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him.

Luke 1:13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John.

Luke 1:14 You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, Luke 1:15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luke 1:16 He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God.

Luke 1:17 With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

Luke 1:18 Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years."

Luke 1:19 The angel replied, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

Luke 1:20 But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur."

Luke 1:21 Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary.

Luke 1:22 When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak.

Luke 1:23 When his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

Luke 1:24 After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said,

Luke 1:25 "This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people."

Luke 1:26 In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth,

Luke 1:27 to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

Luke 1:28 And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you."

Luke 1:29 But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

Luke 1:30 The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

Luke 1:31 And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus.

Luke 1:32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David.

Luke 1:33 He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.”

Luke 1:34 Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?”

Luke 1:35 The angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God.

Luke 1:36 And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren.

Luke 1:37 For nothing will be impossible with God.”

Luke 1:38 Then Mary said, “Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

Luke 1:39 In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country,

Luke 1:40 where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

Luke 1:41 When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit

Luke 1:42 and exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Luke 1:43 And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?

Luke 1:44 For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy.

Luke 1:45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord.”

Luke 1:46 And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord,

Luke 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

Luke 1:48 for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;

Luke 1:49 for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

Luke 1:50 His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

Luke 1:51 He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

Luke 1:52 He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly;

Luke 1:53 he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.

Luke 1:54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,

Luke 1:55 according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

Luke 1:56 And Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

Luke 1:57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son.

Luke 1:58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

Luke 1:59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father.

Luke 1:60 But his mother said, “No; he is to be called John.”

Luke 1:61 They said to her, “None of your relatives has this name.”

Luke 1:62 Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him.

Luke 1:63 He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” And all of them were amazed.

Luke 1:64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God.

Luke 1:65 Fear came over all their neighbors, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea.

Luke 1:66 All who heard them pondered them and said, “What then will this child become?” For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:67 Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy:

Luke 1:68 “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favorably on his people and redeemed them.

Luke 1:69 He has raised up a mighty savior for us in the house of his servant David,

Luke 1:70 as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,

Luke 1:71 that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

Luke 1:72 Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors, and has remembered his holy covenant,

Luke 1:73 the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham, to grant us

Luke 1:74 that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

Luke 1:75 in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

Luke 1:76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,

Luke 1:77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins.

Luke 1:78 By the tender mercy of our God, the dawn from on high will break upon us,

Luke 1:79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

Luke 1:80 The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he appeared publicly to Israel.

Luke 2:1 In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered.

Luke 2:2 This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.

Luke 2:3 All went to their own towns to be registered.

Luke 2:4 Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David.

Luke 2:5 He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

Luke 2:6 While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child.

Luke 2:7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8 In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Luke 2:9 Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Luke 2:10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see— I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people:

Luke 2:11 to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.

Luke 2:12 This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

Luke 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

Luke 2:15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.”

Luke 2:16 So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Luke 2:17 When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child;

Luke 2:18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them.

Luke 2:19 But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Luke 2:20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Luke 2:21 After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Luke 2:22 When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

Luke 2:23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord”),

Luke 2:24 and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”

Luke 2:25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

Luke 2:26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah.

Luke 2:27 Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law,

Luke 2:28 Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

Luke 2:29 “Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word;

Luke 2:30 for my eyes have seen your salvation,

Luke 2:31 which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

Luke 2:32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.”

Luke 2:33 And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.

Luke 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed Luke 2:35 so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed— and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

Luke 2:36 There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage,

Luke 2:37 then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day.

Luke 2:38 At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luke 2:39 When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

Luke 2:40 The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Luke 2:41 Now every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover.

Luke 2:42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival.

Luke 2:43 When the festival was ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it.

Luke 2:44 Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends.

Luke 2:45 When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him.

Luke 2:46 After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

Luke 2:47 And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

Luke 2:48 When his parents saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety."

Luke 2:49 He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

Luke 2:50 But they did not understand what he said to them.

Luke 2:51 Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.

Luke 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene,

Luke 3:2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came toJohn son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

Luke 3:3 He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins,

Luke 3:4 as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, “The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Luke 3:5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth;

Luke 3:6 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’“

Luke 3:7 John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Luke 3:8 Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Luke 3:9 Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

Luke 3:10 And the crowds asked him, “What then should we do?”

Luke 3:11 In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.”

Luke 3:12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?”

Luke 3:13 He said to them, “Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.”

Luke 3:14 Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

Luke 3:15 As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah,

Luke 3:16 John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

Luke 3:18 So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Luke 3:19 But Herod the ruler, who had been rebuked by him because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil things that Herod had done,

Luke 3:20 added to them all by shutting up John in prison.

Luke 3:21 Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened,

Luke 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

Luke 3:23 Jesus was about thirty years old when he began his work. He was the son (as was thought) of Joseph son of Heli,

Luke 3:24 son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph,

Luke 3:25 son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda,

Luke 3:27 son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri,

Luke 3:28 son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

Luke 3:29 son of Joshua, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi,

Luke 3:30 son of Simeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,

Luke 3:31 son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,

Luke 3:32 son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Sala, son of Nahshon,

Luke 3:33 son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

Luke 3:34 son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor, Luke 3:35 son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech,

Luke 3:37 son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan,

Luke 3:38 son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

Luke 4:1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,

Luke 4:2 where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished.

Luke 4:3 The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

Luke 4:4 Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’“

Luke 4:5 Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.

Luke 4:6 And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please.

Luke 4:7 If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.”

Luke 4:8 Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’“

Luke 4:9 Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here,

Luke 4:10 for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’

Luke 4:11 and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’“

Luke 4:12 Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’“

Luke 4:13 When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Luke 4:14 Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country.

Luke 4:15 He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

Luke 4:16 When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read,

Luke 4:17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, Luke 4:19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

Luke 4:20 And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

Luke 4:21 Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

Luke 4:22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?”

Luke 4:23 He said to them, “Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, ‘Doctor, cure yourself!’ And you will say, ‘Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.’“

Luke 4:24 And he said, “Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet’s hometown.

Luke 4:25 But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land;

Luke 4:26 yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon.

Luke 4:27 There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.”

Luke 4:28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage.

Luke 4:29 They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff.

Luke 4:30 But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Luke 4:31 He went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and was teaching them on the sabbath.

Luke 4:32 They were astounded at his teaching, because he spoke with authority.

Luke 4:33 In the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, Luke 4:34 “Let us alone! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.”

Luke 4:35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” When the demon had thrown him down before them, he came out of him without having done him any harm.

Luke 4:36 They were all amazed and kept saying to one another, “What kind of utterance is this? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and out they come!”

Luke 4:37 And a report about him began to reach every place in the region.

Luke 4:38 After leaving the synagogue he entered Simon’s house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him about her.

Luke 4:39 Then he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Immediately she got up and began to serve them.

Luke 4:40 As the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various kinds of diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on each of them and cured them.

Luke 4:41 Demons also came out of many, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

Luke 4:42 At daybreak he departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowds were looking for him; and when they reached him, they wanted to prevent him from leaving them.

Luke 4:43 But he said to them, “I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose.”

Luke 4:44 So he continued proclaiming the message in the synagogues of Judea.

Luke 5:1 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God,

Luke 5:2 he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

Luke 5:3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

Luke 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.”

Luke 5:5 Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.”

Luke 5:6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.

Luke 5:7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

Luke 5:8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

Luke 5:9 For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken;

Luke 5:10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."

Luke 5:11 When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:12 Once, when he was in one of the cities, there was a man covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean."

Luke 5:13 Then Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him, and said, "I do choose. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy left him.

Luke 5:14 And he ordered him to tell no one. "Go," he said, "and show yourself to the priest, and, as Moses commanded, make an offering for your cleansing, for a testimony to them."

Luke 5:15 But now more than ever the word about Jesus spread abroad; many crowds would gather to hear him and to be cured of their diseases.

Luke 5:16 But he would withdraw to deserted places and pray.

Luke 5:17 One day, while he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting near by (they had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem); and the power of the Lord was with him to heal.

Luke 5:18 Just then some men came, carrying a paralyzed man on a bed. They were trying to bring him in and lay him before Jesus;

Luke 5:19 but finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus.

Luke 5:20 When he saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you."

Luke 5:21 Then the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, "Who is this who is speaking blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

Luke 5:22 When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, "Why do you raise such questions in your hearts?

Luke 5:23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'?

Luke 5:24 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"— he said to the one who was paralyzed— "I say to you, stand up and take your bed and go to your home."

Luke 5:25 Immediately he stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went to his home, glorifying God.

Luke 5:26 Amazement seized all of them, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

Luke 5:27 After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me."

Luke 5:28 And he got up, left everything, and followed him.

Luke 5:29 Then Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them.

Luke 5:30 The Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

Luke 5:31 Jesus answered, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick;

Luke 5:32 I have come to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance."

Luke 5:33 Then they said to him, "John's disciples, like the disciples of the Pharisees, frequently fast and pray, but your disciples eat and drink.

Luke 5:34 Jesus said to them, "You cannot make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?

Luke 5:35 The days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

Luke 5:36 He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and sews it on an old garment; otherwise the new will be torn, and the piece from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new wine will burst the skins and will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.

Luke 5:38 But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.

Luke 5:39 And no one after drinking old wine desires new wine, but says, 'The old is good.'"

Luke 6:1 One sabbath while Jesus was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked some heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them.

Luke 6:2 But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?”

Luke 6:3 Jesus answered, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Luke 6:4 He entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and gave some to his companions?”

Luke 6:5 Then he said to them, “The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath.”

Luke 6:6 On another sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there whose right hand was withered.

Luke 6:7 The scribes and the Pharisees watched him to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him.

Luke 6:8 Even though he knew what they were thinking, he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come and stand here.” He got up and stood there.

Luke 6:9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to destroy it?”

Luke 6:10 After looking around at all of them, he said to him, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was restored.

Luke 6:11 But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Luke 6:12 Now during those days he went out to the mountain to pray; and he spent the night in prayer to God.

Luke 6:13 And when day came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles:

Luke 6:14 Simon, whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,

Luke 6:15 and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was called the Zealot,

Luke 6:16 and Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Luke 6:17 He came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon.

Luke 6:18 They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured.

Luke 6:19 And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them.

Luke 6:20 Then he looked up at his disciples and said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

Luke 6:21 “Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. “Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

Luke 6:22 “Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man.

Luke 6:23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

Luke 6:24 “But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Luke 6:25 “Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. “Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

Luke 6:26 “Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

Luke 6:27 “But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

Luke 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.

Luke 6:29 If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Luke 6:30 Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again.

Luke 6:31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Luke 6:32 “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

Luke 6:34 If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6:36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Luke 6:37 “Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven;

Luke 6:38 give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

Luke 6:39 He also told them a parable: “Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?

Luke 6:40 A disciple is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully qualified will be like the teacher.

Luke 6:41 Why do you see the speck in your neighbor’s eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye?

Luke 6:42 Or how can you say to your neighbor, ‘Friend, let me take out the speck in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor’s eye.

Luke 6:43 “No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit;

Luke 6:44 for each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush.

Luke 6:45 The good person out of the good treasure of the heart produces good, and the evil person out of evil treasure produces evil; for it is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth speaks.

Luke 6:46 “Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I tell you?

Luke 6:47 I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them.

Luke 6:48 That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

Luke 6:49 But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against it, immediately it fell, and great was the ruin of that house.”

Luke 7:1 After Jesus had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.

Luke 7:2 A centurion there had a slave whom he valued highly, and who was ill and close to death.

Luke 7:3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave.

Luke 7:4 When they came to Jesus, they appealed to him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy of having you do this for him,

Luke 7:5 for he loves our people, and it is he who built our synagogue for us.”

Luke 7:6 And Jesus went with them, but when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof;

Luke 7:7 therefore I did not presume to come to you. But only speak the word, and let my servant be healed.

Luke 7:8 For I also am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and the slave does it.”

Luke 7:9 When Jesus heard this he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, he said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.”

Luke 7:10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

Luke 7:11 Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him.

Luke 7:12 As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother’s only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town.

Luke 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, “Do not weep.”

Luke 7:14 Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, rise!”

Luke 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

Luke 7:16 Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has risen among us!” and “God has looked favorably on his people!”

Luke 7:17 This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Luke 7:18 The disciples of John reported all these things to him. So John summoned two of his disciples

Luke 7:19 and sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?”

Luke 7:20 When the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?’“

Luke 7:21 Jesus had just then cured many people of diseases, plagues, and evil spirits, and had given sight to many who were blind.

Luke 7:22 And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news brought to them.

Luke 7:23 And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

Luke 7:24 When John’s messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

Luke 7:25 What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who put on fine clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces.

Luke 7:26 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Luke 7:27 This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

Luke 7:28 I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

Luke 7:29 (And all the people who heard this, including the tax collectors, acknowledged the justice of God, because they had been baptized with John's baptism.

Luke 7:30 But by refusing to be baptized by him, the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves.)

Luke 7:31 "To what then will I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.'

Luke 7:33 For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon';

Luke 7:34 the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

Luke 7:35 Nevertheless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

Luke 7:36 One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table.

Luke 7:37 And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment.

Luke 7:38 She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment.

Luke 7:39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him— that she is a sinner."

Luke 7:40 Jesus spoke up and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Teacher," he replied, "Speak."

Luke 7:41 "A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

Luke 7:42 When they could not pay, he canceled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?”

Luke 7:43 Simon answered, “I suppose the one for whom he canceled the greater debt.” And Jesus said to him, “You have judged rightly.”

Luke 7:44 Then turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

Luke 7:45 You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet.

Luke 7:46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

Luke 7:47 Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.”

Luke 7:48 Then he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

Luke 7:49 But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

Luke 7:50 And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8:1 Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him,

Luke 8:2 as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

Luke 8:3 and Joanna, the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.

Luke 8:4 When a great crowd gathered and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable:

Luke 8:5 “A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell on the path and was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up.

Luke 8:6 Some fell on the rock; and as it grew up, it withered for lack of moisture.

Luke 8:7 Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it.

Luke 8:8 Some fell into good soil, and when it grew, it produced a hundredfold.” As he said this, he called out, “Let anyone with ears to hear listen!”

Luke 8:9 Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant.

Luke 8:10 He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to others I speak in parables, so that 'looking they may not perceive, and listening they may not understand.'

Luke 8:11 "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

Luke 8:12 The ones on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

Luke 8:13 The ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe only for a while and in a time of testing fall away.

Luke 8:14 As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

Luke 8:15 But as for that in the good soil, these are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance.

Luke 8:16 "No one after lighting a lamp hides it under a jar, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 8:17 For nothing is hidden that will not be disclosed, nor is anything secret that will not become known and come to light.

Luke 8:18 Then pay attention to how you listen; for to those who have, more will be given; and from those who do not have, even what they seem to have will be taken away."

Luke 8:19 Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

Luke 8:21 But he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

Luke 8:22 One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they put out,

Luke 8:23 and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.

Luke 8:24 They went to him and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm.

Luke 8:25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

Luke 8:26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

Luke 8:27 As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs.

Luke 8:28 When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me”—

Luke 8:29 for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.)

Luke 8:30 Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” He said, “Legion”; for many demons had entered him.

Luke 8:31 They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Luke 8:32 Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.

Luke 8:33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

Luke 8:34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country.

Luke 8:35 Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

Luke 8:36 Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed.

Luke 8:37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

Luke 8:39 “Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.” So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8:40 Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.

Luke 8:41 Just then there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus’ feet and begged him to come to his house, Luke 8:42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying. As he went, the crowds pressed in on him.

Luke 8:43 Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her.

Luke 8:44 She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped.

Luke 8:45 Then Jesus asked, “Who touched me?” When all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you.”

Luke 8:46 But Jesus said, “Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me.”

Luke 8:47 When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed.

Luke 8:48 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

Luke 8:49 While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer.”

Luke 8:50 When Jesus heard this, he replied, “Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved.”

Luke 8:51 When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child’s father and mother.

Luke 8:52 They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, “Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping.”

Luke 8:53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

Luke 8:54 But he took her by the hand and called out, “Child, get up!”

Luke 8:55 Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat.

Luke 8:56 Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke 9:1 Then Jesus called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases,

Luke 9:2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal.

Luke 9:3 He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money— not even an extra tunic.

Luke 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there, and leave from there.

Luke 9:5 Wherever they do not welcome you, as you are leaving that town shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”

Luke 9:6 They departed and went through the villages, bringing the good news and curing diseases everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Now Herod the ruler heard about all that had taken place, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead,

Luke 9:8 by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the ancient prophets had arisen.

Luke 9:9 Herod said, “John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear such things?” And he tried to see him.

Luke 9:10 On their return the apostles told Jesus all they had done. He took them with him and withdrew privately to a city called Bethsaida.

Luke 9:11 When the crowds found out about it, they followed him; and he welcomed them, and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured.

Luke 9:12 The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, “Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place.”

Luke 9:13 But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish— unless we are to go and buy food for all these people.”

Luke 9:14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”

Luke 9:15 They did so and made them all sit down.

Luke 9:16 And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

Luke 9:17 And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Luke 9:18 Once when Jesus was praying alone, with only the disciples near him, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

Luke 9:19 They answered, “John the Baptist; but others, Elijah; and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has arisen.”

Luke 9:20 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered, “The Messiah of God.”

Luke 9:21 He sternly ordered and commanded them not to tell anyone,

Luke 9:22 saying, “The Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”

Luke 9:23 Then he said to them all, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:24 For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it.

Luke 9:25 What does it profit them if they gain the whole world, but lose or forfeit themselves?

Luke 9:26 Those who are ashamed of me and of my words, of them the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 But truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:28 Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

Luke 9:29 And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Luke 9:30 Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him.

Luke 9:31 They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Luke 9:32 Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

Luke 9:33 Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”— not knowing what he said.

Luke 9:34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud.

Luke 9:35 Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!”

Luke 9:36 When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Luke 9:37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

Luke 9:38 Just then a man from the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child.

Luke 9:39 Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him.

Luke 9:40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.”

Luke 9:41 Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.”

Luke 9:42 While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 And all were astounded at the greatness of God. While everyone was amazed at all that he was doing, he said to his disciples,

Luke 9:44 “Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands.”

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand this saying; its meaning was concealed from them, so that they could not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Luke 9:46 An argument arose among them as to which one of them was the greatest.

Luke 9:47 But Jesus, aware of their inner thoughts, took a little child and put it by his side,

Luke 9:48 and said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me; for the least among all of you is the greatest.”

Luke 9:49 John answered, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us.”

Luke 9:50 But Jesus said to him, “Do not stop him; for whoever is not against you is for you.”

Luke 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:52 And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him;

Luke 9:53 but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, “Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?”

Luke 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them.

Luke 9:56 Then they went on to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.”

Luke 9:58 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”

Luke 9:59 To another he said, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

Luke 9:60 But Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:61 Another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.”

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.

Luke 10:2 He said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Luke 10:3 Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves.

Luke 10:4 Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this house!’

Luke 10:6 And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

Luke 10:7 Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you;

Luke 10:9 cure the sick who are there, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’

Luke 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

Luke 10:11 ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.’

Luke 10:12 I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the deeds of power done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Luke 10:14 But at the judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Luke 10:15 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades.

Luke 10:16 “Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.”

Luke 10:17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!”

Luke 10:18 He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.

Luke 10:19 See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Luke 10:21 At that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

Luke 10:23 Then turning to the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!

Luke 10:24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.”

Luke 10:25 Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 10:26 He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?”

Luke 10:27 He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”

Luke 10:28 And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

Luke 10:29 But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.

Luke 10:34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.'

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

Luke 10:37 He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Luke 10:38 Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

Luke 10:39 She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me."

Luke 10:41 But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things;

Luke 10:42 there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

Luke 11:1 He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."

Luke 11:2 He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.

Luke 11:4 And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial."

Luke 11:5 And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread;

Luke 11:6 for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.'

Luke 11:7 And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.'

Luke 11:8 I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

Luke 11:9 “So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Luke 11:10 For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luke 11:11 Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish?

Luke 11:12 Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Luke 11:14 Now he was casting out a demon that was mute; when the demon had gone out, the one who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were amazed.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons.”

Luke 11:16 Others, to test him, kept demanding from him a sign from heaven.

Luke 11:17 But he knew what they were thinking and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself becomes a desert, and house falls on house.

Luke 11:18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?— for you say that I cast out the demons by Beelzebul.

Luke 11:19 Now if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your exorcists cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

Luke 11:20 But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out the demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

Luke 11:21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his castle, his property is safe.

Luke 11:22 But when one stronger than he attacks him and overpowers him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his plunder.

Luke 11:23 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Luke 11:24 “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it wanders through waterless regions looking for a resting place, but not finding any, it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’

Luke 11:25 When it comes, it finds it swept and put in order.

Luke 11:26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there; and the last state of that person is worse than the first.”

Luke 11:27 While he was saying this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts that nursed you!”

Luke 11:28 But he said, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!”

Luke 11:29 When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This generation is an evil generation; it asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

Luke 11:30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be to this generation.

Luke 11:31 The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here!

Luke 11:32 The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

Luke 11:33 “No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar, but on the lampstand so that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light; but if it is not healthy, your body is full of darkness.

Luke 11:35 Therefore consider whether the light in you is not darkness.

Luke 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its rays.”

Luke 11:37 While he was speaking, a Pharisee invited him to dine with him; so he went in and took his place at the table.

Luke 11:38 The Pharisee was amazed to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

Luke 11:39 Then the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

Luke 11:40 You fools! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

Luke 11:41 So give for alms those things that are within; and see, everything will be clean for you.

Luke 11:42 “But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and herbs of all kinds, and neglect justice and the love of God; it is these you ought to have practiced, without neglecting the others.

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love to have the seat of honor in the synagogues and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without realizing it.”

Luke 11:45 One of the lawyers answered him, “Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us too.”

Luke 11:46 And he said, “Woe also to you lawyers! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not lift a finger to ease them.

Luke 11:47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your ancestors killed.

Luke 11:48 So you are witnesses and approve of the deeds of your ancestors; for they killed them, and you build their tombs.

Luke 11:49 Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,’

Luke 11:50 so that this generation may be charged with the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation.

Luke 11:52 Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering.”

Luke 11:53 When he went outside, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile toward him and to cross-examine him about many things,

Luke 11:54 lying in wait for him, to catch him in something he might say.

Luke 12:1 Meanwhile, when the crowd gathered by the thousands, so that they trampled on one another, he began to speak first to his disciples, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, that is, their hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 Nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known.

Luke 12:3 Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Luke 12:4 “I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more.

Luke 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him!

Luke 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight.

Luke 12:7 But even the hairs of your head are all counted. Do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 “And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God;

Luke 12:9 but whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say;

Luke 12:12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what you ought to say.”

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.”

Luke 12:14 But he said to him, “Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?”

Luke 12:15 And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”

Luke 12:16 Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly.

Luke 12:17 And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’

Luke 12:18 Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’

Luke 12:21 So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

Luke 12:22 He said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.

Luke 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.

Luke 12:24 Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds!

Luke 12:25 And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life?

Luke 12:26 If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest?

Luke 12:27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

Luke 12:28 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you— you of little faith!

Luke 12:29 And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying.

Luke 12:30 For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

Luke 12:31 Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

Luke 12:32 “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:33 Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

Luke 12:34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Luke 12:35 “Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit;

Luke 12:36 be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.

Luke 12:37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them.

Luke 12:38 If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

Luke 12:39 “But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

Luke 12:40 You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

Luke 12:41 Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?”

Luke 12:42 And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

Luke 12:43 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives.

Luke 12:44 Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.

Luke 12:45 But if that slave says to himself, ‘My master is delayed in coming,’ and if he begins to beat the other slaves, men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk,

Luke 12:46 the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and put him with the unfaithful.

Luke 12:47 That slave who knew what his master wanted, but did not prepare himself or do what was wanted, will receive a severe beating.

Luke 12:48 But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating will receive a light beating. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.

Luke 12:49 “I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

Luke 12:50 I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed!

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

Luke 12:52 From now on five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three;

Luke 12:53 they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54 He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘It is going to rain’; and so it happens.

Luke 12:55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat’; and it happens.

Luke 12:56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Luke 12:57 “And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?

Luke 12:58 Thus, when you go with your accuser before a magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the case, or you may be dragged before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison.

Luke 12:59 I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.”

Luke 13:1 At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

Luke 13:2 He asked them, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans?

Luke 13:3 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did.

Luke 13:4 Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them— do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem?

Luke 13:5 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.”

Luke 13:6 Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none.

Luke 13:7 So he said to the gardener, ‘See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?’

Luke 13:8 He replied, ‘Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it.

Luke 13:9 If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.’“

Luke 13:10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

Luke 13:11 And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight.

Luke 13:12 When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are set free from your ailment.”

Luke 13:13 When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God.

Luke 13:14 But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, “There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.”

Luke 13:15 But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water?

Luke 13:16 And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?”

Luke 13:17 When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Luke 13:18 He said therefore, “What is the kingdom of God like? And to what should I compare it?

Luke 13:19 It is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in the garden; it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches.”

Luke 13:20 And again he said, “To what should I compare the kingdom of God?

Luke 13:21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

Luke 13:22 Jesus went through one town and village after another, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem.

Luke 13:23 Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few be saved?” He said to them,

Luke 13:24 “Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able.

Luke 13:25 When once the owner of the house has got up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, open to us,’ then in reply he will say to you, ‘I do not know where you come from.’

Luke 13:26 Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’

Luke 13:27 But he will say, ‘I do not know where you come from; go away from me, all you evildoers!’

Luke 13:28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out.

Luke 13:29 Then people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 Indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

Luke 13:31 At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.”

Luke 13:32 He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work.

Luke 13:33 Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’

Luke 13:34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!

Luke 13:35 See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’“

Luke 14:1 On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

Luke 14:2 Just then, in front of him, there was a man who had dropsy.

Luke 14:3 And Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to cure people on the sabbath, or not?”

Luke 14:4 But they were silent. So Jesus took him and healed him, and sent him away.

Luke 14:5 Then he said to them, “If one of you has a child or an ox that has fallen into a well, will you not immediately pull it out on a sabbath day?”

Luke 14:6 And they could not reply to this.

Luke 14:7 When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable.

Luke 14:8 “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host;

Luke 14:9 and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give this person your place,’ and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place.

Luke 14:10 But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.

Luke 14:11 For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Luke 14:12 He said also to the one who had invited him, “When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid.

Luke 14:13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Luke 14:14 And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

Luke 14:15 One of the dinner guests, on hearing this, said to him, “Blessed is anyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!”

Luke 14:16 Then Jesus said to him, “Someone gave a great dinner and invited many.

Luke 14:17 At the time for the dinner he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, ‘Come; for everything is ready now.’

Luke 14:18 But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a piece of land, and I must go out and see it; please accept my regrets.’

Luke 14:19 Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please accept my regrets.’

Luke 14:20 Another said, ‘I have just been married, and therefore I cannot come.’

Luke 14:21 So the slave returned and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his slave, ‘Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’

Luke 14:22 And the slave said, ‘Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.’

Luke 14:23 Then the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled.

Luke 14:24 For I tell you, none of those who were invited will taste my dinner.’“

Luke 14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them,

Luke 14:26 “Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it?

Luke 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him,

Luke 14:30 saying, ‘This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.’

Luke 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace.

Luke 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Luke 14:34 “Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored?

Luke 14:35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!”

Luke 15:1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him.

Luke 15:2 And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

Luke 15:3 So he told them this parable:

Luke 15:4 “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices.

Luke 15:6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’

Luke 15:7 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Luke 15:8 “Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’

Luke 15:10 Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Luke 15:11 Then Jesus said, “There was a man who had two sons.

Luke 15:12 The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.’ So he divided his property between them.

Luke 15:13 A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living.

Luke 15:14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need.

Luke 15:15 So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs.

Luke 15:16 He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.

Luke 15:17 But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger!

Luke 15:18 I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;

Luke 15:19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."'

Luke 15:20 So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.

Luke 15:21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

Luke 15:22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe— the best one— and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Luke 15:23 And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;

Luke 15:24 for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:25 "Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on.

Luke 15:27 He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'

Luke 15:28 Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.

Luke 15:29 But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends.

Luke 15:30 But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!'

Luke 15:31 Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

Luke 15:32 But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.’“

Luke 16:1 Then Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property.

Luke 16:2 So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’

Luke 16:3 Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.

Luke 16:4 I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’

Luke 16:5 So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

Luke 16:6 He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’

Luke 16:7 Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’

Luke 16:8 And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.

Luke 16:9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

Luke 16:10 “Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much.

Luke 16:11 If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches?

Luke 16:12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?

Luke 16:13 No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

Luke 16:14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all this, and they ridiculed him.

Luke 16:15 So he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of others; but God knows your hearts; for what is prized by human beings is an abomination in the sight of God.

Luke 16:16 “The law and the prophets were in effect until John came; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone tries to enter it by force.

Luke 16:17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one stroke of a letter in the law to be dropped.

Luke 16:18 “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and whoever marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

Luke 16:19 “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

Luke 16:20 And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores,

Luke 16:21 who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores.

Luke 16:22 The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

Luke 16:23 In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side.

Luke 16:24 He called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.’

Luke 16:25 But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.

Luke 16:26 Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’

Luke 16:27 He said, ‘Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house—

Luke 16:28 for I have five brothers— that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.’

Luke 16:29 Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’

Luke 16:30 He said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

Luke 16:31 He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’“

Luke 17:1 Jesus said to his disciples, “Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to anyone by whom they come!

Luke 17:2 It would be better for you if a millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea than for you to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

Luke 17:3 Be on your guard! If another disciple sins, you must rebuke the offender, and if there is repentance, you must forgive.

Luke 17:4 And if the same person sins against you seven times a day, and turns back to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive.”

Luke 17:5 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”

Luke 17:6 The Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.

Luke 17:7 “Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here at once and take your place at the table’?

Luke 17:8 Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’?

Luke 17:9 Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded?

Luke 17:10 So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’“

Luke 17:11 On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee.

Luke 17:12 As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance,

Luke 17:13 they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

Luke 17:14 When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean.

Luke 17:15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.

Luke 17:16 He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan.

Luke 17:17 Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they?

Luke 17:18 Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?”

Luke 17:19 Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

Luke 17:20 Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, “The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed;

Luke 17:21 nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you.”

Luke 17:22 Then he said to the disciples, “The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

Luke 17:23 They will say to you, ‘Look there!’ or ‘Look here!’ Do not go, do not set off in pursuit.

Luke 17:24 For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day.

Luke 17:25 But first he must endure much suffering and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so too it will be in the days of the Son of Man.

Luke 17:27 They were eating and drinking, and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed all of them.

Luke 17:28 Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building,

Luke 17:29 but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed all of them

Luke 17:30 —it will be like that on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

Luke 17:31 On that day, anyone on the housetop who has belongings in the house must not come down to take them away; and likewise anyone in the field must not turn back.

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife.

Luke 17:33 Those who try to make their life secure will lose it, but those who lose their life will keep it.

Luke 17:34 I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

Luke 17:35 There will be two women grinding meal together; one will be taken and the other left.”

Luke 17:36

Luke 17:37 Then they asked him, “Where, Lord?” He said to them, “Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.”

Luke 18:1 Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.

Luke 18:2 He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people.

Luke 18:3 In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Grant me justice against my opponent.’

Luke 18:4 For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, ‘Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone,

Luke 18:5 yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.’“ Luke 18:6 And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says.

Luke 18:7 And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them?

Luke 18:8 I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Luke 18:9 He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:

Luke 18:10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luke 18:11 The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.’

Luke 18:13 But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’

Luke 18:14 I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Luke 18:15 People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it.

Luke 18:16 But Jesus called for them and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

Luke 18:17 Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.”

Luke 18:18 A certain ruler asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 18:19 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Luke 18:20 You know the commandments: ‘You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honor your father and mother.’“

Luke 18:21 He replied, “I have kept all these since my youth.”

Luke 18:22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “There is still one thing lacking. Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

Luke 18:23 But when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich.

Luke 18:24 Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 18:26 Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

Luke 18:27 He replied, “What is impossible for mortals is possible for God.”

Luke 18:28 Then Peter said, “Look, we have left our homes and followed you.”

Luke 18:29 And he said to them, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, Luke 18:30 who will not get back very much more in this age, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Luke 18:31 Then he took the twelve aside and said to them, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished.

Luke 18:32 For he will be handed over to the Gentiles; and he will be mocked and insulted and spat upon.

Luke 18:33 After they have flogged him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again.”

Luke 18:34 But they understood nothing about all these things; in fact, what he said was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

Luke 18:35 As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

Luke 18:36 When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

Luke 18:37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

Luke 18:38 Then he shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:39 Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:40 Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, Luke 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me see again.”

Luke 18:42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has saved you.”

Luke 18:43 Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

Luke 19:1 He entered Jericho and was passing through it.

Luke 19:2 A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich.

Luke 19:3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature.

Luke 19:4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way.

Luke 19:5 When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.”

Luke 19:6 So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him.

Luke 19:7 All who saw it began to grumble and said, “He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.”

Luke 19:8 Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.”

Luke 19:9 Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham.

Luke 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.”

Luke 19:11 As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately.

Luke 19:12 So he said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to get royal power for himself and then return.

Luke 19:13 He summoned ten of his slaves, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, ‘Do business with these until I come back.’

Luke 19:14 But the citizens of his country hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to rule over us.’

Luke 19:15 When he returned, having received royal power, he ordered these slaves, to whom he had given the money, to be summoned so that he might find out what they had gained by trading.

Luke 19:16 The first came forward and said, ‘Lord, your pound has made ten more pounds.’

Luke 19:17 He said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because you have been trustworthy in a very small thing, take charge of ten cities.'

Luke 19:18 Then the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has made five pounds.'

Luke 19:19 He said to him, 'And you, rule over five cities.'

Luke 19:20 Then the other came, saying, 'Lord, here is your pound. I wrapped it up in a piece of cloth,

Luke 19:21 for I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man; you take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

Luke 19:22 He said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! You knew, did you, that I was a harsh man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?

Luke 19:23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank? Then when I returned, I could have collected it with interest.'

Luke 19:24 He said to the bystanders, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

Luke 19:25 (And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten pounds!')

Luke 19:26 'I tell you, to all those who have, more will be given; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Luke 19:27 But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them— bring them here and slaughter them in my presence.'"

Luke 19:28 After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29 When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples,

Luke 19:30 saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

Luke 19:31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'"

Luke 19:32 So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

Luke 19:34 They said, "The Lord needs it."

Luke 19:35 Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.

Luke 19:36 As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road.

Luke 19:37 As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen,

Luke 19:38 saying, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!”

Luke 19:39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, order your disciples to stop.”

Luke 19:40 He answered, “I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.”

Luke 19:41 As he came near and saw the city, he wept over it,

Luke 19:42 saying, “If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

Luke 19:43 Indeed, the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up ramparts around you and surround you, and hem you in on every side.

Luke 19:44 They will crush you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave within you one stone upon another; because you did not recognize the time of your visitation from God.”

Luke 19:45 Then he entered the temple and began to drive out those who were selling things there;

Luke 19:46 and he said, “It is written, ‘My house shall be a house of prayer’; but you have made it a den of robbers.”

Luke 19:47 Every day he was teaching in the temple. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people kept looking for a way to kill him;

Luke 19:48 but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people were spellbound by what they heard.

Luke 20:1 One day, as he was teaching the people in the temple and telling the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came with the elders

Luke 20:2 and said to him, “Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Who is it who gave you this authority?”

Luke 20:3 He answered them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell me:

Luke 20:4 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?”

Luke 20:5 They discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’

Luke 20:6 But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ all the people will stone us; for they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 So they answered that they did not know where it came from.

Luke 20:8 Then Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Luke 20:9 He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, and leased it to tenants, and went to another country for a long time.

Luke 20:10 When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants in order that they might give him his share of the produce of the vineyard; but the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:11 Next he sent another slave; that one also they beat and insulted and sent away empty-handed.

Luke 20:12 And he sent still a third; this one also they wounded and threw out.

Luke 20:13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.’

Luke 20:14 But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.’

Luke 20:15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When they heard this, they said, “Heaven forbid!”

Luke 20:17 But he looked at them and said, “What then does this text mean: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?

Luke 20:18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.”

Luke 20:19 When the scribes and chief priests realized that he had told this parable against them, they wanted to lay hands on him at that very hour, but they feared the people.

Luke 20:20 So they watched him and sent spies who pretended to be honest, in order to trap him by what he said, so as to hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

Luke 20:21 So they asked him, “Teacher, we know that you are right in what you say and teach, and you show deference to no one, but teach the way of God in accordance with truth.

Luke 20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?”

Luke 20:23 But he perceived their craftiness and said to them,

Luke 20:24 “Show me a denarius. Whose head and whose title does it bear?” They said, “The emperor’s.”

Luke 20:25 He said to them, “Then give to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

Luke 20:26 And they were not able in the presence of the people to trap him by what he said; and being amazed by his answer, they became silent.

Luke 20:27 Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him

Luke 20:28 and asked him a question, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother.

Luke 20:29 Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless;

Luke 20:30 then the second

Luke 20:31 and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless.

Luke 20:32 Finally the woman also died.

Luke 20:33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.”

Luke 20:34 Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage;

Luke 20:35 but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.

Luke 20:36 Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.

Luke 20:37 And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Luke 20:38 Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”

Luke 20:39 Then some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you have spoken well.”

Luke 20:40 For they no longer dared to ask him another question.

Luke 20:41 Then he said to them, “How can they say that the Messiah is David’s son?

Luke 20:42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand,

Luke 20:43 until I make your enemies your footstool.”‘

Luke 20:44 David thus calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?”

Luke 20:45 In the hearing of all the people he said to the disciples, Luke 20:46 “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets.

Luke 20:47 They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

Luke 21:1 He looked up and saw rich people putting their gifts into the treasury;

Luke 21:2 he also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins.

Luke 21:3 He said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them;

Luke 21:4 for all of them have contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Luke 21:5 When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said,

Luke 21:6 “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.”

Luke 21:7 They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?”

Luke 21:8 And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them.

Luke 21:9 “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.”

Luke 21:10 Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom;

Luke 21:11 there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

Luke 21:12 “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name.

Luke 21:13 This will give you an opportunity to testify.

Luke 21:14 So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance;

Luke 21:15 for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict.

Luke 21:16 You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death.

Luke 21:17 You will be hated by all because of my name.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.

Luke 21:19 By your endurance you will gain your souls.

Luke 21:20 “When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

Luke 21:21 Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must leave it, and those out in the country must not enter it;

Luke 21:22 for these are days of vengeance, as a fulfillment of all that is written.

Luke 21:23 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people;

Luke 21:24 they will fall by the edge of the sword and be taken away as captives among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

Luke 21:25 “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves.

Luke 21:26 People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in a cloud’ with power and great glory.

Luke 21:28 Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Luke 21:29 Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees;

Luke 21:30 as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near.

Luke 21:31 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luke 21:32 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place.

Luke 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Luke 21:34 “Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly,

Luke 21:35 like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth.

Luke 21:36 Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

Luke 21:37 Every day he was teaching in the temple, and at night he would go out and spend the night on the Mount of Olives, as it was called.

Luke 21:38 And all the people would get up early in the morning to listen to him in the temple.

Luke 22:1 Now the festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was near.

Luke 22:2 The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to put Jesus to death, for they were afraid of the people.

Luke 22:3 Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve;

Luke 22:4 he went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers of the temple police about how he might betray him to them.

Luke 22:5 They were greatly pleased and agreed to give him money.

Luke 22:6 So he consented and began to look for an opportunity to betray him to them when no crowd was present.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

Luke 22:8 So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us that we may eat it.”

Luke 22:9 They asked him, “Where do you want us to make preparations for it?”

Luke 22:10 “Listen,” he said to them, “when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house he enters

Luke 22:11 and say to the owner of the house, ‘The teacher asks you, “Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”‘

Luke 22:12 He will show you a large room upstairs, already furnished. Make preparations for us there.”

Luke 22:13 So they went and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

Luke 22:14 When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him.

Luke 22:15 He said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

Luke 22:16 for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 22:17 Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, “Take this and divide it among yourselves;

Luke 22:18 for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

Luke 22:19 Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Luke 22:20 And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.

Luke 22:21 But see, the one who betrays me is with me, and his hand is on the table.

Luke 22:22 For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but woe to that one by whom he is betrayed!"

Luke 22:23 Then they began to ask one another, which one of them it could be who would do this.

Luke 22:24 A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

Luke 22:25 But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors.

Luke 22:26 But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves.

Luke 22:27 For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.

Luke 22:28 "You are those who have stood by me in my trials;

Luke 22:29 and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom,

Luke 22:30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22:31 "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, Luke 22:32 but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

Luke 22:33 And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death!"

Luke 22:34 Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me."

Luke 22:35 He said to them, "When I sent you out without a purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "No, not a thing."

Luke 22:36 He said to them, "But now, the one who has a purse must take it, and likewise a bag. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one.

Luke 22:37 For I tell you, this scripture must be fulfilled in me, ‘And he was counted among the lawless’; and indeed what is written about me is being fulfilled.”

Luke 22:38 They said, “Lord, look, here are two swords.” He replied, “It is enough.”

Luke 22:39 He came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him.

Luke 22:40 When he reached the place, he said to them, “Pray that you may not come into the time of trial.”

Luke 22:41 Then he withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, knelt down, and prayed,

Luke 22:42 “Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me; yet, not my will but yours be done.”

Luke 22:43 Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

Luke 22:44 In his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

Luke 22:45 When he got up from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping because of grief,

Luke 22:46 and he said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not come into the time of trial.”

Luke 22:47 While he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him;

Luke 22:48 but Jesus said to him, “Judas, is it with a kiss that you are betraying the Son of Man?”

Luke 22:49 When those who were around him saw what was coming, they asked, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?”

Luke 22:50 Then one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But Jesus said, “No more of this!” And he touched his ear and healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple police, and the elders who had come for him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a bandit?

Luke 22:53 When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness!”

Luke 22:54 Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest’s house. But Peter was following at a distance.

Luke 22:55 When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

Luke 22:56 Then a servant-girl, seeing him in the firelight, stared at him and said, “This man also was with him.”

Luke 22:57 But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know him.”

Luke 22:58 A little later someone else, on seeing him, said, “You also are one of them.” But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

Luke 22:59 Then about an hour later still another kept insisting, “Surely this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.”

Luke 22:60 But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are talking about!” At that moment, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed.

Luke 22:61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.”

Luke 22:62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

Luke 22:63 Now the men who were holding Jesus began to mock him and beat him;

Luke 22:64 they also blindfolded him and kept asking him, “Prophesy! Who is it that struck you?”

Luke 22:65 They kept heaping many other insults on him.

Luke 22:66 When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought him to their council.

Luke 22:67 They said, “If you are the Messiah, tell us.” He replied, “If I tell you, you will not believe;

Luke 22:68 and if I question you, you will not answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

Luke 22:70 All of them asked, “Are you, then, the Son of God?” He said to them, “You say that I am.”

Luke 22:71 Then they said, “What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!”

Luke 23:1 Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate.

Luke 23:2 They began to accuse him, saying, “We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king.”

Luke 23:3 Then Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” He answered, “You say so.”

Luke 23:4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no basis for an accusation against this man.”

Luke 23:5 But they were insistent and said, “He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place.”

Luke 23:6 When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

Luke 23:7 And when he learned that he was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time.

Luke 23:8 When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some sign.

Luke 23:9 He questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer.

Luke 23:10 The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.

Luke 23:11 Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then he put an elegant robe on him, and sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies.

Luke 23:13 Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people,

Luke 23:14 and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him.

Luke 23:15 Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death.

Luke 23:16 I will therefore have him flogged and release him.”

Luke 23:17

Luke 23:18 Then they all shouted out together, “Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!”

Luke 23:19 (This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.)

Luke 23:20 Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again;

Luke 23:21 but they kept shouting, “Crucify, crucify him!”

Luke 23:22 A third time he said to them, “Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him.”

Luke 23:23 But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed.

Luke 23:24 So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted.

Luke 23:25 He released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished.

Luke 23:26 As they led him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27 A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him.

Luke 23:28 But Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luke 23:29 For the days are surely coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’

Luke 23:30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us’; and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’

Luke 23:31 For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Luke 23:32 Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him.

Luke 23:33 When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.

Luke 23:34 Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.” And they cast lots to divide his clothing.

Luke 23:35 And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!”

Luke 23:36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine,

Luke 23:37 and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”

Luke 23:38 There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.”

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, “Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”

Luke 23:40 But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?

Luke 23:41 And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."

Luke 23:42 Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Luke 23:43 He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Luke 23:44 It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon,

Luke 23:45 while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

Luke 23:46 Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last.

Luke 23:47 When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent."

Luke 23:48 And when all the crowds who had gathered there for this spectacle saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts.

Luke 23:49 But all his acquaintances, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Luke 23:50 Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph, who, though a member of the council,

Luke 23:51 had not agreed to their plan and action. He came from the Jewish town of Arimathea, and he was waiting expectantly for the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luke 23:53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid it in a rock-hewn tomb where no one had ever been laid.

Luke 23:54 It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning.

Luke 23:55 The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid.

Luke 23:56 Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Luke 24:1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared.

Luke 24:2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

Luke 24:3 but when they went in, they did not find the body.

Luke 24:4 While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

Luke 24:5 The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.

Luke 24:6 Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee,

Luke 24:7 that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.”

Luke 24:8 Then they remembered his words,

Luke 24:9 and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

Luke 24:10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles.

Luke 24:11 But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Luke 24:12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Luke 24:13 Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem,

Luke 24:14 and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

Luke 24:15 While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them,

Luke 24:16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

Luke 24:17 And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad.

Luke 24:18 Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?”

Luke 24:19 He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people,

Luke 24:20 and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him.

Luke 24:21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

Luke 24:22 Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning,

Luke 24:23 and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

Luke 24:24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him."

Luke 24:25 Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared!

Luke 24:26 Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?"

Luke 24:27 Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

Luke 24:28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on.

Luke 24:29 But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

Luke 24:31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight.

Luke 24:32 They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

Luke 24:33 That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together.

Luke 24:34 They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!"

Luke 24:35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Luke 24:36 While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

Luke 24:37 They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

Luke 24:38 He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?

Luke 24:39 Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

Luke 24:40 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

Luke 24:41 While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

Luke 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Luke 24:43 and he took it and ate in their presence.

Luke 24:44 Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you— that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.”

Luke 24:45 Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures,

Luke 24:46 and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day,

Luke 24:47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.

Luke 24:49 And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Luke 24:50 Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them.

Luke 24:51 While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven.

Luke 24:52 And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy;

Luke 24:53 and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

John

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was in the beginning with God.

John 1:3 All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being

John 1:4 in him was life, and the life was the light of all people.

John 1:5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

John 1:6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

John 1:7 He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

John 1:8 He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

John 1:9 The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him.

John 1:11 He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him.

John 1:12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God,

John 1:13 who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

John 1:14 And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

John 1:15 (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'")

John 1:16 From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

John 1:17 The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

John 1:19 This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

John 1:20 He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah."

John 1:21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."

John 1:22 Then they said to him, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

John 1:23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'" as the prophet Isaiah said.

John 1:24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

John 1:25 They asked him, "Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

John 1:26 John answered them, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know,

John 1:27 the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal."

John 1:28 This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

John 1:29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

John 1:30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'

John 1:31 I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel."

John 1:32 And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him.

John 1:33 I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’

John 1:34 And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

John 1:35 The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples,

John 1:36 and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!”

John 1:37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

John 1:38 When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?”

John 1:39 He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon.

John 1:40 One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.

John 1:41 He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed).

John 1:42 He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

John 1:43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”

John 1:44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

John 1:45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

John 1:46 Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

John 1:47 When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!”

John 1:48 Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.”

John 1:49 Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

John 1:50 Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.”

John 1:51 And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

John 2:1 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

John 2:2 Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

John 2:3 When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.”

John 2:4 And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.”

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

John 2:6 Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

John 2:7 Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim.

John 2:8 He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.” So they took it.

John 2:9 When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom

John 2:10 and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.”

John 2:11 Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

John 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they remained there a few days.

John 2:13 The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 2:14 In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

John 2:15 Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

John 2:16 He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father’s house a marketplace!”

John 2:17 His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.”

John 2:18 The Jews then said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?”

John 2:19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

John 2:20 The Jews then said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?”

John 2:21 But he was speaking of the temple of his body.

John 2:22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

John 2:23 When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing.

John 2:24 But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people

John 2:25 and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone.

John 3:1 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews.

John 3:2 He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.”

John 3:3 Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.”

John 3:4 Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?”

John 3:5 Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit.

John 3:6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:7 Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’

John 3:8 The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

John 3:9 Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?”

John 3:10 Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

John 3:11 “Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony.

John 3:12 If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

John 3:13 No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.

John 3:14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,

John 3:15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

John 3:17 “Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

John 3:18 Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

John 3:19 And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil.

John 3:20 For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed.

John 3:21 But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

John 3:22 After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he spent some time there with them and baptized.

John 3:23 John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim because water was abundant there; and people kept coming and were being baptized

John 3:24 —John, of course, had not yet been thrown into prison.

John 3:25 Now a discussion about purification arose between John’s disciples and a Jew.

John 3:26 They came to John and said to him, “Rabbi, the one who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you testified, here he is baptizing, and all are going to him.”

John 3:27 John answered, “No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven.

John 3:28 You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah, but I have been sent ahead of him.’

John 3:29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom’s voice. For this reason my joy has been fulfilled.

John 3:30 He must increase, but I must decrease.”

John 3:31 The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is above all.

John 3:32 He testifies to what he has seen and heard, yet no one accepts his testimony.

John 3:33 Whoever has accepted his testimony has certified this, that God is true.

John 3:34 He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure.

John 3:35 The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in his hands.

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever disobeys the Son will not see life, but must endure God’s wrath.

John 4:1 Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard, “Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John”

John 4:2 —although it was not Jesus himself but his disciples who baptized—

John 4:3 he left Judea and started back to Galilee.

John 4:4 But he had to go through Samaria.

John 4:5 So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

John 4:6 Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

John 4:7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.”

John 4:8 (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.)

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?” (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.)

John 4:10 Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:11 The woman said to him, “Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?

John 4:12 Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?”

John 4:13 Jesus said to her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,

John 4:14 but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.”

John 4:15 The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.”

John 4:16 Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come back.”

John 4:17 The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’;

John 4:18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!”

John 4:19 The woman said to him, “Sir, I see that you are a prophet.

John 4:20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.”

John 4:21 Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

John 4:22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

John 4:23 But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him.

John 4:24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

John 4:25 The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.”

John 4:26 Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking to you.”

John 4:27 Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, “What do you want?” or, “Why are you speaking with her?”

John 4:28 Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people,

John 4:29 “Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?”

John 4:30 They left the city and were on their way to him.

John 4:31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

John 4:32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”

John 4:33 So the disciples said to one another, “Surely no one has brought him something to eat?”

John 4:34 Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.

John 4:35 Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting.

John 4:36 The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.

John 4:37 For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.'

John 4:38 I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

John 4:39 Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done."

John 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.

John 4:41 And many more believed because of his word.

John 4:42 They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."

John 4:43 When the two days were over, he went from that place to Galilee

John 4:44 (for Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in the prophet's own country).

John 4:45 When he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, since they had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the festival; for they too had gone to the festival.

John 4:46 Then he came again to Cana in Galilee where he had changed the water into wine. Now there was a royal official whose son lay ill in Capernaum.

John 4:47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

John 4:48 Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe."

John 4:49 The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my little boy dies."

John 4:50 Jesus said to him, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started on his way.

John 4:51 As he was going down, his slaves met him and told him that his child was alive.

John 4:52 So he asked them the hour when he began to recover, and they said to him, "Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him."

John 4:53 The father realized that this was the hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he himself believed, along with his whole household.

John 4:54 Now this was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

John 5:1 After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 5:2 Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes.

John 5:3 In these lay many invalids— blind, lame, and paralyzed.

John 5:4

John 5:5 One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

John 5:6 When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be made well?”

John 5:7 The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.”

John 5:8 Jesus said to him, “Stand up, take your mat and walk.”

John 5:9 At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

John 5:10 So the Jews said to the man who had been cured, “It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat.”

John 5:11 But he answered them, “The man who made me well said to me, ‘Take up your mat and walk.’“

John 5:12 They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take it up and walk’?”

John 5:13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had disappeared in the crowd that was there.

John 5:14 Later Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you have been made well! Do not sin any more, so that nothing worse happens to you.”

John 5:15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

John 5:16 Therefore the Jews started persecuting Jesus, because he was doing such things on the sabbath.

John 5:17 But Jesus answered them, “My Father is still working, and I also am working.”

John 5:18 For this reason the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because he was not only breaking the sabbath, but was also calling God his own Father, thereby making himself equal to God.

John 5:19 Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.

John 5:20 The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing; and he will show him greater works than these, so that you will be astonished.

John 5:21 Indeed, just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes.

John 5:22 The Father judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son,

John 5:23 so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

John 5:24 Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

John 5:25 “Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

John 5:26 For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself;

John 5:27 and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

John 5:28 Do not be astonished at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice

John 5:29 and will come out— those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

John 5:30 “I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek to do not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

John 5:31 “If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

John 5:32 There is another who testifies on my behalf, and I know that his testimony to me is true.

John 5:33 You sent messengers to John, and he testified to the truth.

John 5:34 Not that I accept such human testimony, but I say these things so that you may be saved.

John 5:35 He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

John 5:36 But I have a testimony greater than John's. The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form,

John 5:38 and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent.

John 5:39 "You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf.

John 5:40 Yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

John 5:41 I do not accept glory from human beings.

John 5:42 But I know that you do not have the love of God in you.

John 5:43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him.

John 5:44 How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God?

John 5:45 Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope.

John 5:46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

John 5:47 But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

John 6:1 After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias.

John 6:2 A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick.

John 6:3 Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

John 6:4 Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.

John 6:5 When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?"

John 6:6 He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.

John 6:7 Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little."

John 6:8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,

John 6:9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?"

John 6:10 Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all.

John 6:11 Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

John 6:12 When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, “Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.”

John 6:13 So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

John 6:14 When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.”

John 6:15 When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

John 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

John 6:17 got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

John 6:18 The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing.

John 6:19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified.

John 6:20 But he said to them, “It is I; do not be afraid.”

John 6:21 Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

John 6:22 The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there. They also saw that Jesus had not got into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.

John 6:23 Then some boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

John 6:24 So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?”

John 6:26 Jesus answered them, “Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves.

John 6:27 Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.”

John 6:28 Then they said to him, “What must we do to perform the works of God?”

John 6:29 Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.”

John 6:30 So they said to him, “What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing?

John 6:31 Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’“

John 6:32 Then Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.

John 6:33 For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

John 6:34 They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.”

John 6:35 Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

John 6:36 But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe.

John 6:37 Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away;

John 6:38 for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

John 6:39 And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

John 6:40 This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day.”

John 6:41 Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.”

John 6:42 They were saying, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

John 6:43 Jesus answered them, “Do not complain among yourselves.

John 6:44 No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day.

John 6:45 It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.

John 6:46 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.

John 6:47 Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.

John 6:48 I am the bread of life.

John 6:49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

John 6:50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

John 6:52 The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

John 6:53 So Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

John 6:54 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day;

John 6:55 for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.

John 6:56 Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.

John 6:57 Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me.

John 6:58 This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

John 6:59 He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

John 6:60 When many of his disciples heard it, they said, “This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?”

John 6:61 But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, “Does this offend you?

John 6:62 Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?

John 6:63 It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life.

John 6:64 But among you there are some who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him.

John 6:65 And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father."

John 6:66 Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him.

John 6:67 So Jesus asked the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?"

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life.

John 6:69 We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

John 6:70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve? Yet one of you is a devil."

John 6:71 He was speaking of Judas son of Simon Iscariot, for he, though one of the twelve, was going to betray him.

John 7:1 After this Jesus went about in Galilee. He did not wish to go about in Judea because the Jews were looking for an opportunity to kill him.

John 7:2 Now the Jewish festival of Booths was near.

John 7:3 So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea so that your disciples also may see the works you are doing;

John 7:4 for no one who wants to be widely known acts in secret. If you do these things, show yourself to the world."

John 7:5 (For not even his brothers believed in him.)

John 7:6 Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always here.

John 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify against it that its works are evil.

John 7:8 Go to the festival yourselves. I am not going to this festival, for my time has not yet fully come."

John 7:9 After saying this, he remained in Galilee.

John 7:10 But after his brothers had gone to the festival, then he also went, not publicly but as it were in secret.

John 7:11 The Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is he?"

John 7:12 And there was considerable complaining about him among the crowds. While some were saying, "He is a good man," others were saying, "No, he is deceiving the crowd."

John 7:13 Yet no one would speak openly about him for fear of the Jews.

John 7:14 About the middle of the festival Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach.

John 7:15 The Jews were astonished at it, saying, “How does this man have such learning, when he has never been taught?”

John 7:16 Then Jesus answered them, “My teaching is not mine but his who sent me.

John 7:17 Anyone who resolves to do the will of God will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own.

John 7:18 Those who speak on their own seek their own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and there is nothing false in him.

John 7:19 “Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you looking for an opportunity to kill me?”

John 7:20 The crowd answered, “You have a demon! Who is trying to kill you?”

John 7:21 Jesus answered them, “I performed one work, and all of you are astonished.

John 7:22 Moses gave you circumcision (it is, of course, not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), and you circumcise a man on the sabbath.

John 7:23 If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath in order that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because I healed a man’s whole body on the sabbath?

John 7:24 Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.”

John 7:25 Now some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, “Is not this the man whom they are trying to kill?

John 7:26 And here he is, speaking openly, but they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Messiah?

John 7:27 Yet we know where this man is from; but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from.”

John 7:28 Then Jesus cried out as he was teaching in the temple, “You know me, and you know where I am from. I have not come on my own. But the one who sent me is true, and you do not know him.

John 7:29 I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me.”

John 7:30 Then they tried to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.

John 7:31 Yet many in the crowd believed in him and were saying, “When the Messiah comes, will he do more signs than this man has done?”

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering such things about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent temple police to arrest him.

John 7:33 Jesus then said, “I will be with you a little while longer, and then I am going to him who sent me.

John 7:34 You will search for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

John 7:35 The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we will not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?

John 7:36 What does he mean by saying, ‘You will search for me and you will not find me’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come’?”

John 7:37 On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me,

John 7:38 and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, ‘Out of the believer’s heart shall flow rivers of living water.’“

John 7:39 Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

John 7:40 When they heard these words, some in the crowd said, “This is really the prophet.”

John 7:41 Others said, “This is the Messiah.” But some asked, “Surely the Messiah does not come from Galilee, does he?

John 7:42 Has not the scripture said that the Messiah is descended from David and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?”

John 7:43 So there was a division in the crowd because of him.

John 7:44 Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

John 7:45 Then the temple police went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why did you not arrest him?”

John 7:46 The police answered, “Never has anyone spoken like this!”

John 7:47 Then the Pharisees replied, “Surely you have not been deceived too, have you?

John 7:48 Has any one of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him?

John 7:49 But this crowd, which does not know the law— they are accursed.”

John 7:50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus before, and who was one of them, asked,

John 7:51 “Our law does not judge people without first giving them a hearing to find out what they are doing, does it?”

John 7:52 They replied, “Surely you are not also from Galilee, are you? Search and you will see that no prophet is to arise from Galilee.”

John 7:53 Then each of them went home,

John 8:1 while Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them.

John 8:3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them,

John 8:4 they said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery.

John 8:5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?”

John 8:6 They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground.

John 8:7 When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

John 8:8 And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground.

John 8:9 When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

John 8:10 Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

John 8:11 She said, “No one, sir.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.”

John 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.”

John 8:13 Then the Pharisees said to him, “You are testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not valid.”

John 8:14 Jesus answered, “Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid because I know where I have come from and where I am going, but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

John 8:15 You judge by human standards; I judge no one.

John 8:16 Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is valid; for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent me.

John 8:17 In your law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is valid.

John 8:18 I testify on my own behalf, and the Father who sent me testifies on my behalf.”

John 8:19 Then they said to him, “Where is your Father?” Jesus answered, “You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also.”

John 8:20 He spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury of the temple, but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

John 8:21 Again he said to them, “I am going away, and you will search for me, but you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”

John 8:22 Then the Jews said, “Is he going to kill himself? Is that what he means by saying, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come’?”

John 8:23 He said to them, “You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.

John 8:24 I told you that you would die in your sins, for you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am he.”

John 8:25 They said to him, “Who are you?” Jesus said to them, “Why do I speak to you at all?

John 8:26 I have much to say about you and much to condemn; but the one who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him.”

John 8:27 They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.

John 8:28 So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will realize that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own, but I speak these things as the Father instructed me.

John 8:29 And the one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to him.”

John 8:30 As he was saying these things, many believed in him.

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples;

John 8:32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”

John 8:33 They answered him, “We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, ‘You will be made free’?”

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, “Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin.

John 8:35 The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever.

John 8:36 So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

John 8:37 I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you look for an opportunity to kill me, because there is no place in you for my word.

John 8:38 I declare what I have seen in the Father's presence; as for you, you should do what you have heard from the Father."

John 8:39 They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did,

John 8:40 but now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did.

John 8:41 You are indeed doing what your father does." They said to him, "We are not illegitimate children; we have one father, God himself."

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now I am here. I did not come on my own, but he sent me.

John 8:43 Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot accept my word.

John 8:44 You are from your father the devil, and you choose to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:45 But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me.

John 8:46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?

John 8:47 Whoever is from God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear them is that you are not from God."

John 8:48 The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

John 8:49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

John 8:50 Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is one who seeks it and he is the judge.

John 8:51 Very truly, I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

John 8:52 The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets; yet you say, 'Whoever keeps my word will never taste death.'

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets also died. Who do you claim to be?"

John 8:54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, he of whom you say, 'He is our God,' John 8:55 though you do not know him. But I know him; if I would say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him and I keep his word.

John 8:56 Your ancestor Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day; he saw it and was glad."

John 8:57 Then the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, before Abraham was, I am."

John 8:59 So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.

John 9:1 As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth.

John 9:2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

John 9:3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God's works might be revealed in him.

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work.

John 9:5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

John 9:6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes,

John 9:7 saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see.

John 9:8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"

John 9:9 Some were saying, "It is he." Others were saying, "No, but it is someone like him." He kept saying, "I am the man."

John 9:10 But they kept asking him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"

John 9:11 He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight."

John 9:12 They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.

John 9:14 Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

John 9:15 Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see."

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided.

John 9:17 So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is a prophet.”

John 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight

John 9:19 and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

John 9:20 His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

John 9:21 but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself.”

John 9:22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.

John 9:23 Therefore his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

John 9:24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner.”

John 9:25 He answered, “I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see.”

John 9:26 They said to him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

John 9:27 He answered them, “I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?”

John 9:28 Then they reviled him, saying, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

John 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from.”

John 9:30 The man answered, “Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes.

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will.

John 9:32 Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

John 9:34 They answered him, “You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?” And they drove him out.

John 9:35 Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

John 9:36 He answered, “And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him.”

John 9:37 Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he.”

John 9:38 He said, “Lord, I believe.” And he worshiped him.

John 9:39 Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind.”

John 9:40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, “Surely we are not blind, are we?”

John 9:41 Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, ‘We see,’ your sin remains.

John 10:1 “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit.

John 10:2 The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.

John 10:3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

John 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.

John 10:5 They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

John 10:6 Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

John 10:7 So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep.

John 10:8 All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them.

John 10:9 I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

John 10:11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

John 10:12 The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away— and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

John 10:13 The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep.

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me,

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:16 I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

John 10:17 For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

John 10:18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

John 10:19 Again the Jews were divided because of these words.

John 10:20 Many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is out of his mind. Why listen to him?"

John 10:21 Others were saying, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

John 10:22 At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter,

John 10:23 and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon.

John 10:24 So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

John 10:25 Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me;

John 10:26 but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep.

John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.

John 10:29 What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand.

John 10:30 The Father and I are one."

John 10:31 The Jews took up stones again to stone him.

John 10:32 Jesus replied, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone me?"

John 10:33 The Jews answered, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you, but for blasphemy, because you, though only a human being, are making yourself God."

John 10:34 Jesus answered, “Is it not written in your law, ‘I said, you are gods’?

John 10:35 If those to whom the word of God came were called ‘gods’— and the scripture cannot be annulled—

John 10:36 can you say that the one whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world is blaspheming because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’?

John 10:37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me.

John 10:38 But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.”

John 10:39 Then they tried to arrest him again, but he escaped from their hands.

John 10:40 He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing earlier, and he remained there.

John 10:41 Many came to him, and they were saying, “John performed no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true.”

John 10:42 And many believed in him there.

John 11:1 Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

John 11:2 Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill.

John 11:3 So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.”

John 11:4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

John 11:5 Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus,

John 11:6 after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

John 11:7 Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.”

John 11:8 The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?”

John 11:9 Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world.

John 11:10 But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them.”

John 11:11 After saying this, he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him.”

John 11:12 The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right.”

John 11:13 Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep.

John 11:14 Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead.

John 11:15 For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

John 11:16 Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

John 11:17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

John 11:18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away,

John 11:19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother.

John 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home.

John 11:21 Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.”

John 11:23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

John 11:24 Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”

John 11:25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live,

John 11:26 and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

John 11:27 She said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.”

John 11:28 When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

John 11:29 And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him.

John 11:30 Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

John 11:31 The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

John 11:32 When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

John 11:34 He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.”

John 11:35 Jesus began to weep.

John 11:36 So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

John 11:37 But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

John 11:38 Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

John 11:39 Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.”

John 11:40 Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?”

John 11:41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me.

John 11:42 I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.”

John 11:43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

John 11:44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

John 11:45 Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

John 11:46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what he had done.

John 11:47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council, and said, “What are we to do? This man is performing many signs.

John 11:48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and theRomans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation.”

John 11:49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all!

John 11:50 You do not understand that it is better for you to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed.”

John 11:51 He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation,

John 11:52 and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the dispersed children of God.

John 11:53 So from that day on they planned to put him to death.

John 11:54 Jesus therefore no longer walked about openly among the Jews, but went from there to a town called Ephraim in the region near the wilderness; and he remained there with the disciples.

John 11:55 Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves.

John 11:56 They were looking for Jesus and were asking one another as they stood in the temple, “What do you think? Surely he will not come to the festival, will he?”

John 11:57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where Jesus was should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

John 12:1 Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:2 There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him.

John 12:3 Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

John 12:4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said,

John 12:5 “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?”

John 12:6 (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.)

John 12:7 Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial.

John 12:8 You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.”

John 12:9 When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:10 So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well, John 12:11 since it was on account of him that many of the Jews were deserting and were believing in Jesus.

John 12:12 The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

John 12:13 So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord— the King of Israel!”

John 12:14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it; as it is written:

John 12:15 “Do not be afraid, daughter of Zion. Look, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey’s colt!”

John 12:16 His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written of him and had been done to him.

John 12:17 So the crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify.

John 12:18 It was also because they heard that he had performed this sign that the crowd went to meet him.

John 12:19 The Pharisees then said to one another, “You see, you can do nothing. Look, the world has gone after him!”

John 12:20 Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.

John 12:21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.”

John 12:22 Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

John 12:23 Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

John 12:24 Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

John 12:25 Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

John 12:26 Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

John 12:27 “Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say— ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.

John 12:28 Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”

John 12:29 The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”

John 12:30 Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

John 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

John 12:32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”

John 12:33 He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

John 12:34 The crowd answered him, “We have heard from the law that the Messiah remains forever. How can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?”

John 12:35 Jesus said to them, “The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness may not overtake you. If you walk in the darkness, you do not know where you are going.

John 12:36 While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light.” After Jesus had said this, he departed and hid from them.

John 12:37 Although he had performed so many signs in their presence, they did not believe in him.

John 12:38 This was to fulfill the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah: “Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

John 12:39 And so they could not believe, because Isaiah also said,

John 12:40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they might not look with their eyes, and understand with their heart and turn— and I would heal them.”

John 12:41 Isaiah said this because he saw his glory and spoke about him.

John 12:42 Nevertheless many, even of the authorities, believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue;

John 12:43 for they loved human glory more than the glory that comes from God.

John 12:44 Then Jesus cried aloud: “Whoever believes in me believes not in me but in him who sent me.

John 12:45 And whoever sees me sees him who sent me.

John 12:46 I have come as light into the world, so that everyone who believes in me should not remain in the darkness.

John 12:47 I do not judge anyone who hears my words and does not keep them, for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

John 12:48 The one who rejects me and does not receive my word has a judge; on the last day the word that I have spoken will serve as judge,

John 12:49 for I have not spoken on my own, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment about what to say and what to speak.

John 12:50 And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I speak, therefore, I speak just as the Father has told me.”

John 13:1 Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

John 13:2 The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper

John 13:3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God,

John 13:4 got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself.

John 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him.

John 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?”

John 13:7 Jesus answered, “You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

John 13:8 Peter said to him, “You will never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.”

John 13:9 Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!”

John 13:10 Jesus said to him, “One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.”

John 13:11 For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

John 13:12 After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you?

John 13:13 You call me Teacher and Lord— and you are right, for that is what I am.

John 13:14 So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet.

John 13:15 For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

John 13:16 Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them.

John 13:17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

John 13:18 I am not speaking of all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But it is to fulfill the scripture, 'The one who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.'

John 13:19 I tell you this now, before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe that I am he.

John 13:20 Very truly, I tell you, whoever receives one whom I send receives me; and whoever receives me receives him who sent me."

John 13:21 After saying this Jesus was troubled in spirit, and declared, "Very truly, I tell you, one of you will betray me."

John 13:22 The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he was speaking.

John 13:23 One of his disciples— the one whom Jesus loved— was reclining next to him;

John 13:24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speaking.

John 13:25 So while reclining next to Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

John 13:26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:27 After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "Do quickly what you are going to do."

John 13:28 Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him.

John 13:29 Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, "Buy what we need for the festival"; or, that he should give something to the poor.

John 13:30 So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.

John 13:31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.

John 13:32 If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once.

John 13:33 Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

John 13:34 I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

John 13:35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:36 Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you will follow afterward.”

John 13:37 Peter said to him, “Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

John 13:38 Jesus answered, “Will you lay down your life for me? Very truly, I tell you, before the cock crows, you will have denied me three times.

John 14:1 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me.

John 14:2 In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

John 14:4 And you know the way to the place where I am going.”

John 14:5 Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?”

John 14:6 Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:7 If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

John 14:8 Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.”

John 14:9 Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?

John 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works.

John 14:11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves.

John 14:12 Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.

John 14:13 I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

John 14:14 If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

John 14:15 “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

John 14:16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever.

John 14:17 This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

John 14:18 “I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you.

John 14:19 In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live.

John 14:20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

John 14:21 They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

John 14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?”

John 14:23 Jesus answered him, “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.

John 14:24 Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

John 14:25 “I have said these things to you while I am still with you.

John 14:26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

John 14:28 You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.

John 14:30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me;

John 14:31 but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us be on our way.

John 15:1 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower.

John 15:2 He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit.

John 15:3 You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you.

John 15:4 Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me.

John 15:5 I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

John 15:6 Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

John 15:7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

John 15:8 My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

John 15:9 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love.

John 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.

John 15:11 I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

John 15:12 "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

John 15:13 No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends if you do what I command you.

John 15:15 I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

John 15:16 You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.

John 15:17 I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

John 15:18 "If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me before it hated you.

John 15:19 If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world— therefore the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember the word that I said to you, 'Servants are not greater than their master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also.

John 15:21 But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me.

John 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 Whoever hates me hates my Father also.

John 15:24 If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not have sin. But now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.

John 15:25 It was to fulfill the word that is written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'

John 15:26 "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf.

John 15:27 You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16:1 "I have said these things to you to keep you from stumbling.

John 16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, an hour is coming when those who kill you will think that by doing so they are offering worship to God.

John 16:3 And they will do this because they have not known the Father or me.

John 16:4 But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you.

John 16:5 But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'

John 16:6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts.

John 16:7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment:

John 16:9 about sin, because they do not believe in me;

John 16:10 about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer;

John 16:11 about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

John 16:12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

John 16:13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

John 16:14 He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16:15 All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16:16 “A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me.”

John 16:17 Then some of his disciples said to one another, “What does he mean by saying to us, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me’; and ‘Because I am going to the Father’?”

John 16:18 They said, “What does he mean by this ‘a little while’? We do not know what he is talking about.”

John 16:19 Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, “Are you discussing among yourselves what I meant when I said, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me’?

John 16:20 Very truly, I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; you will have pain, but your pain will turn into joy.

John 16:21 When a woman is in labor, she has pain, because her hour has come. But when her child is born, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy of having brought a human being into the world.

John 16:22 So you have pain now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.

John 16:23 On that day you will ask nothing of me. Very truly, I tell you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.

John 16:24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

John 16:25 “I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures, but will tell you plainly of the Father.

John 16:26 On that day you will ask in my name. I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf;

John 16:27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

John 16:28 I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father.”

John 16:29 His disciples said, “Yes, now you are speaking plainly, not in any figure of speech!

John 16:30 Now we know that you know all things, and do not need to have anyone question you; by this we believe that you came from God.”

John 16:31 Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe?

John 16:32 The hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each one to his home, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me.

John 16:33 I have said this to you, so that in me you may have peace. In the world you face persecution. But take courage; I have conquered the world!”

John 17:1 After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you,

John 17:2 since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him.

John 17:3 And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

John 17:4 I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do.

John 17:5 So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

John 17:6 “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

John 17:7 Now they know that everything you have given me is from you;

John 17:8 for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

John 17:9 I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.

John 17:10 All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them.

John 17:11 And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

John 17:12 While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled.

John 17:13 But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

John 17:14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

John 17:15 I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

John 17:16 They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

John 17:17 Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

John 17:18 As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

John 17:19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

John 17:20 “I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word,

John 17:21 that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

John 17:22 The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one,

John 17:23 I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

John 17:24 Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

John 17:25 “Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me.

John 17:26 I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

John 18:1 After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.

John 18:2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples.

John 18:3 So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

John 18:4 Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them, “Whom are you looking for?”

John 18:5 They answered, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus replied, “I am he.” Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.

John 18:6 When Jesus said to them, “I am he,” they stepped back and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 Again he asked them, “Whom are you looking for?” And they said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

John 18:8 Jesus answered, “I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go.”

John 18:9 This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, “I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me.”

John 18:10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest’s slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave’s name was Malchus.

John 18:11 Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?”

John 18:12 So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him.

John 18:13 First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

John 18:14 Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people.

John 18:15 Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest,

John 18:16 but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in.

John 18:17 The woman said to Peter, “You are not also one of this man’s disciples, are you?” He said, “I am not.”

John 18:18 Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

John 18:19 Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

John 18:20 Jesus answered, “I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret.

John 18:21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said.”

John 18:22 When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying, “Is that how you answer the high priest?”

John 18:23 Jesus answered, “If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?”

John 18:24 Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

John 18:25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him, “You are not also one of his disciples, are you?” He denied it and said, “I am not.”

John 18:26 One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Did I not see you in the garden with him?”

John 18:27 Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed.

John 18:28 Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate’s headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate went out to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this man?”

John 18:30 They answered, “If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.”

John 18:31 Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.” The Jews replied, “We are not permitted to put anyone to death.”

John 18:32 (This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die.)

John 18:33 Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

John 18:34 Jesus answered, “Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?”

John 18:35 Pilate replied, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?”

John 18:36 Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.”

John 18:37 Pilate asked him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

John 18:38 Pilate asked him, “What is truth?” After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I find no case against him.

John 18:39 But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?”

John 18:40 They shouted in reply, “Not this man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a bandit.

John 19:1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

John 19:2 And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe.

John 19:3 They kept coming up to him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and striking him on the face.

John 19:4 Pilate went out again and said to them, “Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him.”

John 19:5 So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, “Here is the man!”

John 19:6 When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted, “Crucify him! Crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him.”

John 19:7 The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God.”

John 19:8 Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever.

John 19:9 He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer.

John 19:10 Pilate therefore said to him, “Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?”

John 19:11 Jesus answered him, “You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

John 19:12 From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, “If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.”

John 19:13 When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge’s bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha.

John 19:14 Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews, “Here is your King!”

John 19:15 They cried out, “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!” Pilate asked them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but the emperor.”

John 19:16 Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus;

John 19:17 and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.

John 19:18 There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them.

John 19:19 Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.”

John 19:20 Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

John 19:21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘This man said, I am King of the Jews.’“

John 19:22 Pilate answered, “What I have written I have written.”

John 19:23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top.

John 19:24 So they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.” This was to fulfill what the scripture says, “They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.”

John 19:25 And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

John 19:26 When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, “Woman, here is your son.”

John 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

John 19:28 After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture), “I am thirsty.”

John 19:29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth.

John 19:30 When Jesus had received the wine, he said, “It is finished.” Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

John 19:31 Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed.

John 19:32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him.

John 19:33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

John 19:34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.

John 19:35 (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.)

John 19:36 These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, “None of his bones shall be broken.”

John 19:37 And again another passage of scripture says, “They will look on the one whom they have pierced.”

John 19:38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body.

John 19:39 Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

John 19:40 They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews.

John 19:41 Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid.

John 19:42 And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

John 20:1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

John 20:2 So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

John 20:3 Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb.

John 20:4 The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

John 20:5 He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in.

John 20:6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there,

John 20:7 and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

John 20:8 Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed;

John 20:9 for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

John 20:10 Then the disciples returned to their homes.

John 20:11 But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb;

John 20:12 and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet.

John 20:13 They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.”

John 20:14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.”

John 20:16 Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher).

John 20:17 Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’“

John 20:18 Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

John 20:19 When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.”

John 20:20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

John 20:21 Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

John 20:22 When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

John 20:23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

John 20:24 But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

John 20:25 So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

John 20:26 A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.”

John 20:27 Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.”

John 20:28 Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!”

John 20:29 Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”

John 20:30 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

John 20:31 But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

John 21:1 After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way.

John 21:2 Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples.

John 21:3 Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

John 21:4 Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

John 21:5 Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.”

John 21:6 He said to them, “Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish.

John 21:7 That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea.

John 21:8 But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

John 21:9 When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread.

John 21:10 Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.”

John 21:11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn.

John 21:12 Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they knew it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

John 21:14 This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

John 21:15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my lambs.”

John 21:16 A second time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Tend my sheep.”

John 21:17 He said to him the third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” And he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep.

John 21:18 Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.”

John 21:19 (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, “Follow me.”

John 21:20 Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; he was the one who had reclined next to Jesus at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?”

John 21:21 When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, “Lord, what about him?”

John 21:22 Jesus said to him, “If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!”

John 21:23 So the rumor spread in the community that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, “If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?”

John 21:24 This is the disciple who is testifying to these things and has written them, and we know that his testimony is true.

John 21:25 But there are also many other things that Jesus did; if every one of them were written down, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

Acts

1:1 In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning

Acts 1:2 until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

Acts 1:3 After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. “This,” he said, “is what you have heard from me;

Acts 1:5 for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

Acts 1:6 So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?”

Acts 1:7 He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority.

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Acts 1:9 When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Acts 1:10 While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them.

Acts 1:11 They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

Acts 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away.

Acts 1:13 When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.

Acts 1:14 All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Acts 1:15 In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said,

Acts 1:16 “Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—

Acts 1:17 for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.”

Acts 1:18 (Now this man acquired a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out.

Acts 1:19 This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

Acts 1:20 “For it is written in the book of Psalms, ‘Let his homestead become desolate, and let there be no one to live in it’; and ‘Let another take his position of overseer.’

Acts 1:21 So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

Acts 1:22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us— one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.”

Acts 1:23 So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.

Acts 1:24 Then they prayed and said, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen Acts 1:25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.”

Acts 1:26 And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Acts 2:1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

Acts 2:2 And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Acts 2:3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

Acts 2:4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Acts 2:5 Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.

Acts 2:6 And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Acts 2:7 Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?

Acts 2:8 And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?

Acts 2:9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

Acts 2:10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

Acts 2:11 Cretans and Arabs— in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”

Acts 2:12 All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”

Acts 2:13 But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

Acts 2:14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

Acts 2:15 Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning.

Acts 2:16 No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:17 ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Acts 2:18 Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

Acts 2:19 And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

Acts 2:20 The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day.

Acts 2:21 Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’

Acts 2:22 “You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know—

Acts 2:23 this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law.

Acts 2:24 But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power.

Acts 2:25 For David says concerning him, ‘I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;

Acts 2:26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope.

Acts 2:27 For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.

Acts 2:28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

Acts 2:29 “Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

Acts 2:30 Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne.

Acts 2:31 Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, ‘He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.’

Acts 2:32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.

Acts 2:33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you both see and hear.

Acts 2:34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand,

Acts 2:35 until I make your enemies your footstool.”‘

Acts 2:36 Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Acts 2:37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

Acts 2:38 Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:39 For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.”

Acts 2:40 And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.”

Acts 2:41 So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Acts 2:42 They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Acts 2:43 Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles.

Acts 2:44 All who believed were together and had all things in common;

Acts 2:45 they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need.

Acts 2:46 Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts,

Acts 2:47 praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Acts 3:1 One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, at three o’clock in the afternoon.

Acts 3:2 And a man lame from birth was being carried in. People would lay him daily at the gate of the temple called the Beautiful Gate so that he could ask for alms from those entering the temple.

Acts 3:3 When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them for alms.

Acts 3:4 Peter looked intently at him, as did John, and said, “Look at us.”

Acts 3:5 And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them.

Acts 3:6 But Peter said, “I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk.”

Acts 3:7 And he took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong.

Acts 3:8 Jumping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

Acts 3:9 All the people saw him walking and praising God,

Acts 3:10 and they recognized him as the one who used to sit and ask for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon’s Portico, utterly astonished.

Acts 3:12 When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him.

Acts 3:14 But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you,

Acts 3:15 and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses.

Acts 3:16 And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

Acts 3:17 “And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

Acts 3:18 In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer.

Acts 3:19 Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, Acts 3:20 so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus,

Acts 3:21 who must remain in heaven until the time of universal restoration that God announced long ago through his holy prophets.

Acts 3:22 Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you from your own people a prophet like me. You must listen to whatever he tells you.

Acts 3:23 And it will be that everyone who does not listen to that prophet will be utterly rooted out of the people.'

Acts 3:24 And all the prophets, as many as have spoken, from Samuel and those after him, also predicted these days.

Acts 3:25 You are the descendants of the prophets and of the covenant that God gave to your ancestors, saying to Abraham, 'And in your descendants all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

Acts 3:26 When God raised up his servant, he sent him first to you, to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Acts 4:1 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came to them,

Acts 4:2 much annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming that in Jesus there is the resurrection of the dead.

Acts 4:3 So they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening.

Acts 4:4 But many of those who heard the word believed; and they numbered about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem,

Acts 4:6 with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family.

Acts 4:7 When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?"

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders,

Acts 4:9 if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed,

Acts 4:10 let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.

Acts 4:11 This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.'

Acts 4:12 There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

Acts 4:13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognized them as companions of Jesus.

Acts 4:14 When they saw the man who had been cured standing beside them, they had nothing to say in opposition.

Acts 4:15 So they ordered them to leave the council while they discussed the matter with one another.

Acts 4:16 They said, “What will we do with them? For it is obvious to all who live in Jerusalem that a notable sign has been done through them; we cannot deny it.

Acts 4:17 But to keep it from spreading further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to anyone in this name.”

Acts 4:18 So they called them and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in God’s sight to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge;

Acts 4:20 for we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

Acts 4:21 After threatening them again, they let them go, finding no way to punish them because of the people, for all of them praised God for what had happened.

Acts 4:22 For the man on whom this sign of healing had been performed was more than forty years old.

Acts 4:23 After they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

Acts 4:24 When they heard it, they raised their voices together to God and said, “Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and everything in them,

Acts 4:25 it is you who said by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant: ‘Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine vain things?

Acts 4:26 The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers have gathered together against the Lord and against his Messiah.’

Acts 4:27 For in this city, in fact, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed,

Acts 4:28 to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place.

Acts 4:29 And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness,

Acts 4:30 while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

Acts 4:31 When they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

Acts 4:32 Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common.

Acts 4:33 With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

Acts 4:34 There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold.

Acts 4:35 They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Acts 4:36 There was a Levite, a native of Cyprus, Joseph, to whom the apostles gave the name Barnabas (which means "son of encouragement").

Acts 4:37 He sold a field that belonged to him, then brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 5:1 But a man named Ananias, with the consent of his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property;

Acts 5:2 with his wife's knowledge, he kept back some of the proceeds, and brought only a part and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 5:3 "Ananias," Peter asked, "why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the proceeds of the land?

Acts 5:4 While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, were not the proceeds at your disposal? How is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You did not lie to us but to God!"

Acts 5:5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard of it.

Acts 5:6 The young men came and wrapped up his body, then carried him out and buried him.

Acts 5:7 After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

Acts 5:8 Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you and your husband sold the land for such and such a price." And she said, "Yes, that was the price."

Acts 5:9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

Acts 5:10 Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came in they found her dead, so they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

Acts 5:11 And great fear seized the whole church and all who heard of these things.

Acts 5:12 Now many signs and wonders were done among the people through the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon’s Portico.

Acts 5:13 None of the rest dared to join them, but the people held them in high esteem.

Acts 5:14 Yet more than ever believers were added to the Lord, great numbers of both men and women,

Acts 5:15 so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mats, in order that Peter’s shadow might fall on some of them as he came by.

Acts 5:16 A great number of people would also gather from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

Acts 5:17 Then the high priest took action; he and all who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), being filled with jealousy,

Acts 5:18 arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison.

Acts 5:19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, brought them out, and said,

Acts 5:20 “Go, stand in the temple and tell the people the whole message about this life.”

Acts 5:21 When they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and went on with their teaching. When the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the council and the whole body of the elders of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Acts 5:22 But when the temple police went there, they did not find them in the prison; so they returned and reported,

Acts 5:23 “We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

Acts 5:24 Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering what might be going on.

Acts 5:25 Then someone arrived and announced, “Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!”

Acts 5:26 Then the captain went with the temple police and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

Acts 5:27 When they had brought them, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them,

Acts 5:28 saying, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man’s blood on us.”

Acts 5:29 But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than any human authority.

Acts 5:30 The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree.

Acts 5:31 God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

Acts 5:32 And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Acts 5:33 When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them.

Acts 5:34 But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, respected by all the people, stood up and ordered the men to be put outside for a short time.

Acts 5:35 Then he said to them, “Fellow Israelites, consider carefully what you propose to do to these men.

Acts 5:36 For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him; but he was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and disappeared.

Acts 5:37 After him Judas the Galilean rose up at the time of the census and got people to follow him; he also perished, and all who followed him were scattered.

Acts 5:38 So in the present case, I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone; because if this plan or this undertaking is of human origin, it will fail;

Acts 5:39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them—in that case you may even be found fighting against God!” They were convinced by him,

Acts 5:40 and when they had called in the apostles, they had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

Acts 5:41 As they left the council, they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

Acts 5:42 And every day in the temple and at home they did not cease to teach and proclaim Jesus as the Messiah.

Acts 6:1 Now during those days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food.

Acts 6:2 And the twelve called together the whole community of the disciples and said, “It is not right that we should neglect the word of God in order to wait on tables.

Acts 6:3 Therefore, friends, select from among yourselves seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this task,

Acts 6:4 while we, for our part, will devote ourselves to prayer and to serving the word.”

Acts 6:5 What they said pleased the whole community, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

Acts 6:6 They had these men stand before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

Acts 6:7 The word of God continued to spread; the number of the disciples increased greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

Acts 6:8 Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and others of those from Cilicia and Asia, stood up and argued with Stephen.

Acts 6:10 But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

Acts 6:11 Then they secretly instigated some men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.”

Acts 6:12 They stirred up the people as well as the elders and the scribes; then they suddenly confronted him, seized him, and brought him before the council.

Acts 6:13 They set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops saying things against this holy place and the law;

Acts 6:14 for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and will change the customs that Moses handed on to us.”

Acts 6:15 And all who sat in the council looked intently at him, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 Then the high priest asked him, “Are these things so?”

Acts 7:2 And Stephen replied: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,

Acts 7:3 and said to him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives and go to the land that I will show you.’

Acts 7:4 Then he left the country of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God had him move from there to this country in which you are now living.

Acts 7:5 He did not give him any of it as a heritage, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him as his possession and to his descendants after him, even though he had no child.

Acts 7:6 And God spoke in these terms, that his descendants would be resident aliens in a country belonging to others, who would enslave them and mistreat them during four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 'But I will judge the nation that they serve,' said God, 'and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place.'

Acts 7:8 Then he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:9 "The patriarchs, jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt; but God was with him,

Acts 7:10 and rescued him from all his afflictions, and enabled him to win favor and to show wisdom when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him ruler over Egypt and over all his household.

Acts 7:11 Now there came a famine throughout Egypt and Canaan, and great suffering, and our ancestors could find no food.

Acts 7:12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there on their first visit.

Acts 7:13 On the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh.

Acts 7:14 Then Joseph sent and invited his father Jacob and all his relatives to come to him, seventy-five in all;

Acts 7:15 so Jacob went down to Egypt. He himself died there as well as our ancestors,

Acts 7:16 and their bodies were brought back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

Acts 7:17 "But as the time drew near for the fulfillment of the promise that God had made to Abraham, our people in Egypt increased and multiplied

Acts 7:18 until another king who had not known Joseph ruled over Egypt.

Acts 7:19 He dealt craftily with our race and forced our ancestors to abandon their infants so that they would die.

Acts 7:20 At this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful before God. For three months he was brought up in his father's house;

Acts 7:21 and when he was abandoned, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son.

Acts 7:22 So Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in his words and deeds.

Acts 7:23 “When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his relatives, the Israelites.

Acts 7:24 When he saw one of them being wronged, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 He supposed that his kinsfolk would understand that God through him was rescuing them, but they did not understand.

Acts 7:26 The next day he came to some of them as they were quarreling and tried to reconcile them, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong each other?’

Acts 7:27 But the man who was wronging his neighbor pushed Moses aside, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’

Acts 7:29 When he heard this, Moses fled and became a resident alien in the land of Midian. There he became the father of two sons.

Acts 7:30 “Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush.

Acts 7:31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight; and as he approached to look, there came the voice of the Lord:

Acts 7:32 ‘I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look.

Acts 7:33 Then the Lord said to him, ‘Take off the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I have surely seen the mistreatment of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them. Come now, I will send you to Egypt.’

Acts 7:35 “It was this Moses whom they rejected when they said, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge?’ and whom God now sent as both ruler and liberator through the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 He led them out, having performed wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

Acts 7:37 This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, ‘God will raise up a prophet for you from your own people as he raised me up.’

Acts 7:38 He is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors; and he received living oracles to give to us.

Acts 7:39 Our ancestors were unwilling to obey him; instead, they pushed him aside, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, Acts 7:40 saying to Aaron, ‘Make gods for us who will lead the way for us; as for this Moses who led us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.’

Acts 7:41 At that time they made a calf, offered a sacrifice to the idol, and reveled in the works of their hands.

Acts 7:42 But God turned away from them and handed them over to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets: ‘Did you offer to me slain victims and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

Acts 7:43 No; you took along the tent of Moloch, and the star of your god Rephan, the images that you made to worship; so I will remove you beyond Babylon.’

Acts 7:44 “Our ancestors had the tent of testimony in the wilderness, as God directed when he spoke to Moses, ordering him to make it according to the pattern he had seen.

Acts 7:45 Our ancestors in turn brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations that God drove out before our ancestors. And it was there until the time of David,

Acts 7:46 who found favor with God and asked that he might find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob.

Acts 7:47 But it was Solomon who built a house for him.

Acts 7:48 Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with human hands; as the prophet says,

Acts 7:49 ‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is the place of my rest?

Acts 7:50 Did not my hand make all these things?’

Acts 7:51 “You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you are forever opposing the Holy Spirit, just as your ancestors used to do.

Acts 7:52 Which of the prophets did your ancestors not persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, and now you have become his betrayers and murderers.

Acts 7:53 You are the ones that received the law as ordained by angels, and yet you have not kept it.”

Acts 7:54 When they heard these things, they became enraged and ground their teeth at Stephen.

Acts 7:55 But filled with the Holy Spirit, he gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

Acts 7:56 “Look,” he said, “I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

Acts 7:57 But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him.

Acts 7:58 Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

Acts 7:59 While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”

Acts 7:60 Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he died.

Acts 8:1 And Saul approved of their killing him. That day a severe persecution began against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout the countryside of Judea and Samaria.

Acts 8:2 Devout men buried Stephen and made loud lamentation over him.

Acts 8:3 But Saul was ravaging the church by entering house after house; dragging off both men and women, he committed them to prison.

Acts 8:4 Now those who were scattered went from place to place, proclaiming the word.

Acts 8:5 Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them.

Acts 8:6 The crowds with one accord listened eagerly to what was said by Philip, hearing and seeing the signs that he did,

Acts 8:7 for unclean spirits, crying with loud shrieks, came out of many who were possessed; and many others who were paralyzed or lame were cured.

Acts 8:8 So there was great joy in that city.

Acts 8:9 Now a certain man named Simon had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, saying that he was someone great.

Acts 8:10 All of them, from the least to the greatest, listened to him eagerly, saying, “This man is the power of God that is called Great.”

Acts 8:11 And they listened eagerly to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic.

Acts 8:12 But when they believed Philip, who was proclaiming the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

Acts 8:13 Even Simon himself believed. After being baptized, he stayed constantly with Philip and was amazed when he saw the signs and great miracles that took place.

Acts 8:14 Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

Acts 8:15 The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit

Acts 8:16 (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus).

Acts 8:17 Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:18 Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,

Acts 8:19 saying, "Give me also this power so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

Acts 8:20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain God's gift with money!

Acts 8:21 You have no part or share in this, for your heart is not right before God.

Acts 8:22 Repent therefore of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you.

Acts 8:23 For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and the chains of wickedness."

Acts 8:24 Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that nothing of what you have said may happen to me."

Acts 8:25 Now after Peter and John had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the good news to many villages of the Samaritans.

Acts 8:26 Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.)

Acts 8:27 So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship

Acts 8:28 and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

Acts 8:29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it."

Acts 8:30 So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

Acts 8:31 He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him.

Acts 8:32 Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.

Acts 8:33 In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth."

Acts 8:34 The eunuch asked Philip, “About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?”

Acts 8:35 Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus.

Acts 8:36 As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?”

Acts 8:37

Acts 8:38 He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

Acts 8:39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing.

Acts 8:40 But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

Acts 9:2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:3 Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

Acts 9:4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”

Acts 9:5 He asked, “Who are you, Lord?” The reply came, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.

Acts 9:6 But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.”

Acts 9:7 The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one.

Acts 9:8 Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Acts 9:10 Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” He answered, “Here I am, Lord.”

Acts 9:11 The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, Acts 9:12 and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.”

Acts 9:13 But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem;

Acts 9:14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.”

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel;

Acts 9:16 I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.”

Acts 9:17 So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 9:18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized,

Acts 9:19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus,

Acts 9:20 and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is the Son of God.”

Acts 9:21 All who heard him were amazed and said, “Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem among those who invoked this name? And has he not come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?”

Acts 9:22 Saul became increasingly more powerful and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 9:23 After some time had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him,

Acts 9:24 but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night so that they might kill him;

Acts 9:25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Acts 9:26 When he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple.

Acts 9:27 But Barnabas took him, brought him to the apostles, and described for them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:28 So he went in and out among them in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 9:29 He spoke and argued with the Hellenists; but they were attempting to kill him.

Acts 9:30 When the believers learned of it, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 Meanwhile the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was built up. Living in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it increased in numbers.

Acts 9:32 Now as Peter went here and there among all the believers, he came down also to the saints living in Lydda.

Acts 9:33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, for he was paralyzed.

Acts 9:34 Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; get up and make your bed!” And immediately he got up.

Acts 9:35 And all the residents of Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Acts 9:36 Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity.

Acts 9:37 At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs.

Acts 9:38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, “Please come to us without delay.”

Acts 9:39 So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them.

Acts 9:40 Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, “Tabitha, get up.” Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up.

Acts 9:41 He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive.

Acts 9:42 This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Acts 10:1 In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian Cohort, as it was called.

Acts 10:2 He was a devout man who feared God with all his household; he gave alms generously to the people and prayed constantly to God.

Acts 10:3 One afternoon at about three o'clock he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius."

Acts 10:4 He stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?" He answered, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.

Acts 10:5 Now send men to Joppa for a certain Simon who is called Peter;

Acts 10:6 he is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside."

Acts 10:7 When the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his slaves and a devout soldier from the ranks of those who served him,

Acts 10:8 and after telling them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

Acts 10:9 About noon the next day, as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray.

Acts 10:10 He became hungry and wanted something to eat; and while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

Acts 10:11 He saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by its four corners.

Acts 10:12 In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air.

Acts 10:13 Then he heard a voice saying, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat."

Acts 10:14 But Peter said, "By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is profane or unclean."

Acts 10:15 The voice said to him again, a second time, "What God has made clean, you must not call profane."

Acts 10:16 This happened three times, and the thing was suddenly taken up to heaven.

Acts 10:17 Now while Peter was greatly puzzled about what to make of the vision that he had seen, suddenly the men sent by Cornelius appeared. They were asking for Simon's house and were standing by the gate.

Acts 10:18 They called out to ask whether Simon, who was called Peter, was staying there.

Acts 10:19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look, three men are searching for you.

Acts 10:20 Now get up, go down, and go with them without hesitation; for I have sent them."

Acts 10:21 So Peter went down to the men and said, “I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for your coming?”

Acts 10:22 They answered, “Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear what you have to say.”

Acts 10:23 So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging. The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the believers from Joppa accompanied him.

Acts 10:24 The following day they came to Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

Acts 10:25 On Peter’s arrival Cornelius met him, and falling at his feet, worshiped him.

Acts 10:26 But Peter made him get up, saying, “Stand up; I am only a mortal.”

Acts 10:27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found that many had assembled;

Acts 10:28 and he said to them, “You yourselves know that it is unlawful for a Jew to associate with or to visit a Gentile; but God has shown me that I should not call anyone profane or unclean.

Acts 10:29 So when I was sent for, I came without objection. Now may I ask why you sent for me?”

Acts 10:30 Cornelius replied, “Four days ago at this very hour, at three o’clock, I was praying in my house when suddenly a man in dazzling clothes stood before me.

Acts 10:31 He said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.

Acts 10:32 Send therefore to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is called Peter; he is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.’

Acts 10:33 Therefore I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. So now all of us are here in the presence of God to listen to all that the Lord has commanded you to say.”

Acts 10:34 Then Peter began to speak to them: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality,

Acts 10:35 but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

Acts 10:36 You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ— he is Lord of all.

Acts 10:37 That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced:

Acts 10:38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

Acts 10:39 We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree;

Acts 10:40 but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear,

Acts 10:41 not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Acts 10:42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.

Acts 10:43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Acts 10:44 While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word.

Acts 10:45 The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles,

Acts 10:46 for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said,

Acts 10:47 “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?”

Acts 10:48 So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Acts 11:1 Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God.

Acts 11:2 So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him,

Acts 11:3 saying, “Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?”

Acts 11:4 Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying,

Acts 11:5 “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me.

Acts 11:6 As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air.

Acts 11:7 I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’

Acts 11:8 But I replied, ‘By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

Acts 11:9 But a second time the voice answered from heaven, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’

Acts 11:10 This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven.

Acts 11:11 At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were.

Acts 11:12 The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house.

Acts 11:13 He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter;

Acts 11:14 he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.’

Acts 11:15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning.

Acts 11:16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

Acts 11:17 If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?”

Acts 11:18 When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, “Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.”

Acts 11:19 Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that took place over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, and they spoke the word to no one except Jews.

Acts 11:20 But among them were some men of Cyprus and Cyrene who, on coming to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the Lord Jesus.

Acts 11:21 The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number became believers and turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 News of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 When he came and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast devotion;

Acts 11:24 for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were brought to the Lord.

Acts 11:25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul,

Acts 11:26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for an entire year they met with the church and taught a great many people, and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called “Christians.”

Acts 11:27 At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

Acts 11:28 One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world; and this took place during the reign of Claudius.

Acts 11:29 The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea;

Acts 11:30 this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12:1 About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church.

Acts 12:2 He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword.

Acts 12:3 After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.)

Acts 12:4 When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

Acts 12:5 While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him.

Acts 12:6 The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison.

Acts 12:7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, “Get up quickly.” And the chains fell off his wrists.

Acts 12:8 The angel said to him, “Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.” He did so. Then he said to him, “Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.”

Acts 12:9 Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel’s help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him.

Acts 12:11 Then Peter came to himself and said, “Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.”

Acts 12:12 As soon as he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many had gathered and were praying.

Acts 12:13 When he knocked at the outer gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.

Acts 12:14 On recognizing Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the gate, she ran in and announced that Peter was standing at the gate.

Acts 12:15 They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel."

Acts 12:16 Meanwhile Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed.

Acts 12:17 He motioned to them with his hand to be silent, and described for them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he added, "Tell this to James and to the believers." Then he left and went to another place.

Acts 12:18 When morning came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 When Herod had searched for him and could not find him, he examined the guards and ordered them to be put to death. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

Acts 12:20 Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came to him in a body; and after winning over Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for a reconciliation, because their country depended on the king's country for food.

Acts 12:21 On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat on the platform, and delivered a public address to them.

Acts 12:22 The people kept shouting, "The voice of a god, and not of a mortal!"

Acts 12:23 And immediately, because he had not given the glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

Acts 12:24 But the word of God continued to advance and gain adherents.

Acts 12:25 Then after completing their mission Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem and brought with them John, whose other name was Mark.

Acts 13:1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the ruler, and Saul.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

Acts 13:3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John also to assist them.

Acts 13:6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they met a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, named Bar-Jesus.

Acts 13:7 He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:8 But the magician Elymas (for that is the translation of his name) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

Acts 13:9 But Saul, also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him

Acts 13:10 and said, “You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 And now listen— the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind for a while, unable to see the sun.” Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he went about groping for someone to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Acts 13:13 Then Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John, however, left them and returned to Jerusalem;

Acts 13:14 but they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

Acts 13:15 After the reading of the law and the prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent them a message, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, give it.”

Acts 13:16 So Paul stood up and with a gesture began to speak: “You Israelites, and others who fear God, listen.

Acts 13:17 The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

Acts 13:18 For about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness.

Acts 13:19 After he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance

Acts 13:20 for about four hundred fifty years. After that he gave them judges until the time of the prophet Samuel.

Acts 13:21 Then they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years.

Acts 13:22 When he had removed him, he made David their king. In his testimony about him he said, 'I have found David, son of Jesse, to be a man after my heart, who will carry out all my wishes.'

Acts 13:23 Of this man's posterity God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised;

Acts 13:24 before his coming John had already proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

Acts 13:25 And as John was finishing his work, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but one is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of the sandals on his feet.'

Acts 13:26 "My brothers, you descendants of Abraham's family, and others who fear God, to us the message of this salvation has been sent.

Acts 13:27 Because the residents of Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize him or understand the words of the prophets that are read every sabbath, they fulfilled those words by condemning him.

Acts 13:28 Even though they found no cause for a sentence of death, they asked Pilate to have him killed.

Acts 13:29 When they had carried out everything that was written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But God raised him from the dead;

Acts 13:31 and for many days he appeared to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, and they are now his witnesses to the people.

Acts 13:32 And we bring you the good news that what God promised to our ancestors

Acts 13:33 he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my Son; today I have begotten you.'

Acts 13:34 As to his raising him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he has spoken in this way, 'I will give you the holy promises made to David.'

Acts 13:35 Therefore he has also said in another psalm, 'You will not let your Holy One experience corruption.'

Acts 13:36 For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, died, was laid beside his ancestors, and experienced corruption;

Acts 13:37 but he whom God raised up experienced no corruption.

Acts 13:38 Let it be known to you therefore, my brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you;

Acts 13:39 by this Jesus everyone who believes is set free from all those sins from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses.

Acts 13:40 Beware, therefore, that what the prophets said does not happen to you:

Acts 13:41 ‘Look, you scoffers! Be amazed and perish, for in your days I am doing a work, a work that you will never believe, even if someone tells you.’“

Acts 13:42 As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people urged them to speak about these things again the next sabbath.

Acts 13:43 When the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Acts 13:44 The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.

Acts 13:45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy; and blaspheming, they contradicted what was spoken by Paul.

Acts 13:46 Then both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, “It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you reject it and judge yourselves to be unworthy of eternal life, we are now turning to the Gentiles.

Acts 13:47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, ‘I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, so that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.’“

Acts 13:48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and praised the word of the Lord; and as many as had been destined for eternal life became believers.

Acts 13:49 Thus the word of the Lord spread throughout the region.

Acts 13:50 But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their region.

Acts 13:51 So they shook the dust off their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium.

Acts 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 The same thing occurred in Iconium, where Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers.

Acts 14:2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

Acts 14:3 So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace by granting signs and wonders to be done through them.

Acts 14:4 But the residents of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

Acts 14:5 And when an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat them and to stone them,

Acts 14:6 the apostles learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding country;

Acts 14:7 and there they continued proclaiming the good news.

Acts 14:8 In Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet and had never walked, for he had been crippled from birth.

Acts 14:9 He listened to Paul as he was speaking. And Paul, looking at him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed,

Acts 14:10 said in a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet.” And the man sprang up and began to walk.

Acts 14:11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!”

Acts 14:12 Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

Acts 14:13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates; he and the crowds wanted to offer sacrifice.

Acts 14:14 When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting,

Acts 14:15 “Friends, why are you doing this? We are mortals just like you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.

Acts 14:16 In past generations he allowed all the nations to follow their own ways;

Acts 14:17 yet he has not left himself without a witness in doing good— giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, and filling you with food and your hearts with joy.”

Acts 14:18 Even with these words, they scarcely restrained the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.

Acts 14:19 But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium and won over the crowds. Then they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

Acts 14:20 But when the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went into the city. The next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe.

Acts 14:21 After they had proclaimed the good news to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, then on to Iconium and Antioch.

Acts 14:22 There they strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, “It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God.”

Acts 14:23 And after they had appointed elders for them in each church, with prayer and fasting they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

Acts 14:24 Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Acts 14:26 From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had completed.

Acts 14:27 When they arrived, they called the church together and related all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 And they stayed there with the disciples for some time.

Acts 15:1 Then certain individuals came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 15:2 And after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to discuss this question with the apostles and the elders.

Acts 15:3 So they were sent on their way by the church, and as they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, they reported the conversion of the Gentiles, and brought great joy to all the believers.

Acts 15:4 When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them.

Acts 15:5 But some believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and said, “It is necessary for them to be circumcised and ordered to keep the law of Moses.”

Acts 15:6 The apostles and the elders met together to consider this matter.

Acts 15:7 After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “My brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that I should be the one through whom the Gentiles would hear the message of the good news and become believers.

Acts 15:8 And God, who knows the human heart, testified to them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us;

Acts 15:9 and in cleansing their hearts by faith he has made no distinction between them and us.

Acts 15:10 Now therefore why are you putting God to the test by placing on the neck of the disciples a yoke that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear?

Acts 15:11 On the contrary, we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will."

Acts 15:12 The whole assembly kept silence, and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they told of all the signs and wonders that God had done through them among the Gentiles.

Acts 15:13 After they finished speaking, James replied, "My brothers, listen to me.

Acts 15:14 Simeon has related how God first looked favorably on the Gentiles, to take from among them a people for his name.

Acts 15:15 This agrees with the words of the prophets, as it is written,

Acts 15:16 'After this I will return, and I will rebuild the dwelling of David, which has fallen; from its ruins I will rebuild it, and I will set it up,

Acts 15:17 so that all other peoples may seek the Lord— even all the Gentiles over whom my name has been called. Thus says the Lord, who has been making these things

Acts 15:18 known from long ago.'

Acts 15:19 Therefore I have reached the decision that we should not trouble those Gentiles who are turning to God,

Acts 15:20 but we should write to them to abstain only from things polluted by idols and from fornication and from whatever has been strangled and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For in every city, for generations past, Moses has had those who proclaim him, for he has been read aloud every sabbath in the synagogues."

Acts 15:22 Then the apostles and the elders, with the consent of the whole church, decided to choose men from among their members and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers, Acts 15:23 with the following letter: "The brothers, both the apostles and the elders, to the believers of Gentile origin in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greetings.

Acts 15:24 Since we have heard that certain persons who have gone out from us, though with no instructions from us, have said things to disturb you and have unsettled your minds,

Acts 15:25 we have decided unanimously to choose representatives and send them to you, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

Acts 15:26 who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth.

Acts 15:28 For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to impose on you no further burden than these essentials:

Acts 15:29 that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

Acts 15:30 So they were sent off and went down to Antioch. When they gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 When its members read it, they rejoiced at the exhortation.

Acts 15:32 Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers.

Acts 15:33 After they had been there for some time, they were sent off in peace by the believers to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34

Acts 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, and there, with many others, they taught and proclaimed the word of the Lord.

Acts 15:36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Come, let us return and visit the believers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord and see how they are doing."

Acts 15:37 Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark.

Acts 15:38 But Paul decided not to take with them one who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work.

Acts 15:39 The disagreement became so sharp that they parted company; Barnabas tookMark with him and sailed away to Cyprus.

Acts 15:40 But Paul chose Silas and set out, the believers commending him to the grace of the Lord.

Acts 15:41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Acts 16:1 Paul went on also to Derbe and to Lystra, where there was a disciple named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer; but his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:2 He was well spoken of by the believers in Lystra and Iconium.

Acts 16:3 Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him; and he took him and had him circumcised because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they went from town to town, they delivered to them for observance the decisions that had been reached by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and increased in numbers daily.

Acts 16:6 They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.

Acts 16:7 When they had come opposite Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them;

Acts 16:8 so, passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

Acts 16:10 When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

Acts 16:11 We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis,

Acts 16:12 and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days.

Acts 16:13 On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there.

Acts 16:14 A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul.

Acts 16:15 When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.” And she prevailed upon us.

Acts 16:16 One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling.

Acts 16:17 While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, “These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation.”

Acts 16:18 She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And it came out that very hour.

Acts 16:19 But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.

Acts 16:20 When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, “These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews

Acts 16:21 and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us asRomans to adopt or observe.”

Acts 16:22 The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods.

Acts 16:23 After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely.

Acts 16:24 Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Acts 16:25 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

Acts 16:26 Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were unfastened.

Acts 16:27 When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped.

Acts 16:28 But Paul shouted in a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.”

Acts 16:29 The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.

Acts 16:30 Then he brought them outside and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

Acts 16:31 They answered, “Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.”

Acts 16:32 They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.

Acts 16:33 At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay.

Acts 16:34 He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

Acts 16:35 When morning came, the magistrates sent the police, saying, “Let those men go.”

Acts 16:36 And the jailer reported the message to Paul, saying, “The magistrates sent word to let you go; therefore come out now and go in peace.”

Acts 16:37 But Paul replied, “They have beaten us in public, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and now are they going to discharge us in secret? Certainly not! Let them come and take us out themselves.”

Acts 16:38 The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens;

Acts 16:39 so they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city.

Acts 16:40 After leaving the prison they went to Lydia’s home; and when they had seen and encouraged the brothers and sisters there, they departed.

Acts 17:1 After Paul and Silas had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

Acts 17:2 And Paul went in, as was his custom, and on three sabbath days argued with them from the scriptures,

Acts 17:3 explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, “This is the Messiah, Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you.”

Acts 17:4 Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women.

Acts 17:5 But the Jews became jealous, and with the help of some ruffians in the marketplaces they formed a mob and set the city in an uproar. While they were searching for Paul and Silas to bring them out to the assembly, they attacked Jason’s house.

Acts 17:6 When they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some believers before the city authorities, shouting, “These people who have been turning the world upside down have come here also,

Acts 17:7 and Jason has entertained them as guests. They are all acting contrary to the decrees of the emperor, saying that there is another king named Jesus.”

Acts 17:8 The people and the city officials were disturbed when they heard this,

Acts 17:9 and after they had taken bail from Jason and the others, they let them go.

Acts 17:10 That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas off to Beroea; and when they arrived, they went to the Jewish synagogue.

Acts 17:11 These Jews were more receptive than those in Thessalonica, for they welcomed the message very eagerly and examined the scriptures every day to see whether these things were so.

Acts 17:12 Many of them therefore believed, including not a few Greek women and men of high standing.

Acts 17:13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Beroea as well, they came there too, to stir up and incite the crowds.

Acts 17:14 Then the believers immediately sent Paul away to the coast, but Silas and Timothy remained behind.

Acts 17:15 Those who conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and after receiving instructions to have Silas and Timothy join him as soon as possible, they left him.

Acts 17:16 While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply distressed to see that the city was full of idols.

Acts 17:17 So he argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and also in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there.

Acts 17:18 Also some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers debated with him. Some said, “What does this babbler want to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign divinities.” (This was because he was telling the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.)

Acts 17:19 So they took him and brought him to the Areopagus and asked him, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?

Acts 17:20 It sounds rather strange to us, so we would like to know what it means.”

Acts 17:21 Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there would spend their time in nothing but telling or hearing something new.

Acts 17:22 Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, “Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way.

Acts 17:23 For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, ‘To an unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

Acts 17:24 The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands,

Acts 17:25 nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things.

Acts 17:26 From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live,

Acts 17:27 so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him— though indeed he is not far from each one of us.

Acts 17:28 For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.'

Acts 17:29 Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals.

Acts 17:30 While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent,

Acts 17:31 because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

Acts 17:32 When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some scoffed; but others said, "We will hear you again about this."

Acts 17:33 At that point Paul left them.

Acts 17:34 But some of them joined him and became believers, including Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts 18:1 After this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.

Acts 18:2 There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them,

Acts 18:3 and, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together— by trade they were tentmakers.

Acts 18:4 Every sabbath he would argue in the synagogue and would try to convince Jews and Greeks.

Acts 18:5 When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with proclaiming the word, testifying to the Jews that the Messiah was Jesus.

Acts 18:6 When they opposed and reviled him, in protest he shook the dust from his clothes and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

Acts 18:7 Then he left the synagogue and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God; his house was next door to the synagogue.

Acts 18:8 Crispus, the official of the synagogue, became a believer in the Lord, together with all his household; and many of the Corinthians who heard Paul became believers and were baptized.

Acts 18:9 One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, “Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent;

Acts 18:10 for I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to harm you, for there are many in this city who are my people.”

Acts 18:11 He stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Acts 18:12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal.

Acts 18:13 They said, “This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are contrary to the law.”

Acts 18:14 Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of crime or serious villainy, I would be justified in accepting the complaint of you Jews;

Acts 18:15 but since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I do not wish to be a judge of these matters.”

Acts 18:16 And he dismissed them from the tribunal.

Acts 18:17 Then all of them seized Sosthenes, the official of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio paid no attention to any of these things.

Acts 18:18 After staying there for a considerable time, Paul said farewell to the believers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had his hair cut, for he was under a vow.

Acts 18:19 When they reached Ephesus, he left them there, but first he himself went into the synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 When they asked him to stay longer, he declined;

Acts 18:21 but on taking leave of them, he said, “I will return to you, if God wills.” Then he set sail from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch.

Acts 18:23 After spending some time there he departed and went from place to place through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Acts 18:24 Now there came to Ephesus a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria. He was an eloquent man, well-versed in the scriptures.

Acts 18:25 He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord; and he spoke with burning enthusiasm and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

Acts 18:26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the Way of God to him more accurately.

Acts 18:27 And when he wished to cross over to Achaia, the believers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. On his arrival he greatly helped those who through grace had become believers,

Acts 18:28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Messiah is Jesus.

Acts 19:1 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the interior regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples.

Acts 19:2 He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?” They replied, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

Acts 19:3 Then he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” They answered, “Into John’s baptism.”

Acts 19:4 Paul said, “John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

Acts 19:5 On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 19:6 When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied—

Acts 19:7 altogether there were about twelve of them.

Acts 19:8 He entered the synagogue and for three months spoke out boldly, and argued persuasively about the kingdom of God.

Acts 19:9 When some stubbornly refused to believe and spoke evil of the Way before the congregation, he left them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

Acts 19:11 God did extraordinary miracles through Paul,

Acts 19:12 so that when the handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, their diseases left them, and the evil spirits came out of them.

Acts 19:13 Then some itinerant Jewish exorcists tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims.”

Acts 19:14 Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this.

Acts 19:15 But the evil spirit said to them in reply, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?”

Acts 19:16 Then the man with the evil spirit leaped on them, mastered them all, and so overpowered them that they fled out of the house naked and wounded.

Acts 19:17 When this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, everyone was awestruck; and the name of the Lord Jesus was praised.

Acts 19:18 Also many of those who became believers confessed and disclosed their practices.

Acts 19:19 A number of those who practiced magic collected their books and burned them publicly; when the value of these books was calculated, it was found to come to fifty thousand silver coins.

Acts 19:20 So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

Acts 19:21 Now after these things had been accomplished, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go through Macedonia and Achaia, and then to go on to Jerusalem. He said, “After I have gone there, I must also see Rome.”

Acts 19:22 So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he himself stayed for some time longer in Asia.

Acts 19:23 About that time no little disturbance broke out concerning the Way.

Acts 19:24 A man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the artisans.

Acts 19:25 These he gathered together, with the workers of the same trade, and said, “Men, you know that we get our wealth from this business.

Acts 19:26 You also see and hear that not only in Ephesus but in almost the whole of Asia this Paul has persuaded and drawn away a considerable number of people by saying that gods made with hands are not gods.

Acts 19:27 And there is danger not only that this trade of ours may come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be scorned, and she will be deprived of her majesty that brought all Asia and the world to worship her.”

Acts 19:28 When they heard this, they were enraged and shouted, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

Acts 19:29 The city was filled with the confusion; and people rushed together to the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul’s travel companions.

Acts 19:30 Paul wished to go into the crowd, but the disciples would not let him;

Acts 19:31 even some officials of the province of Asia, who were friendly to him, sent him a message urging him not to venture into the theater.

Acts 19:32 Meanwhile, some were shouting one thing, some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.

Acts 19:33 Some of the crowd gave instructions to Alexander, whom the Jews had pushed forward. And Alexander motioned for silence and tried to make a defense before the people.

Acts 19:34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, for about two hours all of them shouted in unison, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

Acts 19:35 But when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “Citizens of Ephesus, who is there that does not know that the city of theEphesians is the temple keeper of the great Artemis and of the statue that fell from heaven?

Acts 19:36 Since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash.

Acts 19:37 You have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If therefore Demetrius and the artisans with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges there against one another.

Acts 19:39 If there is anything further you want to know, it must be settled in the regular assembly.

Acts 19:40 For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, since there is no cause that we can give to justify this commotion.”

Acts 19:41 When he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples; and after encouraging them and saying farewell, he left for Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 When he had gone through those regions and had given the believers much encouragement, he came to Greece,

Acts 20:3 where he stayed for three months. He was about to set sail for Syria when a plot was made against him by the Jews, and so he decided to return through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Beroea, by Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, by Gaius from Derbe, and by Timothy, as well as by Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.

Acts 20:5 They went ahead and were waiting for us in Troas;

Acts 20:6 but we sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we joined them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we met to break bread, Paul was holding a discussion with them; since he intended to leave the next day, he continued speaking until midnight.

Acts 20:8 There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were meeting.

Acts 20:9 A young man named Eutychus, who was sitting in the window, began to sink off into a deep sleep while Paul talked still longer. Overcome by sleep, he fell to the ground three floors below and was picked up dead.

Acts 20:10 But Paul went down, and bending over him took him in his arms, and said, “Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him.”

Acts 20:11 Then Paul went upstairs, and after he had broken bread and eaten, he continued to converse with them until dawn; then he left.

Acts 20:12 Meanwhile they had taken the boy away alive and were not a little comforted.

Acts 20:13 We went ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there; for he had made this arrangement, intending to go by land himself.

Acts 20:14 When he met us in Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 We sailed from there, and on the following day we arrived opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus.

Acts 20:16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; he was eager to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:17 From Miletus he sent a message to Ephesus, asking the elders of the church to meet him.

Acts 20:18 When they came to him, he said to them: “You yourselves know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day that I set foot in Asia,

Acts 20:19 serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, enduring the trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews.

Acts 20:20 I did not shrink from doing anything helpful, proclaiming the message to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house,

Acts 20:21 as I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus.

Acts 20:22 And now, as a captive to the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there,

Acts 20:23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and persecutions are waiting for me.

Acts 20:24 But I do not count my life of any value to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the good news of God’s grace.

Acts 20:25 “And now I know that none of you, among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again.

Acts 20:26 Therefore I declare to you this day that I am not responsible for the blood of any of you,

Acts 20:27 for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.

Acts 20:28 Keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock, of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God that he obtained with the blood of his own Son.

Acts 20:29 I know that after I have gone, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

Acts 20:30 Some even from your own group will come distorting the truth in order to entice the disciples to follow them.

Acts 20:31 Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to warn everyone with tears.

Acts 20:32 And now I commend you to God and to the message of his grace, a message that is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who are sanctified.

Acts 20:33 I coveted no one’s silver or gold or clothing.

Acts 20:34 You know for yourselves that I worked with my own hands to support myself and my companions.

Acts 20:35 In all this I have given you an example that by such work we must support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’“

Acts 20:36 When he had finished speaking, he knelt down with them all and prayed.

Acts 20:37 There was much weeping among them all; they embraced Paul and kissed him,

Acts 20:38 grieving especially because of what he had said, that they would not see him again. Then they brought him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 When we had parted from them and set sail, we came by a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

Acts 21:2 When we found a ship bound for Phoenicia, we went on board and set sail.

Acts 21:3 We came in sight of Cyprus; and leaving it on our left, we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, because the ship was to unload its cargo there.

Acts 21:4 We looked up the disciples and stayed there for seven days. Through the Spirit they told Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:5 When our days there were ended, we left and proceeded on our journey; and all of them, with wives and children, escorted us outside the city. There we knelt down on the beach and prayed

Acts 21:6 and said farewell to one another. Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home.

Acts 21:7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we greeted the believers and stayed with them for one day.

Acts 21:8 The next day we left and came to Caesarea; and we went into the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven, and stayed with him.

Acts 21:9 He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

Acts 21:10 While we were staying there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

Acts 21:11 He came to us and took Paul’s belt, bound his own feet and hands with it, and said, “Thus says the Holy Spirit, ‘This is the way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.’“

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, we and the people there urged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 Then Paul answered, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

Acts 21:14 Since he would not be persuaded, we remained silent except to say, “The Lord’s will be done.”

Acts 21:15 After these days we got ready and started to go up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came along and brought us to the house of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

Acts 21:17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us warmly.

Acts 21:18 The next day Paul went with us to visit James; and all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Acts 21:20 When they heard it, they praised God. Then they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the law.

Acts 21:21 They have been told about you that you teach all the Jews living among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, and that you tell them not to circumcise their children or observe the customs.

Acts 21:22 What then is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

Acts 21:23 So do what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow.

Acts 21:24 Join these men, go through the rite of purification with them, and pay for the shaving of their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself observe and guard the law.

Acts 21:25 But as for the Gentiles who have become believers, we have sent a letter with our judgment that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication.”

Acts 21:26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having purified himself, he entered the temple with them, making public the completion of the days of purification when the sacrifice would be made for each of them.

Acts 21:27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, who had seen him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd. They seized him,

Acts 21:28 shouting, “Fellow Israelites, help! This is the man who is teaching everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place; more than that, he has actually brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place.”

Acts 21:29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

Acts 21:30 Then all the city was aroused, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut.

Acts 21:31 While they were trying to kill him, word came to the tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

Acts 21:32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. When they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Acts 21:33 Then the tribune came, arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains; he inquired who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another; and as he could not learn the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks.

Acts 21:35 When Paul came to the steps, the violence of the mob was so great that he had to be carried by the soldiers.

Acts 21:36 The crowd that followed kept shouting, "Away with him!"

Acts 21:37 Just as Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the tribune, "May I say something to you?" The tribune replied, "Do you know Greek?

Acts 21:38 Then you are not the Egyptian who recently stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

Acts 21:39 Paul replied, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of an important city; I beg you, let me speak to the people."

Acts 21:40 When he had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people for silence; and when there was a great hush, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, saying:

Acts 22:1 "Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense that I now make before you."

Acts 22:2 When they heard him addressing them in Hebrew, they became even more quiet. Then he said:

Acts 22:3 "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated strictly according to our ancestral law, being zealous for God, just as all of you are today.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted this Way up to the point of death by binding both men and women and putting them in prison,

Acts 22:5 as the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me. From them I also received letters to the brothers in Damascus, and I went there in order to bind those who were there and to bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment.

Acts 22:6 "While I was on my way and approaching Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone about me.

Acts 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

Acts 22:8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' Then he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.'

Acts 22:9 Now those who were with me saw the light but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

Acts 22:10 I asked, 'What am I to do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go to Damascus; there you will be told everything that has been assigned to you to do.'

Acts 22:11 Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, those who were with me took my hand and led me to Damascus.

Acts 22:12 "A certain Ananias, who was a devout man according to the law and well spoken of by all the Jews living there, Acts 22:13 came to me; and standing beside me, he said, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight!' In that very hour I regained my sight and saw him.

Acts 22:14 Then he said, 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see the Righteous One and to hear his own voice;

Acts 22:15 for you will be his witness to all the world of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 And now why do you delay? Get up, be baptized, and have your sins washed away, calling on his name.'

Acts 22:17 "After I had returned to Jerusalem and while I was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance

Acts 22:18 and saw Jesus saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

Acts 22:19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you.

Acts 22:20 And while the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I myself was standing by, approving and keeping the coats of those who killed him.'

Acts 22:21 Then he said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

Acts 22:22 Up to this point they listened to him, but then they shouted, "Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he should not be allowed to live."

Acts 22:23 And while they were shouting, throwing off their cloaks, and tossing dust into the air,

Acts 22:24 the tribune directed that he was to be brought into the barracks, and ordered him to be examined by flogging, to find out the reason for this outcry against him.

Acts 22:25 But when they had tied him up with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who is uncondemned?"

Acts 22:26 When the centurion heard that, he went to the tribune and said to him, "What are you about to do? This man is a Roman citizen."

Acts 22:27 The tribune came and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes."

Acts 22:28 The tribune answered, "It cost me a large sum of money to get my citizenship." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

Acts 22:29 Immediately those who were about to examine him drew back from him; and the tribune also was afraid, for he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had bound him.

Acts 22:30 Since he wanted to find out what Paul was being accused of by the Jews, the next day he released him and ordered the chief priests and the entire council to meet. He brought Paul down and had him stand before them.

Acts 23:1 While Paul was looking intently at the council he said, “Brothers, up to this day I have lived my life with a clear conscience before God.”

Acts 23:2 Then the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near him to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 At this Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting there to judge me according to the law, and yet in violation of the law you order me to be struck?”

Acts 23:4 Those standing nearby said, “Do you dare to insult God’s high priest?”

Acts 23:5 And Paul said, “I did not realize, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a leader of your people.’“

Acts 23:6 When Paul noticed that some were Sadducees and others were Pharisees, he called out in the council, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am on trial concerning the hope of the resurrection of the dead.”

Acts 23:7 When he said this, a dissension began between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

Acts 23:8 (The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, or angel, or spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge all three.)

Acts 23:9 Then a great clamor arose, and certain scribes of the Pharisees’ group stood up and contended, “We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”

Acts 23:10 When the dissension became violent, the tribune, fearing that they would tear Paul to pieces, ordered the soldiers to go down, take him by force, and bring him into the barracks.

Acts 23:11 That night the Lord stood near him and said, “Keep up your courage! For just as you have testified for me in Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also in Rome.”

Acts 23:12 In the morning the Jews joined in a conspiracy and bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

Acts 23:13 There were more than forty who joined in this conspiracy.

Acts 23:14 They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have strictly bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food until we have killed Paul.

Acts 23:15 Now then, you and the council must notify the tribune to bring him down to you, on the pretext that you want to make a more thorough examination of his case. And we are ready to do away with him before he arrives.”

Acts 23:16 Now the son of Paul’s sister heard about the ambush; so he went and gained entrance to the barracks and told Paul.

Acts 23:17 Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the tribune, for he has something to report to him.”

Acts 23:18 So he took him, brought him to the tribune, and said, “The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you; he has something to tell you.”

Acts 23:19 The tribune took him by the hand, drew him aside privately, and asked, “What is it that you have to report to me?”

Acts 23:20 He answered, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more thoroughly into his case.

Acts 23:21 But do not be persuaded by them, for more than forty of their men are lying in ambush for him. They have bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink until they kill him. They are ready now and are waiting for your consent.”

Acts 23:22 So the tribune dismissed the young man, ordering him, “Tell no one that you have informed me of this.”

Acts 23:23 Then he summoned two of the centurions and said, “Get ready to leave by nine o’clock tonight for Caesarea with two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen.

Acts 23:24 Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and take him safely to Felix the governor.”

Acts 23:25 He wrote a letter to this effect:

Acts 23:26 “Claudius Lysias to his Excellency the governor Felix, greetings.

Acts 23:27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, but when I had learned that he was a Roman citizen, I came with the guard and rescued him.

Acts 23:28 Since I wanted to know the charge for which they accused him, I had him brought to their council.

Acts 23:29 I found that he was accused concerning questions of their law, but was charged with nothing deserving death or imprisonment.

Acts 23:30 When I was informed that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers also to state before you what they have against him. “

Acts 23:31 So the soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him during the night to Antipatris.

Acts 23:32 The next day they let the horsemen go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.

Acts 23:33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him.

Acts 23:34 On reading the letter, he asked what province he belonged to, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive.” Then he ordered that he be kept under guard in Herod’s headquarters.

Acts 24:1 Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney, a certain Tertullus, and they reported their case against Paul to the governor.

Acts 24:2 When Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: “Your Excellency, because of you we have long enjoyed peace, and reforms have been made for this people because of your foresight.

Acts 24:3 We welcome this in every way and everywhere with utmost gratitude.

Acts 24:4 But, to detain you no further, I beg you to hear us briefly with your customary graciousness.

Acts 24:5 We have, in fact, found this man a pestilent fellow, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

Acts 24:6 He even tried to profane the temple, and so we seized him.

Acts 24:7

Acts 24:8 By examining him yourself you will be able to learn from him concerning everything of which we accuse him.”

Acts 24:9 The Jews also joined in the charge by asserting that all this was true.

Acts 24:10 When the governor motioned to him to speak, Paul replied: “I cheerfully make my defense, knowing that for many years you have been a judge over this nation.

Acts 24:11 As you can find out, it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem.

Acts 24:12 They did not find me disputing with anyone in the temple or stirring up a crowd either in the synagogues or throughout the city.

Acts 24:13 Neither can they prove to you the charge that they now bring against me.

Acts 24:14 But this I admit to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our ancestors, believing everything laid down according to the law or written in the prophets.

Acts 24:15 I have a hope in God— a hope that they themselves also accept— that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

Acts 24:16 Therefore I do my best always to have a clear conscience toward God and all people.

Acts 24:17 Now after some years I came to bring alms to my nation and to offer sacrifices.

Acts 24:18 While I was doing this, they found me in the temple, completing the rite of purification, without any crowd or disturbance.

Acts 24:19 But there were some Jews from Asia— they ought to be here before you to make an accusation, if they have anything against me.

Acts 24:20 Or let these men here tell what crime they had found when I stood before the council,

Acts 24:21 unless it was this one sentence that I called out while standing before them, 'It is about the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'"

Acts 24:22 But Felix, who was rather well informed about the Way, adjourned the hearing with the comment, "When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case."

Acts 24:23 Then he ordered the centurion to keep him in custody, but to let him have some liberty and not to prevent any of his friends from taking care of his needs.

Acts 24:24 Some days later when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him speak concerning faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 And as he discussed justice, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present; when I have an opportunity, I will send for you."

Acts 24:26 At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul, and for that reason he used to send for him very often and converse with him.

Acts 24:27 After two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and since he wanted to grant the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Acts 25:1 Three days after Festus had arrived in the province, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem

Acts 25:2 where the chief priests and the leaders of the Jews gave him a report against Paul. They appealed to him

Acts 25:3 and requested, as a favor to them against Paul, to have him transferred to Jerusalem. They were, in fact, planning an ambush to kill him along the way.

Acts 25:4 Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and that he himself intended to go there shortly.

Acts 25:5 “So,” he said, “let those of you who have the authority come down with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them accuse him.”

Acts 25:6 After he had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

Acts 25:7 When he arrived, the Jews who had gone down from Jerusalem surrounded him, bringing many serious charges against him, which they could not prove.

Acts 25:8 Paul said in his defense, “I have in no way committed an offense against the law of the Jews, or against the temple, or against the emperor.”

Acts 25:9 But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, “Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and be tried there before me on these charges?”

Acts 25:10 Paul said, “I am appealing to the emperor’s tribunal; this is where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you very well know.

Acts 25:11 Now if I am in the wrong and have committed something for which I deserve to die, I am not trying to escape death; but if there is nothing to their charges against me, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to the emperor.”

Acts 25:12 Then Festus, after he had conferred with his council, replied, “You have appealed to the emperor; to the emperor you will go.”

Acts 25:13 After several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to welcome Festus.

Acts 25:14 Since they were staying there several days, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a man here who was left in prison by Felix.

Acts 25:15 When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me about him and asked for a sentence against him.

Acts 25:16 I told them that it was not the custom of the Romans to hand over anyone before the accused had met the accusers face to face and had been given an opportunity to make a defense against the charge.

Acts 25:17 So when they met here, I lost no time, but on the next day took my seat on the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought.

Acts 25:18 When the accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the crimes that I was expecting.

Acts 25:19 Instead they had certain points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, but whom Paul asserted to be alive.

Acts 25:20 Since I was at a loss how to investigate these questions, I asked whether he wished to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges.

Acts 25:21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept in custody for the decision of his Imperial Majesty, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to the emperor."

Acts 25:22 Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

Acts 25:23 So on the next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the military tribunes and the prominent men of the city. Then Festus gave the order and Paul was brought in.

Acts 25:24 And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all here present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish community petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

Acts 25:25 But I found that he had done nothing deserving death; and when he appealed to his Imperial Majesty, I decided to send him.

Acts 25:26 But I have nothing definite to write to our sovereign about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, after we have examined him, I may have something to write—

Acts 25:27 for it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner without indicating the charges against him."

Acts 26:1 Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and began to defend himself:

Acts 26:2 "I consider myself fortunate that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am to make my defense today against all the accusations of the Jews,

Acts 26:3 because you are especially familiar with all the customs and controversies of the Jews; therefore I beg of you to listen to me patiently.

Acts 26:4 "All the Jews know my way of life from my youth, a life spent from the beginning among my own people and in Jerusalem.

Acts 26:5 They have known for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I have belonged to the strictest sect of our religion and lived as a Pharisee.

Acts 26:6 And now I stand here on trial on account of my hope in the promise made by God to our ancestors,

Acts 26:7 a promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship day and night. It is for this hope, your Excellency, that I am accused by Jews!

Acts 26:8 Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

Acts 26:9 “Indeed, I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things against the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

Acts 26:10 And that is what I did in Jerusalem; with authority received from the chief priests, I not only locked up many of the saints in prison, but I also cast my vote against them when they were being condemned to death.

Acts 26:11 By punishing them often in all the synagogues I tried to force them to blaspheme; and since I was so furiously enraged at them, I pursued them even to foreign cities.

Acts 26:12 “With this in mind, I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests,

Acts 26:13 when at midday along the road, your Excellency, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my companions.

Acts 26:14 When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It hurts you to kick against the goads.’

Acts 26:15 I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The Lord answered, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

Acts 26:16 But get up and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and testify to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you.

Acts 26:17 I will rescue you from your people and from the Gentiles— to whom I am sending you

Acts 26:18 to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

Acts 26:19 “After that, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,

Acts 26:20 but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout the countryside of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and do deeds consistent with repentance.

Acts 26:21 For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.

Acts 26:22 To this day I have had help from God, and so I stand here, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would take place:

Acts 26:23 that the Messiah must suffer, and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles."

Acts 26:24 While he was making this defense, Festus exclaimed, "You are out of your mind, Paul! Too much learning is driving you insane!"

Acts 26:25 But Paul said, "I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking the sober truth.

Acts 26:26 Indeed the king knows about these things, and to him I speak freely; for I am certain that none of these things has escaped his notice, for this was not done in a corner.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

Acts 26:28 Agrippa said to Paul, "Are you so quickly persuading me to become a Christian?"

Acts 26:29 Paul replied, "Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that not only you but also all who are listening to me today might become such as I am— except for these chains."

Acts 26:30 Then the king got up, and with him the governor and Bernice and those who had been seated with them;

Acts 26:31 and as they were leaving, they said to one another, "This man is doing nothing to deserve death or imprisonment."

Acts 26:32 Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to the emperor."

Acts 27:1 When it was decided that we were to sail for Italy, they transferred Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort, named Julius.

Acts 27:2 Embarking on a ship of Adramyttium that was about to set sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, we put to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

Acts 27:3 The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, and allowed him to go to his friends to be cared for.

Acts 27:4 Putting out to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.

Acts 27:5 After we had sailed across the sea that is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship bound for Italy and put us on board.

Acts 27:7 We sailed slowly for a number of days and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind was against us, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone.

Acts 27:8 Sailing past it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 Since much time had been lost and sailing was now dangerous, because even the Fast had already gone by, Paul advised them,

Acts 27:10 saying, “Sirs, I can see that the voyage will be with danger and much heavy loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

Acts 27:11 But the centurion paid more attention to the pilot and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said.

Acts 27:12 Since the harbor was not suitable for spending the winter, the majority was in favor of putting to sea from there, on the chance that somehow they could reach Phoenix, where they could spend the winter. It was a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest.

Acts 27:13 When a moderate south wind began to blow, they thought they could achieve their purpose; so they weighed anchor and began to sail past Crete, close to the shore.

Acts 27:14 But soon a violent wind, called the northeaster, rushed down from Crete.

Acts 27:15 Since the ship was caught and could not be turned head-on into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven.

Acts 27:16 By running under the lee of a small island called Cauda we were scarcely able to get the ship’s boat under control.

Acts 27:17 After hoisting it up they took measures to undergird the ship; then, fearing that they would run on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and so were driven.

Acts 27:18 We were being pounded by the storm so violently that on the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard,

Acts 27:19 and on the third day with their own hands they threw the ship’s tackle overboard.

Acts 27:20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest raged, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

Acts 27:21 Since they had been without food for a long time, Paul then stood up among them and said, “Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete and thereby avoided this damage and loss.

Acts 27:22 I urge you now to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

Acts 27:23 For last night there stood by me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship,

Acts 27:24 and he said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before the emperor; and indeed, God has granted safety to all those who are sailing with you.’

Acts 27:25 So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.

Acts 27:26 But we will have to run aground on some island.”

Acts 27:27 When the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land.

Acts 27:28 So they took soundings and found twenty fathoms; a little farther on they took soundings again and found fifteen fathoms.

Acts 27:29 Fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let down four anchors from the stern and prayed for day to come.

Acts 27:30 But when the sailors tried to escape from the ship and had lowered the boat into the sea, on the pretext of putting out anchors from the bow,

Acts 27:31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 27:32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and set it adrift.

Acts 27:33 Just before daybreak, Paul urged all of them to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have been in suspense and remaining without food, having eaten nothing.

Acts 27:34 Therefore I urge you to take some food, for it will help you survive; for none of you will lose a hair from your heads.”

Acts 27:35 After he had said this, he took bread; and giving thanks to God in the presence of all, he broke it and began to eat.

Acts 27:36 Then all of them were encouraged and took food for themselves.

Acts 27:37 (We were in all two hundred seventy-six persons in the ship.)

Acts 27:38 After they had satisfied their hunger, they lightened the ship by throwing the wheat into the sea.

Acts 27:39 In the morning they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, on which they planned to run the ship ashore, if they could.

Acts 27:40 So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they loosened the ropes that tied the steering-oars; then hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.

Acts 27:41 But striking a reef, they ran the ship aground; the bow stuck and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the force of the waves.

Acts 27:42 The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none might swim away and escape;

Acts 27:43 but the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and make for the land,

Acts 27:44 and the rest to follow, some on planks and others on pieces of the ship. And so it was that all were brought safely to land.

Acts 28:1 After we had reached safety, we then learned that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 The natives showed us unusual kindness. Since it had begun to rain and was cold, they kindled a fire and welcomed all of us around it.

Acts 28:3 Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and was putting it on the fire, when a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand.

Acts 28:4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man must be a murderer; though he has escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live."

Acts 28:5 He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm.

Acts 28:6 They were expecting him to swell up or drop dead, but after they had waited a long time and saw that nothing unusual had happened to him, they changed their minds and began to say that he was a god.

Acts 28:7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us hospitably for three days.

Acts 28:8 It so happened that the father of Publius lay sick in bed with fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and cured him by praying and putting his hands on him.

Acts 28:9 After this happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured.

Acts 28:10 They bestowed many honors on us, and when we were about to sail, they put on board all the provisions we needed.

Acts 28:11 Three months later we set sail on a ship that had wintered at the island, an Alexandrian ship with the Twin Brothers as its figurehead.

Acts 28:12 We put in at Syracuse and stayed there for three days;

Acts 28:13 then we weighed anchor and came to Rhegium. After one day there a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

Acts 28:14 There we found believers and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 The believers from there, when they heard of us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage.

Acts 28:16 When we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.

Acts 28:17 Three days later he called together the local leaders of the Jews. When they had assembled, he said to them, “Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, yet I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans.

Acts 28:18 When they had examined me, the Romans wanted to release me, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case.

Acts 28:19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to the emperor— even though I had no charge to bring against my nation.

Acts 28:20 For this reason therefore I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is for the sake of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain.”

Acts 28:21 They replied, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken anything evil about you.

Acts 28:22 But we would like to hear from you what you think, for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against.”

Acts 28:23 After they had set a day to meet with him, they came to him at his lodgings in great numbers. From morning until evening he explained the matter to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the law of Moses and from the prophets.

Acts 28:24 Some were convinced by what he had said, while others refused to believe.

Acts 28:25 So they disagreed with each other; and as they were leaving, Paul made one further statement: “The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah, Acts 28:26 ‘Go to this people and say, You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive.

Acts 28:27 For this people’s heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn— and I would heal them.’

Acts 28:28 Let it be known to you then that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen.”

Acts 28:29

Acts 28:30 He lived there two whole years at his own expense and welcomed all who came to him,

Acts 28:31 proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

Romans

1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

Romans 1:2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy scriptures,

Romans 1:3 the gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh

Romans 1:4 and was declared to be Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,

Romans 1:5 through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for the sake of his name,

Romans 1:6 including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ,

Romans 1:7 To all God’s beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the world.

Romans 1:9 For God, whom I serve with my spirit by announcing the gospel of his Son, is my witness that without ceasing I remember you always in my prayers,

Romans 1:10 asking that by God’s will I may somehow at last succeed in coming to you.

Romans 1:11 For I am longing to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you—

Romans 1:12 or rather so that we may be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.

Romans 1:13 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as I have among the rest of the Gentiles.

Romans 1:14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish

Romans 1:15 —hence my eagerness to proclaim the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Romans 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, “The one who is righteous will live by faith.”

Romans 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of those who by their wickedness suppress the truth.

Romans 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Romans 1:20 Ever since the creation of the world his eternal power and divine nature, invisible though they are, have been understood and seen through the things he has made. So they are without excuse;

Romans 1:21 for though they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their senseless minds were darkened.

Romans 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools;

Romans 1:23 and they exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling a mortal human being or birds or four-footed animals or reptiles.

Romans 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the degrading of their bodies among themselves,

Romans 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

Romans 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to degrading passions. Their women exchanged natural intercourse for unnatural,

Romans 1:27 and in the same way also the men, giving up natural intercourse with women, were consumed with passion for one another. Men committed shameless acts with men and received in their own persons the due penalty for their error.

Romans 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind and to things that should not be done.

Romans 1:29 They were filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, covetousness, malice. Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, craftiness, they are gossips,

Romans 1:30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, rebellious toward parents,

Romans 1:31 foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

Romans 1:32 They know God's decree, that those who practice such things deserve to die— yet they not only do them but even applaud others who practice them.

Romans 2:1 Therefore you have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others; for in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things.

Romans 2:2 You say, "We know that God's judgment on those who do such things is in accordance with truth."

Romans 2:3 Do you imagine, whoever you are, that when you judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself, you will escape the judgment of God?

Romans 2:4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not realize that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

Romans 2:5 But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

Romans 2:6 For he will repay according to each one's deeds:

Romans 2:7 to those who by patiently doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life;

Romans 2:8 while for those who are self-seeking and who obey not the truth but wickedness, there will be wrath and fury.

Romans 2:9 There will be anguish and distress for everyone who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek,

Romans 2:10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek.

Romans 2:11 For God shows no partiality.

Romans 2:12 All who have sinned apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

Romans 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous in God's sight, but the doers of the law who will be justified.

Romans 2:14 When Gentiles, who do not possess the law, do instinctively what the law requires, these, though not having the law, are a law to themselves.

Romans 2:15 They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, to which their own conscience also bears witness; and their conflicting thoughts will accuse or perhaps excuse them

Romans 2:16 on the day when, according to my gospel, God, through Jesus Christ, will judge the secret thoughts of all.

Romans 2:17 But if you call yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast of your relation to God

Romans 2:18 and know his will and determine what is best because you are instructed in the law,

Romans 2:19 and if you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

Romans 2:20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth,

Romans 2:21 you, then, that teach others, will you not teach yourself? While you preach against stealing, do you steal?

Romans 2:22 You that forbid adultery, do you commit adultery? You that abhor idols, do you rob temples?

Romans 2:23 You that boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law?

Romans 2:24 For, as it is written, “The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”

Romans 2:25 Circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law; but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

Romans 2:26 So, if those who are uncircumcised keep the requirements of the law, will not their uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

Romans 2:27 Then those who are physically uncircumcised but keep the law will condemn you that have the written code and circumcision but break the law.

Romans 2:28 For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision something external and physical.

Romans 2:29 Rather, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and real circumcision is a matter of the heart— it is spiritual and not literal. Such a person receives praise not from others but from God.

Romans 3:1 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?

Romans 3:2 Much, in every way. For in the first place the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God.

Romans 3:3 What if some were unfaithful? Will their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God?

Romans 3:4 By no means! Although everyone is a liar, let God be proved true, as it is written, “So that you may be justified in your words, and prevail in your judging.”

Romans 3:5 But if our injustice serves to confirm the justice of God, what should we say? That God is unjust to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.)

Romans 3:6 By no means! For then how could God judge the world?

Romans 3:7 But if through my falsehood God’s truthfulness abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner?

Romans 3:8 And why not say (as some people slander us by saying that we say), “Let us do evil so that good may come”? Their condemnation is deserved!

Romans 3:9 What then? Are we any better off? No, not at all; for we have already charged that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under the power of sin,

Romans 3:10 as it is written: “There is no one who is righteous, not even one;

Romans 3:11 there is no one who has understanding, there is no one who seeks God.

Romans 3:12 All have turned aside, together they have become worthless; there is no one who shows kindness, there is not even one.”

Romans 3:13 “Their throats are opened graves; they use their tongues to deceive.” “The venom of vipers is under their lips.”

Romans 3:14 “Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”

Romans 3:15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood;

Romans 3:16 ruin and misery are in their paths,

Romans 3:17 and the way of peace they have not known.”

Romans 3:18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

Romans 3:19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God.

Romans 3:20 For “no human being will be justified in his sight” by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

Romans 3:21 But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets,

Romans 3:22 the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction,

Romans 3:23 since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God;

Romans 3:24 they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

Romans 3:25 whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed;

Romans 3:26 it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith.

Romans 3:28 For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

Romans 3:29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

Romans 3:30 since God is one; and he will justify the circumcised on the ground of faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

Romans 3:31 Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Romans 4:1 What then are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh?

Romans 4:2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

Romans 4:3 For what does the scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.”

Romans 4:4 Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due.

Romans 4:5 But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness.

Romans 4:6 So also David speaks of the blessedness of those to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

Romans 4:7 “Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;

Romans 4:8 blessed is the one against whom the Lord will not reckon sin.”

Romans 4:9 Is this blessedness, then, pronounced only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? We say, “Faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness.”

Romans 4:10 How then was it reckoned to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:11 He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the ancestor of all who believe without being circumcised and who thus have righteousness reckoned to them,

Romans 4:12 and likewise the ancestor of the circumcised who are not only circumcised but who also follow the example of the faith that our ancestor Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:13 For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

Romans 4:14 If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

Romans 4:15 For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

Romans 4:16 For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, Romans 4:17 as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”)— in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

Romans 4:18 Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become “the father of many nations,” according to what was said, “So numerous shall your descendants be.”

Romans 4:19 He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb.

Romans 4:20 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,

Romans 4:21 being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

Romans 4:22 Therefore his faith “was reckoned to him as righteousness.”

Romans 4:23 Now the words, “it was reckoned to him,” were written not for his sake alone,

Romans 4:24 but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,

Romans 4:25 who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Romans 5:2 through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

Romans 5:3 And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

Romans 5:4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,

Romans 5:5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Romans 5:6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

Romans 5:7 Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

Romans 5:8 But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Romans 5:9 Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God.

Romans 5:10 For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

Romans 5:11 But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Romans 5:12 Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned—

Romans 5:13 sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law.

Romans 5:14 Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

Romans 5:15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man’s trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many.

Romans 5:16 And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man’s sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification.

Romans 5:17 If, because of the one man’s trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 Therefore just as one man’s trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man’s act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all.

Romans 5:19 For just as by the one man’s disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man’s obedience the many will be made righteous.

Romans 5:20 But law came in, with the result that the trespass multiplied; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,

Romans 5:21 so that, just as sin exercised dominion in death, so grace might also exercise dominion through justification leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound?

Romans 6:2 By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it?

Romans 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Romans 6:4 Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Romans 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:7 For whoever has died is freed from sin.

Romans 6:8 But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

Romans 6:9 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Romans 6:10 The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

Romans 6:11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:12 Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.

Romans 6:13 No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

Romans 6:14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Romans 6:15 What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Romans 6:16 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Romans 6:17 But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted,

Romans 6:18 and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.

Romans 6:19 I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

Romans 6:20 When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Romans 6:21 So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death.

Romans 6:22 But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Do you not know, brothers and sisters— for I am speaking to those who know the law— that the law is binding on a person only during that person’s lifetime?

Romans 7:2 Thus a married woman is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies, she is discharged from the law concerning the husband.

Romans 7:3 Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she marries another man, she is not an adulteress.

Romans 7:4 In the same way, my friends, you have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead in order that we may bear fruit for God.

Romans 7:5 While we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.

Romans 7:6 But now we are discharged from the law, dead to that which held us captive, so that we are slaves not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit.

Romans 7:7 What then should we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet, if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.”

Romans 7:8 But sin, seizing an opportunity in the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law sin lies dead.

Romans 7:9 I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived

Romans 7:10 and I died, and the very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me.

Romans 7:11 For sin, seizing an opportunity in the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me.

Romans 7:12 So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

Romans 7:13 Did what is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, working death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure.

Romans 7:14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold into slavery under sin.

Romans 7:15 I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.

Romans 7:16 Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good.

Romans 7:17 But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

Romans 7:18 For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it.

Romans 7:19 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.

Romans 7:20 Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

Romans 7:21 So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand.

Romans 7:22 For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self,

Romans 7:23 but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members.

Romans 7:24 Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

Romans 7:25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I am a slave to the law of God, but with my flesh I am a slave to the law of sin.

Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

Romans 8:3 For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

Romans 8:4 so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Romans 8:5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:6 To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace.

Romans 8:7 For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law— indeed it cannot,

Romans 8:8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

Romans 8:9 But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

Romans 8:10 But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

Romans 8:11 If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Romans 8:12 So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

Romans 8:13 for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Romans 8:14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

Romans 8:15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!"

Romans 8:16 it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

Romans 8:17 and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ— if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Romans 8:18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us.

Romans 8:19 For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God;

Romans 8:20 for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope

Romans 8:21 that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

Romans 8:22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now;

Romans 8:23 and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

Romans 8:24 For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen?

Romans 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Romans 8:26 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words.

Romans 8:27 And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Romans 8:28 We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:29 For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family.

Romans 8:30 And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

Romans 8:31 What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

Romans 8:32 He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else?

Romans 8:33 Who will bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies.

Romans 8:34 Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Romans 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Romans 8:36 As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Romans 8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Romans 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

Romans 8:39 nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9:1 I am speaking the truth in Christ— I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit—

Romans 9:2 I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

Romans 9:3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh.

Romans 9:4 They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises;

Romans 9:5 to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Romans 9:6 It is not as though the word of God had failed. For not all Israelites truly belong to Israel,

Romans 9:7 and not all of Abraham’s children are his true descendants; but “It is through Isaac that descendants shall be named for you.”

Romans 9:8 This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as descendants.

Romans 9:9 For this is what the promise said, “About this time I will return and Sarah shall have a son.”

Romans 9:10 Nor is that all; something similar happened to Rebecca when she had conceived children by one husband, our ancestor Isaac.

Romans 9:11 Even before they had been born or had done anything good or bad (so that God’s purpose of election might continue, Romans 9:12 not by works but by his call) she was told, “The elder shall serve the younger.”

Romans 9:13 As it is written, “I have loved Jacob, but I have hated Esau.”

Romans 9:14 What then are we to say? Is there injustice on God’s part? By no means!

Romans 9:15 For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.”

Romans 9:16 So it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God who shows mercy.

Romans 9:17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, “I have raised you up for the very purpose of showing my power in you, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.”

Romans 9:18 So then he has mercy on whomever he chooses, and he hardens the heart of whomever he chooses.

Romans 9:19 You will say to me then, “Why then does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?”

Romans 9:20 But who indeed are you, a human being, to argue with God? Will what is molded say to the one who molds it, “Why have you made me like this?”

Romans 9:21 Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one object for special use and another for ordinary use?

Romans 9:22 What if God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the objects of wrath that are made for destruction;

Romans 9:23 and what if he has done so in order to make known the riches of his glory for the objects of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory—

Romans 9:24 including us whom he has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles?

Romans 9:25 As indeed he says in Hosea, “Those who were not my people I will call ‘my people,’ and her who was not beloved I will call ‘beloved.’“

Romans 9:26 “And in the very place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ there they shall be called children of the living God.”

Romans 9:27 And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, “Though the number of the children of Israel were like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved;

Romans 9:28 for the Lord will execute his sentence on the earth quickly and decisively.”

Romans 9:29 And as Isaiah predicted, “If the Lord of hosts had not left survivors to us, we would have fared like Sodom and been made like Gomorrah.”

Romans 9:30 What then are we to say? Gentiles, who did not strive for righteousness, have attained it, that is, righteousness through faith;

Romans 9:31 but Israel, who did strive for the righteousness that is based on the law, did not succeed in fulfilling that law.

Romans 9:32 Why not? Because they did not strive for it on the basis of faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, Romans 9:33 as it is written, “See, I am laying in Zion a stone that will make people stumble, a rock that will make them fall, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

Romans 10:1 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.

Romans 10:2 I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but it is not enlightened.

Romans 10:3 For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they have not submitted to God’s righteousness.

Romans 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Romans 10:5 Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.”

Romans 10:6 But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’“ (that is, to bring Christ down)

Romans 10:7 “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’“ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

Romans 10:8 But what does it say? “The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim);

Romans 10:9 because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Romans 10:10 For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

Romans 10:11 The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.”

Romans 10:12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him.

Romans 10:13 For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Romans 10:14 But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him?

Romans 10:15 And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Romans 10:16 But not all have obeyed the good news; for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

Romans 10:17 So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.

Romans 10:18 But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have; for "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

Romans 10:19 Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, "I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry."

Romans 10:20 Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, "I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me."

Romans 10:21 But of Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

Romans 11:1 I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

Romans 11:3 "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have demolished your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life."

Romans 11:4 But what is the divine reply to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

Romans 11:5 So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace.

Romans 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

Romans 11:7 What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened,

Romans 11:8 as it is written, "God gave them a sluggish spirit, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day."

Romans 11:9 And David says, "Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them;

Romans 11:10 let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and keep their backs forever bent."

Romans 11:11 So I ask, have they stumbled so as to fall? By no means! But through their stumbling salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous.

Romans 11:12 Now if their stumbling means riches for the world, and if their defeat means riches for Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion mean!

Romans 11:13 Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry

Romans 11:14 in order to make my own people jealous, and thus save some of them.

Romans 11:15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead!

Romans 11:16 If the part of the dough offered as first fruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; and if the root is holy, then the branches also are holy.

Romans 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the rich root of the olive tree,

Romans 11:18 do not boast over the branches. If you do boast, remember that it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you.

Romans 11:19 You will say, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

Romans 11:20 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe.

Romans 11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.

Romans 11:22 Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness toward you, provided you continue in his kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

Romans 11:23 And even those of Israel, if they do not persist in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.

Romans 11:24 For if you have been cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree.

Romans 11:25 So that you may not claim to be wiser than you are, brothers and sisters, I want you to understand this mystery: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.

Romans 11:26 And so all Israel will be saved; as it is written, “Out of Zion will come the Deliverer; he will banish ungodliness from Jacob.”

Romans 11:27 “And this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins.”

Romans 11:28 As regards the gospel they are enemies of God for your sake; but as regards election they are beloved, for the sake of their ancestors;

Romans 11:29 for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

Romans 11:30 Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience,

Romans 11:31 so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy.

Romans 11:32 For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

Romans 11:33 O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

Romans 11:34 "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?"

Romans 11:35 "Or who has given a gift to him, to receive a gift in return?"

Romans 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever. Amen.

Romans 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Romans 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God— what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Romans 12:3 For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

Romans 12:4 For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function,

Romans 12:5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

Romans 12:6 We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith;

Romans 12:7 ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching;

Romans 12:8 the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Romans 12:9 Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;

Romans 12:10 love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

Romans 12:11 Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.

Romans 12:12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.

Romans 12:13 Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Romans 12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

Romans 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Romans 12:16 Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are.

Romans 12:17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

Romans 12:18 If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Romans 12:19 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord."

Romans 12:20 No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads."

Romans 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 13:1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God.

Romans 13:2 Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.

Romans 13:3 For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval;

Romans 13:4 for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer.

Romans 13:5 Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience.

Romans 13:6 For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing.

Romans 13:7 Pay to all what is due them— taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

Romans 13:8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

Romans 13:9 The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Romans 13:10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Romans 13:11 Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers;

Romans 13:12 the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light;

Romans 13:13 let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy.

Romans 13:14 Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Romans 14:1 Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions.

Romans 14:2 Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them.

Romans 14:4 Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Romans 14:5 Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds.

Romans 14:6 Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

Romans 14:7 We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves.

Romans 14:8 If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord’s.

Romans 14:9 For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Romans 14:10 Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.

Romans 14:11 For it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God.”

Romans 14:12 So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

Romans 14:13 Let us therefore no longer pass judgment on one another, but resolve instead never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of another.

Romans 14:14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.

Romans 14:15 If your brother or sister is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died.

Romans 14:16 So do not let your good be spoken of as evil.

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Romans 14:18 The one who thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and has human approval.

Romans 14:19 Let us then pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.

Romans 14:20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for you to make others fall by what you eat;

Romans 14:21 it is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that makes your brother or sister stumble.

Romans 14:22 The faith that you have, have as your own conviction before God. Blessed are those who have no reason to condemn themselves because of what they approve.

Romans 14:23 But those who have doubts are condemned if they eat, because they do not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Romans 15:2 Each of us must please our neighbor for the good purpose of building up the neighbor.

Romans 15:3 For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”

Romans 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.

Romans 15:5 May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus,

Romans 15:6 so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:7 Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

Romans 15:8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God in order that he might confirm the promises given to the patriarchs,

Romans 15:9 and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, “Therefore I will confess you among the Gentiles, and sing praises to your name”;

Romans 15:10 and again he says, “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people”;

Romans 15:11 and again, “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him”;

Romans 15:12 and again Isaiah says, “The root of Jesse shall come, the one who rises to rule the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles shall hope.”

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:14 I myself feel confident about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

Romans 15:15 Nevertheless on some points I have written to you rather boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God

Romans 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to boast of my work for God.

Romans 15:18 For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to win obedience from the Gentiles, by word and deed,

Romans 15:19 by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and as far around as Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the good news of Christ.

Romans 15:20 Thus I make it my ambition to proclaim the good news, not where Christ has already been named, so that I do not build on someone else’s foundation,

Romans 15:21 but as it is written, “Those who have never been told of him shall see, and those who have never heard of him shall understand.”

Romans 15:22 This is the reason that I have so often been hindered from coming to you.

Romans 15:23 But now, with no further place for me in these regions, I desire, as I have for many years, to come to you

Romans 15:24 when I go to Spain. For I do hope to see you on my journey and to be sent on by you, once I have enjoyed your company for a little while.

Romans 15:25 At present, however, I am going to Jerusalem in a ministry to the saints;

Romans 15:26 for Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to share their resources with the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.

Romans 15:27 They were pleased to do this, and indeed they owe it to them; for if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual blessings, they ought also to be of service to them in material things.

Romans 15:28 So, when I have completed this, and have delivered to them what has been collected, I will set out by way of you to Spain;

Romans 15:29 and I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in earnest prayer to God on my behalf,

Romans 15:31 that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

Romans 15:32 so that by God’s will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.

Romans 15:33 The God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

Romans 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon of the church at Cenchreae,

Romans 16:2 so that you may welcome her in the Lord as is fitting for the saints, and help her in whatever she may require from you, for she has been a benefactor of many and of myself as well.

Romans 16:3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, who work with me in Christ Jesus,

Romans 16:4 and who risked their necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

Romans 16:5 Greet also the church in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who was the first convert in Asia for Christ.

Romans 16:6 Greet Mary, who has worked very hard among you.

Romans 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives who were in prison with me; they are prominent among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

Romans 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greet my relative Herodion. Greet those in the Lord who belong to the family of Narcissus.

Romans 16:12 Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord; and greet his mother— a mother to me also.

Romans 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

Romans 16:17 I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep an eye on those who cause dissensions and offenses, in opposition to the teaching that you have learned; avoid them.

Romans 16:18 For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the simple-minded.

Romans 16:19 For while your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, I want you to be wise in what is good and guileless in what is evil.

Romans 16:20 The God of peace will shortly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, my co-worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relatives.

Romans 16:22 I Tertius, the writer of this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you.

Romans 16:24

Romans 16:25 Now to God who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages

Romans 16:26 but is now disclosed, and through the prophetic writings is made known to all the Gentiles, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith—

Romans 16:27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

1 Corinthians 1:2 To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus,

1 Corinthians 1:5 for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—

1 Corinthians 1:6 just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—

1 Corinthians 1:7 so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:8 He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose.

1 Corinthians 1:11 For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters.

1 Corinthians 1:12 What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:13 Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius,

1 Corinthians 1:15 so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.)

1 Corinthians 1:17 For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

1 Corinthians 1:18 For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.”

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

1 Corinthians 1:21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe.

1 Corinthians 1:22 For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,

1 Corinthians 1:24 but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:25 For God’s foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God’s weakness is stronger than human strength.

1 Corinthians 1:26 Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth.

1 Corinthians 1:27 But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong;

1 Corinthians 1:28 God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are,

1 Corinthians 1:29 so that no one might boast in the presence of God.

1 Corinthians 1:30 He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

1 Corinthians 1:31 in order that, as it is written, “Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 2:1 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom.

1 Corinthians 2:2 For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:3 And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

1 Corinthians 2:4 My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:6 Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish.

1 Corinthians 2:7 But we speak God’s wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.

1 Corinthians 2:8 None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But, as it is written, “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him”—

1 Corinthians 2:10 these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God’s except the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

1 Corinthians 2:13 And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

1 Corinthians 2:14 Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God’s Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:15 Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else’s scrutiny.

1 Corinthians 2:16 “For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready,

1 Corinthians 3:3 for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations?

1 Corinthians 3:4 For when one says, “I belong to Paul,” and another, “I belong to Apollos,” are you not merely human?

1 Corinthians 3:5 What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:8 The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each.

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are God’s servants, working together; you are God’s field, God’s building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—

1 Corinthians 3:13 the work of each builder will become visible, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If what has been built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15 If the work is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy that person. For God’s temple is holy, and you are that temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18 Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,”

1 Corinthians 3:20 and again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.”

1 Corinthians 3:21 So let no one boast about human leaders. For all things are yours,

1 Corinthians 3:22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future— all belong to you,

1 Corinthians 3:23 and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4:1 Think of us in this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God’s mysteries.

1 Corinthians 4:2 Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 4:3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself.

1 Corinthians 4:4 I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me.

1 Corinthians 4:5 Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive commendation from God.

1 Corinthians 4:6 I have applied all this to Apollos and myself for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so that you may learn through us the meaning of the saying, “Nothing beyond what is written,” so that none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against another.

1 Corinthians 4:7 For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift?

1 Corinthians 4:8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! Quite apart from us you have become kings! Indeed, I wish that you had become kings, so that we might be kings with you!

1 Corinthians 4:9 For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, as though sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to mortals.

1 Corinthians 4:10 We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute.

1 Corinthians 4:11 To the present hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed and beaten and homeless,

1 Corinthians 4:12 and we grow weary from the work of our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure;

1 Corinthians 4:13 when slandered, we speak kindly. We have become like the rubbish of the world, the dregs of all things, to this very day.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I am not writing this to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children.

1 Corinthians 4:15 For though you might have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers. Indeed, in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

1 Corinthians 4:16 I appeal to you, then, be imitators of me.

1 Corinthians 4:17 For this reason I sent you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

1 Corinthians 4:18 But some of you, thinking that I am not coming to you, have become arrogant.

1 Corinthians 4:19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God depends not on talk but on power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 What would you prefer? Am I to come to you with a stick, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not found even among pagans; for a man is living with his father’s wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2 And you are arrogant! Should you not rather have mourned, so that he who has done this would have been removed from among you?

1 Corinthians 5:3 For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present I have already pronounced judgment

1 Corinthians 5:4 in the name of the Lord Jesus on the man who has done such a thing. When you are assembled, and my spirit is present with the power of our Lord Jesus,

1 Corinthians 5:5 you are to hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 5:6 Your boasting is not a good thing. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Therefore, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral persons—

1 Corinthians 5:10 not at all meaning the immoral of this world, or the greedy and robbers, or idolaters, since you would then need to go out of the world.

1 Corinthians 5:11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother or sister who is sexually immoral or greedy, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or robber. Do not even eat with such a one.

1 Corinthians 5:12 For what have I to do with judging those outside? Is it not those who are inside that you are to judge?

1 Corinthians 5:13 God will judge those outside. “Drive out the wicked person from among you.”

1 Corinthians 6:1 When any of you has a grievance against another, do you dare to take it to court before the unrighteous, instead of taking it before the saints?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Do you not know that we are to judge angels— to say nothing of ordinary matters?

1 Corinthians 6:4 If you have ordinary cases, then, do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the church?

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no one among you wise enough to decide between one believer and another,

1 Corinthians 6:6 but a believer goes to court against a believer— and before unbelievers at that?

1 Corinthians 6:7 In fact, to have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

1 Corinthians 6:8 But you yourselves wrong and defraud— and believers at that.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Do you not know that wrongdoers will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived! Fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, sodomites,

1 Corinthians 6:10 thieves, the greedy, drunkards, revilers, robbers— none of these will inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 And this is what some of you used to be. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 “All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything.

1 Corinthians 6:13 “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

1 Corinthians 6:14 And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.”

1 Corinthians 6:17 But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own?

1 Corinthians 6:20 For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: “It is well for a man not to touch a woman.”

1 Corinthians 7:2 But because of cases of sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 For the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Do not deprive one another except perhaps by agreement for a set time, to devote yourselves to prayer, and then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:6 This I say by way of concession, not of command.

1 Corinthians 7:7 I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has a particular gift from God, one having one kind and another a different kind.

1 Corinthians 7:8 To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is well for them to remain unmarried as I am.

1 Corinthians 7:9 But if they are not practicing self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion.

1 Corinthians 7:10 To the married I give this command— not I but the Lord— that the wife should not separate from her husband

1 Corinthians 7:11 (but if she does separate, let her remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 To the rest I say— I and not the Lord— that if any believer has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 And if any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him.

1 Corinthians 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is made holy through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy through her husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so; in such a case the brother or sister is not bound. It is to peace that God has called you.

1 Corinthians 7:16 Wife, for all you know, you might save your husband. Husband, for all you know, you might save your wife.

1 Corinthians 7:17 However that may be, let each of you lead the life that the Lord has assigned, to which God called you. This is my rule in all the churches.

1 Corinthians 7:18 Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision.

1 Corinthians 7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but obeying the commandments of God is everything.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Let each of you remain in the condition in which you were called.

1 Corinthians 7:21 Were you a slave when called? Do not be concerned about it. Even if you can gain your freedom, make use of your present condition now more than ever.

1 Corinthians 7:22 For whoever was called in the Lord as a slave is a freed person belonging to the Lord, just as whoever was free when called is a slave of Christ.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of human masters.

1 Corinthians 7:24 In whatever condition you were called, brothers and sisters, there remain with God.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Now concerning virgins, I have no command of the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 7:26 I think that, in view of the impending crisis, it is well for you to remain as you are.

1 Corinthians 7:27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

1 Corinthians 7:28 But if you marry, you do not sin, and if a virgin marries, she does not sin. Yet those who marry will experience distress in this life, and I would spare you that.

1 Corinthians 7:29 I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none,

1 Corinthians 7:30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions,

1 Corinthians 7:31 and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

1 Corinthians 7:32 I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord;

1 Corinthians 7:33 but the married man is anxious about the affairs of the world, how to please his wife,

1 Corinthians 7:34 and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman and the virgin are anxious about the affairs of the Lord, so that they may be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about the affairs of the world, how to please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I say this for your own benefit, not to put any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and unhindered devotion to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:36 If anyone thinks that he is not behaving properly toward his fiancee, if his passions are strong, and so it has to be, let him marry as he wishes; it is no sin. Let them marry.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But if someone stands firm in his resolve, being under no necessity but having his own desire under control, and has determined in his own mind to keep her as his fiancee, he will do well.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So then, he who marries his fiancee does well; and he who refrains from marriage will do better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A wife is bound as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, only in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40 But in my judgment she is more blessed if she remains as she is. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge;

1 Corinthians 8:3 but anyone who loves God is known by him.

1 Corinthians 8:4 Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.”

1 Corinthians 8:5 Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth— as in fact there are many gods and many lords—

1 Corinthians 8:6 yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

1 Corinthians 8:7 It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

1 Corinthians 8:8 “Food will not bring us close to God.” We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do.

1 Corinthians 8:9 But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

1 Corinthians 8:10 For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols?

1 Corinthians 8:11 So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed.

1 Corinthians 8:12 But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:3 This is my defense to those who would examine me.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Do we not have the right to our food and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Do we not have the right to be accompanied by a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Who at any time pays the expenses for doing military service? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not get any of its milk?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law also say the same?

1 Corinthians 9:9 For it is written in the law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.” Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

1 Corinthians 9:10 Or does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was indeed written for our sake, for whoever plows should plow in hope and whoever threshes should thresh in hope of a share in the crop.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have sown spiritual good among you, is it too much if we reap your material benefits?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we still more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is sacrificed on the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:15 But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this so that they may be applied in my case. Indeed, I would rather die than that— no one will deprive me of my ground for boasting!

1 Corinthians 9:16 If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel!

1 Corinthians 9:17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission.

1 Corinthians 9:18 What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:19 For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them.

1 Corinthians 9:20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law.

1 Corinthians 9:21 To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law.

1 Corinthians 9:22 To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some.

1 Corinthians 9:23 I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it.

1 Corinthians 9:25 Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one.

1 Corinthians 9:26 So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air;

1 Corinthians 9:27 but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10:1 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

1 Corinthians 10:2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

1 Corinthians 10:3 and all ate the same spiritual food,

1 Corinthians 10:4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play."

1 Corinthians 10:8 We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents.

1 Corinthians 10:10 And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

1 Corinthians 10:11 These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

1 Corinthians 10:12 So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall.

1 Corinthians 10:13 No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

1 Corinthians 10:14 Therefore, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols.

1 Corinthians 10:15 I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say.

1 Corinthians 10:16 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 What do I imply then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Or are we provoking the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

1 Corinthians 10:23 “All things are lawful,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful,” but not all things build up.

1 Corinthians 10:24 Do not seek your own advantage, but that of the other.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience,

1 Corinthians 10:26 for “the earth and its fullness are the Lord’s.”

1 Corinthians 10:27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:28 But if someone says to you, “This has been offered in sacrifice,” then do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience—

1 Corinthians 10:29 I mean the other’s conscience, not your own. For why should my liberty be subject to the judgment of someone else’s conscience?

1 Corinthians 10:30 If I partake with thankfulness, why should I be denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

1 Corinthians 10:31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,

1 Corinthians 10:33 just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:2 I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions just as I handed them on to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 But I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the husband is the head of his wife, and God is the head of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Any man who prays or prophesies with something on his head disgraces his head,

1 Corinthians 11:5 but any woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled disgraces her head— it is one and the same thing as having her head shaved.

1 Corinthians 11:6 For if a woman will not veil herself, then she should cut off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, she should wear a veil.

1 Corinthians 11:7 For a man ought not to have his head veiled, since he is the image and reflection of God; but woman is the reflection of man.

1 Corinthians 11:8 Indeed, man was not made from woman, but woman from man.

1 Corinthians 11:9 Neither was man created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man.

1 Corinthians 11:10 For this reason a woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man or man independent of woman.

1 Corinthians 11:12 For just as woman came from man, so man comes through woman; but all things come from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head unveiled?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair, it is degrading to him,

1 Corinthians 11:15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 But if anyone is disposed to be contentious—we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 Now in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.

1 Corinthians 11:18 For, to begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it.

1 Corinthians 11:19 Indeed, there have to be factions among you, for only so will it become clear who among you are genuine.

1 Corinthians 11:20 When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord's supper.

1 Corinthians 11:21 For when the time comes to eat, each of you goes ahead with your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22 What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I commend you? In this matter I do not commend you!

1 Corinthians 11:23 For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread,

1 Corinthians 11:24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:25 In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

1 Corinthians 11:29 For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves.

1 Corinthians 11:30 For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.

1 Corinthians 11:31 But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged.

1 Corinthians 11:32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

1 Corinthians 11:34 If you are hungry, eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for your condemnation. About the other things I will give instructions when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak.

1 Corinthians 12:3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says “Let Jesus be cursed!” and no one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:5 and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord;

1 Corinthians 12:6 and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.

1 Corinthians 12:7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:11 All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body— Jews or Greeks, slaves or free— and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:14 Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many.

1 Corinthians 12:15 If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:16 And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

1 Corinthians 12:18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.

1 Corinthians 12:19 If all were a single member, where would the body be?

1 Corinthians 12:20 As it is, there are many members, yet one body.

1 Corinthians 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

1 Corinthians 12:22 On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,

1 Corinthians 12:23 and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect;

1 Corinthians 12:24 whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member,

1 Corinthians 12:25 that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another.

1 Corinthians 12:26 If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

1 Corinthians 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

1 Corinthians 12:28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

1 Corinthians 12:31 But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

1 Corinthians 13:1 If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

1 Corinthians 13:2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant

1 Corinthians 13:5 or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;

1 Corinthians 13:6 it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end.

1 Corinthians 13:9 For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part;

1 Corinthians 13:10 but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways.

1 Corinthians 13:12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

1 Corinthians 13:13 And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Pursue love and strive for the spiritual gifts, and especially that you may prophesy.

1 Corinthians 14:2 For those who speak in a tongue do not speak to other people but to God; for nobody understands them, since they are speaking mysteries in the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 14:3 On the other hand, those who prophesy speak to other people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation.

1 Corinthians 14:4 Those who speak in a tongue build up themselves, but those who prophesy build up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:5 Now I would like all of you to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. One who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up.

1 Corinthians 14:6 Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you in some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

1 Corinthians 14:7 It is the same way with lifeless instruments that produce sound, such as the flute or the harp. If they do not give distinct notes, how will anyone know what is being played?

1 Corinthians 14:8 And if the bugle gives an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle?

1 Corinthians 14:9 So with yourselves; if in a tongue you utter speech that is not intelligible, how will anyone know what is being said? For you will be speaking into the air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 There are doubtless many different kinds of sounds in the world, and nothing is without sound.

1 Corinthians 14:11 If then I do not know the meaning of a sound, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 So with yourselves; since you are eager for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in them for building up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13 Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unproductive.

1 Corinthians 14:15 What should I do then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the mind also; I will sing praise with the spirit, but I will sing praise with the mind also.

1 Corinthians 14:16 Otherwise, if you say a blessing with the spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say the “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since the outsider does not know what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 For you may give thanks well enough, but the other person is not built up.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you;

1 Corinthians 14:19 nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind, in order to instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1 Corinthians 14:20 Brothers and sisters, do not be children in your thinking; rather, be infants in evil, but in thinking be adults.

1 Corinthians 14:21 In the law it is written, “By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners I will speak to this people; yet even then they will not listen to me,” says the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:22 Tongues, then, are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is not for unbelievers but for believers.

1 Corinthians 14:23 If, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your mind?

1 Corinthians 14:24 But if all prophesy, an unbeliever or outsider who enters is reproved by all and called to account by all.

1 Corinthians 14:25 After the secrets of the unbeliever's heart are disclosed, that person will bow down before God and worship him, declaring, "God is really among you."

1 Corinthians 14:26 What should be done then, my friends? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:28 But if there is no one to interpret, let them be silent in church and speak to themselves and to God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said.

1 Corinthians 14:30 If a revelation is made to someone else sitting nearby, let the first person be silent.

1 Corinthians 14:31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged.

1 Corinthians 14:32 And the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets,

1 Corinthians 14:33 for God is a God not of disorder but of peace. (As in all the churches of the saints,

1 Corinthians 14:34 women should be silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as the law also says.

1 Corinthians 14:35 If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

1 Corinthians 14:36 Or did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only ones it has reached?)

1 Corinthians 14:37 Anyone who claims to be a prophet, or to have spiritual powers, must acknowledge that what I am writing to you is a command of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:38 Anyone who does not recognize this is not to be recognized.

1 Corinthians 14:39 So, my friends, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues;

1 Corinthians 14:40 but all things should be done decently and in order.

1 Corinthians 15:1 Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand,

1 Corinthians 15:2 through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you— unless you have come to believe in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:3 For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:4 and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

1 Corinthians 15:6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died.

1 Corinthians 15:7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:8 Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me.

1 Corinthians 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them— though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

1 Corinthians 15:12 Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead?

1 Corinthians 15:13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised;

1 Corinthians 15:14 and if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith has been in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:15 We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ— whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised.

1 Corinthians 15:16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

1 Corinthians 15:17 If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

1 Corinthians 15:18 Then those also who have died in Christ have perished.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

1 Corinthians 15:21 For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being;

1 Corinthians 15:22 for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:24 Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1 Corinthians 15:27 For “God has put all things in subjection under his feet.” But when it says, “All things are put in subjection,” it is plain that this does not include the one who put all things in subjection under him.

1 Corinthians 15:28 When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who put all things in subjection under him, so that God may be all in all.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Otherwise, what will those people do who receive baptism on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf?

1 Corinthians 15:30 And why are we putting ourselves in danger every hour?

1 Corinthians 15:31 I die every day! That is as certain, brothers and sisters, as my boasting of you— a boast that I make in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Corinthians 15:32 If with merely human hopes I fought with wild animals at Ephesus, what would I have gained by it? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be deceived: “Bad company ruins good morals.”

1 Corinthians 15:34 Come to a sober and right mind, and sin no more; for some people have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

1 Corinthians 15:35 But someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?”

1 Corinthians 15:36 Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

1 Corinthians 15:37 And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain.

1 Corinthians 15:38 But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

1 Corinthians 15:39 Not all flesh is alike, but there is one flesh for human beings, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

1 Corinthians 15:40 There are both heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing, and that of the earthly is another.

1 Corinthians 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; indeed, star differs from star in glory.

1 Corinthians 15:42 So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

1 Corinthians 15:44 It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:45 Thus it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living being”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:49 Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50 What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:51 Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed,

1 Corinthians 15:52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:53 For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

1 Corinthians 15:54 When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.”

1 Corinthians 15:55 “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?”

1 Corinthians 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now concerning the collection for the saints: you should follow the directions I gave to the churches of Galatia.

1 Corinthians 16:2 On the first day of every week, each of you is to put aside and save whatever extra you earn, so that collections need not be taken when I come.

1 Corinthians 16:3 And when I arrive, I will send any whom you approve with letters to take your gift to Jerusalem.

1 Corinthians 16:4 If it seems advisable that I should go also, they will accompany me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 I will visit you after passing through Macedonia—for I intend to pass through Macedonia—

1 Corinthians 16:6 and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way, wherever I go.

1 Corinthians 16:7 I do not want to see you now just in passing, for I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.

1 Corinthians 16:8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

1 Corinthians 16:9 for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

1 Corinthians 16:10 If Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord just as I am;

1 Corinthians 16:11 therefore let no one despise him. Send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me; for I am expecting him with the brothers.

1 Corinthians 16:12 Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to visit you with the other brothers, but he was not at all willing to come now. He will come when he has the opportunity.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Keep alert, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Let all that you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 Now, brothers and sisters, you know that members of the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints;

1 Corinthians 16:16 I urge you to put yourselves at the service of such people, and of everyone who works and toils with them.

1 Corinthians 16:17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have made up for your absence;

1 Corinthians 16:18 for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. So give recognition to such persons.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches of Asia send greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, greet you warmly in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brothers and sisters send greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand.

1 Corinthians 16:22 Let anyone be accursed who has no love for the Lord. Our Lord, come!

1 Corinthians 16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the church of God that is in Corinth, including all the saints throughout Achaia:

2 Corinthians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation,

2 Corinthians 1:4 who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 For just as the sufferings of Christ are abundant for us, so also our consolation is abundant through Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:6 If we are being afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation; if we are being consoled, it is for your consolation, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we are also suffering.

2 Corinthians 1:7 Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our consolation.

2 Corinthians 1:8 We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of the affliction we experienced in Asia; for we were so utterly, unbearably crushed that we despaired of life itself.

2 Corinthians 1:9 Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death so that we would rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead.

2 Corinthians 1:10 He who rescued us from so deadly a peril will continue to rescue us; on him we have set our hope that he will rescue us again,

2 Corinthians 1:11 as you also join in helping us by your prayers, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.

2 Corinthians 1:12 Indeed, this is our boast, the testimony of our conscience: we have behaved in the world with frankness and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God— and all the more toward you.

2 Corinthians 1:13 For we write you nothing other than what you can read and also understand; I hope you will understand until the end—

2 Corinthians 1:14 as you have already understood us in part— that on the day of the Lord Jesus we are your boast even as you are our boast.

2 Corinthians 1:15 Since I was sure of this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a double favor;

2 Corinthians 1:16 I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to come back to you from Macedonia and have you send me on to Judea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 Was I vacillating when I wanted to do this? Do I make my plans according to ordinary human standards, ready to say “Yes, yes” and “No, no” at the same time?

2 Corinthians 1:18 As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not been “Yes and No.”

2 Corinthians 1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not “Yes and No”; but in him it is always “Yes.”

2 Corinthians 1:20 For in him every one of God’s promises is a “Yes.” For this reason it is through him that we say the “Amen,” to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 1:21 But it is God who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us,

2 Corinthians 1:22 by putting his seal on us and giving us his Spirit in our hearts as a first installment.

2 Corinthians 1:23 But I call on God as witness against me: it was to spare you that I did not come again to Corinth.

2 Corinthians 1:24 I do not mean to imply that we lord it over your faith; rather, we are workers with you for your joy, because you stand firm in the faith.

2 Corinthians 2:1 So I made up my mind not to make you another painful visit.

2 Corinthians 2:2 For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained?

2 Corinthians 2:3 And I wrote as I did, so that when I came, I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice; for I am confident about all of you, that my joy would be the joy of all of you.

2 Corinthians 2:4 For I wrote you out of much distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain, but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 But if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but to some extent— not to exaggerate it— to all of you.

2 Corinthians 2:6 This punishment by the majority is enough for such a person;

2 Corinthians 2:7 so now instead you should forgive and console him, so that he may not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:8 So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

2 Corinthians 2:9 I wrote for this reason: to test you and to know whether you are obedient in everything.

2 Corinthians 2:10 Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ.

2 Corinthians 2:11 And we do this so that we may not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

2 Corinthians 2:12 When I came to Troas to proclaim the good news of Christ, a door was opened for me in the Lord;

2 Corinthians 2:13 but my mind could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said farewell to them and went on to Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads in every place the fragrance that comes from knowing him.

2 Corinthians 2:15 For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

2 Corinthians 2:16 to the one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?

2 Corinthians 2:17 For we are not peddlers of God’s word like so many; but in Christ we speak as persons of sincerity, as persons sent from God and standing in his presence.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Surely we do not need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all;

2 Corinthians 3:3 and you show that you are a letter of Christ, prepared by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:4 Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God.

2 Corinthians 3:5 Not that we are competent of ourselves to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God,

2 Corinthians 3:6 who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 Now if the ministry of death, chiseled in letters on stone tablets, came in glory so that the people of Israel could not gaze at Moses’ face because of the glory of his face, a glory now set aside,

2 Corinthians 3:8 how much more will the ministry of the Spirit come in glory?

2 Corinthians 3:9 For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, much more does the ministry of justification abound in glory!

2 Corinthians 3:10 Indeed, what once had glory has lost its glory because of the greater glory;

2 Corinthians 3:11 for if what was set aside came through glory, much more has the permanent come in glory!

2 Corinthians 3:12 Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness,

2 Corinthians 3:13 not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside.

2 Corinthians 3:14 But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside.

2 Corinthians 3:15 Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds;

2 Corinthians 3:16 but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18 And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart.

2 Corinthians 4:2 We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 4:3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians 4:4 In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

2 Corinthians 4:5 For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6 For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:7 But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.

2 Corinthians 4:8 We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair;

2 Corinthians 4:9 persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;

2 Corinthians 4:10 always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11 For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh.

2 Corinthians 4:12 So death is at work in us, but life in you.

2 Corinthians 4:13 But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture— "I believed, and so I spoke"— we also believe, and so we speak,

2 Corinthians 4:14 because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence.

2 Corinthians 4:15 Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16 So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure,

2 Corinthians 4:18 because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

2 Corinthians 5:1 For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 5:2 For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling—

2 Corinthians 5:3 if indeed, when we have taken it off we will not be found naked.

2 Corinthians 5:4 For while we are still in this tent, we groan under our burden, because we wish not to be unclothed but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5 He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

2 Corinthians 5:6 So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—

2 Corinthians 5:7 for we walk by faith, not by sight.

2 Corinthians 5:8 Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.

2 Corinthians 5:10 For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

2 Corinthians 5:11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences.

2 Corinthians 5:12 We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died.

2 Corinthians 5:15 And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

2 Corinthians 5:16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way.

2 Corinthians 5:17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

2 Corinthians 5:18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;

2 Corinthians 5:19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.

2 Corinthians 5:20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6:1 As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

2 Corinthians 6:2 For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

2 Corinthians 6:3 We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,

2 Corinthians 6:4 but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities,

2 Corinthians 6:5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger;

2 Corinthians 6:6 by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love,

2 Corinthians 6:7 truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left;

2 Corinthians 6:8 in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true;

2 Corinthians 6:9 as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see— we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed;

2 Corinthians 6:10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11 We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you.

2 Corinthians 6:12 There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours.

2 Corinthians 6:13 In return— I speak as to children— open wide your hearts also.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not be mismatched with unbelievers. For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship is there between light and darkness?

2 Corinthians 6:15 What agreement does Christ have with Beliar? Or what does a believer share with an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6:16 What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, “I will live in them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2 Corinthians 6:17 Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you,

2 Corinthians 6:18 and I will be your father, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.”

2 Corinthians 7:1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and of spirit, making holiness perfect in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Make room in your hearts for us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

2 Corinthians 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

2 Corinthians 7:4 I often boast about you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with consolation; I am overjoyed in all our affliction.

2 Corinthians 7:5 For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted in every way— disputes without and fears within.

2 Corinthians 7:6 But God, who consoles the downcast, consoled us by the arrival of Titus,

2 Corinthians 7:7 and not only by his coming, but also by the consolation with which he was consoled about you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more.

2 Corinthians 7:8 For even if I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it (though I did regret it, for I see that I grieved you with that letter, though only briefly).

2 Corinthians 7:9 Now I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because your grief led to repentance; for you felt a godly grief, so that you were not harmed in any way by us.

2 Corinthians 7:10 For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation and brings no regret, but worldly grief produces death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves guiltless in the matter.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So although I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong, nor on account of the one who was wronged, but in order that your zeal for us might be made known to you before God.

2 Corinthians 7:13 In this we find comfort. In addition to our own consolation, we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his mind has been set at rest by all of you.

2 Corinthians 7:14 For if I have been somewhat boastful about you to him, I was not disgraced; but just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting to Titus has proved true as well.

2 Corinthians 7:15 And his heart goes out all the more to you, as he remembers the obedience of all of you, and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16 I rejoice, because I have complete confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:1 We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia;

2 Corinthians 8:2 for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part.

2 Corinthians 8:3 For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means,

2 Corinthians 8:4 begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints—

2 Corinthians 8:5 and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us,

2 Corinthians 8:6 so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you.

2 Corinthians 8:7 Now as you excel in everything— in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you— so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others.

2 Corinthians 8:9 For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

2 Corinthians 8:10 And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something—

2 Corinthians 8:11 now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means.

2 Corinthians 8:12 For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has— not according to what one does not have.

2 Corinthians 8:13 I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between

2 Corinthians 8:14 your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.

2 Corinthians 8:15 As it is written, “The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.”

2 Corinthians 8:16 But thanks be to God who put in the heart of Titus the same eagerness for you that I myself have.

2 Corinthians 8:17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but since he is more eager than ever, he is going to you of his own accord.

2 Corinthians 8:18 With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his proclaiming the good news;

2 Corinthians 8:19 and not only that, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us while we are administering this generous undertaking for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our goodwill.

2 Corinthians 8:20 We intend that no one should blame us about this generous gift that we are administering,

2 Corinthians 8:21 for we intend to do what is right not only in the Lord’s sight but also in the sight of others.

2 Corinthians 8:22 And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found eager in many matters, but who is now more eager than ever because of his great confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and co-worker in your service; as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 Therefore openly before the churches, show them the proof of your love and of our reason for boasting about you.

2 Corinthians 9:1 Now it is not necessary for me to write you about the ministry to the saints,

2 Corinthians 9:2 for I know your eagerness, which is the subject of my boasting about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

2 Corinthians 9:3 But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you may not prove to have been empty in this case, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be;

2 Corinthians 9:4 otherwise, if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, we would be humiliated— to say nothing of you— in this undertaking.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you, and arrange in advance for this bountiful gift that you have promised, so that it may be ready as a voluntary gift and not as an extortion.

2 Corinthians 9:6 The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:9 As it is written, “He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.”

2 Corinthians 9:10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.

2 Corinthians 9:11 You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us;

2 Corinthians 9:12 for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God.

2 Corinthians 9:13 Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others,

2 Corinthians 9:14 while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

2 Corinthians 10:1 I myself, Paul, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ— I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when I am away!—

2 Corinthians 10:2 I ask that when I am present I need not show boldness by daring to oppose those who think we are acting according to human standards.

2 Corinthians 10:3 Indeed, we live as human beings, but we do not wage war according to human standards;

2 Corinthians 10:4 for the weapons of our warfare are not merely human, but they have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments

2 Corinthians 10:5 and every proud obstacle raised up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:6 We are ready to punish every disobedience when your obedience is complete.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Look at what is before your eyes. If you are confident that you belong to Christ, remind yourself of this, that just as you belong to Christ, so also do we.

2 Corinthians 10:8 Now, even if I boast a little too much of our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of it.

2 Corinthians 10:9 I do not want to seem as though I am trying to frighten you with my letters.

2 Corinthians 10:10 For they say, “His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.”

2 Corinthians 10:11 Let such people understand that what we say by letter when absent, we will also do when present.

2 Corinthians 10:12 We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another, and compare themselves with one another, they do not show good sense.

2 Corinthians 10:13 We, however, will not boast beyond limits, but will keep within the field that God has assigned to us, to reach out even as far as you.

2 Corinthians 10:14 For we were not overstepping our limits when we reached you; we were the first to come all the way to you with the good news of Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:15 We do not boast beyond limits, that is, in the labors of others; but our hope is that, as your faith increases, our sphere of action among you may be greatly enlarged,

2 Corinthians 10:16 so that we may proclaim the good news in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in someone else's sphere of action.

2 Corinthians 10:17 "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

2 Corinthians 10:18 For it is not those who commend themselves that are approved, but those whom the Lord commends.

2 Corinthians 11:1 I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Do bear with me!

2 Corinthians 11:2 I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:3 But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by its cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you submit to it readily enough.

2 Corinthians 11:5 I think that I am not in the least inferior to these super-apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:6 I may be untrained in speech, but not in knowledge; certainly in every way and in all things we have made this evident to you.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed God's good news to you free of charge?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I robbed other churches by accepting support from them in order to serve you.

2 Corinthians 11:9 And when I was with you and was in need, I did not burden anyone, for my needs were supplied by the friends who came from Macedonia. So I refrained and will continue to refrain from burdening you in any way.

2 Corinthians 11:10 As the truth of Christ is in me, this boast of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 11:11 And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

2 Corinthians 11:12 And what I do I will also continue to do, in order to deny an opportunity to those who want an opportunity to be recognized as our equals in what they boast about.

2 Corinthians 11:13 For such boasters are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14 And no wonder! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 So it is not strange if his ministers also disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness. Their end will match their deeds.

2 Corinthians 11:16 I repeat, let no one think that I am a fool; but if you do, then accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little.

2 Corinthians 11:17 What I am saying in regard to this boastful confidence, I am saying not with the Lord's authority, but as a fool;

2 Corinthians 11:18 since many boast according to human standards, I will also boast.

2 Corinthians 11:19 For you gladly put up with fools, being wise yourselves!

2 Corinthians 11:20 For you put up with it when someone makes slaves of you, or preys upon you, or takes advantage of you, or puts on airs, or gives you a slap in the face.

2 Corinthians 11:21 To my shame, I must say, we were too weak for that! But whatever anyone dares to boast of— I am speaking as a fool— I also dare to boast of that.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they ministers of Christ? I am talking like a madman— I am a better one: with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless floggings, and often near death.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times I have received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one.

2 Corinthians 11:25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I received a stoning. Three times I was shipwrecked; for a night and a day I was adrift at sea;

2 Corinthians 11:26 on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from bandits, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers and sisters;

2 Corinthians 11:27 in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, hungry and thirsty, often without food, cold and naked.

2 Corinthians 11:28 And, besides other things, I am under daily pressure because of my anxiety for all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I am not indignant?

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus (blessed be he forever!) knows that I do not lie.

2 Corinthians 11:32 In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus in order to seize me,

2 Corinthians 11:33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

2 Corinthians 12:1 It is necessary to boast; nothing is to be gained by it, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven— whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows.

2 Corinthians 12:3 And I know that such a person— whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows—

2 Corinthians 12:4 was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat.

2 Corinthians 12:5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses.

2 Corinthians 12:6 But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me,

2 Corinthians 12:7 even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated.

2 Corinthians 12:8 Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me,

2 Corinthians 12:9 but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

2 Corinthians 12:10 Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have been a fool! You forced me to it. Indeed you should have been the ones commending me, for I am not at all inferior to these super-apostles, even though I am nothing.

2 Corinthians 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with utmost patience, signs and wonders and mighty works.

2 Corinthians 12:13 How have you been worse off than the other churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

2 Corinthians 12:14 Here I am, ready to come to you this third time. And I will not be a burden, because I do not want what is yours but you; for children ought not to lay up for their parents, but parents for their children.

2 Corinthians 12:15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for you. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

2 Corinthians 12:16 Let it be assumed that I did not burden you. Nevertheless (you say) since I was crafty, I took you in by deceit.

2 Corinthians 12:17 Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves with the same spirit? Did we not take the same steps?

2 Corinthians 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves before you? We are speaking in Christ before God. Everything we do, beloved, is for the sake of building you up.

2 Corinthians 12:20 For I fear that when I come, I may find you not as I wish, and that you may find me not as you wish; I fear that there may perhaps be quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder.

2 Corinthians 12:21 I fear that when I come again, my God may humble me before you, and that I may have to mourn over many who previously sinned and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and licentiousness that they have practiced.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. “Any charge must be sustained by the evidence of two or three witnesses.”

2 Corinthians 13:2 I warned those who sinned previously and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again, I will not be lenient—

2 Corinthians 13:3 since you desire proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful in you.

2 Corinthians 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves to see whether you are living in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?— unless, indeed, you fail to meet the test!

2 Corinthians 13:6 I hope you will find out that we have not failed.

2 Corinthians 13:7 But we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong— not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed.

2 Corinthians 13:8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

2 Corinthians 13:9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. This is what we pray for, that you may become perfect.

2 Corinthians 13:10 So I write these things while I am away from you, so that when I come, I may not have to be severe in using the authority that the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

2 Corinthians 13:11 Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

2 Corinthians 13:13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Galatians

1:1 Paul an apostle— sent neither by human commission nor from human authorities, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—

Galatians 1:2 and all the members of God's family who are with me, To the churches of Galatia:

Galatians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

Galatians 1:4 who gave himself for our sins to set us free from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

Galatians 1:5 to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Galatians 1:6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—

Galatians 1:7 not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are confusing you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should proclaim to you a gospel contrary to what we proclaimed to you, let that one be accursed!

Galatians 1:9 As we have said before, so now I repeat, if anyone proclaims to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let that one be accursed!

Galatians 1:10 Am I now seeking human approval, or God's approval? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:11 For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin;

Galatians 1:12 for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:13 You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it.

Galatians 1:14 I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors.

Galatians 1:15 But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased

Galatians 1:16 to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being,

Galatians 1:17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him fifteen days;

Galatians 1:19 but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord’s brother.

Galatians 1:20 In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!

Galatians 1:21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia,

Galatians 1:22 and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ;

Galatians 1:23 they only heard it said, “The one who formerly was persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.”

Galatians 1:24 And they glorified God because of me.

Galatians 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me.

Galatians 2:2 I went up in response to a revelation. Then I laid before them (though only in a private meeting with the acknowledged leaders) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure that I was not running, or had not run, in vain.

Galatians 2:3 But even Titus, who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised, though he was a Greek.

Galatians 2:4 But because of false believers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might enslave us—

Galatians 2:5 we did not submit to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might always remain with you.

Galatians 2:6 And from those who were supposed to be acknowledged leaders (what they actually were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)— those leaders contributed nothing to me.

Galatians 2:7 On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel for the circumcised

Galatians 2:8 (for he who worked through Peter making him an apostle to the circumcised also worked through me in sending me to the Gentiles),

Galatians 2:9 and when James and Cephas and John, who were acknowledged pillars, recognized the grace that had been given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Galatians 2:10 They asked only one thing, that we remember the poor, which was actually what I was eager to do.

Galatians 2:11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood self-condemned;

Galatians 2:12 for until certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But after they came, he drew back and kept himself separate for fear of the circumcision faction.

Galatians 2:13 And the other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

Galatians 2:14 But when I saw that they were not acting consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, “If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

Galatians 2:15 We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners;

Galatians 2:16 yet we know that a person is justified not by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by doing the works of the law, because no one will be justified by the works of the law.

Galatians 2:17 But if, in our effort to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have been found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not!

Galatians 2:18 But if I build up again the very things that I once tore down, then I demonstrate that I am a transgressor.

Galatians 2:19 For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ;

Galatians 2:20 and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:21 I do not nullify the grace of God; for if justification comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

Galatians 3:1 You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly exhibited as crucified!

Galatians 3:2 The only thing I want to learn from you is this: Did you receive the Spirit by doing the works of the law or by believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:3 Are you so foolish? Having started with the Spirit, are you now ending with the flesh?

Galatians 3:4 Did you experience so much for nothing?— if it really was for nothing.

Galatians 3:5 Well then, does God supply you with the Spirit and work miracles among you by your doing the works of the law, or by your believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:6 Just as Abraham "believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness,"

Galatians 3:7 so, you see, those who believe are the descendants of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, declared the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "All the Gentiles shall be blessed in you."

Galatians 3:9 For this reason, those who believe are blessed with Abraham who believed.

Galatians 3:10 For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not observe and obey all the things written in the book of the law."

Galatians 3:11 Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law; for "The one who is righteous will live by faith."

Galatians 3:12 But the law does not rest on faith; on the contrary, "Whoever does the works of the law will live by them."

Galatians 3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us— for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"—

Galatians 3:14 in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Galatians 3:15 Brothers and sisters, I give an example from daily life: once a person's will has been ratified, no one adds to it or annuls it.

Galatians 3:16 Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring; it does not say, "And to offsprings," as of many; but it says, "And to your offspring," that is, to one person, who is Christ.

Galatians 3:17 My point is this: the law, which came four hundred thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

Galatians 3:18 For if the inheritance comes from the law, it no longer comes from the promise; but God granted it to Abraham through the promise.

Galatians 3:19 Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring would come to whom the promise had been made; and it was ordained through angels by a mediator.

Galatians 3:20 Now a mediator involves more than one party; but God is one.

Galatians 3:21 Is the law then opposed to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could make alive, then righteousness would indeed come through the law.

Galatians 3:22 But the scripture has imprisoned all things under the power of sin, so that what was promised through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

Galatians 3:23 Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed.

Galatians 3:24 Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith.

Galatians 3:25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian,

Galatians 3:26 for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith.

Galatians 3:27 As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 4:1 My point is this: heirs, as long as they are minors, are no better than slaves, though they are the owners of all the property;

Galatians 4:2 but they remain under guardians and trustees until the date set by the father.

Galatians 4:3 So with us; while we were minors, we were enslaved to the elemental spirits of the world.

Galatians 4:4 But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

Galatians 4:5 in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children.

Galatians 4:6 And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"

Galatians 4:7 So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Galatians 4:8 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to beings that by nature are not gods.

Galatians 4:9 Now, however, that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and beggarly elemental spirits? How can you want to be enslaved to them again?

Galatians 4:10 You are observing special days, and months, and seasons, and years.

Galatians 4:11 I am afraid that my work for you may have been wasted.

Galatians 4:12 Friends, I beg you, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong.

Galatians 4:13 You know that it was because of a physical infirmity that I first announced the gospel to you;

Galatians 4:14 though my condition put you to the test, you did not scorn or despise me, but welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:15 What has become of the goodwill you felt? For I testify that, had it been possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?

Galatians 4:17 They make much of you, but for no good purpose; they want to exclude you, so that you may make much of them.

Galatians 4:18 It is good to be made much of for a good purpose at all times, and not only when I am present with you.

Galatians 4:19 My little children, for whom I am again in the pain of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,

Galatians 4:20 I wish I were present with you now and could change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

Galatians 4:21 Tell me, you who desire to be subject to the law, will you not listen to the law?

Galatians 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and the other by a free woman.

Galatians 4:23 One, the child of the slave, was born according to the flesh; the other, the child of the free woman, was born through the promise.

Galatians 4:24 Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One woman, in fact, is Hagar, from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery.

Galatians 4:25 Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

Galatians 4:26 But the other woman corresponds to the Jerusalem above; she is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:27 For it is written, “Rejoice, you childless one, you who bear no children, burst into song and shout, you who endure no birth pangs; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than the children of the one who is married.”

Galatians 4:28 Now you, my friends, are children of the promise, like Isaac.

Galatians 4:29 But just as at that time the child who was born according to the flesh persecuted the child who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now also.

Galatians 4:30 But what does the scripture say? “Drive out the slave and her child; for the child of the slave will not share the inheritance with the child of the free woman.”

Galatians 4:31 So then, friends, we are children, not of the slave but of the free woman.

Galatians 5:1 For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

Galatians 5:2 Listen! I, Paul, am telling you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

Galatians 5:3 Once again I testify to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obliged to obey the entire law.

Galatians 5:4 You who want to be justified by the law have cut yourselves off from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.

Galatians 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.

Galatians 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything; the only thing that counts is faith working through love.

Galatians 5:7 You were running well; who prevented you from obeying the truth?

Galatians 5:8 Such persuasion does not come from the one who calls you.

Galatians 5:9 A little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough.

Galatians 5:10 I am confident about you in the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But whoever it is that is confusing you will pay the penalty.

Galatians 5:11 But my friends, why am I still being persecuted if I am still preaching circumcision? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed.

Galatians 5:12 I wish those who unsettle you would castrate themselves!

Galatians 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another.

Galatians 5:14 For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Galatians 5:15 If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Galatians 5:16 Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh.

Galatians 5:17 For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want.

Galatians 5:18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law.

Galatians 5:19 Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness,

Galatians 5:20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions,

Galatians 5:21 envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness,

Galatians 5:23 gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

Galatians 5:24 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

Galatians 5:25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Galatians 5:26 Let us not become conceited, competing against one another, envying one another.

Galatians 6:1 My friends, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. Take care that you yourselves are not tempted.

Galatians 6:2 Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:3 For if those who are nothing think they are something, they deceive themselves.

Galatians 6:4 All must test their own work; then that work, rather than their neighbor’s work, will become a cause for pride.

Galatians 6:5 For all must carry their own loads.

Galatians 6:6 Those who are taught the word must share in all good things with their teacher.

Galatians 6:7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow.

Galatians 6:8 If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

Galatians 6:9 So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.

Galatians 6:10 So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

Galatians 6:11 See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand!

Galatians 6:12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised— only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh.

Galatians 6:14 May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything!

Galatians 6:16 As for those who will follow this rule— peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body.

Galatians 6:18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus:

Ephesians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places,

Ephesians 1:4 just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love.

Ephesians 1:5 He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,

Ephesians 1:6 to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

Ephesians 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace

Ephesians 1:8 that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight

Ephesians 1:9 he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ,

Ephesians 1:10 as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

Ephesians 1:11 In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will,

Ephesians 1:12 so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:13 In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit;

Ephesians 1:14 this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God’s own people, to the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:15 I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason

Ephesians 1:16 I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers.

Ephesians 1:17 I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him,

Ephesians 1:18 so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints,

Ephesians 1:19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power.

Ephesians 1:20 God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Ephesians 1:21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come.

Ephesians 1:22 And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, Ephesians 1:23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 2:1 You were dead through the trespasses and sins

Ephesians 2:2 in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient.

Ephesians 2:3 All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else.

Ephesians 2:4 But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us

Ephesians 2:5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ— by grace you have been saved—

Ephesians 2:6 and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

Ephesians 2:7 so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—

Ephesians 2:9 not the result of works, so that no one may boast.

Ephesians 2:10 For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Ephesians 2:11 So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called “the uncircumcision” by those who are called “the circumcision”— a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands—

Ephesians 2:12 remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us.

Ephesians 2:15 He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace,

Ephesians 2:16 and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it.

Ephesians 2:17 So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near;

Ephesians 2:18 for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Ephesians 2:19 So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God,

Ephesians 2:20 built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:21 In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord;

Ephesians 2:22 in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

Ephesians 3:1 This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

Ephesians 3:2 for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you,

Ephesians 3:3 and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words,

Ephesians 3:4 a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ.

Ephesians 3:5 In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:

Ephesians 3:6 that is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Ephesians 3:7 Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power.

Ephesians 3:8 Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ,

Ephesians 3:9 and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things;

Ephesians 3:10 so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 3:11 This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Ephesians 3:12 in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Ephesians 3:13 I pray therefore that you may not lose heart over my sufferings for you; they are your glory.

Ephesians 3:14 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, Ephesians 3:15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name.

Ephesians 3:16 I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit,

Ephesians 3:17 and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love.

Ephesians 3:18 I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth,

Ephesians 3:19 and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine,

Ephesians 3:21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4:1 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,

Ephesians 4:2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,

Ephesians 4:3 making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling,

Ephesians 4:5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Ephesians 4:6 one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

Ephesians 4:7 But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ’s gift.

Ephesians 4:8 Therefore it is said, “When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people.”

Ephesians 4:9 (When it says, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth?

Ephesians 4:10 He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.)

Ephesians 4:11 The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,

Ephesians 4:12 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,

Ephesians 4:13 until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.

Ephesians 4:14 We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people’s trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming.

Ephesians 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,

Ephesians 4:16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body’s growth in building itself up in love.

Ephesians 4:17 Now this I affirm and insist on in the Lord: you must no longer live as the Gentiles live, in the futility of their minds.

Ephesians 4:18 They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of their ignorance and hardness of heart.

Ephesians 4:19 They have lost all sensitivity and have abandoned themselves to licentiousness, greedy to practice every kind of impurity.

Ephesians 4:20 That is not the way you learned Christ!

Ephesians 4:21 For surely you have heard about him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus.

Ephesians 4:22 You were taught to put away your former way of life, your old self, corrupt and deluded by its lusts,

Ephesians 4:23 and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

Ephesians 4:24 and to clothe yourselves with the new self, created according to the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Ephesians 4:25 So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another.

Ephesians 4:26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger,

Ephesians 4:27 and do not make room for the devil.

Ephesians 4:28 Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.

Ephesians 4:29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.

Ephesians 4:30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.

Ephesians 4:31 Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice,

Ephesians 4:32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Ephesians 5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, Ephesians 5:2 and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:3 But fornication and impurity of any kind, or greed, must not even be mentioned among you, as is proper among saints.

Ephesians 5:4 Entirely out of place is obscene, silly, and vulgar talk; but instead, let there be thanksgiving.

Ephesians 5:5 Be sure of this, that no fornicator or impure person, or one who is greedy (that is, an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Ephesians 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes on those who are disobedient.

Ephesians 5:7 Therefore do not be associated with them.

Ephesians 5:8 For once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light. Live as children of light—

Ephesians 5:9 for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good and right and true.

Ephesians 5:10 Try to find out what is pleasing to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:11 Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them.

Ephesians 5:12 For it is shameful even to mention what such people do secretly;

Ephesians 5:13 but everything exposed by the light becomes visible,

Ephesians 5:14 for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, “Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

Ephesians 5:15 Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise,

Ephesians 5:16 making the most of the time, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:17 So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

Ephesians 5:18 Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit,

Ephesians 5:19 as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts,

Ephesians 5:20 giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives, be subject to your husbands as you are to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife just as Christ is the head of the church, the body of which he is the Savior.

Ephesians 5:24 Just as the church is subject to Christ, so also wives ought to be, in everything, to their husbands.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,

Ephesians 5:26 in order to make her holy by cleansing her with the washing of water by the word,

Ephesians 5:27 so as to present the church to himself in splendor, without a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind— yes, so that she may be holy and without blemish.

Ephesians 5:28 In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they do their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

Ephesians 5:29 For no one ever hates his own body, but he nourishes and tenderly cares for it, just as Christ does for the church,

Ephesians 5:30 because we are members of his body.

Ephesians 5:31 “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”

Ephesians 5:32 This is a great mystery, and I am applying it to Christ and the church.

Ephesians 5:33 Each of you, however, should love his wife as himself, and a wife should respect her husband.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

Ephesians 6:2 “Honor your father and mother”— this is the first commandment with a promise:

Ephesians 6:3 “so that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.”

Ephesians 6:4 And, fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5 Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, in singleness of heart, as you obey Christ;

Ephesians 6:6 not only while being watched, and in order to please them, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

Ephesians 6:7 Render service with enthusiasm, as to the Lord and not to men and women,

Ephesians 6:8 knowing that whatever good we do, we will receive the same again from the Lord, whether we are slaves or free.

Ephesians 6:9 And, masters, do the same to them. Stop threatening them, for you know that both of you have the same Master in heaven, and with him there is no partiality.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Ephesians 6:12 For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.

Ephesians 6:14 Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness.

Ephesians 6:15 As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace.

Ephesians 6:16 With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:17 Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Ephesians 6:18 Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints.

Ephesians 6:19 Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,

Ephesians 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Ephesians 6:21 So that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus will tell you everything. He is a dear brother and a faithful minister in the Lord.

Ephesians 6:22 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, to let you know how we are, and to encourage your hearts.

Ephesians 6:23 Peace be to the whole community, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:24 Grace be with all who have an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

Philippians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3 I thank my God every time I remember you,

Philippians 1:4 constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you,

Philippians 1:5 because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now.

Philippians 1:6 I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:7 It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

Philippians 1:8 For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:9 And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight

Philippians 1:10 to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless,

Philippians 1:11 having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12 I want you to know, beloved, that what has happened to me has actually helped to spread the gospel,

Philippians 1:13 so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to everyone else that my imprisonment is for Christ;

Philippians 1:14 and most of the brothers and sisters, having been made confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, dare to speak the word with greater boldness and without fear.

Philippians 1:15 Some proclaim Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from goodwill.

Philippians 1:16 These proclaim Christ out of love, knowing that I have been put here for the defense of the gospel;

Philippians 1:17 the others proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely but intending to increase my suffering in my imprisonment.

Philippians 1:18 What does it matter? Just this, that Christ is proclaimed in every way, whether out of false motives or true; and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, Philippians 1:19 for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance.

Philippians 1:20 It is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be put to shame in any way, but that by my speaking with all boldness, Christ will be exalted now as always in my body, whether by life or by death.

Philippians 1:21 For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain.

Philippians 1:22 If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer.

Philippians 1:23 I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better;

Philippians 1:24 but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you.

Philippians 1:25 Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith,

Philippians 1:26 so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Philippians 1:27 Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel,

Philippians 1:28 and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God’s doing.

Philippians 1:29 For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well—

Philippians 1:30 since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Philippians 2:1 If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy,

Philippians 2:2 make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Philippians 2:3 Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves.

Philippians 2:4 Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

Philippians 2:5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,

Philippians 2:6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, Philippians 2:7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form,

Philippians 2:8 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.

Philippians 2:9 Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name,

Philippians 2:10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

Philippians 2:11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

Philippians 2:13 for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Philippians 2:14 Do all things without murmuring and arguing,

Philippians 2:15 so that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine like stars in the world.

Philippians 2:16 It is by your holding fast to the word of life that I can boast on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

Philippians 2:17 But even if I am being poured out as a libation over the sacrifice and the offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you—

Philippians 2:18 and in the same way you also must be glad and rejoice with me.

Philippians 2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may be cheered by news of you.

Philippians 2:20 I have no one like him who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare.

Philippians 2:21 All of them are seeking their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But Timothy’s worth you know, how like a son with a father he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

Philippians 2:23 I hope therefore to send him as soon as I see how things go with me;

Philippians 2:24 and I trust in the Lord that I will also come soon.

Philippians 2:25 Still, I think it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus— my brother and co-worker and fellow soldier, your messenger and minister to my need;

Philippians 2:26 for he has been longing for all of you, and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill.

Philippians 2:27 He was indeed so ill that he nearly died. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

Philippians 2:28 I am the more eager to send him, therefore, in order that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious.

Philippians 2:29 Welcome him then in the Lord with all joy, and honor such people,

Philippians 2:30 because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for those services that you could not give me.

Philippians 3:1 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is not troublesome to me, and for you it is a safeguard.

Philippians 3:2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of those who mutilate the flesh!

Philippians 3:3 For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh—

Philippians 3:4 even though I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh. If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more:

Philippians 3:5 circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee;

Philippians 3:6 as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Philippians 3:7 Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ.

Philippians 3:8 More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ

Philippians 3:9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith.

Philippians 3:10 I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death,

Philippians 3:11 if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

Philippians 3:13 Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

Philippians 3:14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 Let those of us then who are mature be of the same mind; and if you think differently about anything, this too God will reveal to you.

Philippians 3:16 Only let us hold fast to what we have attained.

Philippians 3:17 Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us.

Philippians 3:18 For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears.

Philippians 3:19 Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things.

Philippians 3:20 But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 3:21 He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself.

Philippians 4:1 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Philippians 4:2 I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

Philippians 4:3 Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Philippians 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.

Philippians 4:5 Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near.

Philippians 4:6 Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Philippians 4:9 Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned for me, but had no opportunity to show it.

Philippians 4:11 Not that I am referring to being in need; for I have learned to be content with whatever I have.

Philippians 4:12 I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need.

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:14 In any case, it was kind of you to share my distress.

Philippians 4:15 YouPhilippians indeed know that in the early days of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone.

Philippians 4:16 For even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me help for my needs more than once.

Philippians 4:17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the profit that accumulates to your account.

Philippians 4:18 I have been paid in full and have more than enough; I am fully satisfied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:19 And my God will fully satisfy every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The friends who are with me greet you.

Philippians 4:22 All the saints greet you, especially those of the emperor’s household.

Philippians 4:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Colossians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, Colossians 1:2 To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

Colossians 1:3 In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Colossians 1:4 for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints,

Colossians 1:5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel

Colossians 1:6 that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.

Colossians 1:7 This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf,

Colossians 1:8 and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

Colossians 1:9 For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,

Colossians 1:10 so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.

Colossians 1:11 May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully

Colossians 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light.

Colossians 1:13 He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son,

Colossians 1:14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Colossians 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation;

Colossians 1:16 for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers— all things have been created through him and for him.

Colossians 1:17 He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Colossians 1:18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything.

Colossians 1:19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, Colossians 1:20 and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Colossians 1:21 And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds,

Colossians 1:22 he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him—

Colossians 1:23 provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

Colossians 1:24 I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church.

Colossians 1:25 I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known,

Colossians 1:26 the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints.

Colossians 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Colossians 1:28 It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Colossians 1:29 For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.

Colossians 2:1 For I want you to know how much I am struggling for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me face to face.

Colossians 2:2 I want their hearts to be encouraged and united in love, so that they may have all the riches of assured understanding and have the knowledge of God's mystery, that is, Christ himself,

Colossians 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Colossians 2:4 I am saying this so that no one may deceive you with plausible arguments.

Colossians 2:5 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, and I rejoice to see your morale and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Colossians 2:6 As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, Colossians 2:7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:8 See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ.

Colossians 2:9 For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily,

Colossians 2:10 and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority.

Colossians 2:11 In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ;

Colossians 2:12 when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

Colossians 2:13 And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, Colossians 2:14 erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross.

Colossians 2:15 He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

Colossians 2:16 Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths.

Colossians 2:17 These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ.

Colossians 2:18 Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking,

Colossians 2:19 and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Colossians 2:20 If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the universe, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations,

Colossians 2:21 “Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch”?

Colossians 2:22 All these regulations refer to things that perish with use; they are simply human commands and teachings.

Colossians 2:23 These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-imposed piety, humility, and severe treatment of the body, but they are of no value in checking self-indulgence.

Colossians 3:1 So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

Colossians 3:2 Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth,

Colossians 3:3 for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry).

Colossians 3:6 On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient.

Colossians 3:7 These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life.

Colossians 3:8 But now you must get rid of all such things— anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

Colossians 3:9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices

Colossians 3:10 and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator.

Colossians 3:11 In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Colossians 3:12 As God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.

Colossians 3:13 Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Colossians 3:14 Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Colossians 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

Colossians 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly.

Colossians 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is your acceptable duty in the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart.

Colossians 3:22 Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only while being watched and in order to please them, but wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever your task, put yourselves into it, as done for the Lord and not for your masters,

Colossians 3:24 since you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:25 For the wrongdoer will be paid back for whatever wrong has been done, and there is no partiality.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, treat your slaves justly and fairly, for you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving.

Colossians 4:3 At the same time pray for us as well that God will open to us a door for the word, that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am in prison,

Colossians 4:4 so that I may reveal it clearly, as I should.

Colossians 4:5 Conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time.

Colossians 4:6 Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone.

Colossians 4:7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me; he is a beloved brother, a faithful minister, and a fellow servant in the Lord.

Colossians 4:8 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts;

Colossians 4:9 he is coming with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.

Colossians 4:10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, as does Mark the cousin of Barnabas, concerning whom you have received instructions— if he comes to you, welcome him.

Colossians 4:11 And Jesus who is called Justus greets you. These are the only ones of the circumcision among my co-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you. He is always wrestling in his prayers on your behalf, so that you may stand mature and fully assured in everything that God wills.

Colossians 4:13 For I testify for him that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.

Colossians 4:15 Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.

Colossians 4:16 And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17 And say to Archippus, “See that you complete the task that you have received in the Lord.”

Colossians 4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly

1 Thessalonians 1:3 remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you,

1 Thessalonians 1:5 because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit,

1 Thessalonians 1:7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

1 Thessalonians 1:8 For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it.

1 Thessalonians 1:9 For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,

1 Thessalonians 1:10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead— Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain,

1 Thessalonians 2:2 but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery,

1 Thessalonians 2:4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed;

1 Thessalonians 2:6 nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others,

1 Thessalonians 2:7 though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

1 Thessalonians 2:9 You remember our labor and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was toward you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:11 As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children,

1 Thessalonians 2:12 urging and encouraging you and pleading that you lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God’s word, which is also at work in you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you suffered the same things from your own compatriots as they did from the Jews,

1 Thessalonians 2:15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out; they displease God and oppose everyone

1 Thessalonians 2:16 by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. Thus they have constantly been filling up the measure of their sins; but God's wrath has overtaken them at last.

1 Thessalonians 2:17 As for us, brothers and sisters, when, for a short time, we were made orphans by being separated from you— in person, not in heart— we longed with great eagerness to see you face to face.

1 Thessalonians 2:18 For we wanted to come to you— certainly I, Paul, wanted to again and again— but Satan blocked our way.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 Yes, you are our glory and joy!

1 Thessalonians 3:1 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we decided to be left alone in Athens;

1 Thessalonians 3:2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker for God in proclaiming the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you for the sake of your faith,

1 Thessalonians 3:3 so that no one would be shaken by these persecutions. Indeed, you yourselves know that this is what we are destined for.

1 Thessalonians 3:4 In fact, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we were to suffer persecution; so it turned out, as you know.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith; I was afraid that somehow the tempter had tempted you and that our labor had been in vain.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love. He has told us also that you always remember us kindly and long to see us— just as we long to see you.

1 Thessalonians 3:7 For this reason, brothers and sisters, during all our distress and persecution we have been encouraged about you through your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:8 For we now live, if you continue to stand firm in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you?

1 Thessalonians 3:10 Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you.

1 Thessalonians 3:12 And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you.

1 Thessalonians 3:13 And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 Finally, brothers and sisters, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus that, as you learned from us how you ought to live and to please God (as, in fact, you are doing), you should do so more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from fornication;

1 Thessalonians 4:4 that each one of you know how to control your own body in holiness and honor,

1 Thessalonians 4:5 not with lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God;

1 Thessalonians 4:6 that no one wrong or exploit a brother or sister in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, just as we have already told you beforehand and solemnly warned you.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 For God did not call us to impurity but in holiness.

1 Thessalonians 4:8 Therefore whoever rejects this rejects not human authority but God, who also gives his Holy Spirit to you.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 Now concerning love of the brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anyone write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another;

1 Thessalonians 4:10 and indeed you do love all the brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, beloved, to do so more and more,

1 Thessalonians 4:11 to aspire to live quietly, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we directed you,

1 Thessalonians 4:12 so that you may behave properly toward outsiders and be dependent on no one.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel’s call and with the sound of God’s trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

1 Thessalonians 4:17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5:1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you.

1 Thessalonians 5:2 For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape!

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief;

1 Thessalonians 5:5 for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober;

1 Thessalonians 5:7 for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night.

1 Thessalonians 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Thessalonians 5:10 who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 But we appeal to you, brothers and sisters, to respect those who labor among you, and have charge of you in the Lord and admonish you;

1 Thessalonians 5:13 esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 And we urge you, beloved, to admonish the idlers, encourage the faint hearted, help the weak, be patient with all of them.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Rejoice always,

1 Thessalonians 5:17 pray without ceasing,

1 Thessalonians 5:18 give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Do not quench the Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not despise the words of prophets,

1 Thessalonians 5:21 but test everything; hold fast to what is good;

1 Thessalonians 5:22 abstain from every form of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Beloved, pray for us.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all of them.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:4 Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

2 Thessalonians 1:5 This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, and is intended to make you worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering.

2 Thessalonians 1:6 For it is indeed just of God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

2 Thessalonians 1:7 and to give relief to the afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels

2 Thessalonians 1:8 in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9 These will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might,

2 Thessalonians 1:10 when he comes to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at on that day among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith,

2 Thessalonians 1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters,

2 Thessalonians 2:2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction.

2 Thessalonians 2:4 He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed when his time comes.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but only until the one who now restrains it is removed.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy with the breath of his mouth, annihilating him by the manifestation of his coming.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 The coming of the lawless one is apparent in the working of Satan, who uses all power, signs, lying wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2:10 and every kind of wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion, leading them to believe what is false,

2 Thessalonians 2:12 so that all who have not believed the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness will be condemned.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:14 For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified everywhere, just as it is among you,

2 Thessalonians 3:2 and that we may be rescued from wicked and evil people; for not all have faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.

2 Thessalonians 3:4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will go on doing the things that we command.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you,

2 Thessalonians 3:8 and we did not eat anyone’s bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:9 This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat.

2 Thessalonians 3:11 For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 Take note of those who do not obey what we say in this letter; have nothing to do with them, so that they may be ashamed.

2 Thessalonians 3:15 Do not regard them as enemies, but warn them as believers.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with all of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the mark in every letter of mine; it is the way I write.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

1 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my loyal child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Timothy 1:3 I urge you, as I did when I was on my way to Macedonia, to remain in Ephesus so that you may instruct certain people not to teach any different doctrine,

1 Timothy 1:4 and not to occupy themselves with myths and endless genealogies that promote speculations rather than the divine training that is known by faith.

1 Timothy 1:5 But the aim of such instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6 Some people have deviated from these and turned to meaningless talk,

1 Timothy 1:7 desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make assertions.

1 Timothy 1:8 Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it legitimately.

1 Timothy 1:9 This means understanding that the law is laid down not for the innocent but for the lawless and disobedient, for the godless and sinful, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers,

1 Timothy 1:10 fornicators, sodomites, slave traders, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching

1 Timothy 1:11 that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

1 Timothy 1:12 I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service,

1 Timothy 1:13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief,

1 Timothy 1:14 and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 1:15 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners— of whom I am the foremost.

1 Timothy 1:16 But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life.

1 Timothy 1:17 To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:18 I am giving you these instructions, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies made earlier about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight,

1 Timothy 1:19 having faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have suffered shipwreck in the faith;

1 Timothy 1:20 among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have turned over to Satan, so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone,

1 Timothy 2:2 for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.

1 Timothy 2:3 This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,

1 Timothy 2:4 who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human,

1 Timothy 2:6 who gave himself a ransom for all— this was attested at the right time.

1 Timothy 2:7 For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

1 Timothy 2:8 I desire, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument;

1 Timothy 2:9 also that the women should dress themselves modestly and decently in suitable clothing, not with their hair braided, or with gold, pearls, or expensive clothes,

1 Timothy 2:10 but with good works, as is proper for women who profess reverence for God.

1 Timothy 2:11 Let a woman learn in silence with full submission.

1 Timothy 2:12 I permit no woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she is to keep silent.

1 Timothy 2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve;

1 Timothy 2:14 and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor.

1 Timothy 2:15 Yet she will be saved through childbearing, provided they continue in faith and love and holiness, with modesty.

1 Timothy 3:1 The saying is sure: whoever aspires to the office of bishop desires a noble task.

1 Timothy 3:2 Now a bishop must be above reproach, married only once, temperate, sensible, respectable, hospitable, an apt teacher,

1 Timothy 3:3 not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, and not a lover of money.

1 Timothy 3:4 He must manage his own household well, keeping his children submissive and respectful in every way—

1 Timothy 3:5 for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how can he take care of God’s church?

1 Timothy 3:6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may be puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil.

1 Timothy 3:7 Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace and the snare of the devil.

1 Timothy 3:8 Deacons likewise must be serious, not double-tongued, not indulging in much wine, not greedy for money;

1 Timothy 3:9 they must hold fast to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

1 Timothy 3:10 And let them first be tested; then, if they prove themselves blameless, let them serve as deacons.

1 Timothy 3:11 Women likewise must be serious, not slanderers, but temperate, faithful in all things.

1 Timothy 3:12 Let deacons be married only once, and let them manage their children and their households well;

1 Timothy 3:13 for those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 I hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these instructions to you so that,

1 Timothy 3:15 if I am delayed, you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and bulwark of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:16 Without any doubt, the mystery of our religion is great: He was revealed in flesh, vindicated in spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among Gentiles, believed in throughout the world, taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will renounce the faith by paying attention to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons,

1 Timothy 4:2 through the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are seared with a hot iron.

1 Timothy 4:3 They forbid marriage and demand abstinence from foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

1 Timothy 4:4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, provided it is received with thanksgiving;

1 Timothy 4:5 for it is sanctified by God’s word and by prayer.

1 Timothy 4:6 If you put these instructions before the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound teaching that you have followed.

1 Timothy 4:7 Have nothing to do with profane myths and old wives’ tales. Train yourself in godliness,

1 Timothy 4:8 for, while physical training is of some value, godliness is valuable in every way, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

1 Timothy 4:9 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance.

1 Timothy 4:10 For to this end we toil and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

1 Timothy 4:11 These are the things you must insist on and teach.

1 Timothy 4:12 Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.

1 Timothy 4:13 Until I arrive, give attention to the public reading of scripture, to exhorting, to teaching.

1 Timothy 4:14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.

1 Timothy 4:15 Put these things into practice, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress.

1 Timothy 4:16 Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

1 Timothy 5:1 Do not speak harshly to an older man, but speak to him as to a father, to younger men as brothers,

1 Timothy 5:2 to older women as mothers, to younger women as sisters— with absolute purity.

1 Timothy 5:3 Honor widows who are really widows.

1 Timothy 5:4 If a widow has children or grandchildren, they should first learn their religious duty to their own family and make some repayment to their parents; for this is pleasing in God's sight.

1 Timothy 5:5 The real widow, left alone, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day;

1 Timothy 5:6 but the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.

1 Timothy 5:7 Give these commands as well, so that they may be above reproach.

1 Timothy 5:8 And whoever does not provide for relatives, and especially for family members, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9 Let a widow be put on the list if she is not less than sixty years old and has been married only once;

1 Timothy 5:10 she must be well attested for her good works, as one who has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the saints' feet, helped the afflicted, and devoted herself to doing good in every way.

1 Timothy 5:11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list; for when their sensual desires alienate them from Christ, they want to marry,

1 Timothy 5:12 and so they incur condemnation for having violated their first pledge.

1 Timothy 5:13 Besides that, they learn to be idle, gadding about from house to house; and they are not merely idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying what they should not say.

1 Timothy 5:14 So I would have younger widows marry, bear children, and manage their households, so as to give the adversary no occasion to revile us.

1 Timothy 5:15 For some have already turned away to follow Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If any believing woman has relatives who are really widows, let her assist them; let the church not be burdened, so that it can assist those who are real widows.

1 Timothy 5:17 Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching;

1 Timothy 5:18 for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,” and, “The laborer deserves to be paid.”

1 Timothy 5:19 Never accept any accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.

1 Timothy 5:20 As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that the rest also may stand in fear.

1 Timothy 5:21 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of the elect angels, I warn you to keep these instructions without prejudice, doing nothing on the basis of partiality.

1 Timothy 5:22 Do not ordain anyone hastily, and do not participate in the sins of others; keep yourself pure.

1 Timothy 5:23 No longer drink only water, but take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

1 Timothy 5:24 The sins of some people are conspicuous and precede them to judgment, while the sins of others follow them there.

1 Timothy 5:25 So also good works are conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot remain hidden.

1 Timothy 6:1 Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed.

1 Timothy 6:2 Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful to them on the ground that they are members of the church; rather they must serve them all the more, since those who benefit by their service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these duties.

1 Timothy 6:3 Whoever teaches otherwise and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that is in accordance with godliness,

1 Timothy 6:4 is conceited, understanding nothing, and has a morbid craving for controversy and for disputes about words. From these come envy, dissension, slander, base suspicions,

1 Timothy 6:5 and wrangling among those who are depraved in mind and bereft of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.

1 Timothy 6:6 Of course, there is great gain in godliness combined with contentment;

1 Timothy 6:7 for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it;

1 Timothy 6:8 but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these.

1 Timothy 6:9 But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.

1 Timothy 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

1 Timothy 6:11 But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness.

1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:13 In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you

1 Timothy 6:14 to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Timothy 6:15 which he will bring about at the right time— he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords.

1 Timothy 6:16 It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

1 Timothy 6:17 As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

1 Timothy 6:18 They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share,

1 Timothy 6:19 thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

1 Timothy 6:20 Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you. Avoid the profane chatter and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge;

1 Timothy 6:21 by professing it some have missed the mark as regards the faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 I am grateful to God— whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did— when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day.

2 Timothy 1:4 Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy.

2 Timothy 1:5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you.

2 Timothy 1:6 For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands;

2 Timothy 1:7 for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

2 Timothy 1:8 Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God,

2 Timothy 1:9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began,

2 Timothy 1:10 but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

2 Timothy 1:11 For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher,

2 Timothy 1:12 and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him.

2 Timothy 1:13 Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 1:14 Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

2 Timothy 1:15 You are aware that all who are in Asia have turned away from me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2 Timothy 1:16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain;

2 Timothy 1:17 when he arrived in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me

2 Timothy 1:18 —may the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! And you know very well how much service he rendered in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2:1 You then, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus;

2 Timothy 2:2 and what you have heard from me through many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others as well.

2 Timothy 2:3 Share in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 No one serving in the army gets entangled in everyday affairs; the soldier's aim is to please the enlisting officer.

2 Timothy 2:5 And in the case of an athlete, no one is crowned without competing according to the rules.

2 Timothy 2:6 It is the farmer who does the work who ought to have the first share of the crops.

2 Timothy 2:7 Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

2 Timothy 2:8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David— that is my gospel,

2 Timothy 2:9 for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

2 Timothy 2:10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:11 The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

2 Timothy 2:12 if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us;

2 Timothy 2:13 if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself.

2 Timothy 2:14 Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening.

2 Timothy 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:16 Avoid profane chatter, for it will lead people into more and more impiety,

2 Timothy 2:17 and their talk will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus,

2 Timothy 2:18 who have swerved from the truth by claiming that the resurrection has already taken place. They are upsetting the faith of some.

2 Timothy 2:19 But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let everyone who calls on the name of the Lord turn away from wickedness."

2 Timothy 2:20 In a large house there are utensils not only of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for special use, some for ordinary.

2 Timothy 2:21 All who cleanse themselves of the things I have mentioned will become special utensils, dedicated and useful to the owner of the house, ready for every good work.

2 Timothy 2:22 Shun youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 Have nothing to do with stupid and senseless controversies; you know that they breed quarrels.

2 Timothy 2:24 And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kindly to everyone, an apt teacher, patient,

2 Timothy 2:25 correcting opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant that they will repent and come to know the truth,

2 Timothy 2:26 and that they may escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

2 Timothy 3:1 You must understand this, that in the last days distressing times will come.

2 Timothy 3:2 For people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy,

2 Timothy 3:3 inhuman, implacable, slanderers, profligates, brutes, haters of good,

2 Timothy 3:4 treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

2 Timothy 3:5 holding to the outward form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid them!

2 Timothy 3:6 For among them are those who make their way into households and captivate silly women, overwhelmed by their sins and swayed by all kinds of desires,

2 Timothy 3:7 who are always being instructed and can never arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

2 Timothy 3:8 As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these people, of corrupt mind and counterfeit faith, also oppose the truth.

2 Timothy 3:9 But they will not make much progress, because, as in the case of those two men, their folly will become plain to everyone.

2 Timothy 3:10 Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness,

2 Timothy 3:11 my persecutions and suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.

2 Timothy 3:12 Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

2 Timothy 3:13 But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived.

2 Timothy 3:14 But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it,

2 Timothy 3:15 and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,

2 Timothy 3:17 so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 4:1 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you:

2 Timothy 4:2 proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching.

2 Timothy 4:3 For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires,

2 Timothy 4:4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths.

2 Timothy 4:5 As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

2 Timothy 4:6 As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

2 Timothy 4:8 From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:9 Do your best to come to me soon,

2 Timothy 4:10 for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia,Titus to Dalmatia.

2 Timothy 4:11 OnlyLuke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry.

2 Timothy 4:12 I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

2 Timothy 4:13 When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds.

2 Timothy 4:15 You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message.

2 Timothy 4:16 At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them!

2 Timothy 4:17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

2 Timothy 4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:20 Erastus remained in Corinth; Trophimus I left ill in Miletus.

2 Timothy 4:21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus sends greetings to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers and sisters.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1:1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of the truth that is in accordance with godliness,

Titus 1:2 in the hope of eternal life that God, who never lies, promised before the ages began—

Titus 1:3 in due time he revealed his word through the proclamation with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior,

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my loyal child in the faith we share: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus 1:5 I left you behind in Crete for this reason, so that you should put in order what remained to be done, and should appoint elders in every town, as I directed you:

Titus 1:6 someone who is blameless, married only once, whose children are believers, not accused of debauchery and not rebellious.

Titus 1:7 For a bishop, as God’s steward, must be blameless; he must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or addicted to wine or violent or greedy for gain;

Titus 1:8 but he must be hospitable, a lover of goodness, prudent, upright, devout, and self-controlled.

Titus 1:9 He must have a firm grasp of the word that is trustworthy in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to preach with sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict it.

Titus 1:10 There are also many rebellious people, idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision;

Titus 1:11 they must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for sordid gain what it is not right to teach.

Titus 1:12 It was one of them, their very own prophet, who said, “Cretans are always liars, vicious brutes, lazy gluttons.”

Titus 1:13 That testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, so that they may become sound in the faith,

Titus 1:14 not paying attention to Jewish myths or to commandments of those who reject the truth.

Titus 1:15 To the pure all things are pure, but to the corrupt and unbelieving nothing is pure. Their very minds and consciences are corrupted.

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their actions. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

Titus 2:1 But as for you, teach what is consistent with sound doctrine.

Titus 2:2 Tell the older men to be temperate, serious, prudent, and sound in faith, in love, and in endurance.

Titus 2:3 Likewise, tell the older women to be reverent in behavior, not to be slanderers or slaves to drink; they are to teach what is good,

Titus 2:4 so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

Titus 2:5 to be self-controlled, chaste, good managers of the household, kind, being submissive to their husbands, so that the word of God may not be discredited.

Titus 2:6 Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled.

Titus 2:7 Show yourself in all respects a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, gravity,

Titus 2:8 and sound speech that cannot be censured; then any opponent will be put to shame, having nothing evil to say of us.

Titus 2:9 Tell slaves to be submissive to their masters and to give satisfaction in every respect; they are not to talk back,

Titus 2:10 not to pilfer, but to show complete and perfect fidelity, so that in everything they may be an ornament to the doctrine of God our Savior.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all,

Titus 2:12 training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly,

Titus 2:13 while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:14 He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Titus 2:15 Declare these things; exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one look down on you.

Titus 3:1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,

Titus 3:2 to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show every courtesy to everyone.

Titus 3:3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, despicable, hating one another.

Titus 3:4 But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared,

Titus 3:5 he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

Titus 3:6 This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

Titus 3:7 so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:8 The saying is sure. I desire that you insist on these things, so that those who have come to believe in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works; these things are excellent and profitable to everyone.

Titus 3:9 But avoid stupid controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless.

Titus 3:10 After a first and second admonition, have nothing more to do with anyone who causes divisions, Titus 3:11 since you know that such a person is perverted and sinful, being self-condemned.

Titus 3:12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

Titus 3:13 Make every effort to send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, and see that they lack nothing.

Titus 3:14 And let people learn to devote themselves to good works in order to meet urgent needs, so that they may not be unproductive.

Titus 3:15 All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with all of you.

Philemon

1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, ToPhilemon our dear friend and co-worker,

Philemon 1:2 to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

Philemon 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon 1:4 When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God

Philemon 1:5 because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus.

Philemon 1:6 I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ.

Philemon 1:7 I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

Philemon 1:8 For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty,

Philemon 1:9 yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love—and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

Philemon 1:10 I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment.

Philemon 1:11 Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me.

Philemon 1:12 I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.

Philemon 1:13 I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel;

Philemon 1:14 but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced.

Philemon 1:15 Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever,

Philemon 1:16 no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother— especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

Philemon 1:17 So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

Philemon 1:18 If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account.

Philemon 1:19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self.

Philemon 1:20 Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ.

Philemon 1:21 Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Philemon 1:22 One thing more— prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you,

Philemon 1:24 and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

Philemon 1:25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hebrews

1:1 Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets,

Hebrews 1:2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds.

Hebrews 1:3 He is the reflection of God’s glory and the exact imprint of God’s very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

Hebrews 1:4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews 1:5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son; today I have begotten you”? Or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”?

Hebrews 1:6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all God’s angels worship him.”

Hebrews 1:7 Of the angels he says, “He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire.”

Hebrews 1:8 But of the Son he says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and the righteous scepter is the scepter of your kingdom.

Hebrews 1:9 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.”

Hebrews 1:10 And, “In the beginning, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands;

Hebrews 1:11 they will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like clothing;

Hebrews 1:12 like a cloak you will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never end.”

Hebrews 1:13 But to which of the angels has he ever said, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

Hebrews 1:14 Are not all angels spirits in the divine service, sent to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Hebrews 2:1 Therefore we must pay greater attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away from it.

Hebrews 2:2 For if the message declared through angels was valid, and every transgression or disobedience received a just penalty,

Hebrews 2:3 how can we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was declared at first through the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him,

Hebrews 2:4 while God added his testimony by signs and wonders and various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, distributed according to his will.

Hebrews 2:5 Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels.

Hebrews 2:6 But someone has testified somewhere, “What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them?

Hebrews 2:7 You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor,

Hebrews 2:8 subjecting all things under their feet.” Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them,

Hebrews 2:9 but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

Hebrews 2:10 It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

Hebrews 2:11 For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

Hebrews 2:12 saying, “I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.”

Hebrews 2:13 And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Here am I and the children whom God has given me.”

Hebrews 2:14 Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil,

Hebrews 2:15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death.

Hebrews 2:16 For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham.

Hebrews 2:17 Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:18 Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Hebrews 3:1 Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

Hebrews 3:2 was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also “was faithful in all God’s house.”

Hebrews 3:3 Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

Hebrews 3:4 (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)

Hebrews 3:5 Now Moses was faithful in all God’s house as a servant, to testify to the things that would be spoken later.

Hebrews 3:6 Christ, however, was faithful over God’s house as a son, and we are his house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope.

Hebrews 3:7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today, if you hear his voice,

Hebrews 3:8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, as on the day of testing in the wilderness, Hebrews 3:9 where your ancestors put me to the test, though they had seen my works

Hebrews 3:10 for forty years. Therefore I was angry with that generation, and I said, 'They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.'

Hebrews 3:11 As in my anger I swore, 'They will not enter my rest.'"

Hebrews 3:12 Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you may have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

Hebrews 3:13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

Hebrews 3:14 For we have become partners of Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end.

Hebrews 3:15 As it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Hebrews 3:16 Now who were they who heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses?

Hebrews 3:17 But with whom was he angry forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

Hebrews 3:18 And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, if not to those who were disobedient?

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest is still open, let us take care that none of you should seem to have failed to reach it.

Hebrews 4:2 For indeed the good news came to us just as to them; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened.

Hebrews 4:3 For we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said, "As in my anger I swore, 'They shall not enter my rest,'" though his works were finished at the foundation of the world.

Hebrews 4:4 For in one place it speaks about the seventh day as follows, "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works."

Hebrews 4:5 And again in this place it says, "They shall not enter my rest."

Hebrews 4:6 Since therefore it remains open for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, Hebrews 4:7 again he sets a certain day— “today”— saying through David much later, in the words already quoted, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”

Hebrews 4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak later about another day.

Hebrews 4:9 So then, a sabbath rest still remains for the people of God;

Hebrews 4:10 for those who enter God’s rest also cease from their labors as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11 Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through such disobedience as theirs.

Hebrews 4:12 Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Hebrews 4:13 And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Hebrews 4:14 Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.

Hebrews 4:15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin.

Hebrews 4:16 Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 5:1 Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Hebrews 5:2 He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness;

Hebrews 5:3 and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people.

Hebrews 5:4 And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

Hebrews 5:5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”;

Hebrews 5:6 as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 5:7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

Hebrews 5:8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

Hebrews 5:9 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him,

Hebrews 5:10 having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:11 About this we have much to say that is hard to explain, since you have become dull in understanding.

Hebrews 5:12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic elements of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food;

Hebrews 5:13 for everyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is unskilled in the word of righteousness.

Hebrews 5:14 But solid food is for the mature, for those whose faculties have been trained by practice to distinguish good from evil.

Hebrews 6:1 Therefore let us go on toward perfection, leaving behind the basic teaching about Christ, and not laying again the foundation: repentance from dead works and faith toward God,

Hebrews 6:2 instruction about baptisms, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

Hebrews 6:3 And we will do this, if God permits.

Hebrews 6:4 For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit,

Hebrews 6:5 and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come,

Hebrews 6:6 and then have fallen away, since on their own they are crucifying again the Son of God and are holding him up to contempt.

Hebrews 6:7 Ground that drinks up the rain falling on it repeatedly, and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God.

Hebrews 6:8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and on the verge of being cursed; its end is to be burned over.

Hebrews 6:9 Even though we speak in this way, beloved, we are confident of better things in your case, things that belong to salvation.

Hebrews 6:10 For God is not unjust; he will not overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do.

Hebrews 6:11 And we want each one of you to show the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope to the very end,

Hebrews 6:12 so that you may not become sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Hebrews 6:13 When God made a promise to Abraham, because he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself,

Hebrews 6:14 saying, “I will surely bless you and multiply you.”

Hebrews 6:15 And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise.

Hebrews 6:16 Human beings, of course, swear by someone greater than themselves, and an oath given as confirmation puts an end to all dispute.

Hebrews 6:17 In the same way, when God desired to show even more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it by an oath,

Hebrews 6:18 so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God would prove false, we who have taken refuge might be strongly encouraged to seize the hope set before us.

Hebrews 6:19 We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters the inner shrine behind the curtain,

Hebrews 6:20 where Jesus, a forerunner on our behalf, has entered, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:1 This “King Melchizedek of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham as he was returning from defeating the kings and blessed him”;

Hebrews 7:2 and to him Abraham apportioned “one-tenth of everything.” His name, in the first place, means “king of righteousness”; next he is also king of Salem, that is, “king of peace.”

Hebrews 7:3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.

Hebrews 7:4 See how great he is! Even Abraham the patriarch gave him a tenth of the spoils.

Hebrews 7:5 And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to collect tithes from the people, that is, from their kindred, though these also are descended from Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6 But this man, who does not belong to their ancestry, collected tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had received the promises.

Hebrews 7:7 It is beyond dispute that the inferior is blessed by the superior.

Hebrews 7:8 In the one case, tithes are received by those who are mortal; in the other, by one of whom it is testified that he lives.

Hebrews 7:9 One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham,

Hebrews 7:10 for he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

Hebrews 7:11 Now if perfection had been attainable through the levitical priesthood— for the people received the law under this priesthood— what further need would there have been to speak of another priest arising according to the order of Melchizedek, rather than one according to the order of Aaron?

Hebrews 7:12 For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well.

Hebrews 7:13 Now the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.

Hebrews 7:14 For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Hebrews 7:15 It is even more obvious when another priest arises, resembling Melchizedek,

Hebrews 7:16 one who has become a priest, not through a legal requirement concerning physical descent, but through the power of an indestructible life.

Hebrews 7:17 For it is attested of him, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 7:18 There is, on the one hand, the abrogation of an earlier commandment because it was weak and ineffectual

Hebrews 7:19 (for the law made nothing perfect); there is, on the other hand, the introduction of a better hope, through which we approach God.

Hebrews 7:20 This was confirmed with an oath; for others who became priests took their office without an oath,

Hebrews 7:21 but this one became a priest with an oath, because of the one who said to him, “The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, ‘You are a priest forever’”—

Hebrews 7:22 accordingly Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better covenant.

Hebrews 7:23 Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office;

Hebrews 7:24 but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever.

Hebrews 7:25 Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Hebrews 7:26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Hebrews 7:27 Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself.

Hebrews 7:28 For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8:1 Now the main point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

Hebrews 8:2 a minister in the sanctuary and the true tent that the Lord, and not any mortal, has set up.

Hebrews 8:3 For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary for this priest also to have something to offer.

Hebrews 8:4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law.

Hebrews 8:5 They offer worship in a sanctuary that is a sketch and shadow of the heavenly one; for Moses, when he was about to erect the tent, was warned, “See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain.”

Hebrews 8:6 But Jesus has now obtained a more excellent ministry, and to that degree he is the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted through better promises.

Hebrews 8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need to look for a second one.

Hebrews 8:8 God finds fault with them when he says: “The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

Hebrews 8:9 not like the covenant that I made with their ancestors, on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they did not continue in my covenant, and so I had no concern for them, says the Lord.

Hebrews 8:10 This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Hebrews 8:11 And they shall not teach one another or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

Hebrews 8:12 For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.”

Hebrews 8:13 In speaking of “a new covenant,” he has made the first one obsolete. And what is obsolete and growing old will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9:1 Now even the first covenant had regulations for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

Hebrews 9:2 For a tent was constructed, the first one, in which were the lampstand, the table, and the bread of the Presence; this is called the Holy Place.

Hebrews 9:3 Behind the second curtain was a tent called the Holy of Holies.

Hebrews 9:4 In it stood the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which there were a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;

Hebrews 9:5 above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot speak now in detail.

Hebrews 9:6 Such preparations having been made, the priests go continually into the first tent to carry out their ritual duties;

Hebrews 9:7 but only the high priest goes into the second, and he but once a year, and not without taking the blood that he offers for himself and for the sins committed unintentionally by the people.

Hebrews 9:8 By this the Holy Spirit indicates that the way into the sanctuary has not yet been disclosed as long as the first tent is still standing.

Hebrews 9:9 This is a symbol of the present time, during which gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the conscience of the worshiper,

Hebrews 9:10 but deal only with food and drink and various baptisms, regulations for the body imposed until the time comes to set things right.

Hebrews 9:11 But when Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation),

Hebrews 9:12 he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

Hebrews 9:13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified,

Hebrews 9:14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

Hebrews 9:15 For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, because a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions under the first covenant.

Hebrews 9:16 Where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be established.

Hebrews 9:17 For a will takes effect only at death, since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive.

Hebrews 9:18 Hence not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood.

Hebrews 9:19 For when every commandment had been told to all the people by Moses in accordance with the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

Hebrews 9:20 saying, “This is the blood of the covenant that God has ordained for you.”

Hebrews 9:21 And in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the tent and all the vessels used in worship.

Hebrews 9:22 Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Hebrews 9:23 Thus it was necessary for the sketches of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves need better sacrifices than these.

Hebrews 9:24 For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25 Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own;

Hebrews 9:26 for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Hebrews 9:27 And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, Hebrews 9:28 so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hebrews 10:1 Since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered year after year, make perfect those who approach.

Hebrews 10:2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, since the worshipers, cleansed once for all, would no longer have any consciousness of sin?

Hebrews 10:3 But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sin year after year.

Hebrews 10:4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Hebrews 10:5 Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, “Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me;

Hebrews 10:6 in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure.

Hebrews 10:7 Then I said, ‘See, God, I have come to do your will, O God’ (in the scroll of the book it is written of me).”

Hebrews 10:8 When he said above, “You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings” (these are offered according to the law),

Hebrews 10:9 then he added, “See, I have come to do your will.” He abolishes the first in order to establish the second.

Hebrews 10:10 And it is by God’s will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Hebrews 10:11 And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,”

Hebrews 10:13 and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.”

Hebrews 10:14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Hebrews 10:15 And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

Hebrews 10:16 “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,” Hebrews 10:17 he also adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

Hebrews 10:18 Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Hebrews 10:19 Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

Hebrews 10:20 by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh),

Hebrews 10:21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Hebrews 10:22 let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:23 Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful.

Hebrews 10:24 And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds,

Hebrews 10:25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10:26 For if we willfully persist in sin after having received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

Hebrews 10:27 but a fearful prospect of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries.

Hebrews 10:28 Anyone who has violated the law of Moses dies without mercy “on the testimony of two or three witnesses.”

Hebrews 10:29 How much worse punishment do you think will be deserved by those who have spurned the Son of God, profaned the blood of the covenant by which they were sanctified, and outraged the Spirit of grace?

Hebrews 10:30 For we know the one who said, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay.” And again, “The Lord will judge his people.”

Hebrews 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Hebrews 10:32 But recall those earlier days when, after you had been enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings,

Hebrews 10:33 sometimes being publicly exposed to abuse and persecution, and sometimes being partners with those so treated.

Hebrews 10:34 For you had compassion for those who were in prison, and you cheerfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you yourselves possessed something better and more lasting.

Hebrews 10:35 Do not, therefore, abandon that confidence of yours; it brings a great reward.

Hebrews 10:36 For you need endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

Hebrews 10:37 For yet “in a very little while, the one who is coming will come and will not delay;

Hebrews 10:38 but my righteous one will live by faith. My soul takes no pleasure in anyone who shrinks back.”

Hebrews 10:39 But we are not among those who shrink back and so are lost, but among those who have faith and so are saved.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:2 Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval.

Hebrews 11:3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

Hebrews 11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain’s. Through this he received approval as righteous, God himself giving approval to his gifts; he died, but through his faith he still speaks.

Hebrews 11:5 By faith Enoch was taken so that he did not experience death; and “he was not found, because God had taken him.” For it was attested before he was taken away that “he had pleased God.”

Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please God, for whoever would approach him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7 By faith Noah, warned by God about events as yet unseen, respected the warning and built an ark to save his household; by this he condemned the world and became an heir to the righteousness that is in accordance with faith.

Hebrews 11:8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9 By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

Hebrews 11:10 For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Hebrews 11:11 By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old— and Sarah herself was barren— because he considered him faithful who had promised.

Hebrews 11:12 Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.”

Hebrews 11:13 All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth,

Hebrews 11:14 for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

Hebrews 11:15 If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return.

Hebrews 11:16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:17 By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He who had received the promises was ready to offer up his only son,

Hebrews 11:18 of whom he had been told, “It is through Isaac that descendants shall be named for you.”

Hebrews 11:19 He considered the fact that God is able even to raise someone from the dead— and figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Hebrews 11:20 By faith Isaac invoked blessings for the future on Jacob and Esau.

Hebrews 11:21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, “bowing in worship over the top of his staff.”

Hebrews 11:22 By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his burial.

Hebrews 11:23 By faith Moses was hidden by his parents for three months after his birth, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king’s edict.

Hebrews 11:24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called a son of Pharaoh’s daughter,

Hebrews 11:25 choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

Hebrews 11:26 He considered abuse suffered for the Christ to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to the reward.

Hebrews 11:27 By faith he left Egypt, unafraid of the king’s anger; for he persevered as though he saw him who is invisible.

Hebrews 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

Hebrews 11:29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned.

Hebrews 11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

Hebrews 11:32 And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets—

Hebrews 11:33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,

Hebrews 11:34 quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

Hebrews 11:35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection.

Hebrews 11:36 Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

Hebrews 11:37 They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented—

Hebrews 11:38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Hebrews 11:39 Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised,

Hebrews 11:40 since God had provided something better so that they would not, apart from us, be made perfect.

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,

Hebrews 12:2 looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:3 Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart.

Hebrews 12:4 In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

Hebrews 12:5 And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as children— “My child, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, or lose heart when you are punished by him;

Hebrews 12:6 for the Lord disciplines those whom he loves, and chastises every child whom he accepts.”

Hebrews 12:7 Endure trials for the sake of discipline. God is treating you as children; for what child is there whom a parent does not discipline?

Hebrews 12:8 If you do not have that discipline in which all children share, then you are illegitimate and not his children.

Hebrews 12:9 Moreover, we had human parents to discipline us, and we respected them. Should we not be even more willing to be subject to the Father of spirits and live?

Hebrews 12:10 For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share his holiness.

Hebrews 12:11 Now, discipline always seems painful rather than pleasant at the time, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Hebrews 12:12 Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees,

Hebrews 12:13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.

Hebrews 12:14 Pursue peace with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:15 See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springs up and causes trouble, and through it many become defiled.

Hebrews 12:16 See to it that no one becomes like Esau, an immoral and godless person, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

Hebrews 12:17 You know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, even though he sought the blessing with tears.

Hebrews 12:18 You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest,

Hebrews 12:19 and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them.

Hebrews 12:20 (For they could not endure the order that was given, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.”

Hebrews 12:21 Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I tremble with fear.”)

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering,

Hebrews 12:23 and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,

Hebrews 12:24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Hebrews 12:25 See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven!

Hebrews 12:26 At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.”

Hebrews 12:27 This phrase, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of what is shaken— that is, created things— so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Hebrews 12:28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe;

Hebrews 12:29 for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13:1 Let mutual love continue.

Hebrews 13:2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured.

Hebrews 13:4 Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers.

Hebrews 13:5 Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, “I will never leave you or forsake you.”

Hebrews 13:6 So we can say with confidence, “The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?”

Hebrews 13:7 Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Hebrews 13:9 Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings; for it is well for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by regulations about food, which have not benefited those who observe them.

Hebrews 13:10 We have an altar from which those who officiate in the tent have no right to eat.

Hebrews 13:11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp.

Hebrews 13:12 Therefore Jesus also suffered outside the city gate in order to sanctify the people by his own blood.

Hebrews 13:13 Let us then go to him outside the camp and bear the abuse he endured.

Hebrews 13:14 For here we have no lasting city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

Hebrews 13:15 Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name.

Hebrews 13:16 Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls and will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with sighing— for that would be harmful to you.

Hebrews 13:18 Pray for us; we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things.

Hebrews 13:19 I urge you all the more to do this, so that I may be restored to you very soon.

Hebrews 13:20 Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant,

Hebrews 13:21 make you complete in everything good so that you may do his will, working among us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Hebrews 13:22 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

Hebrews 13:23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been set free; and if he comes in time, he will be with me when I see you.

Hebrews 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy send you greetings.

Hebrews 13:25 Grace be with all of you.

James

1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greetings.

James 1:2 My brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of any kind, consider it nothing but joy,

James 1:3 because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance;

James 1:4 and let endurance have its full effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking in nothing.

James 1:5 If any of you is lacking in wisdom, ask God, who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly, and it will be given you.

James 1:6 But ask in faith, never doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind;

James 1:7 for the doubter, being double-minded and unstable in every way, must not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

James 1:8

James 1:9 Let the believer who is lowly boast in being raised up,

James 1:10 and the rich in being brought low, because the rich will disappear like a flower in the field.

James 1:11 For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the field; its flower falls, and its beauty perishes. It is the same way with the rich; in the midst of a busy life, they will wither away.

James 1:12 Blessed is anyone who endures temptation. Such a one has stood the test and will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him.

James 1:13 No one, when tempted, should say, “I am being tempted by God”; for God cannot be tempted by evil and he himself tempts no one.

James 1:14 But one is tempted by one’s own desire, being lured and enticed by it;

James 1:15 then, when that desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and that sin, when it is fully grown, gives birth to death.

James 1:16 Do not be deceived, my beloved.

James 1:17 Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.

James 1:18 In fulfillment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

James 1:19 You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger;

James 1:20 for your anger does not produce God’s righteousness.

James 1:21 Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

James 1:22 But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.

James 1:23 For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror;

James 1:24 for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like.

James 1:25 But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act—they will be blessed in their doing.

James 1:26 If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless.

James 1:27 Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

James 2:1 My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ?

James 2:2 For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in,

James 2:3 and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, “Have a seat here, please,” while to the one who is poor you say, “Stand there,” or, “Sit at my feet,”

James 2:4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

James 2:5 Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him?

James 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court?

James 2:7 Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

James 2:8 You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

James 2:9 But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.

James 2:11 For the one who said, “You shall not commit adultery,” also said, “You shall not murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

James 2:12 So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

James 2:13 For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

James 2:14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you?

James 2:15 If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food,

James 2:16 and one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill,” and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that?

James 2:17 So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

James 2:18 But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

James 2:19 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe— and shudder.

James 2:20 Do you want to be shown, you senseless person, that faith apart from works is barren?

James 2:21 Was not our ancestor Abraham justified by works when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?

James 2:22 You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was brought to completion by the works.

James 2:23 Thus the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness,” and he was called the friend of God.

James 2:24 You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

James 2:25 Likewise, was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out by another road?

James 2:26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

James 3:1 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness.

James 3:2 For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle.

James 3:3 If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies.

James 3:4 Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.

James 3:5 So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire!

James 3:6 And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell.

James 3:7 For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species,

James 3:8 but no one can tame the tongue— a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

James 3:9 With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God.

James 3:10 From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so.

James 3:11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water?

James 3:12 Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

James 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom.

James 3:14 But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth.

James 3:15 Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish.

James 3:16 For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind.

James 3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy.

James 3:18 And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

James 4:1 Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you?

James 4:2 You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask.

James 4:3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

James 4:4 Adulterers! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:5 Or do you suppose that it is for nothing that the scripture says, “God yearns jealously for the spirit that he has made to dwell in us”?

James 4:6 But he gives all the more grace; therefore it says, “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

James 4:8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

James 4:9 Lament and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into dejection.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

James 4:11 Do not speak evil against one another, brothers and sisters. Whoever speaks evil against another or judges another, speaks evil against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

James 4:12 There is one lawgiver and judge who is able to save and to destroy. So who, then, are you to judge your neighbor?

James 4:13 Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there, doing business and making money.”

James 4:14 Yet you do not even know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

James 4:15 Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wishes, we will live and do this or that.”

James 4:16 As it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil.

James 4:17 Anyone, then, who knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, commits sin.

James 5:1 Come now, you rich people, weep and wail for the miseries that are coming to you.

James 5:2 Your riches have rotted, and your clothes are moth-eaten.

James 5:3 Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you, and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days.

James 5:4 Listen! The wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

James 5:5 You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

James 5:6 You have condemned and murdered the righteous one, who does not resist you.

James 5:7 Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains.

James 5:8 You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

James 5:9 Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors!

James 5:10 As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

James 5:11 Indeed we call blessed those who showed endurance. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

James 5:12 Above all, my beloved, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your “Yes” be yes and your “No” be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

James 5:13 Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise.

James 5:14 Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord.

James 5:15 The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven.

James 5:16 Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.

James 5:17 Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth.

James 5:18 Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest.

James 5:19 My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another,

James 5:20 you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner’s soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

1 Peter 1:2 who have been chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with his blood: May grace and peace be yours in abundance.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1 Peter 1:4 and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,

1 Peter 1:5 who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1 Peter 1:6 In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials,

1 Peter 1:7 so that the genuineness of your faith— being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire— may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1 Peter 1:8 Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy,

1 Peter 1:9 for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that was to be yours made careful search and inquiry,

1 Peter 1:11 inquiring about the person or time that the Spirit of Christ within them indicated when it testified in advance to the sufferings destined for Christ and the subsequent glory.

1 Peter 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in regard to the things that have now been announced to you through those who brought you good news by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven— things into which angels long to look!

1 Peter 1:13 Therefore prepare your minds for action; discipline yourselves; set all your hope on the grace that Jesus Christ will bring you when he is revealed.

1 Peter 1:14 Like obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires that you formerly had in ignorance.

1 Peter 1:15 Instead, as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct;

1 Peter 1:16 for it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

1 Peter 1:17 If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile.

1 Peter 1:18 You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold,

1 Peter 1:19 but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish.

1 Peter 1:20 He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake.

1 Peter 1:21 Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

1 Peter 1:22 Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart.

1 Peter 1:23 You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

1 Peter 1:24 For “All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls,

1 Peter 1:25 but the word of the Lord endures forever.” That word is the good news that was announced to you.

1 Peter 2:1 Rid yourselves, therefore, of all malice, and all guile, insincerity, envy, and all slander.

1 Peter 2:2 Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation—

1 Peter 2:3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

1 Peter 2:4 Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God’s sight, and

1 Peter 2:5 like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 For it stands in scripture: “See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

1 Peter 2:7 To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, “The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner,”

1 Peter 2:8 and “A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.” They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:10 Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

1 Peter 2:11 Beloved, I urge you as aliens and exiles to abstain from the desires of the flesh that wage war against the soul.

1 Peter 2:12 Conduct yourselves honorably among the Gentiles, so that, though they malign you as evildoers, they may see your honorable deeds and glorify God when he comes to judge.

1 Peter 2:13 For the Lord’s sake accept the authority of every human institution, whether of the emperor as supreme,

1 Peter 2:14 or of governors, as sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right.

1 Peter 2:15 For it is God’s will that by doing right you should silence the ignorance of the foolish.

1 Peter 2:16 As servants of God, live as free people, yet do not use your freedom as a pretext for evil.

1 Peter 2:17 Honor everyone. Love the family of believers. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

1 Peter 2:18 Slaves, accept the authority of your masters with all deference, not only those who are kind and gentle but also those who are harsh.

1 Peter 2:19 For it is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly.

1 Peter 2:20 If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God’s approval.

1 Peter 2:21 For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:22 “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

1 Peter 2:23 When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly.

1 Peter 2:24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

1 Peter 2:25 For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3:1 Wives, in the same way, accept the authority of your husbands, so that, even if some of them do not obey the word, they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct,

1 Peter 3:2 when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.

1 Peter 3:3 Do not adorn yourselves outwardly by braiding your hair, and by wearing gold ornaments or fine clothing;

1 Peter 3:4 rather, let your adornment be the inner self with the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in God's sight.

1 Peter 3:5 It was in this way long ago that the holy women who hoped in God used to adorn themselves by accepting the authority of their husbands.

1 Peter 3:6 Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him lord. You have become her daughters as long as you do what is good and never let fears alarm you.

1 Peter 3:7 Husbands, in the same way, show consideration for your wives in your life together, paying honor to the woman as the weaker sex, since they too are also heirs of the gracious gift of life— so that nothing may hinder your prayers.

1 Peter 3:8 Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind.

1 Peter 3:9 Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called— that you might inherit a blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 For "Those who desire life and desire to see good days, let them keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking deceit;

1 Peter 3:11 let them turn away from evil and do good; let them seek peace and pursue it.

1 Peter 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

1 Peter 3:13 Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good?

1 Peter 3:14 But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated,

1 Peter 3:15 but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you;

1 Peter 3:16 yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame.

1 Peter 3:17 For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God’s will, than to suffer for doing evil.

1 Peter 3:18 For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit,

1 Peter 3:19 in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison,

1 Peter 3:20 who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water.

1 Peter 3:21 And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

1 Peter 3:22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

1 Peter 4:1 Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same intention (for whoever has suffered in the flesh has finished with sin),

1 Peter 4:2 so as to live for the rest of your earthly life no longer by human desires but by the will of God.

1 Peter 4:3 You have already spent enough time in doing what the Gentiles like to do, living in licentiousness, passions, drunkenness, revels, carousing, and lawless idolatry.

1 Peter 4:4 They are surprised that you no longer join them in the same excesses of dissipation, and so they blaspheme.

1 Peter 4:5 But they will have to give an accounting to him who stands ready to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 For this is the reason the gospel was proclaimed even to the dead, so that, though they had been judged in the flesh as everyone is judged, they might live in the spirit as God does.

1 Peter 4:7 The end of all things is near; therefore be serious and discipline yourselves for the sake of your prayers.

1 Peter 4:8 Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins.

1 Peter 4:9 Be hospitable to one another without complaining.

1 Peter 4:10 Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.

1 Peter 4:11 Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 4:12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you.

1 Peter 4:13 But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed.

1 Peter 4:14 If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

1 Peter 4:15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, a criminal, or even as a mischief maker.

1 Peter 4:16 Yet if any of you suffers as a Christian, do not consider it a disgrace, but glorify God because you bear this name.

1 Peter 4:17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; if it begins with us, what will be the end for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1 Peter 4:18 And "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinners?"

1 Peter 4:19 Therefore, let those suffering in accordance with God's will entrust themselves to a faithful Creator, while continuing to do good.

1 Peter 5:1 Now as an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you

1 Peter 5:2 to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it— not for sordid gain but eagerly.

1 Peter 5:3 Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock.

1 Peter 5:4 And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away.

1 Peter 5:5 In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you must clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

1 Peter 5:6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time.

1 Peter 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.

1 Peter 5:8 Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:9 Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.

1 Peter 5:10 And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you.

1 Peter 5:11 To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 5:12 Through Silvanus, whom I consider a faithful brother, I have written this short letter to encourage you and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

1 Peter 5:13 Your sister church in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings; and so does my son Mark.

1 Peter 5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have received a faith as precious as ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Peter 1:2 May grace and peace be yours in abundance in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

2 Peter 1:3 His divine power has given us everything needed for life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

2 Peter 1:4 Thus he has given us, through these things, his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of lust, and may become participants of the divine nature.

2 Peter 1:5 For this very reason, you must make every effort to support your faith with goodness, and goodness with knowledge,

2 Peter 1:6 and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with endurance, and endurance with godliness,

2 Peter 1:7 and godliness with mutual affection, and mutual affection with love.

2 Peter 1:8 For if these things are yours and are increasing among you, they keep you from being ineffective and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:9 For anyone who lacks these things is nearsighted and blind, and is forgetful of the cleansing of past sins.

2 Peter 1:10 Therefore, brothers and sisters, be all the more eager to confirm your call and election, for if you do this, you will never stumble.

2 Peter 1:11 For in this way, entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly provided for you.

2 Peter 1:12 Therefore I intend to keep on reminding you of these things, though you know them already and are established in the truth that has come to you.

2 Peter 1:13 I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to refresh your memory,

2 Peter 1:14 since I know that my death will come soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

2 Peter 1:15 And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things.

2 Peter 1:16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty.

2 Peter 1:17 For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

2 Peter 1:18 We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

2 Peter 1:20 First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation,

2 Peter 1:21 because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 Peter 2:1 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive opinions. They will even deny the Master who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves.

2 Peter 2:2 Even so, many will follow their licentious ways, and because of these teachers the way of truth will be maligned.

2 Peter 2:3 And in their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation, pronounced against them long ago, has not been idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of deepest darkness to be kept until the judgment;

2 Peter 2:5 and if he did not spare the ancient world, even though he saved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood on a world of the ungodly;

2 Peter 2:6 and if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction and made them an example of what is coming to the ungodly;

2 Peter 2:7 and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man greatly distressed by the licentiousness of the lawless

2 Peter 2:8 (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by their lawless deeds that he saw and heard),

2 Peter 2:9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment

2 Peter 2:10 —especially those who indulge their flesh in depraved lust, and who despise authority. Bold and willful, they are not afraid to slander the glorious ones,

2 Peter 2:11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not bring against them a slanderous judgment from the Lord.

2 Peter 2:12 These people, however, are like irrational animals, mere creatures of instinct, born to be caught and killed. They slander what they do not understand, and when those creatures are destroyed, they also will be destroyed,

2 Peter 2:13 suffering the penalty for doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their dissipation while they feast with you.

2 Peter 2:14 They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children!

2 Peter 2:15 They have left the straight road and have gone astray, following the road of Balaam son of Bosor, who loved the wages of doing wrong,

2 Peter 2:16 but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet’s madness.

2 Peter 2:17 These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm; for them the deepest darkness has been reserved.

2 Peter 2:18 For they speak bombastic nonsense, and with licentious desires of the flesh they entice people who have just escaped from those who live in error.

2 Peter 2:19 They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption; for people are slaves to whatever masters them.

2 Peter 2:20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overpowered, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

2 Peter 2:21 For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment that was passed on to them.

2 Peter 2:22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, “The dog turns back to its own vomit,” and, “The sow is washed only to wallow in the mud.”

2 Peter 3:1 This is now, beloved, the second letter I am writing to you; in them I am trying to arouse your sincere intention by reminding you

2 Peter 3:2 that you should remember the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken through your apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 First of all you must understand this, that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and indulging their own lusts

2 Peter 3:4 and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since our ancestors died, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation!”

2 Peter 3:5 They deliberately ignore this fact, that by the word of God heavens existed long ago and an earth was formed out of water and by means of water,

2 Peter 3:6 through which the world of that time was deluged with water and perished.

2 Peter 3:7 But by the same word the present heavens and earth have been reserved for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the godless.

2 Peter 3:8 But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance.

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed.

2 Peter 3:11 Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness,

2 Peter 3:12 waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire?

2 Peter 3:13 But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home.

2 Peter 3:14 Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish;

2 Peter 3:15 and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation. So also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him,

2 Peter 3:16 speaking of this as he does in all his letters. There are some things in them hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other scriptures.

2 Peter 3:17 You therefore, beloved, since you are forewarned, beware that you are not carried away with the error of the lawless and lose your own stability.

2 Peter 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 John

1:1 We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—

1 John 1:2 this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—

1 John 1:3 we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4 We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

1 John 1:5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all.

1 John 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true;

1 John 1:7 but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

1 John 1:8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

1 John 2:2 and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

1 John 2:3 Now by this we may be sure that we know him, if we obey his commandments.

1 John 2:4 Whoever says, “I have come to know him,” but does not obey his commandments, is a liar, and in such a person the truth does not exist;

1 John 2:5 but whoever obeys his word, truly in this person the love of God has reached perfection. By this we may be sure that we are in him:

1 John 2:6 whoever says, “I abide in him,” ought to walk just as he walked.

1 John 2:7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment that you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word that you have heard.

1 John 2:8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment that is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

1 John 2:9 Whoever says, “I am in the light,” while hating a brother or sister, is still in the darkness.

1 John 2:10 Whoever loves a brother or sister lives in the light, and in such a person there is no cause for stumbling.

1 John 2:11 But whoever hates another believer is in the darkness, walks in the darkness, and does not know the way to go, because the darkness has brought on blindness.

1 John 2:12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven on account of his name.

1 John 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young people, because you have conquered the evil one.

1 John 2:14 I write to you, children, because you know the Father. I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young people, because you are strong and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1 John 2:15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world;

1 John 2:16 for all that is in the world— the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches— comes not from the Father but from the world.

1 John 2:17 And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live forever.

1 John 2:18 Children, it is the last hour! As you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come. From this we know that it is the last hour.

1 John 2:19 They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But by going out they made it plain that none of them belongs to us.

1 John 2:20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and all of you have knowledge.

1 John 2:21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and you know that no lie comes from the truth.

1 John 2:22 Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; everyone who confesses the Son has the Father also.

1 John 2:24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father.

1 John 2:25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

1 John 2:26 I write these things to you concerning those who would deceive you.

1 John 2:27 As for you, the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and so you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, abide in him.

1 John 2:28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he is revealed we may have confidence and not be put to shame before him at his coming.

1 John 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who does right has been born of him.

1 John 3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

1 John 3:2 Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

1 John 3:3 And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

1 John 3:4 Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness.

1 John 3:5 You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.

1 John 3:6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

1 John 3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

1 John 3:8 Everyone who commits sin is a child of the devil; for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The Son of God was revealed for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil.

1 John 3:9 Those who have been born of God do not sin, because God's seed abides in them; they cannot sin, because they have been born of God.

1 John 3:10 The children of God and the children of the devil are revealed in this way: all who do not do what is right are not from God, nor are those who do not love their brothers and sisters.

1 John 3:11 For this is the message you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

1 John 3:12 We must not be like Cain who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous.

1 John 3:13 Do not be astonished, brothers and sisters, that the world hates you.

1 John 3:14 We know that we have passed from death to life because we love one another. Whoever does not love abides in death.

1 John 3:15 All who hate a brother or sister are murderers, and you know that murderers do not have eternal life abiding in them.

1 John 3:16 We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

1 John 3:17 How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

1 John 3:18 Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

1 John 3:19 And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him

1 John 3:20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

1 John 3:21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God;

1 John 3:22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

1 John 3:23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

1 John 3:24 All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

1 John 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God,

1 John 4:3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming; and now it is already in the world.

1 John 4:4 Little children, you are from God, and have conquered them; for the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 They are from the world; therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them.

1 John 4:6 We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

1 John 4:7 Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

1 John 4:8 Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

1 John 4:9 God’s love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him.

1 John 4:10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

1 John 4:11 Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another.

1 John 4:12 No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

1 John 4:13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

1 John 4:14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world.

1 John 4:15 God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God.

1 John 4:16 So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

1 John 4:17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love.

1 John 4:19 We love because he first loved us.

1 John 4:20 Those who say, “I love God,” and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen.

1 John 4:21 The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

1 John 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child.

1 John 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

1 John 5:3 For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome,

1 John 5:4 for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith.

1 John 5:5 Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

1 John 5:6 This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

1 John 5:7 There are three that testify:

1 John 5:8 the Spirit and the water and the blood, and these three agree.

1 John 5:9 If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son.

1 John 5:10 Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.

1 John 5:11 And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1 John 5:12 Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

1 John 5:13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 And this is the boldness we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

1 John 5:15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him.

1 John 5:16 If you see your brother or sister committing what is not a mortal sin, you will ask, and God will give life to such a one— to those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin that is mortal; I do not say that you should pray about that.

1 John 5:17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin that is not mortal.

1 John 5:18 We know that those who are born of God do not sin, but the one who was born of God protects them, and the evil one does not touch them.

1 John 5:19 We know that we are God's children, and that the whole world lies under the power of the evil one.

1 John 5:20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

1 John 5:21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

1:1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not only I but also all who know the truth,

2 John 1:2 because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

2 John 1:3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, in truth and love.

2 John 1:4 I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father.

2 John 1:5 But now, dear lady, I ask you, not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but one we have had from the beginning, let us love one another.

2 John 1:6 And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment just as you have heard it from the beginning— you must walk in it.

2 John 1:7 Many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh; any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist!

2 John 1:8 Be on your guard, so that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward.

2 John 1:9 Everyone who does not abide in the teaching of Christ, but goes beyond it, does not have God; whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

2 John 1:10 Do not receive into the house or welcome anyone who comes to you and does not bring this teaching;

2 John 1:11 for to welcome is to participate in the evil deeds of such a person.

2 John 1:12 Although I have much to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink; instead I hope to come to you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

2 John 1:13 The children of your elect sister send you their greetings.

3 John

1:1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

3 John 1:2 Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul.

3 John 1:3 I was overjoyed when some of the friends arrived and testified to your faithfulness to the truth, namely how you walk in the truth.

3 John 1:4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

3 John 1:5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the friends, even though they are strangers to you;

3 John 1:6 they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on in a manner worthy of God;

3 John 1:7 for they began their journey for the sake of Christ, accepting no support from non-believers.

3 John 1:8 Therefore we ought to support such people, so that we may become co-workers with the truth.

3 John 1:9 I have written something to the church; but Diotrephes, who likes to put himself first, does not acknowledge our authority.

3 John 1:10 So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing in spreading false charges against us. And not content with those charges, he refuses to welcome the friends, and even prevents those who want to do so and expels them from the church.

3 John 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil but imitate what is good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

3 John 1:12 Everyone has testified favorably about Demetrius, and so has the truth itself. We also testify for him, and you know that our testimony is true.

3 John 1:13 I have much to write to you, but I would rather not write with pen and ink;

3 John 1:14 instead I hope to see you soon, and we will talk together face to face.

3 John 1:15 Peace to you. The friends send you their greetings. Greet the friends there, each by name.

Juda

1:1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are called, who are beloved in God the Father and kept safe for Jesus Christ:

Juda 1:2 May mercy, peace, and love be yours in abundance.

Juda 1:3 Beloved, while eagerly preparing to write to you about the salvation we share, I find it necessary to write and appeal to you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints.

Juda 1:4 For certain intruders have stolen in among you, people who long ago were designated for this condemnation as ungodly, who pervert the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:5 Now I desire to remind you, though you are fully informed, that the Lord, who once for all saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

Juda 1:6 And the angels who did not keep their own position, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains in deepest darkness for the judgment of the great Day.

Juda 1:7 Likewise, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which, in the same manner as they, indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

Juda 1:8 Yet in the same way these dreamers also defile the flesh, reject authority, and slander the glorious ones.

Juda 1:9 But when the archangel Michael contended with the devil and disputed about the body of Moses, he did not dare to bring a condemnation of slander against him, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!”

Juda 1:10 But these people slander whatever they do not understand, and they are destroyed by those things that, like irrational animals, they know by instinct.

Juda 1:11 Woe to them! For they go the way of Cain, and abandon themselves to Balaam’s error for the sake of gain, and perish in Korah’s rebellion.

Juda 1:12 These are blemishes on your love-feasts, while they feast with you without fear, feeding themselves. They are waterless clouds carried along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted;

Juda 1:13 wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the deepest darkness has been reserved forever.

Juda 1:14 It was also about these that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, “See, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of his holy ones, Juda 1:15 to execute judgment on all, and to convict everyone of all the deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

Juda 1:16 These are grumblers and malcontents; they indulge their own lusts; they are bombastic in speech, flattering people to their own advantage.

Juda 1:17 But you, beloved, must remember the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Juda 1:18 for they said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, indulging their own ungodly lusts.”

Juda 1:19 It is these worldly people, devoid of the Spirit, who are causing divisions.

Juda 1:20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit;

Juda 1:21 keep yourselves in the love of God; look forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

Juda 1:22 And have mercy on some who are wavering;

Juda 1:23 save others by snatching them out of the fire; and have mercy on still others with fear, hating even the tunic defiled by their bodies.

Juda 1:24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to make you stand without blemish in the presence of his glory with rejoicing,

Juda 1:25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Revelation

1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place; he made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,

Revelation 1:2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and who keep what is written in it; for the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, Revelation 1:6 and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen.

Revelation 1:8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother who share with you in Jesus the persecution and the kingdom and the patient endurance, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 I was in the spirit on the Lord’s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet

Revelation 1:11 saying, “Write in a book what you see and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamum, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

Revelation 1:12 Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands,

Revelation 1:13 and in the midst of the lampstands I saw one like the Son of Man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash across his chest.

Revelation 1:14 His head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; his eyes were like a flame of fire,

Revelation 1:15 his feet were like burnished bronze, refined as in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters.

Revelation 1:16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and from his mouth came a sharp, two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining with full force.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he placed his right hand on me, saying, “Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, Revelation 1:18 and the living one. I was dead, and see, I am alive forever and ever; and I have the keys of Death and of Hades.

Revelation 1:19 Now write what you have seen, what is, and what is to take place after this.

Revelation 1:20 As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2:1 “To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands:

Revelation 2:2 “I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate evildoers; you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them to be false.

Revelation 2:3 I also know that you are enduring patiently and bearing up for the sake of my name, and that you have not grown weary.

Revelation 2:4 But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first.

Revelation 2:5 Remember then from what you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

Revelation 2:6 Yet this is to your credit: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

Revelation 2:7 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To everyone who conquers, I will give permission to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God.

Revelation 2:8 “And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These are the words of the first and the last, who was dead and came to life:

Revelation 2:9 “I know your affliction and your poverty, even though you are rich. I know the slander on the part of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Beware, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison so that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have affliction. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Whoever conquers will not be harmed by the second death.

Revelation 2:12 “And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: These are the words of him who has the sharp two-edged sword:

Revelation 2:13 “I know where you are living, where Satan’s throne is. Yet you are holding fast to my name, and you did not deny your faith in me even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against you: you have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the people of Israel, so that they would eat food sacrificed to idols and practice fornication.

Revelation 2:15 So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:16 Repent then. If not, I will come to you soon and make war against them with the sword of my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To everyone who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give a white stone, and on the white stone is written a new name that no one knows except the one who receives it.

Revelation 2:18 “And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These are the words of the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like burnished bronze:

Revelation 2:19 “I know your works— your love, faith, service, and patient endurance. I know that your last works are greater than the first.

Revelation 2:20 But I have this against you: you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophet and is teaching and beguiling my servants to practice fornication and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

Revelation 2:21 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her fornication.

Revelation 2:22 Beware, I am throwing her on a bed, and those who commit adultery with her I am throwing into great distress, unless they repent of her doings;

Revelation 2:23 and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am the one who searches minds and hearts, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve.

Revelation 2:24 But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call ‘the deep things of Satan,’ to you I say, I do not lay on you any other burden;

Revelation 2:25 only hold fast to what you have until I come.

Revelation 2:26 To everyone who conquers and continues to do my works to the end, I will give authority over the nations;

Revelation 2:27 to rule them with an iron rod, as when clay pots are shattered—

Revelation 2:28 even as I also received authority from my Father. To the one who conquers I will also give the morning star.

Revelation 2:29 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Revelation 3:1 “And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: These are the words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: “I know your works; you have a name of being alive, but you are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is on the point of death, for I have not found your works perfect in the sight of my God.

Revelation 3:3 Remember then what you received and heard; obey it, and repent. If you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

Revelation 3:4 Yet you have still a few persons in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes; they will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy.

Revelation 3:5 If you conquer, you will be clothed like them in white robes, and I will not blot your name out of the book of life; I will confess your name before my Father and before his angels.

Revelation 3:6 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Revelation 3:7 “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of the holy one, the true one, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, who shuts and no one opens:

Revelation 3:8 “I know your works. Look, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

Revelation 3:9 I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews and are not, but are lying— I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and they will learn that I have loved you.

Revelation 3:10 Because you have kept my word of patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world to test the inhabitants of the earth.

Revelation 3:11 I am coming soon; hold fast to what you have, so that no one may seize your crown.

Revelation 3:12 If you conquer, I will make you a pillar in the temple of my God; you will never go out of it. I will write on you the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem that comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.

Revelation 3:13 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

Revelation 3:14 “And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the origin of God’s creation:

Revelation 3:15 “I know your works; you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot.

Revelation 3:16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spit you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 For you say, 'I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing.' You do not realize that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

Revelation 3:18 Therefore I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich; and white robes to clothe you and to keep the shame of your nakedness from being seen; and salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see.

Revelation 3:19 I reprove and discipline those whom I love. Be earnest, therefore, and repent.

Revelation 3:20 Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me.

Revelation 3:21 To the one who conquers I will give a place with me on my throne, just as I myself conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 3:22 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Revelation 4:1 After this I looked, and there in heaven a door stood open! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this."

Revelation 4:2 At once I was in the spirit, and there in heaven stood a throne, with one seated on the throne!

Revelation 4:3 And the one seated there looks like jasper and carnelian, and around the throne is a rainbow that looks like an emerald.

Revelation 4:4 Around the throne are twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones are twenty-four elders, dressed in white robes, with golden crowns on their heads.

Revelation 4:5 Coming from the throne are flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and in front of the throne burn seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God;

Revelation 4:6 and in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind:

Revelation 4:7 the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle.

Revelation 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, “Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.”

Revelation 4:9 And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing,

Revelation 4:11 “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

Revelation 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals;

Revelation 5:2 and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

Revelation 5:3 And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it.

Revelation 5:4 And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

Revelation 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Revelation 5:6 Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 5:7 He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne.

Revelation 5:8 When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 5:9 They sing a new song: “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation;

Revelation 5:10 you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.”

Revelation 5:11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, Revelation 5:12 singing with full voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

Revelation 5:13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, “To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

Revelation 5:14 And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Revelation 6:1 Then I saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures call out, as with a voice of thunder, “Come!”

Revelation 6:2 I looked, and there was a white horse! Its rider had a bow; a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering and to conquer.

Revelation 6:3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature call out, “Come!”

Revelation 6:4 And out came another horse, bright red; its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another; and he was given a great sword.

Revelation 6:5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature call out, “Come!” I looked, and there was a black horse! Its rider held a pair of scales in his hand,

Revelation 6:6 and I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s pay, and three quarts of barley for a day’s pay, but do not damage the olive oil and the wine!”

Revelation 6:7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature call out, “Come!”

Revelation 6:8 I looked and there was a pale green horse! Its rider’s name was Death, and Hades followed with him; they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, famine, and pestilence, and by the wild animals of the earth.

Revelation 6:9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered for the word of God and for the testimony they had given;

Revelation 6:10 they cried out with a loud voice, “Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long will it be before you judge and avenge our blood on the inhabitants of the earth?”

Revelation 6:11 They were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number would be complete both of their fellow servants and of their brothers and sisters, who were soon to be killed as they themselves had been killed.

Revelation 6:12 When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and there came a great earthquake; the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood, Revelation 6:13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree drops its winter fruit when shaken by a gale.

Revelation 6:14 The sky vanished like a scroll rolling itself up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

Revelation 6:15 Then the kings of the earth and the magnates and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

Revelation 6:16 calling to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb;

Revelation 6:17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?”

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on earth or sea or against any tree.

Revelation 7:2 I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to damage earth and sea,

Revelation 7:3 saying, “Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have marked the servants of our God with a seal on their foreheads.”

Revelation 7:4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the people of Israel:

Revelation 7:5 From the tribe of Judah twelve thousand sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

Revelation 7:6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

Revelation 7:7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

Revelation 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand sealed.

Revelation 7:9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands.

Revelation 7:10 They cried out in a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

Revelation 7:12 singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Revelation 7:13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?”

Revelation 7:14 I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15 For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

Revelation 7:16 They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat;

Revelation 7:17 for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8:1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Revelation 8:3 Another angel with a golden censer came and stood at the altar; he was given a great quantity of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that is before the throne.

Revelation 8:4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose before God from the hand of the angel.

Revelation 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth; and there were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

Revelation 8:6 Now the seven angels who had the seven trumpets made ready to blow them.

Revelation 8:7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Revelation 8:8 The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea.

Revelation 8:9 A third of the sea became blood, a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Revelation 8:10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

Revelation 8:11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of their light was darkened; a third of the day was kept from shining, and likewise the night.

Revelation 8:13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice as it flew in midheaven, “Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, at the blasts of the other trumpets that the three angels are about to blow!”

Revelation 9:1 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit;

Revelation 9:2 he opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and from the shaft rose smoke like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft.

Revelation 9:3 Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given authority like the authority of scorpions of the earth.

Revelation 9:4 They were told not to damage the grass of the earth or any green growth or any tree, but only those people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Revelation 9:5 They were allowed to torture them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it stings someone.

Revelation 9:6 And in those days people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

Revelation 9:7 In appearance the locusts were like horses equipped for battle. On their heads were what looked like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces,

Revelation 9:8 their hair like women’s hair, and their teeth like lions’ teeth;

Revelation 9:9 they had scales like iron breastplates, and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many chariots with horses rushing into battle.

Revelation 9:10 They have tails like scorpions, with stingers, and in their tails is their power to harm people for five months.

Revelation 9:11 They have as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 The first woe has passed. There are still two woes to come.

Revelation 9:13 Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God,

Revelation 9:14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”

Revelation 9:15 So the four angels were released, who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, to kill a third of humankind.

Revelation 9:16 The number of the troops of cavalry was two hundred million; I heard their number.

Revelation 9:17 And this was how I saw the horses in my vision: the riders wore breastplates the color of fire and of sapphire and of sulfur; the heads of the horses were like lions’ heads, and fire and smoke and sulfur came out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:18 By these three plagues a third of humankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulfur coming out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they inflict harm.

Revelation 9:20 The rest of humankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands or give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk.

Revelation 9:21 And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries or their fornication or their thefts.

Revelation 10:1 And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire.

Revelation 10:2 He held a little scroll open in his hand. Setting his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, Revelation 10:3 he gave a great shout, like a lion roaring. And when he shouted, the seven thunders sounded.

Revelation 10:4 And when the seven thunders had sounded, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down.”

Revelation 10:5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and the land raised his right hand to heaven

Revelation 10:6 and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it: “There will be no more delay, Revelation 10:7 but in the days when the seventh angel is to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God will be fulfilled, as he announced to his servants the prophets.”

Revelation 10:8 Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

Revelation 10:9 So I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll; and he said to me, “Take it, and eat; it will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth.”

Revelation 10:10 So I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it; it was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

Revelation 10:11 Then they said to me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and languages and kings.”

Revelation 11:1 Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, “Come and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there,

Revelation 11:2 but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample over the holy city for forty-two months.

Revelation 11:3 And I will grant my two witnesses authority to prophesy for one thousand two hundred sixty days, wearing sackcloth.”

Revelation 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

Revelation 11:5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes; anyone who wants to harm them must be killed in this manner.

Revelation 11:6 They have authority to shut the sky, so that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they desire.

Revelation 11:7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit will make war on them and conquer them and kill them,

Revelation 11:8 and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city that is prophetically called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

Revelation 11:9 For three and a half days members of the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb;

Revelation 11:10 and the inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and celebrate and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to the inhabitants of the earth.

Revelation 11:11 But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and those who saw them were terrified.

Revelation 11:12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud while their enemies watched them.

Revelation 11:13 At that moment there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 The second woe has passed. The third woe is coming very soon.

Revelation 11:15 Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah, and he will reign forever and ever.”

Revelation 11:16 Then the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, Revelation 11:17 singing, “We give you thanks, Lord God Almighty, who are and who were, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign.

Revelation 11:18 The nations raged, but your wrath has come, and the time for judging the dead, for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints and all who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying those who destroy the earth.”

Revelation 11:19 Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

Revelation 12:1 A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Revelation 12:2 She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth.

Revelation 12:3 Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

Revelation 12:4 His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born.

Revelation 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne;

Revelation 12:6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that there she can be nourished for one thousand two hundred sixty days.

Revelation 12:7 And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back,

Revelation 12:8 but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

Revelation 12:9 The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world— he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Revelation 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God.

Revelation 12:11 But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.

Revelation 12:12 Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!”

Revelation 12:13 So when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.

Revelation 12:14 But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle, so that she could fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to her place where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

Revelation 12:15 Then from his mouth the serpent poured water like a river after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood.

Revelation 12:16 But the earth came to the help of the woman; it opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth.

Revelation 12:17 Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her children, those who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 12:18 Then the dragon took his stand on the sand of the seashore.

Revelation 13:1 And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads; and on its horns were ten diadems, and on its heads were blasphemous names.

Revelation 13:2 And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And the dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority.

Revelation 13:3 One of its heads seemed to have received a death-blow, but its mortal wound had been healed. In amazement the whole earth followed the beast.

Revelation 13:4 They worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?"

Revelation 13:5 The beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months.

Revelation 13:6 It opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

Revelation 13:7 Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. It was given authority over every tribe and people and language and nation,

Revelation 13:8 and all the inhabitants of the earth will worship it, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that was slaughtered.

Revelation 13:9 Let anyone who has an ear listen:

Revelation 13:10 If you are to be taken captive, into captivity you go; if you kill with the sword, with the sword you must be killed. Here is a call for the endurance and faith of the saints.

Revelation 13:11 Then I saw another beast that rose out of the earth; it had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon.

Revelation 13:12 It exercises all the authority of the first beast on its behalf, and it makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound had been healed.

Revelation 13:13 It performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in the sight of all;

Revelation 13:14 and by the signs that it is allowed to perform on behalf of the beast, it deceives the inhabitants of earth, telling them to make an image for the beast that had been wounded by the sword and yet lived;

Revelation 13:15 and it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast could even speak and cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

Revelation 13:16 Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead,

Revelation 13:17 so that no one can buy or sell who does not have the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name.

Revelation 13:18 This calls for wisdom: let anyone with understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a person. Its number is six hundred sixty-six.

Revelation 14:1 Then I looked, and there was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion! And with him were one hundred forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father’s name written on their foreheads.

Revelation 14:2 And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps,

Revelation 14:3 and they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who have been redeemed from the earth.

Revelation 14:4 It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins; these follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been redeemed from humankind as first fruits for God and the Lamb, Revelation 14:5 and in their mouth no lie was found; they are blameless.

Revelation 14:6 Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth— to every nation and tribe and language and people.

Revelation 14:7 He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water.”

Revelation 14:8 Then another angel, a second, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.”

Revelation 14:9 Then another angel, a third, followed them, crying with a loud voice, “Those who worship the beast and its image, and receive a mark on their foreheads or on their hands,

Revelation 14:10 they will also drink the wine of God’s wrath, poured unmixed into the cup of his anger, and they will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

Revelation 14:11 And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image and for anyone who receives the mark of its name.”

Revelation 14:12 Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and hold fast to the faith of Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who from now on die in the Lord.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.”

Revelation 14:14 Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like the Son of Man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand!

Revelation 14:15 Another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, “Use your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe.”

Revelation 14:16 So the one who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Revelation 14:17 Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

Revelation 14:18 Then another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has authority over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, “Use your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe.”

Revelation 14:19 So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the vintage of the earth, and he threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God.

Revelation 14:20 And the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the wine press, as high as a horse’s bridle, for a distance of about two hundred miles.

Revelation 15:1 Then I saw another portent in heaven, great and amazing: seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is ended.

Revelation 15:2 And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands.

Revelation 15:3 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb: “Great and amazing are your deeds, Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, King of the nations!

Revelation 15:4 Lord, who will not fear and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your judgments have been revealed.”

Revelation 15:5 After this I looked, and the temple of the tent of witness in heaven was opened, Revelation 15:6 and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure bright linen, with golden sashes across their chests.

Revelation 15:7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever;

Revelation 15:8 and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were ended.

Revelation 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God.”

Revelation 16:2 So the first angel went and poured his bowl on the earth, and a foul and painful sore came on those who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image.

Revelation 16:3 The second angel poured his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse, and every living thing in the sea died.

Revelation 16:4 The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.

Revelation 16:5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, “You are just, O Holy One, who are and were, for you have judged these things;

Revelation 16:6 because they shed the blood of saints and prophets, you have given them blood to drink. It is what they deserve!”

Revelation 16:7 And I heard the altar respond, “Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, your judgments are true and just!”

Revelation 16:8 The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch them with fire;

Revelation 16:9 they were scorched by the fierce heat, but they cursed the name of God, who had authority over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.

Revelation 16:10 The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness; people gnawed their tongues in agony,

Revelation 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and sores, and they did not repent of their deeds.

Revelation 16:12 The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up in order to prepare the way for the kings from the east.

Revelation 16:13 And I saw three foul spirits like frogs coming from the mouth of the dragon, from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of the false prophet.

Revelation 16:14 These are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty.

Revelation 16:15 (“See, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake and is clothed, not going about naked and exposed to shame.”)

Revelation 16:16 And they assembled them at the place that in Hebrew is called Harmagedon.

Revelation 16:17 The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, “It is done!”

Revelation 16:18 And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a violent earthquake, such as had not occurred since people were upon the earth, so violent was that earthquake.

Revelation 16:19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. God remembered great Babylon and gave her the wine-cup of the fury of his wrath.

Revelation 16:20 And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found;

Revelation 16:21 and huge hailstones, each weighing about a hundred pounds, dropped from heaven on people, until they cursed God for the plague of the hail, so fearful was that plague.

Revelation 17:1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of the great whore who is seated on many waters, Revelation 17:2 with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and with the wine of whose fornication the inhabitants of the earth have become drunk.”

Revelation 17:3 So he carried me away in the spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:4 The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her fornication;

Revelation 17:5 and on her forehead was written a name, a mystery: “Babylon the great, mother of whores and of earth’s abominations.”

Revelation 17:6 And I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly amazed.

Revelation 17:7 But the angel said to me, “Why are you so amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her.

Revelation 17:8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to ascend from the bottomless pit and go to destruction. And the inhabitants of the earth, whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will be amazed when they see the beast, because it was and is not and is to come.

Revelation 17:9 “This calls for a mind that has wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated; also, they are seven kings, Revelation 17:10 of whom five have fallen, one is living, and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain only a little while.

Revelation 17:11 As for the beast that was and is not, it is an eighth but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to destruction.

Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast.

Revelation 17:13 These are united in yielding their power and authority to the beast;

Revelation 17:14 they will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful.”

Revelation 17:15 And he said to me, “The waters that you saw, where the whore is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.

Revelation 17:16 And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the whore; they will make her desolate and naked; they will devour her flesh and burn her up with fire.

Revelation 17:17 For God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by agreeing to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

Revelation 17:18 The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was made bright with his splendor.

Revelation 18:2 He called out with a mighty voice, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! It has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt of every foul spirit, a haunt of every foul bird, a haunt of every foul and hateful beast.

Revelation 18:3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from the power of her luxury.”

Revelation 18:4 Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, so that you do not take part in her sins, and so that you do not share in her plagues;

Revelation 18:5 for her sins are heaped high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

Revelation 18:6 Render to her as she herself has rendered, and repay her double for her deeds; mix a double draught for her in the cup she mixed.

Revelation 18:7 As she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, so give her a like measure of torment and grief. Since in her heart she says, ‘I rule as a queen; I am no widow, and I will never see grief,’

Revelation 18:8 therefore her plagues will come in a single day— pestilence and mourning and famine— and she will be burned with fire; for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.”

Revelation 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning;

Revelation 18:10 they will stand far off, in fear of her torment, and say, “Alas, alas, the great city, Babylon, the mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.”

Revelation 18:11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys their cargo anymore,

Revelation 18:12 cargo of gold, silver, jewels and pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, all articles of ivory, all articles of costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble,

Revelation 18:13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, choice flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, slaves— and human lives.

Revelation 18:14 “The fruit for which your soul longed has gone from you, and all your dainties and your splendor are lost to you, never to be found again!”

Revelation 18:15 The merchants of these wares, who gained wealth from her, will stand far off, in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning aloud,

Revelation 18:16 “Alas, alas, the great city, clothed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet, adorned with gold, with jewels, and with pearls!

Revelation 18:17 For in one hour all this wealth has been laid waste!” And all shipmasters and seafarers, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off

Revelation 18:18 and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning, “What city was like the great city?”

Revelation 18:19 And they threw dust on their heads, as they wept and mourned, crying out, “Alas, alas, the great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich by her wealth! For in one hour she has been laid waste.”

Revelation 18:20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints and apostles and prophets! For God has given judgment for you against her.

Revelation 18:21 Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, “With such violence Babylon the great city will be thrown down, and will be found no more;

Revelation 18:22 and the sound of harpists and minstrels and of flutists and trumpeters will be heard in you no more; and an artisan of any trade will be found in you no more; and the sound of the millstone will be heard in you no more;

Revelation 18:23 and the light of a lamp will shine in you no more; and the voice of bridegroom and bride will be heard in you no more; for your merchants were the magnates of the earth, and all nations were deceived by your sorcery.

Revelation 18:24 And in you was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slaughtered on earth.”

Revelation 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power to our God, Revelation 19:2 for his judgments are true and just; he has judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he has avenged on her the blood of his servants.”

Revelation 19:3 Once more they said, “Hallelujah! The smoke goes up from her forever and ever.”

Revelation 19:4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!”

Revelation 19:5 And from the throne came a voice saying, “Praise our God, all you his servants, and all who fear him, small and great.”

Revelation 19:6 Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderpeals, crying out, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.

Revelation 19:7 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready;

Revelation 19:8 to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure”— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

Revelation 19:9 And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are true words of God.”

Revelation 19:10 Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your comrades who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:11 Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse! Its rider is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.

Revelation 19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems; and he has a name inscribed that no one knows but himself.

Revelation 19:13 He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is called The Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 And the armies of heaven, wearing fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses.

Revelation 19:15 From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron; he will tread the wine press of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.

Revelation 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has a name inscribed, “King of kings and Lord of lords.”

Revelation 19:17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly in midheaven, “Come, gather for the great supper of God, Revelation 19:18 to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of the mighty, the flesh of horses and their riders— flesh of all, both free and slave, both small and great.”

Revelation 19:19 Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against the rider on the horse and against his army.

Revelation 19:20 And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who had performed in its presence the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.

Revelation 19:21 And the rest were killed by the sword of the rider on the horse, the sword that came from his mouth; and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

Revelation 20:1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain.

Revelation 20:2 He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, Revelation 20:3 and threw him into the pit, and locked and sealed it over him, so that he would deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were ended. After that he must be let out for a little while.

Revelation 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and those seated on them were given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony to Jesus and for the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5 (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7 When the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison

Revelation 20:8 and will come out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, in order to gather them for battle; they are as numerous as the sands of the sea.

Revelation 20:9 They marched up over the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from heaven and consumed them.

Revelation 20:10 And the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and the one who sat on it; the earth and the heaven fled from his presence, and no place was found for them.

Revelation 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Also another book was opened, the book of life. And the dead were judged according to their works, as recorded in the books.

Revelation 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and all were judged according to what they had done.

Revelation 20:14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire;

Revelation 20:15 and anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

Revelation 21:2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them;

Revelation 21:4 he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.”

Revelation 21:5 And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

Revelation 21:6 Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Revelation 21:7 Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.

Revelation 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, the murderers, the fornicators, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and all liars, their place will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”

Revelation 21:9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

Revelation 21:10 And in the spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

Revelation 21:11 It has the glory of God and a radiance like a very rare jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal.

Revelation 21:12 It has a great, high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates are inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites;

Revelation 21:13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

Revelation 21:14 And the wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them are the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21:15 The angel who talked to me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls.

Revelation 21:16 The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its width; and he measured the city with his rod, fifteen hundred miles; its length and width and height are equal.

Revelation 21:17 He also measured its wall, one hundred forty-four cubits by human measurement, which the angel was using.

Revelation 21:18 The wall is built of jasper, while the city is pure gold, clear as glass.

Revelation 21:19 The foundations of the wall of the city are adorned with every jewel; the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald,

Revelation 21:20 the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 And the twelve gates are twelve pearls, each of the gates is a single pearl, and the street of the city is pure gold, transparent as glass.

Revelation 21:22 I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

Revelation 21:23 And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Revelation 21:24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

Revelation 21:25 Its gates will never be shut by day— and there will be no night there.

Revelation 21:26 People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations.

Revelation 21:27 But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

Revelation 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

Revelation 22:2 through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

Revelation 22:3 Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him;

Revelation 22:4 they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Revelation 22:5 And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 And he said to me, “These words are trustworthy and true, for the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place.”

Revelation 22:7 “See, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

Revelation 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me;

Revelation 22:9 but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your comrades the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!”

Revelation 22:10 And he said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

Revelation 22:11 Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy.”

Revelation 22:12 “See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone’s work.

Revelation 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

Revelation 22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates.

Revelation 22:15 Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and fornicators and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

Revelation 22:16 “It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.”

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” And let everyone who hears say, “Come.” And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

Revelation 22:18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book;

Revelation 22:19 if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away that person’s share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Revelation 22:20 The one who testifies to these things says, “Surely I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Revelation 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

Bible, 1995 Gods Word To the Nations.

Genesis

1:1 In the beginning God created heaven and earth.

Genesis 1:2 The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep water. The Spirit of God was hovering over the water.

Genesis 1:3 Then God said, “Let there be light!” So there was light.

Genesis 1:4 God saw the light was good. So God separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God named the light [day], and the darkness he named [night]. There was evening, then morning-the first day.

Genesis 1:6 Then God said, “Let there be a horizon in the middle of the water in order to separate the water.”

Genesis 1:7 So God made the horizon and separated the water above and below the horizon. And so it was.

Genesis 1:8 God named [what was above] the horizon [sky]. There was evening, then morning-a second day.

Genesis 1:9 Then God said, “Let the water under the sky come together in one area, and let the dry land appear.” And so it was.

Genesis 1:10 God named the dry land [earth]. The water which came together he named [sea]. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:11 Then God said, “Let the earth produce vegetation: plants bearing seeds, each according to its own type, and fruit trees bearing fruit with seeds, each according to its own type.” And so it was.

Genesis 1:12 The earth produced vegetation: plants bearing seeds, each according to its own type, and trees bearing fruit with seeds, each according to its own type. God saw that they were good.

Genesis 1:13 There was evening, then morning-a third day.

Genesis 1:14 Then God said, “Let there be lights in the sky to separate the day from the night. They will be signs and will mark religious festivals, days, and years.

Genesis 1:15 They will be lights in the sky to shine on the earth.” And so it was.

Genesis 1:16 God made the two bright lights: the larger light to rule the day and the smaller light to rule the night. He also made the stars.

Genesis 1:17 God put them in the sky to give light to the earth, Genesis 1:18 to dominate the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:19 There was evening, then morning-a fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 Then God said, “Let the water swarm with swimming creatures, and let birds fly through the sky over the earth.”

Genesis 1:21 So God created the large sea creatures, every type of creature that swims around in the water and every type of flying bird. God saw that they were good.

Genesis 1:22 God blessed them and said, “Be fertile, increase in number, fill the sea, and let there be many birds on the earth.”

Genesis 1:23 There was evening, then morning-a fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 Then God said, “Let the earth produce every type of living creature: every type of domestic animal, crawling animal, and wild animal.” And so it was.

Genesis 1:25 God made every type of wild animal, every type of domestic animal, and every type of creature that crawls on the ground. God saw that they were good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let us make humans in our image, in our likeness. Let them rule the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the domestic animals all over the earth, and all the animals that crawl on the earth.”

Genesis 1:27 So God created humans in his image. In the image of God he created them. He created them male and female.

Genesis 1:28 God blessed them and said, “Be fertile, increase in number, fill the earth, and be its master. Rule the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that crawl on the earth.”

Genesis 1:29 God said, “I have given you every plant with seeds on the face of the earth and every tree that has fruit with seeds. This will be your food.

Genesis 1:30 I have given all green plants as food to every land animal, every bird in the sky, and every animal that crawls on the earth-every living, breathing animal.” And so it was.

Genesis 1:31 And God saw everything that he had made and that it was very good. There was evening, then morning-the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1 Heaven and earth and everything in them were finished.

Genesis 2:2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing. On the seventh day he stopped the work he had been doing.

Genesis 2:3 Then God blessed the seventh day and set it apart as holy, because on that day he stopped all his work of creation.

Genesis 2:4 This is the account of heaven and earth when they were created, at the time when the LORD God made earth and heaven.

Genesis 2:5 Wild bushes and plants were not on the earth yet because the LORD God hadn’t sent rain on the earth. Also, there was no one to farm the land.

Genesis 2:6 Instead, underground water would come up from the earth and water the entire surface of the ground.

Genesis 2:7 Then the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the earth and blew the breath of life into his nostrils. The man became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 The LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east. That’s where he put the man whom he had formed.

Genesis 2:9 The LORD God made all the trees grow out of the ground. These trees were nice to look at, and their fruit was good to eat. The tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil grew in the middle of the garden.

Genesis 2:10 A river flowed from Eden to water the garden. Outside the garden it divided into four rivers.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first river is Pishon. This is the one that winds throughout Havilah, where there is gold.

Genesis 2:12 (The gold of that land is pure. Bdellium and onyx are also [found] there.)

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon. This is the one that winds throughout Sudan.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river is Tigris. This is the one that flows east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to farm the land and to take care of it.

Genesis 2:16 The LORD God commanded the man. He said, “You are free to eat from any tree in the garden.

Genesis 2:17 But you must never eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil because when you eat from it, you will certainly die.”

Genesis 2:18 Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is right for him.”

Genesis 2:19 The LORD God had formed all the wild animals and all the birds out of the ground. Then he brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called each creature became its name.

Genesis 2:20 So the man named all the domestic animals, all the birds, and all the wild animals. But the man found no helper who was right for him.

Genesis 2:21 So the LORD God caused him to fall into a deep sleep. While the man was sleeping, the LORD God took out one of the man’s ribs and closed up the flesh at that place.

Genesis 2:22 Then the LORD God formed a woman from the rib that he had taken from the man. He brought her to the man.

Genesis 2:23 The man said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She will be named [woman] because she was taken from man.”

Genesis 2:24 That is why a man will leave his father and mother and will be united with his wife, and they will become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 The man and his wife were both naked, but they weren’t ashamed of it.

Genesis 3:1 The snake was more clever than all the wild animals the LORD God had made. He asked the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must never eat the fruit of any tree in the garden’?”

Genesis 3:2 The woman answered the snake, “We’re allowed to eat the fruit from any tree in the garden

Genesis 3:3 except the tree in the middle of the garden. God said, ‘You must never eat it or touch it. If you do, you will die!’”

Genesis 3:4 “You certainly won’t die!” the snake told the woman.

Genesis 3:5 God knows that when you eat it your eyes will be opened. You’ll be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:6 The woman saw that the tree had fruit that was good to eat, nice to look at, and desirable for making someone wise. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Genesis 3:7 Then their eyes were opened, and they both realized that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together and made clothes for themselves.

Genesis 3:8 In the cool of the evening, the man and his wife heard the LORD God walking around in the garden. So they hid from the LORD God among the trees in the garden.

Genesis 3:9 The LORD God called to the man and asked him, “Where are you?”

Genesis 3:10 He answered, “I heard you in the garden. I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.”

Genesis 3:11 God asked, “Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat fruit from the tree I commanded you not to eat from?”

Genesis 3:12 The man answered, “That woman, the one you gave me, gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

Genesis 3:13 Then the LORD God asked the woman, “What have you done?” “The snake deceived me, and I ate,” the woman answered.

Genesis 3:14 So the LORD God said to the snake, “Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all the wild or domestic animals.

You will crawl on your belly. You will be the lowest of animals as long as you live.

Genesis 3:15 I will make you and the woman hostile toward each other. I will make your descendants and her descendant hostile toward each other. He will crush your head, and you will bruise his heel.”

Genesis 3:16 He said to the woman, “I will increase your pain and your labor when you give birth to children. Yet, you will long for your husband, and he will rule you.”

Genesis 3:17 Then he said to the man, “You listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree, although I commanded you, ‘You must never eat its fruit.’ The ground is cursed because of you. Through hard work you will eat [food that comes] from it every day of your life.

Genesis 3:18 The ground will grow thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat wild plants.

Genesis 3:19 By the sweat of your brow, you will produce food to eat until you return to the ground, because you were taken from it. You are dust, and you will return to dust.”

Genesis 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve [Life] because she became the mother of every living person.

Genesis 3:21 The LORD God made clothes from animal skins for the man and his wife and dressed them.

Genesis 3:22 Then the LORD God said, “The man has become like one of us, since he knows good and evil. He must not reach out and take the fruit from the tree of life and eat. Then he would live forever.”

Genesis 3:23 So the LORD God sent the man out of the Garden of Eden to farm the ground from which the man had been formed.

Genesis 3:24 After he sent the man out, God placed angels and a flaming sword that turned in all directions east of the Garden of Eden. He placed them there to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4:1 Adam made love to his wife Eve. She became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, “I have gotten the man that the LORD promised.”

Genesis 4:2 Then she gave birth to another child, Abel, Cain’s brother. Abel was a shepherd, and Cain was a farmer.

Genesis 4:3 Later Cain brought some crops from the land as an offering to the LORD.

Genesis 4:4 Abel also brought some choice parts of the firstborn animals from his flock. The LORD approved of Abel and his offering, Genesis 4:5 but he didn’t approve of Cain and his offering. So Cain became very angry and was disappointed.

Genesis 4:6 Then the LORD asked Cain, “Why are you angry, and why do you look disappointed?

Genesis 4:7 If you do well, won't you be accepted? But if you don't do well, sin is lying outside your door ready to attack. It wants to control you, but you must master it."

Genesis 4:8 Cain talked to his brother Abel. Later, when they were in the fields, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Genesis 4:9 The LORD asked Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I don't know," he answered. "Am I supposed to take care of my brother?"

Genesis 4:10 The LORD asked, "What have you done? Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.

Genesis 4:11 So now you are cursed from the ground, which has received the blood of your brother whom you killed.

Genesis 4:12 When you farm the ground, it will no longer yield its best for you. You will be a fugitive, a wanderer on the earth."

Genesis 4:13 But Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is more than I can stand!

Genesis 4:14 You have forced me off this land today. I have to hide from you and become a fugitive, a wanderer on the earth. Now anyone who finds me will kill me!"

Genesis 4:15 So the LORD said to him, "Not so! Anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over." The LORD gave Cain a sign so that anyone meeting him would not kill him.

Genesis 4:16 Then Cain left the LORD's presence and lived in Nod [The Land of Wandering], east of Eden.

Genesis 4:17 Cain made love to his wife. She became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was building a city, and he named it Enoch after his son.

Genesis 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad. Irad was the father of Mehujael. Mehujael was the father of Methushael. And Methushael was the father of Lamech.

Genesis 4:19 Lamech married two women, one named Adah and the other Zillah.

Genesis 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal. He was the first person to live in tents and have livestock.

Genesis 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal. He was the first person to play the harp and the flute.

Genesis 4:22 Zillah also had a son, Tubalcain, who made bronze and iron tools. Tubalcain's sister was Naamah.

Genesis 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to me! Wives of Lamech, hear what I say! I killed a man for bruising me, a young man for wounding me.

Genesis 4:24 If Cain is avenged 7 times, then Lamech, 77 times."

Genesis 4:25 Adam made love to his wife again. She gave birth to a son and named him Seth, because [she said,] “God has given me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him.”

Genesis 4:26 A son was also born to Seth, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to worship the LORD.

Genesis 5:1 This is the written account of Adam and his descendants. When God created humans, he made them in the likeness of God.

Genesis 5:2 He created them male and female. He blessed them and called them humans when he created them.

Genesis 5:3 When Adam was 130 years old, he became the father [of a son] in his own likeness, in his own image. He named him Seth.

Genesis 5:4 After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:5 Adam lived a total of 930 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:6 When Seth was 105 years old, he became the father of Enosh.

Genesis 5:7 After he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:8 Seth lived a total of 912 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:9 When Enosh was 90 years old, he became the father of Kenan.

Genesis 5:10 After he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:11 Enosh lived a total of 905 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:12 When Kenan was 70 years old, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Genesis 5:13 After he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:14 Kenan lived a total of 910 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:15 When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he became the father of Jared.

Genesis 5:16 After he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:18 When Jared was 162 years old, he became the father of Enoch.

Genesis 5:19 After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 Jared lived a total of 962 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:21 When Enoch was 65 years old, he became the father of Methuselah.

Genesis 5:22 After he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God for 300 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 Enoch lived a total of 365 years.

Genesis 5:24 Enoch walked with God; then he was gone because God took him.

Genesis 5:25 When Methuselah was 187 years old, he became the father of Lamech.

Genesis 5:26 After he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 Methuselah lived a total of 969 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:28 When Lamech was 182 years old, he became the father of a son.

Genesis 5:29 He named him Noah [Relief], and said, "This child will bring us relief from the work and painful labor of our hands since the LORD has cursed the ground."

Genesis 5:30 After Lamech became the father of Noah, he lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 Lamech lived a total of 777 years; then he died.

Genesis 5:32 When Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:1 The number of people increased all over the earth, and daughters were born to them.

Genesis 6:2 The sons of God saw that the daughters of other humans were beautiful. So they married any woman they chose.

Genesis 6:3 Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not struggle with humans forever, because they are flesh and blood. They will live 120 years."

Genesis 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, as well as later, when the sons of God slept with the daughters of other humans and had children by them. These children were famous long ago.

Genesis 6:5 The LORD saw how evil humans had become on the earth. All day long their deepest thoughts were nothing but evil.

Genesis 6:6 The LORD was sorry that he had made humans on the earth, and he was heartbroken.

Genesis 6:7 So he said, "I will wipe off the face of the earth these humans that I created. I will wipe out not only humans, but also domestic animals, crawling animals, and birds. I'm sorry that I made them."

Genesis 6:8 But the LORD was pleased with Noah.

Genesis 6:9 This is the account of Noah and his descendants. Noah had God’s approval and was a man of integrity among the people of his time. He walked with God.

Genesis 6:10 He had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:11 The world was corrupt in God’s sight and full of violence.

Genesis 6:12 God saw the world and how corrupt it was because all people on earth lived evil lives.

Genesis 6:13 God said to Noah, “I have decided to put an end to all people because the earth is full of their violence. Now I’m going to destroy them along with the earth.

Genesis 6:14 Make yourself a ship of cypress wood. Make rooms in the ship and coat it inside and out with tar.

Genesis 6:15 This is how you should build it: the ship is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

Genesis 6:16 Make a roof for the ship, and leave an 18-inch-high opening at the top. Put a door in the side of the ship. Build the ship with lower, middle, and upper decks.

Genesis 6:17 I’m about to send a flood on the earth to destroy all people under the sky-every living, breathing human. Everything on earth will die.

Genesis 6:18 “But I will make my promise to you. You, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives will go into the ship.

Genesis 6:19 Bring two of every living creature into the ship in order to keep them alive with you. They must be male and female.

Genesis 6:20 Two of every type of bird, every type of domestic animal, and every type of creature that crawls on the ground will come to you to be kept alive.

Genesis 6:21 Take every kind of food that can be eaten and store it. It will be food for you and the animals.”

Genesis 6:22 Noah did this. He did everything that God had commanded him.

Genesis 7:1 The LORD said to Noah, “Go into the ship with your whole family because I have seen that you alone are righteous among the people of today.

Genesis 7:2 Take with you seven pairs of every kind of clean animal (a male and a female of each) and one pair of every kind of unclean animal (a male and a female).

Genesis 7:3 Also, take seven pairs of every kind of bird (a male and a female of each) to preserve animal life all over the earth after the flood.

Genesis 7:4 In seven days I will send rain to the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. I will wipe off the face of the earth every living creature that I have made.”

Genesis 7:5 So Noah did everything that the LORD commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Noah was 600 years old when the flood came to the earth.

Genesis 7:7 Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons’ wives went into the ship to escape the floodwaters.

Genesis 7:8 Clean and unclean animals, birds, and creatures that crawl on the ground

Genesis 7:9 came to Noah to go into the ship in pairs (a male and female of each) as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 Seven days later the flood came on the earth.

Genesis 7:11 On the seventeenth day of the second month of the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, all the deep springs burst open. The sky opened,

Genesis 7:12 and rain came pouring down on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights.

Genesis 7:13 On that same day Noah and his sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, as well as Noah’s wife and his three daughters-in-law went into the ship.

Genesis 7:14 They had with them every type of wild animal, every type of domestic animal, every type of creature that crawls on the earth, and every type of bird (every creature with wings).

Genesis 7:15 A pair of every living, breathing animal came to Noah to go into the ship.

Genesis 7:16 A male and a female of every animal went in as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD closed the door behind them.

Genesis 7:17 The flood continued for 40 days on the earth. The water increased and lifted the ship so that it rose high above the ground.

Genesis 7:18 As the water rose and became very deep, the ship floated on top of the water.

Genesis 7:19 The water rose very high above the earth. It covered all the high mountains everywhere under the sky.

Genesis 7:20 It rose 23 feet above the mountaintops.

Genesis 7:21 Every creature that crawls on the earth died, including birds, domestic and wild animals, and everything that swarms over the earth, along with every human.

Genesis 7:22 Everything on dry land (every living, breathing creature) died.

Genesis 7:23 Every living creature on the face of the earth was wiped out. Humans, domestic animals, crawling creatures, and birds were wiped off the earth. Only Noah and those with him in the ship were left.

Genesis 7:24 The floodwaters were on the earth for 150 days.

Genesis 8:1 God remembered Noah and all the wild and domestic animals with him in the ship. So God made a wind blow over the earth, and the water started to go down.

Genesis 8:2 The deep springs and the sky had been shut, and the rain had stopped pouring.

Genesis 8:3 The water began to recede from the land. At the end of 150 days the water had decreased.

Genesis 8:4 On the seventeenth day of the seventh month, the ship came to rest in the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 The water kept decreasing until the tenth month. On the first day of the tenth month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

Genesis 8:6 After 40 more days Noah opened the window he had made in the ship

Genesis 8:7 and sent out a raven. It kept flying back and forth until the water on the land had dried up.

Genesis 8:8 Next, he sent out a dove to see if the water was gone from the surface of the ground.

Genesis 8:9 The dove couldn’t find a place to land because the water was still all over the earth. So it came back to Noah in the ship. He reached out and brought the dove back into the ship.

Genesis 8:10 He waited seven more days and again sent the dove out of the ship.

Genesis 8:11 The dove came to him in the evening, and in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf. Then Noah knew that the water was gone from the earth.

Genesis 8:12 He waited seven more days and sent out the dove again, but it never came back to him.

Genesis 8:13 By the first day of the first month of Noah’s six hundred and first year, the water on the land had dried up. Noah opened the top of the ship, looked out, and saw the surface of the ground.

Genesis 8:14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the land was dry.

Genesis 8:15 Then God spoke to Noah,

Genesis 8:16 “Come out of the ship with your wife, your sons, and your sons’ wives.

Genesis 8:17 Bring out every animal that’s with you: birds, domestic animals, and every creature that crawls on the earth. Be fertile, increase in number, and spread over the earth.”

Genesis 8:18 So Noah came out with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives.

Genesis 8:19 Every animal, crawling creature, and bird-everything that moves on the earth-came out of the ship, one kind after another.

Genesis 8:20 Noah built an altar to the LORD. On it he made a burnt offering of each type of clean animal and clean bird.

Genesis 8:21 The LORD smelled the soothing aroma. He said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground because of humans, even though from birth their hearts are set on nothing but evil. I will never again kill every living creature as I have just done.

Genesis 8:22 As long as the earth exists, planting and harvesting, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never stop.”

Genesis 9:1 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fertile, increase in number, and fill the earth.

Genesis 9:2 All the wild animals and all the birds will fear you and be terrified of you. Every creature that crawls on the ground and all the fish in the sea have been put under your control.

Genesis 9:3 Everything that lives and moves will be your food. I gave you green plants as food; I now give you everything else.

Genesis 9:4 “But you are not to eat meat with blood in it. (Blood is life.)

Genesis 9:5 In addition, I will demand your blood for your life. I will demand it from any animal or from any person. I will demand the life of any person [who kills] another person.

Genesis 9:6 Whoever sheds human blood, by humans his blood will be shed, because in the image of God, God made humans.

Genesis 9:7 Be fertile, and increase in number. Spread over the earth, and increase.”

Genesis 9:8 God also said to Noah and his sons,

Genesis 9:9 “I am going to make my promise to you, your descendants,

Genesis 9:10 and every living being that is with you-birds, domestic animals, and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ship-every living thing on earth.

Genesis 9:11 I am making my promise to you. Never again will all life be killed by floodwaters. Never again will there be a flood that destroys the earth.”

Genesis 9:12 God said, “This is the sign of the promise I am giving to you and every living being that is with you for generations to come.

Genesis 9:13 I will put my rainbow in the clouds to be a sign of my promise to the earth.

Genesis 9:14 Whenever I form clouds over the earth, a rainbow will appear in the clouds.

Genesis 9:15 Then I will remember my promise to you and every living animal. Never again will water become a flood to destroy all life.

Genesis 9:16 Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember my everlasting promise to every living animal on earth."

Genesis 9:17 So God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the promise I am making to all life on earth."

Genesis 9:18 Noah's sons, who came out of the ship, were Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 9:19 These were Noah's three sons. From them the whole earth was populated. Ham was the father of Canaan.

Genesis 9:20 Noah, a farmer, was the first person to plant a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 He drank some wine, got drunk, and lay naked inside his tent.

Genesis 9:22 Ham, father of Canaan, saw his father naked. So he went outside and told his two brothers.

Genesis 9:23 Shem and Japheth took a blanket and laid it over their shoulders. Then they walked in backwards and covered their father's naked body. They turned their faces away so that they didn't see their father naked.

Genesis 9:24 When Noah sobered up, he found out what his youngest son had done to him.

Genesis 9:25 So he said, "Canaan is cursed! He will be the lowest slave to his brothers.

Genesis 9:26 Praise the LORD, the God of Shem! Canaan will be his slave.

Genesis 9:27 May God expand the territory of Japheth. May he live in the tents of Shem. Canaan will be his slave."

Genesis 9:28 Noah lived 350 years after the flood.

Genesis 9:29 Noah lived a total of 950 years; then he died.

Genesis 10:1 This is the account of Noah's sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and their descendants. Shem, Ham and Japheth had children after the flood.

Genesis 10:2 Japheth's descendants were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 Gomer's descendants were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

Genesis 10:4 Javan's descendants were the people from Elishah, Tarshish, Cyprus, and Rhodes.

Genesis 10:5 From these descendants the people of the coastlands spread into their own countries. Each nation had its own language and families.

Genesis 10:6 Ham's descendants were Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 Cush's descendants were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. Raamah's descendants were Sheba and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Cush was the father of Nimrod, the first mighty warrior on the earth.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter whom the LORD blessed. That's why people used to say, "[He's] like Nimrod, a mighty hunter whom the LORD blessed."

Genesis 10:10 The first [cities] in his kingdom were Babylon, Erech, Accad, and Calneh in Shinar [Babylonia].

Genesis 10:11 He went from that land to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, Genesis 10:12 and Resen, the great city between Nineveh and Calah.

Genesis 10:13 Egypt was the ancestor of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites,

Genesis 10:14 Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came), and the Caphtorites.

Genesis 10:15 Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn, then Heth,

Genesis 10:16 also the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,

Genesis 10:17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,

Genesis 10:18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Later the Canaanite families scattered.

Genesis 10:19 The border of the Canaanites extended from Sidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza and then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These were Ham's descendants by families and languages within their countries and nations.

Genesis 10:21 Shem, Japheth's older brother, also had children. [Shem was] the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.

Genesis 10:22 Shem's descendants were Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 Aram's descendants were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

Genesis 10:24 Arpachshad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber.

Genesis 10:25 Two sons were born to Eber. The name of the one was Peleg [Division], because in his day the earth was divided. His brother's name was Joktan.

Genesis 10:26 Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Genesis 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Genesis 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Genesis 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. These were Joktan's sons.

Genesis 10:30 The region where they lived extended from Mesha toward Sephar in the eastern mountains.

Genesis 10:31 These were Shem's descendants by families and languages within their countries according to their nations.

Genesis 10:32 These were the families of Noah's sons listed by their genealogies, nation by nation. From these [descendants] the nations spread over the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11:1 The whole world had one language with a common vocabulary.

Genesis 11:2 As people moved toward the east, they found a plain in Shinar [Babylonia] and settled there.

Genesis 11:3 They said to one another, "Let's make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They used bricks as stones and tar as mortar.

Genesis 11:4 Then they said, "Let's build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the sky. Let's make a name for ourselves so that we won't become scattered all over the face of the earth."

Genesis 11:5 The LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the descendants of Adam were building.

Genesis 11:6 The LORD said, "They are one people with one language. This is only the beginning of what they will do! Now nothing they plan to do will be too difficult for them.

Genesis 11:7 Let us go down there and mix up their language so that they won't understand each other."

Genesis 11:8 So the LORD scattered them all over the face of the earth, and they stopped building the city.

Genesis 11:9 This is why it was named Babel, because there the LORD turned the language of the whole earth into babble. From that place the LORD scattered them all over the face of the earth.

Genesis 11:10 This is the account of Shem and his descendants. Two years after the flood when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arpachshad.

Genesis 11:11 After he became the father of Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 Arpachshad was 35 years old when he became the father of Shelah.

Genesis 11:13 After he became the father of Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 Shelah was 30 years old when he became the father of Eber.

Genesis 11:15 After he became the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 Eber was 34 years old when he became the father of Peleg.

Genesis 11:17 After he became the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 Peleg was 30 years old when he became the father of Reu.

Genesis 11:19 After he became the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 Reu was 32 years old when he became the father of Serug.

Genesis 11:21 After he became the father of Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 Serug was 30 years old when he became the father of Nahor.

Genesis 11:23 After he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 Nahor was 29 years old when he became the father of Terah.

Genesis 11:25 After he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 Terah was 70 years old when he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 This is the account of Terah and his descendants. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot.

Genesis 11:28 While his father Terah was still alive, Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, his native land.

Genesis 11:29 Both Abram and Nahor married. The name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife was Milcah, daughter of Haran. (Haran was the father of Milcah and Iscah.)

Genesis 11:30 Sarai was not able to have children.

Genesis 11:31 Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (son of Haran), and his daughter-in-law Sarai, wife of his son Abram. They set out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. When they came as far as Haran, they stayed there.

Genesis 11:32 Terah lived 205 years and died in Haran.

Genesis 12:1 The LORD said to Abram, “Leave your land, your relatives, and your father’s home. Go to the land that I will show you.

Genesis 12:2 I will make you a great nation, I will bless you. I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.

Genesis 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you, I will curse. Through you every family on earth will be blessed.”

Genesis 12:4 So Abram left, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was 75 years old when he left Haran.

Genesis 12:5 Abram set out for Canaan. He took along his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all the possessions they had accumulated and the servants they had acquired in Haran.

Genesis 12:6 They arrived in Canaan, and Abram traveled through the land to the oak tree belonging to Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Genesis 12:7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, “I’m going to give this land to your descendants.” So he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Genesis 12:8 He moved on to the hills east of Bethel, and he put up his tent-with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. He also built an altar to the LORD there and worshiped the LORD.

Genesis 12:9 Abram kept moving toward the Negev.

Genesis 12:10 There was a famine in the land. Abram went to Egypt to stay awhile because the famine was severe.

Genesis 12:11 When he was about to enter Egypt, Abram said to his wife Sarai, “I know that you’re a beautiful woman.

Genesis 12:12 When the Egyptians see you, they’ll say, ‘This is his wife!’ Then they’ll kill me but let you live.

Genesis 12:13 Please say that you’re my sister. Then everything will be alright for me, and because of you I will live.”

Genesis 12:14 When Abram arrived in Egypt, the Egyptians saw how very beautiful his wife was.

Genesis 12:15 When Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they raved about her to Pharaoh, so Sarai was taken to Pharaoh’s palace.

Genesis 12:16 Everything went well for Abram because of her, and he was given sheep, cattle, donkeys, male and female slaves, and camels.

Genesis 12:17 However, the LORD struck Pharaoh and his household with terrible plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife.

Genesis 12:18 Then Pharaoh called for Abram. “What have you done to me?” he asked. “Why didn’t you tell me that she’s your wife?

Genesis 12:19 Why did you say, ‘She’s my sister’ and allow me to take her for my wife? Here’s your wife! Take her and go!”

Genesis 12:20 Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning Abram. They sent Abram away with his wife and everything that he had.

Genesis 13:1 Abram left Egypt with his wife and everything he had and went to the Negev. Lot was with him.

Genesis 13:2 Abram was very rich because he had livestock, silver, and gold.

Genesis 13:3 He traveled from place to place. He went from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the area between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been originally, Genesis 13:4 where he had first made an altar. There Abram worshiped the LORD.

Genesis 13:5 Lot, who had been traveling with Abram, also had his own sheep, cattle, and tents.

Genesis 13:6 There wasn’t enough pastureland for both of them. They had so many possessions that they were unable to remain together.

Genesis 13:7 Quarrels broke out between Abram’s herders and Lot’s herders. (Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in that area.)

Genesis 13:8 Abram said to Lot, “Please, let’s not have any more quarrels between us or between our herders. After all, we’re relatives.

Genesis 13:9 Isn’t all this land yours also? Let’s separate. If you go to the left, I’ll go to the right, and if you go to the right, I’ll go to the left.”

Genesis 13:10 Then Lot looked in the direction of Zoar as far as he could see. He saw that the whole Jordan Plain was well-watered like the LORD’s garden or like Egypt. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Genesis 13:11 Lot chose the whole Jordan Plain for himself. He moved toward the east. They each went their own way.

Genesis 13:12 Abram lived in Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain, moving his tents as far as Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 (The people who lived in Sodom were very wicked. They committed terrible sins against the LORD.)

Genesis 13:14 After Lot left, the LORD said to Abram, “Look north, south, east, and west of where you are.

Genesis 13:15 I will give all the land you see to you and to your descendants for an indefinite period of time.

Genesis 13:16 I will also give you as many descendants as the dust of the earth. If anyone could count the dust of the earth, then he could also count your descendants.

Genesis 13:17 Go! Walk back and forth across the entire land because I will give it to you.”

Genesis 13:18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live by the oak trees belonging to Mamre at Hebron. There he built an altar for the LORD.

Genesis 14:1 At that time [four kings]-King Amraphel of Shinar, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Chedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim-

Genesis 14:2 went to war against [five kings]-King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, King Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Genesis 14:3 The five kings joined forces and met in the valley of Siddim (that is, the Dead Sea).

Genesis 14:4 For 12 years they had been subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Genesis 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and his allies came and defeated the Rephaim at Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim at Ham, the Emim at Shaveh Kiriathaim, Genesis 14:6 and the Horites in the hill country of Seir, going as far as El Paran on the edge of the desert.

Genesis 14:7 On their way back, they came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who were living at Hazazon Tamar.

Genesis 14:8 Then the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and prepared for battle in the valley of Siddim.

Genesis 14:9 They fought against King Chedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Shinar, and King Arioch of Ellasar-four kings against five.

Genesis 14:10 The valley of Siddim was full of tar pits. As the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, they fell because of the tar pits, but the other kings fled to the hills.

Genesis 14:11 So the four kings took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, as well as all their food, and left.

Genesis 14:12 They also took Abram’s nephew Lot and his possessions since he was living in Sodom.

Genesis 14:13 Then a soldier who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew what had happened. He was living next to the oak trees belonging to Mamre the Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner. (These men were Abram’s allies.)

Genesis 14:14 When Abram heard that his nephew had been captured, he armed his 318 trained men, born in his own household, and pursued the four kings all the way to Dan.

Genesis 14:15 He split up his men to attack them at night. He defeated them, pursuing them all the way to Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

Genesis 14:16 He brought back everything they had, including women and soldiers. He also brought back his relative Lot and his possessions.

Genesis 14:17 After Abram came back from defeating Chedorlaomer and his allies, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Shaveh Valley (that is, the King's Valley).

Genesis 14:18 Then King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was a priest of God Most High.

Genesis 14:19 He blessed Abram, and said, "Blessed is Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth.

Genesis 14:20 Blessed is God Most High, who has handed your enemies over to you." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Genesis 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, and keep everything else for yourself."

Genesis 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I now raise my hand and solemnly swear to the LORD God Most High, maker of heaven and earth,

Genesis 14:23 that I won't take a thread or a sandal strap. I won't take anything that is yours so that you will never be able to say, 'I made Abram rich.'

Genesis 14:24 I won't take one single thing except what my men have eaten. But let my allies Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre take their share."

Genesis 15:1 Later the LORD spoke his word to Abram in a vision. He said, "Abram, don't be afraid. I am your shield. Your reward will be very great."

Genesis 15:2 Abram asked, "Almighty LORD, what will you give me? Since I'm going to die without children, Eliezer of Damascus will inherit my household.

Genesis 15:3 You have given me no children, so this member of my household will be my heir."

Genesis 15:4 Suddenly, the LORD spoke his word to Abram again. He said, "This man will not be your heir. Your own son will be your heir."

Genesis 15:5 He took Abram outside and said, "Now look up at the sky and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He also said to him, "That's how many descendants you will have!"

Genesis 15:6 Then Abram believed the LORD, and the LORD regarded that faith to be his approval of Abram.

Genesis 15:7 Then the LORD said to him, “I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land so that you will take possession of it.”

Genesis 15:8 Abram asked, “Almighty LORD, how can I be certain that I will take possession of it?”

Genesis 15:9 He answered Abram, “Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a mourning dove, and a pigeon.”

Genesis 15:10 So Abram brought all these animals to him. He cut each of them in half and laid each half opposite the other. However, he did not cut the birds in half.

Genesis 15:11 When birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12 As the sun was just about to set, a deep sleep-a dreadful, deep darkness-came over Abram.

Genesis 15:13 God said to Abram, “You can know for sure that your descendants will live in a land that is not their own, where they will be slaves, and they will be oppressed for 400 years.

Genesis 15:14 But I will punish the nation they serve, and after that they will come out with many possessions.

Genesis 15:15 But you will die in peace and be buried at a very old age.

Genesis 15:16 In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, because the sin of the Amorites will not have run its course until then.”

Genesis 15:17 The sun had gone down, and it was dark. Suddenly a smoking oven and a flaming torch passed between the animal pieces.

Genesis 15:18 At that time the LORD made a promise to Abram. He said, “I will give this land to your descendants. This is the land from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates.

Genesis 15:19 It is the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,

Genesis 15:20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Genesis 15:21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

Genesis 16:1 Sarai, Abram’s wife, was not able to have children. She owned an Egyptian slave named Hagar.

Genesis 16:2 So Sarai said to Abram, “The LORD has kept me from having children. Why don’t you sleep with my slave? Maybe I can build a family through her.” Abram agreed with Sarai.

Genesis 16:3 After Abram had lived in Canaan for ten years, Abram's wife Sarai took her Egyptian slave Hagar and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

Genesis 16:4 He slept with Hagar, and she became pregnant. When Hagar realized that she was pregnant, she began to be disrespectful to Sarai, her owner.

Genesis 16:5 So Sarai complained to Abram, "I'm being treated unfairly! And it's your fault! I know that I gave my slave to you, but now that she's pregnant, she's being disrespectful to me. May the LORD decide who is right-you or me."

Genesis 16:6 Abram answered Sarai, "Here, she's your slave. Do what you like with her." Then Sarai mistreated Hagar so much that she ran away.

Genesis 16:7 The Messenger of the LORD found her by a spring in the desert, the spring on the way to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 He said, "Hagar, Sarai's slave, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She answered, "I'm running away from my owner Sarai."

Genesis 16:9 The Messenger of the LORD said to her, "Go back to your owner, and place yourself under her authority."

Genesis 16:10 The Messenger of the LORD also said to her, "I will give you many descendants. No one will be able to count them because there will be so many."

Genesis 16:11 Then the Messenger of the LORD said to her, "You are pregnant, and you will give birth to a son. You will name him Ishmael [God Hears], because the LORD has heard your cry of distress.

Genesis 16:12 He will be as free and wild as an untamed donkey. He will fight with everyone, and everyone will fight with him. He will have conflicts with all his relatives."

Genesis 16:13 Hagar named the LORD, who had been speaking to her, "You Are the God Who Watches Over Me." She said, "This is the place where I watched [the one] who watches over me."

Genesis 16:14 This is why the well is named Beer Lahai Roi [Well of the Living One Who Watches Over Me]. It is still there between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 Hagar gave birth to Abram's son. Abram named him Ishmael.

Genesis 16:16 Abram was 86 years old when Hagar gave birth to Ishmael.

Genesis 17:1 When Abram was 99 years old, the LORD appeared to him. He said to Abram, "I am God Almighty. Live in my presence with integrity.

Genesis 17:2 I will give you my promise, and I will give you very many descendants."

Genesis 17:3 Immediately, Abram bowed with his face touching the ground, and again God spoke to him, Genesis 17:4 "My promise is still with you. You will become the father of many nations.

Genesis 17:5 So your name will no longer be Abram [Exalted Father], but Abraham [Father of Many] because I have made you a father of many nations.

Genesis 17:6 I will give you many descendants. Many nations and kings will come from you.

Genesis 17:7 I will make my promise to you and your descendants for generations to come as an everlasting promise. I will be your God and the God of your descendants.

Genesis 17:8 I am also giving this land where you are living-all of Canaan-to you and your descendants as your permanent possession. And I will be your God."

Genesis 17:9 God also said to Abraham, "You and your descendants in generations to come are to be faithful to my promise.

Genesis 17:10 This is how you are to be faithful to my promise: Every male among you is to be circumcised.

Genesis 17:11 All of you must be circumcised. That will be the sign of the promise from me to you.

Genesis 17:12 For generations to come every male child who is eight days old must be circumcised, whether he is born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner who's not related to you.

Genesis 17:13 Every male born in your household or bought with your money is to be circumcised without exception. So my promise will be a sign on your flesh, an everlasting promise.

Genesis 17:14 Any uncircumcised male must be excluded from his people because he has rejected my promise."

Genesis 17:15 God said to Abraham, "Don't call your wife by the name Sarai anymore. Instead, her name is Sarah [Princess].

Genesis 17:16 I will bless her, and I will also give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will become [a mother of] nations, and kings will come from her."

Genesis 17:17 Immediately, Abraham bowed with his face touching the ground. He laughed as he thought to himself, "Can a son be born to a hundred-year-old man? Can Sarah, a ninety-year-old woman, have a child?"

Genesis 17:18 Then Abraham said to God, "Why not let Ishmael be my heir?"

Genesis 17:19 God replied, “No! Your wife Sarah will give you a son, and you will name him Isaac [He Laughs]. I will make an everlasting promise to him and his descendants.

Genesis 17:20 I have heard your request about Ishmael. Yes, I will bless him, make him fertile, and increase the number of his descendants. He will be the father of 12 princes, and I will make him a great nation.

Genesis 17:21 But I will make my promise to Isaac. Sarah will give birth to him at this time next year.”

Genesis 17:22 When God finished speaking with Abraham, he left him.

Genesis 17:23 So Abraham took his son Ishmael, everyone born in his household, and everyone bought with money-every male in his household-and circumcised them that day, as God had told him.

Genesis 17:24 Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised.

Genesis 17:25 His son Ishmael was 13 years old when he was circumcised.

Genesis 17:26 That same day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised.

Genesis 17:27 All the men of his household, whether born in the household or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:1 The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oak trees belonging to Mamre as he was sitting at the entrance of his tent during the hottest part of the day.

Genesis 18:2 Abraham looked up, and suddenly he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them, and he bowed with his face touching the ground.

Genesis 18:3 “Please, sir,” Abraham said, “stop by to visit me for a while.

Genesis 18:4 Why don’t we let someone bring a little water? After you wash your feet, you can stretch out and rest under the tree.

Genesis 18:5 Let me bring some bread so that you can regain your strength. After that you can leave, since this is why you stopped by to visit me.” They answered, “That’s fine. Do as you say.”

Genesis 18:6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to find Sarah. “Quick,” he said, “get three measures of flour, knead it, and make bread.”

Genesis 18:7 Then Abraham ran to the herd and took one of his best calves. He gave it to his servant, who prepared it quickly.

Genesis 18:8 Abraham took cheese and milk, as well as the meat, and set these in front of them. Then he stood by them under the tree as they ate.

Genesis 18:9 They asked him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” He answered, “Over there, in the tent.”

Genesis 18:10 The LORD said, “I promise I’ll come back to you next year at this time, and your wife Sarah will have a son.” Sarah happened to be listening at the entrance of the tent, which was behind him.

Genesis 18:11 Abraham and Sarah were old. Sarah was past the age of childbearing.

Genesis 18:12 And so Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, “Now that I’ve become old, will I enjoy myself again? What’s more, my husband is old!”

Genesis 18:13 The LORD asked Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and say, ‘Can I really have a child now that I’m old?’

Genesis 18:14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will come back to you next year at this time, and Sarah will have a son.”

Genesis 18:15 Because she was afraid, Sarah denied that she had laughed. But the LORD said, “Yes, you did laugh.”

Genesis 18:16 Then the men got up to leave. As Abraham was walking with them to see them off, they looked toward Sodom.

Genesis 18:17 The LORD said, “I shouldn’t hide what I am going to do from Abraham.

Genesis 18:18 After all, Abraham is going to become a great and mighty nation and through him all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

Genesis 18:19 I have chosen him so that he will direct his children and his family after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. In this way I, the LORD, will do what I have promised Abraham.”

Genesis 18:20 The LORD also said, “Sodom and Gomorrah have many complaints against them, and their sin is very serious.

Genesis 18:21 I must go down and see whether these complaints are true. If not, I will know it.”

Genesis 18:22 From there the men turned and went on toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing in front of the LORD.

Genesis 18:23 Abraham came closer and asked, “Are you really going to sweep away the innocent with the guilty?

Genesis 18:24 What if there are 50 innocent people in the city? Are you really going to sweep them away? Won’t you spare that place for the sake of the 50 innocent people who are in it?

Genesis 18:25 It would be unthinkable for you to do such a thing, to treat the innocent and the guilty alike and to kill the innocent with the guilty. That would be unthinkable! Won’t the judge of the whole earth do what is fair?”

Genesis 18:26 The LORD said, “If I find 50 innocent people inside the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake.”

Genesis 18:27 Abraham asked, “Consider now, if I may be so bold as to ask you, although I’m [only] dust and ashes, Genesis 18:28 what if there are 45 innocent people? Will you destroy the whole city because of 5 fewer people?” The LORD answered, “I will not destroy it if I find 45 there.”

Genesis 18:29 Abraham asked him again, “What if 40 are found there?” He answered, “For the sake of the 40 I will not do it.”

Genesis 18:30 “Please don’t be angry if I speak again,” Abraham said. “What if 30 are found there?” He answered, “If I find 30 there, I will not do it.”

Genesis 18:31 “Look now, if I may be so bold as to ask you,” Abraham said. “What if 20 are found there?” He answered, “I will not destroy it for the sake of the 20.”

Genesis 18:32 “Please don’t be angry if I speak only one more time,” Abraham said. “What if 10 are found there?” He answered, “I will not destroy it for the sake of the 10.”

Genesis 18:33 When the LORD finished speaking to Abraham, he left. Abraham returned home.

Genesis 19:1 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting in the gateway. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed with his face touching the ground.

Genesis 19:2 He said, “Please, gentlemen, why don’t you come to my home and spend the night? [You can] wash your feet there. Then early tomorrow morning you can continue your journey.” “No,” they answered, “we’d rather spend the night in the city square.”

Genesis 19:3 But he insisted so strongly that they came with him and went into his home. He prepared a special dinner for them, baked some unleavened bread, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 Before they had gone to bed, all the young and old male citizens of Sodom surrounded the house.

Genesis 19:5 They called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to [stay with] you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them.”

Genesis 19:6 Then Lot went outside and shut the door behind him.

Genesis 19:7 “Please, my friends, don’t be so wicked,” he said.

Genesis 19:8 “Look, I have two daughters who have never had sex. Why don’t you let me bring them out to you? Do whatever you like with them. But don’t do anything to these men, since I’m responsible for them.”

Genesis 19:9 But the men yelled, “Get out of the way! This man came here to stay awhile. Now he wants to be our judge! We’re going to treat you worse than those men.” They pushed hard against Lot and lunged forward to break down the door.

Genesis 19:10 The men [inside] reached out, pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 Then they struck all the men who were in the doorway of the house, young and old alike, with blindness so that they gave up trying to find the door.

Genesis 19:12 Then the men asked Lot, “Do you have anyone else here-any in-laws, sons, daughters, or any other relatives in the city? Get them out of here Genesis 19:13 because we’re going to destroy this place. The complaints to the LORD against its people are so loud that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

Genesis 19:14 So Lot went out and spoke to the men engaged to his daughters. He said, “Hurry! Get out of this place, because the LORD is going to destroy the city.” But they thought he was joking.

Genesis 19:15 As soon as it was dawn, the angels urged Lot by saying, “Quick! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you’ll be swept away when the city is punished.”

Genesis 19:16 When he hesitated, the men grabbed him, his wife, and his two daughters by their hands, because the LORD wanted to spare Lot. They brought them safely outside the city.

Genesis 19:17 As soon as they were outside, one [of the angels] said, “Run for your lives! Don’t look behind you, and don’t stop on the plain. Run for the hills, or you’ll be swept away!”

Genesis 19:18 Lot answered, “Oh no!

Genesis 19:19 Even though you’ve been so good to me and though you’ve been very kind to me by saving my life, I can’t run as far as the hills. This disaster will overtake me, and I’ll die.

Genesis 19:20 Look, there’s a city near enough to flee to, and it’s small. Why don’t you let me run there? Isn’t it small? Then my life will be saved.”

Genesis 19:21 The angel said to him, “Alright, I will grant you this request too. I will not destroy the city you’re talking about.

Genesis 19:22 Run there quickly, because I can’t do anything until you get there.” (The city is named Zoar [Small].)

Genesis 19:23 The sun had just risen over the land as Lot came to Zoar.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD made burning sulfur and fire rain out of heaven on Sodom and Gomorrah.

Genesis 19:25 He destroyed those cities, the whole plain, all who lived in the cities, and whatever grew on the ground.

Genesis 19:26 Lot's wife looked back and turned into a column of salt.

Genesis 19:27 Early the next morning Abraham came to the place where he had stood in front of the LORD.

Genesis 19:28 When he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land in the plain, he saw smoke rising from the land like the thick smoke of a furnace.

Genesis 19:29 When God destroyed the cities on the plain, he remembered Abraham. Lot was allowed to escape from the destruction that came to the cities where he was living.

Genesis 19:30 Lot left Zoar because he was afraid to stay there. He and his two daughters settled in the mountains where they lived in a cave.

Genesis 19:31 The older daughter said to the younger one, "Our father is old. No men are here. We can't get married as other people do.

Genesis 19:32 Let's give our father wine to drink. Then we'll go to bed with him so that we'll be able to preserve our family line through our father."

Genesis 19:33 That night they gave their father wine to drink. Then the older one went to bed with her father. He didn't know when she came to bed or when she got up.

Genesis 19:34 The next day the older daughter said to the younger one, "I did it! Last night I went to bed with my father. Let's give him wine to drink again tonight. Then you go to bed with him so that we'll be able to preserve our family line through our father."

Genesis 19:35 That night they gave their father wine to drink again. Then the younger one went to bed with him. He didn't know when she came to bed or when she got up.

Genesis 19:36 So Lot's two daughters became pregnant by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The older one gave birth to a son and named him Moab. He is the ancestor of the Moabites of today.

Genesis 19:38 The younger daughter also gave birth to a son and named him Ben Ammi. He is the ancestor of the Ammonites of today.

Genesis 20:1 Abraham moved to the Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While he was living in Gerar, Genesis 20:2 Abraham told everyone that his wife Sarah was his sister. So King Abimelech of Gerar sent men to take Sarah.

Genesis 20:3 God came to Abimelech in a dream one night and said to him, “You’re going to die because of the woman that you’ve taken! She’s a married woman!”

Genesis 20:4 Abimelech hadn’t come near her, so he asked, “Lord, will you destroy a nation even if it’s innocent?

Genesis 20:5 Didn’t he tell me himself, ‘She’s my sister,’ and didn’t she even say, ‘He’s my brother’? I did this in all innocence and with a clear conscience.”

Genesis 20:6 “Yes, I know that you did this with a clear conscience,” God said to him in the dream. “In fact, I kept you from sinning against me. That’s why I didn’t let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 Give the man’s wife back to him now, because he’s a prophet. He will pray for you, and you will live. But if you don’t give her back, you and all who belong to you are doomed to die.”

Genesis 20:8 Early in the morning Abimelech called together all his officials. He told them about all of this, and they were terrified.

Genesis 20:9 Then Abimelech called for Abraham and asked him, “What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you that you would bring such a serious sin on me and my kingdom? You shouldn’t have done this to me.”

Genesis 20:10 Abimelech also asked Abraham, “What were you thinking when you did this?”

Genesis 20:11 Abraham said, “I thought that because there are no God-fearing people in this place, I’d be killed because of my wife.

Genesis 20:12 Besides, she is my sister-my father’s daughter but not my mother’s. She is also my wife.

Genesis 20:13 When God had me leave my father’s home and travel around, I said to her, ‘Do me a favor: Wherever we go, say that I’m your brother.’”

Genesis 20:14 Then Abimelech took sheep, cattle, and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham. He also gave his wife Sarah back to him.

Genesis 20:15 Abimelech said, “Look, here’s my land. Live anywhere you like.”

Genesis 20:16 He said to Sarah, “Don’t forget, I’ve given your brother 25 pounds of silver. This is to silence any criticism against you from everyone with you. You’re completely cleared.”

Genesis 20:17 Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female slaves so that they could have children.

Genesis 20:18 (The LORD had made it impossible for any woman in Abimelech’s household to have children because of Abraham’s wife Sarah.)

Genesis 21:1 The LORD came to help Sarah and did for her what he had promised.

Genesis 21:2 So she became pregnant, and at the exact time God had promised, she gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age.

Genesis 21:3 Abraham named his newborn son Isaac.

Genesis 21:4 When Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him as God had commanded.

Genesis 21:5 Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born.

Genesis 21:6 Sarah said, “God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.

Genesis 21:7 Who would have predicted to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet, I have given him a son in his old age.”

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned. On the day Isaac was weaned, Abraham held a big feast.

Genesis 21:9 Sarah saw that Abraham’s son by Hagar the Egyptian was laughing at Isaac.

Genesis 21:10 She said to Abraham, “Get rid of this slave and her son, because this slave’s son must never share the inheritance with my son Isaac.”

Genesis 21:11 Abraham was upset by this because of his son Ishmael.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to Abraham, “Don’t be upset about the boy and your slave. Listen to what Sarah says because through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name.

Genesis 21:13 Besides, I will make the slave’s son into a nation also, because he is your child.”

Genesis 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham took bread and a container of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder. He also gave her the boy and sent her on her way. So she left and wandered around in the desert near Beersheba.

Genesis 21:15 When the water in the container was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes.

Genesis 21:16 Then she went about as far away as an arrow can be shot and sat down. She said to herself, “I don’t want to watch the boy die.” So she sat down and sobbed loudly.

Genesis 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the Messenger of God called to Hagar from heaven. “What’s the matter, Hagar?” he asked her. “Don’t be afraid! God has heard the boy crying from the bushes.

Genesis 21:18 Come on, help the boy up! Take him by the hand, because I’m going to make him into a great nation.”

Genesis 21:19 God opened her eyes. Then she saw a well. She filled the container with water and gave the boy a drink.

Genesis 21:20 God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became a skilled archer.

Genesis 21:21 He lived in the desert of Paran, and his mother got him a wife from Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 At that time Abimelech, accompanied by Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do.

Genesis 21:23 Now, swear an oath to me here in front of God that you will never cheat me, my children, or my descendants. Show me and the land where you’ve been living the same kindness that I have shown you.”

Genesis 21:24 Abraham said, “I so swear.”

Genesis 21:25 Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well which Abimelech’s servants had seized.

Genesis 21:26 Abimelech replied, “I don’t know who did this. You didn’t tell me, and I didn’t hear about it until today.”

Genesis 21:27 Abraham took some sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made an agreement.

Genesis 21:28 Then Abraham set apart seven female lambs from the flock.

Genesis 21:29 Abimelech asked him, “What is the meaning of these seven female lambs you have set apart?”

Genesis 21:30 Abraham answered, “Accept these lambs from me so that they may be proof that I dug this well.”

Genesis 21:31 This is why that place is called Beersheba, because both of them swore an oath there.

Genesis 21:32 After they made the treaty at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, left and went back to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba and worshiped the LORD, the Everlasting God, there.

Genesis 21:34 Abraham lived a long time in the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 22:1 Later God tested Abraham and called to him, “Abraham!” “Yes, here I am!” he answered.

Genesis 22:2 God said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will show you.”

Genesis 22:3 Early the next morning Abraham saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut the wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place that God had told him about.

Genesis 22:4 Two days later Abraham saw the place in the distance.

Genesis 22:5 Then Abraham said to his servants, “You stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go over there. We’ll worship. After that we’ll come back to you.”

Genesis 22:6 Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and gave it to his son Isaac. Abraham carried the burning coals and the knife. The two of them went on together.

Genesis 22:7 Isaac spoke up and said, “Father?” “Yes, Son?” Abraham answered. Isaac asked, “We have the burning coals and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

Genesis 22:8 Abraham answered, “God will provide a lamb for the burnt offering, Son.” The two of them went on together.

Genesis 22:9 When they came to the place that God had told him about, Abraham built the altar and arranged the wood on it. Then he tied up his son Isaac and laid him on top of the wood on the altar.

Genesis 22:10 Next, Abraham picked up the knife and took it in his hand to sacrifice his son.

Genesis 22:11 But the Messenger of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham! Abraham!” “Yes?” he answered.

Genesis 22:12 “Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you did not refuse to give me your son, your only son.”

Genesis 22:13 When Abraham looked around, he saw a ram behind him caught by its horns in a bush. So Abraham took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering in place of his son.

Genesis 22:14 Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide. It is still said today, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

Genesis 22:15 Then the Messenger of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time

Genesis 22:16 and said, “I am taking an oath on my own name, declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not refused to give me your son, your only son,

Genesis 22:17 I will certainly bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and the grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of their enemies’ cities.

Genesis 22:18 Through your descendant all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me.”

Genesis 22:19 Then Abraham returned to his servants, and together they left for Beersheba. Abraham remained in Beersheba.

Genesis 22:20 Later Abraham was told, “Milcah has given birth to these children of your brother Nahor:

Genesis 22:21 Uz (the firstborn), Buz (his brother), Kemuel (father of Aram), Genesis 22:22 Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

Genesis 22:23 Bethuel is the father of Rebekah. Milcah had these eight sons by Abraham’s brother Nahor.

Genesis 22:24 Nahor’s concubine, whose name was Reumah, had the following children: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.”

Genesis 23:1 Sarah lived to be 127 years old. This was the length of her life.

Genesis 23:2 She died in Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in Canaan. Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to cry about her death.

Genesis 23:3 Then Abraham left the side of his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites,

Genesis 23:4 “I’m a stranger with no permanent home. Let me have some of your property for a tomb so that I can bury my dead wife.”

Genesis 23:5 The Hittites answered Abraham,

Genesis 23:6 “Listen to us, sir. You are a mighty leader among us. Bury your dead in one of our best tombs. Not one of us will withhold from you his tomb for burying your dead.”

Genesis 23:7 Abraham got up in front of the Hittites, the people of that region, and bowed with his face touching the ground.

Genesis 23:8 He said to them, “If you are willing to let me bury my wife, listen to me. Encourage Ephron, son of Zohar, Genesis 23:9 to let me have the cave of Machpelah that he owns at the end of his field. He should sell it to me for its full price as my property to be used as a tomb among you.”

Genesis 23:10 Ephron was sitting among the Hittites. He answered Abraham so that everyone who was entering the city gate could hear him. He said,

Genesis 23:11 “No, sir, listen to me. I’m giving you the field together with the cave that is in it. My people are witnesses that I’m giving it to you. Bury your wife!”

Genesis 23:12 Abraham bowed down again in front of the people of that region.

Genesis 23:13 He spoke to Ephron so that the people of that region could hear him. He said, “If you would only listen to me. I will pay you the price of the field. Take it from me so that I can bury my wife there.”

Genesis 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,

Genesis 23:15 “Sir, listen to me. The land is worth ten pounds of silver. What is that between us? Bury your wife!”

Genesis 23:16 Abraham agreed to Ephron’s terms. So he weighed out for Ephron the amount stated in front of the Hittites: ten pounds of silver at the current merchants’ exchange rate.

Genesis 23:17 So Ephron’s field at Machpelah, east of Mamre, was sold

Genesis 23:18 to Abraham. His property included the field with the cave in it as well as all the trees inside the boundaries of the field. The Hittites together with all who had entered the city gate were the official witnesses for the agreement.

Genesis 23:19 After this, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah, east of Mamre (that is, Hebron).

Genesis 23:20 So the field and its cave were sold by the Hittites to Abraham as his property to be used as a tomb.

Genesis 24:1 By now Abraham was old, and the LORD had blessed him in every way.

Genesis 24:2 So Abraham said to the senior servant of his household who was in charge of all that he owned, “Take a solemn oath.

Genesis 24:3 I want you to swear by the LORD God of heaven and earth that you will not get my son a wife from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I’m living.

Genesis 24:4 Instead, you will go to the land of my relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac.”

Genesis 24:5 The servant asked him, “What if the woman doesn’t want to come back to this land with me? Should I take your son all the way back to the land you came from?”

Genesis 24:6 “Make sure that you do not take my son back there,” Abraham said to him.

Genesis 24:7 “The LORD God of heaven took me from my father’s home and the land of my family. He spoke to me and swore this oath: ‘I will give this land to your descendants.’ “God will send his angel ahead of you, and you will get my son a wife from there.

Genesis 24:8 If the woman doesn’t want to come back with you, then you’ll be free from this oath that you swear to me. But don’t take my son back there.”

Genesis 24:9 So the servant did as his master Abraham commanded and swore the oath to him concerning this.

Genesis 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and left, taking with him all of his master’s best things. He traveled to Aram Naharaim, Nahor’s city.

Genesis 24:11 The servant had the camels kneel down outside the city by the well. It was evening, when the women would go out to draw water.

Genesis 24:12 Then he prayed, “LORD, God of my master Abraham, make me successful today. Show your kindness to Abraham.

Genesis 24:13 Here I am standing by the spring, and the girls of the city are coming out to draw water.

Genesis 24:14 I will ask a girl, ‘May I please have a drink from your jar?’ If she answers, ‘Have a drink, and I’ll also water your camels,’ let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. This way I’ll know that you’ve shown your kindness to my master.”

Genesis 24:15 Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, who was the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor.

Genesis 24:16 The girl was a very attractive virgin. No man had ever had sexual intercourse with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came back.

Genesis 24:17 The servant ran to meet her and said, “Please give me a drink of water.”

Genesis 24:18 “Drink, sir,” she said. She quickly lowered her jar to her hand and gave him a drink.

Genesis 24:19 When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I’ll also keep drawing water for your camels until they’ve had enough to drink.”

Genesis 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the water trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 The man was silently watching her to see whether or not the LORD had made his trip successful.

Genesis 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a fifth of an ounce and two gold bracelets weighing four ounces.

Genesis 24:23 He asked, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me whether there is room in your father’s house for us to spend the night.”

Genesis 24:24 She answered him, “I’m the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah and Nahor.

Genesis 24:25 We have plenty of straw and feed [for your camels] and room for you to spend the night.”

Genesis 24:26 The man knelt, bowing to the LORD with his face touching the ground.

Genesis 24:27 He said, “Praise the LORD, the God of my master Abraham. The LORD hasn’t failed to be kind and faithful to my master. The LORD has led me on this trip to the home of my master’s relatives.”

Genesis 24:28 The girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.

Genesis 24:29 Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban.

Genesis 24:30 He saw the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister’s wrists and heard her tell what the man had said to her. Immediately, Laban ran out to the man by the spring. He came to the man, who was standing with the camels by the spring.

Genesis 24:31 He said, “Come in, you whom the LORD has blessed. Why are you standing out here? I have straightened up the house and made a place for the camels.”

Genesis 24:32 So the man went into the house. The camels were unloaded and given straw and feed. Then water was brought for him and his men to wash their feet.

Genesis 24:33 When the food was put in front of him, he said, “I won’t eat until I’ve said what I have to say.” “Speak up,” Laban said.

Genesis 24:34 “I am Abraham’s servant,” he said.

Genesis 24:35 “The LORD has blessed my master, and he has become wealthy. The LORD has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 My master’s wife Sarah gave him a son in her old age, and my master has given that son everything he has.

Genesis 24:37 My master made me swear this oath: ‘Don’t get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I’m living.

Genesis 24:38 Instead, go to my father’s home and to my relatives, and get my son a wife.’

Genesis 24:39 “I asked my master, ‘What if the woman won’t come back with me?’

Genesis 24:40 “He answered me, ‘I have been living the way the LORD wants me to. The LORD will send his angel with you to make your trip successful. You will get my son a wife from my relatives and from my father’s family.

Genesis 24:41 Then you will be free from your oath to me. You will also be free of your oath to me if my relatives are not willing to do this when you go to them.’

Genesis 24:42 “When I came to the spring today, I prayed, ‘LORD God of my master Abraham, please make my trip successful.

Genesis 24:43 I’m standing by the spring. I’ll say to the young woman who comes out to draw water, “Please give me a drink of water.”

Genesis 24:44 If she says to me, “Not only may you have a drink, but I will also draw water for your camels,” let her be the woman the LORD has chosen for my master’s son.’

Genesis 24:45 “Before I had finished praying, Rebekah came with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water. “So I asked her, ‘May I have a drink?’

Genesis 24:46 She quickly lowered her jar and said, ‘Have a drink, and I’ll water your camels too.’ So I drank, and she also watered the camels.

Genesis 24:47 “Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ “She answered, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, son of Nahor and Milcah.’ “I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.

Genesis 24:48 I knelt, bowing down to the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham. The LORD led me in the right direction to get the daughter of my master’s relative for his son.

Genesis 24:49 Tell me whether or not you’re going to show my master true kindness so that I will know what to do.”

Genesis 24:50 Laban and Bethuel answered, “This is from the LORD. We can’t say anything to you one way or another.

Genesis 24:51 Here’s Rebekah! Take her and go! She will become the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has said.”

Genesis 24:52 When Abraham’s servant heard their answer, he bowed down to the LORD.

Genesis 24:53 The servant took out gold and silver jewelry and clothes and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave expensive presents to her brother and mother.

Genesis 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they got up in the morning, he said, “Let me go back to my master.”

Genesis 24:55 Her brother and mother replied, “Let the girl stay with us ten days or so. After that she may go.”

Genesis 24:56 He said to them, “Don’t delay me now that the LORD has made my trip successful. Let me go back to my master.”

Genesis 24:57 So they said, “We’ll call the girl and ask her.”

Genesis 24:58 They called for Rebekah and asked her, “Will you go with this man?” She said, “Yes, I’ll go.”

Genesis 24:59 So they let their sister Rebekah and her nurse go with Abraham’s servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 They gave Rebekah a blessing: “May you, our sister, become the mother of many thousands of children. May your descendants take possession of their enemies’ cities.”

Genesis 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids left. Riding on camels, they followed the man. The servant took Rebekah and left.

Genesis 24:62 Isaac had just come back from Beer Lahai Roi, since he was living in the Negev.

Genesis 24:63 Toward evening Isaac went out into the field to meditate. When he looked up, he saw camels coming.

Genesis 24:64 When Rebekah saw Isaac, she got down from her camel.

Genesis 24:65 She asked the servant, “Who is that man over there coming through the field to meet us?” “That is my master,” the servant answered. Then she took her veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 The servant reported to Isaac everything he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Isaac took her into his mother Sarah’s tent. He married Rebekah. She became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Genesis 25:1 Abraham married again, and his wife’s name was Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 Keturah gave birth to these sons of Abraham: Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. Dedan’s descendants were the Assyrians, the Letushites, and the Leummites.

Genesis 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. These were the descendants of Keturah.

Genesis 25:5 Abraham left everything he had to Isaac.

Genesis 25:6 But while he was still living, Abraham had given gifts to the sons of his concubines. He sent them away from his son Isaac to a land in the east.

Genesis 25:7 Abraham lived 175 years.

Genesis 25:8 Then he took his last breath, and died at a very old age. After a long and full life, he joined his ancestors in death.

Genesis 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah in the field of Ephron, son of Zohar the Hittite. The cave is east of Mamre.

Genesis 25:10 This was the field that Abraham had bought from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.

Genesis 25:11 After Abraham died, God blessed his son Isaac, who settled near Beer Lahai Roi.

Genesis 25:12 This is the account of the descendants of Abraham’s son Ishmael. He was the son of Sarah’s Egyptian slave Hagar and Abraham.

Genesis 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth (Ishmael's firstborn), Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Genesis 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Genesis 25:16 These are the sons of Ishmael and their names listed by their settlements and camps-12 leaders of their tribes.

Genesis 25:17 Ishmael lived 137 years. Then he took his last breath and died. He joined his ancestors in death.

Genesis 25:18 His descendants lived as nomads from the region of Havilah to Shur, which is near Egypt, in the direction of Assyria. They all fought with each other.

Genesis 25:19 This is the account of Abraham's son Isaac and his descendants. Abraham was the father of Isaac.

Genesis 25:20 Isaac was 40 years old when he married Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram and sister of Laban the Aramean.

Genesis 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife because she was childless. The LORD answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

Genesis 25:22 When the children inside her were struggling with each other, she said, "If it's like this now, what will become of me?" So she went to ask the LORD.

Genesis 25:23 The LORD said to her, "Two countries are in your womb. Two nations will go their separate ways from birth. One nation will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."

Genesis 25:24 When the time came for her to give birth, she had twins.

Genesis 25:25 The first one born was red. His whole body was covered with hair, so they named him Esau [Hairy].

Genesis 25:26 Afterwards, his brother was born with his hand holding on to Esau's heel, and so he was named Jacob [Heel]. Isaac was 60 years old when they were born.

Genesis 25:27 They grew up. Esau became an expert hunter, an outdoorsman. Jacob remained a quiet man, staying around the tents.

Genesis 25:28 Because Isaac liked to eat the meat of wild animals, he loved Esau. However, Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:29 Once, Jacob was preparing a meal when Esau, exhausted, came in from outdoors.

Genesis 25:30 So Esau said to Jacob, "Let me have the whole pot of red stuff to eat-that red stuff-I'm exhausted." This is why he was called Edom.

Genesis 25:31 Jacob responded, “First, sell me your rights as firstborn.”

Genesis 25:32 “I’m about to die.” Esau said. “What good is my inheritance to me?”

Genesis 25:33 “First, swear an oath,” Jacob said. So Esau swore an oath to him and sold him his rights as firstborn.

Genesis 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau a meal of bread and lentils. He ate and drank, and then he got up and left. This is how Esau showed his contempt for his rights as firstborn.

Genesis 26:1 There was a famine in the land in addition to the earlier one during Abraham’s time. So Isaac went to King Abimelech of the Philistines in Gerar.

Genesis 26:2 The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, “Don’t go to Egypt. Stay where I tell you.

Genesis 26:3 Live here in this land for a while, and I will be with you and bless you. I will give all these lands to you and your descendants. I will keep the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.

Genesis 26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and give all these lands to your descendants. Through your descendant all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

Genesis 26:5 I will bless you because Abraham obeyed me and completed the duties, commands, laws, and instructions I gave him.”

Genesis 26:6 So Isaac lived in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 When the men of that place asked about his wife, Isaac answered, “She’s my sister.” He was afraid to say “my wife.” He thought that the men of that place would kill him to get Rebekah, because she was an attractive woman.

Genesis 26:8 When he had been there a long time, King Abimelech of the Philistines looked out of his window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

Genesis 26:9 Abimelech called for Isaac and said, “So she’s really your wife! How could you say, ‘She’s my sister’?” Isaac answered him, “I thought I would be killed because of her.”

Genesis 26:10 Then Abimelech said, “What have you done to us! One of the people might have easily gone to bed with your wife, and then you would have made us guilty of sin.”

Genesis 26:11 So Abimelech ordered his people, “Anyone who touches this man or his wife will be put to death.”

Genesis 26:12 Isaac planted [crops] in that land. In that same year he harvested a hundred times as much as he had planted because the LORD had blessed him.

Genesis 26:13 He continued to be successful, becoming very rich.

Genesis 26:14 Because he owned so many flocks, herds, and servants, the Philistines became jealous of him.

Genesis 26:15 So the Philistines filled in all the wells that his father's servants had dug during his father Abraham's lifetime.

Genesis 26:16 Finally, Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us! You've become more powerful than we are."

Genesis 26:17 So Isaac moved away. He set up his tents in the Gerar Valley and lived there.

Genesis 26:18 He dug out the wells that had been dug during his father Abraham's lifetime. The Philistines had filled them in after Abraham's death. He gave them the same names that his father had given them.

Genesis 26:19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a spring-fed well.

Genesis 26:20 The herders from Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herders, claiming, "This water is ours!" So Isaac named the well Esek [Argument], because they had argued with him.

Genesis 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one too. So Isaac named it Sitnah [Accusation].

Genesis 26:22 He moved on from there and dug another well. They didn't quarrel over this one. So he named it Rehoboth [Roomy] and said, "Now the LORD has made room for us, and we will prosper in this land."

Genesis 26:23 He went from there to Beersheba.

Genesis 26:24 That night the LORD appeared to Isaac, and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Don't be afraid, because I am with you. I will bless you and increase the number of your descendants for my servant Abraham's sake."

Genesis 26:25 So Isaac built an altar there and worshiped the LORD. He also pitched his tent in that place, and his servants dug a well there.

Genesis 26:26 Abimelech, his friend Ahuzzath, and Phicol, the commander of his army, came from Gerar to see Isaac.

Genesis 26:27 Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you?"

Genesis 26:28 They answered, "We have seen that the LORD is with you. So we thought, 'There should be a solemn agreement between us.' We'd like to make an agreement with you Genesis 26:29 that you will not harm us, since we have not touched you. We have done only good to you and let you go in peace. Now you are blessed by the LORD."

Genesis 26:30 Isaac prepared a special dinner for them, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 Early the next morning they exchanged oaths. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left peacefully.

Genesis 26:32 That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about a well they had dug. They said to him, "We've found water."

Genesis 26:33 So he named it Shibah [Oath]. That is why the name of the city is still Beersheba today.

Genesis 26:34 When Esau was 40 years old, he married Judith, daughter of Beeri the Hittite. He also married Basemath, daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Genesis 26:35 These women brought Isaac and Rebekah a lot of grief.

Genesis 27:1 When Isaac was old and going blind, he called his older son Esau and said to him, "Son!" Esau answered, "Here I am."

Genesis 27:2 Isaac said, "I'm old. I don't know when I'm going to die.

Genesis 27:3 Now take your hunting equipment, your quiver and bow, and go out into the open country and hunt some wild game for me.

Genesis 27:4 Prepare a good-tasting meal for me, just the way I like it. Bring it to me to eat so that I will bless you before I die."

Genesis 27:5 Rebekah was listening while Isaac was speaking to his son Esau. When Esau went into the open country to hunt for some wild game to bring back, Genesis 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "I've just heard your father speaking to your brother Esau.

Genesis 27:7 He said, 'Bring me some wild game, and prepare a good-tasting meal for me to eat so that I will bless you in the presence of the LORD before I die.'

Genesis 27:8 Now listen to me, Son, and do what I tell you.

Genesis 27:9 Go to the flock, and get me two good young goats. I'll prepare them as a good-tasting meal for your father, just the way he likes it.

Genesis 27:10 Then take it to your father to eat so that he will bless you before he dies."

Genesis 27:11 Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "My brother Esau is a hairy man, and my skin is smooth.

Genesis 27:12 My father will feel [my skin] and think I'm mocking him. Then I'll bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing."

Genesis 27:13 His mother responded, "Let any curse on you fall on me, Son. Just obey me and go! Get me [the young goats]."

Genesis 27:14 He went and got them and brought them to his mother. She prepared a good-tasting meal, just the way his father liked it.

Genesis 27:15 Then Rebekah took her older son Esau’s good clothes, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob.

Genesis 27:16 She put the skins from the young goats on his hands and on the back of his neck.

Genesis 27:17 Then she gave her son Jacob the good-tasting meal and the bread she had prepared.

Genesis 27:18 He went to his father and said, “Father?” “Yes?” he answered. “Who are you, Son?”

Genesis 27:19 Jacob answered his father, “I’m Esau, your firstborn. I’ve done what you told me. Sit up and eat this meat I’ve hunted for you so that you may bless me.”

Genesis 27:20 Isaac asked his son, “How did you find it so quickly, Son?” “The LORD your God brought it to me,” he answered.

Genesis 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come over here so that I can feel your skin, Son, [to find out] whether or not you really are my son Esau.”

Genesis 27:22 So Jacob went over to his father. Isaac felt [his skin]. “The voice is Jacob’s,” he said, “but the hands are Esau’s.”

Genesis 27:23 He didn’t recognize Jacob, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands. So he blessed him.

Genesis 27:24 “Are you really my son Esau?” he asked him. “I am,” Jacob answered.

Genesis 27:25 Isaac said, “Bring me some of the game, and I will eat it, Son, so that I will bless you.” Jacob brought it to Isaac, and he ate it. Jacob also brought him wine, and he drank it.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come here and give me a kiss, Son.”

Genesis 27:27 He went over and gave him a kiss. When Isaac smelled his clothes, he blessed him and said, “The smell of my son is like the smell of open country that the LORD has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 May God give you dew from the sky, fertile fields on the earth, and plenty of fresh grain and new wine.

Genesis 27:29 May nations serve you. May people bow down to you. Be the master of your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed. May those who bless you be blessed.”

Genesis 27:30 Isaac finished blessing Jacob. Jacob had barely left when his brother Esau came in from hunting.

Genesis 27:31 He, too, prepared a good-tasting meal and brought it to his father. Then he said to his father, “Please, Father, eat some of the meat I’ve hunted for you so that you will bless me.”

Genesis 27:32 “Who are you?” his father Isaac asked him. “I’m your firstborn son Esau,” he answered.

Genesis 27:33 Trembling violently all over, Isaac asked, “Who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it before you came in. I blessed him, and he will stay blessed.”

Genesis 27:34 When Esau heard these words from his father, he shouted out a very loud and bitter cry and said to his father, “Bless me too, Father!”

Genesis 27:35 Isaac said, “Your brother came and deceived me and has taken away your blessing.”

Genesis 27:36 Esau said, “Isn’t that why he’s named Jacob? He’s cheated me twice already: He took my rights as firstborn, and now he’s taken my blessing.” So he asked, “Haven’t you saved a blessing for me?”

Genesis 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, “I have made him your master, and I have made all his brothers serve him. I’ve provided fresh grain and new wine for him. What is left for me to do for you, Son?”

Genesis 27:38 Esau asked, “Do you have only one blessing, Father? Bless me too, Father!” And Esau sobbed loudly.

Genesis 27:39 His father Isaac answered him, “The place where you live will lack the fertile fields of the earth and the dew from the sky above.

Genesis 27:40 You will use your sword to live, and you will serve your brother. But eventually you will gain your freedom and break his yoke off your neck.”

Genesis 27:41 So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing that his father had given him. Esau said to himself, “The time to mourn for my father is near. Then I’ll kill my brother Jacob.”

Genesis 27:42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, “Watch out! Your brother Esau is comforting himself by planning to kill you.

Genesis 27:43 So now, Son, obey me. Quick! Run away to my brother Laban in Haran.

Genesis 27:44 Stay with him awhile, until your brother’s anger cools down.

Genesis 27:45 When your brother’s anger is gone and he has forgotten what you did to him, I’ll send for you and get you back. Why should I lose both of you in one day?”

Genesis 27:46 Rebekah said to Isaac, “I can’t stand Hittite women! If Jacob marries a Hittite woman like one of those from around here, I might as well die.”

Genesis 28:1 Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him. Then he commanded him, “You are not to marry any of the Canaanite women.

Genesis 28:2 Quick! Go to Paddan Aram. Go to the home of Bethuel, your mother's father, and get yourself a wife from there from the daughters of your uncle Laban.

Genesis 28:3 May God Almighty bless you, make you fertile, and increase the number of your descendants so that you will become a community of people.

Genesis 28:4 May he give to you and your descendants the blessing of Abraham so that you may take possession of the land where you are now living, the land that God gave to Abraham."

Genesis 28:5 Isaac sent Jacob to Paddan Aram. Jacob went to live with Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean and brother of Rebekah. She was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Genesis 28:6 Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Paddan Aram to get a wife from there. He learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had commanded him not to marry any of the Canaanite women.

Genesis 28:7 He also learned that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had left for Paddan Aram.

Genesis 28:8 Esau realized that his father Isaac disapproved of Canaanite women.

Genesis 28:9 So he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth, in addition to the wives he had.

Genesis 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba and traveled toward Haran.

Genesis 28:11 When he came to a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had gone down. He took one of the stones from that place, put it under his head, and lay down there.

Genesis 28:12 He had a dream in which he saw a stairway set up on the earth with its top reaching up to heaven. He saw the angels of God going up and coming down on it.

Genesis 28:13 The LORD was standing above it, saying, "I am the LORD, the God of your grandfather Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give the land on which you are lying to you and your descendants.

Genesis 28:14 Your descendants will be like the dust on the earth. You will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. Through you and through your descendant every family on earth will be blessed.

Genesis 28:15 Remember, I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go. I will also bring you back to this land because I will not leave you until I do what I've promised you."

Genesis 28:16 Then Jacob woke up from his sleep and exclaimed, "Certainly, the LORD is in this place, and I didn't know it!"

Genesis 28:17 Filled with awe, he said, “How awe-inspiring this place is! Certainly, this is the house of God and the gateway to heaven!”

Genesis 28:18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had put under his head. He set it up as a marker and poured olive oil on top of it.

Genesis 28:19 He named that place Bethel [House of God]. Previously, the name of the city was Luz.

Genesis 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow: “If God will be with me and will watch over me on my trip and give me food to eat and clothes to wear,

Genesis 28:21 and if I return safely to my father’s home, then the LORD will be my God.

Genesis 28:22 This stone that I have set up as a marker will be the house of God, and I will surely give you a tenth of everything you give me.”

Genesis 29:1 Jacob continued on his trip and came to the land in the east.

Genesis 29:2 He looked around, and out in a field he saw a well with a large stone over the opening. Three flocks of sheep were lying down near it, because the flocks were watered from that well.

Genesis 29:3 When all the flocks were gathered there, the stone would be rolled off the opening of the well so that the sheep could be watered. Then the stone would be put back in place over the opening of the well.

Genesis 29:4 Jacob asked some people, “My friends, where are you from?” “We’re from Haran,” they replied.

Genesis 29:5 He asked them, “Do you know Laban, Nahor’s grandson?” They answered, “We do.”

Genesis 29:6 “How is he doing?” Jacob asked them. “He’s fine,” they answered. “Here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep.”

Genesis 29:7 “It’s still the middle of the day,” he said. “It isn’t time yet to gather the livestock. Water the sheep. Then let them graze.”

Genesis 29:8 They replied, “We can’t until all the flocks are gathered. When the stone is rolled off the opening of the well, we can water the sheep.”

Genesis 29:9 While he was still talking to them, Rachel arrived with her father’s sheep, because she was a shepherd.

Genesis 29:10 Jacob saw Rachel, daughter of his uncle Laban, with his uncle Laban’s sheep. He came forward and rolled the stone off the opening of the well and watered his uncle Laban’s sheep.

Genesis 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and sobbed loudly.

Genesis 29:12 When Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's nephew and that he was Rebekah's son, she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 As soon as Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him. He hugged and kissed him and brought him into his home. Then Jacob told Laban all that had happened.

Genesis 29:14 Laban said to him, "You are my own flesh and blood." Jacob stayed with him for a whole month.

Genesis 29:15 Then Laban said to him, "Just because you're my relative doesn't mean that you should work for nothing. Tell me what your wages should be."

Genesis 29:16 Laban had two daughters. The name of the older one was Leah, and the name of the younger one was Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 Leah had attractive eyes, but Rachel had a beautiful figure and beautiful features.

Genesis 29:18 Jacob loved Rachel. So he offered, "I'll work seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel."

Genesis 29:19 Laban responded, "It's better that I give her to you than to any other man. Stay with me."

Genesis 29:20 Jacob worked seven years in return for Rachel, but the years seemed like only a few days to him because he loved her.

Genesis 29:21 [At the end of the seven years] Jacob said to Laban, "The time is up; give me my wife! I want to sleep with her."

Genesis 29:22 So Laban invited all the people of that place and gave a wedding feast.

Genesis 29:23 In the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob. Jacob slept with her. When morning came, he realized it was Leah.

Genesis 29:24 (Laban had given his slave Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her slave.)

Genesis 29:25 "What have you done to me?" Jacob asked Laban. "Didn't I work for you in return for Rachel? Why did you cheat me?"

Genesis 29:26 Laban answered, "It's not our custom to give the younger daughter [in marriage] before the older one.

Genesis 29:27 Finish the week of wedding festivities with this daughter. Then we will give you the other one too. But you'll have to work for me another seven years."

Genesis 29:28 That's what Jacob did. He finished the week with Leah. Then Laban gave his daughter Rachel to him as his wife.

Genesis 29:29 (Laban had given his slave Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her slave.)

Genesis 29:30 Jacob slept with Rachel too. He loved Rachel more than Leah. So he worked for Laban another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 When the LORD saw Leah was unloved, he made it possible for her to have children, but Rachel had none.

Genesis 29:32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben [Here's My Son], because she said, "Certainly, the LORD has seen my misery; now my husband will love me!"

Genesis 29:33 She became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She said, "Certainly, the LORD has heard that I'm unloved, and he also has given me this son." So she named him Simeon [Hearing].

Genesis 29:34 She became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She said, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me because I've given him three sons." So she named him Levi [Attached].

Genesis 29:35 She became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She said, "This time I will praise the LORD." So she named him Judah [Praise]. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30:1 Rachel saw that she could not have children for Jacob, and she became jealous of her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"

Genesis 30:2 Jacob became angry with Rachel and asked, "Can I take the place of God, who has kept you from having children?"

Genesis 30:3 She said, "Here's my servant Bilhah. Sleep with her. She can have children for me, and I can build a family for myself through her."

Genesis 30:4 So she gave him her slave Bilhah as his wife, and Jacob slept with her.

Genesis 30:5 Bilhah became pregnant, and she gave birth to a son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:6 Rachel said, "Now God has judged in my favor. He has heard my prayer and has given me a son." So she named him Dan [He Judges].

Genesis 30:7 Rachel's slave Bilhah became pregnant again and gave birth to a second son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:8 Rachel said, "I have had a great struggle with my sister, and I have won!" So she named him Naphtali [My Struggle].

Genesis 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her slave Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as his wife.

Genesis 30:10 Leah's slave Zilpah gave birth to a son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:11 Leah said, "I've been lucky!" So she called him Gad [Luck].

Genesis 30:12 Leah's slave Zilpah gave birth to her second son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:13 Leah said, "I've been blessed! Women will call me blessed." So she named him Asher [Blessing].

Genesis 30:14 During the wheat harvest Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrakes. He brought them to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:15 Leah replied, “Isn’t it enough that you took my husband? Are you also going to take my son’s mandrakes?” Rachel said, “Very well, Jacob can go to bed with you tonight in return for your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:16 As Jacob was coming in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him. “You are to sleep with me,” she said. “You are my reward for my son’s mandrakes.” So he went to bed with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 God answered Leah’s prayer. She became pregnant and gave birth to her fifth son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:18 Leah said, “God has given me my reward because I gave my slave to my husband.” So she named him Issachar [Reward].

Genesis 30:19 She became pregnant again and gave birth to her sixth son for Jacob.

Genesis 30:20 Leah said, “God has presented me with a beautiful present. This time my husband will honor me because I have given him six sons.” So she named him Zebulun [Honor].

Genesis 30:21 Later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

Genesis 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel. God answered her prayer and made it possible for her to have children.

Genesis 30:23 So she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Then she said, “God has taken away my disgrace.”

Genesis 30:24 She named him Joseph [May He Give Another] and said, “May the LORD give me another son.”

Genesis 30:25 After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Let me go home to my own country.

Genesis 30:26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I’ve worked, and let me go. You know how much work I’ve done for you.”

Genesis 30:27 Laban replied, “Listen to me. I’ve learned from the signs I’ve seen that the LORD has blessed me because of you.”

Genesis 30:28 So he offered, “Name your wages, and I’ll pay them.”

Genesis 30:29 Jacob responded, “You know how much work I’ve done for you and what has happened to your livestock under my care.

Genesis 30:30 The little that you had before I came has grown to a large amount. The LORD has blessed you wherever I’ve been. When can I do something for my own family?”

Genesis 30:31 Laban asked, “What should I give you?” “Don’t give me anything,” Jacob answered. “Instead, do something for me, then I’ll go back to taking care of and watching your flocks again.

Genesis 30:32 Let me go through all of your flocks today and take every speckled or spotted sheep, every black lamb, and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 My honesty will speak for itself whenever you come to check on my wages. Any goat I have that isn’t speckled or spotted or any lamb that isn’t black will be considered stolen.”

Genesis 30:34 Laban answered, “Agreed. We’ll do as you’ve said.”

Genesis 30:35 However, that same day Laban took out the striped and spotted male goats, all the speckled and spotted female goats (every one with white on it), and every black lamb. He had his sons take charge of them.

Genesis 30:36 He traveled three days away from Jacob. Jacob continued to take care of the rest of Laban’s flocks.

Genesis 30:37 Then Jacob took fresh-cut branches of poplar, almond, and plane trees and peeled the bark on them in strips of white, uncovering the white which was on the branches.

Genesis 30:38 He placed the peeled branches in the troughs directly in front of the flocks, at the watering places where the flocks came to drink. When they were in heat and came to drink,

Genesis 30:39 they mated in front of the branches. Then they gave birth to young that were striped, speckled, or spotted.

Genesis 30:40 Jacob separated the rams from the flock and made the rest of the sheep face any that were striped or black in Laban’s flocks. So he made separate herds for himself and did not add them to Laban’s flocks.

Genesis 30:41 Whenever the stronger of the flocks were in heat, Jacob would lay the branches in the troughs in front of them so that they would mate by the branches.

Genesis 30:42 But when the flocks in heat were weak, he didn’t lay down the branches. So the weaker ones belonged to Laban and the stronger ones to Jacob.

Genesis 30:43 As a result, Jacob became very wealthy. He had large flocks, male and female slaves, camels, and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 Jacob heard that Laban’s sons were saying, “Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father and has gained all his wealth from him.”

Genesis 31:2 He also noticed that Laban did not appear as friendly to him as before.

Genesis 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, “Go back to the land of your ancestors and to your relatives, and I will be with you.”

Genesis 31:4 So Jacob sent a message to Rachel and Leah to come out to the open country where his flocks were.

Genesis 31:5 He said to them, “I have seen that your father isn’t as friendly to me as he was before, but the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 You know that I have worked as hard as I could for your father.

Genesis 31:7 Your father has cheated me. He has changed my wages ten times. But God hasn’t let him harm me.

Genesis 31:8 Whenever he said, ‘The speckled ones will be your wages,’ all the flocks gave birth to speckled young. And whenever he said, ‘The striped ones will be your wages,’ all the flocks gave birth to striped young.

Genesis 31:9 So God has taken away your father’s livestock and has given them to me.

Genesis 31:10 “During the mating season I had a dream: I looked up and saw that the male goats which were mating were striped, speckled, or spotted.

Genesis 31:11 In the dream the Messenger of God called to me, ‘Jacob!’ And I answered, ‘Yes, here I am.’

Genesis 31:12 He said, ‘Look up and see that all the male goats which are mating are striped, speckled, or spotted, because I have seen everything that Laban is doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 I am the God who appeared to you at Bethel, where you poured olive oil on a stone marker for a holy purpose and where you made a vow to me. Now leave this land, and go back to the land of your relatives.’ “ Genesis 31:14 Rachel and Leah answered him, “Is there anything left in our father’s household for us to inherit?

Genesis 31:15 Doesn’t he think of us as foreigners? Not only did he sell us, but he has used up the money that was paid for us.

Genesis 31:16 Certainly, all the wealth that God took away from our father belongs to us and our children. Now do whatever God has told you.”

Genesis 31:17 Then Jacob put his children and his wives on camels.

Genesis 31:18 He drove all his livestock ahead of him and took all the possessions that he had accumulated. He took his own livestock that he had accumulated in Paddan Aram and went back to his father Isaac in Canaan.

Genesis 31:19 When Laban went to shear his sheep, Rachel stole her father's idols.

Genesis 31:20 Jacob also tricked Laban the Aramean by not telling him he was leaving.

Genesis 31:21 So he left in a hurry with all that belonged to him. He crossed the Euphrates River and went toward the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:22 Two days later Laban was told that Jacob had left in a hurry.

Genesis 31:23 He and his relatives pursued Jacob for seven days. Laban caught up with him in the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:24 God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, "Be careful not to say anything at all to Jacob."

Genesis 31:25 When Laban finally caught up with Jacob, Jacob had put up his tents in the mountains. So Laban and his relatives put up their tents in the mountains of Gilead.

Genesis 31:26 Then Laban asked Jacob, "What have you done by tricking me? You've carried off my daughters like prisoners of war.

Genesis 31:27 Why did you leave secretly and trick me? You didn't even tell me you were leaving. I would have sent you on your way rejoicing, with songs accompanied by tambourines and lyres.

Genesis 31:28 You didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters. You've done a foolish thing.

Genesis 31:29 I have the power to harm you. Last night the God of your father said to me, 'Be careful not to say anything at all to Jacob.'

Genesis 31:30 Now you have left for your father's home because you were so homesick. But why did you steal my gods?"

Genesis 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, "I left because I was afraid. I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force.

Genesis 31:32 If you find your gods, the one who has them will not be allowed to live. In the presence of our relatives, search as much as you want through what I have, and take what is yours." (Jacob didn't know that Rachel had stolen the gods.)

Genesis 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two slaves. But he found nothing. He came out of Leah's tent and went into Rachel's tent.

Genesis 31:34 Rachel had taken the idols and had put them in her camel's saddle-bag and was sitting on them. Laban rummaged through the whole tent but found nothing.

Genesis 31:35 Rachel said to her father, "Don't be angry, Father, but I can't get up to greet you; I'm having my period." So even though Laban had made a thorough search, he didn't find the idols.

Genesis 31:36 Then Jacob became angry and confronted Laban. “What is my crime?” Jacob demanded of Laban. “What is my offense that you have come chasing after me?

Genesis 31:37 Now that you’ve rummaged through all my things, did you find anything from your house? Put it here in front of all our relatives. Let them decide which one of us is right.

Genesis 31:38 “I’ve been with you for 20 years. Your sheep and goats never miscarried, and I never ate any rams from your flocks.

Genesis 31:39 I never brought you any of the flock that was killed by wild animals. I paid for the loss myself. That’s what you demanded of me when any of the flock was stolen during the day or at night.

Genesis 31:40 The scorching heat during the day and the cold at night wore me down, and I lost a lot of sleep.

Genesis 31:41 I’ve been with your household 20 years now. I worked for you 14 years for your two daughters and 6 years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.

Genesis 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would have sent me away empty-handed by now. God has seen my misery and hard work, and last night he made it right.”

Genesis 31:43 Then Laban answered Jacob, “These are my daughters, my grandchildren, and my flocks. Everything you see is mine! Yet, what can I do today for my daughters or for their children?

Genesis 31:44 Now, let’s make an agreement and let it stand as a witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:45 Jacob took a stone and set it up as a marker.

Genesis 31:46 Then Jacob said to his relatives, “Gather some stones.” They took stones, put them into a pile, and ate there by the pile of stones.

Genesis 31:47 [In his language] Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha [Witness Pile], but Jacob called it Galeed.

Genesis 31:48 Laban said, “This pile of stones stands as a witness between you and me today.” This is why it was named Galeed Genesis 31:49 and also Mizpah [Watchtower], because he said, “May the LORD watch between you and me when we’re unable to see each other.

Genesis 31:50 If you mistreat my daughters or marry other women behind my back, remember that God stands as a witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:51 Laban said to Jacob, “Here is the pile of stones, and here is the marker that I have set up between you and me.

Genesis 31:52 This pile of stones and this marker stand as witnesses that I will not go past the pile of stones to harm you, and that you will not go past the pile of stones or marker to harm me.

Genesis 31:53 May the God of Abraham and Nahor-the God of their father-judge between us." So Jacob swore this oath by the Fear of his father Isaac Genesis 31:54 and offered a sacrifice on the mountain. He invited his relatives to eat the meal with him. They ate with him and spent the night on the mountain.

Genesis 31:55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and went back home.

Genesis 32:1 As Jacob went on his way, God's angels met him.

Genesis 32:2 When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's camp!" He named that place Mahanaim [Two Camps].

Genesis 32:3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in Seir, the country of Edom.

Genesis 32:4 He commanded them to give this message to Esau, "Sir, this is what Jacob has to say, 'I've been living with Laban and have stayed until now.

Genesis 32:5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, and male and female slaves. I've sent [these messengers] to tell you [this news] in order to win your favor.'"

Genesis 32:6 When the messengers came back to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you with 400 men."

Genesis 32:7 Jacob was terrified and distressed. So he divided the people, the sheep and goats, the cattle, and the camels into two camps.

Genesis 32:8 He thought, "If Esau attacks the one camp, then the other camp will be able to escape."

Genesis 32:9 Then Jacob prayed, "God of my grandfather Abraham and God of my father Isaac! LORD, you said to me, 'Go back to your land and to your relatives, and I will make you prosperous.'

Genesis 32:10 I'm not worthy of all the love and faithfulness you have shown me. I only had a shepherd's staff when I crossed the Jordan River, but now I have two camps.

Genesis 32:11 Please save me from my brother Esau, because I'm afraid of him. I'm afraid that he'll come and attack me and the mothers and children too.

Genesis 32:12 But you did say, 'I will make sure that you are prosperous and that your descendants will be as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. No one will be able to count them because there are so many.'"

Genesis 32:13 He stayed there that night. Then he prepared a gift for his brother Esau from what he had brought with him:

Genesis 32:14 200 female goats and 20 male goats, 200 female sheep and 20 male sheep,

Genesis 32:15 30 female camels with their young, 40 cows and 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 male donkeys.

Genesis 32:16 He placed servants in charge of each herd. Then he said to his servants, “Go ahead of me, and keep a distance between the herds.”

Genesis 32:17 He commanded the first servant, “When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and whose animals are these ahead of you?’

Genesis 32:18 then say, ‘Sir, they belong to your servant Jacob. This is a gift sent to you. Jacob is right behind us.’”

Genesis 32:19 He also commanded the second servant, the third, and all the others who followed the herds. He said, “Say the same thing to Esau when you find him.

Genesis 32:20 And be sure to add, ‘Jacob is right behind us, sir.’ “ He thought, “I’ll make peace with him by giving him this gift that I’m sending ahead of me. After that I will see him, and he’ll welcome me back.”

Genesis 32:21 So Jacob sent the gift ahead of him while he stayed in the camp that night.

Genesis 32:22 During that night he got up and gathered his two wives, his two slaves and his eleven children and crossed at the shallow part of the Jabbok River.

Genesis 32:23 After he sent them across the stream, he sent everything else across.

Genesis 32:24 So Jacob was left alone. Then a man wrestled with him until dawn.

Genesis 32:25 When the man saw that he could not win against Jacob, he touched the socket of Jacob’s hip so that it was dislocated as they wrestled.

Genesis 32:26 Then the man said, “Let me go; it’s almost dawn.” But Jacob answered, “I won’t let you go until you bless me.”

Genesis 32:27 So the man asked him, “What’s your name?” “Jacob,” he answered.

Genesis 32:28 The man said, “Your name will no longer be Jacob but Israel [He Struggles With God], because you have struggled with God and with men-and you have won.”

Genesis 32:29 Jacob said, “Please tell me your name.” The man answered, “Why do you ask for my name?” Then he blessed Jacob there.

Genesis 32:30 So Jacob named that place Peniel [Face of God], because he said, "I have seen God face to face, but my life was saved."

Genesis 32:31 The sun rose as he passed Penuel. He was limping because of his hip.

Genesis 32:32 (Therefore, even today the people of Israel do not eat the muscle of the thigh attached to the hip socket because God touched the socket of Jacob's hip at the muscle of the thigh.)

Genesis 33:1 Jacob saw Esau coming with 400 men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two slaves.

Genesis 33:2 He put the slaves and their children in front, Leah and her children after them, and Rachel and Joseph last.

Genesis 33:3 He went on ahead of them and bowed seven times with his face touching the ground as he came near his brother.

Genesis 33:4 Then Esau ran to meet Jacob. Esau hugged him, threw his arms around him, and kissed him. They both cried.

Genesis 33:5 When he saw the women and children, Esau asked, "Who are these people here with you?" "The children God has graciously given me, sir," Jacob answered.

Genesis 33:6 Then the slaves and their children came forward and bowed down.

Genesis 33:7 Likewise, Leah and her children came forward and bowed down. Finally, Joseph and Rachel came forward and bowed down.

Genesis 33:8 Then Esau asked, "Why did you send this whole group [of people and animals] I met?" He answered, "To win your favor, sir."

Genesis 33:9 Esau said, "I have enough. Keep what you have, Brother."

Genesis 33:10 Jacob said, "No, please take the gift I'm giving you, because I've seen your face as if I were seeing the face of God, and yet you welcomed me so warmly.

Genesis 33:11 Please take the present I've brought you, because God has been gracious to me and has given me all that I need." So Esau took it because Jacob insisted.

Genesis 33:12 Then Esau said, "Let's get ready to go, and I'll go with you."

Genesis 33:13 Jacob said to him, "Sir, you know that the children are frail and that I have to take care of the flocks and cattle that are nursing their young. If they're driven too hard for even one day, all the flocks will die.

Genesis 33:14 Go ahead of me, sir. I will slowly and gently guide the herds that are in front of me at their pace and at the children's pace until I come to you in Seir."

Genesis 33:15 Esau said, “Then let me leave some of my men with you.” “Why do that?” Jacob asked. “I only want to win your favor, sir.”

Genesis 33:16 That day Esau started back to Seir.

Genesis 33:17 But Jacob moved on to Succoth, where he built a house for himself and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place is named Succoth [Shelters].

Genesis 33:18 So having come from Paddan Aram, Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem in Canaan. He camped within sight of the city.

Genesis 33:19 Then he bought the piece of land on which he had put up his tents. He bought it from the sons of Hamor, father of Shechem, for 100 pieces of silver.

Genesis 33:20 He set up an altar there and named it God Is the God of Israel.

Genesis 34:1 Dinah, daughter of Leah and Jacob, went out to visit some of the Canaanite women.

Genesis 34:2 When Shechem, son of the local ruler Hamor the Hivite, saw her, he took her and raped her.

Genesis 34:3 He became very fond of Jacob’s daughter Dinah. He loved the girl and spoke tenderly to her.

Genesis 34:4 So Shechem said to his father Hamor, “Get me this girl for my wife.”

Genesis 34:5 Jacob heard that Shechem had dishonored his daughter Dinah. His sons were with his livestock out in the open country, so Jacob kept quiet until they came home.

Genesis 34:6 So Shechem’s father Hamor came to Jacob to speak with him.

Genesis 34:7 Jacob’s sons came in from the open country as soon as they heard the news. The men felt outraged and very angry because Shechem had committed such a godless act against Israel’s family by raping Jacob’s daughter. This shouldn’t have happened.

Genesis 34:8 Hamor told them. “My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please let her marry him.

Genesis 34:9 Intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take ours for yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 You can live with us, and the land will be yours. Live here, move about freely in this area, and acquire property here.”

Genesis 34:11 Then Shechem said to Dinah’s father and her brothers, “Do me this favor. I’ll give you whatever you ask.

Genesis 34:12 Set the price I must pay for the bride and the gift I must give her as high as you want. I’ll pay exactly what you tell me. Give me the girl as my wife.”

Genesis 34:13 Then Jacob's sons gave Shechem and his father Hamor a misleading answer because he had dishonored their sister Dinah.

Genesis 34:14 They said, "We can't do this. We can't give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised. That would be a disgrace to us!

Genesis 34:15 We will give our consent to you only on one condition: Every male must be circumcised as we are.

Genesis 34:16 Then we'll give our daughters to you and take yours for ourselves, and we'll live with you and become one people.

Genesis 34:17 If you won't agree to be circumcised, we'll take our daughter and go."

Genesis 34:18 Their proposal seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem.

Genesis 34:19 The young man didn't waste any time in doing what they said because he took such pleasure in Jacob's daughter. He was the most honored person in all his father's family.

Genesis 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem went to their city gate to speak to the men of their city. They said, Genesis 34:21 "These people are friendly toward us, so let them live in our land and move about freely in the area. Look, there's plenty of room in this land for them. We can marry their daughters and let them marry ours.

Genesis 34:22 These people will consent to live with us and become one nation on one condition: Every male must be circumcised as they are.

Genesis 34:23 Won't their livestock, their personal property, and all their animals be ours? We only need to agree to do this for them. Then they'll live with us."

Genesis 34:24 All the men who had come out to the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem. So they were all circumcised at the city gate.

Genesis 34:25 Two days later, while the men were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and boldly attacked the city. They killed every man Genesis 34:26 including Hamor and his son Shechem. They took Dinah from Shechem's home and left.

Genesis 34:27 Then Jacob's sons stripped the corpses and looted the city where their sister had been dishonored.

Genesis 34:28 They took the sheep and goats, cattle, donkeys, and whatever else was in the city or out in the fields.

Genesis 34:29 They carried off all the wealth and all the women and children and looted everything in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have caused me a lot of trouble! You’ve made the people living in the area, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, hate me. There are only a few of us. If they join forces against me and attack me, my family and I will be wiped out.”

Genesis 34:31 Simeon and Levi asked, “Should Shechem have been allowed to treat our sister like a prostitute?”

Genesis 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, “Go to Bethel and live there. Make an altar there. I am the God who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau.”

Genesis 35:2 So Jacob said to his family and those who were with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods which you have, wash yourselves until you are ritually clean, and change your clothes.

Genesis 35:3 Then let’s go to Bethel. I will make an altar there to God, who answered me when I was troubled and who has been with me wherever I’ve gone.”

Genesis 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods that they had in their possession as well as the earrings that they had on. Jacob buried these things under the oak tree near Shechem.

Genesis 35:5 As they moved on, God made the people of the cities that were all around them terrified so that no one pursued them.

Genesis 35:6 Jacob and all the people who were with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 35:7 He built an altar there and called that place El Bethel [God of the House of God]. That’s where God had revealed himself to Jacob when he was fleeing from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Rebekah’s nurse Deborah died and was buried under the oak tree outside Bethel. So Jacob called it the Tree of Crying.

Genesis 35:9 Then God appeared once more to Jacob after he came back from Paddan Aram, and he blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 God said to him, “Your name is Jacob. You will no longer be called Jacob, but your name will be Israel.” So he named him Israel.

Genesis 35:11 God also said to him, “I am God Almighty. Be fertile, and increase in number. A nation and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from you.

Genesis 35:12 I will give you the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac. I will also give this land to your descendants.”

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him at the place where he had spoken with him.

Genesis 35:14 So Jacob set up a memorial, a stone marker, to mark the place where God had spoken with him. He poured a wine offering and olive oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him Bethel [House of God].

Genesis 35:16 Then they moved on from Bethel. When they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor and was having severe labor pains.

Genesis 35:17 During one of her pains, the midwife said to her, “Don’t be afraid! You’re having another son!”

Genesis 35:18 Rachel was dying. As she took her last breath, she named her son Benoni [Son of My Sorrow], but his father named him Benjamin [Son of My Right Hand].

Genesis 35:19 Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 35:20 Then Jacob set up a stone as a marker for her grave. The same marker is at Rachel’s grave today.

Genesis 35:21 Israel moved on again and put up his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

Genesis 35:22 While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went to bed with his father’s concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard about it. Jacob had 12 sons.

Genesis 35:23 The sons of [Leah]were Jacob’s firstborn Reuben, then Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

Genesis 35:24 The sons of [Rachel]were Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 35:25 The sons of Rachel’s slave [Bilhah]were Dan and Naphtali.

Genesis 35:26 The sons of Leah’s slave [Zilpah]were Gad and Asher. These were Jacob’s sons, who were born in Paddan Aram.

Genesis 35:27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac to Mamre’s city, Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron). Abraham and Isaac had lived there for a while.

Genesis 35:28 Isaac was 180 years old

Genesis 35:29 when he took his last breath and died. He joined his ancestors in death at a very old age. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36:1 This is the account of Esau (that is, Edom) and his descendants.

Genesis 36:2 Esau chose his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah, daughter of Elon the Hittite; Oholibamah, daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

Genesis 36:3 also Basemath, daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Genesis 36:4 Adah gave birth to Eliphaz for Esau, and Basemath gave birth to Reuel.

Genesis 36:5 Oholibamah gave birth to Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born in Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, all the members of his household, his possessions, all his cattle, and everything he had accumulated in Canaan and went to another land away from his brother Jacob.

Genesis 36:7 He did this because they had too many possessions to live together. There wasn't enough pastureland for all of their livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esau, who was also known as Edom, lived in the mountains of Seir.

Genesis 36:9 This is the account of Esau and his descendants. He was the father of the people of Edom in the mountains of Seir.

Genesis 36:10 These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 Timna was a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz. She gave birth to Amalek for Eliphaz. These were the grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.

Genesis 36:13 These were Reuel's sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:14 These were the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon. She gave birth to Jeush, Jalam, and Korah for Esau.

Genesis 36:15 These were the tribal leaders among Esau's descendants: The sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn, were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Genesis 36:16 Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. These were the tribal leaders descended from Eliphaz in Edom. They were the grandsons of Adah.

Genesis 36:17 These were the tribal leaders among the descendants of Esau's son Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the tribal leaders descended from Reuel in Edom. They were the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:18 These were the tribal leaders among the descendants of Esau's wife Oholibamah: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the tribal leaders descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, Anah's daughter.

Genesis 36:19 These were the descendants of Esau (that is, Edom), who were tribal leaders.

Genesis 36:20 These were the sons of Seir the Horite, the people living in that land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Genesis 36:21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These Horite tribal leaders were the sons of Seir in Edom.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Lotan's sister was Timna.

Genesis 36:23 These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 These were the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. (Anah found the hot springs in the desert while he was taking care of the donkeys that belonged to his father Zibeon.)

Genesis 36:25 These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:26 These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

Genesis 36:27 These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

Genesis 36:28 These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These were the Horite tribal leaders: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Genesis 36:30 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the Horite tribal leaders in the land of Seir.

Genesis 36:31 These were the kings who ruled Edom before any king ruled the people of Israel:

Genesis 36:32 Bela, son of Beor, ruled Edom. The name of his [capital] city was Dinhabah.

Genesis 36:33 After Bela died, Jobab, son of Zerah from Bozrah, succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:34 After Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:35 After Husham died, Hadad, son of Bedad succeeded him as king. Hadad defeated the Midianites in the country of Moab. The name of his capital city was Avith.

Genesis 36:36 After Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:37 After Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the river succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:38 After Shaul died, Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:39 After Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, died, Hadar succeeded him as king, and the name of his capital city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Mezahab.

Genesis 36:40 These were the names of the tribal leaders descended from Esau, by family, place, and name: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Genesis 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Genesis 36:43 Magdiel, and Iram. These were the tribal leaders of Edom listed by the places where they lived and the property they owned. Esau was the father of the people of Edom.

Genesis 37:1 Jacob continued to live in the land of Canaan, where his father had lived.

Genesis 37:2 This is the account of Jacob and his descendants. Joseph was a seventeen-year-old young man. He took care of the flocks with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph told his father about the bad things his brothers were doing.

Genesis 37:3 Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons because Joseph had been born in Israel's old age. So he made Joseph a special robe with long sleeves.

Genesis 37:4 Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them. They hated Joseph and couldn't speak to him on friendly terms.

Genesis 37:5 Joseph had a dream and when he told his brothers, they hated him even more.

Genesis 37:6 He said to them, "Please listen to the dream I had.

Genesis 37:7 We were tying grain into bundles out in the field, and suddenly mine stood up. It remained standing while your bundles gathered around my bundle and bowed down to it."

Genesis 37:8 Then his brothers asked him, "Are you going to be our king or rule us?" They hated him even more for his dreams and his words.

Genesis 37:9 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream: I saw the sun, the moon, and 11 stars bowing down to me."

Genesis 37:10 When he told his father and his brothers, his father criticized him by asking, "What's this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers come and bow down in front of you?"

Genesis 37:11 So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept thinking about these things.

Genesis 37:12 His brothers had gone to take care of their father's flocks at Shechem.

Genesis 37:13 Israel then said to Joseph, "Your brothers are taking care of the flocks at Shechem. I'm going to send you to them." Joseph responded, "I'll go."

Genesis 37:14 So Israel said, “See how your brothers and the flocks are doing, and bring some news back to me.” Then he sent Joseph away from the Hebron Valley. When Joseph came to Shechem, Genesis 37:15 a man found him wandering around in the open country. “What are you looking for?” the man asked.

Genesis 37:16 Joseph replied, “I’m looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they’re taking care of their flocks.”

Genesis 37:17 The man said, “They moved on from here. I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dothan.’ “ So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

Genesis 37:18 They saw him from a distance. Before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.

Genesis 37:19 They said to each other, “Look, here comes that master dreamer!

Genesis 37:20 Let’s kill him, throw him into one of the cisterns, and say that a wild animal has eaten him. Then we’ll see what happens to his dreams.”

Genesis 37:21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to save Joseph from their plot. “Let’s not kill him,” he said.

Genesis 37:22 “Let’s not have any bloodshed. Put him into that cistern that’s out in the desert, but don’t hurt him.” Reuben wanted to rescue Joseph from them and bring him back to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So when Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his special robe with long sleeves.

Genesis 37:24 Then they took him and put him into an empty cistern. It had no water in it.

Genesis 37:25 As they sat down to eat, they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were carrying the materials for cosmetics, medicine, and embalming. They were on their way to take them to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Judah asked his brothers, “What will we gain by killing our brother and covering up his death?

Genesis 37:27 Let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites. Let’s not hurt him, because he is our brother, our own flesh and blood.” His brothers agreed.

Genesis 37:28 As the Midianite merchants were passing by, the brothers pulled Joseph out of the cistern. They sold him to the Ishmaelites for eight ounces of silver. The Ishmaelites took him to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 When Reuben came back to the cistern and saw that Joseph was no longer there, he tore his clothes in grief.

Genesis 37:30 He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy isn’t there! What am I going to do?”

Genesis 37:31 So they took Joseph's robe, killed a goat, and dipped the robe in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 Then they brought the special robe with long sleeves to their father and said, "We found this. You better examine it to see whether it's your son's robe or not."

Genesis 37:33 He recognized it and said, "It is my son's robe! A wild animal has eaten him! Joseph must have been torn to pieces!"

Genesis 37:34 Then, to show his grief, Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth around his waist, and mourned for his son a long time.

Genesis 37:35 All his other sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, "No, I will mourn for my son until I die." This is how Joseph's father cried over him.

Genesis 37:36 Meanwhile, in Egypt the Midianites sold Joseph to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh's officials and captain of the guard.

Genesis 38:1 About that time Judah left his brothers and went to stay with a man from Adullam whose name was Hirah.

Genesis 38:2 There Judah met the daughter of a Canaanite man whose name was Shua. He married her and slept with her.

Genesis 38:3 She became pregnant and gave birth to a son named Er.

Genesis 38:4 She became pregnant again and gave birth to another son, whom she named Onan.

Genesis 38:5 Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to another son, whom she named Shelah. He was born at Kezib.

Genesis 38:6 Judah chose a wife for his firstborn son Er. Her name was Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 Er angered the LORD. So the LORD took away his life.

Genesis 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Go sleep with your brother's widow. Do your duty for her as a brother-in-law, and produce a descendant for your brother."

Genesis 38:9 But Onan knew that the descendant wouldn't belong to him, so whenever he slept with his brother's widow, he wasted his semen on the ground to avoid giving his brother a descendant.

Genesis 38:10 What Onan did angered the LORD so much that the LORD took away Onan's life too.

Genesis 38:11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Return to your father's home. Live as a widow until my son Shelah grows up." He thought that this son, too, might die like his brothers. So Tamar went to live in her father's home.

Genesis 38:12 After a long time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had finished mourning, he and his friend Hirah from Adullam went to Timnah where the men were shearing Judah's sheep.

Genesis 38:13 As soon as Tamar was told that her father-in-law was on his way to Timnah to shear his sheep,

Genesis 38:14 she took off her widow's clothes, covered her face with a veil, and disguised herself. Then she sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. (She did this because she realized that Shelah was grown up now, and she hadn't been given to him in marriage.)

Genesis 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 Since he didn't know she was his daughter-in-law, he approached her by the roadside and said, "Come on, let's sleep together!" She asked, "What will you pay to sleep with me?"

Genesis 38:17 "I'll send you a young goat from the flock," he answered. She said, "First give me something as a deposit until you send it."

Genesis 38:18 "What should I give you as a deposit?" he asked. "Your signet ring, its cord, and the shepherd's staff that's in your hand," she answered. So he gave them to her. Then he slept with her, and she became pregnant.

Genesis 38:19 After she got up and left, she took off her veil and put her widow's clothes back on.

Genesis 38:20 Judah sent his friend Hirah to deliver the young goat so that he could get back his deposit from the woman, but his friend couldn't find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the men of that area, "Where's that prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?" "There's no prostitute here," they answered.

Genesis 38:22 So he went back to Judah and said, "I couldn't find her. Even the men of that area said, 'There's no prostitute here.'"

Genesis 38:23 Then Judah said, "Let her keep what I gave her, or we'll become a laughingstock. After all, I did send her this young goat, but you couldn't find her."

Genesis 38:24 About three months later Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has been acting like a prostitute. What's more, because of it she's pregnant." Judah ordered, "Bring her out to be burned."

Genesis 38:25 As she was brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law, "I'm pregnant by the man who owns these things. See if you recognize whose signet ring, cord, and shepherd's staff these are."

Genesis 38:26 Judah recognized them and said, "She's not guilty. I am! She did this because I haven't given her my son Shelah." Judah never made love to her again.

Genesis 38:27 The time came for Tamar to give birth, and she had twin boys.

Genesis 38:28 When she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand. The midwife took a piece of red yarn, tied it on his wrist, and said, “This one came out first.”

Genesis 38:29 As he pulled back his hand, his brother was born. So she said, “Is this how you burst into the world!” He was named Perez [Bursting Into].

Genesis 38:30 After that his brother was born with the red yarn on his hand. He was named Zerah [Sunrise].

Genesis 39:1 Joseph had been taken to Egypt. Potiphar, one of Pharaoh’s Egyptian officials and captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

Genesis 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph, so he became a successful man. He worked in the house of his Egyptian master.

Genesis 39:3 Joseph’s master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made everything he did successful.

Genesis 39:4 Potiphar liked Joseph so much that he made him his trusted servant. He put him in charge of his household and everything he owned.

Genesis 39:5 From that time on the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s household because of Joseph. Therefore, the LORD’s blessing was on everything Potiphar owned in his house and in his fields.

Genesis 39:6 So he left all that he owned in Joseph’s care. He wasn’t concerned about anything except the food he ate. Joseph was well-built and handsome.

Genesis 39:7 After a while his master’s wife began to desire Joseph, so she said, “Come to bed with me.”

Genesis 39:8 But Joseph refused and said to her, “My master doesn’t concern himself with anything in the house. He trusts me with everything he owns.

Genesis 39:9 No one in this house is greater than I. He’s kept nothing back from me except you, because you’re his wife. How could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?”

Genesis 39:10 Although she kept asking Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or be with her.

Genesis 39:11 One day he went into the house to do his work, and none of the household servants were there.

Genesis 39:12 She grabbed him by his clothes and said, “Come to bed with me!” But he ran outside and left his clothes in her hand.

Genesis 39:13 When she realized that he had gone but had left his clothes behind, Genesis 39:14 she called her household servants and said to them, “Look! My husband brought this Hebrew here to fool around with us. He came in and tried to go to bed with me, but I screamed as loud as I could.

Genesis 39:15 As soon as he heard me scream, he ran outside and left his clothes with me.”

Genesis 39:16 She kept Joseph’s clothes with her until his master came home.

Genesis 39:17 Then she told him the same story: “The Hebrew slave you brought here came in and tried to fool around with me.

Genesis 39:18 But when I screamed, he ran outside and left his clothes with me.”

Genesis 39:19 When Potiphar heard his wife’s story, especially when she said, “This is what your slave did to me,” he became very angry.

Genesis 39:20 So Joseph’s master arrested him and put him in the same prison where the king’s prisoners were kept. While Joseph was in prison, Genesis 39:21 the LORD was with him. The LORD reached out to him with his unchanging love and gave him protection. The LORD also put Joseph on good terms with the warden.

Genesis 39:22 So the warden placed Joseph in charge of all the prisoners who were in that prison. Joseph became responsible for everything that they were doing.

Genesis 39:23 The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph’s care because the LORD was with Joseph and made whatever he did successful.

Genesis 40:1 Later the king’s cupbearer and his baker offended their master, the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 Pharaoh was angry with his chief cupbearer and his chief baker.

Genesis 40:3 He put them in the prison of the captain of the guard, the same place where Joseph was a prisoner.

Genesis 40:4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he took care of them. After they had been confined for some time,

Genesis 40:5 both prisoners-the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt-had dreams one night. Each man had a dream with its own special meaning.

Genesis 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were upset.

Genesis 40:7 So he asked these officials of Pharaoh who were with him in his master’s prison, “Why do you look so unhappy today?”

Genesis 40:8 “We both had dreams,” they answered him, “but there’s no one to tell us what they mean.” “Isn’t God the only one who can tell what they mean?” Joseph asked them. “Why don’t you tell me all about them.”

Genesis 40:9 So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said “In my dream a grapevine with three branches appeared in front of me.

Genesis 40:10 Soon after it sprouted it blossomed. Then its clusters ripened into grapes.

Genesis 40:11 Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand, so I took the grapes and squeezed them into it. I put the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.”

Genesis 40:12 “This is what it means,” Joseph said to him. “The three branches are three days.

Genesis 40:13 In the next three days Pharaoh will release you and restore you to your position. You will put Pharaoh’s cup in his hand as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 Remember me when things go well for you, and please do me a favor. Mention me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this prison.

Genesis 40:15 I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I’ve done nothing to deserve being put in this prison.”

Genesis 40:16 The chief baker saw that the meaning Joseph had given to the cupbearer’s dream was good. So he said to Joseph, “I had a dream too. In my dream three baskets of white baked goods were on my head.

Genesis 40:17 The top basket contained all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

Genesis 40:18 “This is what it means,” Joseph replied. “The three baskets are three days.

Genesis 40:19 In the next three days Pharaoh will cut off your head and hang your dead body on a pole. The birds will eat the flesh from your bones.”

Genesis 40:20 Two days later, on his birthday, Pharaoh had a special dinner prepared for all his servants. Of all his servants he gave special attention to the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

Genesis 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his position. So the cupbearer put the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.

Genesis 40:22 But he hung the chief baker just as Joseph had said in his interpretation.

Genesis 40:23 Nevertheless, the chief cupbearer didn’t remember Joseph. He forgot all about him.

Genesis 41:1 After two full years Pharaoh had a dream. He dreamed he was standing by the Nile River.

Genesis 41:2 Suddenly, seven nice-looking, well-fed cows came up from the river and began to graze among the reeds.

Genesis 41:3 Seven other cows came up from the river behind them. These cows were sickly and skinny. They stood behind the first seven cows on the riverbank.

Genesis 41:4 The cows that were sickly and skinny ate the seven nice-looking, well-fed cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

Genesis 41:5 He fell asleep again and had a second dream. Seven good, healthy heads of grain were growing on a single stalk.

Genesis 41:6 Seven other heads of grain, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted behind them.

Genesis 41:7 The thin heads of grain swallowed the seven full, healthy heads. Then Pharaoh woke up. It was only a dream.

Genesis 41:8 In the morning he was so upset that he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could tell him what they meant.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, “I remember a promise I failed to keep.

Genesis 41:10 Some time ago when Pharaoh was angry with his servants, he confined me and the chief baker to the captain of the guard’s prison.

Genesis 41:11 We both had dreams the same night. Each dream had its own meaning.

Genesis 41:12 A young Hebrew, a slave of the captain of the guard, was with us. We told him our dreams, and he told each of us what they meant.

Genesis 41:13 What he told us happened: Pharaoh restored me to my position, but he hung the baker on a pole.”

Genesis 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and immediately he was brought from the prison. After he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came in front of Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream, and no one can tell me what it means. I heard that when you are told a dream, you can say what it means.”

Genesis 41:16 Joseph answered Pharaoh, “I can’t, but God can give Pharaoh the answer that he needs.”

Genesis 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile.

Genesis 41:18 Suddenly, seven nice-looking, well-fed cows came up from the river and began to graze among the reeds.

Genesis 41:19 Seven other cows came up behind them. These cows were scrawny, very sick, and thin. I've never seen such sickly cows in all of Egypt!

Genesis 41:20 The thin, sickly cows ate up the seven well-fed ones.

Genesis 41:21 Even though they had eaten them, no one could tell they had eaten them. They looked just as sick as before. Then I woke up.

Genesis 41:22 "In my second dream I saw seven good, full heads of grain growing on a single stalk.

Genesis 41:23 Seven other heads of grain, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouted behind them.

Genesis 41:24 The thin heads of grain swallowed the seven good heads. I told this to the magicians, but no one could tell me what it meant."

Genesis 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh had the same dream twice. God has told Pharaoh what he's going to do.

Genesis 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years. It's all the same dream.

Genesis 41:27 The seven thin, sickly cows that came up behind them are seven years. The seven empty heads of grain scorched by the east wind are also seven years. Seven years of famine are coming.

Genesis 41:28 "It's just as I said to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what he's going to do.

Genesis 41:29 Seven years are coming when there will be plenty of food in Egypt.

Genesis 41:30 After them will come seven years of famine. People will forget that there was plenty of food in Egypt, and the famine will ruin the land.

Genesis 41:31 People won't remember that there once was plenty of food in the land, because the coming famine will be so severe.

Genesis 41:32 The reason Pharaoh has had a recurring dream is because the matter has been definitely decided by God, and he will do it very soon.

Genesis 41:33 "Pharaoh should look for a wise and intelligent man and put him in charge of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 Make arrangements to appoint supervisors over the land to take a fifth of Egypt's harvest during the seven good years.

Genesis 41:35 Have them collect all the food during these good years and store up grain under Pharaoh's control, to be kept for food in the cities.

Genesis 41:36 This food will be a reserve supply for our country during the seven years of famine that will happen in Egypt. Then the land will not be ruined by the famine."

Genesis 41:37 Pharaoh and all his servants liked the idea.

Genesis 41:38 So Pharaoh asked his servants, “Can we find anyone like this-a man who has God’s Spirit in him?”

Genesis 41:39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Because God has let you know all this, there is no one as wise and intelligent as you.

Genesis 41:40 You will be in charge of my palace, and all my people will do what you say. I will be more important than you, only because I’m Pharaoh.”

Genesis 41:41 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I now put you in charge of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:42 Then Pharaoh took off his signet ring and put it on Joseph’s finger. He had Joseph dressed in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

Genesis 41:43 He had him ride in the chariot of the second-in-command. Men ran ahead of him and shouted, “Make way!” Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 He also said to Joseph, “Even though I am Pharaoh, no one anywhere in Egypt will do anything without your permission.”

Genesis 41:45 Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenathpaneah and gave him Asenath as his wife. She was the daughter of Potiphera, priest from the city of On. Joseph traveled around Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Joseph was 30 years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh (the king of Egypt). He left Pharaoh and traveled all around Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 During the seven good years the land produced large harvests.

Genesis 41:48 Joseph collected all the food grown in Egypt during those seven years and put this food in the cities. In each city he put the food from the fields around it.

Genesis 41:49 Joseph stored up grain in huge quantities like the sand on the seashore. He had so much that he finally gave up keeping any records because he couldn’t measure it all.

Genesis 41:50 Before the years of famine came, Joseph had two sons by Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest from the city of On.

Genesis 41:51 Joseph named his firstborn son Manasseh [He Helps Me Forget], because God helped him forget all his troubles and all about his father’s family.

Genesis 41:52 He named the second son Ephraim [Blessed Twice With Children], because God gave him children in the land where he had suffered.

Genesis 41:53 The seven years when there was plenty of food in Egypt came to an end.

Genesis 41:54 Then the seven years of famine began as Joseph had said they would. All the other countries were experiencing famine. Yet, there was food in Egypt.

Genesis 41:55 When everyone in Egypt began to feel the effects of the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. But Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph! Do what he tells you!”

Genesis 41:56 When the famine had spread all over the country, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians. He did this because the famine was severe in Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 The whole world came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, since the famine was so severe all over the world.

Genesis 42:1 When Jacob found out that grain was for sale in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why do you keep looking at each other?

Genesis 42:2 I’ve heard there’s grain for sale in Egypt. Go there and buy some for us so that we won’t starve to death.”

Genesis 42:3 Ten of Joseph’s brothers went to buy grain in Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 Jacob wouldn’t send Joseph’s brother Benjamin with the other brothers, because he was afraid that something would happen to him.

Genesis 42:5 Israel’s sons left with the others who were going to buy grain, because there was also famine in Canaan.

Genesis 42:6 As governor of the country, Joseph was selling grain to everyone. So when Joseph’s brothers arrived, they bowed in front of him with their faces touching the ground.

Genesis 42:7 As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them. But he acted as if he didn’t know them and spoke harshly to them. “Where did you come from?” he asked them. “From Canaan, to buy food,” they answered.

Genesis 42:8 Even though Joseph recognized his brothers, they didn’t recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 Then he remembered the dreams he once had about them. “You’re spies!” he said to them, “And you’ve come to find out where our country is unprotected.”

Genesis 42:10 “No, sir!” they answered him. “We’ve come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 We’re all sons of one man. We’re honest men, not spies.”

Genesis 42:12 He said to them, “No! You’ve come to find out where our country is unprotected.”

Genesis 42:13 They answered him, “We were 12 brothers, sons of one man in Canaan. The youngest brother stayed with our father, and the other one is no longer with us.”

Genesis 42:14 “It’s just as I told you,” Joseph said to them. “You’re spies!

Genesis 42:15 This is how you’ll be tested: I solemnly swear, as surely as Pharaoh lives, that you won’t leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

Genesis 42:16 One of you must be sent to get your brother while the rest of you stay in prison. We’ll see if you’re telling the truth. If not, I solemnly swear, as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!”

Genesis 42:17 Then he put them in jail for three days.

Genesis 42:18 On the third day Joseph said to them, “Do this, and you will live. I, too, fear God.

Genesis 42:19 If you are honest men, you will let one of your brothers stay here in prison. The rest of you will go and take grain back to your starving families.

Genesis 42:20 But you must bring me your youngest brother. This will show that you’ve been telling the truth. Then you won’t die.” So they agreed.

Genesis 42:21 They said to each other, “We’re surely being punished for what we did to our brother. We saw how troubled he was when he pleaded with us for mercy, but we wouldn’t listen. That’s why we’re in trouble now.”

Genesis 42:22 Reuben said to them, “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn’t listen. Now we must pay for this bloodshed.”

Genesis 42:23 They didn’t know that Joseph could understand them, because he was speaking through an interpreter.

Genesis 42:24 He stepped away from them to cry. When he could speak to them again, he came back. Then he picked Simeon and had him arrested right in front of their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain. He put each man’s money back into his sack and gave them supplies for their trip. After their bags were filled, Genesis 42:26 they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left.

Genesis 42:27 At the place where they stopped for the night, one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey. His money was right inside his sack.

Genesis 42:28 He said to his brothers, “My money has been put back! It’s right here in my sack!” They wanted to die. They trembled and turned to each other and asked, “What has God done to us?”

Genesis 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them. They said, Genesis 42:30 “The governor of that land spoke harshly to us and treated us like spies.

Genesis 42:31 But we said to him, ‘We’re honest men, not spies.

Genesis 42:32 We were 12 brothers, sons of the same father. One is no longer with us. The youngest brother stayed with our father in Canaan.’

Genesis 42:33 “Then the governor of that land said to us, ‘This is how I’ll know that you’re honest men: Leave one of your brothers with me. Take food for your starving families and go.

Genesis 42:34 But bring me your youngest brother. Then I’ll know that you’re not spies but honest men. I’ll give your brother back to you, and you’ll be able to move about freely in this country.’”

Genesis 42:35 As they were emptying their sacks, each man found his bag of money in his sack. When they and their father saw the bags of money, they were frightened.

Genesis 42:36 Their father Jacob said to them, “You’re going to make me lose all my children! Joseph is no longer with us, Simeon is no longer with us, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything’s against me!”

Genesis 42:37 So Reuben said to his father, “You may put my two sons to death if I don’t bring him back to you. Let me take care of him, and I’ll bring him back to you.”

Genesis 42:38 Jacob replied, “My son will not go with you. His brother is dead, and he’s the only one left. If any harm comes to him on the trip you’re taking, the grief would drive this gray-haired old man to his grave!”

Genesis 43:1 The famine was severe in the land.

Genesis 43:2 When they finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt, Israel said to his sons, “Go back and buy us a little more food.”

Genesis 43:3 Judah said to him, “The man gave us a severe warning: ‘You won’t be allowed to see me again unless your brother is with you.’

Genesis 43:4 If you let our brother go with us, we’ll go and buy food for you.

Genesis 43:5 If you won’t let him go, we won’t go. The man said to us, ‘You won’t be allowed to see me again unless your brother is with you.’”

Genesis 43:6 Israel asked, “Why have you made trouble for me by telling the man you had another brother?”

Genesis 43:7 They answered, “The man kept asking about us and our family: ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’ We simply answered his questions. How could we possibly know he would say, ‘Bring your brother here’?”

Genesis 43:8 Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy along with me. Let’s get going so that we won’t starve to death.

Genesis 43:9 I guarantee that he will come back. You can hold me responsible for him. If I don’t bring him back to you and place him here in front of you, you can blame me the rest of my life.

Genesis 43:10 If we hadn’t waited so long, we could have made this trip twice by now.”

Genesis 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If that’s the way it has to be, then take the man a gift. Put some of the best products of the land in your bags. Take a little balm, a little honey, gum, myrrh, pistachio nuts, and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 Take twice as much money with you. You must return the money that was put back in your sacks. Maybe it was a mistake.

Genesis 43:13 Take your brother, and go back to the man.

Genesis 43:14 May God Almighty make him merciful to you so that he will send your other brother and Benjamin [home] with you. If I lose my children, I lose my children.”

Genesis 43:15 The men took the gifts, twice as much money, and Benjamin. They went to Egypt, where they presented themselves to Joseph.

Genesis 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the man in charge of his house, “Take these men to my house. Butcher an animal, and prepare a meal, because they are going to eat with me at noon.”

Genesis 43:17 So the man did as Joseph said and took them to Joseph’s house.

Genesis 43:18 The men were frightened, because they had been brought to Joseph’s house. They thought, “We’ve been brought here because of the money that was put back into our sacks the first time. They’re going to attack us, overpower us, take our donkeys, and make us slaves.”

Genesis 43:19 So they came to the man in charge of Joseph’s house and spoke to him at the door.

Genesis 43:20 “Please, sir,” they said, “we came here to buy food once before.

Genesis 43:21 When we stopped for the night, we opened our sacks, and each man found all of his money inside. So we brought it back with us.

Genesis 43:22 We also brought more money to buy food. We have no idea who put our money back in our sacks.”

Genesis 43:23 “It’s alright,” he said. “Don’t be afraid! Your God, the God of your father, must have given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Genesis 43:24 The man took the brothers into Joseph’s house. He gave them water to wash their feet and feed for their donkeys.

Genesis 43:25 They got their gifts ready for Joseph’s return at noon, because they had heard they were going to eat there.

Genesis 43:26 When Joseph came home, they gave him the gifts they had brought to the house. Then they bowed to him with their faces touching the ground.

Genesis 43:27 He asked them how they were. Then he said, “You told me about your elderly father. How is he? Is he still alive?”

Genesis 43:28 They answered, “Yes, sir. Our father is alive and well.” Then they knelt, bowing down.

Genesis 43:29 As Joseph looked around, he saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son. “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?” he asked. “God be gracious to you, my son,” he said.

Genesis 43:30 Deeply moved at the sight of his brother, he hurried away, looking for a place to cry. He went into his private room and cried there.

Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out. He was in control of his emotions when he said, “Serve the food.”

Genesis 43:32 He was served separately from his brothers. The Egyptians who were there with him were also served separately, because they found it offensive to eat with Hebrews.

Genesis 43:33 The brothers were seated facing him according to their ages-from the oldest to the youngest. They looked at each other in amazement.

Genesis 43:34 Joseph had portions of food brought to them from his table, but Benjamin’s portion was five times more than any of the others. So they ate and drank with Joseph until they were drunk.

Genesis 44:1 Joseph commanded the man in charge of his house, “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they can carry. Put each man’s money in his sack.

Genesis 44:2 Then put my silver cup in the youngest brother’s sack along with the money for his grain.” He did what Joseph told him.

Genesis 44:3 At dawn the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.

Genesis 44:4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to the man in charge of his house, “Go after those men at once, and when you catch up with them, say to them, ‘Why have you paid me back with evil when I was good to you?

Genesis 44:5 Isn’t this the cup that my master drinks from and that he uses for telling the future? What you have done is evil!’”

Genesis 44:6 When he caught up with them, he repeated these words to them.

Genesis 44:7 They answered him, “Sir, how can you say such things? We would never think of doing anything like that!

Genesis 44:8 We brought the money we found in our sacks back from Canaan. So why would we steal any silver or gold from your master’s house?

Genesis 44:9 If one of us has it, he will die, and the rest of us will become your slaves.”

Genesis 44:10 “I agree,” he said. “We’ll do what you’ve said. The man who has the cup will be my slave, and the rest of you can go free.”

Genesis 44:11 Each one quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

Genesis 44:12 Then the man made a thorough search. He began with the oldest and ended with the youngest. The cup was found in Benjamin’s sack.

Genesis 44:13 When they saw this, they tore their clothes in grief. Then each one loaded his donkey and went back into the city.

Genesis 44:14 Judah and his brothers arrived at Joseph’s house while Joseph was still there. Immediately, they bowed with their faces touching the ground.

Genesis 44:15 Joseph asked them, “What have you done? Don’t you know that a man like me can find things out because he knows the future?”

Genesis 44:16 “Sir, what can we say to you?” Judah asked. “How else can we explain it? How can we prove we’re innocent? God has uncovered our guilt. Now all of us are your slaves, including the one who had the cup.”

Genesis 44:17 But Joseph said, “I would never think of doing that! Only the man who had the cup will be my slave. The rest of you can go back to your father in peace.”

Genesis 44:18 Then Judah went up to Joseph and said, “Please, sir, let me speak openly with you. Don’t be angry with me, although you are equal to Pharaoh.

Genesis 44:19 Sir, you asked us, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’

Genesis 44:20 We answered, ‘We have a father who is old and a younger brother born to him when he was already old. The boy’s brother is dead, so he’s the only one of his mother’s sons left, and his father loves him.’

Genesis 44:21 “Then you said to us, ‘Bring him here to me so that I can see him myself.’

Genesis 44:22 We replied, ‘The boy can’t leave his father. If the boy leaves him, his father will die.’

Genesis 44:23 Then you told us, ‘If your youngest brother doesn’t come here with you, you will never be allowed to see me again.’

Genesis 44:24 When we went back to our father, we told him what you had said.

Genesis 44:25 “Then our father said, ‘Go back and buy us a little more food.’

Genesis 44:26 We answered, ‘We can’t go back. We can only go back if our youngest brother is with us. The man won’t see us unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Genesis 44:27 “Then our father said to us, ‘You know that my wife [Rachel] gave me two sons.

Genesis 44:28 One is gone, and I said, “He must have been torn to pieces!” I haven’t seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 If you take this one away from me too and anything happens to him, you’ll drive this gray-haired old man to his grave.’

Genesis 44:30 “Our father’s life is wrapped up with the boy’s life. If I come [home] without the boy

Genesis 44:31 and he sees that the boy isn’t [with me], he’ll die. The grief would drive our gray-haired old father to his grave.

Genesis 44:32 “I guaranteed my father that the boy would come back. I said, ‘If I don’t bring him back to you, then you can blame me the rest of my life, Father.’

Genesis 44:33 Sir, please let me stay and be your slave in the boy’s place, and let the boy go back with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 How could I go back to my father if the boy isn’t with me? I couldn’t bear to see my father’s misery!”

Genesis 45:1 Joseph could no longer control his emotions in front of everyone who was standing around him, so he cried out, “Have everyone leave me!” No one else was there when Joseph told his brothers who he was.

Genesis 45:2 He cried so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh’s household heard about it.

Genesis 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” His brothers could not answer him because they were afraid of him.

Genesis 45:4 “Please come closer to me,” Joseph said to his brothers. When they did so, he said, “I am Joseph, the brother you sold into slavery in Egypt!

Genesis 45:5 Now, don’t be sad or angry with yourselves that you sold me. God sent me ahead of you to save lives.

Genesis 45:6 The famine has been in the land for two years. There will be five more years without plowing or harvesting.

Genesis 45:7 God sent me ahead of you to make sure that you would have descendants on the earth and to save your lives in an amazing way.

Genesis 45:8 It wasn’t you who sent me here, but God. He has made me [like] a father to Pharaoh, lord over his entire household, and ruler of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 “Hurry back to my father, and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says, “God has made me lord of Egypt. Come here to me right away!

Genesis 45:10 Live in the land of Goshen, where you will be near me. Live there with your children and your grandchildren, as well as your flocks, your herds, and everything you have.

Genesis 45:11 I will provide for you in Egypt, since there will be five more years of famine. Then you, your family, and all who belong to you won’t lose everything.”’ Genesis 45:12 “You and my brother Benjamin can see for yourselves that I am the one who is speaking to you.

Genesis 45:13 Tell my father how greatly honored I am in Egypt and about everything you have seen. Hurry and bring my father here!”

Genesis 45:14 He threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and cried with Benjamin, who was crying on his shoulder.

Genesis 45:15 He kissed all his brothers and cried with them. After that his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 When Pharaoh’s household heard the news that Joseph’s brothers had come, Pharaoh and his officials were pleased.

Genesis 45:17 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Load up your animals, and go back to Canaan.

Genesis 45:18 Take your father and your families, and come to me. I will give you the best land in Egypt. Then you can enjoy the best food in the land.’

Genesis 45:19 “Give them this order: ‘Take wagons with you from Egypt for your children and your wives. Bring your father, and come back.

Genesis 45:20 Don’t worry about your belongings because the best of everything in Egypt is yours.’”

Genesis 45:21 Israel’s sons did as they were told. Joseph gave them wagons and supplies for their trip as Pharaoh had ordered.

Genesis 45:22 He gave each of them a change of clothes, but he gave Benjamin three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothes.

Genesis 45:23 He sent his father ten male donkeys carrying Egypt's best products and ten female donkeys carrying grain, bread, and food for his father's trip.

Genesis 45:24 So Joseph sent his brothers on their way. As they were leaving, he said to them, "Don't quarrel on your way back!"

Genesis 45:25 So they left Egypt and came to their father Jacob in Canaan.

Genesis 45:26 They told him, "Joseph is still alive! Yes, he is ruler of Egypt." Jacob was stunned and didn't believe them.

Genesis 45:27 Yet, when they told their father everything Joseph had said to them and he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to bring him back, his spirits were lifted.

Genesis 45:28 "You have convinced me!" Israel said. "My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Genesis 46:1 Israel moved with all he had. When he came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Genesis 46:2 God spoke to Israel in a vision that night and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" "Here I am," he answered.

Genesis 46:3 "I am God, the God of your father," he said. "Don't be afraid to go to Egypt, because I will make you a great nation there.

Genesis 46:4 I will go with you to Egypt, and I will make sure you come back again. Joseph will close your eyes [when you die]."

Genesis 46:5 So Jacob left Beersheba. Israel's sons put their father Jacob, their children, and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to bring him back.

Genesis 46:6 They also took their livestock and the possessions they had accumulated in Canaan. Jacob and all his family arrived in Egypt.

Genesis 46:7 He had brought his sons, his grandsons, his daughters, and his granddaughters-his entire family.

Genesis 46:8 These are the names of Israel's descendants (Jacob and his descendants) who arrived in Egypt. Reuben was Jacob's firstborn.

Genesis 46:9 The sons of [Reuben]were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 The sons of [Simeon]were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 46:11 The sons of [Levi]were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Genesis 46:12 The sons of [Judah]were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah. (Er and Onan had died in Canaan.) The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 The sons of [Issachar]were Tola, Puvah, Iob, and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 The sons of [Zebulun]were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

Genesis 46:15 These were the descendants of the sons Leah gave to Jacob in Paddan Aram, in addition to his daughter Dinah. The total number of these sons and daughters was 33.

Genesis 46:16 The sons of [Gad]were Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

Genesis 46:17 The sons of [Asher]were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. Their sister was Serah. The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.

Genesis 46:18 These were the descendants of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah. She gave birth to these children for Jacob. The total was 16.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 46:20 In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to [Joseph]by Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest from the city of On.

Genesis 46:21 The sons of [Benjamin]were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These were the descendants of Rachel who were born to Jacob. The total was 14.

Genesis 46:23 The son of [Dan]was Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 The sons of [Naphtali]were Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These were the descendants of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel. She gave birth to these sons for Jacob. The total was 7.

Genesis 46:26 The total number of Jacob's direct descendants who went with him to Egypt was 66. This didn't include the wives of Jacob's sons.

Genesis 46:27 Joseph had two sons who were born in Egypt. The grand total of people in Jacob's household who went to Egypt was 70.

Genesis 46:28 Israel sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. When Israel's family arrived in the region of Goshen, Genesis 46:29 Joseph prepared his chariot and went to meet his father Israel. As soon as he saw his father, he threw his arms around him and cried on his shoulder a long time.

Genesis 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now that I've seen for myself that you're still alive, I'm ready to die."

Genesis 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and his father's family, "I'm going to Pharaoh to tell him, 'My brothers and my father's family, who were in Canaan, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 The men are shepherds. They take care of livestock. They've brought their flocks and herds and everything they own.'

Genesis 46:33 Now, when Pharaoh calls for you and asks, 'What kind of work do you do?'

Genesis 46:34 you must answer, 'We have taken care of herds all our lives, as our ancestors have done.' [You must say this] so that you may live in the region of Goshen, because all shepherds are disgusting to Egyptians."

Genesis 47:1 Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers have arrived from Canaan with their flocks, herds, and everything they have. Now they are in Goshen."

Genesis 47:2 Since he had taken five of his brothers with him, he presented them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Pharaoh asked the brothers, "What kind of work do you do?" They answered Pharaoh, "We are shepherds, as were our ancestors.

Genesis 47:4 We have come to live in this land for a while. The famine is so severe in Canaan that there's no pasture for our flocks. So please let us live in Goshen."

Genesis 47:5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

Genesis 47:6 All of Egypt is available to you. Have your father and your brothers live in the best part of the land. Let them live in Goshen. If they are qualified, put them in charge of my livestock."

Genesis 47:7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and had him stand in front of Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh asked him, "How old are you?"

Genesis 47:9 Jacob answered Pharaoh, "The length of my stay on earth has been 130 years. The years of my life have been few and difficult, fewer than my ancestors' years."

Genesis 47:10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and left.

Genesis 47:11 As Pharaoh had ordered, Joseph had his father and his brothers live in the best part of Egypt, the region of Rameses. He gave them property there.

Genesis 47:12 Joseph also provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's family with food based on the number of children they had.

Genesis 47:13 The famine was so severe that there was no food anywhere. Neither Egypt nor Canaan were producing crops because of the famine.

Genesis 47:14 Joseph collected all the money that could be found in Egypt and in Canaan as payment for the grain people bought. Then he took it to Pharaoh's palace.

Genesis 47:15 When the money in Egypt and Canaan was gone, all the Egyptians came to Joseph. “Give us food,” they said. “Do you want us to die right in front of you? We don’t have any more money!”

Genesis 47:16 Joseph replied, “If you don’t have any more money, give me your livestock, and I’ll give you food in exchange.”

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, sheep, goats, cattle, and donkeys. During that year he supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Genesis 47:18 When that year was over, they came to him the next year. “Sir,” they said to him, “you know that our money is gone, and you have all our livestock. There’s nothing left to bring you except our bodies and our land.

Genesis 47:19 Do you want us to die right in front of you? Do you want the land to be ruined? Take us and our land in exchange for food. Then we will be Pharaoh’s slaves and our land will be his property. But give us seed so that we won’t starve to death and the ground won’t become a desert.”

Genesis 47:20 Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. Every Egyptian sold his fields because the famine was so severe. The land became Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:21 All over Egypt Joseph moved the people to the cities.

Genesis 47:22 But he didn’t buy the priests’ land because the priests received an income from Pharaoh, and they lived on that income. That’s why they didn’t sell their land.

Genesis 47:23 Joseph said to the people, “Now that I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh, here is seed for you. Plant crops in the land.

Genesis 47:24 Every time you harvest, give one-fifth of the produce to Pharaoh. Four-fifths will be yours to use as seed for your fields and as food for your households.”

Genesis 47:25 “You have saved our lives,” they said. “Please, sir, we are willing to be Pharaoh’s slaves.”

Genesis 47:26 Joseph made a law concerning the land in Egypt which is still in force today: One-fifth [of the produce] belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests didn’t belong to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:27 So the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and had many children.

Genesis 47:28 Jacob lived in Egypt 17 years, so he lived a total of 147 years.

Genesis 47:29 Israel was about to die. He called for his son Joseph and said to him, “I want you to swear that you love me and are faithful to me. Please don’t bury me here.

Genesis 47:30 I want to rest with my ancestors. Take me out of Egypt, and bury me in their tomb." "I will do as you say," Joseph answered.

Genesis 47:31 "Swear to me," he said. So Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed down in prayer with his face at the head of his bed.

Genesis 48:1 Later Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim [to see Jacob].

Genesis 48:2 When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph is here to see you," Israel gathered his strength and sat up in bed.

Genesis 48:3 Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in Canaan and blessed me.

Genesis 48:4 He said to me, 'I will make you fertile and increase the number of your descendants so that you will become a community of people. I will give this land to your descendants as a permanent possession.'

Genesis 48:5 "So your two sons, who were born in Egypt before I came here, are my sons. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine just as Reuben and Simeon are.

Genesis 48:6 Any other children you have after them will be yours. They will inherit the land listed under their brothers' names.

Genesis 48:7 As I was coming back from Paddan, Rachel died in Canaan when we were still some distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there on the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he asked, "Who are they?"

Genesis 48:9 "They are my sons, whom God has given me here in Egypt," Joseph answered his father. Then Israel said, "Please bring them to me so that I may bless them."

Genesis 48:10 Israel's eyesight was failing because of old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought his sons close to his father, and Israel hugged them and kissed them.

Genesis 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see you again, and now God has even let me see your sons."

Genesis 48:12 Joseph took them off his father's lap and bowed with his face touching the ground.

Genesis 48:13 Then Joseph took both of them, Ephraim on his right, facing Israel's left, and Manasseh on his left, facing Israel's right, and brought them close to him.

Genesis 48:14 But Israel crossed his hands and reached out. He put his right hand on Ephraim's head, although Ephraim was the younger son. He put his left hand on Manasseh's head, although Manasseh was older.

Genesis 48:15 Then Jacob blessed Joseph, “May God, in whose presence my grandfather Abraham and my father Isaac walked, may God, who has been my shepherd all my life to this very day, Genesis 48:16 may the Messenger, who has rescued me from all evil, bless these boys. May they be called by my name and by the names of my grandfather Abraham and my father Isaac. May they have many children on the earth.”

Genesis 48:17 When Joseph saw that his father had put his right hand on Ephraim’s head, he didn’t like it. So he took his father’s hand in order to move it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s.

Genesis 48:18 Then he said to his father, “That’s not right, Father! This is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head.”

Genesis 48:19 His father refused and said, “I know, Son, I know! Manasseh, too, will become a nation, and he, too, will be important. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be more important than he, and his descendants will become many nations.”

Genesis 48:20 That day he blessed them. He said, “Because of you, Israel will speak this blessing, ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!’ “ In this way Israel put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

Genesis 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, “Now I’m about to die, but God will be with you. He will bring you back to the land of your fathers.

Genesis 48:22 I’m giving you one more mountain ridge than your brothers. I took it from the Amorites with my own sword and bow.”

Genesis 49:1 Jacob called for his sons and said, “Come here, and let me tell you what will happen to you in the days to come.

Genesis 49:2 “Gather around and listen, sons of Jacob. Listen to your father Israel.

Genesis 49:3 “[Reuben], you are my firstborn, my strength, the very first son I had, first in majesty and first in power.

Genesis 49:4 You will no longer be first because you were out of control like a flood and you climbed into your father’s bed. Then you dishonored it. He climbed up on my couch.

Genesis 49:5 “[Simeon] and [Levi] are brothers. Their swords are weapons of violence.

Genesis 49:6 Do not let me attend their secret meetings. Do not let me join their assembly. In their anger they murdered men. At their whim they crippled cattle.

Genesis 49:7 May their anger be cursed because it’s so fierce. May their fury be cursed because it’s so cruel. I will divide them among [the sons of] Jacob and scatter them among [the tribes of] Israel.

Genesis 49:8 “[Judah], your brothers will praise you. Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies. Your father’s sons will bow down to you.

Genesis 49:9 Judah, you are a lion cub. You have come back from the kill, my son. He lies down and rests like a lion. He is like a lioness. Who dares to disturb him?

Genesis 49:10 A scepter will never depart from Judah nor a ruler's staff from between his feet until Shiloh comes and the people obey him.

Genesis 49:11 He will tie his donkey to a grapevine, his colt to the best vine. He will wash his clothes in wine, his garments in the blood of grapes.

Genesis 49:12 His eyes are darker than wine. His teeth are whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 "[Zebulun] will live by the coast. He will have ships by the coast. His border will go as far as Sidon.

Genesis 49:14 "[Issachar] is a strong donkey, lying down between the saddlebags.

Genesis 49:15 When he sees that his resting place is good and that the land is pleasant, he will bend his back to the burden and will become a slave laborer.

Genesis 49:16 "[Dan] will hand down decisions for his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

Genesis 49:17 Dan will be a snake on a road, a viper on a path, that bites a horse's heels so that its rider falls off backwards.

Genesis 49:18 "I wait with hope for you to rescue me, O LORD.

Genesis 49:19 "[Gad] will be attacked by a band of raiders, but he will strike back at their heels.

Genesis 49:20 "[Asher]'s food will be rich. He will provide delicacies fit for a king.

Genesis 49:21 "[Naphtali] is a doe set free that has beautiful fawns.

Genesis 49:22 "[Joseph] is a fruitful tree, a fruitful tree by a spring, with branches climbing over a wall.

Genesis 49:23 Archers provoked him, shot at him, and attacked him.

Genesis 49:24 But his bow stayed steady, and his arms remained limber because of the help of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

Genesis 49:25 because of the God of your father who helps you, because of the Almighty who gives you blessings from the heavens above, blessings from the deep springs below the ground, blessings from breasts and womb.

Genesis 49:26 The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the oldest mountains and the riches of the ancient hills. May these blessings rest on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the prince among his brothers.

Genesis 49:27 “[Benjamin] is a ravenous wolf. In the morning he devours his prey. In the evening he divides the plunder.”

Genesis 49:28 These are the 12 tribes of Israel and what their father said to them when he gave each of them his special blessing.

Genesis 49:29 Then he gave them these instructions, “I am about to join my ancestors in death. Bury me with my ancestors in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite.

Genesis 49:30 Abraham bought the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, east of Mamre in Canaan, from Ephron the Hittite to use as a tomb.

Genesis 49:31 Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried there. Isaac and his wife Rebekah are buried there. I also buried Leah there.

Genesis 49:32 The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites.”

Genesis 49:33 When Jacob finished giving these instructions to his sons, he pulled his feet into his bed. He took his last breath and joined his ancestors in death.

Genesis 50:1 Joseph threw himself on his father, cried over him, and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 Then Joseph ordered the doctors in his service to embalm his father. So the doctors embalmed Israel.

Genesis 50:3 The embalming was completed in the usual time-40 days. The Egyptians mourned for him 70 days.

Genesis 50:4 When the time of mourning for Jacob was over, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh’s palace staff. He said, “Please speak directly to Pharaoh. Tell him, Genesis 50:5 ‘My father made me swear an oath. He said, “I’m about to die. Bury me in the tomb I bought for myself in Canaan.” Please let me go there and bury my father; then I’ll come back.’”

Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh replied, “Go and bury your father, as you have promised him.”

Genesis 50:7 So Joseph left to bury his father. All Pharaoh’s officials, the leaders in his palace staff, and all the leaders of Egypt went with him.

Genesis 50:8 Joseph’s household, his brothers, and his father’s household also went with him. (Only their children, their flocks, and their cattle were left in Goshen.)

Genesis 50:9 Chariots and horsemen went with him. It was a very large group.

Genesis 50:10 When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is on the east side of the Jordan River, they began a great and solemn ceremony to mourn Jacob’s death. Joseph took seven days to mourn his father’s death.

Genesis 50:11 When the Canaanites living there saw the funeral ceremonies at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “These funeral ceremonies are taken very seriously by the Egyptians.” That’s why that place on the east side of the Jordan was named Abel Mizraim [Egyptian Funeral Ceremonies].

Genesis 50:12 Jacob’s sons did for him what he had told them to do.

Genesis 50:13 They carried him back to Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, east of Mamre. Abraham had bought this tomb from Ephron the Hittite.

Genesis 50:14 After Joseph had buried his father, he went back to Egypt along with his brothers and everyone who had gone there with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 Joseph’s brothers realized what their father’s death could mean. So they thought, “What if Joseph holds a grudge against us? What if he decides to pay us back for all the evil we did to him?”

Genesis 50:16 They sent a messenger to Joseph to say, “Before your father died, he commanded us, Genesis 50:17 ‘This is what you should say to Joseph, “I’m begging you to forgive the crime and the sin your brothers committed against you. What they did to you was very evil.’ “ So now, please forgive our crime, because we are servants of your father’s God.” Joseph cried when he got their message.

Genesis 50:18 Then his brothers also came and immediately bowed down in front of him. “We are your slaves!” they said.

Genesis 50:19 Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid! I can’t take God’s place.

Genesis 50:20 Even though you planned evil against me, God planned good to come out of it. This was to keep many people alive, as he is doing now.

Genesis 50:21 Don’t be afraid! I will provide for you and your children.” In this way he reassured them, setting their minds at ease.

Genesis 50:22 Joseph and his father’s family stayed in Egypt. Joseph lived to be 110 years old.

Genesis 50:23 He saw his grandchildren, Ephraim’s children. Even the children of Machir, son of Manasseh, were adopted by Joseph at birth.

Genesis 50:24 At last Joseph said to his brothers, “I’m about to die. God will definitely take care of you and take you out of this land to the land he swore with an oath to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

Genesis 50:25 Joseph made Israel’s sons swear an oath. He said, “God will definitely take care of you. So be sure to carry my bones back with you.”

Genesis 50:26 Joseph died when he was 110 years old. His body was embalmed and placed in a coffin in Egypt. GENESIS

Exodus

1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel (that is, Jacob) who came with him to Egypt with their families:

Exodus 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

Exodus 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

Exodus 1:4 Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 Joseph was already in Egypt. The total number of Jacob's descendants was 70.

Exodus 1:6 Eventually, Joseph, all his brothers, and that entire generation died.

Exodus 1:7 But the descendants of Israel had many children. They became so numerous and strong that the land was filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Then a new king, who knew nothing about Joseph, began to rule in Egypt.

Exodus 1:9 He said to his people, "There are too many Israelites, and they are stronger than we are.

Exodus 1:10 We have to outsmart them, or they'll increase in number. Then, if war breaks out, they will join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the country."

Exodus 1:11 So the Egyptians put slave drivers in charge of them in order to oppress them through forced labor. They built Pithom and Rameses as supply cities for Pharaoh.

Exodus 1:12 But the more the Israelites were oppressed, the more they increased in number and spread out. The Egyptians couldn't stand them [any longer].

Exodus 1:13 So they forced the Israelites to work hard as slaves.

Exodus 1:14 They made their lives bitter with back-breaking work in mortar and bricks and every kind of work in the fields. All the jobs the Egyptians gave them were brutally hard.

Exodus 1:15 Then the king of Egypt told the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah,

Exodus 1:16 "When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth, look at the child when you deliver it. If it's a boy, kill it, but if it's a girl, let it live."

Exodus 1:17 However, the midwives feared God and didn't obey the king of Egypt's orders. They let the boys live.

Exodus 1:18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives. He asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?"

Exodus 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, “Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women. They are so healthy that they have their babies before a midwife arrives.”

Exodus 1:20 God was good to the midwives. So the people increased in number and became very strong.

Exodus 1:21 Because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people to throw into the Nile every [Hebrew] boy that was born, but to let every girl live.

Exodus 2:1 A man from Levi’s family married a Levite woman.

Exodus 2:2 The woman became pregnant and had a son. She saw how beautiful he was and hid him for three months.

Exodus 2:3 When she couldn’t hide him any longer, she took a basket made of papyrus plants and coated it with tar and pitch. She put the baby in it and set it among the papyrus plants near the bank of the Nile River.

Exodus 2:4 The baby’s sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

Exodus 2:5 While Pharaoh’s daughter came to the Nile to take a bath, her servants walked along the bank of the river. She saw the basket among the papyrus plants and sent her slave girl to get it.

Exodus 2:6 Pharaoh’s daughter opened the basket, looked at the baby, and saw it was a boy. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. She said, “This is one of the Hebrew children.”

Exodus 2:7 Then the baby’s sister asked Pharaoh’s daughter, “Should I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?”

Exodus 2:8 She answered, “Yes!” So the girl brought the baby’s mother.

Exodus 2:9 Pharaoh’s daughter said to the woman, “Take this child, nurse him for me, and I will pay you.” She took the child and nursed him.

Exodus 2:10 When the child was old enough, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. Pharaoh’s daughter named him Moses [Pulled Out] and said, “I pulled him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 In the course of time Moses grew up. Then he went to [see] his own people and watched them suffering under forced labor. He saw a Hebrew, one of his own people, being beaten by an Egyptian.

Exodus 2:12 He looked all around, and when he didn’t see anyone, he beat the Egyptian to death and hid the body in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 When Moses went there the next day, he saw two Hebrew men fighting. He asked the one who started the fight, “Why are you beating another Hebrew?”

Exodus 2:14 The man asked, “Who made you our ruler and judge? Are you going to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and thought that everyone knew what he had done.

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard what Moses had done, he tried to have him killed. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian. One day, while Moses was sitting by a well, Exodus 2:16 seven daughters of the priest of Midian came. They drew water and filled the troughs to water their father’s sheep.

Exodus 2:17 But some shepherds came and chased them away. So Moses got up, came to their defense, and then watered their sheep.

Exodus 2:18 When they came back to their father Reuel, he asked them, “Why have you come home so early today?”

Exodus 2:19 They answered, “An Egyptian rescued us from some shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the sheep.”

Exodus 2:20 Reuel asked his daughters, “Where is he? Why did you leave the man there? Go, invite him to supper.”

Exodus 2:21 Moses decided to stay with the man. So Reuel gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses as his wife.

Exodus 2:22 She gave birth to a son. Moses named him Gershom [Foreigner], because he said, “I was a foreigner living in another country.”

Exodus 2:23 After a long time passed, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites still groaned because they were slaves. So they cried out, and their cries for help went up to God.

Exodus 2:24 God heard their groaning, and he remembered his promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Exodus 2:25 God saw the Israelites [being oppressed] and was concerned about them.

Exodus 3:1 Moses was taking care of the sheep of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. As he led the sheep to the far side of the desert, he came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exodus 3:2 The Messenger of the LORD appeared to him there as flames of fire coming out of a bush. Moses looked, and although the bush was on fire, it was not burning up.

Exodus 3:3 So he thought, “Why isn’t this bush burning up? I must go over there and see this strange sight.”

Exodus 3:4 When the LORD saw that Moses had come over to see it, God called to him from the bush, “Moses, Moses!” Moses answered, “Here I am!”

Exodus 3:5 God said, “Don’t come any closer! Take off your sandals because this place where you are standing is holy ground.

Exodus 3:6 I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.” Moses hid his face because he was afraid to look at God.

Exodus 3:7 The LORD said, “I have seen the misery of my people in Egypt, and I have heard them crying out because of the slave drivers. I know how much they’re suffering.

Exodus 3:8 I have come to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them from that land to a good land with plenty of room [for everyone]. It is a land flowing with milk and honey where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites live.

Exodus 3:9 I have heard the cry of the people of Israel. I have seen how the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exodus 3:10 Now, go! I am sending you to Pharaoh so that you can bring my people Israel out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the people of Israel out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 God answered, “I will be with you. And this will be the proof that I sent you: When you bring the people out of Egypt, all of you will worship God on this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 Then Moses replied to God, “Suppose I go to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ What should I tell them?”

Exodus 3:14 God answered Moses, “I Am Who I Am. This is what you must say to the people of Israel: ‘I Am has sent me to you.’”

Exodus 3:15 Again God said to Moses, “This is what you must say to the people of Israel: The LORD God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever. This is my title throughout every generation.

Exodus 3:16 “Go, assemble the leaders of Israel. Say to them, ‘The LORD God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, appeared to me. He said, “I have paid close attention to you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.

Exodus 3:17 I promise I will take you away from your misery in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.”‘

Exodus 3:18 “The leaders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the leaders must go to the king of Egypt and say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God.’

Exodus 3:19 I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, even if he is forced to.

Exodus 3:20 So I will use my power to strike Egypt. After all the miracles that I will do there, he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 I will make the Egyptians kind to the people of Israel so that, when you leave, you will not leave empty-handed.

Exodus 3:22 “Every Hebrew woman should ask her Egyptian neighbor and any woman living in her home for silver and gold jewelry and for clothes. Put them on your sons and daughters. This way you will strip Egypt of its wealth.”

Exodus 4:1 “They will never believe me or listen to me!” Moses protested. “They will say, ‘The LORD didn’t appear to you.’”

Exodus 4:2 Then the LORD asked him, “What’s that in your hand?” He answered, “A shepherd’s staff.”

Exodus 4:3 The LORD said, “Throw it on the ground.” When Moses threw it on the ground, it became a snake, and he ran away from it.

Exodus 4:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out and grab the snake by its tail.” He reached out and grabbed it, and it turned back into a staff as he held it.

Exodus 4:5 [The LORD explained,] “This is to convince the people that the LORD God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, appeared to you.”

Exodus 4:6 The LORD said to him, “Put your hand inside your shirt.” So Moses did this, and when he took his hand out, it had a skin disease. It looked as [flaky as] snow.

Exodus 4:7 “Now put your hand back inside your shirt,” the LORD said. Moses put it back, and when he took it out this time, it was healthy again like the rest of his body.

Exodus 4:8 [Then the LORD said,] “If they won’t believe you or pay attention to the first miraculous sign, they may believe the second.

Exodus 4:9 But if they won’t believe these two miraculous signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile River and pour it on the ground. The water you take from the Nile will turn into blood on the ground.”

Exodus 4:10 Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I’m not a good speaker. I’ve never been a good speaker, and I’m not now, even though you’ve spoken to me. I speak slowly, and I become tongue-tied easily.”

Exodus 4:11 The LORD asked him, “Who gave humans their mouths? Who makes humans unable to talk or hear? Who gives them sight or makes them blind? It is I, the LORD!

Exodus 4:12 Now go, and I will help you speak and will teach you what to say.”

Exodus 4:13 But Moses said, “Please, Lord, send someone else.”

Exodus 4:14 Then the LORD became angry with Moses and asked, “What about your brother Aaron the Levite? I know he can speak well. He’s already on his way to meet you, and he will be very glad to see you.

Exodus 4:15 You will speak to him and tell him what to say. I will help both of you speak, and I will teach you both what to do.

Exodus 4:16 Aaron will speak to the people for you. He will be your spokesman, and you will be like God.

Exodus 4:17 Take that shepherd’s staff with you, and use it to do the miraculous signs.”

Exodus 4:18 Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro. Moses said to him, “Please let me go back to my own people in Egypt. I would like to see if they’re still alive.” Jethro said to Moses, “You may go.”

Exodus 4:19 Now, the LORD had said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, because all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and started out for Egypt. He also brought with him the staff God had told him to take.

Exodus 4:21 The LORD said to Moses, “When you get back to Egypt, see that you show Pharaoh all the amazing things that I have given you the power to do. But I will make him stubborn so that he will not let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 Then tell Pharaoh, ‘This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son.

Exodus 4:23 I told you to let my son go so that he may worship me. But you refused to let him go. So now I’m going to kill your firstborn son.’”

Exodus 4:24 Along the way they stopped for the night. The LORD met Moses and tried to kill him.

Exodus 4:25 Then Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son’s foreskin, and touched Moses’ feet [with it]. She said, “You are a bridegroom of blood to me!”

Exodus 4:26 So the LORD let him alone. It was because of the circumcision that she said at that time, “You are a bridegroom of blood!”

Exodus 4:27 Meanwhile, the LORD had told Aaron to meet Moses in the desert. When Aaron met Moses at the mountain of God, he kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say and all the miraculous signs the LORD had commanded him to do.

Exodus 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went [to Egypt] and assembled all the leaders of the people of Israel.

Exodus 4:30 Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also did the miraculous signs for the people, Exodus 4:31 and the people believed them. When they heard that the LORD was concerned about the people of Israel and that he had seen their misery, they knelt, bowing with their faces touching the ground.

Exodus 5:1 Later Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Let my people go into the desert to celebrate a festival in my honor.”

Exodus 5:2 Pharaoh asked, “Who is the LORD? Why should I obey him and let Israel go? I don’t know the LORD, and I won’t let Israel go.”

Exodus 5:3 They replied, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God. If we don’t go, he may kill us with a plague or a war.”

Exodus 5:4 The king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you distracting the people from their work? Get back to work!”

Exodus 5:5 Then Pharaoh added, “Look how many people there are in the land! Do you want them to quit working?”

Exodus 5:6 That same day Pharaoh gave these orders to the slave drivers and foremen:

Exodus 5:7 “Don’t give the people any more straw to make bricks as you have been doing. Let them gather their own straw,

Exodus 5:8 but insist that they make the same number of bricks they were making before. Making fewer bricks will not be acceptable. They’re lazy! That’s why they’re crying, ‘Let us go offer sacrifices to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 Make the work harder for these people so that they will be too busy to listen to lies.”

Exodus 5:10 The slave drivers and foreman went out and said to them, “This is what Pharaoh says: I’m no longer giving you straw.

Exodus 5:11 Get your own straw wherever you can find it, but your work load will not be reduced one bit.”

Exodus 5:12 So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

Exodus 5:13 The slave drivers kept hurrying them. They said, “Finish the same amount of work each day, just as when you had straw.”

Exodus 5:14 Pharaoh’s slave drivers had placed Israelite foremen in charge of the people. The slave drivers beat the foremen and said, “You didn’t finish all the bricks you were ordered to make yesterday or today. Why didn’t you make as many as you used to?”

Exodus 5:15 Then the Israelite foremen complained to Pharaoh. They asked, “Why are you treating us this way?

Exodus 5:16 We’re given no straw, and yet we’re told to make bricks. We’re being beaten, but your men are at fault.”

Exodus 5:17 “You’re lazy! [Just plain] lazy!” Pharaoh answered. “That’s why you keep saying, ‘Let us go offer sacrifices to the LORD.’

Exodus 5:18 Now get back to work! You won’t be given any straw, but you must still make the same number of bricks.”

Exodus 5:19 The Israelite foremen realized they were in trouble when they were told, “Don’t make fewer bricks each day than you’re supposed to.”

Exodus 5:20 As they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting for them.

Exodus 5:21 So they said, “May the LORD see what you have done and judge you! You have made Pharaoh and his officials hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us.”

Exodus 5:22 Moses went back to the LORD and asked, “Why have you brought this trouble on your people? Why did you send me?

Exodus 5:23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak for you, he has treated your people cruelly, and you have done nothing at all to rescue your people.”

Exodus 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. I will show him my power, and he will let my people go. I will show him my power, and he will throw them out of his country.”

Exodus 6:2 God spoke to Moses, “I am the LORD.

Exodus 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but I didn’t make myself known to them by my name, the LORD.

Exodus 6:4 I even made a promise to give them Canaan, the land where they lived as foreigners.

Exodus 6:5 Now I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians hold in slavery, and I have remembered my promise.

Exodus 6:6 “Tell the Israelites, ‘I am the LORD. I will bring you out from under the oppression of the Egyptians, and I will free you from slavery. I will rescue you with my powerful arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

Exodus 6:7 Then I will make you my people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the forced labor of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 I will bring you to the land I solemnly swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will give it to you as your own possession. I am the LORD.’”

Exodus 6:9 Moses reported this to the Israelites. But they would not listen to him because they were so discouraged by their back-breaking work.

Exodus 6:10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, Exodus 6:11 “Go tell Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) to let the Israelites leave his country.”

Exodus 6:12 But Moses protested to the LORD, “The Israelites wouldn’t listen to me. Why would Pharaoh listen to me? I’m such a poor speaker.”

Exodus 6:13 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh (the king of Egypt). He commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These were the heads of the families: The sons of [Reuben], Israel’s firstborn, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These were the families descended from Reuben.

Exodus 6:15 The sons of [Simeon] were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the families descended from Simeon.

Exodus 6:16 These are the names of the sons of [Levi] listed in birth order: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon listed by their families were Libni and Shimei.

Exodus 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the families descended from Levi listed in birth order.

Exodus 6:20 Amram married his father’s sister Jochebed. She gave birth to Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

Exodus 6:21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

Exodus 6:22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

Exodus 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon. She gave birth to Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Exodus 6:24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the families descended from Korah.

Exodus 6:25 Eleazar, son of Aaron, married one of the daughters of Putiel. She gave birth to Phinehas. These were the heads of Levite households listed by their families.

Exodus 6:26 This was the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, “Bring the Israelites out of Egypt in organized family groups.”

Exodus 6:27 They-this same Moses and Aaron-told Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) to let the Israelites leave Egypt.

Exodus 6:28 At that time the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt.

Exodus 6:29 He said to Moses, “I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) everything I tell you.”

Exodus 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, “Why would Pharaoh listen to me?”

Exodus 7:1 The LORD answered Moses, “I have made you a god to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron is your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 Tell your brother Aaron everything I command you, and he must tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites leave the country.

Exodus 7:3 But I will make Pharaoh stubborn. Even though I will do many miraculous signs and amazing things in Egypt,

Exodus 7:4 Pharaoh will not listen to you. Then I will use my power to punish Egypt severely, and I will bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt in organized family groups.

Exodus 7:5 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I use my power against Egypt and bring the Israelites out of there.”

Exodus 7:6 Moses and Aaron did as the LORD had commanded them.

Exodus 7:7 Moses was 80 years old and Aaron was 83 when they talked to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Give me a sign to prove that God has sent you,’ tell Aaron, ‘Take your shepherd’s staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh,’ and it will become a large snake.”

Exodus 7:10 Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the LORD had commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a large snake.

Exodus 7:11 Then Pharaoh sent for his wise men and sorcerers. These Egyptian magicians did the same thing using their magic spells.

Exodus 7:12 Each of them threw his staff down, and they all became large snakes. But Aaron’s staff swallowed theirs.

Exodus 7:13 Yet, Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and would not listen to them, as the LORD had predicted.

Exodus 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh is being stubborn. He refuses to let my people go.

Exodus 7:15 In the morning meet Pharaoh when he’s on his way to the Nile. Wait for him on the bank of the river. Take along the staff that turned into a snake.

Exodus 7:16 Say to him, ‘The LORD God of the Hebrews sent me to tell you, “Let my people go to worship me in the desert.” So far you have not listened.

Exodus 7:17 Here is what the LORD says: This is the way you will recognize that I am the LORD: With this staff in my hand, I’m going to strike the Nile, and the water will turn into blood.

Exodus 7:18 The fish in the Nile will die, and the river will stink. The Egyptians will not be able to drink any water from the Nile.'"

Exodus 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt-its rivers, canals, ponds, and all its reservoirs-so that they turn into blood. There will be blood everywhere in Egypt, even in the wooden and stone containers.'"

Exodus 7:20 Moses and Aaron did as the LORD had commanded. In front of Pharaoh and his officials, Aaron raised his staff and struck the Nile. All the water in the river turned into blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish in the Nile died, and it smelled so bad that the Egyptians couldn't drink any water from the river. There was blood everywhere in Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the Egyptian magicians did the same thing using their magic spells. So Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had predicted.

Exodus 7:23 Pharaoh turned and went back to his palace. He dismissed the entire matter from his mind.

Exodus 7:24 All the Egyptians dug along the Nile for water to drink because they couldn't drink any of the water from the river.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile.

Exodus 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: Let my people go to worship me.

Exodus 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will bring a plague of frogs on your whole country.

Exodus 8:3 The Nile River will swarm with frogs. They will come into your palace, into your bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your officials, on your people, into your ovens and into your mixing bowls.

Exodus 8:4 The frogs will jump on you, on your people, and on all your officials.'"

Exodus 8:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Hold your staff over the rivers, canals, and ponds. This will bring frogs onto the land.'"

Exodus 8:6 So Aaron held his staff over the waters of Egypt. The frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:7 But the magicians did the same thing using their magic spells and brought frogs onto the land.

Exodus 8:8 Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray that the LORD will take the frogs away from me and my people. Then I will let your people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD."

Exodus 8:9 Moses answered Pharaoh, "You may have the honor of choosing when I should pray for you, your officials, and your people.

Then the frogs will leave you and your homes. The only ones left will be those in the Nile.”

Exodus 8:10 “Pray for me tomorrow,” Pharaoh said. Moses replied, “It will be as you say so that you will know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

Exodus 8:11 The frogs will leave you, your homes, your officials, and your people. The only frogs left will be those in the Nile.”

Exodus 8:12 After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses prayed to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:13 The LORD did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the yards, and in the fields.

Exodus 8:14 They were piled into countless heaps, and the land began to stink because of them.

Exodus 8:15 When Pharaoh saw that the plague was over, he became stubborn and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had predicted.

Exodus 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Hold out your staff and strike the dust on the ground. All over Egypt the dust will turn into gnats.’”

Exodus 8:17 When Moses told him, Aaron held out the staff in his hand and struck the dust on the ground. It turned into gnats that bit people and animals. All the dust on the ground everywhere in Egypt turned into gnats.

Exodus 8:18 The magicians also tried to produce gnats using their magic spells, but they couldn’t do it. The gnats bit people and animals.

Exodus 8:19 So the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the hand of God!” Yet, Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had predicted.

Exodus 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Early in the morning, stand in Pharaoh’s way when he’s going to the Nile. Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: Let my people go to worship me.

Exodus 8:21 If you will not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, your people, and your houses. The homes of the Egyptians will be filled with flies, and even the ground outside will be covered with them.

Exodus 8:22 But on that day I will treat the region of Goshen differently. That is where my people live. There won’t be any flies there. This way you will know that I, the LORD, am here in this land.

Exodus 8:23 I will distinguish between my people and yours. This miraculous sign will happen tomorrow.’”

Exodus 8:24 The LORD did what he said. Dense swarms of flies came into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials. All over Egypt the flies were ruining everything.

Exodus 8:25 Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God here in this country."

Exodus 8:26 Moses replied, "It wouldn't be right to do that. The sacrifices we offer to the LORD our God are disgusting to Egyptians. If they see us offer sacrifices that they consider disgusting, won't they stone us to death?

Exodus 8:27 We need to travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, as he told us to do."

Exodus 8:28 Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, but don't go very far. You may offer sacrifices to the LORD your God in the desert and pray for me."

Exodus 8:29 Moses answered, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD. Tomorrow the swarms of flies will go away from you, your officials, and your people. But you must stop tricking us by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD."

Exodus 8:30 Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exodus 8:31 The LORD did what Moses asked. The swarms of flies left Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. Not one fly was left.

Exodus 8:32 Yet, this time, too, Pharaoh was stubborn and did not let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD God of the Hebrews says: Let my people go to worship me.

Exodus 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them [in slavery],

Exodus 9:3 the LORD will bring a terrible plague on your livestock, including your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep, and goats.

Exodus 9:4 But the LORD will distinguish between Israel's livestock and the livestock of the Egyptians. No animals belonging to the Israelites will die.'"

Exodus 9:5 The LORD set a definite time. He said, "Tomorrow I will do this."

Exodus 9:6 The next day the LORD did as he said. All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but none of the Israelites' animals died.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh found out that not one of the Israelites' animals had died. Yet, Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and would not let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take a handful of ashes from a kiln, and have Moses throw them up in the air as Pharaoh watches.

Exodus 9:9 They will become a fine dust throughout Egypt. The dust will cause boils to break into open sores on people and animals throughout Egypt.”

Exodus 9:10 They took ashes from a kiln and stood in front of Pharaoh. Moses threw the ashes up in the air, and they caused boils to break into open sores on people and animals.

Exodus 9:11 The magicians couldn’t compete with Moses because they had boils like all the other Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn, so he wouldn’t listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had predicted to Moses.

Exodus 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Early in the morning, go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD God of the Hebrews says: Let my people go to worship me.

Exodus 9:14 Now I will send plagues that will affect you personally as well as your officials and people. This is how you will know that there is no one like me anywhere on earth.

Exodus 9:15 By now I could have used my power to kill you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth.

Exodus 9:16 But I have spared you for this reason. I want to show you my power and make my name famous throughout the earth.

Exodus 9:17 You are still blocking my people from leaving.

Exodus 9:18 So, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever happened in Egypt since the beginning of its history.

Exodus 9:19 Now, send [servants] to bring your livestock and everything else you have indoors. All people and animals still outside and not brought in will die when the hail falls on them.’”

Exodus 9:20 Those members of Pharaoh’s court who listened to the LORD’s warning brought their servants and cattle indoors quickly.

Exodus 9:21 But those who didn’t take the LORD’s warning seriously left their servants and animals out in the open.

Exodus 9:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Lift your hand toward the sky, and hail will fall on people, animals, and every plant in the fields of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 When Moses lifted his staff toward the sky, the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning struck the earth. So the LORD made it hail on Egypt.

Exodus 9:24 It hailed, and lightning flashed while it hailed. This was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

Exodus 9:25 All over Egypt the hail knocked down everything that was out in the open. It struck down people, animals, and every plant in the fields and destroyed every tree in the fields.

Exodus 9:26 The only place it didn't hail was the region of Goshen, where the Israelites lived.

Exodus 9:27 Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. "This time I have sinned," he told them. "The LORD is right, and my people and I are wrong.

Exodus 9:28 Pray to the LORD. We've had enough of God's thunder and hail. I'll let you go; you don't have to stay here any longer."

Exodus 9:29 Moses replied, "As soon as I'm out of the city, I'll spread out my hands to the LORD in prayer. The thunder will stop, and there will be no more hail. This is how you will know that the earth belongs to the LORD.

Exodus 9:30 But I know that you and your officials still don't fear the LORD God."

Exodus 9:31 (The flax and the barley were ruined, because the barley had formed heads and the flax was in bloom.

Exodus 9:32 Neither the wheat nor the wild grain was damaged, because they ripen later.)

Exodus 9:33 As soon as he left Pharaoh and went out of the city, Moses spread out his hands to the LORD in prayer. The thunder and the hail stopped, and no more rain came pouring down on the ground.

Exodus 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had stopped, he sinned again. He and his officials continued to be stubborn.

Exodus 9:35 Pharaoh was stubborn and would not let the Israelites go, as the LORD had predicted through Moses.

Exodus 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh. I have made him and his officials stubborn so that I can do these miraculous signs among them.

Exodus 10:2 You will be able to tell your children and grandchildren exactly how I treated the Egyptians and what miraculous signs I did among them. This is how you will all know that I am the LORD."

Exodus 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "This is what the LORD God of the Hebrews says: How long will you refuse to humble yourself in my presence? Let my people go to worship me.

Exodus 10:4 If you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country.

Exodus 10:5 They will cover the land so that the ground can't be seen. They will eat everything left by the hail, including every tree still standing in the fields.

Exodus 10:6 They will fill your houses and the houses of all your officials and those of all the Egyptians. Your parents and ancestors never saw anything like this from the time they first came here until now." Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

Exodus 10:7 Then Pharaoh's officials asked him, "How long will this man hold us in his grip? Let the Israelite men go to worship the LORD their God. When will you realize that Egypt is ruined?"

Exodus 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. "Go, worship the LORD your God," he said to them. "But exactly who will be going?"

Exodus 10:9 Moses answered, "Everyone! We'll be taking our young and old, our sons and daughters, our flocks and herds with us. For us it's a pilgrimage festival in the LORD's honor."

Exodus 10:10 Pharaoh said to them, "The LORD would have to be with you if I would ever let you take your women and children along. I know you're up to no good!

Exodus 10:11 No! Only the men may go to worship the LORD, since that's what you've been asking for." Then Moses and Aaron were thrown out of Pharaoh's palace.

Exodus 10:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over Egypt to bring locusts. They will invade Egypt and eat up every plant in the land-everything left by the hail."

Exodus 10:13 Moses held his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD made a wind from the east blow over the land all that day and all that night. By morning the east wind had brought the locusts.

Exodus 10:14 They invaded all of Egypt and landed all over the country in great swarms. Never before had there been so many locusts like this, nor would there ever be that many again.

Exodus 10:15 They covered all the ground until it was black [with them]. They ate all the plants and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green was left on any tree or plant anywhere in Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Then Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exodus 10:17 Please forgive my sin one more time. Pray to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me."

Exodus 10:18 Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exodus 10:19 Then the LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind. It picked up the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea. Not one locust was left anywhere in Egypt.

Exodus 10:20 But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn, so he did not let the Israelites go.

Exodus 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Lift your hand toward the sky, and a darkness [so thick] that it can be felt will come over Egypt.”

Exodus 10:22 Moses lifted his hand toward the sky, and throughout Egypt there was total darkness for three days.

Exodus 10:23 People couldn’t see each other, and no one went anywhere for three days. But all the Israelites had light where they were living.

Exodus 10:24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and said, “Go, worship the LORD! Even your women and children may go with you, but your flocks and herds must stay behind.”

Exodus 10:25 But Moses said, “You must allow us to take [our animals] for the sacrifices and burnt offerings we have to make to the LORD our God.

Exodus 10:26 All our livestock must go with us. Not one animal must be left behind. We’ll have to use some of them for worshiping the LORD our God, and we won’t know what we’ll need until we get there.”

Exodus 10:27 But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn, so he refused to let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Pharaoh said to Moses, “Get out of my sight! Don’t ever let me see your face again. The day I do, you will die.”

Exodus 10:29 “You’re right!” Moses answered. “You’ll never see my face again.”

Exodus 11:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and Egypt. After that he will let you go. When he does, he will be certain to force all of you out of here.

Exodus 11:2 Now announce to the people [of Israel] that each man and woman must ask the Egyptians for silver and gold jewelry.”

Exodus 11:3 The LORD made the Egyptians kind to the people. And Moses was highly respected by Pharaoh’s officials and all the Egyptians.

Exodus 11:4 Moses said, “This is what the LORD says: About midnight I will go out among the Egyptians.

Exodus 11:5 Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who rules the land, to the firstborn children of female slaves who use their handmills, including every firstborn domestic animal.

Exodus 11:6 There will be loud crying throughout Egypt, such as there has never been or ever will be again.

Exodus 11:7 But where the Israelites are, not even a dog will be startled by any person or animal. This is how you will see that the LORD shows the distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Exodus 11:8 Then all these officials of yours will come, bow down to me, and say, 'You and all the people who follow you, get out!' After that I will leave." Burning with anger, Moses left Pharaoh.

Exodus 11:9 The LORD had said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you. This is why I will do more amazing things in Egypt."

Exodus 11:10 Moses and Aaron showed Pharaoh all these amazing things. Yet, the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn, so he wouldn't let the Israelites leave his country.

Exodus 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt,

Exodus 12:2 "This month will be the very first month of the year for you.

Exodus 12:3 Tell the whole community of Israel: On the tenth [day] of this month each man must take a lamb or a young goat for his family-one animal per household.

Exodus 12:4 A household may be too small to eat a whole animal. That household and the one next door can share one animal. Choose your animal based on the number of people and what each person can eat.

Exodus 12:5 Your animal must be a one-year-old male that has no defects. You may choose a lamb or a young goat.

Exodus 12:6 Take care of it until the fourteenth [day] of this month. "Then at dusk, all the assembled people from the community of Israel must slaughter their animals.

Exodus 12:7 They must take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they will eat the animals.

Exodus 12:8 The meat must be eaten that same night. It must be roasted over a fire and eaten with bitter herbs and unleavened bread.

Exodus 12:9 Don't eat any of it raw or boiled but roast the whole animal over a fire.

Exodus 12:10 Don't leave any of it until morning. Anything left over in the morning must be burned up.

Exodus 12:11 This is how [you should be dressed when] you eat it: with your belt on, your sandals on your feet, and your shepherd's staff in your hand. You must eat it in a hurry. It is the LORD's Passover.

Exodus 12:12 "On that same night I will go throughout Egypt and kill every firstborn male, both human and animal. I will severely punish all the gods of Egypt, [because] I am the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 But the blood on your houses will be a sign for your protection. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. Nothing will touch or destroy you when I strike Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 “This day will be one for you to remember. This is a permanent law for generations to come: You will celebrate this day as a pilgrimage festival in the LORD’s honor.

Exodus 12:15 For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the very first day you must remove any yeast that you have in your houses. Whoever eats anything with yeast in it from the first day through the seventh day must be excluded from Israel.

Exodus 12:16 You must have a holy assembly on the first day and another one on the seventh. You must not work on these days except to prepare your own meals. That’s all you may do.

Exodus 12:17 You must celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread because it was on this very day that I brought you out of Egypt in organized family groups. This is a permanent law for future generations: You must celebrate this day.

Exodus 12:18 From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month until the evening of the twenty-first day you must eat unleavened bread.

Exodus 12:19 There should be no yeast in your houses for seven days. Whoever eats anything with yeast in it must be excluded from the community of Israel, whether he is an Israelite or not.

Exodus 12:20 Eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live, you must eat [only] unleavened bread.”

Exodus 12:21 Then Moses called for all the leaders of Israel. He said to them, “Pick out a lamb or a young goat for your families, and kill the Passover animal.

Exodus 12:22 Take the branch of a hyssop plant, dip it in the blood which is in a bowl, and put some of the blood on the top and sides of the doorframes [of your houses]. No one may leave the house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 The LORD will go throughout Egypt to kill the Egyptians. When he sees the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe, he will pass over that doorway, and he will not let the destroyer come into your home to kill you.

Exodus 12:24 “You must follow these instructions. They are a permanent law for you and your children.

Exodus 12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as he promised, observe this ceremony.

Exodus 12:26 When your children ask you what this ceremony means to you, Exodus 12:27 you must answer, ‘It’s the Passover sacrifice in the LORD’s honor. The LORD passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he killed the Egyptians.’ “ Then the people knelt, bowing with their faces touching the ground.

Exodus 12:28 The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:29 At midnight the LORD killed every firstborn male in Egypt from the firstborn son of Pharaoh who ruled the land to the firstborn son of the prisoner in jail, and also every firstborn animal.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh, all his officials, and all the [other] Egyptians got up during the night. There was loud crying throughout Egypt because in every house someone had died.

Exodus 12:31 Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron during the night. He said, "You and the Israelites must leave my people at once. Go, worship the LORD as you asked.

Exodus 12:32 Take your flocks and herds, too, as you asked. Just go! And bless me, too!"

Exodus 12:33 The Egyptians begged the people to leave the country quickly. They said, "Soon we'll all be dead!"

Exodus 12:34 So the people picked up their bread dough before it had risen and carried it on their shoulders in bowls, wrapped up in their clothes.

Exodus 12:35 The Israelites did what Moses had told them and asked the Egyptians for gold and silver jewelry and for clothes.

Exodus 12:36 The LORD made the Egyptians generous to the people, and they gave them what they asked for. So the Israelites stripped Egypt of its wealth.

Exodus 12:37 The Israelites left Rameses to go to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand men on foot, plus all the women and children.

Exodus 12:38 Many other people also went with them, along with large numbers of sheep, goats, and cattle.

Exodus 12:39 With the dough they had brought from Egypt, they baked round, flat bread. The dough hadn't risen because they'd been thrown out of Egypt and had no time to prepare food for the trip.

Exodus 12:40 The Israelites had been living in Egypt for 430 years.

Exodus 12:41 After exactly 430 years all the LORD's people left Egypt in organized family groups.

Exodus 12:42 That night the LORD kept watch to take them out of Egypt. (All Israelites in future generations must keep watch on this night, since it is dedicated to the LORD.)

Exodus 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "These are the rules for the Passover: "No foreigner may eat the Passover meal.

Exodus 12:44 "Any male slave you have bought may eat it after you have circumcised him.

Exodus 12:45 “No foreigner visiting you may eat it. “No hired worker may eat it.

Exodus 12:46 “The meal must be eaten inside one house. Never take any of the meat outside the house. “Never break any of the bones.

Exodus 12:47 “The whole community of Israel must celebrate the Passover.

Exodus 12:48 “Foreigners may want to celebrate the LORD’s Passover. First, every male in the household must be circumcised. Then they may celebrate the Passover like native-born Israelites. But no uncircumcised males may ever eat the Passover meal.

Exodus 12:49 The same instructions apply to native-born Israelites as well as foreigners.”

Exodus 12:50 All the Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:51 That very day the LORD brought all the Israelites out of Egypt in organized family groups.

Exodus 13:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Exodus 13:2 “Set apart every firstborn male for me. Every firstborn male offspring among the Israelites is mine, whether human or animal.”

Exodus 13:3 Then Moses said to the people, “Remember this day-the day when you left Egypt, the land of slavery. The LORD used his mighty hand to bring you out of there. Don’t eat anything made with yeast.

Exodus 13:4 Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving Egypt.

Exodus 13:5 The LORD swore to your ancestors that he would give you the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites. When he brings you into that land flowing with milk and honey, you must observe this ceremony in this month.

Exodus 13:6 “For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. The seventh day will be a pilgrimage festival in the LORD’s honor.

Exodus 13:7 Only unleavened bread should be eaten during these seven days. No sourdough or yeast should be seen anywhere in your territory.

Exodus 13:8 On that day tell your children, ‘We do this because of what the LORD did for us when we left Egypt.’

Exodus 13:9 This [festival] will be [like] a mark on your hand or a reminder on your forehead that the teachings of the LORD are [always] to be a part of your conversation. Because the LORD used his mighty hand to bring you out of Egypt,

Exodus 13:10 you must follow these rules every year at this time.

Exodus 13:11 “When the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as he swore to you and your ancestors, Exodus 13:12 sacrifice every firstborn male offspring to the LORD. The firstborn male offspring of each of your animals belongs to the LORD.

Exodus 13:13 It will cost you a sheep or a goat to buy any firstborn donkey back from the LORD. If you don’t buy it back, then you must break the donkey’s neck. You must also buy every firstborn son back from the LORD.

Exodus 13:14 “In the future when your children ask you what this means, tell them, ‘The LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of slavery in Egypt.

Exodus 13:15 When Pharaoh was too stubborn to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn male in Egypt-human and animal. This is why we sacrifice every firstborn male to the LORD and buy every firstborn son back from the LORD.’

Exodus 13:16 So this [festival] will be [like] a mark on your hand and [like] a band on your forehead, because the LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of Egypt.”

Exodus 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God didn’t lead them on the road through Philistine territory, although that was the shortest route. God said, “If they see that they have to fight a war, they may change their minds and go back to Egypt.”

Exodus 13:18 So God led the people around the other way, on the road through the desert toward the Red Sea. The Israelites were ready for battle when they left Egypt.

Exodus 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, because Joseph had made the Israelites solemnly swear to do this. Joseph had said, “God will definitely come to help you. When he does, take my bones with you.”

Exodus 13:20 They moved from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Exodus 13:21 By day the LORD went ahead of them in a column of smoke to lead them on their way. By night he went ahead of them in a column of fire to give them light so that they could travel by day or by night.

Exodus 13:22 The column of smoke was always in front of the people during the day. The column of fire was always there at night.

Exodus 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 14:2 “Tell the Israelites to go back and set up their camp facing Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. Set up your camp facing north-by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 Pharaoh will think, ‘The Israelites are [just] wandering around. The desert is blocking their escape.’

Exodus 14:4 I will make Pharaoh so stubborn that he will pursue them. Then, because of what I do to Pharaoh and his entire army, I will receive honor, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” So that is what the Israelites did.

Exodus 14:5 When Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) was told that the people had fled, he and his officials changed their minds about them. They said, “What have we done? We’ve lost our slaves because we’ve let Israel go.”

Exodus 14:6 So Pharaoh prepared his chariot and took his army with him.

Exodus 14:7 He took 600 of his best chariots as well as all the other chariots in Egypt, placing an officer in each of them.

Exodus 14:8 The LORD made Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) so stubborn that he pursued the Israelites, who were boldly leaving Egypt.

Exodus 14:9 The Egyptians pursued the Israelites. Pharaoh’s army, including all his horse-drawn chariots and cavalry, caught up with them as they were setting up their camp by the sea at Pi Hahiroth facing north.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw that the Egyptians were coming after them. Terrified, the Israelites cried out to the LORD.

Exodus 14:11 They said to Moses, “Did you bring us out into the desert to die because there were no graves in Egypt? Look what you’ve done by bringing us out of Egypt!

Exodus 14:12 Didn’t we tell you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone! Let us go on serving the Egyptians’? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!”

Exodus 14:13 Moses answered the people, “Don’t be afraid! Stand still, and see what the LORD will do to save you today. You will never see these Egyptians again.

Exodus 14:14 The LORD is fighting for you! So be still!”

Exodus 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to start moving.

Exodus 14:16 Raise your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide the water. Then the Israelites will go through the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 14:17 I am making the Egyptians so stubborn that they will follow the Israelites. I will receive honor because of what I will do to Pharaoh, his entire army, his chariots, and cavalry.

Exodus 14:18 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I am honored for what I did to Pharaoh, his chariots, and his cavalry.”

Exodus 14:19 The Messenger of God, who had been in front of the Israelites, moved behind them. So the column of smoke moved from in front of the Israelites and stood behind them

Exodus 14:20 between the Egyptian camp and the Israelite camp. The [column of] smoke was there when darkness came, and it lit up the night. Neither side came near the other all night long.

Exodus 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. All that night the LORD pushed back the sea with a strong east wind and turned the sea into dry ground. The water divided,

Exodus 14:22 and the Israelites went through the middle of the sea on dry ground. The water stood like a wall on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and cavalry followed them into the sea.

Exodus 14:24 Just before dawn, the LORD looked down from the column of fire and smoke and threw the Egyptian camp into a panic.

Exodus 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots come off so that they could hardly move. Then the Egyptians shouted, "Let's get out of here! The LORD is fighting for Israel! He's against us!"

Exodus 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the water will flow back over the Egyptians, their chariots, and their cavalry."

Exodus 14:27 Moses stretched his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the water returned to its usual place. The Egyptians tried to escape, but the LORD swept them into the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The water flowed back and covered Pharaoh's entire army, as well as the chariots and the cavalry that had followed Israel into the sea. Not one of them survived.

Exodus 14:29 Meanwhile, the Israelites had gone through the sea on dry ground while the water stood like a wall on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 That day the LORD saved Israel from the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore.

Exodus 14:31 When the Israelites saw the great power the LORD had used against the Egyptians, they feared the LORD and believed in him and in his servant Moses.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: "I will sing to the LORD. He has won a glorious victory. He has thrown horses and their riders into the sea.

Exodus 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song. He is my Savior. This is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will honor him.

Exodus 15:3 The LORD is a warrior! The LORD is his name.

Exodus 15:4 He has thrown Pharaoh’s chariots and army into the sea. Pharaoh’s best officers were drowned in the Red Sea.

Exodus 15:5 The deep water covered them. They sank to the bottom like a rock.

Exodus 15:6 Your right hand, O LORD, wins glory because it is strong. Your right hand, O LORD, smashes your enemies.

Exodus 15:7 With your unlimited majesty, you destroyed those who attacked you. You sent out your burning anger. It burned them up like straw.

Exodus 15:8 With a blast from your nostrils, the water piled up. The waves stood up like a dam. The deep water thickened in the middle of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 “The enemy said, ‘I’ll pursue them! I’ll catch up with them! I’ll divide the loot! I’ll take all I want! I’ll use my sword! I’ll take all they have!’

Exodus 15:10 Your breath blew the sea over them. They sank like lead in the raging water.

Exodus 15:11 “Who is like you among the gods, O LORD? Who is like you? You are glorious because of your holiness and awe-inspiring because of your splendor. You perform miracles.

Exodus 15:12 You stretched out your right hand. The earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 “Lovingly, you will lead the people you have saved. Powerfully, you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

Exodus 15:14 People will hear of it and tremble. The people of Philistia will be in anguish.

Exodus 15:15 The tribal leaders of Edom will be terrified. The powerful men of Moab will tremble. The people of Canaan will be deathly afraid.

Exodus 15:16 Terror and dread will fall on them. Because of the power of your arm, they will be petrified until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you purchased pass by.

Exodus 15:17 You will bring them and plant them on your own mountain, the place where you live, O LORD, the holy place that you built with your own hands, O Lord.

Exodus 15:18 The LORD will rule as king forever and ever.”

Exodus 15:19 When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots, and cavalry went into the sea, the LORD made the water of the sea flow back over them. However, the Israelites had gone through the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 15:20 Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand. All the women, dancing with tambourines, followed her.

Exodus 15:21 Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD. He has won a glorious victory. He has thrown horses and their riders into the sea.”

Exodus 15:22 Moses led Israel away from the Red Sea into the desert of Shur. For three days they traveled in the desert without finding water.

Exodus 15:23 When they came to Marah, they couldn’t drink the water because it tasted bitter. That’s why the place was called Marah [Bitter Place].

Exodus 15:24 The people complained about Moses by asking, “What are we supposed to drink?”

Exodus 15:25 Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD set down laws and rules for them to live by, and there he tested them.

Exodus 15:26 He said, “If you will listen carefully to the LORD your God and do what he considers right, if you pay attention to his commands and obey all his laws, I will never make you suffer any of the diseases I made the Egyptians suffer, because I am the LORD, who heals you.”

Exodus 15:27 Next, they went to Elim, where there were 12 springs and 70 palm trees. They camped there by the water.

Exodus 16:1 The whole community of Israelites moved from Elim and came to the desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai. This was on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 In the desert the whole community complained about Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 16:3 The Israelites said to them, “If only the LORD had let us die in Egypt! There we sat by our pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted! You brought us out into this desert to let us all starve to death!”

Exodus 16:4 The LORD said to Moses, “I’m going to send you food from heaven like rain. Each day the people should go out and gather only what they need for that day. In this way I will test them to see whether or not they will follow my instructions.

Exodus 16:5 But on the sixth day when they prepare what they bring home, it should be twice as much as they gather on other days.”

Exodus 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt.

Exodus 16:7 In the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard you complaining about him. Why are you complaining about us?”

Exodus 16:8 Moses also said, “The LORD will give you meat to eat in the evening and all the food you want in the morning. The LORD has heard you complaining about him. Who are we? You’re not complaining about us but about the LORD.”

Exodus 16:9 Moses said to Aaron, “Tell the whole community of Israelites, ‘Come into the LORD’s presence. He has heard you complaining.’”

Exodus 16:10 While Aaron was speaking to the whole community of Israelites, they looked toward the desert. Suddenly, they saw the glory of the LORD in the [column of] smoke.

Exodus 16:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 16:12 “I’ve heard the Israelites complaining. Tell them, ‘At dusk you will eat meat, and in the morning you will eat all the food you want. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.’”

Exodus 16:13 That evening quails came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 When the dew was gone, the ground was covered with a thin layer of flakes like frost on the ground.

Exodus 16:15 When the Israelites saw it, they asked each other, “What is this?” because they didn’t know what it was. Moses said to them, “It’s the food the LORD has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 This is what the LORD has commanded: Each of you should gather as much as you can eat. Take two quarts for each person in your tent.”

Exodus 16:17 So that is what the Israelites did. Some gathered more, some less.

Exodus 16:18 They measured it into two-quart containers. Those who had gathered more didn’t have too much. Those who had gathered less didn’t have too little. They gathered as much as they could eat.

Exodus 16:19 Then Moses said to them, “No one may keep any of it until morning.”

Exodus 16:20 But some of them didn’t listen to Moses. They kept part of it until morning, and it was full of worms and smelled bad. So Moses was angry with them.

Exodus 16:21 Each morning they gathered as much food as they could eat. When the sun was hot, it melted away.

Exodus 16:22 But on the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, four quarts per person. All the leaders of the community came to Moses and told him about it.

Exodus 16:23 He said to them, “This is what the LORD said: Tomorrow is a day of worship, a holy day of worship dedicated to the LORD. Bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil. Save all that’s left over, and keep it until tomorrow morning.”

Exodus 16:24 So they saved it until the next morning as Moses had commanded, but it didn't smell or have worms in it.

Exodus 16:25 "Eat it today," Moses said, "because today is a day of worship dedicated to the LORD. You won't find anything on the ground today.

Exodus 16:26 You can gather food on six days, but on the seventh day, the day of worship, you won't find any."

Exodus 16:27 On the seventh day some people went out to gather food, but they didn't find any.

Exodus 16:28 The LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to do what I have commanded and instructed you to do?

Exodus 16:29 Remember: The LORD has given you this day of worship. That's why he gives you enough food on the sixth day for two days. On the seventh day you may not leave. Everyone, stay where you are."

Exodus 16:30 So the people never worked on the seventh day of the week.

Exodus 16:31 The Israelites called the food [manna]. It was like coriander seeds. It was white and tasted like wafers made with honey.

Exodus 16:32 Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: Take two quarts of manna to be kept for your descendants. This way they will see the food that I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt."

Exodus 16:33 Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar, put two quarts of manna in it, and put it in the LORD's presence to be kept for your descendants."

Exodus 16:34 Aaron put the jar of manna in front of the words of God's promise to be kept there, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 16:35 The Israelites ate manna for 40 years until they came to a place to settle. They ate manna until they came to the border of Canaan.

Exodus 16:36 (Now, the standard dry measure at that time held 20 quarts.)

Exodus 17:1 The whole community of Israelites left the desert of Sin and traveled from place to place as the LORD commanded them. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 So they complained to Moses by saying, "Give us water to drink!" Moses said to them, "Why are you complaining to me? Why are you testing the LORD?"

Exodus 17:3 But the people were thirsty for water there. They complained to Moses and asked, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Was it to make us, our children, and our livestock die of thirst?"

Exodus 17:4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What should I do with these people? They’re almost ready to stone me!”

Exodus 17:5 The LORD answered Moses, “Bring some of the leaders of Israel with you, and go to where the people can see you. Take the staff you used to strike the Nile River.

Exodus 17:6 I’ll be standing in front of you there by a rock at Mount Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink.” Moses did this while the leaders of Israel watched him.

Exodus 17:7 He named that place Massah [Testing] and Meribah [Complaining] because the Israelites complained and because they tested the LORD, asking, “Is the LORD with us or not?”

Exodus 17:8 The Amalekites fought Israel at Rephidim.

Exodus 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some of our men. Then fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill. I will hold in my hand the staff God told me to take along.”

Exodus 17:10 Joshua did as Moses told him and fought the Amalekites, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 As long as Moses held up his hands, Israel would win, but as soon as he put his hands down, the Amalekites would start to win.

Exodus 17:12 Eventually, Moses’ hands felt heavy. So Aaron and Hur took a rock, put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron held up one hand, and Hur held up the other. His hands remained steady until sunset.

Exodus 17:13 So Joshua defeated the Amalekite army in battle.

Exodus 17:14 The LORD said to Moses, “Write this reminder on a scroll, and make sure that Joshua hears it, too: I will completely erase any memory of the Amalekites from the earth.”

Exodus 17:15 Moses built an altar and called it The LORD Is My Banner.

Exodus 17:16 He said, “Because a hand was lifted against the LORD’s throne, he will be at war against the Amalekites from one generation to the next.”

Exodus 18:1 Moses’ father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about everything God had done for Moses and his people Israel and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 When Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro had taken her in,

Exodus 18:3 along with her two sons. The one son was named Gershom [Foreigner], because Moses said, “I was a foreigner living in another country.”

Exodus 18:4 The name of the other was Eliezer [My God Is a Helper], because he said, “My father’s God was my helper. He saved me from Pharaoh’s death sentence.”

Exodus 18:5 Moses’ father-in-law Jethro brought Moses’ sons and wife to Moses in the desert where he was camped near the mountain of God.

Exodus 18:6 Jethro had sent word to Moses, “I’m coming to [visit] you, [and I’m bringing] your wife and her two sons.”

Exodus 18:7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed with his face touching the ground and kissed Jethro. After they asked each other how they were, they went into the tent.

Exodus 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel, all the hardships they had had on the way, and how the LORD had saved them.

Exodus 18:9 Jethro was delighted [to hear] about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 He said, “Thank the LORD! He rescued you from the Egyptians and their Pharaoh and rescued these people from the control of the Egyptians, Exodus 18:11 who treated Israel with contempt. Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods.”

Exodus 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God. Aaron and all the leaders of Israel came to eat the meal with Moses’ father-in-law in God’s presence.

Exodus 18:13 The next day Moses was settling disagreements among the people. The people stood around Moses from morning until evening.

Exodus 18:14 When Moses’ father-in-law saw everything Moses was doing for the people, he asked, “Why are you doing this for the people? Why do you sit here alone, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?”

Exodus 18:15 Moses answered his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to find out God’s will.

Exodus 18:16 Whenever they have a disagreement and bring it to me, I decide which person is right, and I tell them God’s laws and instructions.”

Exodus 18:17 Moses’ father-in-law replied, “What you’re doing is not good.

Exodus 18:18 You and your people will wear yourselves out. This is too much work for you. You can’t do it alone!

Exodus 18:19 Now listen to me, and I’ll give you some advice. May God be with you! You must be the people’s representative to God and bring their disagreements to him.

Exodus 18:20 You must instruct them in the laws and the teachings, show them how to live, and tell them what to do.

Exodus 18:21 “But choose capable men from all the people, men who fear God, men you can trust, men who hate corruption. Put them in charge of groups of 1,000, or 100, or 50, or 10 people.

Exodus 18:22 Let them be the ones who usually settle disagreements among the people. They should bring all important cases to you, but they should settle all minor cases themselves. Make it easier for yourself by letting them help you.

Exodus 18:23 If God commands you, and you do this, you will be able to continue your work, and all these people will have their disagreements settled so that they can go home.”

Exodus 18:24 Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said.

Exodus 18:25 Moses chose capable men from all the Israelites and put them in charge of groups of 1,000, or 100, or 50, or 10 people.

Exodus 18:26 These men were the ones who usually settled disagreements among the people. They would bring difficult cases to Moses, but they settled all minor ones themselves.

Exodus 18:27 Moses sent his father-in-law on his way. So Jethro went back to his own country.

Exodus 19:1 Two months after the Israelites left Egypt, they came to the desert of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 Israel had moved from Rephidim and had come into the desert of Sinai. They had set up camp there in front of the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 Then Moses went up the mountain to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, “This is what you must say to the descendants of Jacob. Tell the Israelites, Exodus 19:4 ‘You have seen for yourselves what I did to Egypt and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to my mountain.

Exodus 19:5 If you carefully obey me and are faithful to the terms of my promise, then out of all the nations you will be my own special possession, even though the whole world is mine.

Exodus 19:6 You will be my kingdom of priests and my holy nation.’ These are the words you must speak to the Israelites.”

Exodus 19:7 So Moses went down and called for the leaders of the people. He repeated to them all the words that the LORD had commanded him.

Exodus 19:8 All the people answered together, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

Exodus 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, “I am coming to you in a storm cloud so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always believe you.” Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

Exodus 19:10 So the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people, and tell them they have two days to get ready. They must set themselves apart as holy. Have them wash their clothes

Exodus 19:11 and be ready by the day after tomorrow. On that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai as all the people watch.

Exodus 19:12 Mark off a boundary around the mountain for the people, and tell them not to go up the mountain or even touch it. Those who touch the mountain must be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 No one should touch them. They must be stoned or shot with arrows. No matter whether it’s an animal or a person, it must not live. The people may go up the mountain [only] when the ram’s horn sounds a long blast.”

Exodus 19:14 After Moses went down the mountain to the people, he had them get ready, and they washed their clothes.

Exodus 19:15 Then Moses said to the people, “Be ready two days from now. Don’t disqualify yourselves by having sexual intercourse.”

Exodus 19:16 On the morning of the second day, there was thunder and lightning with a heavy cloud over the mountain, and a very loud blast from a ram’s horn [was heard]. All the people in the camp shook with fear.

Exodus 19:17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 All of Mount Sinai was covered with smoke because the LORD had come down on it in fire. Smoke rose from the mountain like the smoke from a kiln, and the whole mountain shook violently.

Exodus 19:19 As the sound of the horn grew louder and louder, Moses was speaking, and the voice of God answered him.

Exodus 19:20 The LORD came down on top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up.

Exodus 19:21 The LORD said to him, “Go down and warn the people not to force their way through [the boundary] to see the LORD, or many of them will die.

Exodus 19:22 Even the priests who are allowed to come near the LORD must set themselves apart as holy, or the LORD will violently kill them.”

Exodus 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, “The people can’t come up Mount Sinai, because you warned us yourself to mark off a boundary around the mountain and consider it holy.”

Exodus 19:24 The LORD said to him, “Go down, and bring Aaron back with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through the boundary to come up to the LORD, or he will violently kill them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20:1 Then God spoke all these words:

Exodus 20:2 “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Exodus 20:3 “Never have any other god.

Exodus 20:4 Never make your own carved idols or statues that represent any creature in the sky, on the earth, or in the water.

Exodus 20:5 Never worship them or serve them, because I, the LORD your God, am a God who does not tolerate rivals. I punish children for their parents’ sins to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me.

Exodus 20:6 But I show mercy to thousands of generations of those who love me and obey my commandments.

Exodus 20:7 “Never use the name of the LORD your God carelessly. The LORD will make sure that anyone who carelessly uses his name will be punished.

Exodus 20:8 “Remember the day of worship by observing it as a holy day.

Exodus 20:9 You have six days to do all your work.

Exodus 20:10 The seventh day is the day of worship dedicated to the LORD your God. You, your sons, your daughters, your male and female slaves, your cattle, and the foreigners living in your city must never do any work [on that day].

Exodus 20:11 In six days the LORD made heaven, earth, and the sea, along with everything in them. He didn’t work on the seventh day. That’s why the LORD blessed the day he stopped his work and set this day apart as holy.

Exodus 20:12 “Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live for a long time in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:13 “Never murder.

Exodus 20:14 “Never commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 “Never steal.

Exodus 20:16 “Never lie when you testify about your neighbor.

Exodus 20:17 “Never desire to take your neighbor’s household away from him. “Never desire to take your neighbor’s wife, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey, or anything else that belongs to him.”

Exodus 20:18 All the people heard the thunder and saw the lightning. They heard the blast of the ram's horn and saw the mountain covered with smoke. So they shook with fear and stood at a distance.

Exodus 20:19 Then they said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we'll listen. But don't let God speak to us, or we'll die!"

Exodus 20:20 Moses answered the people, "Don't be afraid! God has come only to test you, so that you will be in awe of him and won't sin."

Exodus 20:21 The people kept their distance while Moses went closer to the dark cloud where God was.

Exodus 20:22 The LORD said to Moses, "This is what you must say to the Israelites: You've seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven.

Exodus 20:23 Never make any gods of silver or gold for yourselves. Never worship them.

Exodus 20:24 "You must build an altar for me made out of dirt. Sacrifice your burnt offerings and your fellowship offerings, your sheep, goats, and cattle on it. Wherever I choose to have my name remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:25 If you build an altar for me made out of stones, never make it with cut stone blocks. If you use a chisel on it, you will make it unacceptable to me.

Exodus 20:26 Never use stairs to go up to my altar. Otherwise, people will be able to see under your clothes."

Exodus 21:1 [The LORD continued,] "Here are the legal decisions to be used by the Israelites:

Exodus 21:2 "Whenever you buy a Hebrew slave, he will be your slave for six years. In the seventh year he may leave as a free man, without paying for his freedom.

Exodus 21:3 If he comes to you by himself, he must leave by himself. If he comes as a married man, his wife may leave with him.

Exodus 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she gives birth to sons or daughters, the wife and her children belong to the master, and the slave must leave by himself.

Exodus 21:5 But if he makes this statement: 'I hereby declare my love for my master, my wife, and my children. I don't want to leave as a free man,'

Exodus 21:6 then his master must bring him to God. The master must bring him to the door or the doorframe and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his slave for life.

Exodus 21:7 "Whenever a man sells his daughter into slavery, she will not go free the way male slaves do.

Exodus 21:8 If she doesn't please the master who has chosen her as a wife, he must let her be bought back by one of her close relatives. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, since he has treated her unfairly.

Exodus 21:9 But if he has chosen her for his son, he must treat her like a daughter.

Exodus 21:10 If that son marries another woman, he must not deprive the first wife of food, clothes, or sex.

Exodus 21:11 If he doesn't give her these three things, she can go free, without paying any money for her freedom.

Exodus 21:12 "Whoever strikes someone and kills him must be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 If it wasn't done intentionally, but God let it happen, the killer should flee to a place I will set aside for you.

Exodus 21:14 But whenever someone becomes so angry that he plans to kill his neighbor, you must take him away from my altar and put him to death.

Exodus 21:15 "Whoever hits his father or mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 "Whoever kidnaps another person must be put to death, whether he has sold the kidnapped person or still has him.

Exodus 21:17 "Whoever curses his father or mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 "This is what you must do whenever men quarrel and one hits the other with a rock or with his fist and injures him so that he has to stay in bed.

Exodus 21:19 If the injured man can get up again and walk around outside with a cane, the one who hit him must not be punished. He must pay the injured man for the loss of his time and for all his medical expenses.

Exodus 21:20 "Whenever an owner hits his male or female slave with a stick so that the slave dies from the beating, the owner must be punished.

Exodus 21:21 But if the slave gets up in a day or two, the owner must not be punished. The slave is his property.

Exodus 21:22 "This is what you must do whenever men fight and injure a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely. If there are no other injuries, the offender must pay whatever fine the court allows the woman's husband to demand.

Exodus 21:23 If anyone is injured, the offender must pay a life for a life,

Exodus 21:24 an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, Exodus 21:25 a burn for a burn, a bruise for a bruise, a wound for a wound.

Exodus 21:26 “Whenever an owner hits his male or female slave in the eye and the slave is blinded, he must let the slave go free to make up for the loss of the eye.

Exodus 21:27 If the owner knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let the slave go free to make up for the loss of the tooth.

Exodus 21:28 “Whenever a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull must be stoned to death, and its meat may not be eaten. The bull’s owner is free from any liability.

Exodus 21:29 But if the bull has had the habit of goring, and the owner has been warned but has not kept it confined, and it kills a man or a woman, then the bull must be stoned and its owner must be put to death, too.

Exodus 21:30 However, if only a cash settlement is demanded from the owner, the bull’s owner may save his life by paying whatever price is demanded of him.

Exodus 21:31 If the bull gores someone’s son or daughter, this same ruling applies.

Exodus 21:32 If the bull gores a male or female slave, its owner must pay 12 ounces of silver to the slave’s master, and the bull must be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 “Whenever someone opens up a cistern or digs a new one and doesn’t cover it and a bull or a donkey falls into it,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the cistern must make up for the loss. He must pay money to the animal’s owner, and then the dead animal will be his.

Exodus 21:35 “Whenever one person’s bull kills another person’s bull, they must sell the live bull and divide the money between them. They must divide the dead bull, too.

Exodus 21:36 However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, and its owner didn’t keep it confined, the owner must make up for the loss-bull for bull-and then the dead bull will be his.”

Exodus 22:1 [The LORD continued,] “Whenever someone steals a bull or a sheep and butchers it or sells it, he must make up for the loss with five head of cattle to replace the bull or four sheep to replace the sheep.

Exodus 22:2 “If anyone catches a thief breaking in and hits him so that he dies, he is not guilty of murder.

Exodus 22:3 But if it happens after sunrise, he is guilty of murder. “A thief must make up for what he has stolen. If he is unable to do so, he must be sold [as a slave] to pay for what he stole.

Exodus 22:4 But if the stolen animal is found alive in his possession, whether it's a bull, donkey, or a sheep, he must make up for the loss with double the amount.

Exodus 22:5 "Whenever someone lets his livestock graze in a field or a vineyard, and they stray and graze in another person's field, he must make up for what the damaged field was expected to produce. But if he lets them ruin the whole field with their grazing, he must make up from his own field for the loss with the best from his field and vineyard.

Exodus 22:6 "Whenever a fire starts and spreads into the underbrush so that it burns up stacked or standing grain or ruins a field, the person who started the fire must make up for the loss.

Exodus 22:7 "This is what you must do whenever someone gives his neighbor silver or [other] valuables to keep for him, and they are stolen from that person's house: If the thief is caught, he must make up for the loss with double the amount.

Exodus 22:8 If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house must be brought to God to find out whether or not he took his neighbor's valuables.

Exodus 22:9 If there is a dispute over the ownership of a bull, a donkey, a sheep, an article of clothing, or any [other] lost property which two people claim as their own, both people must bring their case to God. The one whom God declares guilty must make up for his neighbor's loss with double the amount.

Exodus 22:10 "This is what you must do whenever someone gives his neighbor a donkey, a bull, a sheep, or any other kind of animal to keep for him, and it dies, is injured, or is captured in war, and there are no witnesses.

Exodus 22:11 The case between them must be settled by swearing an oath to the LORD that the neighbor did not take the other person's animal. The owner must accept the oath. The neighbor doesn't have to make up for the loss.

Exodus 22:12 But if the animal was stolen from the neighbor, he must make up for the owner's loss.

Exodus 22:13 If it was killed by a wild animal, he must bring in the dead body as evidence. He doesn't have to make up for an animal that has been killed.

Exodus 22:14 "Whenever someone borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, the borrower must make up for the loss.

Exodus 22:15 If the owner is with the animal, the borrower doesn't have to make up for the loss. If it is rented, the rental fee covers the loss.

Exodus 22:16 “Whenever a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to anyone and has sexual intercourse with her, he must pay the bride-price and marry her.

Exodus 22:17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must pay an amount of money equal to the bride-price for virgins.

Exodus 22:18 “Never let a witch live.

Exodus 22:19 “Whoever has sexual intercourse with an animal must be put to death.

Exodus 22:20 “Whoever sacrifices to any god except the LORD must be condemned and destroyed.

Exodus 22:21 “Never mistreat or oppress foreigners, because you were foreigners living in Egypt.

Exodus 22:22 “Never take advantage of any widow or orphan.

Exodus 22:23 If you do and they cry out to me, you can be sure that I will hear their cry.

Exodus 22:24 I will become angry and have you killed in combat. Then your wives and children will become widows and orphans.

Exodus 22:25 “If you lend money to my people-to any poor person among you-never act like a moneylender. Charge no interest.

Exodus 22:26 If you take any of your neighbor’s clothes as collateral, give it back to him by sunset.

Exodus 22:27 It may be the only clothes he has to cover his body. What else will he sleep in? When he cries out to me, I will listen because I am compassionate.

Exodus 22:28 “Never show disrespect for God or curse a leader of your people.

Exodus 22:29 “Never withhold your best wine from me. “You must give me your firstborn son.

Exodus 22:30 You must do the same with your cattle and your sheep. They will stay with their mothers seven days, but on the eighth day you must give them to me.

Exodus 22:31 “You must be my holy people. Never eat the meat of an animal that has been killed by wild animals out in the countryside. Throw it to the dogs.”

Exodus 23:1 [The LORD continued,] “Never spread false rumors. Don’t join forces with wicked people by giving false testimony.

Exodus 23:2 Never follow a crowd in doing wrong. When you testify in court, don’t side with the majority to pervert justice.

Exodus 23:3 Never give special favors to poor people in court.

Exodus 23:4 “Whenever you come across your enemy’s ox or donkey wandering loose, be sure to take it back to him.

Exodus 23:5 Whenever you see that the donkey of someone who hates you has collapsed under its load, don't leave it there. Be sure to help him with his animal.

Exodus 23:6 "Never deny justice to poor people in court.

Exodus 23:7 Avoid telling lies. Don't kill innocent or honest people, because I will never declare guilty people innocent.

Exodus 23:8 Never take a bribe, because bribes blind those who can see and deny justice to those who are in the right.

Exodus 23:9 "Never oppress foreigners. You know what it's like to be foreigners because you were foreigners living in Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 "For six years you may plant crops in your fields and harvest them,

Exodus 23:11 but in the seventh year you must leave the land unplowed and unused. In that way the poor among your people will have food to eat, and wild animals may eat what the poor people leave. You must do the same with your vineyards and olive groves.

Exodus 23:12 "For six days you will do your work, but on the seventh day you must not work. Then your ox and donkey can rest. The slaves born in your household and foreigners will also be refreshed.

Exodus 23:13 "Be careful [to do] everything I told you. "Never mention the names of other gods or let them be heard on your lips.

Exodus 23:14 "Three times a year you must celebrate a pilgrimage festival in my honor.

Exodus 23:15 "Celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread: For seven days you must eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, because that was when you left Egypt. No one may come into my presence without an offering.

Exodus 23:16 "Celebrate the Festival of the Harvest with the first produce harvested from whatever you plant in your fields. "Celebrate the Festival of the Final Harvest at the end of the year when you harvest your crops from the fields.

Exodus 23:17 "These are the three times each year that all your men must come into the presence of the Master, the LORD.

Exodus 23:18 "Never offer the blood of a sacrifice to me at the same time you offer anything containing yeast. The fat sacrificed at my festivals should never be left over in the morning.

Exodus 23:19 "You must bring the best of the first produce harvested from your soil to the house of the LORD your God. "Never cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

Exodus 23:20 "I'm going to send a Messenger in front of you to protect you on your trip and bring you to the place I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 Pay attention to him, and listen to him. Don't defy him, because he will not forgive your disobedience. He is acting on my authority.

Exodus 23:22 But if you will listen to him and do everything I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an opponent to your opponents.

Exodus 23:23 "My Messenger will go ahead of you and will bring you to [the land of] the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites. I will wipe them out.

Exodus 23:24 Never worship or serve their gods or follow their practices. Instead, you must destroy their gods and crush their sacred stones.

Exodus 23:25 You must serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your food and water. I will take away all sickness from among you.

Exodus 23:26 No woman in your land will miscarry or be unable to have children. I will let you live a normal life span.

Exodus 23:27 "I will send my terror ahead of you and throw any nation you meet into a panic. I will make all your enemies flee from you.

Exodus 23:28 I will spread panic ahead of you to force the Hivites, Canaanites, and Hittites out of your way.

Exodus 23:29 I will not force them out of your way in one year. Otherwise, the land would be deserted, and wild animals would take over.

Exodus 23:30 Little by little I will force them out of your way until you have increased enough in number to take possession of the land.

Exodus 23:31 "I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea and from the Sinai Desert to the Euphrates River. I will put the people living in the land under your control, and you will force them out of your way.

Exodus 23:32 Never make a treaty with them and their gods.

Exodus 23:33 Never let them live in your land, or they will make you sin against me and trap you into serving their gods."

Exodus 24:1 The LORD said to Moses, "You and Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and 70 of Israel's leaders come up the mountain to me and worship at a distance.

Exodus 24:2 Moses may come near the LORD, but the others may not. The people must not come along with Moses."

Exodus 24:3 Moses went and told the people all the LORD's words and legal decisions. Then all the people answered with one voice, "We will do everything the LORD has told us to do."

Exodus 24:4 So Moses wrote down all the LORD's words. Early the next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain and [set up] 12 sacred stones for the 12 tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 Then he sent young Israelite men, and they sacrificed bulls as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Exodus 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it into bowls, and he threw the other half against the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the Book of the LORD's Promise and read it while the people listened. They said, "We will obey and do everything the LORD has said."

Exodus 24:8 Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people and said, "Here is the blood which seals the promise that the LORD has made to you based on everything you have just heard."

Exodus 24:9 Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and 70 of Israel's leaders.

Exodus 24:10 They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made out of sapphire as clear and blue as the sky itself.

Exodus 24:11 God didn't harm these leaders of the Israelites. So they saw God, and then they ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain. Stay there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the teachings and the commandments I have written for the people's instruction."

Exodus 24:13 Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up on the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 He said to the leaders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are here with you. Take all your disagreements to them."

Exodus 24:15 So Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered it.

Exodus 24:16 The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered it, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from inside the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 To the Israelites, the glory of the LORD looked like a raging fire on top of the mountain.

Exodus 24:18 Moses entered the cloud as he went up the mountain. He stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights.

Exodus 25:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 25:2 "Tell the Israelites to choose something to give me as a special contribution. You must accept whatever contribution each person freely gives.

Exodus 25:3 This is the kind of contribution you will accept from them: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 25:4 violet, purple, and bright red yarn, fine linen, goats' hair,

Exodus 25:5 rams' skins dyed red, fine leather, acacia wood,

Exodus 25:6 olive oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet-smelling incense,

Exodus 25:7 onyx stones, and other precious stones to be set in the [chief priest's] ephod and his breastplate.

Exodus 25:8 "Then have them make a holy place for me, and I will live among them.

Exodus 25:9 Make the tent and all its furnishings exactly like the plans I am showing you.

Exodus 25:10 "Make an ark of acacia wood 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high.

Exodus 25:11 Cover it with pure gold inside and out, and put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 25:12 Cast four gold rings for it, and fasten them to its four feet, two rings on each side.

Exodus 25:13 Make poles of acacia wood, and cover them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 Put the poles through the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry it.

Exodus 25:15 The poles must stay in the rings of the ark. Never remove them.

Exodus 25:16 Then you will put into the ark the words of my promise which I will give you.

Exodus 25:17 "Make a throne of mercy to cover the ark out of pure gold 45 inches long and 27 inches wide.

Exodus 25:18 Make two angels out of hammered gold for the two ends of the throne of mercy,

Exodus 25:19 one on each end. Form the angels and the throne of mercy out of one piece of gold.

Exodus 25:20 The angels should have their wings spread above the throne of mercy, overshadowing it. They should face each other, looking at the throne of mercy.

Exodus 25:21 After you put into the ark the words of my promise which I will give you, place the throne of mercy on top.

Exodus 25:22 I will be above the throne of mercy between the angels whenever I meet with you and give you all my commands for the Israelites.

Exodus 25:23 “Make a table of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high.

Exodus 25:24 Cover it with pure gold, and put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 25:25 Make a rim three inches wide around it, and put a gold molding around the rim.

Exodus 25:26 Make four gold rings for it, and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are.

Exodus 25:27 The rings are to be close to the rim. They are to hold the poles for carrying the table.

Exodus 25:28 Make the poles out of acacia wood, cover them with gold, and use them to carry the table.

Exodus 25:29 Make plates and dishes for the table out of pure gold, as well as pitchers and bowls to be used for pouring wine offerings.

Exodus 25:30 Put the bread of the presence on this table so that it will be in front of me all the time.

Exodus 25:31 “Make a lamp stand out of pure gold. The lamp stand, its base, and its shaft, as well as the flower cups, buds, and petals must be hammered out of one piece of gold.

Exodus 25:32 Six branches are to come out of the sides, three branches on one side and three on the other.

Exodus 25:33 Each of the six branches coming out of the lamp stand is to have three flower cups shaped like almond blossoms, with buds and petals.

Exodus 25:34 The lamp stand itself is to have four flower cups shaped like almond blossoms, with buds and petals.

Exodus 25:35 There should be a bud under each of the three pairs of branches coming out of the lamp stand.

Exodus 25:36 The buds and branches should also be hammered out of the same piece of pure gold as the lamp stand.

Exodus 25:37 “Make seven lamps, and set them on the lamp stand so that they light up [the area] in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 The tongs and incense burners must be made of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 Use 75 pounds of pure gold to make the lamp stand and all the utensils.

Exodus 25:40 Be sure to make them according to the plans you were shown on the mountain.”

Exodus 26:1 [The LORD continued,] “Make the inner tent with ten sheets made from fine linen yarn. Take violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and creatively work an angel design into the fabric.

Exodus 26:2 Each sheet will be 42 feet long and 6 feet wide-all the same size.

Exodus 26:3 Five of the sheets must be sewn together, and the other five must also be sewn together.

Exodus 26:4 Make 50 violet loops along the edge of the end sheet in each set,

Exodus 26:5 placing the loops opposite each other.

Exodus 26:6 Make 50 gold fasteners. Use them to link the [two sets of] sheets together so that the tent is a single unit.

Exodus 26:7 “Make 11 sheets of goats’ hair to form an outer tent over the inner tent.

Exodus 26:8 Each of the 11 sheets will be 45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

Exodus 26:9 Sew five of the sheets together into one set and the remaining six into another set. Fold the sixth sheet in half [to hang] in front of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 Make 50 loops along the edge of the end sheet in each set.

Exodus 26:11 Make 50 bronze fasteners, and put them through the loops to link the inner tent together as a single unit.

Exodus 26:12 The remaining half-sheet should hang over the back of the inner tent.

Exodus 26:13 There will be 18 inches left over on each side because of the length of the outer tent’s sheets. That part should hang over each side in order to cover the inner tent.

Exodus 26:14 Make a cover of rams’ skins that have been dyed red for the outer tent. Over that put a cover made of fine leather.

Exodus 26:15 “Make a framework out of acacia wood for the inner tent.

Exodus 26:16 Each frame is to be 15 feet long and 27 inches wide,

Exodus 26:17 with two identical pegs. Make all the frames for the inner tent the same way.

Exodus 26:18 Make 20 frames for the south side of the inner tent.

Exodus 26:19 Then make 40 silver sockets at the bottom of the 20 frames, two sockets at the bottom of each frame for the two pegs.

Exodus 26:20 For the north side of the inner tent [make] 20 frames

Exodus 26:21 and 40 silver sockets, two at the bottom of each frame.

Exodus 26:22 Make six frames for the far end, the west side.

Exodus 26:23 Make two frames for [each of] the corners at the far end of the inner tent.

Exodus 26:24 These will be held together at the bottom and held tightly at the top by a single ring. Both corner frames will be made this way.

Exodus 26:25 There will be eight frames with 16 silver sockets, two at the bottom of each frame.

Exodus 26:26 “Make crossbars out of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the inner tent,

Exodus 26:27 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the far end of the inner tent, the west side.

Exodus 26:28 The middle crossbar will run from one end to the other, halfway up the frames.

Exodus 26:29 Cover the frames with gold, make gold rings to hold the crossbars, and cover the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 “Set up the inner tent according to the plans you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 “Make a canopy of violet, purple, and bright red yarn. Creatively work an angel design into fine linen yarn.

Exodus 26:32 Use gold hooks to hang it on four posts of acacia wood covered with gold, standing in four silver sockets.

Exodus 26:33 Hang the canopy from the fasteners in the ceiling, and put the ark containing the words of my promise under it. The canopy will mark off the most holy place from the holy place.

Exodus 26:34 Put the throne of mercy that is on the ark in the most holy place.

Exodus 26:35 “Place the table outside the canopy on the north side of the inner tent, and put the lamp stand opposite the table on the south side.

Exodus 26:36 “For the entrance of the outer tent, make a screen out of fine linen yarn, embroidered with violet, purple, and bright red yarn.

Exodus 26:37 Make five posts of acacia wood for the screen and cover them with gold. Make gold hooks for this screen. Cast five bronze bases for the posts.”

Exodus 27:1 [The LORD continued,] “Make an altar out of acacia wood. It should be 71/2 feet square, and 41/2 feet high.

Exodus 27:2 Make a horn at each of its four corners. The four horns and the altar must be made out of one piece [of wood] covered with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 “Make all the utensils for it out of bronze: pots for taking away the altar’s ashes, also shovels, bowls, forks, and incense burners.

Exodus 27:4 “Make a grate for it out of bronze mesh, and make a bronze ring for [each of] the four corners of the grate.

Exodus 27:5 Put the grate under the ledge of the altar so that it comes halfway up the altar.

Exodus 27:6 “Make poles out of acacia wood for the altar, and cover them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 The poles should be put through the rings on both sides of the altar to carry it.

Exodus 27:8 “Make the altar out of boards so that it’s hollow inside. It must be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 27:9 “Make a courtyard for the tent. The south side of the courtyard should be 150 feet long and have curtains made out of fine linen yarn,

Exodus 27:10 [hung] on 20 posts [set in] 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands on the posts should be made of silver.

Exodus 27:11 The north side should be the same: 150 feet long, with curtains on 20 posts set in 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands on the posts should be made of silver.

Exodus 27:12 “The courtyard on the west end should be 75 feet wide and have curtains [hung] on ten posts [set in] ten bases.

Exodus 27:13 On the east end, facing the rising sun, the courtyard should also be 75 feet wide.

Exodus 27:14 Each side [of the entrance] will be 221/2 feet wide with curtains [hung on] three posts [set in] three bases.

Exodus 27:15

Exodus 27:16 “The entrance to the courtyard must have a 30-foot screen made from fine linen yarn, embroidered with violet, purple, and bright red yarn, [hung] on four posts [set in] four bases.

Exodus 27:17 All the posts around the courtyard should have silver bands, silver hooks, and bronze bases.

Exodus 27:18 The courtyard should be 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 71/2 feet high, with [curtains] made of fine linen yarn and with bronze bases.

Exodus 27:19 “All the things for the tent, no matter how they’re used, including all the pegs for the tent and the courtyard, must be made of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 “For the lighting, you must command the Israelites to bring you pure, virgin olive oil so that the lamps won’t go out.

Exodus 27:21 In the tent of meeting outside the canopy where the words of my promise are, Aaron and his descendants must keep the lamps lit in the LORD’s presence from evening until morning. This is a permanent law among the Israelites for generations to come.”

Exodus 28:1 [The LORD continued,] “Out of all the Israelites, bring your brother Aaron and his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar to you. They will serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:2 Make holy clothes for your brother Aaron to give him dignity and honor.

Exodus 28:3 “Tell all those who have the skill-those to whom I have given this ability-to make Aaron’s clothes. These clothes will set him apart as holy when he serves me as priest.

Exodus 28:4 These are the clothes they will make: a breastplate, an ephod and the robe that is worn with it, another specially woven linen robe, the chief priest’s turban, and a cloth belt. They will make these holy clothes for your brother Aaron and his sons so that they can serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:5 They must use gold, violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and fine linen.

Exodus 28:6 “Make the ephod out of fine linen yarn. Creatively work gold, violet, purple, and bright red yarn into the fabric.

Exodus 28:7 It will have two shoulder straps attached at the [top] corners so that it can be fastened.

Exodus 28:8 Make the belt that is attached to the ephod out of the same fabric.

Exodus 28:9 Take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel

Exodus 28:10 in birth order-six of their names on one stone and the remaining six on the other.

Exodus 28:11 Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the same way a jeweler engraves a signet ring. Mount them in gold settings,

Exodus 28:12 and fasten them on the shoulder straps of the ephod as reminders of who the Israelites are. In this way Aaron will carry their names on his shoulders as a reminder in the LORD’s presence.

Exodus 28:13 Make gold settings

Exodus 28:14 and two chains of pure gold, twisted like ropes, and fasten these chains to the settings.

Exodus 28:15 “Make the breastplate for decision-making as creatively as you make the ephod. Make it out of gold, violet, purple, and bright red yarn and out of fine linen yarn.

Exodus 28:16 Fold it in half so that it’s 9 inches square.

Exodus 28:17 Fasten four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row put red quartz, topaz, and emerald.

Exodus 28:18 In the second row put turquoise, sapphire, and crystal.

Exodus 28:19 In the third row put jacinth, agate, and amethyst.

Exodus 28:20 In the fourth row put beryl, onyx, and gray quartz. Mount them in gold settings.

Exodus 28:21 The stones correspond to the 12 sons of Israel, by name, each stone engraved (like a signet ring) with the name of one of the 12 tribes.

Exodus 28:22 “For the breastplate make chains out of pure gold, twisted like ropes.

Exodus 28:23 Make two gold rings for the breastplate. Attach them to the two [top] corners of the breastplate.

Exodus 28:24 Then fasten the two gold ropes to the rings at the [top] corners of the breastplate.

Exodus 28:25 Fasten the other ends of the ropes to the two settings on the shoulder straps of the ephod [so that the breastplate hangs] in front of it.

Exodus 28:26 Make two gold rings, and fasten them to the other two corners of the breastplate on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 28:27 Make two [more] gold rings, and fasten them to the bottom of the shoulder straps on the front of the ephod. This will be close to the seam just above the belt of the ephod.

Exodus 28:28 Then the breastplate should be fastened by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord. This will attach it just above the belt of the ephod and will hold the breastplate in place.

Exodus 28:29 “Whenever Aaron goes into the holy place, he will be carrying the names of the sons of Israel over his heart as a constant reminder in the LORD’s presence. He must do this by wearing the breastplate for decision-making.

Exodus 28:30 Put the Urim and Thummim into the breastplate for decision-making. They, too, will be over Aaron’s heart when he comes into the LORD’s presence. In this way whenever he’s in the LORD’s presence, Aaron will always be carrying over his heart the [means for determining the LORD’s] decisions for the Israelites.

Exodus 28:31 “Make the robe that is worn with the ephod entirely of violet material.

Exodus 28:32 Make an opening for the head in the center with a reinforced edge (like a leather collar) all around it to keep it from tearing.

Exodus 28:33 All around the hem of the robe make pomegranates of violet, purple, and bright red yarn with gold bells in between-

Exodus 28:34 a gold bell alternating with a pomegranate all around the hem of the robe.

Exodus 28:35 Aaron must wear it when he serves as priest. The sound of the bells must be heard when he comes into and goes out of the LORD's presence in the holy place so that he won't die.

Exodus 28:36 "Make a flower-shaped medallion out of pure gold, and engrave on it (as on a signet ring): Holy to the LORD.

Exodus 28:37 Fasten a violet cord to it, and tie it so that it's on the front of the turban.

Exodus 28:38 It will be on Aaron's forehead. He's the one to be blamed for anything done wrong when the Israelites bring their holy offerings-whatever their gifts may be. The medallion must always be on Aaron's forehead so that the LORD will accept their offerings.

Exodus 28:39 "Make the specially woven inner robe of fine linen. Make the turban of fine linen, but the belt should be embroidered with colored yarn.

Exodus 28:40 "Also make linen robes, belts, and turbans for Aaron's sons. These clothes will give them dignity and honor.

Exodus 28:41 Put these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint them, ordain them, and set them apart to serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:42 "Make linen undergarments to cover them down to their thighs.

Exodus 28:43 Aaron and his sons must wear them when they go into the tent of meeting or when they come near the altar to serve as priests in the holy place. Then they will be blameless and won't die. "This is a permanent law for him and his descendants."

Exodus 29:1 [The LORD continued,] "Now, this is what you must do in order to set Aaron and his sons apart to serve me as priests: "Take a young bull that has no defects and two rams that have no defects.

Exodus 29:2 Use the finest wheat flour, but no yeast, and bake some loaves of bread, some rings of bread made with olive oil, and some wafers brushed with olive oil.

Exodus 29:3 Put the bread in a basket, and bring the basket along with the young bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 "Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them.

Exodus 29:5 Take the clothes, and put them on Aaron-the linen robe, the ephod and the robe that is worn with it, and the breastplate. Use the belt to tie it on him tightly.

Exodus 29:6 Put his turban on him, and fasten the holy crown to it.

Exodus 29:7 Take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him.

Exodus 29:8 "Have his sons come forward. Dress them in their linen robes, Exodus 29:9 and put turbans on them. Tie belts around the waists of Aaron and his sons. They alone are to be priests; this is a permanent law. In this way you will ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 “Then bring the young bull to the front of the tent of meeting. Aaron and his sons will place their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:11 Slaughter the bull in the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:12 Take some of the bull’s blood, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger. Pour the rest of it out at the bottom of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 “Then take all the fat that covers the internal organs, the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 But burn the bull’s meat, skin, and excrement outside the camp. It is an offering for sin.

Exodus 29:15 “Take one of the rams. Then Aaron and his sons will place their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:16 Slaughter it, take the blood, and throw it against the altar on all sides.

Exodus 29:17 Cut the ram into pieces, wash the internal organs and legs, and put them with the other pieces and the head.

Exodus 29:18 Then burn the whole ram on the altar. It’s a burnt offering, a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:19 “Take the other ram. Then Aaron and his sons will place their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:20 Slaughter it, take some of the blood, and put it on the right ear lobes of Aaron and his sons, on their right thumbs, and on the big toes of their right feet. Throw the [rest of the] blood against the altar on all sides.

Exodus 29:21 Take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and their clothes. In this way Aaron, his sons, and their clothes will be holy.

Exodus 29:22 “From this [same] ram take the fat, the fat from the tail, the fat that covers the internal organs, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram for the ordination.)

Exodus 29:23 From the basket of unleavened bread which is in the LORD’s presence, take a round loaf of bread, a ring of bread made with olive oil, and a wafer.

Exodus 29:24 Put all of these in the hands of Aaron and his sons, who will offer them to the LORD.

Exodus 29:25 Then take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. It’s a soothing aroma in the LORD’s presence, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:26 “Take the breast from the ram used for Aaron’s ordination, and present it to the LORD. This will be your share.

Exodus 29:27 Set apart as holy the breast that is offered to the LORD and the thigh that is the contribution. Both will come from the ram used for the ordination. They both belong to Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:28 It is a permanent law that the Israelites give this portion to Aaron and his sons as a contribution. This will also be their contribution to the LORD from the fellowship offerings.

Exodus 29:29 “Aaron’s holy clothes will belong to his descendants so that they can be anointed and ordained in them.

Exodus 29:30 The son who succeeds him as priest-the one who goes into the tent of meeting to serve in the holy place-will wear them for seven days.

Exodus 29:31 “Take the ram used for the ordination, and boil its meat in a holy place.

Exodus 29:32 At the entrance to the tent of meeting, Aaron and his sons will eat the meat of the ram and the bread [left] in the basket.

Exodus 29:33 They will eat those offerings through which they made peace with the LORD at their ordination and installation. No one else may eat them because the offerings are holy.

Exodus 29:34 If any meat or bread from the ordination is left over until morning, burn it up. It must not be eaten because it is holy.

Exodus 29:35 “Do this with Aaron and his sons exactly as I have commanded you. Take seven days to ordain them.

Exodus 29:36 Each day sacrifice a young bull as an offering to make peace with the LORD. Sacrifice this offering for sin on the altar in order to pay for its sins. Then anoint it [with olive oil] in order to dedicate it.

Exodus 29:37 For seven days at the altar make peace with the LORD and set the altar apart for its holy purpose. Then the altar will be most holy. Anything that touches the altar will become holy.

Exodus 29:38 “This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly every day: two one-year-old lambs.

Exodus 29:39 Offer one in the morning and the other at dusk.

Exodus 29:40 With the first lamb make an offering of eight cups of flour mixed with one quart of virgin olive oil. Make a wine offering of one quart of wine.

Exodus 29:41 Offer the other lamb at dusk, and with it make the same grain offering and wine offering as in the morning. This is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:42 “For generations to come this will be the daily burnt offering [made] in the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting. There I will meet with you to speak to you.

Exodus 29:43 I will also meet with the Israelites there, and my glory will make this place holy.

Exodus 29:44 I will dedicate the tent of meeting and the altar for their holy purposes. I will set Aaron and his sons apart for their holy duties of serving me as priests.

Exodus 29:45 “Then I will live among the Israelites and be their God.

Exodus 29:46 They will know that I am the LORD their God. I brought them out of Egypt so that I might live among them. I am the LORD their God.”

Exodus 30:1 [The LORD continued,] “Build an altar out of acacia wood for burning incense.

Exodus 30:2 Make it 18 inches square and 36 inches high. The horns and altar must be made out of one piece [of wood].

Exodus 30:3 Cover all of it with pure gold-the top, the sides, and the horns. Put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 30:4 Make two gold rings, and put them below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles for carrying it.

Exodus 30:5 Make the poles out of acacia wood, and cover them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 Put the altar in front of the canopy which [hangs] over the ark containing the words of my promise. I will meet with you there in front of the throne of mercy that is on the ark.

Exodus 30:7 “Aaron must burn sweet-smelling incense on this altar every morning when he takes care of the lamps.

Exodus 30:8 Also, when Aaron lights the lamps at dusk, he must burn incense. For generations to come an incense offering must burn constantly in the LORD’s presence.

Exodus 30:9 “Never burn any unauthorized incense on this altar or any burnt offerings or grain offerings. Never pour a wine offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 Once a year Aaron must make peace with the LORD by putting blood on its horns. Once a year-for generations to come-blood from the offering must be placed on the altar to make peace with the LORD. It is most holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 30:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:12 “When you take a census of the Israelites, each person must pay the LORD a ransom for his life when he is counted. Then no plague will happen to them when they are counted.

Exodus 30:13 As each person is counted, he must give one-fifth of an ounce of silver using the standard weight of the holy place. This one-fifth of an ounce of silver is a contribution to the LORD.

Exodus 30:14 Everyone counted who is at least 20 years old must give this contribution to the LORD.

Exodus 30:15 The rich must not give more than one-fifth of an ounce of silver, and the poor must not give less. This contribution is given to make peace with the LORD and make your lives acceptable to the LORD.

Exodus 30:16 Take the money the Israelites give to make peace with the LORD, and use it to pay the expenses of the tent of meeting. It will be a reminder for the Israelites in the LORD's presence that the sins in their lives are removed."

Exodus 30:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:18 "Make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. Put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and fill it with water.

Exodus 30:19 Aaron and his sons will use it for washing their hands and feet.

Exodus 30:20 Before they go into the tent of meeting, they must wash so that they will not die. Before they come near the altar to serve as priests and burn an offering by fire to the LORD,

Exodus 30:21 they will wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This will be a permanent law for him and his descendants for generations to come."

Exodus 30:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:23 "Take the finest spices: 121/2 pounds of powdered myrrh; half as much, that is, 61/4 pounds of fragrant cinnamon; 61/4 pounds of fragrant cane;

Exodus 30:24 121/2 pounds of cassia-all weighed using the standard weight of the holy place-and 4 quarts of olive oil.

Exodus 30:25 Have a perfumer make these into a holy oil, a fragrant mixture, used only for anointing. This will be the holy oil used for anointing.

Exodus 30:26 "Use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark containing the words of my promise,

Exodus 30:27 the table and all the dishes, the lamp stand and all the utensils, the altar for incense,

Exodus 30:28 the altar for burnt offerings and all its accessories, and the basin with its stand.

Exodus 30:29 In this way you will dedicate them for their holy purpose. Then they will be most holy, and anything that touches them will become holy.

Exodus 30:30 Anoint Aaron and his sons as well. In this way you will set them apart for their holy duties of serving me as priests.

Exodus 30:31 “Say to the Israelites, ‘For generations to come, this will be my holy oil used only for anointing.

Exodus 30:32 It must never be poured on the bodies of other people. Never make any perfumed oil using this formula. It is holy, and you must treat it as holy.

Exodus 30:33 Whoever prepares a perfume like this or puts it on anyone who is not a priest must be excluded from the people.’”

Exodus 30:34 The LORD said to Moses, “Take one part fragrant spices (two kinds of gum resin and aromatic mollusk shells), and mix them with one part pure frankincense.

Exodus 30:35 Have a perfumer make it into fragrant incense, seasoned with salt, pure and holy.

Exodus 30:36 Grind some of it into a fine powder, and put it in front of [the ark containing] the words of my promise in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. You must treat it as most holy.

Exodus 30:37 Never make any incense for yourselves using this formula. Treat it as holy to the LORD.

Exodus 30:38 Whoever prepares anything like it for his own enjoyment must be excluded from his people.”

Exodus 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 31:2 “I have chosen Bezalel, son of Uri and grandson of Hur, from the tribe of Judah.

Exodus 31:3 I have filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God, making him highly skilled, resourceful, and knowledgeable in all trades.

Exodus 31:4 He’s a master artist familiar with gold, silver, and bronze.

Exodus 31:5 He knows how to cut and set stones and how to work with wood. He’s an expert in all trades.

Exodus 31:6 Also, I have appointed Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan, to help him. I have given every craftsman the skill necessary to make everything I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 the tent of meeting, the ark containing the words of my promise with the throne of mercy on it, and all the [other] furnishings for the tent,

Exodus 31:8 the table and the dishes, the pure [gold] lamp stand and all its utensils, the altar for incense, Exodus 31:9 the altar for burnt offerings and all its accessories, the basin with its stand,

Exodus 31:10 the special clothes-the holy clothes for the priest Aaron and the clothes for his sons when they serve as priests,

Exodus 31:11 the anointing oil, and the sweet-smelling incense for the holy place. They will make all these things as I commanded you.”

Exodus 31:12 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 31:13 “Say to the Israelites, ‘Be sure to observe my days of worship. This will be a sign between me and you for generations to come so that you will know that I am the LORD who makes you holy.

Exodus 31:14 “ ‘Observe the day of worship because it is holy to you. Whoever treats it like any other day must be put to death. Whoever works on that day must be excluded from the people.

Exodus 31:15 You may work for six days, but the seventh day is a day of worship, a day when you don’t work. It is holy to the LORD. Whoever works on that day must be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 The Israelites must observe this day of worship, celebrating it for generations to come as a permanent reminder of my promise.

Exodus 31:17 It will be a permanent sign between me and the Israelites, because the LORD made heaven and earth in six days, and on the seventh day he stopped working and was refreshed.’”

Exodus 31:18 The LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then he gave him the two tablets with his words on them, stone tablets inscribed by God himself.

Exodus 32:1 When the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron. They said to him, “We don’t know what has happened to this Moses, who led us out of Egypt. Make gods who will lead us.”

Exodus 32:2 Aaron said to them, “Have your wives, sons, and daughters take off the gold earrings they are wearing, and bring them to me.”

Exodus 32:3 So all the people took off their gold earrings and handed them to Aaron.

Exodus 32:4 After he had worked on the gold with a tool, he made it into a statue of a calf. Then they said, “Israel, here are your gods who brought you out of Egypt.”

Exodus 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of it and announced, “Tomorrow there will be a festival in the LORD’s honor.”

Exodus 32:6 Early the next day the people sacrificed burnt offerings and brought fellowship offerings. Afterward, they sat down to a feast, which turned into an orgy.

Exodus 32:7 The LORD said to Moses, “Go back down there. Your people whom you brought out of Egypt have ruined [everything].

Exodus 32:8 They’ve already turned from the way I commanded them to live. They’ve made a statue of a calf for themselves. They’ve bowed down to it and offered sacrifices to it. They’ve said, ‘Israel, here are your gods who brought you out of Egypt.’”

Exodus 32:9 The LORD added, “I’ve seen these people, and they are impossible to deal with.

Exodus 32:10 Now leave me alone. I’m so angry with them I am going to destroy them. Then I’ll make you into a great nation.”

Exodus 32:11 But Moses pleaded with the LORD his God. “LORD,” he said, “why are you so angry with your people whom you brought out of Egypt using your great power and mighty hand?

Exodus 32:12 Don’t let the Egyptians say, ‘He was planning all along to kill them in the mountains and wipe them off the face of the earth. That’s why he brought them out [of our land].’ Don’t be so angry. Reconsider your decision to bring this disaster on your people.

Exodus 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel. You took an oath, swearing on yourself. You told them, ‘I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky. I will give to your descendants all the land I spoke of. It will be their permanent possession.’”

Exodus 32:14 So the LORD reconsidered his threat to destroy his people.

Exodus 32:15 Moses turned and went down the mountain carrying the two tablets with God’s words. They were written on both sides, front and back.

Exodus 32:16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was God’s writing inscribed on the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 Then Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting. He said to Moses, “It’s the sound of war in the camp!”

Exodus 32:18 Moses replied, “It’s not the sound of winners shouting. It’s not the sound of losers crying. It’s the sound of a wild celebration that I hear.”

Exodus 32:19 When he came near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. In a burst of anger Moses threw down the tablets and smashed them at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 Then he took the calf they had made, burned it, ground it into powder, scattered it on the water, and made the Israelites drink it.

Exodus 32:21 Moses asked Aaron, “What did these people do to you that you encouraged them to commit such a serious sin?”

Exodus 32:22 “Don’t be angry, sir,” Aaron answered. “You know that these people are evil.

Exodus 32:23 They said to me, ‘We don’t know what’s happened to this Moses who brought us out of Egypt. Make gods for us. They will lead us.’

Exodus 32:24 So I told them to take off any gold they were wearing. They gave it to me. I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!”

Exodus 32:25 Aaron had let the people get out of control, and they became an object of ridicule to their enemies. When Moses saw this,

Exodus 32:26 he stood at the entrance to the camp and said, “If you’re on the LORD’s side, come over here to me!” Then all the Levites gathered around him.

Exodus 32:27 He said to them, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Each of you put on your sword. Go back and forth from one end of the camp to the other, and kill your relatives, friends, and neighbors.”

Exodus 32:28 The Levites did what Moses told them, and that day about 3,000 people died.

Exodus 32:29 Moses said, “Today you are ordained as the LORD’s priests. God gave you a blessing today because each of you fought with your own sons and brothers.”

Exodus 32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a serious sin. Now I will go up the mountain to the LORD. Maybe I will be able to make a payment for your sin and make peace with the LORD for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 So Moses went back to the LORD and said, “These people have committed such a serious sin! They made gods out of gold for themselves.

Exodus 32:32 But will you forgive their sin? If not, please wipe me out of the book you have written.”

Exodus 32:33 The LORD answered Moses, “I will wipe out of my book whoever sins against me.

Exodus 32:34 Now, go! Lead the people to the place I told you about. My Messenger will go ahead of you. But when I punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

Exodus 32:35 So the LORD killed people because they had Aaron make the calf.

Exodus 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “You and the people you brought out of Egypt must leave this place. Go to the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob with an oath, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’

Exodus 33:2 I will send a Messenger ahead of you, and I will force out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

Exodus 33:3 Go to that land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not be with you, because you are impossible to deal with, and I would destroy you on the way."

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard this bad news, they acted as if someone had died. No one wore any jewelry.

Exodus 33:5 The LORD had said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are impossible to deal with. If I were with you, I might destroy you at any time. Now take off your jewelry, and I'll decide what to do with you.'"

Exodus 33:6 After they left Mount Horeb, the Israelites no longer wore their jewelry.

Exodus 33:7 Now, Moses used to take a tent and set it up far outside the camp. He called it the tent of meeting. Anyone who was seeking the LORD's will used to go outside the camp to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 33:8 Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand at the entrances to their tents and watch Moses until he went in.

Exodus 33:9 As soon as Moses went into the tent, the column of smoke would come down and stay at the entrance to the tent while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Exodus 33:10 When all the people saw the column of smoke standing at the entrance to the tent, they would all bow with their faces touching the ground at the entrance to their own tents.

Exodus 33:11 The LORD would speak to Moses personally, as a man speaks to his friend. Then Moses would come back to the camp, but his assistant, Joshua, son of Nun, stayed inside the tent.

Exodus 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, "You've been telling me to lead these people, but you haven't let me know whom you're sending with me. You've also said, 'I know you by name, and I'm pleased with you.'

Exodus 33:13 If you really are pleased with me, show me your ways so that I can know you and so that you will continue to be pleased with me. Remember: This nation is your people."

Exodus 33:14 The LORD answered, "My presence will go [with you,] and I will give you peace."

Exodus 33:15 Then Moses said to him, "If your presence is not going [with us], don't make us leave this place.

Exodus 33:16 How will anyone ever know you're pleased with your people and me unless you go with us? Then we will be different from all other people on the face of the earth."

Exodus 33:17 The LORD answered Moses, "I will do what you have asked, because I am pleased with you, and I know you by name."

Exodus 33:18 Then Moses said, "Please let me see your glory."

Exodus 33:19 The LORD said, “I will let all my goodness pass in front of you, and there I will call out my name ‘the LORD.’ I will be kind to anyone I want to. I will be merciful to anyone I want to.

Exodus 33:20 But you can’t see my face, because no one may see me and live.”

Exodus 33:21 Then the LORD said, “Look, there’s a place near me. Stand by this rocky cliff.

Exodus 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a crevice in the cliff and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Exodus 33:23 Then I will take my hand away, and you’ll see my back, but my face must not be seen.”

Exodus 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Cut two [more] stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets which you smashed.

Exodus 34:2 Be ready in the morning. Then come up on Mount Sinai, and stand in my presence on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 No one may come with you or even be seen anywhere on the mountain. Even the flocks and herds may not graze in front of this mountain.”

Exodus 34:4 So Moses cut two [more] stone tablets like the first ones. Early the next morning he went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, carrying the two stone tablets.

Exodus 34:5 The LORD came down in a cloud and stood there with him and called out his name “the LORD.”

Exodus 34:6 Then he passed in front of Moses, calling out, “The LORD, the LORD, a compassionate and merciful God, patient, always faithful and ready to forgive.

Exodus 34:7 He continues to show his love to thousands of generations, forgiving wrongdoing, disobedience, and sin. He never lets the guilty go unpunished, punishing children and grandchildren for their parents’ sins to the third and fourth generation.”

Exodus 34:8 Immediately, Moses knelt, bowing with his face touching the ground.

Exodus 34:9 Then he said, “Lord, please go with us! Even though we are impossible to deal with, forgive our sin and the wrong we have done, and accept us as your own people.”

Exodus 34:10 The LORD said, “I’m making my promise again. In front of all your people I will perform miracles that have never been done in any other nation in all the world. All the people around you will see how awesome these miracles are that I will perform for you.

Exodus 34:11 Do everything that I command today. Then I will force the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites out of your way.

Exodus 34:12 Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you're going. This will prove to be a trap to you.

Exodus 34:13 But tear down their altars, crush their sacred stones, and cut down their poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah.

Exodus 34:14 (Never worship any other god, because the LORD is a God who does not tolerate rivals. In fact, he is known for not tolerating rivals.)

Exodus 34:15 Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in that land. When they chase after their gods as though they were prostitutes and sacrifice to them, they may invite you to eat the meat from their sacrifices with them.

Exodus 34:16 Then your sons will end up marrying their daughters. When their daughters chase after their gods as though they were prostitutes, they'll lead your sons to do the same thing.

Exodus 34:17 "Never make an idol.

Exodus 34:18 "You must celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you must eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, because in that month you came out of Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 "Every first male offspring is mine, even the firstborn males of all your livestock, whether cattle, sheep, or goats.

Exodus 34:20 It will cost you a sheep or a goat to buy back the firstborn donkey. If you don't buy it back, then you must break the donkey's neck. You must buy back every firstborn of your sons. "No one may come into my presence without an offering.

Exodus 34:21 "You may work six days, but on the seventh day you must not work. Even during the time of plowing or harvesting you must not work [on this day].

Exodus 34:22 "You must celebrate the Festival of Weeks with the first grain from your wheat harvest, and the Festival of the Final Harvest at the end of the season.

Exodus 34:23 "Three times a year all your men must come into the presence of the Master, the LORD God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 I will force nations out of your way and will expand [your country's] borders. No one will want to take away your land while you're gone three times a year to the LORD's festivals.

Exodus 34:25 "Never offer the blood of a sacrifice to me at the same time you offer anything containing yeast. No part of the sacrifice at the Passover festival should be left over in the morning.

Exodus 34:26 “You must bring the first and best of the produce harvested from your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Never cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Exodus 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, because on the basis of these words I’m making a promise to Israel and to you.”

Exodus 34:28 Moses was there with the LORD 40 days and 40 nights without food or water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the promise, the ten commandments.

Exodus 34:29 Moses came down from Mount Sinai, carrying the two tablets with God’s words on them. His face was shining from speaking with the LORD, but he didn’t know it.

Exodus 34:30 When Aaron and all the Israelites looked at Moses and saw his face shining, they were afraid to come near him.

Exodus 34:31 Moses called to them, so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him. Then Moses spoke to them.

Exodus 34:32 After that, all the other Israelites came near him, and he commanded them to do everything the LORD told him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

Exodus 34:34 But whenever Moses went into the LORD’s presence to speak with him, he took off the veil until he came out. Whenever he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, Exodus 34:35 they would see that Moses’ face was shining. Then Moses would put the veil back on until he went in again to speak with the LORD.

Exodus 35:1 Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, “These are the things the LORD has commanded you to do:

Exodus 35:2 You may work for six days, but the seventh day is a holy day of worship, a day when you don’t work. It is dedicated to the LORD. Whoever does any work on this day should be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 Never light a fire in any of your homes on this day of worship.”

Exodus 35:4 Then Moses said to the whole Israelite community, “This is what the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:5 Choose something of your own to give as a special contribution to the LORD. Let everyone who is willing bring this kind of contribution to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 35:6 violet, purple, and bright red yarn, fine linen, goats’ hair,

Exodus 35:7 rams’ skins dyed red, fine leather, acacia wood, Exodus 35:8 olive oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet-smelling incense,

Exodus 35:9 onyx stones, and other precious stones to be set in the [chief priest's] ephod and breastplate.

Exodus 35:10 "Have all the skilled craftsmen among you come and make everything the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:11 the inner tent, the outer tent, and cover, along with the fasteners, frames, crossbars, posts, and sockets,

Exodus 35:12 the ark with its poles, the throne of mercy and the canopy over it,

Exodus 35:13 the table with its poles, all the dishes, the bread of the presence,

Exodus 35:14 the lamp stand used for the light with its utensils, its lamps and the olive oil for the lamps,

Exodus 35:15 the altar for incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet-smelling incense, the screen for the entrance to the tent,

Exodus 35:16 the altar for burnt offerings with its bronze grate, its poles, and all its accessories, the basin with its stand,

Exodus 35:17 the curtains for the courtyard, the posts, bases, and the screen for the entrance to the courtyard,

Exodus 35:18 the pegs for the tent and the courtyard with their ropes,

Exodus 35:19 the special clothes worn for official duties in the holy place-both the holy clothes for Aaron the priest and the clothes for his sons when they serve as priests."

Exodus 35:20 Then the whole Israelite community left Moses.

Exodus 35:21 Those who were willing and whose hearts moved them came and brought their contributions to the LORD. The gifts were used to construct the tent of meeting, to pay other expenses, and to make the holy clothes.

Exodus 35:22 All who were willing-men and women alike-came and brought all kinds of gold jewelry: pins, earrings, signet rings, and pendants. They took these gifts of gold and offered them to the LORD.

Exodus 35:23 Those who had violet, purple, or bright red yarn, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, or fine leather brought them.

Exodus 35:24 Those who could give silver or bronze brought it as their contribution to the LORD. Those who had acacia wood that could be used in the construction brought it.

Exodus 35:25 All the women who were skilled in spinning yarn brought violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and fine linen, which they had made by hand.

Exodus 35:26 All the women who were willing and had the skill spun the goats' hair.

Exodus 35:27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other precious stones to be set in the [chief priest's] ephod and breastplate.

Exodus 35:28 They also brought the spices and the olive oil for the lamps, the anointing oil, and the sweet-smelling incense.

Exodus 35:29 Every Israelite man and woman who was willing brought all these items to the LORD as a freewill offering. They brought these items to be used to make everything the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Exodus 35:30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, "The LORD has chosen Bezalel, son of Uri and grandson of Hur, from the tribe of Judah.

Exodus 35:31 The LORD has filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God, making him highly skilled, resourceful, and knowledgeable in all trades.

Exodus 35:32 He's a master artist familiar with gold, silver, and bronze.

Exodus 35:33 He knows how to cut and set stones and how to work with wood. He's an expert in all trades.

Exodus 35:34 Also, the LORD has given Bezalel and Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan the ability to teach others.

Exodus 35:35 The LORD has made these men highly skilled in all trades. They can do the work of jewelers, carpenters, and designers. They know how to embroider violet, purple and bright red yarn on fine linen. They know how to weave yarn on a loom. They can do all kinds of trades. They are master artists."

Exodus 36:1 [Moses continued,] "So Bezalel and Oholiab will do the work as the LORD has commanded. They will do this with the help of every other craftsman to whom the LORD has given the necessary skills and talents. They will know how to do all the work for constructing the holy place."

Exodus 36:2 Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every other craftsman to whom the LORD had given these skills and who was willing to come and do the work.

Exodus 36:3 Moses turned over to them all the contributions the Israelites had brought for the work of constructing the holy place. But the people still kept bringing him freewill offerings every morning.

Exodus 36:4 Finally, all the skilled craftsmen who were working on the holy place stopped what they were doing. They all came to Moses.

Exodus 36:5 They said, "The people are bringing much more than we need for doing the work the LORD commanded us to do."

Exodus 36:6 So Moses gave instructions to have the following message announced all over camp: "No man or woman needs to make anything more to give as their special contribution to the holy place.” Then the people stopped bringing gifts.

Exodus 36:7 The material they had was more than enough to do the job.

Exodus 36:8 All the skilled craftsmen among the workers made the inner tent with ten sheets made from fine linen yarn and violet, purple, and bright red yarn. An angel design was creatively worked into the fabric.

Exodus 36:9 Each sheet was 42 feet long and 6 feet wide-all the same size.

Exodus 36:10 Five of the sheets were sewn together, and the other five were also sewn together.

Exodus 36:11 Then they made 50 violet loops along the edge of the end sheet in each set,

Exodus 36:12 placing the loops opposite each other.

Exodus 36:13 They also made 50 gold fasteners. They used them to link the [two sets of] sheets together so that the inner tent was a single unit.

Exodus 36:14 They made 11 sheets of goats’ hair to form an outer tent over the inner tent.

Exodus 36:15 Each of the 11 sheets was 45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

Exodus 36:16 Five of the sheets were sewn together into one set, and the remaining six into another set.

Exodus 36:17 Then they made 50 loops along the edge of the end sheet in each set.

Exodus 36:18 They also made 50 bronze fasteners to link the inner tent together as a single unit.

Exodus 36:19 They made a cover out of rams’ skins that had been dyed red for the outer tent, and over that they put a cover made of fine leather.

Exodus 36:20 They made a framework out of acacia wood for the inner tent.

Exodus 36:21 Each frame was 15 feet long and 27 inches wide,

Exodus 36:22 with two identical pegs. They made all the frames for the inner tent this same way.

Exodus 36:23 They made 20 frames for the south side of the inner tent.

Exodus 36:24 Then they made 40 silver sockets at the bottom of the 20 frames, two sockets at the bottom of each frame for the two pegs.

Exodus 36:25 For the north side of the inner tent [they made] 20 frames

Exodus 36:26 and 40 silver sockets, two at the bottom of each frame.

Exodus 36:27 They made six frames for the far end, the west side.

Exodus 36:28 They made two frames for [each of] the corners at the far end of the inner tent.

Exodus 36:29 They were held together at the bottom and held tightly at the top by a single ring. Both corner frames were made this way.

Exodus 36:30 There were eight frames with 16 silver sockets, two at the bottom of each frame.

Exodus 36:31 They also made crossbars out of acacia wood. Five were for the frames on one side of the inner tent,

Exodus 36:32 five were for those on the other side, and five were for the frames on the far side of the inner tent, the west side.

Exodus 36:33 They made the middle crossbar so that it ran from one end to the other, halfway up the frames.

Exodus 36:34 They covered the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. They also covered the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 They made the canopy out of violet, purple, and bright red yarn and fine linen yarn. An angel design was creatively worked into the fabric.

Exodus 36:36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it and covered them with gold. They made gold hooks for the posts, and they cast four silver bases for them.

Exodus 36:37 They made a screen out of fine linen yarn for the entrance to the outer tent. It was embroidered with violet, purple, and bright red yarn.

Exodus 36:38 They also made five posts with hooks for [hanging] the screen. They covered the tops of the posts and the bands with gold, but the five bases for the posts were made of bronze.

Exodus 37:1 Bezalel made the ark out of acacia wood 45 inches long, 27 inches wide, and 27 inches high.

Exodus 37:2 He covered it with pure gold inside and out and put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 37:3 He cast four gold rings for its four feet, two rings on each side.

Exodus 37:4 Then he made poles out of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

Exodus 37:5 He put them through the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry it.

Exodus 37:6 He made the throne of mercy out of pure gold 45 inches long and 27 inches wide.

Exodus 37:7 Then he made two angels out of hammered gold for the two ends of the throne of mercy,

Exodus 37:8 one on each end. He formed the angels and the throne of mercy out of one piece [of gold].

Exodus 37:9 The angels had their wings spread above the throne of mercy, overshadowing it. They faced each other, looking at the throne of mercy.

Exodus 37:10 He made the table out of acacia wood 36 inches long, 18 inches wide, and 27 inches high.

Exodus 37:11 He covered it with pure gold and put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 37:12 He made a rim 3 inches wide around it and put a gold molding around the rim.

Exodus 37:13 He cast four gold rings for it and fastened the rings to the four corners, where the four legs were.

Exodus 37:14 The rings were put close to the rim to hold the poles for carrying the table.

Exodus 37:15 These poles were made out of acacia wood and were covered with gold.

Exodus 37:16 For the table he made plates, dishes, bowls, and pitchers to be used for pouring wine offerings. All of them were made out of pure gold.

Exodus 37:17 He made the lamp stand out of pure gold. The lamp stand, its base, and its shaft, as well as the flower cups, buds, and petals were hammered out of one piece [of gold].

Exodus 37:18 Six branches came out of its sides, three branches on one side and three on the other.

Exodus 37:19 Each of the six branches coming out of the lamp stand had three flower cups shaped like almond blossoms, with buds and petals.

Exodus 37:20 The lamp stand itself had four flower cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a bud and petals.

Exodus 37:21 There was a bud under each of the three pairs of branches coming out of the lamp stand.

Exodus 37:22 The buds and branches were hammered out of the same piece of pure gold as the lamp stand.

Exodus 37:23 He made the seven lamps, the tongs, and the incense burners out of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 The lamp stand and all the utensils were made out of 75 pounds of pure gold.

Exodus 37:25 He made an altar out of acacia wood for burning incense. It was 18 inches square and 36 inches high. The horns and altar were made out of one piece [of wood].

Exodus 37:26 He covered all of it with pure gold-the top, the sides, and the horns-and he put a gold molding around it.

Exodus 37:27 He made two gold rings and put them below the molding on opposite sides to hold the poles for carrying it.

Exodus 37:28 He made the poles out of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 He also had a perfumer make the holy oil to be used for anointing and for the pure, sweet-smelling incense.

Exodus 38:1 He made the altar for burnt offerings out of acacia wood 71/2 feet square and 41/2 feet high.

Exodus 38:2 He made a horn at each of its four corners. He made the four horns and the altar out of one piece [of wood] covered with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 He made all the utensils out of bronze: pots, shovels, bowls, forks, and incense burners.

Exodus 38:4 He made a grate for the altar out of bronze mesh, [and put it] under the ledge, halfway up the altar.

Exodus 38:5 He cast four rings to hold the poles (one for each of the four corners of the bronze grate).

Exodus 38:6 He made the poles out of acacia wood and covered them with bronze.

Exodus 38:7 He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar to carry it. He made the altar out of boards so that it was hollow inside.

Exodus 38:8 He made the basin and stand out of the bronze mirrors given by the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 38:9 He also made the courtyard. The south side of the courtyard was 150 feet long and had curtains made out of fine linen yarn,

Exodus 38:10 [hung] on 20 posts [set in] 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands on the posts were made of silver.

Exodus 38:11 The north side was also 150 feet long with 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The hooks and bands on the posts were made of silver.

Exodus 38:12 The west side was 75 feet long and had curtains [hung] on 10 posts [set in] 10 bases. The hooks and bands on the posts were made of silver.

Exodus 38:13 The east side, facing the rising sun, was 75 feet [wide].

Exodus 38:14 Each side of the entrance to the courtyard was 221/2 feet wide with curtains [hung] on three posts [set in] three bases.

Exodus 38:15

Exodus 38:16 All the curtains around the courtyard were made out of fine linen yarn.

Exodus 38:17 The bases for the posts were made of bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were made of silver. The tops of the posts were covered with silver. And the bands on all the posts of the courtyard were made of silver.

Exodus 38:18 The screen for the entrance to the courtyard was made of violet, purple, and bright red yarn embroidered on [fabric made from] fine linen yarn. It was 30 feet long and 71/2 feet high, just like the curtains of the courtyard.

Exodus 38:19 It was hung on four posts [set in] four bronze bases. The hooks and bands on the posts were made of silver. The tops of the posts were covered with silver.

Exodus 38:20 All the pegs for the tent and the surrounding courtyard were made of bronze.

Exodus 38:21 This is the amount of material that was used for the tent (the tent of the words of God’s promise). An inventory was ordered by Moses and carried out by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar, son of the priest Aaron.

Exodus 38:22 Now Bezalel, son of Uri and grandson of Hur, from the tribe of Judah, made everything the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 38:23 He was a jeweler, carpenter, designer, and he knew how to embroider violet, purple, and bright red yarn on fine linen. His assistant was Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan.

Exodus 38:24 The total amount of gold from the offerings presented to the LORD used in building the holy place weighed over 2,193 pounds, using the standard weight of the holy place.

Exodus 38:25 The silver collected when the census of the community was taken weighed 7,544 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place.

Exodus 38:26 This came to one-fifth of an ounce per person, for everyone counted who was at least 20 years old: 603,550 people.

Exodus 38:27 He used 7,500 pounds of silver to cast the 100 bases for the holy place and the canopy. This was 75 pounds per base.

Exodus 38:28 He used 44 pounds of silver to make the hooks and bands for the posts and the coverings for the tops of the posts.

Exodus 38:29 The bronze from the offerings presented to the LORD weighed 5,310 pounds.

Exodus 38:30 With this he made the bases for the entrance to the tent of meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grate and all its accessories,

Exodus 38:31 the bases all around the courtyard, the bases for the entrance to the courtyard, all the pegs for the tent, and all the pegs for the surrounding courtyard.

Exodus 39:1 From the violet, purple, and bright red yarn they made special clothes worn for official duties in the holy place. They also made the holy clothes for Aaron. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:2 They made the ephod out of fine linen yarn and gold, violet, purple, and bright red yarn.

Exodus 39:3 They hammered the gold into thin sheets and cut them up. They twisted the gold into threads, which they creatively worked into each strand of the violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and throughout the fine linen.

Exodus 39:4 They made two shoulder straps attached at the [top] corners so that the ephod could be fastened.

Exodus 39:5 They made the belt that is attached to the ephod out of the same fabric. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:6 They mounted the onyx stones in gold settings, and engraved on them the names of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 39:7 Then they fastened them on the shoulder straps of the ephod as a reminder of who the Israelites are. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:8 They made the breastplate as creatively as they made the ephod. It was made out of gold, violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and of fine linen yarn.

Exodus 39:9 It was folded in half and was 9 inches square.

Exodus 39:10 They fastened four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row they put red quartz, topaz, and emerald.

Exodus 39:11 In the second row they put turquoise, sapphire, and crystal.

Exodus 39:12 In the third row they put jacinth, agate, and amethyst.

Exodus 39:13 In the fourth row they put beryl, onyx, and gray quartz. The stones were mounted in gold settings.

Exodus 39:14 They corresponded to the 12 sons of Israel, by name, each stone engraved (like a signet ring) with the name of one of the 12 tribes.

Exodus 39:15 For the breastplate they made chains out of pure gold, twisted like ropes.

Exodus 39:16 They made two gold settings and two gold rings and attached the two rings to the [top] two corners of the breastplate.

Exodus 39:17 They fastened the two gold ropes to the rings at the [top] corners of the breastplate.

Exodus 39:18 They fastened the other ends of the ropes to the two settings on the shoulder straps of the ephod [so that the breastplate hung] in front of it.

Exodus 39:19 They made two gold rings and fastened them to the other two corners of the breastplate on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 39:20 They made two [more] gold rings and fastened them to the bottom of the shoulder straps on the front of the ephod. This was close to the seam just above the belt of the ephod.

Exodus 39:21 Then they fastened the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord. So the breastplate was attached just above the belt of the ephod and was held in place. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:22 They made the robe that is worn with the ephod, woven entirely of violet yarn.

Exodus 39:23 The opening in the center of the robe had a finished edge (like a leather collar) all around it to keep it from tearing.

Exodus 39:24 On the hem of the robe they made pomegranates of violet, purple, and bright red yarn, and fine yarn.

Exodus 39:25 They made bells out of pure gold and fastened them in between the pomegranates all around the hem of the robe.

Exodus 39:26 A gold bell alternated with a pomegranate all around the hem of the robe that is worn by Aaron when he serves as priest. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:27 They wove inner robes out of fine linen for Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 39:28 They also made the chief priest's turban and the other beautiful turbans out of fine linen. They made the undergarments and belt out of fine linen yarn.

Exodus 39:29 The belt was embroidered with violet, purple, and bright red yarn. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:30 They made the flower-shaped medallion (the holy crown) out of pure gold and engraved on it (as on a signet ring): Holy to the LORD.

Exodus 39:31 They fastened a violet cord to it and tied it on top of the turban. They followed the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:32 So all the work on the inner tent (the tent of meeting) was now done. The Israelites followed all the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:33 Then they brought everything to Moses-the inner tent, the outer tent and all its furnishings, the fasteners, frames, crossbars, posts, sockets,

Exodus 39:34 the cover made of rams' skins dyed red, the cover made of fine leather, the canopy over [the ark],

Exodus 39:35 the ark containing the words of God's promise with its poles and the throne of mercy,

Exodus 39:36 the table with all the dishes, the bread of the presence,

Exodus 39:37 the pure [gold] lamp stand with its lamps in a row and all its utensils, the olive oil for the lamps,

Exodus 39:38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, the sweet-smelling incense, the screen for the entrance to the tent,

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grate, its poles, and all its accessories, the basin with its stand,

Exodus 39:40 the curtains for the courtyard, the posts, bases, and screen for the entrance to the courtyard, the ropes and pegs-all the equipment needed for the service of the inner tent (the tent of meeting)-

Exodus 39:41 the special clothes worn when serving as priests in the holy place-both the holy clothes for the priest Aaron and the clothes for his sons when serving as priests.

Exodus 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work following the LORD's instructions to Moses.

Exodus 39:43 Moses inspected all the work and saw that they had followed the LORD's instructions. So Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 40:2 "Set up the tent (the tent of meeting) on the first day of the first month of the year.

Exodus 40:3 Place the ark containing the words of my promise inside it, and hang the canopy over the ark.

Exodus 40:4 Bring in the table, and arrange everything on it. Bring in the lamp stand, and set up the lamps.

Exodus 40:5 Put the gold altar for incense in front of the ark. Put up the screen at the entrance to the tent.

Exodus 40:6 "Put the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:7 Put the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 Set up the surrounding courtyard, and put up the screen at the entrance to the courtyard.

Exodus 40:9 Take the anointing oil, and anoint the tent and everything in it. In this way you will dedicate it and all its furnishings. Then it will be holy.

Exodus 40:10 Anoint the altar for burnt offerings and all the utensils. In this way you will dedicate the altar, and it will be most holy.

Exodus 40:11 Anoint the basin and stand, and they will be dedicated.

Exodus 40:12 “Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them.

Exodus 40:13 Then dress Aaron in the holy clothes, and anoint him. In this way you will dedicate him to serve me as priest.

Exodus 40:14 Have his sons come forward, and dress them in their linen robes.

Exodus 40:15 Anoint them to serve me as priests, as you anointed their father. Their anointing will begin a permanent priesthood for them for generations to come.”

Exodus 40:16 Moses did everything as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:17 So the tent was set up on the first day of the first month of the second year [after the Israelites had left Egypt].

Exodus 40:18 When Moses set up the tent, he put the sockets in place, put up the frames, inserted the crossbars, and set up the posts.

Exodus 40:19 He spread the outer tent over the inner tent and put the cover on top. Moses followed the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:20 He took the words of God’s promise and put them in the ark. He put the poles on the ark and placed the throne of mercy on top of the ark.

Exodus 40:21 Then he brought the ark into the tent and hung the canopy over it to mark off where the ark was. Moses followed the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:22 Moses put the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tent outside the canopy.

Exodus 40:23 He arranged the bread on the table in the LORD’s presence, following the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:24 He placed the lamp stand in the tent of meeting opposite the table, on the south side of the tent.

Exodus 40:25 He set up the lamps in the LORD’s presence, following the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:26 Moses put the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the canopy.

Exodus 40:27 He burned sweet-smelling incense on it, following the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:28 Then he put up the screen at the entrance to the tent.

Exodus 40:29 He put the altar for burnt offerings at the entrance to the tent (the tent of meeting). He sacrificed burnt offerings and grain offerings on it. Moses followed the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:30 He put the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.

Exodus 40:31 Moses, Aaron, and his sons used this water to wash their hands and feet.

Exodus 40:32 They would wash whenever they went into the tent of meeting or whenever they approached the altar. Moses followed the LORD’s instructions.

Exodus 40:33 He set up the courtyard around the tent and the altar and put up the screen at the entrance to the courtyard. Finally, Moses finished the work.

Exodus 40:34 Then the [column of] smoke covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tent.

Exodus 40:35 Moses couldn’t go into the tent of meeting, because the smoke settled on it and the glory of the LORD filled the tent.

Exodus 40:36 In all their travels, whenever the [column of] smoke moved from the tent, the Israelites would break camp.

Exodus 40:37 But if the column didn’t move, they wouldn’t break camp.

Exodus 40:38 So the LORD’s column stayed over the tent during the day, and there was fire in the smoke at night. In this way all the Israelites could see the column throughout their travels.

Leviticus

1:1 The LORD called Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting. He said,

Leviticus 1:2 “Tell the Israelites: If any of you bring a sacrifice to the LORD, you must offer an animal from your cattle, sheep, or goats.

Leviticus 1:3 “If you bring a burnt offering from your cattle, you must offer a male that has no defects. Offer it at the entrance to the tent of meeting so that the LORD will accept you.

Leviticus 1:4 Place your hand on the animal’s head. The burnt offering will be accepted to make peace with the LORD.

Leviticus 1:5 Then slaughter the bull in the LORD’s presence. Aaron’s sons, the priests, will offer the blood. They will throw it against all sides of the altar that is at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 Skin the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces.

Leviticus 1:7 Then the sons of the priest Aaron will start a fire on the altar and lay the wood on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 Aaron’s sons, the priests, will also lay the pieces, the head, and the fat on top of the wood burning on the altar.

Leviticus 1:9 Wash the internal organs and legs. Then the priest will burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:10 “If your offering is a sheep or goat, you must bring a male that has no defects.

Leviticus 1:11 Slaughter it in the LORD’s presence on the north side of the altar. Aaron’s sons, the priests, will throw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 1:12 Then cut it into pieces. The priest will lay the head and the fat on the wood burning on the altar.

Leviticus 1:13 Wash the internal organs and legs. Then the priest will burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:14 “If your offering to the LORD is a bird, you must sacrifice a mourning dove or pigeon.

Leviticus 1:15 The priest must bring it to the altar. He will break its neck and burn the bird on the altar. First, he will drain the blood against the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 Remove the gizzard with its filth and throw it on the east side of the altar on the place for the ashes.

Leviticus 1:17 Then pull on the bird’s wings to tear the bird open, but don’t pull the wings off. Then the priest will lay the bird on the wood burning on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.”

Leviticus 2:1 [The LORD continued,] “Now, if any of you bring a grain offering to the LORD, your offering must be flour. Pour olive oil on it, and put incense on it.

Leviticus 2:2 Then bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests. Take from this a handful of flour with olive oil, and all the incense. The priest will burn it on the altar as a reminder. It is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:3 The rest of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons. It is very holy, set apart from the LORD’s offering by fire.

Leviticus 2:4 “If you bring a grain offering which has been baked in an oven, it must be rings of unleavened bread made of flour mixed with olive oil or wafers of unleavened bread brushed with olive oil.

Leviticus 2:5 If your grain offering is prepared in a frying pan, it, too, will be unleavened bread made of flour mixed with olive oil.

Leviticus 2:6 Break it into pieces and pour olive oil over it. It is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 If your grain offering is prepared in a skillet, it will be made of flour with olive oil.

Leviticus 2:8 “Bring the LORD the grain offering prepared in any of these ways. Offer it to the priest who will bring it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:9 The priest will remove part of the grain offering and burn it as a reminder on the altar. It is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:10 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons. It is very holy, set apart from the LORD’s offering by fire.

Leviticus 2:11 “Every grain offering that you bring to the LORD must be prepared without yeast. Never burn yeast or honey as an offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:12 You may bring them to the LORD as offerings of your first products. But they must never be placed on the altar to make a soothing aroma.

Leviticus 2:13 Also put salt on each of your grain offerings. The salt of God’s promise must never be left out of your grain offerings. Put salt on all your offerings.

Leviticus 2:14 “If you bring a grain offering to the LORD from the first grain you harvest, roast the cracked grain over fire.

Leviticus 2:15 Put olive oil on it, and place incense on it. It is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 The priest will burn the flour, olive oil, and all the incense as a reminder. It is an offering by fire to the LORD.”

Leviticus 3:1 [The LORD continued,] “If your sacrifice is a fellowship offering of cattle in the LORD’s presence, it must be a male or female animal that has no defects.

Leviticus 3:2 Place your hand on the animal’s head. Then slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, will throw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:3 From your offering remove the fat that covers the internal organs

Leviticus 3:4 and the two kidneys with the fat on them and offer them by fire to the LORD. Also cut off the lobe of the liver along with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:5 Then Aaron’s sons will lay them on top of the burnt offering on the burning wood. It is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:6 “If your sacrifice is a fellowship offering of sheep to the LORD, you must bring a male or female animal that has no defects.

Leviticus 3:7 If your offering is a lamb, you must bring it to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:8 Place your hand on the animal’s head. Slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons will throw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:9 Then take the fat from the fellowship offering and offer it by fire to the LORD. Remove all the fat from the tail and the fat that covers the internal organs.

Leviticus 3:10 Also remove the two kidneys with the fat on them along with the lobe of the liver.

Leviticus 3:11 Then the priest will burn the fellowship offering on the altar. It is food, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:12 “If your offering is a goat, you must bring it to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:13 Place your hand on its head. Slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons will throw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:14 Then bring the fat that covers the internal organs

Leviticus 3:15 and the two kidneys with the fat on them as an offering by fire to the LORD. Also remove the lobe of the liver along with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:16 Then the priest will burn them on the altar. It is food, an offering by fire to the LORD. It is a soothing aroma. All the fat belongs to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:17 This is a permanent law for generations to come wherever you live: Never eat any fat or blood.”

Leviticus 4:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 4:2 “Tell the Israelites: If a person unintentionally does something wrong-even one thing that is forbidden by any of the LORD’s commands-this is what he must do.

Leviticus 4:3 “If the anointed priest does something wrong and brings guilt on the people, he must bring a bull that has no defects as an offering for sin to the LORD.

Leviticus 4:4 He must bring the bull into the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting. He will place his hand on the bull’s head. He will then slaughter the bull in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 4:5 Then the anointed priest will take some of the bull’s blood and bring it into the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:6 The priest will dip his finger in it and sprinkle some of the blood seven times in the LORD’s presence facing the canopy in the holy place.

Leviticus 4:7 Then the priest will put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for sweet-smelling incense in the LORD’s presence in the tent of meeting. He will pour the rest of the bull’s blood at the bottom of the altar for burnt offerings at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 He will remove all of the fat from the bull that is the offering for sin, the fat that covers the internal organs,

Leviticus 4:9 and the two kidneys with the fat on them. He will also remove the lobe of the liver and the kidneys

Leviticus 4:10 the same way they were removed from the bull used for the fellowship offering. The priest will lay them on the altar for burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:11 Then he will take the entire bull (the skin, meat, head, legs, internal organs, and excrement)

Leviticus 4:12 to a clean place outside the camp where the ashes are dumped. He will burn it there on a wood fire.

Leviticus 4:13 “If the whole congregation of Israel unintentionally does something wrong, without the assembly being aware of it, if they do even one thing that is forbidden by any of the LORD’s commands, they will be guilty.

Leviticus 4:14 When the wrong they have done becomes known, the congregation must sacrifice a bull as an offering for sin. They must bring it in front of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 The leaders of the congregation will place their hands on the bull’s head in the LORD’s presence. One of them will slaughter it in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 4:16 Then the anointed priest will bring some of the bull’s blood into the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:17 The priest will dip his finger in some of the blood and sprinkle it seven times in the LORD’s presence facing the canopy.

Leviticus 4:18 He will also put some blood on the horns of the altar in the LORD’s presence in the tent of meeting. He will pour the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar for burnt offerings at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 He will remove all the fat and burn it on the altar.

Leviticus 4:20 He will do the same thing with this bull that he did with the bull used as the offering for sin. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for the people, and they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:21 Then he will take the bull outside the camp and will burn it the same way he burned the first bull. It is an offering for sin for the community.

Leviticus 4:22 “When a leader unintentionally does something wrong-even one thing that is forbidden by any of the commands of the LORD his God-he will be guilty.

Leviticus 4:23 When he is told about what he has done wrong, he must bring a male goat that has no defects as his offering.

Leviticus 4:24 He will place his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it in the LORD's presence where he slaughters animals for burnt offerings. It is an offering for sin.

Leviticus 4:25 Then the priest will take some of the blood of the offering for sin with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar for burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:26 He will burn all the fat on the altar the same way the fat of the fellowship offering is burned. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for what the leader did wrong, and the leader will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:27 "If a common person unintentionally does something wrong-even one thing forbidden by the LORD's commands-he will be guilty.

Leviticus 4:28 When he is told about what he has done wrong, he must bring a female goat that has no defects as his offering for what he has done wrong.

Leviticus 4:29 He will place his hand on the animal's head and slaughter it where animals for burnt offerings are slaughtered.

Leviticus 4:30 The priest will take some of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 He will remove all the fat the same way it is removed from the fellowship offering. The priest will burn it on the altar for a soothing aroma to the LORD. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for that person, and that person will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:32 "If someone brings a lamb as his offering for sin, he must bring a female that has no defects.

Leviticus 4:33 He will place his hand on the animal's head and slaughter it where he slaughters animals for burnt offerings.

Leviticus 4:34 Then the priest will take some of the blood from the offering for sin with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 He will remove all the fat the same way the fat of the lamb is removed from the fellowship offerings. Then the priest will burn it on the altar with the offering by fire to the LORD. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for what that person did wrong, and that person will be forgiven."

Leviticus 5:1 [The LORD continued,] "Now, if you are a witness under oath and won't tell what you saw or what you know, you are sinning and will be punished.

Leviticus 5:2 “If you touch anything unclean-the unclean dead body of a wild or tame animal or the body of an unclean, swarming creature-and then ignore what you did, you are unclean and will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:3 “If you become unclean by touching human uncleanness of any kind and then ignore it (although you know what you did), you will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 “If you hastily take a vow about what you will or will not do (as some people do) and then ignore it (although you know what you said), you will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:5 “So if you are guilty of any of these sins, you must confess it.

Leviticus 5:6 Bring your guilt offering to the LORD for the sin you committed. It must be a female sheep or goat as an offering for sin. Then the priest will make peace with the LORD for what you did wrong.

Leviticus 5:7 “Now, if you cannot afford a sheep, you must bring to the LORD two mourning doves or two pigeons as a guilt offering for the sin you committed. One will be an offering for sin, the other a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 Bring them to the priest, and he will sacrifice the offering for sin first. He will break the bird’s neck without pulling its head off.

Leviticus 5:9 He will sprinkle some of the blood from the offering for sin on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood will be drained at the bottom of the altar. It is an offering for sin.

Leviticus 5:10 Then, following the proper procedures, he will sacrifice the second bird as a burnt offering. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for what you did wrong.

Leviticus 5:11 “But if you cannot afford two mourning doves or two pigeons, then bring eight cups of flour as an offering for the sin you committed. Never put olive oil on it or add incense to it, because it is an offering for sin.

Leviticus 5:12 Bring it to the priest. The priest will take a handful of it. He will burn it as a reminder on top of the offering by fire to the LORD on the altar. It is an offering for sin.

Leviticus 5:13 So the priest will make peace with the LORD for what you did wrong, and you will be forgiven. The offering will belong to the priest like the grain offering.”

Leviticus 5:14 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 5:15 “If any of you fail to do your duty by unintentionally doing something wrong with any of the LORD’s holy things, bring a guilt offering to the LORD. It must be a ram that has no defects or its value in silver weighed according to the official standards of the holy place.

Leviticus 5:16 Pay for whatever holy things you used plus one-fifth more. Give it to the priest. So the priest will use the ram sacrificed for the guilt offering to make peace with the LORD for what you did wrong, and you will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:17 “If any of you do wrong-even one thing forbidden by any of the LORD’s commands, but you didn’t know it-when you realize your guilt, you must be punished.

Leviticus 5:18 You must bring the priest a ram that has no defects from the flock or its value in money for a guilt offering. The priest will make peace with the LORD for the wrong you did unintentionally (although you didn’t know what you did), and you will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:19 It is a guilt offering because you are certainly guilty as far as the LORD is concerned.”

Leviticus 6:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 6:2 “If any of you sin against the LORD by failing to do your duty, if you lie to your neighbor about something you were supposed to take care of or if you lie about something stolen or seized from your neighbor, you are sinning and will be guilty.

Leviticus 6:3 If you find something that someone lost and lie about it under oath, or commit any other sin like this,

Leviticus 6:4 you are sinning and will be guilty. Return what you stole or seized, what you were supposed to take care of, the lost item you found,

Leviticus 6:5 or whatever it was that you swore falsely about. Pay it back in full plus one-fifth more. Give it back to its owner on the day you bring your guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:6 Then bring the LORD your guilt offering, a ram that has no defects or its value in money. Bring it to the priest.

Leviticus 6:7 So the priest will make peace with the LORD. Then you will be forgiven for whatever you did that made you guilty.”

Leviticus 6:8 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 6:9 “Command Aaron and his sons: These are the instructions for the burnt offering that stays on the altar overnight while the altar fire is kept burning.

Leviticus 6:10 “The priest must put on his linen clothes, including his linen undergarments. Then he will remove the ashes left on the altar from the fire that consumed the burnt offering and will put them next to the altar.

Leviticus 6:11 Then he will take off these clothes and put on some others. He will take the ashes to a clean place outside the camp.

Leviticus 6:12 The fire must always be burning on the altar. It must never go out. The priest will burn wood on it every morning. He will lay the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat of the fellowship offering.

Leviticus 6:13 The fire must always be burning on the altar. It must never go out.

Leviticus 6:14 “These are the instructions for the grain offering. Aaron’s sons must bring it into the LORD’s presence in front of the altar.

Leviticus 6:15 One of them will remove a handful of flour from the grain offering, together with the olive oil and all the incense. He will burn it on the altar as a reminder. It is a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:16 Aaron and his sons will eat the rest of it. They will eat unleavened bread in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:17 Don’t use yeast in baking the bread. I have given it to them as their share from the offerings by fire made to me. It is very holy like the offering for sin and the guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:18 Every male descendant of Aaron may eat it. It is a permanent law for generations to come regarding the offering by fire to the LORD. Everyone who touches it will become holy.”

Leviticus 6:19 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 6:20 “This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must bring to the LORD on the day he is anointed-eight cups of flour. They must do this every day. He must offer half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Leviticus 6:21 Prepare it in a frying pan with olive oil, mixing it well. Offer baked pieces of the grain offering as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:22 Aaron’s son who is anointed to take his place as priest will prepare it. This is a permanent law of the LORD: It must be completely burned.

Leviticus 6:23 Every grain offering made by a priest must be completely burned. It must not be eaten.”

Leviticus 6:24 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 6:25 “Tell Aaron and his sons: These are the instructions for the offering for sin. The offering for sin must be slaughtered in the LORD’s presence in the same place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. It is very holy.

Leviticus 6:26 The priest who makes the offering for sin will eat it in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:27 Anything that touches its meat will be holy. If blood gets on someone’s clothes, he must wash them in a holy place.

Leviticus 6:28 Any piece of pottery in which the offering for sin is cooked must be broken into pieces. Any copper kettle in which the offering for sin is cooked must be scoured and rinsed with water.

Leviticus 6:29 Any male among the priests may eat the offering for sin. It is very holy.

Leviticus 6:30 Any offering for sin must not be eaten if some of the blood was brought into the holy place in the tent of meeting to make peace with the LORD. It must be burned.”

Leviticus 7:1 [The LORD continued,] “These are the instructions for the guilt offering. It is very holy.

Leviticus 7:2 It must be slaughtered in the same place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. [A priest] will throw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 7:3 He will offer all the fat, the fat from the tail, the fat covering the internal organs,

Leviticus 7:4 and the two kidneys with the fat on them. He will also remove the lobe of the liver along with the kidneys.

Leviticus 7:5 The priest will burn them on the altar. It is a guilt offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:6 Any male among the priests may eat it. It will be eaten in a holy place. It is very holy.

Leviticus 7:7 “The same instructions apply to the offering for sin and the guilt offering. Both offerings belong to the priest to make peace with the LORD.

Leviticus 7:8 The skin of the burnt offering belongs to the priest who sacrifices it.

Leviticus 7:9 Every grain offering, whether baked in an oven or prepared in a skillet or a frying pan, belongs to the priest who offers it.

Leviticus 7:10 Every grain offering, whether mixed with olive oil or dry, will be shared equally by all of Aaron’s sons.

Leviticus 7:11 “These are the instructions for the fellowship offering that you must bring to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:12 If you offer it as a thank offering, you must also bring rings of unleavened bread mixed with olive oil, wafers of unleavened bread brushed with olive oil, and loaves made from flour mixed well with olive oil.

Leviticus 7:13 In addition to these rings of bread, you must bring bread with yeast along with your fellowship offering of thanksgiving.

Leviticus 7:14 From every offering you must bring one loaf to the LORD as a [special] contribution. It will belong to the priest who throws the blood of the fellowship offering.

Leviticus 7:15 “The meat from your fellowship offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day it is offered. Never leave any of it until morning.

Leviticus 7:16 “If your sacrificial offering is something you vowed or a freewill offering, it must be eaten the day you offer it or the next day.

Leviticus 7:17 However, on the third day any meat left over from the sacrifice must be burned.

Leviticus 7:18 You will not be accepted if any meat from the fellowship offering is eaten on the third day. You will not receive credit for it. It is repulsive to God. The person who eats any of it must be punished.

Leviticus 7:19 “Meat that touches anything unclean must not be eaten. It must be burned. Anyone who is clean may eat from these sacrifices.

Leviticus 7:20 Those who eat meat from the LORD’s fellowship offering while unclean must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 7:21 Those who touch anything unclean, human or animal, or any other disgusting uncleanness and still eat the LORD’s fellowship offering must be excluded from the people.”

Leviticus 7:22 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 7:23 “Tell the Israelites: Never eat any fat from bulls, sheep, or goats.

Leviticus 7:24 The fat from an animal that dies naturally or is killed by wild animals you may use for any other purpose, but you must never eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 Those who eat the fat from an animal which they sacrificed by fire to the LORD must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 7:26 “Never eat the blood of any bird or animal no matter where you live.

Leviticus 7:27 Those who eat any blood must be excluded from the people.”

Leviticus 7:28 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 7:29 “Tell the Israelites: Anyone who offers the LORD a fellowship offering must bring a part of that sacrifice as a gift to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:30 Bring the sacrifices by fire made to the LORD yourself. Bring the fat with the breast. Take the breast and present it to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:31 “The priest will burn the fat on the altar. However, the breast will belong to Aaron and his sons.

Leviticus 7:32 You will also give the priest the right thigh as a contribution.

Leviticus 7:33 When any of Aaron’s sons offer the blood and fat of the fellowship offering, the right thigh will belong to him as his share.

Leviticus 7:34 From the fellowship offerings of the Israelites, I have taken the breast that was presented [to me] and the thigh from the contribution offering. I have given them to the priest Aaron and his sons. This is a permanent law for generations to come.

Leviticus 7:35 “This is the share for Aaron and his sons from the sacrifices by fire made to the LORD. It was given to them on the day Moses ordained them to serve the LORD as priests.

Leviticus 7:36 The LORD commanded the Israelites to give it to them on the day he anointed them. This is a permanent law for generations to come.”

Leviticus 7:37 These are the instructions for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the offering for sin, the guilt offering, the ordination offering, and the fellowship offering.

Leviticus 7:38 On Mount Sinai the LORD gave Moses commands about these offerings at the same time that he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to him in the Sinai Desert.

Leviticus 8:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 8:2 “Take Aaron and his sons, the priests’ clothes, the anointing oil, the bull that will be the offering for sin, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread.

Leviticus 8:3 Gather the whole congregation at the entrance to the tent of meeting.”

Leviticus 8:4 Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the congregation gathered at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 8:5 Moses told the congregation, “The LORD has commanded that this is what you must do.”

Leviticus 8:6 Moses had Aaron and his sons come forward, and he washed them.

Leviticus 8:7 He put the linen robe on Aaron and fastened the belt around him. He also dressed him in the robe that is worn with the ephod. He fastened the ephod to it.

Leviticus 8:8 Then he put the breastplate on him, and into it he placed the Urim and Thummim.

Leviticus 8:9 He put the turban on him and fastened the gold medallion (the holy crown) to the front of the turban as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:10 Moses took the anointing oil to anoint the tent and everything in it and dedicate them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times and anointed the altar, all the utensils, and the basin with its stand to dedicate them.

Leviticus 8:12 He also poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him to set him apart for his holy duties.

Leviticus 8:13 Moses had Aaron’s sons come forward. He put linen robes on them, fastened their belts around them, and put turbans on them as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:14 He brought the bull that was the offering for sin. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head.

Leviticus 8:15 When it was slaughtered, Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all around with his finger and cleansed the altar from sins. He poured the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar and declared it holy so that priests could use it to make peace with the LORD.

Leviticus 8:16 Moses took all the fat that was on the internal organs, the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and he burned them on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 He burned the rest of the bull, its skin, meat, and excrement outside the camp, as the LORD commanded him.

Leviticus 8:18 He brought forward the ram for the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on the ram’s head.

Leviticus 8:19 Moses slaughtered it and threw the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 8:20 When the ram was cut into pieces, Moses burned the head with the other pieces and the fat.

Leviticus 8:21 He washed the internal organs and the legs. Then Moses burned the whole ram on the altar as the LORD commanded him. It was a burnt offering, a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 8:22 He brought forward the second ram for the ordination offering. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on the ram’s head.

Leviticus 8:23 Moses slaughtered it, took some of the blood, and put it on Aaron’s right ear lobe, on his right thumb, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 Moses also brought Aaron’s sons forward. He put some of the blood on their right ear lobes, on their right thumbs, and on the big toes of their right feet. Moses threw the rest of the blood against all the sides of the altar.

Leviticus 8:25 He took the fat, the fat from the tail, all the fat on the internal organs, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:26 He took a loaf of unleavened bread, a ring of bread made with olive oil, and a wafer from the basket of unleavened bread which was in the LORD’s presence. He put them on the fat and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:27 Then he placed all these things in the hands of Aaron and his sons. Moses presented all these things to the LORD as an offering.

Leviticus 8:28 Then he took them from their hands and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar. These were ordination offerings, offerings by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 8:29 Moses also took the breast from the ram of the ordination offering and presented it to the LORD. It was Moses' share, as the LORD had commanded.

Leviticus 8:30 Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar, sprinkled it on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and their clothes. In this way he dedicated Aaron, his clothes, his sons, and their clothes.

Leviticus 8:31 Moses told Aaron and his sons: "Cook the meat at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Take the meat and the bread in the basket of the ordination offering. Eat them there as I commanded when I said, 'Aaron and his sons will eat it.'

Leviticus 8:32 You must burn any meat or bread that is left over.

Leviticus 8:33 You will not leave the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, not until the last day of your ordination is over. It will take seven days to ordain you.

Leviticus 8:34 I did today what the LORD commanded me to make peace with the LORD for you.

Leviticus 8:35 You will stay at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days and serve as the LORD tells you. Then you will not die. This is what I was commanded."

Leviticus 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the leaders of Israel.

Leviticus 9:2 He told Aaron, "Take a calf that has no defects for yourself as an offering for sin and a ram that has no defects as a burnt offering. Sacrifice them in the LORD's presence.

Leviticus 9:3 Also tell the Israelites: 'Take a male goat as an offering for sin, a calf and a lamb (each one year old and without defects) as a burnt offering,

Leviticus 9:4 a bull and a ram as a fellowship offering, and a grain offering mixed with olive oil to sacrifice in the LORD's presence. The LORD will appear to you today.'"

Leviticus 9:5 So they took the things Moses commanded and brought them in front of the tent of meeting. The whole congregation came and stood in the LORD's presence.

Leviticus 9:6 Moses said, "The LORD has commanded you to offer these sacrifices so that you may see the LORD's glory."

Leviticus 9:7 Moses told Aaron, “Come to the altar and sacrifice an offering for sin and a burnt offering to make peace with the LORD for your sins and the sins of the people. Also make an offering for the people, to make peace with the LORD for them as the LORD commanded.”

Leviticus 9:8 Aaron came to the altar and slaughtered the calf as his own offering for sin.

Leviticus 9:9 Aaron’s sons brought him the blood. He dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar. Then he poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 On the altar he burned the fat, kidneys, and lobe of the liver from the offering for sin as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 9:11 He burned the meat and the skin outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 He slaughtered the animal for the burnt offering. Aaron’s sons gave him the blood, and he threw it against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 9:13 They also gave him the burnt offering, which was cut in pieces and included the head. He burned it on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 He washed the internal organs and the legs and laid them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 He brought the people’s offerings. He took the male goat for the people’s offering for sin and slaughtered it. He sacrificed it to take away sins as he had done before.

Leviticus 9:16 Following the proper procedures, he brought forward the burnt offering and sacrificed it.

Leviticus 9:17 He also brought the grain offering. He took a handful of grain and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

Leviticus 9:18 He slaughtered the bull and the ram for the people’s fellowship offering. Aaron’s sons gave him the blood, which he threw against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 9:19 However, the fat from the bull and the ram (the fat from the tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver)

Leviticus 9:20 they placed on the breasts. Aaron burned them all on the altar.

Leviticus 9:21 However, he first took the breasts and the right thighs and presented them to the LORD as Moses commanded.

Leviticus 9:22 Then Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them. He sacrificed the offering for sin, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offering. Then he came down [from the altar].

Leviticus 9:23 Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people. Then the LORD’s glory appeared to all the people.

Leviticus 9:24 Fire came out from the LORD’s presence and consumed the burnt offering and the pieces of fat on the altar. When all the people saw this, they shouted and bowed with their faces touching the ground.

Leviticus 10:1 Aaron’s sons Nadab and Abihu each took an incense burner and put burning coals and incense in it. Then in the LORD’s presence they offered this unauthorized fire.

Leviticus 10:2 A fire flashed from the LORD and burned them, and they died in the presence of the LORD.

Leviticus 10:3 Moses said to Aaron, “This is exactly what the LORD said: ‘I will show my holiness among those who come to me. I will show my glory to all the people.’ “ Aaron was speechless.

Leviticus 10:4 Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron’s uncle, Uzziel. He told them, “Come and take your relatives away from in front of the holy place. Take them outside the camp.”

Leviticus 10:5 So they came and took them away to a place outside the camp, as Moses told them. The dead men were still in their linen robes.

Leviticus 10:6 Moses told Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar: “Do not mourn by leaving your hair uncombed or tearing your clothes. If you do, you will die and the LORD will become angry with the whole congregation. All the other Israelites may cry over the fire the LORD sent, but you may not.

Leviticus 10:7 You must not leave the entrance to the tent of meeting or else you, too, will die, because the LORD has anointed you with his oil.” They obeyed Moses.

Leviticus 10:8 The LORD spoke to Aaron,

Leviticus 10:9 “You and your sons must not drink any wine or liquor when you go into the tent of meeting, or you will die. This is a permanent law for generations to come.

Leviticus 10:10 Teach them the difference between what is holy and what is unholy, what is clean and what is unclean.

Leviticus 10:11 Also teach the Israelites all the laws that I gave them through Moses.”

Leviticus 10:12 Moses told Aaron and his surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Take the grain offering left over from the offering by fire to the LORD. Make unleavened bread, and eat it next to the altar because it is very holy.

Leviticus 10:13 Eat it in a holy place because it is the part of the offering by fire to the LORD that belongs to you and your children. That is the command I received.

Leviticus 10:14 Also eat the breast presented [to the LORD] and the thigh that was given as a contribution. You and your sons and daughters may eat them in a clean place because they are your part of the fellowship offerings from the Israelites.

Leviticus 10:15 They will bring the thigh given as a contribution, the breast presented [to the LORD], and the fat that is to be burned and present them to the LORD. These parts will belong to you and your children. This will be a permanent law, as the LORD has commanded.”

Leviticus 10:16 Moses tried to find out what had happened to the male goat that was supposed to be the offering for sin. To his surprise, it had already been burned. So he became angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s surviving sons.

Leviticus 10:17 He asked them, “Why didn’t you eat the offering for sin in the holy place? It is very holy and was given to you to take away the sins of the congregation and to make peace with the LORD for them.

Leviticus 10:18 Since its blood was not brought inside the holy place, you certainly should have eaten it there, as I commanded.”

Leviticus 10:19 Aaron answered Moses, “Today they sacrificed their offering for sin and their burnt offering in the LORD’s presence, and look what happened to me. If I had eaten the offering for sin today, would the LORD have approved?”

Leviticus 10:20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Leviticus 11:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 11:2 “Tell the Israelites: Here are the kinds of land animals you may eat:

Leviticus 11:3 all animals that have completely divided hoofs and that also chew their cud.

Leviticus 11:4 However, from those that either chew their cud or have divided hoofs, these are the kinds you must never eat: You must never eat camels. (Camels are unclean because they chew their cud but do not have divided hoofs.)

Leviticus 11:5 You must never eat rock badgers. (Rock badgers are unclean because they chew their cud but do not have divided hoofs.)

Leviticus 11:6 You must never eat rabbits. (Rabbits are unclean because they chew their cud but do not have divided hoofs.)

Leviticus 11:7 You must never eat pigs. (Because pigs have completely divided hoofs but do not chew their cud, they are also unclean.)

Leviticus 11:8 Never eat the meat of these animals or touch their dead bodies. They are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:9 “Here are the kinds of creatures that live in the water which you may eat-anything in the seas and streams that has fins and scales.

Leviticus 11:10 However, you must consider all swarming creatures living in the seas or the streams that have no fins or scales disgusting.

Leviticus 11:11 They must remain disgusting to you. Never eat their meat. Consider their dead bodies disgusting.

Leviticus 11:12 Every creature in the water without fins or scales is disgusting to you.

Leviticus 11:13 “Here are the kinds of birds you must consider disgusting and must not eat. They are eagles, bearded vultures, black vultures,

Leviticus 11:14 kites, all types of buzzards,

Leviticus 11:15 all types of crows,

Leviticus 11:16 ostriches, nighthawks, seagulls, all types of falcons,

Leviticus 11:17 little owls, cormorants, great owls,

Leviticus 11:18 barn owls, pelicans, ospreys,

Leviticus 11:19 storks, all types of herons, hoopoes, and bats.

Leviticus 11:20 “Every swarming, winged insect that walks across the ground like a four-legged animal is disgusting to you.

Leviticus 11:21 However, you may eat winged insects that swarm if they use their legs to hop on the ground.

Leviticus 11:22 You may eat any kind of locust, cricket, katydid, or grasshopper.

Leviticus 11:23 Every kind of winged insect that walks across the ground like a four-legged animal is disgusting to you.

Leviticus 11:24 “Regarding the creatures mentioned above, this is how you would become unclean: Whoever touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:25 Whoever carries any part of their dead bodies must wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:26 All animals whose hoofs are not completely divided or that don’t chew their cud are unclean for you. Whoever touches them is unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 All four-legged animals that walk on their paws are unclean for you. Whoever touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:28 Those who carry the dead body of any of these animals must wash their clothes and will be unclean until evening. These animals are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:29 “The following swarming creatures that move on the ground are unclean for you-moles, mice, and all types of lizards:

Leviticus 11:30 geckos, monitors, lizards, skinks, and chameleons.

Leviticus 11:31 Among all the swarming creatures that move on the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:32 When the dead body of one of these creatures falls on something, that thing will be unclean. It may be a wooden article, clothing, leather, a sack, or anything used for any purpose. It should be put in water and will be unclean until evening. Then it will be clean [again].

Leviticus 11:33 “If any of these creatures falls into a piece of pottery, break the pottery because everything in it is unclean.

Leviticus 11:34 If water [from that pottery] touches any food, the food is unclean. Any liquid that you drink from that pottery is unclean.

Leviticus 11:35 Anything on which their dead bodies fall is unclean. If it is an oven or a stove, smash it. It is unclean and will remain unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:36 However, a spring or a cistern holding water will remain clean. But anyone who touches their dead bodies will be unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 If their dead bodies fall on seed that is to be planted, the seed is clean.

Leviticus 11:38 But if water is poured on the seed and their dead bodies fall on it, the seed is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:39 “When any animal that you are allowed to eat dies, whoever touches its dead body will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:40 Those who eat any of its dead body must wash their clothes and will be unclean until evening. Those who carry its dead body away will wash their clothes and will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 11:41 “Any creature that swarms on the ground is disgusting and must not be eaten.

Leviticus 11:42 Don’t eat any creature with many legs that goes on its belly or on the ground like a four-legged animal, or any creature that swarms on the ground. Consider them disgusting.

Leviticus 11:43 Don’t become disgusting by eating anything that swarms on the ground. Never allow yourselves to become unclean because of them.

Leviticus 11:44 “Here is the reason: I am the LORD your God. You must live holy lives. Be holy because I am holy. Never become unclean by touching anything that swarms or crawls on the ground.

Leviticus 11:45 Here is the reason [again]: I am the LORD. I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. Be holy because I am holy.

Leviticus 11:46 “These are the instructions about animals, birds, and every living creature that swims in the water and every creature that swarms on the ground.

Leviticus 11:47 These instructions help you distinguish between clean and unclean, the animals you may eat and those you may not eat.”

Leviticus 12:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 12:2 “Tell the Israelites: When a woman gives birth to a boy, she will be unclean for seven days. This is the same number of days she is unclean for her monthly period.

Leviticus 12:3 The boy must be circumcised when he is eight days old.

Leviticus 12:4 Then she must stay at home for 33 days in order to be made clean from her bleeding. She must not touch anything holy or go into the holy place until the days needed to make her clean are over.

Leviticus 12:5 “When a woman gives birth to a girl, she will be unclean as in her monthly period. However, she will be unclean for two weeks. Then she must stay at home for 66 days in order to be made clean from her bleeding.

Leviticus 12:6 “When the days needed to make her clean are over, she must bring a one-year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a pigeon or a mourning dove as an offering for sin. She must bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 12:7 The priest will offer them in the LORD’s presence to make peace with the LORD for her. Then she will be clean from her flow of blood. “These are the instructions for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl.

Leviticus 12:8 If she cannot afford a lamb, she must use two mourning doves or two pigeons. One will be the burnt offering and the other the offering for sin. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for her, and she will be clean.”

Leviticus 13:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 13:2 “If anyone has a sore, a rash, or an irritated area on his skin that turns into an infectious skin disease, he must be taken to the priest Aaron or to one of his sons who are also priests.

Leviticus 13:3 The priest will examine the disease. If the hair in the diseased area has turned white, and the diseased area looks deeper than the rest of his skin, it is an infectious skin disease. When the priest has examined him, he must declare him unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 But if the irritated area is white and does not look deeper than the rest of the skin, and the hair has not turned white, the priest must put him in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 On the seventh day the priest will examine him again. If the disease looks the same and has not spread, the priest must put him in isolation for another seven days.

Leviticus 13:6 On the seventh day the priest will examine him again. If the diseased area has faded and not spread, the priest must declare him clean. It is only a rash. The person must wash his clothes and will be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 But if the rash has spread after he has shown himself to the priest to be declared clean, he must show himself to the priest again.

Leviticus 13:8 The priest will examine him one more time, and if the rash has spread, the priest must declare him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:9 "If anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be taken to the priest.

Leviticus 13:10 The priest will examine him. If there is a white sore that has turned the hair white, and if there is raw flesh in the sore,

Leviticus 13:11 he has a chronic skin disease. Without putting him in isolation, the priest must declare him unclean because he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 If skin disease develops and covers the whole person from head to foot (so far as the priest can see),

Leviticus 13:13 the priest will examine him. If the disease does cover his whole body, the priest must declare the diseased person clean. His body has turned white. The person is clean.

Leviticus 13:14 But if raw flesh appears, he will be unclean.

Leviticus 13:15 The priest will examine the raw flesh and declare him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:16 But if the raw flesh turns white again, he must go to the priest.

Leviticus 13:17 The priest will examine him again, and if the diseased area has turned white, the priest must declare the diseased person clean. He is clean.

Leviticus 13:18 "If a boil on the skin has healed

Leviticus 13:19 and in its place there is a white sore or a pink area, it must be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:20 The priest will examine it. If it looks deeper than the rest of the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest must declare the person unclean. An infectious skin disease has developed in the boil.

Leviticus 13:21 But if the priest examines the affected area and the hair in it is not white or the affected area is not deeper than the rest of the skin but has faded, the priest must put him in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:22 If the area has spread, the priest must declare him unclean. It is a skin disease.

Leviticus 13:23 But if the irritated area has not spread, it is a scar caused by the boil. The priest must declare him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 “If anyone has a burn on his skin and the raw flesh of the burn turns into a pink or bright white area,

Leviticus 13:25 the priest will examine it. If the hair on the affected area has turned white and the affected area looks deeper than the rest of the skin, an infectious skin disease has developed in the burn. The priest must declare him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:26 But if the priest examines it and the hair in it is not white and the affected area is not deeper than the rest of the skin but has faded, the priest must put him in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:27 On the seventh day the priest will examine him again. If the area has spread, the priest must declare him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:28 If the irritated area does not spread but has faded, it is only a sore caused by the burn. The priest must declare him clean, because it is a scar caused by the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 “If a man or a woman has some disease on the head or chin,

Leviticus 13:30 the priest will examine the disease. If it looks deeper than the rest of the skin and there is thin yellow hair on it, the priest must declare the person unclean. It is a scab, a disease on the head or the chin.

Leviticus 13:31 But if the priest examines the scabby disease and it does not look deeper than the rest of the skin and there is no black hair in it, the priest must put the person with the scabby disease in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:32 On the seventh day the priest will examine the disease. If the scab has not spread, there is no yellow hair on it, and the scab does not look deeper than the rest of the skin,

Leviticus 13:33 the person will shave everything except the scab. The priest will put the person with the scab in isolation for another seven days.

Leviticus 13:34 On the seventh day the priest will examine the scab again. If the scab has not spread on the skin and does not look deeper than the rest of the skin, the priest must declare him clean. When he has washed his clothes, he will be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 But if the scab spreads after the person has been declared clean,

Leviticus 13:36 the priest will make another examination. If the scab has spread on the skin, the priest does not have to look for yellow hair. The person is unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 But if he sees that the scab hasn’t spread and black hair grows on it, the scab is healed. The person is clean, so the priest must declare him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 “If a man or a woman has white irritated areas of skin,

Leviticus 13:39 the priest will make an examination. If the irritated areas on the skin are pale white, a rash has developed on the skin. The person is clean.

Leviticus 13:40 “If a man loses his hair, he is clean, even though he is bald.

Leviticus 13:41 If he loses the hair on the front of his head, he is clean, even though he is bald on the forehead.

Leviticus 13:42 But if there is a pink patch on the bald places in back or in front, a skin disease is developing in those places.

Leviticus 13:43 The priest will examine him. If the sore from the disease in the bald places in back or in front is pink like a skin disease somewhere else on the body,

Leviticus 13:44 the man has come down with an infectious skin disease. He is unclean. The priest must declare him unclean because of the skin disease on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 “People who come down with a skin disease must wear torn clothes and leave their hair uncombed. They must cover their upper lips and call out, ‘Unclean, unclean!’

Leviticus 13:46 As long as they have the skin disease, they are unclean. They must live outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 “Now about clothing-if there is a green or red area on a piece of clothing

Leviticus 13:48 that is woven or knitted from linen or wool or on any leather article,

Leviticus 13:49 it is mildew. It must be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:50 The priest will examine the mildew and will put the clothing in a separate place for seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 On the seventh day he will examine the area again. If the spot is spreading, it is unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 He must burn the piece of clothing or the leather article because the mildew is growing.

Leviticus 13:53 But if the priest sees that the area has not spread,

Leviticus 13:54 he must order the area to be washed and put the clothing in a separate place for seven more days.

Leviticus 13:55 The priest will examine the area again after it is washed. If it doesn’t look any different and the mildew has not spread, it is still unclean. It must be burned, whether the area is on the outside or the inside.

Leviticus 13:56 If the priest sees that the area is pale after washing, he will tear it out of the clothing or the leather.

Leviticus 13:57 However, if it shows up again, you must burn the clothing or the leather article.

Leviticus 13:58 But if the area disappears from the woven or knitted clothing or any leather article when it is washed, wash it again, and it will be clean.

Leviticus 13:59 “These are the instructions for deciding whether mildew in clothing that is woven or knitted from linen or wool or in any leather article is clean or unclean.”

Leviticus 14:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 14:2 “These are the instructions for making a person clean after a skin disease. He must be taken to the priest.

Leviticus 14:3 The priest will go outside the camp and examine him. If the person is healed,

Leviticus 14:4 the priest will order someone to get two living, clean birds, some cedar wood, red yarn, and a hyssop sprig to use for the cleansing.

Leviticus 14:5 Then the priest will order someone to kill one bird over a clay bowl containing fresh water.

Leviticus 14:6 The priest will take the living bird, the cedar wood, the red yarn, and the hyssop sprig and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.

Leviticus 14:7 He will sprinkle the blood seven times on the one to be cleansed and will declare that person clean. Then he will let the living bird fly away into the open country.

Leviticus 14:8 “The one to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and wash. Then he will be clean. After that he may go into the camp. However, for seven days he will live outside his tent.

Leviticus 14:9 On the seventh day he must shave off all the hair on his head, his beard, and his eyebrows, and he must wash his clothes and body. Then he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 “On the eighth day he must take two male lambs that have no defects and a one-year-old female lamb that has no defects. He must also take eight cups of flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering along with a quart of olive oil.

Leviticus 14:11 The priest who will declare him clean must bring the person and his offerings into the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 The priest will take one of the male lambs and the quart of olive oil and present them to the LORD as a guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:13 He will slaughter the lamb in the holy place where he slaughters the offering for sin and the burnt offering. He will do this because the guilt offering, like the offering for sin, belongs to the priest. It is very holy.

Leviticus 14:14 Then the priest will take some of the blood from the guilt offering and put it on the right ear lobe, on the right thumb, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:15 The priest will also take some of the olive oil and pour it into his own left hand.

Leviticus 14:16 He will dip his right finger in the oil in his left hand, and with his finger sprinkle some of the oil seven times in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 14:17 The priest will put some of the oil that is still in his hand on the right ear lobe, on the right thumb, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one to be cleansed. These are the same places he had put the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:18 The priest will put the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the one to be cleansed. So he will make peace with the LORD for that person in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 14:19 The priest will also sacrifice the offering for sin to make peace with the LORD for the one who is being cleansed from his impurity. After that, he will slaughter the burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:20 The priest will sacrifice the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest will make peace with the LORD for that person, and the person who had the skin disease will be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 “But if the one to be cleansed is poor and cannot afford that much, he must take one male lamb, present it to make peace with the LORD for himself, and use it for his guilt offering. He will take only eight cups of flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering, a quart of olive oil, Leviticus 14:22 and two mourning doves or two pigeons (whatever he can afford). The one will be an offering for sin and the other a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 On the eighth day he will take them to the priest for his cleansing at the entrance to the tent of meeting in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 14:24 The priest will take the lamb for the guilt offering and the quart of olive oil and present them to the LORD.

Leviticus 14:25 He will slaughter the lamb as a guilt offering. Then the priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the right ear lobe, on the right thumb, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:26 The priest will pour some of the olive oil into his own left hand.

Leviticus 14:27 With his right finger he will sprinkle some of the oil seven times in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 14:28 The priest will put some of the oil that is in his hand on the right ear lobe, on the right thumb, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one to be cleansed. These are the same places he had put the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:29 In the LORD’s presence, the priest will pour the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the one to be cleansed in order to make a payment for him.

Leviticus 14:30 Then the one to be cleansed must take one of the mourning doves or pigeons (whichever he can afford),

Leviticus 14:31 and sacrifice it as an offering for sin. He will take the other and sacrifice it as a burnt offering together with the grain offering. So in the LORD’s presence the priest will make peace with the LORD for the one who is being cleansed.

Leviticus 14:32 These are the instructions for one who has an infectious skin disease but cannot afford what is needed for his cleansing.”

Leviticus 14:33 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 14:34 “When you come to Canaan that I am going to give to you, mildew may appear in a house.

Leviticus 14:35 The owner of that house must come and tell the priest that there is something that looks like mildew in his house.

Leviticus 14:36 “Before the priest examines the house, he will order everything taken out of it so that nothing in the house will become unclean. Then the priest will go inside to examine the house.

Leviticus 14:37 He will examine the mildew area on the walls. If it is green and red in sunken areas that are deeper than the rest of the wall,

Leviticus 14:38 the priest will go out to the door of the house and close up the house for seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 On the seventh day the priest will go back and examine it again. If the mildew in the walls of the house has spread,

Leviticus 14:40 the priest must order the stones that have the mildew to be torn out and thrown outside the city in an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:41 He must have the entire inside of the house scraped. The plaster dust scraped off the walls must be dumped in an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:42 The stones must be replaced, and the house must be plastered again.

Leviticus 14:43 If the mildew develops again in the house after all this, Leviticus 14:44 the priest will examine it one more time. If it is a spreading type of mildew, the house is unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 The house-stones, wood, and all the plaster-must be torn down and taken to an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:46 Whoever goes into the house any time it is closed up will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 14:47 Whoever sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 But if the priest comes and makes an examination and the mildew has not spread in the house after it is plastered again, the priest must declare the house clean. The mildew is gone.

Leviticus 14:49 “The priest must take two birds, cedar wood, red yarn, and a hyssop sprig and use them to make the house clean.

Leviticus 14:50 He must kill the one bird over a clay bowl containing fresh water.

Leviticus 14:51 He must take the cedar wood, the hyssop sprig, the red yarn, and the living bird and dip them in the fresh water containing the blood of the bird that was killed. He must sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 So he must use the bird’s blood, the fresh water, the living bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the red yarn to make the house clean.

Leviticus 14:53 Then he will let the living bird fly from the city into the open country. He will make peace with the LORD for the house, and it will be clean.

Leviticus 14:54 “These are the instructions for any kind of mildew or fungus

Leviticus 14:55 that infects clothing or houses

Leviticus 14:56 and for skin diseases where there is a sore, a rash, or an irritated area.

Leviticus 14:57 These instructions for skin diseases and mildew help you distinguish between what is clean and what is unclean.”

Leviticus 15:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 15:2 “Tell the Israelites: If a man has a discharge from his penis, his discharge is unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 He is unclean because of the discharge from his penis. Whether it is chronic or not makes no difference; he is still unclean.

Leviticus 15:4 “The man who has a discharge makes everything he lies on or sits on unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 Those who touch his bed must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:6 Those who sit on anything he sat on must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:7 Those who touch a man who has a discharge must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:8 If a man who has a discharge spits on anyone who is clean, the person he spits on must wash his clothes and his body. He will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:9 When a man who has a discharge sits on a saddle, it becomes unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 Those who carry such things must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:11 If a man who has a discharge touches anyone without first rinsing his hands, the person he touched must wash his clothes and his body. He will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:12 When a man who has a discharge touches pottery, it must be broken, and any wooden bucket he touches must be rinsed.

Leviticus 15:13 “When a man’s discharge stops, he must wait seven days to be cleansed. He must wash his clothes and his body in fresh water. Then he will be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 On the eighth day he must take two mourning doves or two pigeons and come into the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting. He will give these birds to the priest.

Leviticus 15:15 The priest will sacrifice one as an offering for sin and the other as a burnt offering. So in the LORD’s presence, the priest will make peace with the LORD for the man who had a discharge.

Leviticus 15:16 “If a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his whole body. He will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:17 Any clothes or any leather with semen on it must be washed. It will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:18 “When a man has sexual intercourse with a woman and has an emission of semen, they must wash themselves. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:19 “When a woman has her monthly period, she will be unclean for seven days. Those who touch her will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:20 Everything she lies on or sits on during her period will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 Those who touch her bed must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:22 Those who touch anything she sits on must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:23 If her blood touches anything on the bed or anything she sits on, it will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:24 If a man has sexual intercourse with her while she has her period, he will be unclean for seven days. Any bed he lies on will become unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 “If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days other than her monthly period, she is unclean. If her period lasts longer than usual, she will be unclean as long as she has a discharge. It is like her period.

Leviticus 15:26 As long as she has a discharge, any bed she lies on or anything she sits on is unclean. It is like her period.

Leviticus 15:27 Those who touch these things are unclean and must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening.

Leviticus 15:28 “When her discharge stops, she must wait seven days. After that, she will be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 On the eighth day she must take two mourning doves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 The priest will offer one as an offering for sin and the other as a burnt offering. So in the LORD’s presence the priest will make peace with the LORD for the woman who had an unclean discharge.

Leviticus 15:31 “You must separate the Israelites from anything that keeps them from being presentable to me. Otherwise, they will die because they make my tent, which is among them, unclean.

Leviticus 15:32 “These are the instructions for any man who has a discharge or an emission of semen that makes him unclean, Leviticus 15:33 for any woman who has her period, for any man or woman who has a discharge, or for any man who has sexual intercourse with a woman when she is unclean.”

Leviticus 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses after Aaron’s two sons had come into the LORD’s presence and died.

Leviticus 16:2 The LORD said, “Tell your brother Aaron that he cannot go into the holy place whenever he wants to. If he goes up to the canopy and stands in front of the throne of mercy on the ark, he will die, because I appear in the smoke above the throne of mercy.

Leviticus 16:3 “This is what Aaron must do in order to come into the holy place: He must take a bull as an offering for sin and a ram as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 He must put on a holy linen robe and wear linen undergarments. He must wear a linen belt and turban. These are holy clothes. He must wash his body and put them on.

Leviticus 16:5 He will take two male goats from the congregation of Israel as an offering for sin and a ram as a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 “Aaron must sacrifice the bull as his own offering for sin. By doing this, he will make peace with the LORD for himself and his family.

Leviticus 16:7 He must take the two male goats and bring them into the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 16:8 Then Aaron must throw lots for the two goats. One lot will be for the LORD and the other for Azazel.

Leviticus 16:9 Aaron must sacrifice the goat chosen by lot for the LORD as an offering for sin.

Leviticus 16:10 But he must bring the goat chosen by lot for Azazel into the LORD’s presence. He will release it in the desert to Azazel in order to make peace with the LORD for himself and his family.

Leviticus 16:11 “Aaron will bring the bull. He will then slaughter it as his own offering for sin. By doing this he will make peace with the LORD for himself and his family.

Leviticus 16:12 He will take an incense burner full of burning coals from the altar, which is in the LORD’s presence, and two handfuls of finely ground, sweet-smelling incense. He will bring them up to the canopy.

Leviticus 16:13 Then he will put the incense on the fire in the LORD’s presence. The cloud of incense will cover the throne of mercy, which is over the words of God’s promise, so that he will not die.

Leviticus 16:14 He will take some of the bull’s blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the east side of the throne of mercy. Then he will sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times in front of the throne of mercy.

Leviticus 16:15 “Next, Aaron will slaughter the goat for the people’s offering for sin. He will take the blood inside, go up to the canopy, and sprinkle it on the throne of mercy and in front of it, as he did with the bull’s blood.

Leviticus 16:16 So he will make peace with the LORD for all the sins the Israelites committed against the holy place. These sins happened because the Israelites were unclean and because they committed rebellious acts. He will do the same for the tent of meeting which is among an unclean people.

Leviticus 16:17 No one may be in the tent of meeting from the time Aaron enters the holy place to do this until he comes out. Aaron will make peace with the LORD for his own sins, his family’s sins, and the sins of the entire assembly of Israel.

Leviticus 16:18 Then he will go out to the altar that is in the LORD’s presence and make peace with the LORD there for the sins committed.

He will take some of the blood from the bull and some of the goat’s blood and put it all around the horns of the altar.

Leviticus 16:19 With his finger he will sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times. Because the Israelites made it unclean, he will cleanse it and declare it holy.

Leviticus 16:20 “When he finishes making peace with the LORD at the holy place, the tent of meeting, and the altar, he will bring the living goat forward.

Leviticus 16:21 Aaron will place both hands on its head. He will confess over it all the sins, all the rebellious acts, and all the things the Israelites did wrong. He will transfer them to the goat’s head. A man will be appointed to release the goat in the desert.

Leviticus 16:22 The goat will take all their sins away to a deserted place. The man must release the goat in the desert.

Leviticus 16:23 “Then Aaron will go to the tent of meeting, take off the linen clothes he had put on to go into the holy place, and leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 He will wash his body in the holy place and put on his other clothes. Then he will come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself and for the people to make peace with the LORD for his own sins and the sins of the people.

Leviticus 16:25 He will burn the fat of the offering for sin on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 “The man who released the goat to Azazel must wash his clothes and his body. Then he may return to the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 He must take the bull and the goat outside the camp. These animals were the offering for sin whose blood was brought into the holy place to make peace with the LORD for sins. The skin, meat, and excrement from the animals must be burned.

Leviticus 16:28 Whoever burns them must wash his clothes and his body. Then he may return to the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 “This will be a permanent law for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month both native Israelites and foreigners must humble themselves. They must do no work.

Leviticus 16:30 On this day Aaron will make peace with the LORD to make you clean. Then you will be clean from all your sins in the LORD’s presence.

Leviticus 16:31 This is the most important worship festival there is for you. You will humble yourselves. It is a permanent law.

Leviticus 16:32 The priest who is anointed and ordained to serve as chief priest in his father’s place will pay for sins. He will put on the holy linen clothes

Leviticus 16:33 and will make peace with the LORD at the holy place, the tent of meeting, and the altar. He will make peace with the LORD for the priests and all the worshipers.

Leviticus 16:34 “This permanent law tells you how to make peace with the LORD once a year for all the sins the Israelites committed.” Aaron did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 17:2 “Tell Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites that this is what the LORD has commanded:

Leviticus 17:3 Any Israelite who slaughters a bull, sheep, or goat inside or outside the camp

Leviticus 17:4 is guilty of bloodshed. He has shed blood and must be excluded from the people. Bring the animal to the entrance of the tent of meeting. Offer it to the LORD in front of the LORD’s tent.

Leviticus 17:5 [This means] that the people of Israel must take the sacrifices they have been making in the open fields and bring them to the LORD. They must bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting. The people will sacrifice them as fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:6 The priest will pour the blood against the LORD’s altar at the entrance to the tent of meeting. He will burn the fat as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:7 The people must stop sacrificing to goat idols and chasing after them as though they were prostitutes. This is a permanent law for the people and for future generations.

Leviticus 17:8 “Tell them: If Israelites or foreigners make burnt offerings or sacrifices

Leviticus 17:9 but do not bring them to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer them to the LORD, they must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 17:10 “If Israelites or foreigners eat any blood, I will condemn them and exclude them from the people,

Leviticus 17:11 because blood contains life. I have given this blood to you to make peace with me on the altar. Blood is needed to make peace with me.

Leviticus 17:12 That is why I have said to the people of Israel: Neither you nor foreigners should ever eat blood.

Leviticus 17:13 “If Israelites or foreigners hunt any animal or bird that may be eaten, they must pour out the animal’s blood and cover it with dirt.

Leviticus 17:14 This is because the life of any creature is in its blood. So I have said to the people of Israel: Never eat any blood, because the life of any creature is in its blood. Whoever eats blood must be excluded [from the people].

Leviticus 17:15 “Native Israelites or foreigners who eat the body of an animal that dies naturally or is killed by another animal must wash their clothes and their bodies. They will be unclean until evening. Then they will be clean.

Leviticus 17:16 If they don’t wash their clothes and their bodies, they will be guilty of sin.”

Leviticus 18:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 18:2 “Tell the Israelites: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:3 You used to live in Egypt. Don’t live the way the Egyptians do. I am bringing you to Canaan. Don’t live the way the Canaanites do. Never live by their standards.

Leviticus 18:4 Follow my rules, and live by my standards. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:5 Live by my standards, and obey my rules. You will have life through them. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:6 “Never have sexual intercourse with anyone related to you by blood. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:7 “Never have sexual intercourse with your mother. She is your own mother. Never have sexual intercourse with her.

Leviticus 18:8 Never have sexual intercourse with your stepmother. She is related to you through your father.

Leviticus 18:9 Never have sexual intercourse with your stepsister, whether she is your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter. It makes no difference whether or not she was born in your house.

Leviticus 18:10 Never have sexual intercourse with your granddaughter, whether she is your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, because she is related to you.

Leviticus 18:11 Never have sexual intercourse with a daughter of your father and his wife. She is your own sister.

Leviticus 18:12 Never have sexual intercourse with your father’s sister. She is your paternal aunt.

Leviticus 18:13 Never have sexual intercourse with your mother’s sister. She is your maternal aunt.

Leviticus 18:14 Never have sexual intercourse with the wife of your father’s brother. She, too, is your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 Never have sexual intercourse with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife. Never have sexual intercourse with her.

Leviticus 18:16 Never have sexual intercourse with your sister-in-law. She is your brother’s wife.

Leviticus 18:17 Never have sexual intercourse with a woman and her daughter or a woman and her granddaughter. They are related. Doing this is perverted.

Leviticus 18:18 While your wife is living, never marry her sister as a rival wife and have sexual intercourse with her.

Leviticus 18:19 “Never have sexual intercourse with a woman while she is unclean during her monthly period.

Leviticus 18:20 Never have sexual intercourse with your neighbor’s wife and become unclean with her.

Leviticus 18:21 Never give your children as sacrifices to the god Molech [by burning them alive]. If you do, you are dishonoring the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:22 Never have sexual intercourse with a man as with a woman. It is disgusting.

Leviticus 18:23 Never have sexual intercourse with any animal and become unclean with it. A woman must never offer herself to an animal for sexual intercourse. It is unnatural.

Leviticus 18:24 “Do not become unclean in any of these ways. By these practices all the nations which I am forcing out of your way have become unclean.

Leviticus 18:25 The land has become unclean. I will punish it for its sins. The land will vomit out those who live in it.

Leviticus 18:26 Live by my standards, and obey my rules. Neither you nor any foreigner should ever do any of these disgusting things.

Leviticus 18:27 The people of the land who were there before you did all these disgusting things. As a result, the land has become unclean.

Leviticus 18:28 If you make the land unclean, it will vomit you out as it has vomited out the people who were there before you.

Leviticus 18:29 Whoever does any of these disgusting things must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 18:30 So you must follow my instructions. Don’t live by the standards of the people who lived there before you. What they do is disgusting. Never become unclean that way. I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 19:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 19:2 “Tell the whole congregation of Israel: Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

Leviticus 19:3 “Respect your mother and father. Observe my days of worship. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:4 “Don’t turn to worthless gods or cast metal idols. Never make any gods for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:5 “When you bring a fellowship offering to the LORD, sacrifice it [properly] so that you will be accepted.

Leviticus 19:6 Eat your sacrifice on the day you bring it and on the next day. On the third day burn whatever is left over.

Leviticus 19:7 If you eat any of it on the third day, it is repulsive and will not be accepted.

Leviticus 19:8 Those who eat it will be punished because they have dishonored what is holy to the LORD. They must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 19:9 “When you harvest the grain in your land, don’t harvest the grain in the corners of your fields or gather what is left after you’re finished.

Leviticus 19:10 Don’t harvest your vineyard a second time or pick up fallen grapes. Leave them for poor people and foreigners. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:11 “Never steal, lie, or deceive your neighbor.

Leviticus 19:12 “Never swear by my name in order to deceive anyone. This dishonors the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:13 “Never oppress or rob your neighbor. Never keep the pay you owe a hired worker overnight.

Leviticus 19:14 Never curse deaf people or put anything in the way of blind people to make them stumble. Instead, fear your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:15 “Don’t be corrupt when administering justice. Never give special favors to poor people, and never show preference to important people. Judge your neighbor fairly.

Leviticus 19:16 Never gossip. Never endanger your neighbor’s life. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:17 “Never hate another Israelite. Be sure to correct your neighbor so that you will not be guilty of sinning along with him.

Leviticus 19:18 Never get revenge. Never hold a grudge against any of your people. Instead, love your neighbor as you love yourself. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:19 “Obey my laws. Never crossbreed different kinds of animals. Never plant two kinds of crops in your field. Never wear clothes made from two kinds of material.

Leviticus 19:20 “If a man has sexual intercourse with a female slave who is engaged to another man and if her freedom was never bought or given to her, they should not be put to death. He will only pay a fine because she is a slave.

Leviticus 19:21 He must bring a ram for his guilt offering to the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 19:22 In the LORD’s presence the priest will use them to make peace with the LORD for this sin. The man will be forgiven for this sin.

Leviticus 19:23 “When you come into the land and plant all kinds of fruit trees, you must not eat the fruit for [the first] three years.

Leviticus 19:24 In the fourth year all the fruit will be a holy offering of praise to the LORD.

Leviticus 19:25 In the fifth year you may eat the fruit. Do this to make the trees produce more for you. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:26 “Never eat any meat with blood still in it. “Never cast evil spells, and never consult fortunetellers.

Leviticus 19:27 “Never shave the hair on your foreheads, and never cut the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 Never slash your body to mourn the dead, and never get a tattoo. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:29 “Never dishonor your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the country will turn to prostitution and be filled with people who are perverted.

Leviticus 19:30 “Observe my days of worship and respect my holy tent. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:31 “Don’t turn to psychics or mediums to get help. That will make you unclean. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:32 “Show respect to the elderly, and honor older people. In this way you show respect for your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:33 “Never mistreat a foreigner living in your land.

Leviticus 19:34 Foreigners living among you will be like your own people. Love them as you love yourself, because you were foreigners living in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:35 “Don’t be corrupt when administering justice concerning length, weight, or measuring liquid.

Leviticus 19:36 Use honest scales, honest weights, and honest measures. I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 “Obey all my laws and all my rules, and live by them. I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 20:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 20:2 “Tell the Israelites: If Israelites or foreigners living among you give one of their children as a sacrifice to [the god] Molech, they must be put to death. The common people must stone them to death.

Leviticus 20:3 I will condemn them and exclude them from the people. They gave one of their children to Molech, made my holy tent unclean, and dishonored my holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 If the common people ignore those who give their children to Molech and do not put them to death,

Leviticus 20:5 I will condemn them and their families. I will exclude them from the people. I will exclude from the people everyone who chases after Molech as if he were a prostitute.

Leviticus 20:6 “I will condemn people who turn to mediums and psychics and chase after them as though they were prostitutes. I will exclude them from the people.

Leviticus 20:7 “Live holy lives. Be holy because I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:8 Obey my laws, and live by them. I am the LORD who sets you apart as holy.

Leviticus 20:9 “Whoever curses his father or mother must be put to death. He has cursed his father or mother and deserves to die.

Leviticus 20:10 “If a man commits adultery with another man’s wife or with his neighbor’s wife, both he and the woman must be put to death for their adultery.

Leviticus 20:11 Whoever has sexual intercourse with his father’s wife has violated his father’s marriage. Both he and his father’s wife must be put to death. They deserve to die.

Leviticus 20:12 If a man has sexual intercourse with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have done a disgusting thing and deserve to die.

Leviticus 20:13 When a man has sexual intercourse with another man as with a woman, both men are doing something disgusting and must be put to death. They deserve to die.

Leviticus 20:14 When a man marries a woman and her mother, they have done a perverted thing. The man and the two women must be burned. Never do this perverted thing.

Leviticus 20:15 A man who has sexual intercourse with an animal must be put to death. You must kill the animal, too.

Leviticus 20:16 When a woman offers herself sexually to any animal, you must kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. They deserve to die.

Leviticus 20:17 Whoever takes his sister, his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter and has sexual intercourse does a shameful thing. They both must be publicly excluded from the people. He has had sexual intercourse with his sister and must be punished.

Leviticus 20:18 If a man has sexual intercourse with a woman while she has her monthly period, both of them have had sexual intercourse in blood. They must be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 20:19 Never have sexual intercourse with your mother's sister or your father's sister. Whoever has sexual intercourse with a close relative must be punished.

Leviticus 20:20 Whoever has sexual intercourse with his uncle's wife violates his uncle's marriage. That man and woman are guilty of sin. They will die without children.

Leviticus 20:21 Whoever marries his brother's wife violates his brother's marriage and does an unclean thing. That man and woman will have no children.

Leviticus 20:22 "If you carefully obey all my laws and my rules, the land I am bringing you to live in will not vomit you out.

Leviticus 20:23 Never follow the practices of the people I am forcing out of your way. I cannot stand them because they did all these things.

Leviticus 20:24 I have told you that you will take their land. I will give it to you as your own. It is a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God who separated you from other people.

Leviticus 20:25 Separate clean and unclean animals and birds. Never become disgusting by eating any animal or bird or anything that crawls on the ground. I have separated you from every unclean thing.

Leviticus 20:26 Be my holy people because I, the LORD, am holy. I have separated you from other people to be my very own.

Leviticus 20:27 "Every man or woman who is a medium or a psychic must be put to death. They must be stoned to death because they deserve to die."

Leviticus 21:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, "Tell the priests, Aaron's sons: None of you should become unclean by touching one of your relatives who has died.

Leviticus 21:2 However, you are allowed to become unclean when one of your nearest relatives dies. These relatives include your mother, father, son, daughter, or brother,

Leviticus 21:3 and especially an unmarried virgin sister who is still close to you.

Leviticus 21:4 As the head of your people, you should never become unclean. That would make you unholy.

Leviticus 21:5 "You should never mourn by shaving bald spots on your heads, shaving the edges of your beards, or slashing your bodies.

Leviticus 21:6 "Be God's holy men, and don't dishonor the name of your God. Be holy because you bring sacrifices by fire to the LORD. It is the food of your God.

Leviticus 21:7 You should never marry prostitutes, those who have lost their virginity, or divorced women because a priest is God's holy man.

Leviticus 21:8 Be holy because you offer the food of your God. Be holy because I, the LORD, am holy. I set you apart as holy.

Leviticus 21:9 When a priest's daughter dishonors herself by becoming a prostitute, she dishonors her father. She must be burned.

Leviticus 21:10 "The priest who is anointed with oil and wears the chief priest's clothes is chief over his brothers. He must never mourn by leaving his hair uncombed or by tearing his clothes.

Leviticus 21:11 He must never go near any dead bodies or become unclean, even for his father or mother.

Leviticus 21:12 He must not leave the holy tent of his God. If he does, he will be dishonoring it, because he is dedicated with the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 21:13 "The anointed priest must marry a virgin.

Leviticus 21:14 He must never marry a widow, a divorced woman, a woman who has lost her virginity, or a prostitute. He may only marry a virgin from his own people.

Leviticus 21:15 He must not dishonor his children among his people because I, the LORD, set him apart as holy."

Leviticus 21:16 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 21:17 "Tell Aaron: If any of your descendants (now or in future generations) has a physical defect, he must never bring food to offer to God.

Leviticus 21:18 Indeed, no one who has a physical defect may ever come near [the altar]. That means anyone who is blind or lame, who has a disfigured face, a deformity,

Leviticus 21:19 or a crippled hand or foot,

Leviticus 21:20 who is a hunchback or dwarf, who has defective sight, skin diseases, or crushed testicles.

Leviticus 21:21 If a descendant of the priest Aaron has a physical defect, he must never bring sacrifices by fire to the LORD. He has a defect. He must never bring food to offer to God.

Leviticus 21:22 He may eat the food of his God-what is holy and what is very holy.

Leviticus 21:23 However, he must never come up to the canopy or to the altar, since he has a physical defect. He must never dishonor the holy places because I, the LORD, set them apart as holy."

Leviticus 21:24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

Leviticus 22:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 22:2 "Tell Aaron and his sons that they must respect the holy offerings which the Israelites set apart for me. In this way they will not dishonor my holy name. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:3 “Tell them: In future generations if any of your descendants, while unclean, comes near the holy offerings the Israelites set apart for the LORD, that person must be excluded from my presence. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:4 “No descendant of Aaron who has a skin disease or a discharge may eat any of the holy offerings until he is clean. Any person who has an emission of semen or touches a dead body,

Leviticus 22:5 an unclean swarming creature, or an unclean person

Leviticus 22:6 will be unclean until evening. He must not eat any of the holy offerings unless he has washed himself.

Leviticus 22:7 When the sun has set, he will be clean. Then he may eat the holy offerings because they are his food.

Leviticus 22:8 He must never eat the meat of an animal that dies naturally or is killed by wild animals. It will make him unclean. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:9 The priests must do what I order, or their sin will bring them death because they dishonored a holy offering. I am the LORD, who sets them apart as holy.

Leviticus 22:10 “Laypeople must never eat any holy offering, even if they are visiting a priest or are working for him.

Leviticus 22:11 But if a priest buys a slave, the slave and anyone born in his household may eat the priest’s food.

Leviticus 22:12 However, if a priest’s daughter marries a layman, she must never eat the food taken from the holy contributions.

Leviticus 22:13 If a priest’s daughter is widowed or divorced, doesn’t have any children, and comes back to live in her father’s home, she may eat her father’s food. But a layperson must never eat it.

Leviticus 22:14 “Those who eat a holy offering by mistake must give another holy offering to the priest and add one-fifth more to it.

Leviticus 22:15 Priests must not dishonor the holy offerings that the Israelites contribute to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:16 They must make those people pay the penalty for their guilt because they have eaten the priests’ holy offerings. I am the LORD, who sets them apart as holy.”

Leviticus 22:17 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 22:18 “Tell Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites: Israelites or foreigners may bring burnt offerings to the LORD for anything they vowed or as freewill offerings.

Leviticus 22:19 The offering must be a male that has no defects from your cattle, sheep, or goats in order to be accepted.

Leviticus 22:20 Never bring any animal with a physical defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.

Leviticus 22:21 A person may bring the LORD a fellowship offering to fulfill a vow or for a freewill offering. Whether it is from the cattle, sheep, or goats, it must be an animal that has no defects in order to be accepted. It must never be an animal that has defects.

Leviticus 22:22 Never bring the LORD an animal that is blind, has broken bones, cuts, warts, scabs, or ringworm. Never give the LORD any of these in a sacrifice by fire on the altar.

Leviticus 22:23 You may use a bull or a sheep with a deformity or one that is stunted in growth as a freewill offering. However, it will not be accepted for a vow.

Leviticus 22:24 Never bring the LORD an animal that has bruised, crushed, torn out, or cut out testicles. Never do any of these things to an animal in your land.

Leviticus 22:25 Never bring any kind of castrated animal received from a foreigner as a food offering for your God. A castrated animal will not be accepted on your behalf because castration is a physical defect."

Leviticus 22:26 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 22:27 "When a calf, a lamb, or a goat is born, it must stay with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on it may be accepted as a sacrifice by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:28 Never slaughter a cow or a sheep and its young the same day.

Leviticus 22:29 "When you sacrifice a thank offering to the LORD, do it in the proper way.

Leviticus 22:30 Eat it the same day. Never leave any of it until morning. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:31 "Carefully obey my commands. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:32 Never dishonor my holy name. I will show my holiness among the Israelites. I am the LORD, who sets you apart as holy.

Leviticus 22:33 I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD."

Leviticus 23:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 23:2 "Tell the Israelites: These are the appointed festivals with the LORD, which you must announce as holy assemblies.

Leviticus 23:3 You may work for six days. But the seventh day is a day of worship, a day when you don't work, a holy assembly. Don't do any work. It is the LORD's day of worship wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:4 "The following are the LORD's appointed festivals with holy assemblies, which you must announce at their appointed times.

Leviticus 23:5 "The fourteenth day of the first month, in the evening, is the LORD's Passover.

Leviticus 23:6 The fifteenth day of this same month is the LORD’s Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

Leviticus 23:7 On the first day there will be a holy assembly. Don’t do any regular work.

Leviticus 23:8 Bring the LORD a sacrifice by fire for seven days. On the seventh day there will be a holy assembly. Don’t do any regular work.”

Leviticus 23:9 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 23:10 “Tell the Israelites: When you come to the land I am going to give you and you harvest grain, bring the priest a bundle of the first grain you harvest.

Leviticus 23:11 He will present it to the LORD so that you will be accepted. He will present it on the day after Passover.

Leviticus 23:12 On the day you present the bundle, you must sacrifice a one-year-old male lamb that has no defects as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:13 Bring a grain offering of four quarts of flour mixed with olive oil with it. This will be a sacrifice by fire made to the LORD, a soothing aroma. Use one quart of wine for the wine offering.

Leviticus 23:14 Don’t eat bread, roasted grain, or fresh grain until this same day, when you bring the offering to your God. It is a permanent law for generations to come wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:15 “Count seven full weeks from the day after Passover (the day you bring the bundle of grain as an offering presented to the LORD)

Leviticus 23:16 until the day after the seventh week. This is a total of fifty days. Then bring a new grain offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:17 Bring two loaves of bread from your homes to present to the LORD. Bake them with four quarts of flour. They are the first harvested grain for the LORD.

Leviticus 23:18 With the bread bring seven one-year-old lambs that have no defects, one bull, and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD. With these offerings also bring grain and wine offerings. They will be a sacrifice by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:19 Also sacrifice one male goat as an offering for sin and two one-year-old lambs as a fellowship offering.

Leviticus 23:20 The priest must present them along with the bread of the first harvested grain as an offering to the LORD. All this, along with the two lambs, will be holy and will belong to the LORD’s priests.

Leviticus 23:21 Make an announcement that there will be a holy assembly on that same day. Don’t do any regular work. It is a permanent law for generations to come wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:22 “When you harvest the grain in your land, don’t harvest the grain in the corners of your fields or gather what is left after you’re finished. Leave it for poor people and foreigners. I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 23:23 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 23:24 “Tell the Israelites: On the first day of the seventh month hold a worship festival. It will be a memorial day, a holy assembly announced by the blowing of rams’ horns.

Leviticus 23:25 Don’t do any regular work. Bring a sacrifice by fire to the LORD.”

Leviticus 23:26 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 23:27 “In addition, the tenth day of this seventh month is a special day for the payment for sins. There will be a holy assembly. Humble yourselves, and bring the LORD a sacrifice by fire.

Leviticus 23:28 Don’t do any work that day. It is a special day for the payment for sins. It is a time when you make peace with the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:29 Those who do not humble themselves on that day will be excluded from the people.

Leviticus 23:30 I will kill those who do any work on that day.

Leviticus 23:31 Don’t do any work. It is a permanent law for generations to come wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:32 It is a day of worship, a day when you don’t work. Humble yourselves starting on the evening of the ninth day of the month. From that evening to the next, observe the day of worship.”

Leviticus 23:33 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 23:34 “Tell the Israelites: The fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Festival of Booths to the LORD. It will last seven days.

Leviticus 23:35 On the first day there will be a holy assembly. Don’t do any regular work.

Leviticus 23:36 For seven consecutive days bring a sacrifice by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day there will be a holy assembly. Bring the LORD a sacrifice by fire. This is the last festival of the year. Don’t do any regular work.

Leviticus 23:37 “These are the LORD’s appointed festivals. Announce them as holy assemblies for bringing sacrifices by fire to the LORD. Bring burnt offerings, grain offerings, other sacrifices, and wine offerings-each one on its special day.

Leviticus 23:38 This is in addition to the LORD's days of worship, your gifts, all your vows, and your freewill offerings to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:39 "However, on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered what the land produces, celebrate the LORD's festival for seven days. The first and the eighth days will be worship festivals.

Leviticus 23:40 On the first day take the best fruits, palm branches, the branches of leafy trees and poplars, and celebrate in the presence of the LORD your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 It is the LORD's festival. Celebrate it for seven days each year. This is a permanent law for generations to come. Celebrate this festival in the seventh month.

Leviticus 23:42 Live in booths for seven days. Everyone born in Israel must live in booths

Leviticus 23:43 so that generations to come may learn how I made the people of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."

Leviticus 23:44 So Moses told the Israelites about the LORD's appointed festivals.

Leviticus 24:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 24:2 "Command the Israelites to bring you pure, virgin olive oil for the lamp stand so that the lamps won't go out.

Leviticus 24:3 In the tent of meeting, outside the canopy where the words of my promise are, Aaron must keep the lamps lit in the LORD's presence from evening until morning. It is a permanent law for generations to come.

Leviticus 24:4 Aaron must keep the lamps on the pure gold lamp stand lit in the LORD's presence.

Leviticus 24:5 "Also take flour and bake twelve rings of bread. Each ring will contain four quarts of flour.

Leviticus 24:6 Put them in two stacks of six each on the gold table in the LORD's presence.

Leviticus 24:7 Lay pure incense on top of each stack. The incense on the bread will be a reminder, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 24:8 Every day of worship [a priest] must arrange the bread in the LORD's presence. It is a continual reminder of my promise to the Israelites.

Leviticus 24:9 The bread will belong to Aaron and his sons. They will eat it in a holy place. It is very holy, set apart from the LORD's offering by fire. This is a permanent law."

Leviticus 24:10 A man, whose mother was Shelomith (daughter of Dibri, from the tribe of Dan in Israel) and whose father was from Egypt, got into a quarrel with an Israelite in the camp.

Leviticus 24:11 The Israelite woman's son began cursing the LORD's name and treating it with contempt. So they brought him to Moses.

Leviticus 24:12 They kept him in custody until the LORD told them what to do.

Leviticus 24:13 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 24:14 "The man who cursed [my name] must be taken outside the camp. All who heard him curse [my name] must lay their hands on his head. Then the whole congregation must stone him to death.

Leviticus 24:15 "Also tell the Israelites: Those who treat their God with contempt will be punished for their sin.

Leviticus 24:16 But those who curse the LORD's name must be put to death. The whole congregation must stone them to death. It makes no difference whether they are Israelites or foreigners. Whoever curses the LORD's name must die.

Leviticus 24:17 "Whoever kills another person must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 Whoever kills an animal must replace it, life for life.

Leviticus 24:19 Whoever injures a neighbor must receive the same injury in return-

Leviticus 24:20 a broken bone for a broken bone, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. Whoever injures another person must receive the same injury in return.

Leviticus 24:21 Whoever kills an animal must replace it. Whoever kills a person must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 The same rule applies to every one of you. It makes no difference whether you are a foreigner or an Israelite, because I am the LORD your God."

Leviticus 24:23 Moses spoke to the people of Israel. So the man who had cursed the LORD's name was taken outside the camp. There they stoned him to death as the LORD commanded Moses. The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai,

Leviticus 25:2 "Tell the Israelites: When you come into the land I'm giving you, the land will celebrate a year to honor the LORD.

Leviticus 25:3 Then, for six years you may plant crops in your fields, prune your vineyards, and gather what they produce.

Leviticus 25:4 However, the seventh year will be a festival year for the land. It will be a year to honor the LORD. Don't plant crops in your fields or prune your vineyards.

Leviticus 25:5 Don’t harvest what grows by itself or harvest grapes from your vines. That year will be a festival for the land.

Leviticus 25:6 Whatever the land produces during that year is for all of you to eat-for you, your male and female slaves, your hired workers, foreigners among you,

Leviticus 25:7 your animals, and the wild animals in your land. Everything the land produces will be yours to eat.

Leviticus 25:8 “Count seven of these years seven times for a total of 49 years.

Leviticus 25:9 On the tenth day of the seventh month, the special day for the payment for sin, sound rams’ horns throughout the country.

Leviticus 25:10 Set apart the fiftieth year as holy, and proclaim liberty to everyone living in the land. This is your jubilee year. Every slave will be freed in order to return to his property and to his family.

Leviticus 25:11 That fiftieth year will be your jubilee year. Don’t plant or harvest what grows by itself or pick grapes from the vines in the land.

Leviticus 25:12 The jubilee [year] will be holy to you. You will eat what the field itself produces.

Leviticus 25:13 “In this jubilee year every slave will be freed in order to return to his property.

Leviticus 25:14 If you sell anything to your neighbor or buy anything from him, don’t take advantage of him.

Leviticus 25:15 When you buy property from your neighbor, take into account the number of years since the jubilee. Your neighbor must sell it to you taking into account the number of crops [until the next jubilee].

Leviticus 25:16 If there are still many years [until the jubilee], you will pay more for it. If there are only a few years [until the jubilee], you will pay less for it because he is selling you only the number of crops.

Leviticus 25:17 Never take advantage of each other. Fear your God, because I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 25:18 “Obey my laws, and carefully follow my rules. Then you will live securely in the land.

Leviticus 25:19 The land will give you its products, and you will eat all you want and live there securely.

Leviticus 25:20 You may ask, ‘What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not plant or bring in our crops?’

Leviticus 25:21 I will give you my blessing in the sixth year so that the land will produce enough for three years.

Leviticus 25:22 You will plant [again] in the eighth year but live on what the land already produced. You will eat it, even in the ninth year, until the land produces more.

Leviticus 25:23 “Land must never be sold permanently, because the land is mine. To me you are strangers without permanent homes.

Leviticus 25:24 People must always have the right to buy their property back.

Leviticus 25:25 If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his property, then the one who can assume responsibility, his nearest relative, must buy back what he sold.

Leviticus 25:26 If a man doesn’t have anyone to buy it back for him, but if he prospers and earns enough to buy it back himself,

Leviticus 25:27 he must count the years from its sale. Then he will pay what is left to the man to whom he sold it, and it will be his property again.

Leviticus 25:28 However, if he cannot earn enough to buy it back, what he sold stays in the hands of the buyer until the year of jubilee. In the jubilee it will be released, and he will own it again.

Leviticus 25:29 “If anyone sells a home in a walled city, for one year after selling it he has the right to buy it back. He may buy it back only within that time.

Leviticus 25:30 If he does not buy it back during that year, the house in the city belongs to the buyer for generations to come. It will not be released in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:31 However, houses in villages without walls are regarded as belonging to the fields of the land. They can be bought back. They will be released in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:32 “The Levites always have the right to buy back their property in the cities they own.

Leviticus 25:33 If any Levite buys back [a house], in the jubilee the purchased house in the city will be released, because the houses in the Levite cities are their property among the Israelites.

Leviticus 25:34 But a field that belongs to their cities must not be sold, because it is their permanent property.

Leviticus 25:35 “If an Israelite becomes poor and cannot support himself, help him. He must live with you as a stranger without a permanent home.

Leviticus 25:36 Don’t collect interest or make any profit from him. Fear your God by respecting other Israelites’ lives.

Leviticus 25:37 Never collect any kind of interest on your money or on the food you give them.

Leviticus 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to give you Canaan and to be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 “If an Israelite becomes poor and sells himself to you, don’t work him like a slave.

Leviticus 25:40 He will be like a hired worker or a visitor to you. He may work with you until the year of jubilee.

Leviticus 25:41 Then you will release him and his children to go back to their family and the property of their ancestors.

Leviticus 25:42 They are my servants. I brought them out of Egypt. They must never be sold as slaves.

Leviticus 25:43 Do not treat them harshly. Fear your God.

Leviticus 25:44 “You may have male and female slaves, but buy them from the nations around you.

Leviticus 25:45 You may also buy them from the foreigners living among you and from their families born in your country. They will be your property.

Leviticus 25:46 You may acquire them for yourselves and for your descendants as permanent property. You may work them as slaves. However, do not treat the Israelites harshly. They are your relatives.

Leviticus 25:47 “Someone who is a foreigner without a permanent home among you may become rich, and your relative living with him may be poor. The poor Israelite may sell himself to that foreigner or a member of his family.

Leviticus 25:48 After he has sold himself, he has the right to be bought back. One of his brothers may buy him back.

Leviticus 25:49 His uncle, his cousin, or some other relative could also buy him back. If he becomes rich, he could buy his own freedom.

Leviticus 25:50 Then he and his buyer must take into account the number of years from the year he was bought until the year of jubilee. His sale price will be adjusted based on the number of years he was with his buyer, like the wages of a hired worker.

Leviticus 25:51 If there are many years left, he must refund from his purchase price an amount equal [to those years].

Leviticus 25:52 If there are only a few years left until the year of jubilee, he must take them into account. He must refund from his purchase price an amount equal to those years.

Leviticus 25:53 During those years he should serve his buyer as a hired worker. His buyer should not treat him harshly.

Leviticus 25:54 If he cannot buy his freedom in these ways, he and his children will be released in the year of jubilee.

Leviticus 25:55 “The Israelites belong to me as servants. They are my servants. I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 26:1 [The LORD continued,] “Never make worthless idols or set up a carved statue or a sacred stone for yourselves. Never cut figures in stone to worship them in your country, because I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:2 Observe my days of worship and respect my holy tent. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 26:3 “This is what I will do if you will live by my laws and carefully obey my commands:

Leviticus 26:4 “I will give you rain at the right time. The land will produce its crops, and the trees in the field will produce their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 Threshing time will last until grape gathering, and grape gathering will last until planting. You will eat all you want and live securely in your land.

Leviticus 26:6 “I will bring peace to your land. You will lie down with no one to scare you. I will remove dangerous animals, and there will be no war in your land.

Leviticus 26:7 You will chase your enemies, and you will defeat them.

Leviticus 26:8 Five of you will chase a hundred of them, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand of them. You will defeat your enemies,

Leviticus 26:9 and I will be pleased with you. Your families will be large, and I will keep my promise to you.

Leviticus 26:10 You will clear out old food supplies to make room for new ones.

Leviticus 26:11 “I will put my tent among you, and I will never look at you with disgust.

Leviticus 26:12 So I will live among you and be your God, and you will be my people.

Leviticus 26:13 I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt so that you are no longer slaves of the Egyptians. I have broken their power over you and made you live as a free people.

Leviticus 26:14 “If you will not listen to me and obey all these commands,

Leviticus 26:15 if you reject my laws and look at my rules with disgust, if you reject my promise by disobeying my commands,

Leviticus 26:16 then this is what I will do to you: I will terrorize you with disease and fever. You will suffer from eye problems and depression. You will plant your crops and get nothing because your enemies will eat them.

Leviticus 26:17 I will condemn you so that you will go down in defeat in front of your enemies. Those who hate you will be your rulers. You will run away even when no one is chasing you.

Leviticus 26:18 “If you still will not listen to me, I will discipline you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:19 I will crush your arrogance. You will have no rain, and your land will be as hard as cement.

Leviticus 26:20 You will work hard for nothing because your land will produce no crops and the trees will produce no fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 “If you resist and don’t listen to me, I will increase the punishment for your sins seven times.

Leviticus 26:22 I will send wild animals among you. They will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle, and make you so few that your roads will be deserted.

Leviticus 26:23 “If this discipline does not help and you still resist,

Leviticus 26:24 then I, too, will resist you. I will punish you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:25 I will bring war on you to get revenge for my promise [that you rejected]. When you gather in your cities, I will send plagues on you and you will fall under the control of your enemy.

Leviticus 26:26 I will destroy your food supply. Ten women will need only one oven to prepare your food. You will eat and go away hungry.

Leviticus 26:27 “If in spite of this you do not listen to me and still resist me,

Leviticus 26:28 I will fiercely resist you. I will discipline you seven times for your sins.

Leviticus 26:29 You will eat the bodies of your sons and daughters.

Leviticus 26:30 I will destroy your worship sites, cut down your incense altars, and pile your dead bodies on top of your dead idols. I will look at you with disgust.

Leviticus 26:31 I will make your cities deserted and ruin your sacred places. I will no longer accept the soothing aroma from your sacrifices.

Leviticus 26:32 I will make your land so deserted that your enemies will be shocked as they settle in it.

Leviticus 26:33 I will scatter you among the nations. War will follow you. Your country will be in ruins. Your cities will be deserted.

Leviticus 26:34 “Then the land will enjoy its time [to honor the LORD] while it lies deserted and you are in your enemies’ land. Then the land will joyfully celebrate its time [to honor the LORD].

Leviticus 26:35 All the days it lies deserted, it will celebrate the time [to honor the LORD] it never celebrated while you lived there.

Leviticus 26:36 I will fill with despair those who are left in the land of their enemies. The sound of a windblown leaf will make them run. They will run away and fall, but no one will be chasing them.

Leviticus 26:37 They will stumble over each other, but no one will be after them. They will not be able to stand up to their enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 They will be destroyed among the nations. The land of their enemies will devour them.

Leviticus 26:39 Those who are left will waste away in the lands of their enemies because of their sins and the sins of their ancestors.

Leviticus 26:40 “But if they confess their sins and the sins of their ancestors-the treacherous things they did to oppose me-

Leviticus 26:41 I will oppose them and bring them into the lands of their enemies. Then, if they humble their uncircumcised hearts and accept their guilt,

Leviticus 26:42 I will remember my promise to Jacob, Isaac, and Abraham. I will also remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 The land, abandoned by them, will enjoy its time to honor the LORD while it lies deserted without them. They must accept their guilt because they rejected my rules and looked at my laws with disgust.

Leviticus 26:44 Even when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or look at them with disgust. I will not reject or cancel my promise to them, because I am the LORD their God.

Leviticus 26:45 But for their sake, I will remember the promise to their ancestors. I brought them out of Egypt to be their God while nations looked on. I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 26:46 These are the laws, rules, and instructions that the LORD gave to the Israelites through Moses on Mount Sinai.

Leviticus 27:1 The LORD spoke to Moses,

Leviticus 27:2 “Tell the Israelites: If any of you makes a special vow [to give a person] to the LORD, you may give money instead of the person.

Leviticus 27:3 The amount you must give for a man from 20 to 60 years old is 20 ounces of silver. Use the standard weight of the holy place.

Leviticus 27:4 If it is a woman, give 12 ounces.

Leviticus 27:5 For a boy from 5 to 20 years old, give 8 ounces and for a girl give 4 ounces.

Leviticus 27:6 For a boy from one month to five years old, give 2 ounces of silver and for a girl give about one ounce.

Leviticus 27:7 For a man 60 years or over, give 6 ounces and for a woman give 4 ounces.

Leviticus 27:8 But the person who is too poor to pay the required amount must stand in front of the priest. The priest will determine the amount based on what the person can afford.

Leviticus 27:9 “If [the vow] is to give the kind of animal that people offer to the LORD, it will be considered holy.

Leviticus 27:10 Don’t exchange or substitute animals, a good one for a bad one or a bad one for a good one. If you do exchange one animal for another, then both animals will be holy.

Leviticus 27:11 If it is an unclean animal that cannot be brought to the LORD as an offering, bring it in front of the priest.

Leviticus 27:12 The priest will determine what its value is. The value will be whatever the priest decides.

Leviticus 27:13 If you want to buy it back, you must pay its full value plus one-fifth more.

Leviticus 27:14 “If you give your house to the LORD as something holy, the priest will determine what its value is. The value will be whatever the priest decides.

Leviticus 27:15 If you want to buy it back, you must pay its full value plus one-fifth more.

Leviticus 27:16 “If a person gives part of a field to the LORD as something holy, its value will be based on the seed planted on it. Ground planted with 2 quarts of barley will be worth 20 ounces of silver.

Leviticus 27:17 If you give your field in the jubilee year, it will have its full value.

Leviticus 27:18 But if you give the field after the jubilee year, the priest will estimate its value based on the number of years left until the next jubilee year.

Leviticus 27:19 If you want to buy it back, you must pay its full value plus one-fifth more.

Leviticus 27:20 But if you don’t buy it back and it is sold to someone else, you cannot buy it back.

Leviticus 27:21 When the field is released in the jubilee year, it will be holy like a field claimed by the LORD. It will become the property of the priest.

Leviticus 27:22 You may give a field you bought (not one that was a part of your family property) to the LORD as something holy.

Leviticus 27:23 The priest must figure out the field’s value until the jubilee year. You will pay its value on that day as something holy, belonging to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:24 In the jubilee year the field will go back to the person from whom it was bought, to whom it belongs as family property.

Leviticus 27:25 “All values will be set using the standard weight of the holy place.

Leviticus 27:26 “A firstborn animal already belongs to the LORD because it was born first. Therefore, it cannot be set apart as holy. Whether it is a bull or a sheep, it belongs to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:27 But if it is an unclean animal, it must be bought back. The payment will be its full value plus one-fifth more. If it is not bought back, it must be sold at the value given it.

Leviticus 27:28 “However, everything dedicated to the LORD for destruction-a person, an animal, or a field that belongs to you-must not be sold or bought back. Everything dedicated in that way is very holy. It belongs to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:29 People dedicated this way cannot be bought back. They must be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 “One-tenth of what comes from the land, whether grain or fruit, is holy and belongs to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:31 If you buy back any part of it, you must add one-fifth more to it.

Leviticus 27:32 Every tenth head of cattle or sheep that you counted is holy and belongs to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:33 You must not look to see if it is good or bad or exchange it. But if you do exchange it, both the first animal and its substitute will be holy. They cannot be bought back.”

Leviticus 27:34 These are the commands the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

Numbers

1:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting in the Desert of Sinai. It was the first day of the second month in the second year after leaving Egypt. He said,

Numbers 1:2 “Take a census of the whole community of Israel by families and households. List every man by name

Numbers 1:3 who is at least 20 years old. You and Aaron must register everyone in Israel who is eligible for military duty. List them by divisions.

Numbers 1:4 One man from each tribe will help you. Each of these men must be the head of a household.

Numbers 1:5 “Here are the names of the men who will help you: Elizur, son of Shedeur, from the tribe of Reuben;

Numbers 1:6 Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai, from the tribe of Simeon;

Numbers 1:7 Nahshon, son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 1:8 Nethanel, son of Zuar, from the tribe of Issachar;

Numbers 1:9 Eliab, son of Helon, from the tribe of Zebulun;

Numbers 1:10 Elishama, son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Ephraim; Gamaliel, son of Pedahzur, from the tribe of Manasseh; (Ephraim and Manasseh are Joseph's descendants.)

Numbers 1:11 Abidan, son of Gideoni, from the tribe of Benjamin;

Numbers 1:12 Ahiezer, son of Ammishaddai, from the tribe of Dan;

Numbers 1:13 Pagiel, son of Ochran, from the tribe of Asher;

Numbers 1:14 Eliasaph, son of Deuel, from the tribe of Gad;

Numbers 1:15 Ahira, son of Enan, from the tribe of Naphtali."

Numbers 1:16 These were the men chosen from the community, the leaders of their ancestors' tribes, and heads of the divisions of Israel.

Numbers 1:17 Moses and Aaron took the men who had been named

Numbers 1:18 and assembled the whole community on the first day of the second month. Each man at least 20 years old provided his genealogy by family and household. Then his name was listed.

Numbers 1:19 So Moses registered the men of Israel in the Desert of Sinai as the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 1:20 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Reuben], Israel's firstborn son, listed every man by name who was at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:21 The total for the tribe of Reuben was 46,500.

Numbers 1:22 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Simeon] registered and listed every man by name who was at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:23 The total for the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.

Numbers 1:24 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Gad] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:25 The total for the tribe of Gad was 45,650.

Numbers 1:26 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Judah] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:27 The total for the tribe of Judah was 74,600.

Numbers 1:28 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Issachar] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:29 The total for the tribe of Issachar was 54,400.

Numbers 1:30 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Zebulun] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:31 The total for the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400.

Numbers 1:32 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Joseph]-those from [Ephraim]-listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:33 The total for the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500.

Numbers 1:34 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Manasseh] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:35 The total for the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200.

Numbers 1:36 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Benjamin] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:37 The total for the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400.

Numbers 1:38 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Dan] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:39 The total for the tribe of Dan was 62,700.

Numbers 1:40 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Asher] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:41 The total for the tribe of Asher was 41,500.

Numbers 1:42 The roster of families and households for the descendants of [Naphtali] listed the men by name who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.

Numbers 1:43 The total for the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400.

Numbers 1:44 Moses, Aaron, and the 12 leaders of Israel, each representing his own family, added up these totals.

Numbers 1:45 So the Israelites were registered by households. The grand total of men who were at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty

Numbers 1:46 was 603,550.

Numbers 1:47 But the households from the tribe of [Levi] were not registered along with the other Israelites.

Numbers 1:48 The LORD had said to Moses,

Numbers 1:49 “Don’t register the tribe of Levi or include them in the census with the other Israelites.

Numbers 1:50 Put the Levites in charge of the tent of God’s words, including the equipment for the tent and everything else having to do with the tent. The Levites will carry the tent and all its equipment. They will take care of the tent and camp around it.

Numbers 1:51 When the tent has to be moved, the Levites will take it down. When we camp, they will set it up. Anyone else who comes near the tent will be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 “The other Israelites will camp with each family in its own area under its own flag.

Numbers 1:53 The Levites will camp all around the tent of God’s words. In this way [the LORD] won’t be angry with the community of Israel. So the Levites will be in charge of the tent of God’s words.”

Numbers 1:54 The Israelites did everything as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 2:2 “The Israelites will put up their tents with each family under the flag that symbolizes its household. They will put their tents around the tent of meeting, facing it.

Numbers 2:3 “On the east side, facing the rising sun, the armies led by [Judah] will camp under their flag. The leader for the people of Judah is Nahshon, son of Amminadab.

Numbers 2:4 The total number of men in his army is 74,600.

Numbers 2:5 “Next to them will be the tribe of [Issachar]. The leader for the people of Issachar is Nethanel, son of Zuar.

Numbers 2:6 The total number of men in his army is 54,400.

Numbers 2:7 “Then [will be] the tribe of [Zebulun]. The leader for the people of Zebulun is Eliab, son of Helon.

Numbers 2:8 The total number of men in his army is 57,400.

Numbers 2:9 “The grand total of all the troops in Judah’s camp is 186,400. They will be the first group to move out.

Numbers 2:10 “On the south side the armies led by [Reuben] will camp under their flag. The leader for the people of Reuben is Elizur, son of Shedeur.

Numbers 2:11 The total number of men in his army is 46,500.

Numbers 2:12 “Next to them will be the tribe of [Simeon]. The leader for the people of Simeon is Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 2:13 The total number of men in his army is 59,300.

Numbers 2:14 “Then [will be] the tribe of [Gad]. The leader for the people of Gad is Eliasaph, son of Deuel.

Numbers 2:15 The total number of men in his army is 45,650.

Numbers 2:16 “The grand total of all the troops in Reuben’s camp is 151,450. They will be the second group to move out.

Numbers 2:17 “When the tent of meeting is moved, the [Levites] will stay in the middle of the groups. The tribes will move out in the same order as they are in the camp, everyone in place under his own flag.

Numbers 2:18 “On the west side the armies led by [Ephraim] will camp under their flag. The leader for the people of Ephraim is Elishama, son of Ammihud.

Numbers 2:19 The total number of men in his army is 40,500.

Numbers 2:20 “Next to them will be the tribe of [Manasseh]. The leader for the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel, son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 2:21 The total number of men in his army is 32,200.

Numbers 2:22 “Then [will be] the tribe of [Benjamin]. The leader for the people of Benjamin is Abidan, son of Gideoni.

Numbers 2:23 The total number of men in his army is 35,400.

Numbers 2:24 “The grand total of all the troops in Ephraim’s camp is 108,100. They will be the third group to move out.

Numbers 2:25 “On the north side the armies led by [Dan] will camp under their flag. The leader for the people of Dan is Ahiezer, son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 2:26 The total number of men in his army is 62,700.

Numbers 2:27 “Next to them will be the tribe of [Asher]. The leader for the people of Asher is Pagiel, son of Ochran.

Numbers 2:28 The total number of men in his army is 41,500.

Numbers 2:29 “Then [will be] the tribe of [Naphtali]. The leader for the people of Naphtali is Ahira, son of Enan.

Numbers 2:30 The total number of men in his army is 53,400.

Numbers 2:31 “The grand total of all the men in Dan’s camp is 157,600. They will be the last group to move out. They will travel under their own flag.”

Numbers 2:32 This is the total number of Israelites, counted by households. The grand total of all the troops in the camps was 603,550.

Numbers 2:33 As the LORD had commanded Moses, the Levites were not registered along with the other Israelites.

Numbers 2:34 So the Israelites did everything as the LORD had commanded Moses. They set up camp under their flags, and each person traveled with his own family and household.

Numbers 3:1 This is the list of Aaron and Moses’ descendants at the time when the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 The names of Aaron’s sons are Nadab (the firstborn), Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Numbers 3:3 These are the names of Aaron’s sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.

Numbers 3:4 Nadab and Abihu died in the LORD’s presence because they offered unauthorized fire in his presence in the Desert of Sinai. They had no children. So only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

Numbers 3:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 3:6 “Bring the tribe of Levi, and have them stand in front of the priest Aaron to assist him.

Numbers 3:7 They will work for him and the whole community in front of the tent of meeting, doing what needs to be done for the inner tent.

Numbers 3:8 They will take care of all the furnishings in the tent of meeting and work for the Israelites, doing what needs to be done for the inner tent.

Numbers 3:9 Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. The Levites will be the only Israelites given to them.

Numbers 3:10 Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests. Anyone else who tries to do the priests’ duties must be put to death.”

Numbers 3:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 3:12 “Out of all the Israelites, I have taken the Levites to be substitutes for every firstborn male offspring among them. The Levites are mine, Numbers 3:13 because every firstborn is mine. The day I killed every firstborn male in Egypt, I set apart as holy every firstborn in Israel, whether human or animal. They will be mine. I am the LORD.”

Numbers 3:14 The LORD said to Moses in the Desert of Sinai,

Numbers 3:15 “Count the Levites by households and families. Count every male who is at least one month old.”

Numbers 3:16 So Moses did what the LORD said and registered them as he had been commanded.

Numbers 3:17 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari were the sons of Levi.

Numbers 3:18 Libni and Shimei were the sons of Gershon. Their families were named after them.

Numbers 3:19 Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel were the sons of Kohath. Their families were named after them.

Numbers 3:20 Mahli and Mushi were the sons of Merari. Their families were named after them. These were the households of Levite families.

Numbers 3:21 To [Gershon] belonged the families descended from Libni and Shimei. These were the families descended from Gershon.

Numbers 3:22 The total number of all the males at least one month old was 7,500.

Numbers 3:23 The families descended from Gershon put up their tents on the west side behind the tent of meeting.

Numbers 3:24 The leader of the Gershonite households was Eliasaph, son of Lael.

Numbers 3:25 At the tent of meeting the Gershonites were in charge of the inner tent, the outer tent and cover, the screen for the entrance to the tent of meeting,

Numbers 3:26 the curtains for the courtyard, the screen for the entrance to the courtyard that surrounds the inner tent and the altar, and the ropes. They took care of all these things.

Numbers 3:27 To [Kohath] belonged the families descended from Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. These were the families descended from Kohath.

Numbers 3:28 The number of all the males at least one month old was 8,600. They were in charge of the holy place.

Numbers 3:29 The families descended from Kohath put up their tents on the south side of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 3:30 The leader of the Kohathite families and households was Elizaphan, son of Uzziel.

Numbers 3:31 They were in charge of the ark, the table, the lamp stand, the altars, the utensils used in the holy place, and the screen. They took care of all these things.

Numbers 3:32 The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar, son of the priest Aaron. It was Eleazar’s duty to supervise those who were in charge of the holy place.

Numbers 3:33 To [Merari] belonged the families descended from Mahli and Mushi. These were the families descended from Merari.

Numbers 3:34 The total number of all the males at least one month old was 6,200.

Numbers 3:35 The leader of the Merarite families and households was Zuriel, son of Abihail. They put up their tents on the north side of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 3:36 It was the duty of the Merarites to be in charge of the framework of the inner tent, the crossbars, posts, sockets, and all the equipment. They took care of all these things.

Numbers 3:37 They also took care of the posts for the surrounding courtyard, the bases, pegs, and ropes.

Numbers 3:38 Moses, Aaron, and his sons put up their tents on the east side in front of the tent of meeting. They were in charge of the holy place on behalf of the Israelites. Anyone else who tried to do the Levites’ duties had to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 The grand total of Levites that Moses and Aaron counted at the LORD’s command, by families, every male who was at least one month old, was 22,000.

Numbers 3:40 The LORD said to Moses, “Register every firstborn male of the Israelites who is at least one month old, and make a list of their names.

Numbers 3:41 I am the LORD. Take the Levites for me to be substitutes for all firstborn Israelites. Also take the animals of the Levites to be substitutes for all firstborn animals of the Israelites.”

Numbers 3:42 So Moses registered all the firstborn Israelites as the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 3:43 The total of all the firstborn males at least one month old was 22,273. They were listed by name.

Numbers 3:44 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 3:45 “Take the Levites to be substitutes for all the firstborn Israelites and the animals of the Levites to be substitutes for their animals. The Levites will be mine. I am the LORD.

Numbers 3:46 There are 273 more firstborn male Israelites than there are Levites.

Numbers 3:47 It will cost you two ounces of silver per person (using the standard weight of the holy place) to buy them back.

Numbers 3:48 Give the silver to Aaron and his sons. It will buy back those Israelites who outnumber the Levites.”

Numbers 3:49 So Moses took this ransom money from the Israelites who outnumbered the Levites.

Numbers 3:50 The silver Moses collected for the firstborn Israelites weighed 34 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place.

Numbers 3:51 Then Moses did what the LORD said and gave Aaron and his sons this ransom money as he had been commanded.

Numbers 4:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 4:2 “Take a census of the Levites who are descended from Kohath. List them by families and households.

Numbers 4:3 Register all the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who are qualified to work at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:4 “This is the work the Kohathites will do in the tent of meeting: They will take care of the most holy things.

Numbers 4:5 When the camp is supposed to move, Aaron and his sons will go in and take down the canopy that hangs over the ark containing the words of God’s promise. First they will cover the ark with the canopy.

Numbers 4:6 Over this they will put a covering of fine leather. On top of that they will spread a cloth made entirely of violet material. Then they will put the poles in place.

Numbers 4:7 “They will spread a violet cloth over the table of the presence and put on it the plates, dishes, bowls, and pitchers for the wine offerings. The bread that is always in the LORD’s presence will also be on it.

Numbers 4:8 They will spread a bright red cloth over everything on the table. They will cover all this with fine leather. Then they will put the poles in place.

Numbers 4:9 “They will take a violet cloth and cover the lamp stand, as well as the lamps, tongs, trays, and all the containers for the olive oil used in the lamps.

Numbers 4:10 Then they will put the lamp stand and all its utensils under a covering of fine leather and put them on a frame to carry them.

Numbers 4:11 “They will spread a violet cloth over the gold altar and cover the cloth with fine leather. Then they will put the poles in place.

Numbers 4:12 “They will take all the articles that are used in the holy place, put them in a violet cloth, cover that with fine leather, and put them on a frame to carry them.

Numbers 4:13 “After they take the ashes away, they will spread a purple cloth over the altar.

Numbers 4:14 Next, they will put all the accessories used at the altar on it. These are the trays, forks, shovels, and bowls-all the altar’s accessories. They will spread a covering of fine leather over all this. Then they will put the poles in place.

Numbers 4:15 “When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy things and the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites will come to carry all the holy articles. They must never touch the holy things, or they will die. The Kohathites will carry all the things from the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:16 “Eleazar, son of the priest Aaron, will be in charge of the oil for the lamps, the sweet-smelling incense, the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil. He is in charge of the whole tent and everything in it, the holy place and its contents.”

Numbers 4:17 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 4:18 “Don’t let the Kohathite families from Levi’s tribe be destroyed.

Numbers 4:19 This is what you must do so that they won’t die when they come near the most holy things: Aaron and his sons will go into the holy place and tell each man what he will do and what he will carry.

Numbers 4:20 But the Kohathites must not go in to look at the holy things, even for a moment, or they will die.”

Numbers 4:21 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 4:22 “Also take a census of the Gershonites. List them by households and families.

Numbers 4:23 Register all the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who are qualified to serve at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:24 “This is what the Gershonite families will do and what they will carry:

Numbers 4:25 They will carry the sheets that are part of the inner tent and the tent of meeting. They will also carry the inner cover for the tent of meeting, the outer cover of fine leather that goes over it, the screen for the entrance to the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:26 the curtains for the courtyard around the tent and the altar, the screen for the entrance to the courtyard, the ropes, and all the equipment used to set up the curtains. The Gershonites will do everything that needs to be done with these things.

Numbers 4:27 All their work, whatever they carry and all their duties, will be done under the direction of Aaron and his sons. You are in charge of telling them everything they’re supposed to carry.

Numbers 4:28 This is the work of the Gershonite families in the tent of meeting. Ithamar, son of the priest Aaron, will be in charge of them.

Numbers 4:29 “Register the Merarites by families and households.

Numbers 4:30 Register all the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who are qualified to serve at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:31 These are their duties as they work at the tent of meeting: They will carry the framework for the inner tent, the crossbars, posts, and sockets,

Numbers 4:32 the posts for the surrounding courtyard, the bases, pegs, and ropes. They must take care of all this equipment. Tell each man by name the things he will carry.

Numbers 4:33 This is what the Merarite families will do as they work at the tent of meeting. Ithamar, son of the priest Aaron, will be in charge of them.”

Numbers 4:34 Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the community registered the Kohathites by their families and households.

Numbers 4:35 They registered all the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to work at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:36 The total of those who were registered was 2,750. They were listed by families.

Numbers 4:37 This was the total of all those in the Kohathite families who served at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron did as the LORD had commanded Moses and registered the Kohathites.

Numbers 4:38 The Gershonites were registered by families and households.

Numbers 4:39 All the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to serve at the tent of meeting were registered.

Numbers 4:40 The total of those who were registered was 2,630. They were listed by families and households.

Numbers 4:41 This was the total of all those in the Gershonite families who worked at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron did as the LORD had commanded Moses and registered the Gershonites.

Numbers 4:42 The Merarites were registered by families and households.

Numbers 4:43 All the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to serve at the tent of meeting were registered.

Numbers 4:44 The total of all those who were registered was 3,200. They were listed by families.

Numbers 4:45 This was the total of those registered in the Merarite families. Moses and Aaron did as the LORD had commanded Moses and registered the Merarites.

Numbers 4:46 The grand total of all the Levites whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel registered was 8,580. They were listed by families and households.

Numbers 4:47 These were the men between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to do the work of serving and who carried the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:48

Numbers 4:49 At the LORD's command through Moses each man was registered and told what to do and what to carry. So they were registered as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 5:2 "Command the Israelites to send outside the camp anyone who has a serious skin disease or a discharge or anyone who is unclean from touching a dead body.

Numbers 5:3 Send all of these unclean men and women outside the camp. They must not make this camp where I live among you unclean."

Numbers 5:4 So the Israelites did as the LORD had told Moses. They sent these unclean people outside the camp.

Numbers 5:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 5:6 "Tell the Israelites: If you do something wrong to another person, you have been unfaithful to the LORD. When you realize your guilt,

Numbers 5:7 you must confess your sin, pay in full for what you did wrong, add one-fifth to it, and give it to the person who was wronged.

Numbers 5:8 But there may be no heir to whom the payment can be made. In that case, the payment for what you did wrong must be given to the LORD for the priest [to use]. This payment is in addition to the ram which makes peace with the LORD.

Numbers 5:9 "Any contribution over and above the holy offerings that the Israelites bring to the priest will belong to the priest.

Numbers 5:10 Each person’s holy offerings will belong to that person, but whatever is given to the priest will belong to the priest.”

Numbers 5:11 The LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 5:12 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: A man’s wife may have been unfaithful to him

Numbers 5:13 and may have had sexual intercourse with another man without her husband’s knowledge. She may have kept it secret if there were no witnesses to accuse her and she wasn’t caught in the act.

Numbers 5:14 “A husband may have a fit of jealousy and suspect his wife, whether she was actually unfaithful or not.

Numbers 5:15 He must then take his wife to the priest along with eight cups of barley flour as an offering for her. He must not pour olive oil on the flour or put frankincense on it, since it is a grain offering brought because of the husband’s jealousy, an offering used for a confession-to remind someone of a sin that was committed.

Numbers 5:16 “The priest will have the woman come forward and stand in the LORD’s presence.

Numbers 5:17 Then the priest will take holy water in a piece of pottery and put some dust from the floor of the tent into the water.

Numbers 5:18 The priest will bring the woman into the LORD’s presence and loosen her hair. In her hands he will put the offering used for a confession (that is, the grain offering brought because of the husband’s jealousy). The priest will hold in his hands the bitter water that can bring a curse.

Numbers 5:19 “Then the priest will say to her, ‘If no other man has had sexual intercourse with you and you haven’t been unfaithful to your husband, you’re not guilty. This bitter water that can bring a curse will not harm you.

Numbers 5:20 If, in fact, you have been unfaithful and have had sexual intercourse with another man,

Numbers 5:21 may the LORD make you an example for your people to see what happens when the curse of this oath comes true: The LORD will make your uterus drop and your stomach swell.’ “Then the priest will administer the oath and the curse by saying:

Numbers 5:22 ‘May this water that can bring a curse go into your body and make your stomach swell and your uterus drop!’ “Then the woman will say, ‘Amen, amen!’

Numbers 5:23 “The priest will write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water.

Numbers 5:24 Then he will have the woman drink the bitter water that can bring the curse. This water will go into her [and] become bitter.

Numbers 5:25 The priest will take the grain offering she was holding, present it to the LORD, and bring it to the altar.

Numbers 5:26 The priest will take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar. Then he will have the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 If she has become unclean by being unfaithful to her husband, the water that can bring the curse will go into her and become bitter. Her stomach will swell, her uterus will drop, and she will become cursed among her people.

Numbers 5:28 But if the woman is not unclean and is pure, she is not guilty and will be able to have children.

Numbers 5:29 “These are the instructions for how to deal with jealousy. They tell you what to do when a woman is unfaithful to her husband and becomes unclean.

Numbers 5:30 They also tell you what to do when a husband has a fit of jealousy and is suspicious of his wife. He will make his wife stand in the LORD’s presence, and the priest will do everything these instructions tell him to do.

Numbers 5:31 The husband isn’t guilty of doing anything wrong, but the woman will suffer the consequences of her sin.”

Numbers 6:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 6:2 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: A man or a woman may make a special vow to live as a Nazirite dedicated to the LORD.

Numbers 6:3 Nazirites must never drink wine, liquor, vinegar made from wine or liquor, or any kind of grape juice, and they must never eat fresh grapes or raisins.

Numbers 6:4 As long as they are Nazirites, they must never eat anything that comes from a grapevine, not even grape seeds or skins.

Numbers 6:5 “As long as they are under the Nazirite vow, no razor may touch their heads. During the entire time that they are dedicated to the LORD as Nazirites, they will be holy. They must let their hair grow long.

Numbers 6:6 While they are dedicated to the LORD as Nazirites, they must never go near a dead body.

Numbers 6:7 Even if their own father, mother, brother, or sister dies, they must not make themselves unclean by going near them. Nazarites show their vow to God with their long hair.

Numbers 6:8 As long as they are Nazirites, they will be holy to the LORD.

Numbers 6:9 “Someone might suddenly drop dead next to a Nazirite and make the Nazirite’s hair unclean. Seven days later he must shave his head in order to be declared clean.

Numbers 6:10 On the eighth day he must bring two mourning doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 6:11 The priest will sacrifice one as an offering for sin and the other one as a burnt offering. The priest will make peace with the LORD for the person who touched the dead body. That same day the person must dedicate his head again.

Numbers 6:12 Once again he will dedicate himself to the LORD as a Nazirite for the same length of time as before. He must bring a one-year-old male lamb as an offering for guilt. The first time period won’t count. He has to start over from when he became unclean.

Numbers 6:13 “These are the instructions for Nazirites who complete their vows: They must come to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 6:14 They must bring these offerings to the LORD: a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering, a one-year-old female lamb as an offering for sin, and a ram as a fellowship offering. All of these animals must have no defects.

Numbers 6:15 They must also bring a basket of unleavened bread containing some rings of bread made with olive oil and wafers of unleavened bread brushed with olive oil, along with other grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 6:16 “The priest will bring these offerings to the LORD and make the offering for sin and the burnt offering.

Numbers 6:17 He will sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering to the LORD, offer the basket of unleavened bread along with it, and make the grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 6:18 “Then the Nazirites will shave their heads at the entrance to the tent of meeting, take the hair as proof that they had made this vow, and put it on the fire under the fellowship offering.

Numbers 6:19 “Then the priest will take one of the shoulders from a boiled ram, one ring of unleavened bread from the basket, and one wafer of unleavened bread and hand them to the Nazirites after they have shaved off their hair.

Numbers 6:20 The priest will present them as an offering to the LORD. They are holy and belong to the priest, along with the ram’s breast that is presented and the thigh that is given. After that, the Nazirites may drink wine.

Numbers 6:21 “These are the instructions for those who have vowed to bring their offerings to the LORD because they were Nazirites. They must bring these offerings in addition to anything else they can afford.

They must fulfill the requirements of these instructions for Nazirites and finish whatever they vowed to do.”

Numbers 6:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 6:23 “Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is how you will bless the Israelites. Say to them:

Numbers 6:24 The LORD will bless you and watch over you.

Numbers 6:25 The LORD will smile on you and be kind to you.

Numbers 6:26 The LORD will look on you with favor and give you peace.’

Numbers 6:27 “So whenever they use my name to bless the Israelites, I will bless them.”

Numbers 7:1 When Moses finished setting up the tent, he anointed it and dedicated it and all the furnishings. He also anointed and dedicated the altar and all the utensils.

Numbers 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of the households-those tribal leaders who helped in the census-came to give their offerings.

Numbers 7:3 They brought these gifts to the LORD: six freight wagons and twelve oxen, one wagon from every two leaders and one ox from each leader. They brought them in front of the tent.

Numbers 7:4 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 7:5 “Accept these gifts from them to use in the work done for the tent of meeting. Give them to the Levites to use wherever they need these gifts for their work.”

Numbers 7:6 Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

Numbers 7:7 He gave two wagons and four oxen to the Gershonites for the work they had to do.

Numbers 7:8 He gave four wagons and eight oxen to the Merarites for the work they had to do under the direction of Ithamar, son of the priest Aaron.

Numbers 7:9 But Moses gave none of these gifts to the Kohathites, because they took care of the holy things. They had to carry the holy things on their own shoulders.

Numbers 7:10 The leaders also brought offerings for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed. They presented their gifts in front of the altar.

Numbers 7:11 The LORD said to Moses, “Each day a different leader will bring his gift for the dedication of the altar.”

Numbers 7:12 The one who brought his gifts on the first day was Nahshon, son of Amminadab, from the tribe of [Judah].

Numbers 7:13 He brought a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:14 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:15 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:16 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:17 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Nahshon, son of Amminadab.

Numbers 7:18 On the second day Nethanel, son of Zuar, the leader from the tribe of [Issachar], brought his gifts.

Numbers 7:19 He brought a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:20 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:21 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:22 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:23 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Nethanel, son of Zuar.

Numbers 7:24 On the third day the leader of the descendants of [Zebulun], Eliab, son of Helon,

Numbers 7:25 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:26 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:27 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:28 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:29 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Eliab, son of Helon.

Numbers 7:30 On the fourth day the leader of the descendants of [Reuben], Elizur, son of Shedeur,

Numbers 7:31 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:32 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:33 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:34 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:35 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Elizur, son of Shedeur.

Numbers 7:36 On the fifth day the leader of the descendants of [Simeon], Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai,

Numbers 7:37 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:38 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:39 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:40 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:41 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 7:42 On the sixth day the leader of the descendants of [Gad], Eliasaph, son of Deuel,

Numbers 7:43 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:44 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:45 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:46 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:47 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Eliasaph, son of Deuel.

Numbers 7:48 On the seventh day the leader of the descendants of [Ephraim], Elishama, son of Ammihud,

Numbers 7:49 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:50 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:51 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:52 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:53 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Elishama, son of Ammihud.

Numbers 7:54 On the eighth day the leader of the descendants of [Manasseh], Gamaliel, son of Pedahzur,

Numbers 7:55 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:56 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:57 a young bull, a ram, and a one-year-old male lamb as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:58 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:59 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Gamaliel, son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 7:60 On the ninth day the leader of the descendants of [Benjamin], Abidan, son of Gideoni,

Numbers 7:61 brought his gifts: a silver plate that weighed 31/4 pounds and a silver bowl that weighed 13/4 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place. Each dish was filled with flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering.

Numbers 7:62 He also brought a gold dish that weighed 4 ounces, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:82 a male goat as an offering for sin;

Numbers 7:83 and two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering. These were the gifts from Ahira, son of Enan.

Numbers 7:84 These were the gifts from the leaders of Israel for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed: 12 silver plates, 12 silver bowls, and 12 gold dishes.

Numbers 7:85 Each silver plate weighed 31/4 pounds, and each bowl weighed 13/4 pounds. Together all the silver dishes weighed 60 pounds using the standard weight of the holy place.

Numbers 7:86 The 12 gold dishes filled with incense weighed 4 ounces each using the standard weight of the holy place. Together all the gold dishes weighed about 3 pounds.

Numbers 7:87 The total number of animals for the burnt offerings was 12 young bulls, 12 rams, 12 one-year-old male lambs, along with their grain offerings. Twelve male goats were used as offerings for sin.

Numbers 7:88 The total number of animals for fellowship offerings was 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 one-year-old male lambs. These were the gifts for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

Numbers 7:89 Whenever Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the throne of mercy on the ark containing the words of God's promise, from between the two angels. This is how the LORD spoke with Moses.

Numbers 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 8:2 "Speak to Aaron and tell him: When you set up the seven lamps on the lamp stand, they should light up the area in front of it."

Numbers 8:3 So Aaron set up the lamps on the lamp stand to light up the area in front of it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:4 This is how the lamp stand was made: The whole lamp stand, from top to bottom, was hammered out of gold. It was made exactly like the one the LORD had shown Moses.

Numbers 8:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 8:6 "Separate the Levites from the rest of the Israelites, and make them clean.

Numbers 8:7 This is what you must do to make them clean: Sprinkle them with water to take away their sins. Make them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes. Then they will be clean.

Numbers 8:8 Next, they must take a young bull and the grain offering of flour mixed with olive oil that is offered with it. You must take a second young bull as an offering for sin.

Numbers 8:9 Bring the Levites to the front of the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole community of Israel.

Numbers 8:10 Then bring the Levites into the LORD's presence, and the Israelites will place their hands on them.

Numbers 8:11 Aaron will present the Levites to the LORD as an offering from the Israelites. Then they will be ready to do the LORD's work.

Numbers 8:12 "The Levites will place their hands on the heads of the young bulls. Sacrifice one of them as an offering for sin and the other one as a burnt offering to the LORD. These sacrifices will make peace with the LORD for the Levites.

Numbers 8:13 Make the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons, and present them as an offering to the LORD.

Numbers 8:14 In this way you will separate the Levites from the other Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.

Numbers 8:15 "Once you have made them clean and presented them as an offering, the Levites may come and do their work at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 8:16 They will be the only Israelites given to me. I have taken them to be mine as substitutes for every firstborn male offspring of the Israelites.

Numbers 8:17 Every firstborn in Israel, whether human or animal, is mine. The day I killed every firstborn male in Egypt, I set them apart as holy to me.

Numbers 8:18 So I have taken the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn sons of the Israelites.

Numbers 8:19 The Levites will be the only Israelites I give to Aaron and his sons. They will work for the Israelites at the tent of meeting. They will make peace with the LORD for the Israelites. Then no plague will strike the Israelites when they come near the holy place."

Numbers 8:20 Moses, Aaron, and the whole community of Israel did what the LORD commanded Moses to do to the Levites.

Numbers 8:21 The Levites performed the ceremonies to take away their sins and washed their clothes. Aaron presented them as an offering to the LORD and made peace with the LORD for them in order to make them clean.

Numbers 8:22 After that, the Levites came and did their work at the tent of meeting in the presence of Aaron and his sons. They did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 8:24 "These are the instructions for the Levites: Men 25 years old or older are eligible to serve at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 8:25 But when they're 50 years old, they must retire from active service and not work anymore.

Numbers 8:26 They may assist the other Levites in their duties at the tent of meeting, but they may not do any regular work. This is how you will handle the Levites' duties."

Numbers 9:1 In the first month of the second year after the Israelites left Egypt, the LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai. He said, Numbers 9:2 "The Israelites must celebrate the Passover at the same time every year.

Numbers 9:3 You must celebrate it on the fourteenth day of this month at dusk. Follow all the rules and regulations for the celebration of the Passover."

Numbers 9:4 So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover,

Numbers 9:5 and they celebrated it on the fourteenth day of the first month at dusk while they were in the Desert of Sinai. The Israelites did everything as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 9:6 But there were some men who had become unclean from touching a dead body, and they couldn't celebrate the Passover that day. They came to Moses and Aaron

Numbers 9:7 and said, "We are unclean because we touched a dead body. Why won't you let us bring our offerings to the LORD at the same time the rest of the Israelites bring their offerings?"

Numbers 9:8 Moses answered them, "Wait here until I find out what the LORD commands you to do."

Numbers 9:9 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites:

Numbers 9:10 Suppose you or any of your descendants is unclean from touching a dead body or is away on a long trip. You may still celebrate the Passover.

Numbers 9:11 You will celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at dusk. You must eat the Passover animal along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Numbers 9:12 You must never leave any of the meat until morning or break any of the animal's bones. You must follow all the rules for the Passover when you celebrate it.

Numbers 9:13 But if you are clean and not on a trip and yet don't bother to celebrate the Passover, you must be excluded from the people. You didn't bring your offering to the LORD at the right time. You must suffer the consequences for your sin.

Numbers 9:14 "Foreigners living with you may want to celebrate the LORD's Passover. They must follow these same rules and regulations. The same rules will apply to foreigners and native-born Israelites."

Numbers 9:15 On the day the tent of the words of God's promise was set up, the [column of] smoke covered it. From evening until morning, the smoke over the tent glowed like fire.

Numbers 9:16 The smoke always glowed this way. At night the smoke covering the tent glowed like fire.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the smoke moved from the tent, the Israelites would break camp, and wherever it stopped, the Israelites would set up camp.

Numbers 9:18 At the LORD’s command the Israelites would break camp, and at his command they would set up camp. As long as the [column of] smoke stayed over the tent, they would stay in the same place.

Numbers 9:19 When the smoke stayed over the tent for a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD’s command and wouldn’t break camp.

Numbers 9:20 The same thing happened when the smoke stayed only a few days over the tent: At the LORD’s command they would set up camp, and at his command they would break camp.

Numbers 9:21 Sometimes the [column of] smoke stayed only from evening until morning. When the smoke moved in the morning, they broke camp. Day or night, when the smoke moved, they broke camp.

Numbers 9:22 Whether it was two days, a month, or a year, as long as the [column of] smoke stayed over the tent, the Israelites would stay in the same place and not break camp. But when the smoke moved, they would break camp.

Numbers 9:23 At the LORD’s command they set up camp, and at his command they broke camp. They obeyed the command that the LORD had given through Moses.

Numbers 10:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 10:2 “Make two trumpets out of hammered silver. Use them to call the community together and as a signal to break camp.

Numbers 10:3 When you blow both trumpets, the whole community will meet with you at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 10:4 If only one trumpet blows, the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, will meet with you.

Numbers 10:5 When they hear the trumpet fanfare, the tribes that are camped on the east side will break camp first.

Numbers 10:6 When the trumpets sound a second fanfare, the tribes that are camped on the south will break camp. The fanfare is the signal to break camp.

Numbers 10:7 But when you gather the assembly, the trumpets will blow without sounding a fanfare.

Numbers 10:8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, will blow the trumpets. This will be a permanent law for you and your descendants.

Numbers 10:9 “When you go to war in your own country against an enemy who is oppressing you, the trumpets will sound a fanfare. Then the LORD your God will remember you and rescue you from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 Also, on your festival days and on the first day of the month, blow the trumpets when you sacrifice your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. The trumpets will be a reminder for you in God's presence. I am the LORD your God."

Numbers 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the [column of] smoke left the tent of the words of God's promise.

Numbers 10:12 So the Israelites moved from the Desert of Sinai and traveled from place to place until the [column of] smoke stopped in the Desert of Paran.

Numbers 10:13 This was the first time they moved, following the command that the LORD had given through Moses.

Numbers 10:14 With their flag in front, the armies led by Judah's descendants broke camp first. Nahshon, son of Amminadab, was in command.

Numbers 10:15 Nethanel, son of Zuar, commanded the army of Issachar.

Numbers 10:16 Eliab, son of Helon, commanded the army of Zebulun.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tent [of meeting] was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, broke camp.

Numbers 10:18 With their flag in front, the armies led by Reuben's descendants broke camp next. Elizur, son of Shedeur, was in command.

Numbers 10:19 Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai, commanded the army of Simeon.

Numbers 10:20 Eliasaph, son of Deuel, commanded the army of Gad.

Numbers 10:21 Then the Kohathites, who carried the holy things, broke camp. By the time they arrived, the tent [of meeting] would already be set up.

Numbers 10:22 With their flag in front, the armies led by Ephraim's descendants broke camp next. Elisha, son of Ammihud, was in command.

Numbers 10:23 Gamaliel, son of Pedahzur, commanded the army of Manasseh.

Numbers 10:24 Abidan, son of Gideoni, commanded the army of Benjamin.

Numbers 10:25 As a rear guard for the whole camp, the armies led by Dan's descendants broke camp last with their flag in front. Ahiezer, son of Ammishaddai, was in command.

Numbers 10:26 Pagiel, son of Ochran, commanded the army of Asher.

Numbers 10:27 Ahira, son of Enan, commanded the army of Naphtali.

Numbers 10:28 This was the order in which the Israelite armies broke camp when they went from place to place.

Numbers 10:29 Moses said to his brother-in-law Hobab, son of Reuel the Midianite, “We are going to the place the LORD promised to give us. Come with us. We will be good to you, because the LORD has promised good things to Israel.”

Numbers 10:30 Hobab answered, “No, I won’t go. I want to go back to my own country where my relatives are.”

Numbers 10:31 But Moses said, “Please don’t leave us. You know where we can set up camp in the desert, and you could be our guide.

Numbers 10:32 If you come with us, we will share with you all the good things the LORD gives us.”

Numbers 10:33 So they left the mountain of the LORD and traveled for three days. The ark of the LORD’s promise went ahead of them a distance of three days’ journey to find them a place to rest.

Numbers 10:34 The LORD’s [column of] smoke was over them by day when they moved the camp.

Numbers 10:35 Whenever the ark started to move, Moses would say, “Arise, O LORD! Scatter your enemies! Make those who hate you run away from you!”

Numbers 10:36 And whenever it stopped, he would say, “Return, O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel!”

Numbers 11:1 The people began complaining out loud to the LORD about their troubles. When the LORD heard them, he became angry, and fire from the LORD began to burn among them. It destroyed some people on the outskirts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 The people cried out to Moses, Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire died down.

Numbers 11:3 That place was called Taberah [Fire] because fire from the LORD burned among them there.

Numbers 11:4 Some foreigners among the Israelites had a strong craving for [other kinds of] food. Even the Israelites started crying again and said, “If only we had meat to eat!

Numbers 11:5 Remember all the free fish we ate in Egypt and the cucumbers, watermelons, leeks, onions, and garlic we had?

Numbers 11:6 But now we’ve lost our appetite! Everywhere we look there’s nothing but manna!”

Numbers 11:7 (Manna was [small] like coriander seeds and looked like resin.

Numbers 11:8 The people would go around and gather it, then grind it in a handmill or crush it in a mortar. They would cook it in a pot or make round loaves of bread out of it. It tasted like rich pastry made with olive oil.

Numbers 11:9 When dew fell on the camp at night, manna fell with it.)

Numbers 11:10 Moses heard people from every family crying at the entrance to their tents. The LORD became very angry, and Moses didn't like it either.

Numbers 11:11 So he asked, "LORD, why have you brought me this trouble? How have I displeased you that you put the burden of all these people on me?

Numbers 11:12 Am I their mother? Did I give birth to them? Are you really asking me to carry them in my arms-as a nurse carries a baby-all the way to the land you promised their ancestors with an oath?

Numbers 11:13 Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep crying for me to give them meat to eat.

Numbers 11:14 I can't take care of all these people by myself. This is too much work for me!

Numbers 11:15 If this is how you're going to treat me, why don't you just kill me? I can't face this trouble anymore."

Numbers 11:16 The LORD answered Moses, "Bring me 70 Israelite men who you know are leaders and officers of the people. Take them to the tent of meeting, and have them stand with you.

Numbers 11:17 I'll come down and speak with you there. I'll take some of the Spirit that is on you and put it on them. They will help you take care of the people. You won't have to take care of the people alone.

Numbers 11:18 Tell the people to get ready for tomorrow. They must be set apart as holy. Then they will eat meat. I, the LORD, heard them crying and saying, 'If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt!' So I will give them meat.

Numbers 11:19 They won't eat it just for one or two days, or five, or ten, or twenty days, Numbers 11:20 but for a whole month, until it comes out of their ears and they're sick of it. This is because they rejected the LORD who is here among them and cried in front of him, asking, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?'"

Numbers 11:21 But Moses said, "Here I am with 600,000 foot soldiers around me. Yet, you say, 'I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!'

Numbers 11:22 Would they have enough if all the flocks and herds were butchered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?"

Numbers 11:23 The LORD asked Moses, "Is there a limit to the LORD's power? Now you will see whether or not my words come true."

Numbers 11:24 Moses went out and told the people what the LORD said. He gathered 70 of the leaders of the people and had them stand around the tent.

Numbers 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the [column of] smoke and spoke with him. He took some of the Spirit that was on Moses and put it on the 70 leaders. When the Spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied, but they never prophesied again.

Numbers 11:26 Two men, named Eldad and Medad, had stayed in the camp. They were on the list with the other leaders but hadn't gone with them to the tent. The Spirit came to rest on them, too, and they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 Then a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

Numbers 11:28 So Joshua, son of Nun, who had been Moses' assistant ever since he was a young man, spoke up and said, "Stop them, sir!"

Numbers 11:29 But Moses asked him, "Do you think you need to stand up for me? I wish all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them."

Numbers 11:30 Then Moses and the leaders went back to the camp.

Numbers 11:31 The LORD sent a wind from the sea that brought quails and dropped them all around the camp. There were quails on the ground about three feet deep as far as you could walk in a day in any direction.

Numbers 11:32 All that day and night and all the next day the people went out and gathered the quails. No one gathered less than 60 bushels. Then they spread the quails out all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 While the meat was still in their mouths-before they had even had a chance to chew it-the LORD became angry with the people and struck them with a severe plague.

Numbers 11:34 That place was called Kibroth Hattaavah [Graves of Those Who Craved [Meat]] because there they buried the people who had a strong craving [for meat].

Numbers 11:35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people moved to Hazeroth, and they stayed there.

Numbers 12:1 Miriam and Aaron began to criticize Moses because he was married to a woman from Sudan.

Numbers 12:2 They asked, “Did the LORD speak only through Moses? Didn’t he also speak through us?” The LORD heard their complaint.

Numbers 12:3 (Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on earth.)

Numbers 12:4 Suddenly, the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “All three of you come to the tent of meeting.” So all three of them came.

Numbers 12:5 Then the LORD came down in the column of smoke and stood at the entrance to the tent. He called to Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward.

Numbers 12:6 He said, “Listen to my words: When there are prophets of the LORD among you, I make myself known to them in visions or speak to them in dreams.

Numbers 12:7 But this is not the way I treat my servant Moses. He is the most faithful person in my household.

Numbers 12:8 I speak with him face to face, plainly and not in riddles. He even sees the form of the LORD. Why weren’t you afraid to criticize my servant Moses?”

Numbers 12:9 The LORD was angry with them, so he left.

Numbers 12:10 When the smoke left the tent, Miriam was covered with an infectious skin disease. She was as white as snow. Aaron turned to her and saw she was covered with the disease.

Numbers 12:11 So he said to Moses, “Please, sir, don’t punish us for this foolish sin we committed.

Numbers 12:12 Don’t let her be like a stillborn baby that’s not completely developed.”

Numbers 12:13 So Moses cried to the LORD, “Please, God, heal her!”

Numbers 12:14 The LORD replied to Moses, “If her own father had spit in her face, wouldn’t she be excluded from the community for seven days? She must be put in isolation outside the camp for seven days. Then she can be brought back.”

Numbers 12:15 So Miriam was put in isolation outside the camp for seven days. The people didn’t break camp until she was brought back.

Numbers 12:16 After that, the people moved from Hazeroth and set up camp in the Desert of Paran.

Numbers 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 13:2 “Send men to explore Canaan, which I’m giving to the Israelites. Send one leader from each of their ancestors’ tribes.”

Numbers 13:3 So at the LORD’s command, Moses sent these men from the Desert of Paran. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.

Numbers 13:4 These are their names: Shammua, son of Zaccur, from the tribe of Reuben;

Numbers 13:5 Shaphat, son of Hori, from the tribe of Simeon;

Numbers 13:6 Caleb, son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 13:7 Igal, son of Joseph, from the tribe of Issachar;

Numbers 13:8 Hoshea, son of Nun, from the tribe of Ephraim;

Numbers 13:9 Palti, son of Raphu, from the tribe of Benjamin;

Numbers 13:10 Gaddiel, son of Sodi, from the tribe of Zebulun;

Numbers 13:11 Gaddi, son of Susi, from the tribe of Joseph (that is, the tribe of Manasseh);

Numbers 13:12 Ammiel, son of Gemalli, from the tribe of Dan;

Numbers 13:13 Sethur, son of Michael, from the tribe of Asher;

Numbers 13:14 Nahbi, son of Vophsi, from the tribe of Naphtali;

Numbers 13:15 Geuel, son of Machi, from the tribe of Gad.

Numbers 13:16 These are the names of the men Moses sent to explore the land. But Moses gave Hoshea, son of Nun, the name Joshua.

Numbers 13:17 When Moses sent them to explore Canaan, he told them, “Go through the Negev and then into the mountain region.

Numbers 13:18 See what the land is like and whether the people living there are strong or weak, few or many.

Numbers 13:19 Is the land they live in good or bad? Do their cities have walls around them or not?

Numbers 13:20 Is the soil rich or poor? Does the land have trees or not? Do your best to bring back some fruit from the land.” (It was the season when grapes were beginning to ripen.)

Numbers 13:21 So the men explored the land from the Desert of Zin to the border of Hamath.

Numbers 13:22 They went through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai lived. They are descendants of Anak. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 When they came to the Eshcol Valley, they cut off a branch with only one bunch of grapes on it. They carried it on a pole between two of them. They also brought some pomegranates and figs.

Numbers 13:24 So they called that valley Eshcol [Bunch of Grapes] because of the bunch of grapes the Israelites cut off there.

Numbers 13:25 Forty days later, they came back from exploring the land.

Numbers 13:26 They came back to Moses, Aaron, and the whole community of Israel at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. They gave their report and showed them the fruit from the land.

Numbers 13:27 This is what they reported to Moses: “We went to the land where you sent us. It really is a land flowing with milk and honey. Here’s some of its fruit.

Numbers 13:28 But the people who live there are strong, and the cities have walls and are very large. We even saw the descendants of Anak there.

Numbers 13:29 The Amalekites live in the Negev. The Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the mountain region. And the Canaanites live along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea and all along the Jordan River.”

Numbers 13:30 Caleb told the people to be quiet and listen to Moses. Caleb said, “Let’s go now and take possession of the land. We should be more than able to conquer it.”

Numbers 13:31 But the men who had gone with him said, “We can’t attack those people! They’re too strong for us!”

Numbers 13:32 So they began to spread lies among the Israelites about the land they had explored. They said, “The land we explored is one that devours those who live there. All the people we saw there are very tall.

Numbers 13:33 We saw Nephilim there. (The descendants of Anak are Nephilim.) We felt as small as grasshoppers, and that’s how we must have looked to them.”

Numbers 14:1 Then all the people in the Israelite community raised their voices and cried out loud all that night.

Numbers 14:2 They complained to Moses and Aaron, “If only we had died in Egypt or this desert!

Numbers 14:3 Why is the LORD bringing us to this land-just to have us die in battle? Our wives and children will be taken as prisoners of war! Wouldn’t it be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

Numbers 14:4 They said to each other, “Let’s choose a leader and go back to Egypt.”

Numbers 14:5 Immediately, Moses and Aaron bowed with their faces touching the ground in front of the whole community of Israel assembled there.

Numbers 14:6 At the same time, two of those who had explored the land, Joshua (son of Nun) and Caleb (son of Jephunneh), tore their clothes in despair.

Numbers 14:7 They said to the whole community of Israel, “The land we explored is very good.

Numbers 14:8 If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us. This is a land flowing with milk and honey!

Numbers 14:9 Don’t rebel against the LORD, and don’t be afraid of the people of the land. We will devour them like bread. They have no protection, and the LORD is with us. So don’t be afraid of them.”

Numbers 14:10 But when the whole community of Israel talked about stoning Moses and Aaron to death, they all saw the glory of the LORD [shining] at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 14:11 The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to trust me in spite of all the miraculous signs I have done among them?

Numbers 14:12 I’ll strike them with a plague, I’ll destroy them, and I’ll make you into a nation larger and stronger than they are.”

Numbers 14:13 But Moses said to the LORD, “What if the Egyptians hear about it? (You used your power to take these people away from them.)

Numbers 14:14 What if the Egyptians tell the people who live in this land? LORD, they have already heard that you are with these people, that they have seen you with their own eyes, that your column of smoke stays over them, and that you go ahead of them in a column of smoke by day and in a column of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 But if you kill all these people at the same time, then the nations who have heard these reports about you will say,

Numbers 14:16 ‘The LORD wasn’t able to bring these people into the land he promised them, so he slaughtered them in the desert.’

Numbers 14:17 “Lord, let your power be as great as when you said,

Numbers 14:18 ‘The LORD...patient, forever loving.... He forgives wrongdoing and disobedience.... He never lets the guilty go unpunished, punishing children... for their parents’ sins to the third and fourth generation....’

Numbers 14:19 By your great love, please forgive these people’s sins, as you have been forgiving them from the time they left Egypt until now.”

Numbers 14:20 The LORD said, “I forgive them, as you have asked.

Numbers 14:21 But as I live and as the glory of the LORD fills the whole earth, I solemnly swear that Numbers 14:22 none of the people who saw my glory and the miraculous signs I did in Egypt and in the desert will see the land which I promised their ancestors. They have tested me now ten times and refused to obey me.

Numbers 14:23 None of those who treat me with contempt will see it!

Numbers 14:24 But because my servant Caleb has a different attitude and has wholeheartedly followed me, I’ll bring him to the land he already explored. His descendants will possess it.

Numbers 14:25 (The Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys.) Tomorrow you must turn around, go back into the desert, and follow the road that goes to the Red Sea.”

Numbers 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 14:27 “How long must I put up with this wicked community that keeps complaining about me? I’ve heard the complaints the Israelites are making about me.

Numbers 14:28 So tell them, ‘As I live, declares the LORD, I solemnly swear I will do everything to you that you said I would do.

Numbers 14:29 Your bodies will drop dead in this desert. All of you who are at least 20 years old, who were registered and listed, and who complained about me will die.

Numbers 14:30 I raised my hand and swore an oath to give you this land to live in. But none of you will enter it except Caleb (son of Jephunneh) and Joshua (son of Nun).

Numbers 14:31 You said your children would be taken as prisoners of war. Instead, I will bring them into the land you rejected, and they will enjoy it.

Numbers 14:32 However, your bodies will drop dead in this desert.

Numbers 14:33 Your children will be shepherds in the desert for 40 years. They will suffer for your unfaithfulness until the last of your bodies lies dead in the desert.

Numbers 14:34 For 40 days you explored the land. So for 40 years-one year for each day-you will suffer for your sins and know what it means for me to be against you.’

Numbers 14:35 I, the LORD, have spoken. I swear I will do these things to all the people in this whole wicked community who have joined forces against me. They will meet their end in this desert. Here they will die!”

Numbers 14:36 So the men Moses sent to explore the land died in front of the LORD from a plague.

Numbers 14:37 They died because they had returned and made the whole community complain about Moses by spreading lies about the land.

Numbers 14:38 Of all the men who went to explore the land, only Joshua (son of Nun) and Caleb (son of Jephunneh) survived.

Numbers 14:39 When Moses told these things to all the Israelites, the people mourned bitterly, as if someone had died.

Numbers 14:40 Early the next morning they headed into the mountain region. They said, “We have sinned. Now we’ll go to the place the LORD promised.”

Numbers 14:41 But Moses asked, “Why are you disobeying the LORD’s command? Your plan won’t work!

Numbers 14:42 Don’t go! You will be defeated by your enemies because the LORD is not with you.

Numbers 14:43 The Amalekites and Canaanites are there, and you will die in battle. Now that you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

Numbers 14:44 But they headed into the mountain region anyway, even though the ark of the LORD’s promise and Moses stayed in the camp.

Numbers 14:45 The Amalekites and Canaanites who lived there came down from those mountains, attacked the Israelites, and defeated them at Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:2 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: Once you’re settled in the land I’m giving you,

Numbers 15:3 you may bring offerings by fire to the LORD. They may be burnt offerings or any other kind of sacrifice. They may be offered to fulfill a vow, as a freewill offering, or as one of your festival offerings. They may be cattle, sheep, or goats-offerings that are a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:4 Whoever brings the offering must also give the LORD a grain offering of eight cups of flour mixed with one quart of olive oil.

Numbers 15:5 With each sheep or goat for the burnt offering or any other sacrifice, also give an offering of one quart of wine.

Numbers 15:6 “With a ram, give a grain offering of 16 cups of flour mixed with 11/4 quarts of oil

Numbers 15:7 and an offering of 11/4 quarts of wine. Offer them as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:8 “Suppose you sacrifice a young bull as a burnt offering to the LORD or make any other kind of sacrifice-to keep a vow or as a fellowship offering.

Numbers 15:9 Offer with the young bull a grain offering of 24 cups of flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil.

Numbers 15:10 Also give an offering of two quarts of wine. It is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:11 Do this for each bull, each ram, and each sheep or goat.

Numbers 15:12 Do it for each animal, however many you sacrifice.

Numbers 15:13 All native-born Israelites must do it this way when they bring an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 15:14 “Suppose foreigners are visiting you or living among you in future generations. If they bring an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD, they must do as you do.

Numbers 15:15 There is one law for the whole assembly: for you and foreigners who are living with you. It is a permanent law for future generations. As far as the LORD is concerned, you and foreigners are the same.

Numbers 15:16 The instructions and rules are the same for you as well as foreigners who are living with you.”

Numbers 15:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:18 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: When you enter the land where I’m taking you

Numbers 15:19 and eat any of the food from the land, give some of it as a contribution to the LORD.

Numbers 15:20 Shape one part of your dough into a ring the same way you do with the contribution you make from the threshing floor.

Numbers 15:21 For generations to come, you must give one part of your dough as a contribution to the LORD.

Numbers 15:22 “Suppose you unintentionally do something wrong by not obeying all these commands the LORD gave Moses.

Numbers 15:23 (Everything the LORD commanded you through Moses holds as true for generations to come as it did the day the LORD gave the commands.)

Numbers 15:24 If it was unintentional and no one else knows about it, the whole community must sacrifice a young bull as a burnt offering, a soothing aroma to the LORD, along with the proper grain and wine offerings, and a male goat as an offering for sin.

Numbers 15:25 The priest will make peace with the LORD for the whole community of Israel. Then they will be forgiven because the wrongdoing was unintentional and they brought these two offerings to the LORD for their sin: an offering by fire and an offering for sin.

Numbers 15:26 So the whole community of Israel will be forgiven, including foreigners who are living among them, since all the people were involved in the unintentional wrongdoing.

Numbers 15:27 “If one person unintentionally does something wrong, a one-year-old female goat must be sacrificed as an offering for sin.

Numbers 15:28 The priest will offer the sacrifice to make peace with the LORD for that person, and that person will be forgiven.

Numbers 15:29 You must give the same instructions to everyone who does something wrong unintentionally, whether they are native-born Israelites or not.

Numbers 15:30 “But any native-born Israelite or foreigner who deliberately does something wrong insults the LORD and must be excluded from the people.

Numbers 15:31 That person has despised the word of the LORD and broken the LORD’s command. He must be excluded completely. He remains guilty.”

Numbers 15:32 While the Israelites were in the desert, they found a man gathering wood on the day of worship.

Numbers 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole community.

Numbers 15:34 They kept him in custody until they decided what to do with him.

Numbers 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, “This man must be put to death. The whole community must take him outside the camp and stone him.”

Numbers 15:36 So the whole community took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 15:37 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:38 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: For generations to come they must wear tassels on the corners of their clothes with violet threads in each tassel.

Numbers 15:39 Whenever you look at the threads in the tassel, you will remember all the LORD’s commands and obey them. Then you won’t do whatever you want and go after whatever you see, as if you were chasing after prostitutes.

Numbers 15:40 You will remember to obey all my commands, and you will be holy to your God.

Numbers 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God.”

Numbers 16:1 Korah (son of Izhar), Dathan and Abiram (sons of Eliab), and On (son of Peleth) dared to challenge Moses. (Korah was a descendant of Kohath and Levi. Dathan, Abiram, and On were descendants of Reuben.)

Numbers 16:2 These four men were joined by 250 Israelite men, well-known leaders of the community, chosen by the assembly.

Numbers 16:3 They came together to confront Moses and Aaron and said to them, “You’ve gone far enough! Everyone in the whole community is holy, and the LORD is among them. Why do you set yourselves above the LORD’s assembly?”

Numbers 16:4 As soon as Moses heard this, he bowed with his face touching the ground.

Numbers 16:5 Then he said to Korah and all his followers, “In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him, who is holy, and who it is that he will allow to come near him. Only the person the LORD chooses will be allowed to come near him.

Numbers 16:6 Korah, you and all your followers must do this tomorrow: Take incense burners,

Numbers 16:7 and put burning coals and incense in them in the LORD’s presence. Then the LORD will choose the man who is holy. You’ve gone far enough!”

Numbers 16:8 Moses also said to Korah, “Listen, you Levites!

Numbers 16:9 Isn’t it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the community of Israel? The LORD has brought you near himself to do the work for his tent and stand in front of the community to serve them.

Numbers 16:10 He has brought you and all the other Levites near himself, but now you demand to be priests.

Numbers 16:11 So you and all your followers have joined forces against the LORD! Who is Aaron that you should complain about him?”

Numbers 16:12 Then Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab. But they said, “We won’t come!

Numbers 16:13 Isn’t it enough that you brought us out of a land flowing with milk and honey only to kill us in the desert? Do you also have to order us around?

Numbers 16:14 Certainly you haven’t brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us any fields and vineyards to own. Do you think you can still pull the wool over our eyes? We won’t come.”

Numbers 16:15 Moses became angry and said to the LORD, “Don’t accept their offering. I haven’t taken anything from them, not even a donkey. And I haven’t mistreated any of them.”

Numbers 16:16 Moses said to Korah, “Tomorrow you and all your followers must come into the LORD’s presence. Aaron will also be there with you.

Numbers 16:17 Each man will take his incense burner and put incense in it. They will offer all 250 incense burners to the LORD. Then you and Aaron offer your incense burners.”

Numbers 16:18 So each man took his incense burner, put burning coals and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 16:19 When Korah had gathered all his followers-those who opposed Moses and Aaron-at the entrance to the tent of meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole group.

Numbers 16:20 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, Numbers 16:21 “Move away from these men, and I’ll destroy them in an instant.”

Numbers 16:22 Immediately, they bowed with their faces touching the ground and said, “O God, you are the God who gives the breath of life to everyone! If one man sins, will you be angry with the whole community?”

Numbers 16:23 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:24 “Tell the community: Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.”

Numbers 16:25 Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the leaders of Israel followed him.

Numbers 16:26 He said to the community, “Move away from the tents of these wicked men. Don’t touch anything that belongs to them, or you’ll be swept away because of all their sins.”

Numbers 16:27 So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing at the entrances to their tents with their wives and children.

Numbers 16:28 Moses said, “This is how you will know that the LORD sent me to do all these things and that it wasn’t my idea:

Numbers 16:29 If these men die like all other people-if they die a natural death-then the LORD hasn’t sent me.

Numbers 16:30 But if the LORD does something totally new-if the ground opens up, swallows them and everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive to their graves-then you’ll know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt.”

Numbers 16:31 As soon as he had finished saying all this, the ground under them split,

Numbers 16:32 and the earth opened up to swallow them, their families, the followers of Korah, and all their property.

Numbers 16:33 They went down alive to their graves with everything that belonged to them. The ground covered them, and so they disappeared from the assembly.

Numbers 16:34 All the Israelites around them ran away when they heard their screams. They thought the ground would swallow them, too.

Numbers 16:35 Fire came from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering incense.

Numbers 16:36 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:37 “Tell Eleazar, son of the priest Aaron, to take the incense burners out of the fire and scatter the coals and incense somewhere else, because the incense burners have become holy.

Numbers 16:38 The incense burners of these men who sinned and lost their lives are holy, because they were offered to the LORD. Hammer them into thin metal sheets to cover the altar. This will be a sign to the Israelites."

Numbers 16:39 So the priest Eleazar took the bronze incense burners which had been brought by those who had been burned to death. The incense burners were then hammered into thin metal sheets to cover the altar,

Numbers 16:40 following the command that the LORD had given through Moses. The bronze-covered altar will remind Israel that no one but a descendant of Aaron can come near to burn incense to the LORD. Everyone else will die like Korah and his followers.

Numbers 16:41 The next day the whole community of Israel complained to Moses and Aaron. They said, "You have killed the LORD's people."

Numbers 16:42 The community came together to confront Moses and Aaron. When they turned toward the tent of meeting, they saw the smoke covering it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Numbers 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 16:44 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:45 "Get away from these people, and let me destroy them in an instant!" Immediately, they bowed with their faces touching the ground.

Numbers 16:46 Moses said to Aaron, "Take your incense burner, put burning coals from the altar and incense in it, and go quickly into the community to make peace with the LORD for the people. The LORD is showing his anger; a plague has started."

Numbers 16:47 Aaron took his incense burner, as Moses told him, and ran into the middle of the assembly, because the plague had already begun among the people. He put incense on the incense burner to make peace with the LORD for the people.

Numbers 16:48 He stood between those who had died and those who were still alive, and the plague stopped.

Numbers 16:49 Still, 14,700 died from the plague in addition to those who had died because of Korah.

Numbers 16:50 By the time Aaron came back to Moses at the entrance to the tent of meeting, the plague had stopped.

Numbers 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 17:2 "Speak to the Israelites, and get 12 staffs from them, one from the leader of each of their tribes. Write each man's name on his staff.

Numbers 17:3 Write Aaron's name on the staff for Levi because there must be one staff for the head of each tribe.

Numbers 17:4 Put them in the tent of meeting where I meet with you, in front of the words of my promise.

Numbers 17:5 The staff from the man I choose will begin to grow. In this way I will silence the frequent complaints the Israelites make against you and Aaron."

Numbers 17:6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites. Their leaders gave him 12 staffs, one from the leader of each of their tribes. Aaron's staff was among them.

Numbers 17:7 Moses put the staffs in the LORD's presence in the tent of the words of God's promise.

Numbers 17:8 The next day Moses went into the tent. He found that Aaron's staff for the tribe of Levi had not only begun to grow, but it had also blossomed and produced ripe almonds.

Numbers 17:9 Moses brought out the staffs from the LORD's presence and showed them to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his staff.

Numbers 17:10 The LORD said to Moses, "Put Aaron's staff back in front of the words of my promise, and keep it there as a sign to warn any other rebels. Then you will stop their complaints about me, and they won't die."

Numbers 17:11 Moses did exactly what the LORD commanded him to do.

Numbers 17:12 The Israelites said to Moses, "Now we're going to die! We're lost! We're all lost!

Numbers 17:13 Anyone who comes near the LORD's tent will die! Are we all going to die?"

Numbers 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons, and your family will be responsible for any sins against the holy place. You and your sons will also be responsible for any sins you commit when you work as priests.

Numbers 18:2 Bring the other Levites from your ancestor's tribe to join you and help you and your sons serve in front of the tent of the words of my promise.

Numbers 18:3 They will work for you, doing whatever work is necessary for the whole tent. But they must not come near the altar or the furnishings in the holy place, or they will die, and you will die, too.

Numbers 18:4 They will join you and do whatever work is necessary for the tent of meeting, including all the maintenance work for the tent. But no one else may come near you.

Numbers 18:5 "You must be in charge of the work done at the holy place and at the altar. Then I won't show my anger against the Israelites again.

Numbers 18:6 I have chosen the other Levites from among the Israelites to help you. They are a gift given to the LORD to do whatever work is necessary at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:7 Only you and your sons may do the work of priests-everything done at the altar and under the canopy. This is my gift to you: You may serve me as priests. Anyone else who comes near [the holy place to do this work] must die.”

Numbers 18:8 The LORD said to Aaron, “I am putting you in charge of all the contributions given to me. I am giving you and your descendants all the holy gifts from the Israelites as your share. These contributions will always be yours.

Numbers 18:9 That part of the most holy offerings which is not burned belongs to you. It may come from a grain offering, an offering for sin, or a guilt offering. Whatever is brought to me as a most holy offering will belong to you and your sons.

Numbers 18:10 Eat it in a most holy place. Any male may eat it. You must consider it holy.

Numbers 18:11 “The contributions that come as gifts taken from the offerings presented by the Israelites are also yours. I am giving these to you, your sons, and your daughters. They will always be yours. Anyone in your household who is clean may eat them.

Numbers 18:12 “I am also giving you the first of the produce they give the LORD: the best of all the olive oil and the best of the new wine and fresh grain.

Numbers 18:13 The first of all produce harvested in their land that they bring to the LORD is yours. Anyone in your household who is clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:14 “Anything in Israel that is claimed by the LORD is yours.

Numbers 18:15 Every firstborn male, human or animal, that is brought to the LORD is yours. But you must buy back every firstborn son and the firstborn male of any unclean animal.

Numbers 18:16 When they are one month old, you must buy them back at the fixed price of two ounces of silver using the standard weight of the holy place.

Numbers 18:17 “But you must never buy back a firstborn ox, sheep, or goat. They are holy. Throw the blood from these animals against the altar, and burn the fat as an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 18:18 But the meat is yours, like the breast and the right thigh that are presented.

Numbers 18:19 I am giving you, your sons, and your daughters all the holy contributions the Israelites bring to the LORD. These contributions will always be yours. It is an everlasting promise of salt in the LORD’s presence for you and your descendants.”

Numbers 18:20 The LORD said to Aaron, “You will have no land or property of your own as the other Israelites will have. I am your possession and your property among the Israelites.

Numbers 18:21 “I am giving the Levites one-tenth of every Israelite’s income. This is in return for the work they do at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:22 The other Israelites must never again come near the tent of meeting. Otherwise, they’ll suffer the consequences of their sin and die.

Numbers 18:23 Only the Levites will do the work at the tent of meeting. They will be responsible for their own sins. This is a permanent law for future generations. They will own no property as the other Israelites will.

Numbers 18:24 Instead, I will give the Levites what the Israelites contribute to the LORD-one-tenth of the Israelites’ income. This is why I said about them, ‘They will own no property as the other Israelites do.’”

Numbers 18:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 18:26 “Speak to the Levites and say to them: You will take one-tenth of the Israelites’ income which I’m giving you as your property. When you do, you must contribute one-tenth of that income as your contribution to the LORD.

Numbers 18:27 Your contribution will be considered to be grain from the threshing floor or juice from the winepress.

Numbers 18:28 So you, too, will contribute one-tenth of your income to the LORD out of all that you receive from the Israelites’ income. You will give the LORD’s contribution to the priest Aaron.

Numbers 18:29 Out of all the gifts you receive, you must contribute the best and holiest parts to the LORD.

Numbers 18:30 “Also tell them: When you contribute the best part, your contribution will be considered to be produce from the threshing floor or winepress.

Numbers 18:31 So you and your households may eat it anywhere, because it’s the wages you receive for your work at the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:32 When you contribute the best part, you won’t suffer the consequences of any sin. You won’t be dishonoring the holy offerings given by the Israelites, and you won’t die.”

Numbers 19:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 19:2 “This is what the LORD’s teachings have commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red cow that is perfect, with no defects. Also, it must never have worn a yoke.

Numbers 19:3 Give it to the priest Eleazar. It must be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Numbers 19:4 The priest Eleazar will take some of the blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 19:5 Then the entire cow (the skin, meat, blood, and excrement) will be burned while he watches.

Numbers 19:6 The priest will take some cedar wood, a hyssop sprig, and some red yarn and throw them onto the burning cow.

Numbers 19:7 The priest must then wash his clothes and his body. After that, he may go into the camp. But he will be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:8 The person who burned the calf must also wash his clothes and his body. He, too, will be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:9 "A man who is clean will collect the ashes from the cow and put them in a clean place outside the camp. They will be kept by the community of Israel and used in the water that takes away uncleanness. The cow is an offering for sin.

Numbers 19:10 The person who collected the ashes from the cow must also wash his clothes. He will be unclean until evening. This will be a permanent law for the Israelites and for the foreigners who live with them.

Numbers 19:11 "Whoever touches the dead body of any human being will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:12 The unclean person must use this water on the third day and the seventh day to take away his sin. Then he will be clean. But if he doesn't use this water on the third day and the seventh day, he will not be clean.

Numbers 19:13 Whoever touches the dead body of a human being and doesn't use this water to take away his sin makes the LORD's tent unclean. That person must be excluded from Israel, because the water that takes away uncleanness wasn't sprinkled on him. He is unclean; his uncleanness stays with him.

Numbers 19:14 "These are your instructions for when a person dies in a tent: Everyone who goes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:15 Every container without a lid fastened on it is unclean.

Numbers 19:16 "Whoever is outdoors and touches someone who was killed or has died naturally or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:17 "[This is what you must do] for people who become unclean from touching a dead body. Put some of the ashes from the red cow that was burned as an offering for sin into a container. Then pour fresh water on them.

Numbers 19:18 A person who is clean will take a sprig of hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle the tent, all the furnishings, and all the people who were in the tent [with the dead body]. He must also sprinkle any person who has touched a human bone or a grave and any person who has touched someone who has been killed or who has died naturally.

Numbers 19:19 A person who is clean will sprinkle these types of unclean people on the third day and the seventh day. On the seventh day the clean person will finish taking away their sins. Then they must wash their clothes and bodies, and in the evening they will be clean.

Numbers 19:20 But if the person who becomes unclean doesn't have his sin taken away, that person must be excluded from the assembly. He has made the holy place of the LORD unclean. The water to take away uncleanness wasn't sprinkled on him. He is unclean.

Numbers 19:21 This will be a permanent law for them. "Whoever sprinkles the water to take away uncleanness must wash his clothes. And whoever touches this water will be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:22 Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and the person who touches it will be unclean until evening."

Numbers 20:1 In the first month the whole community of Israel came into the Desert of Zin, and they stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died and was buried there.

Numbers 20:2 Since the community was without water, they came together to confront Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 20:3 The people complained to Moses and said, "If only we had died when the other Israelites died in the LORD's presence!

Numbers 20:4 Did you bring the LORD's assembly into this desert just to have us and our animals die here?

Numbers 20:5 Why did you make us leave Egypt and bring us into this terrible place? This is no place to plant crops. Even figs, grapes, and pomegranates won't grow here. And there's no water to drink!"

Numbers 20:6 Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting. Immediately, they bowed with their faces touching the ground, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Numbers 20:7 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 20:8 "Take your staff, then you and your brother Aaron gather the community. Right before their eyes, tell the rock to give up its water. In this way you will give the community water from the rock for them and their animals to drink."

Numbers 20:9 Moses took his staff out of [the tent in] the LORD's presence as he had been commanded.

Numbers 20:10 Then Moses and Aaron assembled the community in front of the rock and said to them, “Listen, you rebels, must we bring water out of this rock for you?”

Numbers 20:11 Moses raised his hand and hit the rock twice with the staff. Water came pouring out, and all the people and their animals drank.

Numbers 20:12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “You didn’t trust me! You didn’t show the Israelites how holy I am! So you will not bring this congregation into the land I’m giving them.”

Numbers 20:13 This was the oasis of Meribah [Complaining], where the Israelites complained about the LORD and where he showed them he was holy.

Numbers 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. He said, “This is what your brother Israel says: You know all the hardships we’ve had.

Numbers 20:15 Our ancestors went to Egypt, and we lived there for many years. The Egyptians mistreated us and our ancestors.

Numbers 20:16 When we cried out to the LORD, he heard us, sent a messenger, and brought us out of Egypt. “Now we’re here in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory.

Numbers 20:17 Please let us go through your country. We won’t go through any of your fields or vineyards, or drink any of the water from your wells. We’ll stay on the king’s highway and never leave it until we’ve passed through your territory.”

Numbers 20:18 But the Edomites answered, “You may not pass through our country. If you try, we’ll come out and attack you.”

Numbers 20:19 The Israelites replied, “We’ll stay on the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we’ll pay for it. We want to pass through on foot. That’s all.”

Numbers 20:20 But the Edomites said, “You may not pass through.” Then they came out and attacked with many well-armed troops.

Numbers 20:21 Since the Edomites refused to let Israel go through their territory, the Israelites turned around and went a different way.

Numbers 20:22 The whole community of Israel left Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, Numbers 20:24 “Aaron must now join his ancestors [in death], since he cannot enter the land I’m giving the Israelites. This is because you both rebelled against my command at the oasis of Meribah.

Numbers 20:25 Bring Aaron and his son Eleazar up on Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:26 Take off Aaron's priestly clothes, and put them on his son Eleazar. Then Aaron will die there and join [his ancestors]."

Numbers 20:27 Moses did as the LORD commanded. The whole community saw them go up on Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:28 Moses took off Aaron's priestly clothes and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

Numbers 20:29 The whole community saw that Aaron had died, and all the Israelites mourned for Aaron 30 days.

Numbers 21:1 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that the Israelites were coming on the road to Atharim, he fought them and took some of them as prisoners.

Numbers 21:2 Then the Israelites made this vow to the LORD: "If you will hand these people over to us, we'll destroy their cities because you've claimed them."

Numbers 21:3 The LORD listened to the Israelites and handed the Canaanites over to them. They destroyed the Canaanites and their cities. So they called the place Hormah [Claimed for Destruction].

Numbers 21:4 Then they moved from Mount Hor, following the road that goes to the Red Sea, in order to get around Edom. The people became impatient on the trip

Numbers 21:5 and criticized God and Moses. They said, "Why did you make us leave Egypt-just to let us die in the desert? There's no bread or water, and we can't stand this awful food!"

Numbers 21:6 So the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people. They bit the people, and many of the Israelites died.

Numbers 21:7 The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we criticized the LORD and you. Pray to the LORD so that he will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

Numbers 21:8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake, and put it on a pole. Anyone who is bitten can look at it and live."

Numbers 21:9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it on a pole. People looked at the bronze snake after they were bitten, and they lived.

Numbers 21:10 The Israelites moved and set up camp at Oboth.

Numbers 21:11 Next they moved from Oboth and set up camp at Iye Abarim in the desert west of Moab.

Numbers 21:12 From there they moved and set up camp at the Zered River.

Numbers 21:13 They moved from there and set up camp on the other side of the Arnon Valley in the desert that extends into Amorite territory. (The Arnon Valley is the border between Moab and the Amorites.)

Numbers 21:14 This is how it’s described in the Book of the Wars of the LORD:”... Waheb in Suphah and the valleys, Numbers 21:15 Arnon and the slopes of the valleys that go down to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab....”

Numbers 21:16 From there they went to Beer [Well]. This is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people, and I will give them water.”

Numbers 21:17 Then Israel sang this song about the well: “Make your water spring up! Sing to the well, Numbers 21:18 the well dug by princes, dug out by the nobles of the people with their scepters and staffs.” From the desert they went to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where Mount Pisgah overlooks Jeshimon.

Numbers 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to say to King Sihon of the Amorites,

Numbers 21:22 “Let us go through your country. We won’t go through any of your fields or vineyards or drink any of the water from your wells. We’ll stay on the king’s highway until we’ve passed through your territory.”

Numbers 21:23 Sihon wouldn’t let Israel pass through his territory. Sihon gathered all his troops and came out into the desert to attack Israel. When Sihon’s troops came to Jahaz, they fought against Israel.

Numbers 21:24 But Israel defeated them in battle and took possession of their land from the Arnon Valley to the Jabbok River. [They stopped at] the border of the Ammon because it was fortified.

Numbers 21:25 Israel took all those Amorite cities, including Heshbon and all its villages, and lived in them.

Numbers 21:26 Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites. He had fought the former king of Moab and had taken all his land up to the Arnon Valley.

Numbers 21:27 This is why the poets say: “Come to Heshbon! Rebuild it! Restore Sihon’s city!

Numbers 21:28 Fire came out of Heshbon, flames from Sihon’s city. They destroyed Ar of Moab, the rulers of Arnon’s worship sites.

Numbers 21:29 How horrible it is for you, Moab! You are destroyed, you people of the god Chemosh. Chemosh let his sons become refugees and he let his daughters become prisoners of King Sihon of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:30 But we shot the Amorites full of arrows. From Heshbon to Dibon they all died. We destroyed everyone and everything between Nophah and Medeba.”

Numbers 21:31 So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:32 After Moses sent spies to Jazer, the Israelites captured its cities and villages and forced out the Amorites who were there.

Numbers 21:33 Then they turned and followed the road that goes to Bashan. King Og of Bashan and all his troops came out to fight the Israelites at Edrei.

Numbers 21:34 The LORD said to Moses, “Don’t be afraid of him. I’ll hand him, all his troops, and his land over to you. Do to him what you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon.”

Numbers 21:35 The Israelites defeated him, his sons, and all his troops, leaving no survivors. And they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22:1 Then the Israelites moved and set up camp across from Jericho, on the plains of Moab east of the Jordan River.

Numbers 22:2 Balak, son of Zippor, saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

Numbers 22:3 The Moabites were very afraid because there were so many Israelites. Besides, the Moabites couldn’t stand these people.

Numbers 22:4 So the Moabites said to the leaders of Midian, “All those people will eventually eat up everything around us the same way an ox eats up the grass in a field.” At that time Balak, son of Zippor, was king of Moab.

Numbers 22:5 He sent messengers to summon Balaam, son of Beor, who was at Pethor, on the Euphrates River, in the land where his people lived. Balak’s message was, “A nation has just come here from Egypt. They’ve spread out all over the countryside and are setting up their camp here in front of me.

Numbers 22:6 Please come and curse these people for me, because they are too strong for me. Maybe then I’ll be able to defeat them and force them out of the country. I know that whomever you bless is blessed and whomever you curse is cursed.”

Numbers 22:7 The leaders of Moab and Midian left, taking money with them to pay for Balaam’s services. They came to Balaam and told him what Balak had said.

Numbers 22:8 “Spend the night here,” Balaam said to them, “and I’ll report to you what the LORD tells me.” So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Numbers 22:9 God came to Balaam and asked, “Who are these men with you?”

Numbers 22:10 Balaam answered, “Balak, son of King Zippor of Moab, sent them with this message:

Numbers 22:11 ‘Some people have just come from Egypt and are spreading out all over the countryside. Now come and curse them for me. Maybe I’ll be able to fight them and force them out.’”

Numbers 22:12 But God said to Balaam, “Don’t go with them! Don’t curse these people, because they are blessed.”

Numbers 22:13 When Balaam got up in the morning, he said to Balak’s princes, “Go back to your own country, because the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

Numbers 22:14 So the Moabite princes went back to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

Numbers 22:15 Balak sent a larger group of more highly respected princes.

Numbers 22:16 When they came to Balaam, they said to him, “This is what Balak, son of Zippor, says: Don’t let anything keep you from coming to me.

Numbers 22:17 I will make sure you are richly rewarded, and I will do whatever you ask. Please, come and curse these people for me.”

Numbers 22:18 But Balaam answered Balak’s servants, “Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I couldn’t disobey the command of the LORD my God no matter whether the request was important or not.

Numbers 22:19 Now, why don’t you stay here tonight, as the others did, and I’ll find out what else the LORD may have to tell me.”

Numbers 22:20 That night God came to Balaam and said, “If these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you.”

Numbers 22:21 When Balaam got up in the morning, he saddled his donkey and left with the Moabite princes.

Numbers 22:22 God became angry that he was going. So the Messenger of the LORD stood in the road to stop him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, accompanied by his two servants.

Numbers 22:23 When the donkey saw the Messenger of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn, the donkey turned off the road into a field. Balaam hit the donkey to get it back on the road.

Numbers 22:24 Where the road went through the vineyards, it was narrow, with stone walls on both sides. Now the Messenger of the LORD stood there.

Numbers 22:25 When the donkey saw the Messenger of the LORD, it moved over and pinned Balaam’s foot against the wall. So Balaam hit the donkey again.

Numbers 22:26 Then the Messenger of the LORD moved ahead and stood in a narrower place where there was no room to turn to the right or the left.

Numbers 22:27 When the donkey saw the Messenger of the LORD, it lay down under Balaam. Balaam became so angry he hit the donkey with his stick.

Numbers 22:28 Then the LORD made the donkey speak, and it asked Balaam, “What have I done to make you hit me three times?”

Numbers 22:29 Balaam answered, “You’ve made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I’d kill you right now.”

Numbers 22:30 The donkey said to Balaam, “I’m your own donkey. You’ve always ridden me. Have I ever done this to you before?” “No,” he answered.

Numbers 22:31 Then the LORD let Balaam see the Messenger of the LORD who was standing in the road with his sword drawn. So Balaam knelt, bowing with his face touching the ground.

Numbers 22:32 The Messenger of the LORD asked him, “Why have you hit your donkey three times like this? I’ve come here to stop you because the trip you’re taking is evil.

Numbers 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If it had not turned away from me, I would certainly have killed you by now but spared the donkey.”

Numbers 22:34 Balaam said to the Messenger of the LORD, “I’ve sinned. I didn’t know you were standing there in the road to stop me. If you still think this trip is evil, I’ll go back.”

Numbers 22:35 The Messenger of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but say only what I tell you.” So Balaam went with Balak’s princes.

Numbers 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at Ir Moab, in the region of the Arnon Valley, right on the border of Moab.

Numbers 22:37 Balak said to Balaam, “Why didn’t you come when I summoned you? You knew I’d be able to reward you.”

Numbers 22:38 Balaam replied, “Well, I’ve come to you now. But I can’t say whatever I want to. I can only say what God tells me to say.”

Numbers 22:39 Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth.

Numbers 22:40 Balak sacrificed cattle, sheep, and goats, and sent some of the meat to Balaam and the princes who were with him.

Numbers 22:41 The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal. From there he could see the outskirts of the Israelites’ camp.

Numbers 23:1 Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Numbers 23:2 Balak did what Balaam told him, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:3 Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your burnt offering while I’m gone. Maybe the LORD will come and meet with me. I will tell you whatever he reveals to me.” Then Balaam went off to a higher place where there were no trees.

Numbers 23:4 God came to him, and Balaam said, “I have set up seven altars, and I offered a bull and a ram on each altar.”

Numbers 23:5 The LORD told Balaam, “Go back to Balak, and give him my message.”

Numbers 23:6 So he went back to Balak and found him standing beside his burnt offering with all the princes of Moab.

Numbers 23:7 Then Balaam delivered this message: “Balak brought me from Aram. The king of Moab summoned me from the eastern mountains. ‘Come, curse Jacob for me,’ he said. ‘Come, condemn Israel.’

Numbers 23:8 How can I curse those whom God hasn’t cursed? How can I condemn those whom the LORD hasn’t condemned?

Numbers 23:9 I see them from the top of rocky cliffs, I look at them from the hills. I see a nation that lives by itself, people who do not consider themselves to be like other nations.

Numbers 23:10 The descendants of Jacob are like specks of dust. Who can count them or number even one-fourth of the people of Israel? Let me die the death of innocent people. Let my end be like theirs.”

Numbers 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you here to curse my enemies, but all you’ve done is bless them!”

Numbers 23:12 Balaam answered, “I must say what the LORD tells me to say.”

Numbers 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place, where you can see the Israelites. You will see only some of them, not all of them. Curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:14 So he took him to the Field of Zophim on top of Mount Pisgah, where he built seven altars. He offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:15 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your burnt offering while I meet with God over there.”

Numbers 23:16 The LORD came to Balaam and told him, “Go back to Balak, and give him my message.”

Numbers 23:17 He came to Balak and found him standing beside his burnt offering with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say?”

Numbers 23:18 Then Balaam delivered this message: “Stand up, Balak, and listen! Hear me, son of Zippor!

Numbers 23:19 God is not like people. He tells no lies. He is not like humans. He doesn’t change his mind. When he says something, he does it. When he makes a promise, he keeps it.

Numbers 23:20 I have received a command to bless. He has blessed, and I can’t change it.

Numbers 23:21 He doesn’t want any trouble for the descendants of Jacob. He sees no misfortune for the people of Israel. The LORD their God is with them, praised as their king.

Numbers 23:22 The God who brought them out of Egypt has the strength of a wild bull.

Numbers 23:23 No spell can curse the descendants of Jacob. No magic can harm the people of Israel. Now it will be said of Jacob and Israel: ‘See what God has done!’

Numbers 23:24 Here is a nation that attacks like a lioness and is as ferocious as a lion. It doesn’t lie down until it eats its prey and drinks the blood of its victim.”

Numbers 23:25 Balak said to Balaam, “If you won’t curse them, then at least don’t bless them!”

Numbers 23:26 Balaam answered, “Didn’t I tell you that I must do whatever the LORD says?”

Numbers 23:27 Balak said to Balaam, “Come, let me take you to another place. Maybe God wants you to curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Mount Peor, which overlooks Jeshimon.

Numbers 23:29 Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Numbers 23:30 Balak did what Balaam told him, and he offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24:1 When Balaam saw that the LORD wanted to bless Israel, he didn’t look for omens as he had done before. He turned toward the desert,

Numbers 24:2 looked up, and saw Israel’s camp grouped by tribes. The Spirit of God entered him, Numbers 24:3 and he delivered this message: “This is the message of Balaam, son of Beor. This is the message of the man whose eyesight is clear.

Numbers 24:4 This is the message of the one who hears the words of God, has a vision from the Almighty, and falls [into a trance] with his eyes open:

Numbers 24:5 How beautiful are your tents, Jacob, and the places where you live, Israel.

Numbers 24:6 Your tents spread out like rivers, like gardens by a river, like aloes planted by the LORD, like cedars by the water.

Numbers 24:7 Water will flow from their buckets, and their crops will have plenty of water. Their king will be greater than Agag, and their kingdom will be considered the best.

Numbers 24:8 The God who brought them out of Egypt has the strength of a wild bull. He will devour nations that are his enemies, crush their bones, and pierce them with arrows.

Numbers 24:9 His people lie down [and] rest like a lion. They are like a lioness. Who dares to disturb them? Those who bless you will be blessed! Those who curse you will be cursed!"

Numbers 24:10 Balak became angry with Balaam. He clapped his hands and said, "I summoned you to curse my enemies, and now you have blessed them three times.

Numbers 24:11 Get out of here! Go home! I said I'd reward you richly, but the LORD has made you lose your reward."

Numbers 24:12 Balaam answered Balak, "I told the messengers you sent me,

Numbers 24:13 'Even if Balak would give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I couldn't disobey the LORD's command no matter how good or bad the request might seem to me. I must say only what the LORD says.'

Numbers 24:14 Even though I'm going back to my people, I'll give you some advice. I'll tell you what these people will do to your people in the days to come."

Numbers 24:15 Then Balaam delivered this message: "This is the message of Balaam, son of Beor. This is the message of the man whose eyesight is clear.

Numbers 24:16 This is the message of the one who hears the words of God, receives knowledge from the Most High, has a vision from the Almighty, and falls [into a trance] with his eyes open:

Numbers 24:17 I see someone who is not here now. I look at someone who is not nearby. A star will come from Jacob. A scepter will rise from Israel. He will crush the heads of the Moabites and destroy all the people of Sheth.

Numbers 24:18 Edom will be conquered, and Seir, his enemy, will be conquered. So Israel will become wealthy.

Numbers 24:19 He will rule from Jacob and destroy whoever is left in their cities."

Numbers 24:20 Then Balaam saw the Amalekites and delivered this message: “Amalek was first among the nations, but in the end it will be destroyed.”

Numbers 24:21 Then he saw the Kenites and delivered this message: “You have a permanent place to live. Your nest is built in a rock.

Numbers 24:22 But it is destined to be burned, you [descendants of] Cain, when Assyria takes you as prisoners of war.”

Numbers 24:23 He delivered this message: “Oh no! Who will live when God decides to do this?

Numbers 24:24 Ships will come from the shores of Cyprus. They will conquer Assyria and Eber. But they, too, will be totally destroyed.”

Numbers 24:25 Then Balaam got up and went back home, and Balak also went on his way.

Numbers 25:1 While Israel was staying at Shittim, the men began to have sex with Moabite women

Numbers 25:2 who invited the people to the sacrifices offered to their gods. The people ate the meat from the sacrifices and worshiped these gods.

Numbers 25:3 Since the Israelites joined in worshiping the god Baal of Peor, the LORD became angry with Israel.

Numbers 25:4 The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people, and execute them in broad daylight in the LORD’s presence. This will turn the LORD’s anger away from Israel.”

Numbers 25:5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Each of you must kill the men who have joined in worshiping the god Baal of Peor.”

Numbers 25:6 One of the Israelite men brought a Midianite woman to his brothers. He did this right in front of Moses and the whole community of Israel while they were crying at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 25:7 Phinehas, son of Eleazar and grandson of the priest Aaron, saw this. So he left the assembly, took a spear in his hand,

Numbers 25:8 and went into the tent after the Israelite man. He drove the spear through the man and into the woman’s body. Because of this, the plague that the Israelites were experiencing stopped.

Numbers 25:9 However, 24,000 people died from that plague.

Numbers 25:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 25:11 “Phinehas, son of Eleazar and grandson of the priest Aaron, turned my fury away from the Israelites. Since he stood up for me, I didn’t have to stand up for myself and destroy them.

Numbers 25:12 So tell Phinehas that I’m making a promise of peace to him.

Numbers 25:13 My promise is that he and his descendants will be priests permanently because he stood up for his God and he made peace with the LORD for the Israelites.”

Numbers 25:14 The name of the Israelite man who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri, son of Salu. (Salu was the leader of a family from Simeon.)

Numbers 25:15 The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi, daughter of Zur. (Zur was the head of a family from the Midianite tribes.)

Numbers 25:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 25:17 “Treat the Midianites as your enemies, and kill them

Numbers 25:18 because they treated you as enemies. They plotted to trick you in the incident that took place at Peor. They used their sister Cozbi, daughter of a Midianite leader, who was killed on the day of the plague caused by the incident at Peor.”

Numbers 26:1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar, son of the priest Aaron,

Numbers 26:2 “Take a census of the whole community of Israel by households. List those who are at least 20 years old and eligible for military duty.”

Numbers 26:3 So Moses and the priest Eleazar spoke to the Israelites on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho. They said,

Numbers 26:4 “Take a census of those at least 20 years old, as the LORD commanded Moses.” These are the Israelites who came from Egypt:

Numbers 26:5 [Reuben] was Israel’s firstborn. The descendants of Reuben were the family of Hanoch, the family of Pallu, Numbers 26:6 the family of Hezron, and the family of Carmi.

Numbers 26:7 These were the families of Reuben. The total number of men was 43,730.

Numbers 26:8 Eliab was the son of Pallu,

Numbers 26:9 and Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram were the sons of Eliab. (It was Dathan and Abiram, men chosen by the community, who defied Moses and Aaron’s authority. They joined Korah’s followers when they defied the LORD’s authority.

Numbers 26:10 The ground opened up and swallowed them along with Korah. They and their followers died when the fire consumed the 250 men. This was a warning.

Numbers 26:11 But the descendants of Korah didn’t die.)

Numbers 26:12 The families descended from [Simeon] were the family of Nemuel, the family of Jamin, the family of Jakin, Numbers 26:13 the family of Zerah, and the family of Shaul.

Numbers 26:14 These were the families of Simeon. The total number of men was 22,200.

Numbers 26:15 The families descended from [Gad] were the family of Zephon, the family of Haggi, the family of Shuni,

Numbers 26:16 the family of Ozni, the family of Eri,

Numbers 26:17 the family of Arodi, and the family of Areli.

Numbers 26:18 These were the families of Gad's descendants. The total number of men was 40,500.

Numbers 26:19 Er and Onan were sons of Judah, but they died in Canaan.

Numbers 26:20 The families descended from [Judah] were the family of Shelah, the family of Perez, and the family of Zerah.

Numbers 26:21 The descendants of Perez were the family of Hezron and the family of Hamul.

Numbers 26:22 These were the families of Judah. The total number of men was 76,500.

Numbers 26:23 The families descended from [Issachar] were the family of Tola, the family of Puah, Numbers 26:24 the family of Jashub, and the family of Shimron.

Numbers 26:25 These were the families of Issachar. The total number of men was 64,300.

Numbers 26:26 The families descended from [Zebulun] were the family of Sered, the family of Elon, and the family of Jahleel.

Numbers 26:27 These were the families of Zebulun. The total number of men was 60,500.

Numbers 26:28 The families descended from [Joseph] [through] Manasseh and Ephraim were Numbers 26:29 (from Manasseh) the family of Machir (Machir was the father of Gilead) and the family of Gilead.

Numbers 26:30 The descendants of Gilead were the family of Iezer, the family of Helek,

Numbers 26:31 the family of Asriel, the family of Shechem,

Numbers 26:32 the family of Shemida, and the family of Hepher.

Numbers 26:33 (Zelophehad, son of Hepher, had no sons-only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.)

Numbers 26:34 These were the families of Manasseh. The total number of men was 52,700.

Numbers 26:35 The families descended from Ephraim were the family of Shuthelah, the family of Beker, and the family of Tahan.

Numbers 26:36 The descendants of Shuthelah were the family of Eran.

Numbers 26:37 These were the families of Ephraim’s descendants. The total number of men was 32,500. These were the families descended from Joseph.

Numbers 26:38 The families descended from [Benjamin] were the family of Bela, the family of Ashbel, the family of Ahiram, Numbers 26:39 the family of Shupham, and the family of Hupham.

Numbers 26:40 The descendants of Bela ([through] Ard and Naaman) were the family of Ard and the family of Naaman.

Numbers 26:41 These were the families descended from Benjamin. The total number of men was 45,600.

Numbers 26:42 The family descended from [Dan] was the family of Shuham. This was the family descended from Dan.

Numbers 26:43 The total number of men in all the family of Shuham was 64,400.

Numbers 26:44 The families descended from [Asher] were the family of Imnah, the family of Ishvi, and the family of Beriah.

Numbers 26:45 The descendants of Beriah were the family of Heber and the family of Malchiel.

Numbers 26:46 (Asher had a daughter named Serah.)

Numbers 26:47 These were the families of Asher’s descendants. The total number of men was 53,400.

Numbers 26:48 The families descended from [Naphtali] were the family of Jahzeel, the family of Guni, Numbers 26:49 the family of Jezer, and the family of Shillem.

Numbers 26:50 These were the families of Naphtali. The total number of men was 45,400.

Numbers 26:51 The total number of Israelite men was 601,730.

Numbers 26:52 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 26:53 “The land these people will possess must be divided using the list of names [from the census].

Numbers 26:54 Give more land to larger tribes and less land to smaller ones. Use the totals [from the census] in giving land to each tribe.

Numbers 26:55 But the land must be divided by drawing lots. The tribes will receive their land based on the names of their ancestors.

Numbers 26:56 Whether the tribes are large or small, the land must be divided by drawing lots.”

Numbers 26:57 The families descended from [Levi] were listed as the family of Gershon, the family of Kohath, and the family of Merari.

Numbers 26:58 These were the families of Levi: the Libnite family, the Hebronite family, the Mahlite family, the Mushite family, and the Korahite family. Kohath was the ancestor of Amram.

Numbers 26:59 The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, who was born in Egypt. She gave birth to Amram's children: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam.

Numbers 26:60 Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Numbers 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu had died because they offered unauthorized fire in the LORD's presence.

Numbers 26:62 The total number of all the [Levite] males at least one month old was 23,000. They were not counted along with the other Israelites, because they were given no land of their own.

Numbers 26:63 Moses and the priest Eleazar added up the total number of Israelites on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Numbers 26:64 Among them there wasn't a single one of the Israelites Moses and the priest Aaron had counted in the Desert of Sinai.

Numbers 26:65 The LORD had said, "They must all die in the desert." The only ones left were Caleb (son of Jephunneh) and Joshua (son of Nun).

Numbers 27:1 The daughters of Zelophehad, son of Hepher, grandson of Gilead, descendant of Machir, whose father was Manasseh, belonged to the families of Manasseh, son of Joseph. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. They came Numbers 27:2 to Moses and stood in front of him, the priest Eleazar, the leaders, and the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting. They said, Numbers 27:3 "Our father died in the desert. He was not a part of Korah's followers who joined forces against the LORD. He died for his own sin and left no sons.

Numbers 27:4 Why should our father's name be allowed to die out in his family because he had no son? Give us property among our father's relatives."

Numbers 27:5 So Moses brought their case to the LORD,

Numbers 27:6 and the LORD said to him,

Numbers 27:7 "Zelophehad's daughters are right. You must give them property of their own among their father's relatives. Turn their father's property over to them.

Numbers 27:8 "Tell the Israelites: If a man dies and leaves no sons, turn his property over to his daughters.

Numbers 27:9 If he has no daughters, give his property to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 If he has no brothers, give his property to his uncles on his father’s side of the family.

Numbers 27:11 If he has no uncles, give his property to the nearest relative in his family, and that relative will take possession of it. This will be a rule for the Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.”

Numbers 27:12 The LORD said to Moses, “Go up into the Abarim Mountains, and take a look at the land I will give the Israelites.

Numbers 27:13 After you see it, you, too, will join your ancestors [in death], as your brother Aaron did.

Numbers 27:14 You both rebelled against my command in the Desert of Zin. You didn’t show the people how holy I am when they were complaining at the oasis.” (This was the oasis of Meribah at Kadesh in the Desert of Zin.)

Numbers 27:15 Moses said to the LORD,

Numbers 27:16 “LORD, you are the God who gives the breath of life to everyone. Please appoint someone over the community Numbers 27:17 who will lead them in and out [of battle] so that the LORD’s community will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua, son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit, and place your hand on him.

Numbers 27:19 Make him stand in front of the priest Eleazar and the whole community, and give him his instructions in their presence.

Numbers 27:20 Give him some of your authority so that the whole community of Israel will obey him.

Numbers 27:21 He will stand in front of the priest Eleazar, who will use the Urim to make decisions in the LORD’s presence. At his command Joshua and the whole community of Israel will go into battle. And at his command they will return.”

Numbers 27:22 Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and made him stand in front of the priest Eleazar and the whole community.

Numbers 27:23 Moses placed his hands on Joshua and gave him his instructions as the LORD had told him.

Numbers 28:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 28:2 “Give this command to the Israelites: Be sure to bring me my offerings at the right times. They are my food. They are offerings by fire, a soothing aroma.

Numbers 28:3 These are the offerings by fire that you must bring to the LORD. Every day you must bring as a daily burnt offering two one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 28:4 Offer one in the morning and the other at dusk.

Numbers 28:5 [With each of them] also bring a grain offering of eight cups of flour mixed with one quart of virgin olive oil.

Numbers 28:6 This is the daily burnt offering which was established on Mount Sinai. This offering is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:7 Also bring a wine offering of one quart of wine for each lamb. Pour it out to the LORD in a holy place.

Numbers 28:8 Offer the other lamb at dusk along with the same grain offering and wine offering as you brought in the morning. This is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Numbers 28:9 "On the day of worship offer two one-year-old lambs that have no defects, a grain offering of 16 cups of flour mixed with olive oil, and the wine offering that goes with it.

Numbers 28:10 This burnt offering is for every day of worship in addition to the daily burnt offerings and the wine offerings that go with them.

Numbers 28:11 "On the first of every month bring the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 28:12 With each bull there will be a grain offering of 24 cups of flour mixed with olive oil, with each ram a grain offering of 16 cups of flour mixed with olive oil,

Numbers 28:13 and with each one-year-old lamb a grain offering of 8 cups of flour mixed with olive oil. This is a burnt offering, a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:14 The wine offering that goes with each bull will be 2 quarts of wine, with each ram 11/2 quarts of wine, and with each lamb 1 quart of wine. This will be the monthly burnt offering for every month of the year.

Numbers 28:15 In addition to the daily burnt offering with its wine offering, one male goat must be offered to the LORD as an offering for sin.

Numbers 28:16 "The fourteenth day of the first month is the LORD's Passover.

Numbers 28:17 The fifteenth of this same month is a pilgrimage festival. For seven days you must eat only unleavened bread.

Numbers 28:18 On the first day there will be a holy assembly. Don't do any regular work.

Numbers 28:19 Instead, bring the LORD an offering by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs, all of them without defects.

Numbers 28:20 Along with them bring grain offerings of flour mixed with olive oil. Bring 24 cups for each bull, 16 cups for each ram,

Numbers 28:21 and 8 cups for each of the seven lambs.

Numbers 28:22 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin to make peace with the LORD.

Numbers 28:23 Offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 Bring all these offerings on each of the seven days. They are food. They are offerings by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD. They will be offered in addition to the daily burnt offering and the wine offering that goes with it.

Numbers 28:25 On the seventh day you must have a holy assembly. You must not do any regular work.

Numbers 28:26 “During the Festival of Weeks, you must have a holy assembly. On that day you must not do any regular work. Bring the LORD your new grain offering, the first produce harvested from your fields.

Numbers 28:27 Bring a burnt offering as a soothing aroma to the LORD-two young bulls, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs.

Numbers 28:28 Along with them bring grain offerings of flour mixed with olive oil. Bring 24 cups for each bull, 16 cups for each ram,

Numbers 28:29 and 8 cups for each of the seven lambs.

Numbers 28:30 Also bring one male goat to make peace with the LORD.

Numbers 28:31 Offer these animals that have no defects along with their wine offerings, in addition to the daily burnt offerings and their grain offerings.”

Numbers 29:1 [The LORD continued,] “On the first day of the seventh month you must have a holy assembly. You must not do any regular work. It is a day for [the trumpets to sound] a fanfare.

Numbers 29:2 As a burnt offering, a soothing aroma to the LORD, bring one young bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:3 Along with them bring grain offerings of flour mixed with olive oil. Bring 24 cups for each bull, 16 cups for each ram,

Numbers 29:4 and 8 cups for each of the seven lambs.

Numbers 29:5 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin to make peace with the LORD.

Numbers 29:6 Offer these in addition to the monthly burnt offering with its grain offering, and the daily burnt offerings with their proper grain offerings and wine offerings. They are a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 29:7 “On the tenth day of the seventh month you must have a holy assembly. You must humble yourselves. You must not do any work.

Numbers 29:8 As a burnt offering, a soothing aroma, bring one young bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs, all of them without defects.

Numbers 29:9 Along with them bring grain offerings of flour mixed with olive oil. Bring 24 cups for each bull, 16 cups for each ram,

Numbers 29:10 and 8 cups for each of the seven lambs.

Numbers 29:11 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin (in addition to the [other] offering for sin to make peace with the LORD) and the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:12 “On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you must have a holy assembly. You must not do any regular work. Instead, celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days.

Numbers 29:13 As a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD, bring 13 young bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs, all of them without defects.

Numbers 29:14 Along with them bring grain offerings of flour mixed with olive oil. Bring 24 cups for each of the 13 bulls, 16 cups for each of the 2 rams, Numbers 29:15 and 8 cups for each of the 14 one-year-old lambs.

Numbers 29:16 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:17 “On the second day bring 12 young bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:18 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:19 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:20 “On the third day bring 11 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:21 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:22 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:23 “On the fourth day bring 10 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:24 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:25 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:26 “On the fifth day bring 9 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:27 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:28 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:29 “On the sixth day bring 8 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:30 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:31 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:32 “On the seventh day bring 7 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:33 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for each of the bulls, rams, and lambs.

Numbers 29:34 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:35 “On the eighth day you must hold a religious assembly. You must not do any daily work.

Numbers 29:36 As a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD, bring one bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old lambs that have no defects.

Numbers 29:37 Along with them bring the proper amount of grain offerings and wine offerings for the bull, the ram, and the lambs.

Numbers 29:38 Also bring one male goat as an offering for sin in addition to the daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and wine offerings.

Numbers 29:39 “These are the offerings you must bring to the LORD at your festivals. They are the offerings you must bring in addition to the offerings for anything you vowed to give to the LORD, your freewill offerings, your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your wine offerings, and your fellowship offerings.”

Numbers 29:40 Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 30:1 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel, “This is what the LORD has commanded [about vows]:

Numbers 30:2 If a man makes a vow to the LORD that he will do something or swears an oath that he won’t do something, he must not break his word. He must do everything he said he would do.

Numbers 30:3 “A young girl, who still lives in her father’s house, might make a vow to the LORD that she will do something or swear an oath that she won’t do something.

Numbers 30:4 If her father says nothing to her when he hears about it, her vow or oath must be kept.

Numbers 30:5 But if her father objects when he hears about it, her vow or oath doesn’t have to be kept. The LORD will free her [from this vow or oath] because her father objected.

Numbers 30:6 “An unmarried woman might make a vow that she will do something or carelessly promise that she won’t do something. When she marries, Numbers 30:7 her husband may hear about it but say nothing to her. Then her vow or oath must be kept.

Numbers 30:8 But if her husband objects when he hears about it, he can cancel the vow or promise she made. The LORD will free her [from this vow or promise].

Numbers 30:9 “But a widow or a divorced woman must keep her vow or her promise.

Numbers 30:10 “A married woman might make a vow that she will do something or swear an oath that she won’t do something.

Numbers 30:11 Her husband may hear about it but may say nothing and not object. Then her vow or oath must be kept.

Numbers 30:12 But if her husband cancels it when he hears about it, nothing she said in her vow or oath has to be kept. Her husband has canceled it, and the LORD will free her [from this vow or oath].

Numbers 30:13 “A husband decides whether or not his wife has to keep any vow to do something or any oath to do without something.

Numbers 30:14 If he says nothing to her about it day after day, this means he’s decided that she must keep her vow or oath. She must keep it because he said nothing to her when he heard about it.

Numbers 30:15 But if he cancels it later, he will suffer the consequences.”

Numbers 30:16 These are the laws the LORD gave Moses for husbands and wives, and for fathers with young daughters still living at home.

Numbers 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 31:2 “Get even with the Midianites for what they did to the Israelites. After that you will join your ancestors [in death].”

Numbers 31:3 Moses said to the people, “Some of your men must get ready to go to war against the Midianites. The LORD will use them to get even with Midian.

Numbers 31:4 Send 1,000 men from each of the tribes of Israel.”

Numbers 31:5 So 1,000 men from each tribe were supplied from the divisions of Israel-12,000 men ready for war.

Numbers 31:6 Then Moses sent them off to war, 1,000 men from each tribe along with Phinehas, son of the priest Eleazar. Phinehas took with him the holy articles and the trumpets for the fanfare.

Numbers 31:7 They went to war against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and killed every man.

Numbers 31:8 Among those killed were the five kings of Midian-Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. They also killed Balaam, son of Beor, in battle.

Numbers 31:9 The Israelites took the Midianite women and children as prisoners of war. They also took all their animals, their livestock, and their valuables as loot.

Numbers 31:10 They burned all the cities where the Midianites lived and all their settlements.

Numbers 31:11 Then they took everything as loot, including all the people and animals,

Numbers 31:12 and brought the prisoners of war, the loot, and everything to Moses, the priest Eleazar, and the community of Israel at the camp on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Numbers 31:13 Moses, the priest Eleazar, and all the leaders of the community went outside the camp to meet them.

Numbers 31:14 Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of the companies and battalions, who were returning from battle.

Numbers 31:15 “Why did you let all the women live?” he asked them.

Numbers 31:16 “Remember, they were the ones who followed Balaam’s advice and caused the Israelites to be unfaithful to the LORD in the incident that took place at Peor. The LORD’s community experienced a plague at that time.

Numbers 31:17 So kill all the Midianite boys and every Midianite woman who has gone to bed with a man.

Numbers 31:18 But save for yourselves every girl who has never gone to bed with a man.

Numbers 31:19 “Everyone who killed a person or touched a dead body must stay outside the camp seven days. You and your prisoners of war must use the ritual water on the third and seventh days in order to take away your sin.

Numbers 31:20 Do the same for all the clothes and everything made of leather, goats’ hair, or wood.”

Numbers 31:21 Then the priest Eleazar said to the soldiers who had gone into battle, “This is what the LORD’s teachings told Moses to do:

Numbers 31:22 Any gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, or lead-

Numbers 31:23 anything that won’t burn-must be put through fire in order to make it clean. Then it must also be put through the ritual water in order to take away its sin. Whatever might burn must [only] be put through the ritual water.

Numbers 31:24 On the seventh day wash your clothes, and you will be clean. Then you may come into the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 31:26 “You, the priest Eleazar, and the heads of the families of the community need to count all the loot, including the people and animals you captured.

Numbers 31:27 Divide the loot between the soldiers who served in the war and the rest of the community.

Numbers 31:28 Collect a tax for the LORD. From the soldiers who served in the war collect one out of every 500 things. This includes people, cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats.

Numbers 31:29 Collect all these things from the soldiers’ half of the loot, and give them to the priest Eleazar as a contribution to the LORD.

Numbers 31:30 From the Israelites’ half of the loot, collect one out of every 50 things. This includes people, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats, and every other kind of animal. Give them to the Levites who are in charge of the work done at the LORD’s tent.”

Numbers 31:31 Moses and the priest Eleazar did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:32 This is the loot that was left from everything that the troops took: 675,000 sheep and goats,

Numbers 31:33 72,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:34 61,000 donkeys, and

Numbers 31:35 32,000 women who had never gone to bed with a man.

Numbers 31:36 Half of it went to the soldiers who served in the war. Of the 337,500 sheep and goats they received,

Numbers 31:37 675 went to the LORD as taxes.

Numbers 31:38 Of the 36,000 cattle they received, 72 went to the LORD as taxes.

Numbers 31:39 Of the 30,500 donkeys they received, 61 went to the LORD as taxes.

Numbers 31:40 Of the 16,000 people they received, 32 went to the LORD as taxes.

Numbers 31:41 Moses gave the LORD's taxes to the priest Eleazar, as the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 31:42 Moses took the Israelites' half of the loot from the soldiers.

Numbers 31:43 The community received 337,500 sheep and goats,

Numbers 31:44 36,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:45 30,500 donkeys,

Numbers 31:46 and 16,000 people.

Numbers 31:47 From the Israelites' half Moses collected one out of every 50 things, including people and animals, as the LORD commanded him. Then he gave all this to the Levites who were in charge of the work done at the LORD's tent.

Numbers 31:48 Then the officers from the military divisions, the commanders of the companies and battalions of men, came to Moses.

Numbers 31:49 They said to him, "Sir, we have counted all the soldiers under our command, and not one of them is missing.

Numbers 31:50 So we have brought as gifts to the LORD the gold jewelry that each of us found-arm bands, bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and pendants. We offer them to make peace with the LORD."

Numbers 31:51 Moses and the priest Eleazar took all the hand-crafted gold articles from them.

Numbers 31:52 All the gold contributed to the LORD by the commanders weighed about 420 pounds.

Numbers 31:53 Each soldier kept his own loot.

Numbers 31:54 Moses and the priest Eleazar took the gold from the commanders and brought it into the LORD's presence at the tent of meeting as a reminder to the Israelites.

Numbers 32:1 The tribes of Reuben and Gad had a large number of livestock. They saw that the regions of Jazer and Gilead were a good place for livestock.

Numbers 32:2 So they came to Moses, the priest Eleazar, and the leaders of the community, and said to them, Numbers 32:3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon, Numbers 32:4 the land that the LORD won for the community of Israel, is a good place for livestock. Gentlemen, we have livestock.

Numbers 32:5 Please give us this land as our property. Don't make us cross the Jordan River."

Numbers 32:6 Moses asked the tribes of Gad and Reuben, "Are you going to stay here while the rest of the Israelites go to war?

Numbers 32:7 That might discourage them from entering the land the LORD has given them.

Numbers 32:8 That's what your ancestors did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to take a look at the land.

Numbers 32:9 They went as far as the Eshcol Valley and saw the land. But then they discouraged the rest of the Israelites from entering the land that the LORD had given them.

Numbers 32:10 That day the LORD became angry and swore this oath,

Numbers 32:11 'None of the people 20 years old or older, who came from Egypt, will see the land I promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob with an oath. This is because they didn't wholeheartedly follow me.'

Numbers 32:12 Only Caleb (son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite) and Joshua (son of Nun) will get to see the land. This is because they wholeheartedly followed the LORD.

Numbers 32:13 Since the LORD was angry with the Israelites, he made them wander in the desert for 40 years until the whole generation of those who had done evil in the LORD's presence was gone.

Numbers 32:14 "You're just like your parents! You're a bunch of sinners trying to make the LORD angry with Israel again.

Numbers 32:15 If you turn away from him, he will abandon all these people in the desert. You would be responsible for their destruction."

Numbers 32:16 Then the tribes of Gad and Reuben came up to Moses and said, "Allow us to build stone fences for our livestock and cities for our families here.

Numbers 32:17 Then we'll be ready [to march] in battle formation?to march[ahead quickly."> ahead of the other Israelites until we have brought them to their land. Meanwhile our families will live in walled cities, safe from the other people who live here.]

Numbers 32:18 We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has received his own land.

Numbers 32:19 We won't take possession of any land on the other side of the Jordan River, to the west and beyond. We already have our land here, east of the Jordan."

Numbers 32:20 Moses answered, "Do what you have said. In the LORD's presence have all your armed men get ready for battle.

Numbers 32:21 Have them cross the Jordan, and fight until the LORD forces out his enemies

Numbers 32:22 and the land is conquered. Then you may come back. You will have fulfilled your military duty to the LORD and Israel. This land will be your own property in the LORD's presence.

Numbers 32:23 "If you don't do all these things, you will be sinning against the LORD. You can be sure that you will be punished for your sin.

Numbers 32:24 Build cities for your families and stone fences for your flocks, but do what you have promised."

Numbers 32:25 Then the tribes of Gad and Reuben said to Moses, "Sir, we will do as you command.

Numbers 32:26 Our children, our wives, our livestock, and all our other animals will stay here in the cities of Gilead.

Numbers 32:27 But in the LORD's presence we will all get ready for battle and go with you, as you have said."

Numbers 32:28 So Moses gave orders about them to the priest Eleazar, Joshua (son of Nun), and the family heads of the tribes of Israel.

Numbers 32:29 Moses told them, "If the tribes of Gad and Reuben get ready for battle in the LORD's presence and cross the Jordan River with you and you conquer the land, give them Gilead as their own property.

Numbers 32:30 If they don't get ready for battle and go with you, the land they will take possession of must be in Canaan with yours."

Numbers 32:31 The tribes of Gad and Reuben answered, "Sir, we will do as the LORD has said.

Numbers 32:32 We will enter Canaan as armed troops in the LORD's presence, but the land we will take possession of is here, east of the Jordan."

Numbers 32:33 So Moses gave the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and half of the tribe of Manasseh, son of Joseph, the kingdoms of King Sihon of the Amorites and King Og of Bashan-the whole land with its cities and its surrounding territory.

Numbers 32:34 The tribe of Gad rebuilt the cities of Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Numbers 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran as walled cities. They also built stone fences for their flocks.

Numbers 32:37 The tribe of Reuben rebuilt the cities of Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, Numbers 32:38 Nebo, Baal Meon (whose names were changed), and Sibmah. These are the names they gave the cities they rebuilt.

Numbers 32:39 The descendants of Machir, son of Manasseh, went to Gilead, captured it, and forced out the Amorites who were there.

Numbers 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to the people of Machir (the descendants of Manasseh), and they lived there.

Numbers 32:41 Then Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, captured the settlements in Gilead. He called them Havvoth Jair [Settlements of Jair].

Numbers 32:42 Nobah captured Kenath and its villages. He named it Nobah after himself.

Numbers 33:1 This is a list of all the places where the Israelites set up camp after they left Egypt in organized groups under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 33:2 At the LORD's command Moses wrote down the places where they went as they traveled. This is the list:

Numbers 33:3 They moved from Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. The Israelites boldly left in full view of all the Egyptians.

Numbers 33:4 The Egyptians were burying all their firstborn sons, whom the LORD had killed in a mighty act of judgment on their gods.

Numbers 33:5 The Israelites moved from Rameses and set up camp at Succoth.

Numbers 33:6 They moved from Succoth and set up camp at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Numbers 33:7 They moved from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, east of Baal Zephon, and set up camp near Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They moved from Pi Hahiroth and went through the middle of the sea into the desert. After they traveled for three days in the Desert of Etham, they set up camp at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They moved from Marah and came to Elim. Elim had 12 springs and 70 palm trees, so they set up camp there.

Numbers 33:10 They moved from Elim and set up camp by the Red Sea.

Numbers 33:11 They moved from the Red Sea and set up camp in the Desert of Sin.

Numbers 33:12 They moved from the Desert of Sin and set up camp at Dophkah.

Numbers 33:13 They moved from Dophkah and set up camp at Alush.

Numbers 33:14 They moved from Alush and set up camp at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Numbers 33:15 They moved from Rephidim and set up camp in the Desert of Sinai.

Numbers 33:16 They moved from the Desert of Sinai and set up camp at Kibroth Hattaavah.

Numbers 33:17 They moved from Kibroth Hattaavah and set up camp at Hazeroth.

Numbers 33:18 They moved from Hazeroth and set up camp at Rithmah.

Numbers 33:19 They moved from Rithmah and set up camp at Rimmon Perez.

Numbers 33:20 They moved from Rimmon Perez and set up camp at Libnah.

Numbers 33:21 They moved from Libnah and set up camp at Rissah.

Numbers 33:22 They moved from Rissah and set up camp at Kehelathah.

Numbers 33:23 They moved from Kehelathah and set up camp at Mount Shepher.

Numbers 33:24 They moved from Mount Shepher and set up camp at Haradah.

Numbers 33:25 They moved from Haradah and set up camp at Makheloth.

Numbers 33:26 They moved from Makheloth and set up camp at Tahath.

Numbers 33:27 They moved from Tahath and set up camp at Terah.

Numbers 33:28 They moved from Terah and set up camp at Mithcah.

Numbers 33:29 They moved from Mithcah and set up camp at Hashmonah.

Numbers 33:30 They moved from Hashmonah and set up camp at Moseroth.

Numbers 33:31 They moved from Moseroth and set up camp at Bene Jaakan.

Numbers 33:32 They moved from Bene Jaakan and set up camp at Hor Haggidgad.

Numbers 33:33 They moved from Hor Haggidgad and set up camp at Jotbathah.

Numbers 33:34 They moved from Jotbathah and set up camp at Abronah.

Numbers 33:35 They moved from Abronah and set up camp at Ezion Geber.

Numbers 33:36 They moved from Ezion Geber and set up camp at Kadesh in the Desert of Zin.

Numbers 33:37 They moved from Kadesh and set up camp at Mount Hor on the border of Edom.

Numbers 33:38 At the LORD’s command the priest Aaron went up on Mount Hor. He died there on the first day of the fifth month in the fortieth year after the Israelites had left Egypt.

Numbers 33:39 Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 (The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, which was in Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming.)

Numbers 33:41 They moved from Mount Hor and set up camp at Zalmonah.

Numbers 33:42 They moved from Zalmonah and set up camp at Punon.

Numbers 33:43 They moved from Punon and set up camp at Oboth.

Numbers 33:44 They moved from Oboth and set up camp at Iye Abarim on the border of Moab.

Numbers 33:45 They moved from Iyim and set up camp at Dibon Gad.

Numbers 33:46 They moved from Dibon Gad and set up camp at Almon Diblathaim.

Numbers 33:47 They moved from Almon Diblathaim and set up camp in the Abarim Mountains east of Nebo.

Numbers 33:48 They moved from the Abarim Mountains and set up camp on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Numbers 33:49 They set up camp on the plains of Moab along the Jordan. Their camp extended from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim.

Numbers 33:50 The LORD said to Moses on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho, Numbers 33:51 “Tell the Israelites, ‘You will be crossing the Jordan River and entering Canaan.

Numbers 33:52 As you advance, force out all the people who live there. Get rid of all their stone and metal idols, and destroy all their places of worship.

Numbers 33:53 Take possession of the land and live there, because I will give it to you for your own.

Numbers 33:54 Divide the land among your families by drawing lots. Give more land to larger families and less land to smaller ones. The land must be given to each family by drawing lots. Divide it among your ancestors’ tribes.

Numbers 33:55 “ ‘But if you do not force out those who live in the land, they will be like splinters in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will constantly fight with you over the land you live in.

Numbers 33:56 Then I will do to you what I planned to do to them.'"

Numbers 34:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 34:2 "Give the Israelites these instructions. When you enter Canaan, the land that will be given to you as your inheritance has these borders:

Numbers 34:3 "The southern side includes part of the Desert of Zin along the border of Edom. In the east the southern border starts from the end of the Dead Sea

Numbers 34:4 and turns south of the Akrabbim Pass. It then goes past Zin and ends at Kadesh Barnea. From there it goes to Hazar Addar and on to Azmon.

Numbers 34:5 From Azmon it turns toward the River of Egypt so that the border ends at the Mediterranean Sea.

Numbers 34:6 "The western border is the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea.

Numbers 34:7 "The northern border extends from the Mediterranean Sea to Mount Hor, Numbers 34:8 and from Mount Hor to the border of Hamath so that it ends at Zedad.

Numbers 34:9 From there the border goes to Ziphron and ends at Hazar Enan.

Numbers 34:10 "The eastern border extends from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

Numbers 34:11 From Shepham the border goes down to Riblah, east of Ain, and continues along the eastern slope of the Sea of Galilee.

Numbers 34:12 Then the border goes along the Jordan River so that it ends at the Dead Sea. "This will be your land and the borders around it."

Numbers 34:13 Moses commanded the Israelites, "This is the land you will divide by drawing lots. The LORD has commanded that this land will be given to the nine-and-a-half tribes.

Numbers 34:14 The households from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and half of the tribe of Manasseh have already received their land.

Numbers 34:15 Those two-and-a-half tribes received land east of the Jordan River across from Jericho."

Numbers 34:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 34:17 "These are the names of the men who will divide the land for you: the priest Eleazar and Joshua, son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 You must also take one leader from each tribe to divide the land.

Numbers 34:19 These are their names: Caleb, son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 34:20 Shemuel, son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Simeon;

Numbers 34:21 Elidad, son of Kislon, from the tribe of Benjamin;

Numbers 34:22 Bukki, son of Jogli, the leader of the tribe of Dan;

Numbers 34:23 Hanniel, son of Ephod, the leader of the tribe of Manasseh;

Numbers 34:24 Kemuel, son of Shiphtan, the leader of the tribe of Ephraim; (Manasseh and Ephraim are Joseph's descendants.)

Numbers 34:25 Elizaphan, son of Parnach, the leader of the tribe of Zebulun;

Numbers 34:26 Paltiel, son of Azzan, the leader of the tribe of Issachar;

Numbers 34:27 Ahihud, son of Shelomi, the leader of the tribe of Asher;

Numbers 34:28 Pedahel, son of Ammihud, the leader of the tribe of Naphtali."

Numbers 34:29 These are the men the LORD commanded to divide Canaan for the Israelites.

Numbers 35:1 The LORD spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho. He said, Numbers 35:2 "Tell the Israelites to give the Levites some cities from their own property. They must also give the Levites the pastureland around those cities.

Numbers 35:3 Then the Levites will have cities to live in and pastureland for their cattle, the flocks they own, and any other animals they have.

Numbers 35:4 "The land around the cities that you give the Levites will extend 1,500 feet from the city wall.

Numbers 35:5 Outside the city measure off 3,000 feet on the east side, 3,000 feet on the south side, 3,000 feet on the west side, and 3,000 feet on the north side, with the city in the center. This will be their pastureland around the city.

Numbers 35:6 "Six of the cities you give the Levites will be cities of refuge. You must allow murderers to escape to these cities. In addition, you must also give the Levites 42 other cities.

Numbers 35:7 So you will give a total of 48 cities with pastureland to the Levites.

Numbers 35:8 The cities you give the Levites from the property of the other Israelites must be given based on the amount of land each tribe owns. Take more cities from larger tribes and fewer from smaller tribes."

Numbers 35:9 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 35:10 “Tell the Israelites: When you cross the Jordan River and enter Canaan,

Numbers 35:11 select certain cities to be places of refuge. Anyone who unintentionally kills another person may run to them.

Numbers 35:12 These cities will be places of refuge from any relative who can avenge the death. So anyone accused of murder will not have to die until he has had a trial in front of the community.

Numbers 35:13 There will be six cities you select as places of refuge, Numbers 35:14 three on the east side of the Jordan River and three in Canaan.

Numbers 35:15 These six cities will be places of refuge for Israelites, foreigners, and strangers among you. Anyone who unintentionally kills another person may flee to these cities.

Numbers 35:16 “But if any of you uses an iron weapon to kill another person, you are a murderer. Murderers must be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 If any of you picks up a stone as a weapon and uses it to kill another person, you are a murderer. Murderers must be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 Or if any of you picks up a piece of wood as a weapon and uses it to kill another person, you are a murderer. Murderers must be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 The relative who can avenge the death must make sure a murderer is put to death. When he catches up with the murderer, he must kill him.

Numbers 35:20 If any of you kills someone you hate by shoving him or by deliberately throwing something at him,

Numbers 35:21 or if you beat your enemy to death with your bare hands, you must be put to death. You are a murderer. The relative who can avenge the death must kill you when he catches up with you, because you are a murderer.

Numbers 35:22 “But suppose you accidentally kill someone who wasn’t your enemy. Maybe you shoved him or threw something at him but didn’t mean to kill him.

Numbers 35:23 Or suppose you drop a big stone, and someone is killed. However, you didn’t know the person was there, he wasn’t your enemy, and you weren’t trying to harm him.

Numbers 35:24 Then the community must use these rules in order to decide if you [are innocent] or if the dead person’s relative can avenge the death.

Numbers 35:25 [If you are innocent,] the community must protect you from that relative. They must take you back to the city of refuge you fled to. You must live there until the death of the chief priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

Numbers 35:26 “But don’t go outside the city of refuge you fled to.

Numbers 35:27 If the relative who can avenge the death finds you outside the city of refuge and kills you, the relative is not guilty of murder.

Numbers 35:28 Accused murderers must stay in their city of refuge until the death of the chief priest. They may go back to their own property only after his death.

Numbers 35:29 “These will be the rules for future generations wherever you live.

Numbers 35:30 “Whoever kills another person will be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of more than one witness. No one can be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Numbers 35:31 “Never accept a cash payment in exchange for the life of a convicted murderer who has been given the death penalty. Murderers must be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 “An accused murderer who has fled to a city of refuge must never go back and live on his own land before the death of the chief priest. Don’t accept a cash payment to allow him to do this.

Numbers 35:33 “You must not pollute the land where you live. Murder is what pollutes the land. The land where a murder was committed can never make peace with the LORD except through the death of the murderer.

Numbers 35:34 Never make the land where you and I live unclean. I, the LORD, live among the Israelites.”

Numbers 36:1 The heads of the households whose families were descended from Gilead, son of Machir and grandson of Manasseh (families of Joseph’s descendants), came and spoke to Moses and the leaders of the other Israelite households.

Numbers 36:2 They said, “Sir, the LORD commanded you to give the Israelites their land by drawing lots. The LORD also commanded you to give the land of our relative Zelophehad to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 Suppose they marry men from the other tribes of Israel. Their land will be taken away from that of our ancestors and added to the land of the tribe they marry into. Then we will have lost part of our land.

Numbers 36:4 When the Israelites’ jubilee year comes, their land will be added to that of the tribe they married into. Then part of the land of our ancestor’s tribe will be gone.”

Numbers 36:5 So Moses gave the Israelites a command from the LORD. “The tribe of Joseph’s descendants is right.

Numbers 36:6 This is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad's daughters: They may marry anyone they want to, but only within a family of their ancestor's tribe.

Numbers 36:7 In this way no land of the Israelites will pass from one tribe to another. Every Israelite must keep the tribal land inherited from his ancestors.

Numbers 36:8 A woman who inherits land in any of the tribes of Israel may marry a man from any family in her ancestor's tribe. In this way every Israelite keeps the land inherited from his ancestors.

Numbers 36:9 No land may pass from one tribe to another. Each Israelite tribe must keep the land it inherits."

Numbers 36:10 Zelophehad's daughters did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 36:11 Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah married their cousins on their father's side of the family.

Numbers 36:12 They married within the families of the descendants of Manasseh, son of Joseph. So their land stayed in the tribe of their father's family.

Numbers 36:13 These are the commands and rules the LORD gave the Israelites through Moses on the plains of Moab near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 This is the speech Moses gave in the desert east of the Jordan River, on the plains, near Suph, between Paran and Tophel, and near Laban, Hazeroth, and Di Zahab. He spoke to all the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 1:2 (It takes 11 days to go from Mount Horeb to Kadesh Barnea by way of Mount Seir.)

Deuteronomy 1:3 On the first day of the eleventh month in the fortieth year [after they had left Egypt], Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him to tell them.

Deuteronomy 1:4 This was after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who ruled in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.

Deuteronomy 1:5 The Israelites were east of the Jordan River in Moab when Moses began to review God's teachings. This is what he said:

Deuteronomy 1:6 At Mount Horeb the LORD our God said to us, "You have stayed at this mountain long enough.

Deuteronomy 1:7 Break camp, and get ready! Go to the mountain region of the Amorites, and go to everyone living on the plains, in the mountains, in the foothills, in the Negev, on the whole Mediterranean coast (the land of the Canaanites), and into Lebanon as far as the Euphrates River.

Deuteronomy 1:8 I'm giving you this land. Enter, and take possession of the land the LORD swore to give to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to you, their descendants."

Deuteronomy 1:9 At that time I said to you, "I'm not able to take care of you by myself.

Deuteronomy 1:10 The LORD your God has made your population increase so that you are now as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 1:11 May the LORD God of your ancestors make you a thousand times more numerous, and may he bless you as he has promised.

Deuteronomy 1:12 How can I take care of your problems, your troubles, and your disagreements all by myself?

Deuteronomy 1:13 From each of your tribes, choose some men who are wise, intelligent, and experienced, and I'll appoint them to be your leaders."

Deuteronomy 1:14 You agreed that this was a good idea.

Deuteronomy 1:15 So I took the heads of your tribes who were wise and experienced men and made them officers for each of your tribes. I put them in charge of groups of 1,000, or 100, or 50, or 10 people.

Deuteronomy 1:16 Also at that time I gave these instructions to your judges: "Hear the cases that your people bring. Judge each case fairly, no matter whether it is [a dispute] between two Israelites or [a dispute] between an Israelite and a non-Israelite.

Deuteronomy 1:17 Be impartial in your decisions. Listen to the least important people the same way you listen to the most important people. Never be afraid of anyone, since your decisions come from God. You may bring me any case that's too hard for you, and I will hear it."

Deuteronomy 1:18 So I told you how to handle these situations.

Deuteronomy 1:19 So we left Mount Horeb, as the LORD our God had commanded. We traveled through all that vast and dangerous desert you saw on the way to the mountain region of the Amorites. At last we came to Kadesh Barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 Then I said to you, "We have come to the mountain region of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 The LORD your God is giving you this land. Go ahead! Take possession of it, as the LORD God of your ancestors told you. Don't be afraid or terrified."

Deuteronomy 1:22 All of you came to me and said, "Let's send men ahead of us to gather information about the land for us. Have them report to us about the route we should take and the cities we'll come to."

Deuteronomy 1:23 It seemed like a good idea to me. So I chose 12 of your men, one from each tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:24 They left and went into the mountains. When they came to the Eshcol Valley, they explored it.

Deuteronomy 1:25 They took some of the region’s fruit with them and brought it back to us. They reported, “The land that the LORD our God is giving us is good.”

Deuteronomy 1:26 But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God and refused to go.

Deuteronomy 1:27 You complained in your tents and said, “The LORD hates us! That’s why he brought us out of Egypt. He wanted to hand us over to the Amorites so that they could destroy us!

Deuteronomy 1:28 Where are we going anyway? Our own men have discouraged us by saying, ‘The people there are taller and stronger than we are. The cities are big with sky-high walls! We even saw the people of Anak there.’” Deuteronomy 1:29 Then I said to you, “Don’t tremble. Don’t be afraid of them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 The LORD your God, who is going ahead of you, will fight for you as you saw him fight for you in Egypt

Deuteronomy 1:31 and in the desert.” There you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as parents carry their children. He carried you wherever you went until you came to this place.

Deuteronomy 1:32 In spite of this, you didn’t trust the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 1:33 who went ahead of you to find places for you to camp. He appeared in a column of fire at night and in a column of smoke during the day to show you which route to take.

Deuteronomy 1:34 When the LORD heard what you said, he was angry and took this oath:

Deuteronomy 1:35 “Not one of these evil people will ever see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors, Deuteronomy 1:36 except Caleb, son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give the land that he set his feet on to him and his descendants, because he wholeheartedly followed the LORD.”

Deuteronomy 1:37 The LORD became angry with me because of you. He said, “You won’t go there either.

Deuteronomy 1:38 But your assistant Joshua, son of Nun, will go there. Encourage him, because he will help Israel take possession of the land.

Deuteronomy 1:39 Although you thought the little children would be captured in war, your children, who are still too young to know the difference between good and evil, will enter that land. I will give it to them, and they will take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 Turn around, go back into the desert, and follow the road that goes to the Red Sea.”

Deuteronomy 1:41 You responded, “We have sinned against the LORD. We’ll go and fight, as the LORD our God commanded us to do.” Each of you armed yourself for war, thinking you could easily invade the mountain region.

Deuteronomy 1:42 But the LORD said to me, “Tell them, ‘Don’t go and fight, because I won’t be with you. You will be defeated by your enemies.’”

Deuteronomy 1:43 I told you, but you wouldn’t listen. You defied the LORD’s command and invaded the mountain region.

Deuteronomy 1:44 The Amorites who lived there came out and attacked you and chased you like a swarm of bees. They defeated you, chasing you from Seir all the way to Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 When you came back, you cried to the LORD, but the LORD didn’t listen to you or hear you.

Deuteronomy 1:46 That’s why you stayed in Kadesh as long as you did.

Deuteronomy 2:1 We went back into the desert, following the road that goes to the Red Sea as the LORD had told me. For a long time we traveled around the region of Mount Seir.

Deuteronomy 2:2 The LORD said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:3 “You’ve traveled around this region long enough. Now go north.

Deuteronomy 2:4 Give the people these instructions: ‘You’re going to pass through the territory of your relatives, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They’ll be afraid of you, but be very careful.

Deuteronomy 2:5 Don’t start a fight with them, because I’m not giving you any of their land-not even enough to stand on. I’ve given Esau’s descendants the region of Mount Seir as their property.

Deuteronomy 2:6 You must pay them in silver for the food you eat and the water you drink.’”

Deuteronomy 2:7 The LORD your God has blessed you in everything you have done. He has watched over you as you traveled through this vast desert. For 40 years now the LORD your God has been with you, and you haven’t needed a thing.

Deuteronomy 2:8 So we passed by our relatives, the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir. We turned off the road that goes through the plains to Elath and Ezion Geber and took the road that goes through the desert of Moab.

Deuteronomy 2:9 The LORD said to me, “Don’t bother the people of Moab or start a war with them. I’m not giving you any of Ar as your property. I have given it to the descendants of Lot.”

Deuteronomy 2:10 The Emites used to live there. These people were as strong, as numerous, and as tall as the people of Anak.

Deuteronomy 2:11 They were thought to be Rephaim, like the people of Anak, but the Moabites called them Emites.

Deuteronomy 2:12 The Horites used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau claimed their land, wiped them out, and took their place, as Israel did in the land that the LORD gave them.

Deuteronomy 2:13 Then the LORD said, “Now cross the Zered River.” So we crossed the Zered River.

Deuteronomy 2:14 Thirty-eight years passed from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the Zered River. During that time all our soldiers from that generation died, as the LORD had sworn they would.

Deuteronomy 2:15 In fact, it was the LORD himself who got rid of all of them until none were left in the camp.

Deuteronomy 2:16 When the last of these soldiers had died,

Deuteronomy 2:17 the LORD said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:18 “Today you are going to pass by the border of Moab at Ar.

Deuteronomy 2:19 When you come near the Ammonites, don’t bother them or start a fight with them. I’m not giving you any of the land that I have already given to the descendants of Lot as their property.”

Deuteronomy 2:20 This land was thought of as the land of the Rephaim who used to live there, but the Ammonites called them Zamzummim.

Deuteronomy 2:21 These people were as strong, as numerous, and as tall as the people of Anak. But the LORD wiped them out before the Ammonites came so that the Ammonites claimed their land and took their place.

Deuteronomy 2:22 The LORD did the same thing for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir. Before the descendants of Esau came, he wiped out the Horites so that Esau’s descendants claimed their land and took their place. Esau’s descendants are still there today.

Deuteronomy 2:23 The same thing happened to the Avvites who lived in villages as far away as Gaza. The Caphtorites, who came from Crete, wiped them out and took their place.

Deuteronomy 2:24 [The LORD continued,] “Now break camp. Cross the Arnon Valley. I’m going to hand King Sihon of Heshbon, the Amorite, over to you. Fight him, and take possession of his country.

Deuteronomy 2:25 Today I will start to make all the people under heaven terrified of you. When they hear about you, they will tremble and shake because of you.”

Deuteronomy 2:26 From the desert of Kedemoth, I sent messengers to King Sihon of Heshbon with the following offer of peace:

Deuteronomy 2:27 “If you allow us to travel through your country, we’ll go straight through and won’t ever leave the road.

Deuteronomy 2:28 We’ll pay you in silver for the food we eat and the water we drink. Please let us go through,

Deuteronomy 2:29 as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for us. We’ll keep going until we cross the Jordan River into the land the LORD our God is giving us.”

Deuteronomy 2:30 But King Sihon of Heshbon wouldn’t allow us to pass through. The LORD your God made him stubborn and overconfident in order to hand him over to you, as he has now done.

Deuteronomy 2:31 The LORD said to me, “I have begun to give you Sihon and his country. Go ahead! Take possession of his land.”

Deuteronomy 2:32 Sihon and all his troops came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz.

Deuteronomy 2:33 The LORD our God gave Sihon to us, and we defeated him, his sons, and all his troops.

Deuteronomy 2:34 At that time we captured all his cities and claimed them for God by destroying men, women, and children. There were no survivors.

Deuteronomy 2:35 However, we did loot the cities that we captured, taking the cattle and goods.

Deuteronomy 2:36 From Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley and the city in that valley as far as Gilead, no city had walls that could keep us out. The LORD our God gave us all of them.

Deuteronomy 2:37 But the LORD our God had forbidden you to go anywhere near the land of the Ammonites. So you didn’t enter the land along the bank of the Jabbok River or capture the cities in the mountains.

Deuteronomy 3:1 Next we turned and followed the road that goes to Bashan. King Og of Bashan and all his troops came to fight us at Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:2 The LORD said to me, “Don’t be afraid of him. I’ll hand him, all his troops, and his land over to you. Do to him what you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon.”

Deuteronomy 3:3 So the LORD our God also handed King Og of Bashan and all his troops over to us. We defeated him, leaving no survivors.

Deuteronomy 3:4 At that time we captured all of his cities. There wasn't a city we didn't take. We captured a total of 60 cities-the whole territory of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:5 All of these cities were fortified with high walls and double-door gates with bars across the gates. We also captured a large number of unwalled villages.

Deuteronomy 3:6 We claimed them all for God, destroying every city, including men, women, and children-as we did to King Sihon of Heshbon.

Deuteronomy 3:7 However, we did loot the cities, taking all of the cattle and goods.

Deuteronomy 3:8 We took the land of the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River, from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon.

Deuteronomy 3:9 (The Sidonians call Mount Hermon by the name Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.)

Deuteronomy 3:10 We took all of the cities of the plateau, all of Gilead, and all of Bashan as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of Og's kingdom in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:11 (Of the Rephaim only King Og of Bashan was left. His bed was made of iron and was more than 13 feet long and 6 feet wide. It is still in the Ammonite city of Rabbah.)

Deuteronomy 3:12 At that time we took possession of this land. I gave the tribes of Reuben and Gad the land north of Aroer near the Arnon Valley and half of the mountain region of Gilead with its cities.

Deuteronomy 3:13 I gave the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan ruled by Og to half of the tribe of Manasseh. (The whole territory of Argob in Bashan used to be called the land of the Rephaim.

Deuteronomy 3:14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole territory of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites. The settlements in Bashan he named Havvoth Jair after himself. This is still their name today.)

Deuteronomy 3:15 I gave Gilead to Machir.

Deuteronomy 3:16 I gave the tribes of Reuben and Gad some of Gilead from the Arnon Valley (the middle of the valley is the border) to the Jabbok River, which is the border of Ammon.

Deuteronomy 3:17 Their land included the plains around the Jordan River. The western border was the river, from the Sea of Galilee to the Sea of the Plains (the Dead Sea), which is near Mount Pisgah on the east.

Deuteronomy 3:18 I gave the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh this command: "The LORD your God has given you this land so that you can take possession of it. All your soldiers must be ready for battle when they cross [the Jordan River] ahead of the other Israelites.

Deuteronomy 3:19 I know you have a lot of livestock. Your wives, children, and livestock must stay here in the cities that I gave you.

Deuteronomy 3:20 Your soldiers will go with the other Israelites until they take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving them on the other side of the Jordan River. Then they will have a place to rest as you have. After that each of you may go back to the land I gave you.”

Deuteronomy 3:21 I also gaveJoshua this command: “You have seen with your own eyes everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all of the kingdoms on the other side [of the Jordan River] where you’re going.

Deuteronomy 3:22 Don’t be afraid of them, because the LORD your God himself will fight for you.”

Deuteronomy 3:23 Then I pleaded with the LORD:

Deuteronomy 3:24 “Almighty LORD, you have [only] begun to show me how great and powerful you are. What kind of god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the deeds and the mighty acts you have done?

Deuteronomy 3:25 Please let me go over and see the beautiful land on the other side of the Jordan River-those beautiful mountains in Lebanon.”

Deuteronomy 3:26 The LORD was angry with me because of you, so he wouldn’t listen to me. He said, “That’s enough out of you! Don’t talk to me anymore about this.

Deuteronomy 3:27 Go to the top of Mount Pisgah, and look west, north, south, and east. You may look at the land, but you will never cross the Jordan River.

Deuteronomy 3:28 Give instructions to Joshua. Encourage and strengthen him, because he will lead these people across [the Jordan River], and he will help them take possession of the land you see.”

Deuteronomy 3:29 So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy 4:1 Israel, listen to the laws and rules I am about to teach you. Obey them so that you will live and be able to enter and take possession of the land that the LORD God of your ancestors is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 Never add anything to what I command you, or take anything away from it. Then you will be able to obey the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.

Deuteronomy 4:3 With your own eyes you saw what the LORD did at Baal Peor. The LORD your God destroyed everyone among you who worshiped the god Baal while you were at Peor.

Deuteronomy 4:4 But you were loyal to the LORD your God and are still alive today.

Deuteronomy 4:5 I have taught you laws and rules as the LORD my God commanded me. You must obey them when you've entered the land and taken possession of it.

Deuteronomy 4:6 Faithfully obey these laws. This will show the people of the world your wisdom and insight. When they hear about all these laws, they will say, "What wise and insightful people there are in this great nation!"

Deuteronomy 4:7 What great nation ever had their gods as near to them as the LORD our God is near to us whenever we pray to him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 Or what other great nation has such fair laws and rules as all these teachings I am giving you today?

Deuteronomy 4:9 However, be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you don't forget the things which you have seen with your own eyes. Don't let them fade from your memory as long as you live. Teach them to your children and grandchildren.

Deuteronomy 4:10 Never forget the day you stood in front of the LORD your God at Mount Horeb. The LORD had said to me, "Assemble the people in front of me, and I will let them hear my words. Then they will learn to fear me as long as they live on earth, and they will teach their children the same thing."

Deuteronomy 4:11 So you came and stood at the foot of the mountain, which was on fire with flames shooting into the sky. It was dark, cloudy, and gloomy.

Deuteronomy 4:12 The LORD spoke to you from the fire. You heard a voice speaking but saw no one. There was only a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 The LORD told you about the terms of his promise, the ten commandments, which he commanded you to do. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets.

Deuteronomy 4:14 The LORD also commanded me to teach you the laws and rules you must obey after you cross [the Jordan River] and take possession of the land.

Deuteronomy 4:15 You didn't see the LORD the day he spoke to you from the fire at Mount Horeb. So be very careful Deuteronomy 4:16 that you don't become corrupt and make your own carved idols. Don't make statues that represent men or women,

Deuteronomy 4:17 any animal on earth, any creature with wings that flies,

Deuteronomy 4:18 any creature that crawls on the ground, or any fish in the water.

Deuteronomy 4:19 Don't let yourselves be tempted to worship and serve what you see in the sky-the sun, the moon, the stars, or anything else. The LORD your God has given them to all people everywhere.

Deuteronomy 4:20 But you are the people the LORD brought out of Egypt, the iron smelter, in order to make you his own people as you still are today.

Deuteronomy 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you. So the LORD your God took an oath that I wouldn't cross the Jordan River and enter the good land he is giving you as your property.

Deuteronomy 4:22 I'm going to die in this land and not cross the Jordan River, but you're going to go across and take possession of that good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 Be careful that you don't forget the promise that the LORD your God made to you. Don't make your own carved idols or statues that represent anything the LORD your God has forbidden.

Deuteronomy 4:24 The LORD your God is a raging fire, a God who does not tolerate rivals.

Deuteronomy 4:25 Even when you have children and grandchildren and have grown old in that land, don't become corrupt and make carved idols or statues that represent anything. I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today: If you do this thing that the LORD your God considers evil, making him furious,

Deuteronomy 4:26 you will quickly disappear from the land you're going to possess on the other side of the Jordan River. You won't live very long there. You'll be completely wiped out.

Deuteronomy 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the people of the world, and only a few of you will be left among the nations where the LORD will force you to live.

Deuteronomy 4:28 There you will worship wooden and stone gods made by human hands. These gods can't see, hear, eat, or smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 But if you look for the LORD your God when you are among those nations, you will find him whenever you search for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 4:30 When you're in distress and all these things happen to you, then you will finally come back to the LORD your God and obey him.

Deuteronomy 4:31 The LORD your God is a merciful God. He will not abandon you, destroy you, or forget the promise to your ancestors that he swore he would keep.

Deuteronomy 4:32 Search the distant past, long before your time. Start from the very day God created people on earth. Search from one end of heaven to the other. Has anything as great as this ever happened before, or has anything like it ever been heard of?

Deuteronomy 4:33 Have any [other] people ever heard God speak from a fire and lived? You did!

Deuteronomy 4:34 Or has any god ever tried to come and take one nation away from another for himself? The LORD your God used his mighty hand and powerful arm to do this for you in Egypt. He did this using plagues, miraculous signs, amazing things, and war. He did his great and awe-inspiring deeds in front of you.

Deuteronomy 4:35 You were shown these things so that you would know that the LORD is God. There is no other god.

Deuteronomy 4:36 He let you hear his voice from heaven so that he could instruct you. He showed you his great fire on earth, and you heard him speak from the column of fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 Because he loved your ancestors and chose their descendants, he was with you as he brought you out of Egypt by his great power.

Deuteronomy 4:38 He forced nations greater and stronger than you out of your way to bring you into their land and give it to you. This land is your own possession today.

Deuteronomy 4:39 Remember today, and never forget that the LORD is God in heaven above and here on earth. There is no other god.

Deuteronomy 4:40 Obey his laws and commands which I'm giving you today. Then things will go well for you and your descendants. You will live for a long time in the land. The LORD your God is giving you the land for as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities on the east side of the Jordan River.

Deuteronomy 4:42 Those who unintentionally killed someone whom they had never hated could flee to one of these cities and save their lives.

Deuteronomy 4:43 The cities were Bezer on the desert plateau for the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead for the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan for the tribe of Manasseh.

Deuteronomy 4:44 This is what Moses taught the people of Israel.

Deuteronomy 4:45 These are the commandments, laws, and rules Moses gave the Israelites after they had left Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:46 He gave these to the people when they were east of the Jordan River in the valley near Beth Peor, in the land of King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon. Moses and Israel defeated him after they left Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of King Og of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites who were east of the Jordan River.

Deuteronomy 4:48 This land went from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley to Mount Siyon (that is, Mount Hermon).

Deuteronomy 4:49 It included all the plains on the east side of the Jordan River as far as the Dead Sea at the foot of the slopes of Mount Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5:1 Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: Israel, listen to the laws and rules I'm telling you today. Learn them and faithfully obey them.

Deuteronomy 5:2 The LORD our God made a promise to us at Mount Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:3 He didn't make this promise to our ancestors, but to all of us who are alive here today.

Deuteronomy 5:4 The LORD spoke to you face to face from the fire on the mountain.

Deuteronomy 5:5 I stood between the LORD and you to tell you the word of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and didn't go up on the mountain. The LORD said:

Deuteronomy 5:6 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 5:7 "Never have any other gods.

Deuteronomy 5:8 Never make your own carved idols or statues that represent any creature in the sky, on the earth, or in the water.

Deuteronomy 5:9 Never worship them or serve them, because I, the LORD your God, am a God who does not tolerate rivals. I punish children for their parents' sins to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me.

Deuteronomy 5:10 But I show mercy to thousands of generations of those who love me and obey my commandments.

Deuteronomy 5:11 "Never use the name of the LORD your God carelessly. The LORD will make sure that anyone who uses his name carelessly will be punished.

Deuteronomy 5:12 "Observe the day of worship as a holy day. This is what the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 5:13 You have six days to do all your work.

Deuteronomy 5:14 The seventh day is the day of worship dedicated to the LORD your God. You, your sons, your daughters, your male and female slaves, your oxen, your donkeys-all of your animals-even the foreigners living in your city must never do any work [on that day]. In this way your male and female slaves can rest as you do.

Deuteronomy 5:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God used his mighty hand and powerful arm to bring you out of there. This is why the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the day of worship.

Deuteronomy 5:16 “Honor your father and your mother as the LORD your God has commanded you. Then you will live for a long time, and things will go well for you in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 5:17 “Never murder.

Deuteronomy 5:18 “Never commit adultery.

Deuteronomy 5:19 “Never steal.

Deuteronomy 5:20 “Never avoid the truth when you testify about your neighbor.

Deuteronomy 5:21 “Never desire to take your neighbor’s wife away from him. “Never long for your neighbor’s household, his field, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey, or anything else that belongs to him.”

Deuteronomy 5:22 These are the commandments the LORD spoke to your whole assembly on the mountain. He spoke in a loud voice from the fire, the cloud, and the gloomy darkness. Then he stopped speaking. He wrote the commandments on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 5:23 But when you heard the voice coming from the darkness and saw the mountain blazing with fire, all the leaders and heads of your tribes came to me.

Deuteronomy 5:24 You said, “The LORD our God has let us see how great and glorious he is. We’ve heard his voice come from the fire. Today we’ve seen that people can live even if God speaks to them.

Deuteronomy 5:25 Why should we die? This great fire will consume us! If we continue to hear the voice of the LORD our God, we’ll die!

Deuteronomy 5:26 Who has ever heard the voice of the living God speak from a fire, as we did, and lived?

Deuteronomy 5:27 [Moses,] go and listen to everything that the LORD our God says. Then tell us whatever the LORD our God tells you. We’ll listen and obey.”

Deuteronomy 5:28 When the LORD heard the words that you spoke to me, he said, “I have heard what these people said to you. Everything they said was good.

Deuteronomy 5:29 If only they would fear me and obey all my commandments as long as they live! Then things would go well for them and their children forever.

Deuteronomy 5:30 “Tell the people to go back to their tents.

Deuteronomy 5:31 But you stay here with me. I will give you all the commands, laws, and rules that you must teach them to obey in the land which I’m giving them to possess.”

Deuteronomy 5:32 So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you. Never stop living this way.

Deuteronomy 5:33 Follow all the directions the LORD your God has given you. Then you will continue to live, life will go well for you, and you will live for a long time in the land that you are going to possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 These are the commands, laws, and rules the LORD your God commanded me to teach you. Obey them after you enter the land and take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 6:2 As long as you live, you, your children, and your grandchildren must fear the LORD your God. All of you must obey all his laws and commands that I'm giving you, and you will live a long time.

Deuteronomy 6:3 Listen, Israel, and be careful to obey these laws. Then things will go well for you and your population will increase in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD God of your ancestors promised you.

Deuteronomy 6:4 Listen, Israel: The LORD is our God. The LORD is the only God.

Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

Deuteronomy 6:6 Take to heart these words that I give you today.

Deuteronomy 6:7 Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you're at home or away, when you lie down or get up.

Deuteronomy 6:8 [Write them down, and] tie them around your wrist, and wear them as headbands as a reminder.

Deuteronomy 6:9 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 The LORD your God will bring you into the land and give it to you, as he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. This land will have large, prosperous cities that you didn't build.

Deuteronomy 6:11 Your houses will be filled with all kinds of things that you didn't put there. You will have cisterns that you didn't dig and vineyards and olive trees that you didn't plant. After you have eaten all that you want,

Deuteronomy 6:12 be careful that you don't forget the LORD, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 6:13 You must fear the LORD your God, serve him, and take your oaths only in his name.

Deuteronomy 6:14 Never worship any of the gods worshiped by the people around you.

Deuteronomy 6:15 If you do, the LORD your God will become very angry with you and will wipe you off the face of the earth, because the LORD your God, who is with you, is a God who does not tolerate rivals.

Deuteronomy 6:16 Never test the LORD your God as you did at Massah.

Deuteronomy 6:17 Be sure to obey the commands of the LORD your God and the regulations and laws he has given you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 Do what the LORD considers right and good. Then things will go well for you, and you will enter and take possession of that good land which the LORD promised to your ancestors with an oath.

Deuteronomy 6:19 You will see the LORD expel your enemies as he said he would.

Deuteronomy 6:20 In the future your children will ask you, “What do these regulations, laws, and rules which the LORD our God commanded you mean to you?”

Deuteronomy 6:21 Tell them, “We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of there.

Deuteronomy 6:22 Right before our eyes the LORD did miraculous signs and amazing things that were spectacular but terrible for Egypt, Pharaoh, and his whole family.

Deuteronomy 6:23 The LORD led us out of there to bring us here and give us this land he promised to our ancestors with an oath.

Deuteronomy 6:24 The LORD our God commanded us to obey all these laws and to fear him. These laws are for our own good as long as we live so that he will preserve our lives. It’s still true today.

Deuteronomy 6:25 This is how we’ll have the LORD’s approval: If we faithfully obey all these laws in the presence of the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.”

Deuteronomy 7:1 The LORD your God will bring you to the land you’re about to enter and take possession of. He will force many nations out of your way: the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites-seven nations larger and more powerful than you.

Deuteronomy 7:2 When the LORD your God gives them to you and you defeat them, destroy every one of them because they have been claimed by the LORD. Don’t make any treaties with them or show them any mercy.

Deuteronomy 7:3 Never marry any of them. Never let your daughters marry their sons or your sons marry their daughters.

Deuteronomy 7:4 These people will turn your children away from me to worship other gods. Then the LORD will get very angry with you and will quickly destroy you.

Deuteronomy 7:5 But this is what you must do to these people: Tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah, and burn their idols.

Deuteronomy 7:6 You are a holy people, who belong to the LORD your God. He chose you to be his own special possession out of all the nations on earth.

Deuteronomy 7:7 The LORD set his heart on you and chose you, even though you didn't outnumber all the other people. You were the smallest of all nations.

Deuteronomy 7:8 You were chosen because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your ancestors. So he used his mighty hand to bring you out. He freed you from slavery under Pharaoh (the king of Egypt).

Deuteronomy 7:9 Keep in mind that the LORD your God is [the only] God. He is a faithful God, who keeps his promise and is merciful to thousands of generations of those who love him and obey his commands.

Deuteronomy 7:10 But he sends destruction to pay back everyone who hates him. He never takes long to pay back anyone who hates him.

Deuteronomy 7:11 So obey the commands, laws, and rules I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 7:12 If you listen to these rules and faithfully obey them, the LORD your God will keep his promise to you and be merciful to you, as he swore to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 7:13 He will love you, bless you, and increase the number of your descendants. He will bless you with children. He will bless your land with produce: grain, new wine, and olive oil. He will bless your herds with calves, and your flocks with lambs and kids. This will all happen in the land the LORD will give you, as he swore to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 7:14 You will be blessed more than any other people. Your men and women will be able to have children, and your animals will be able to have offspring.

Deuteronomy 7:15 The LORD will keep you from having any kind of illness. He will not strike you with any of the terrible diseases you experienced in Egypt. Instead, he will strike all those who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 You must destroy all the people the LORD your God hands over to you. Have no pity on them, and never worship their gods, because they will be a trap for you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 You may say to yourselves, "These nations outnumber us. How can we force them out?"

Deuteronomy 7:18 Don't be afraid of them. Remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:19 You saw with your own eyes the terrible plagues, the miraculous signs, and the amazing things the LORD did. He used his mighty hand and powerful arm to bring you out. He will do the same thing to all the people you're afraid of.

Deuteronomy 7:20 The LORD your God will spread panic among them until they all die. There will be no one left-not even those who were hiding from you.

Deuteronomy 7:21 Don’t be afraid of them, because the LORD your God is with you. He is a great and awe-inspiring God.

Deuteronomy 7:22 Little by little he will force these nations out of your way. You won’t be able to wipe them out quickly. Otherwise, you would be overrun with wild animals.

Deuteronomy 7:23 The LORD your God will hand these people over to you and will throw them into a great panic until they’re destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 He will hand their kings over to you, and no one on earth will even remember their names. No one will be able to stop you. You will destroy them all.

Deuteronomy 7:25 Burn their idols. Don’t ever long for the silver and gold on these idols or take any of it for yourselves. It might be a trap for you. Besides, these idols are disgusting to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 Never bring a disgusting idol into your house. If you do, you and the idol will be destroyed. Consider it detestable and disgusting. It must be destroyed.”

Deuteronomy 8:1 Be careful to obey every command I give you today. Then you will live, and your population will increase. You will enter and take possession of the land that the LORD promised to your ancestors with an oath.

Deuteronomy 8:2 Remember that for 40 years the LORD your God led you on your journey in the desert. He did this in order to humble you and test you. He wanted to know whether or not you would wholeheartedly obey his commands.

Deuteronomy 8:3 So he made you suffer from hunger and then fed you with manna, which neither you nor your ancestors had seen before. He did this to teach you that a person cannot live on bread alone but on every word that the LORD speaks.

Deuteronomy 8:4 Your clothes didn’t wear out, and your feet didn’t swell these past 40 years.

Deuteronomy 8:5 Learn this lesson by heart: The LORD your God was disciplining you as parents discipline their children.

Deuteronomy 8:6 Obey the commands of the LORD your God. Follow his directions, and fear him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 The LORD your God is bringing you into a good land. It is a land with rivers that don’t dry up. There are springs and underground streams flowing through the valleys and hills.

Deuteronomy 8:8 The land has wheat and barley, grapevines, fig trees, and pomegranates. The land has honey and olive trees for olive oil.

Deuteronomy 8:9 The land will have enough food for you, and you will have everything you need. The land has rocks with iron ore, and you will be able to mine copper ore in the hills.

Deuteronomy 8:10 When you have eaten all you want, thank the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 Be careful that you don't forget the LORD your God. Don't fail to obey his commands, rules, and laws that I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 8:12 You will eat all you want. You will build nice houses and live in them.

Deuteronomy 8:13 Your herds and flocks, silver and gold, and everything else you have will increase.

Deuteronomy 8:14 When this happens, be careful that you don't become arrogant and forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 8:15 He was the one who led you through that vast and dangerous desert-a thirsty and arid land, with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He was the one who made water come out of solid rock for you.

Deuteronomy 8:16 He was the one who fed you in the desert with manna, which your ancestors had never seen. He did this in order to humble you and test you. But he also did this so that things would go well for you in the end.

Deuteronomy 8:17 You may say to yourselves, "I became wealthy because of my own ability and strength."

Deuteronomy 8:18 But remember the LORD your God is the one who makes you wealthy. He's confirming the promise which he swore to your ancestors. It's still in effect today.

Deuteronomy 8:19 I warn you today that if you forget the LORD your God and follow other gods, and if you serve them and bow down to them, you will certainly be destroyed.

Deuteronomy 8:20 The LORD is going to destroy other nations as you enter the land. You will be destroyed like them if you don't obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9:1 Listen, Israel, you're about to cross the Jordan River. You'll be forcing out nations that are larger and stronger than you, with big cities that have sky-high walls.

Deuteronomy 9:2 Their people are tall and strong. They're descendants of Anak. You know all about them. You've also heard it said, "Who can oppose the descendants of Anak?"

Deuteronomy 9:3 Realize today that the LORD your God is the one who is going ahead of you like a raging fire. He will wipe them out and will use you to crush their power. You will take possession of their land and will quickly destroy them as the LORD promised you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 When the LORD your God expels these people in front of you, don’t say to yourselves, “Because we’ve been living right, the LORD brought us here to take possession of this land.” No, it’s because these nations are so wicked that the LORD is forcing them out of your way.

Deuteronomy 9:5 It’s not because you’ve been living right or because you’re so honest that you’re entering to take possession of their land. It’s because these people are so wicked that the LORD your God is forcing them out of your way. It’s also because the LORD wants to confirm the promise he swore to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 9:6 So understand this: It’s not because you’ve been living right that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess. You are impossible to deal with!

Deuteronomy 9:7 Never forget how you made the LORD your God angry in the desert. You’ve rebelled against the LORD from the day you left Egypt until you came here.

Deuteronomy 9:8 Even at Mount Horeb you made the LORD so angry that he wanted to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:9 When I went up on the mountain to get the stone tablets, the tablets of the promise that the LORD made to you, I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights without food or water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 Then the LORD gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by God himself. On them were written all the words that the LORD spoke to you from the fire on the mountain on the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 At the end of the 40 days and 40 nights, the LORD gave me the two stone tablets with his promise on them.

Deuteronomy 9:12 He told me, “Leave right away. Your people whom you brought out of Egypt have ruined [everything]. They’ve quickly turned from the way I commanded them to live. They’ve made an idol for themselves.”

Deuteronomy 9:13 The LORD also said to me, “I’ve seen these people, and they are impossible to deal with.

Deuteronomy 9:14 Leave me alone! I’ll destroy them and wipe their name off the earth. Then I’ll make you into a nation larger and stronger than they are.”

Deuteronomy 9:15 So I turned and went down the mountain while it was still burning with fire. I was carrying the two tablets with the promise on them.

Deuteronomy 9:16 Then I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God. You had made a statue of a calf for yourselves. You had quickly turned from the way the LORD commanded you to live.

Deuteronomy 9:17 I took the two tablets, threw them down, and smashed them in front of you.

Deuteronomy 9:18 Once again I threw myself down in front of the LORD. I went without food and water for 40 days and 40 nights because of the sin you committed. You did what the LORD considered evil and made him furious.

Deuteronomy 9:19 I was terrified of the LORD's anger and fury. He was so angry he wanted to destroy you. But once more the LORD listened to me.

Deuteronomy 9:20 The LORD also became very angry with Aaron and wanted to destroy him. But at that time I prayed for Aaron, too.

Deuteronomy 9:21 I took that sinful calf you made and burned it. I crushed it, grinding it thoroughly until it was as fine as powder. Then I threw the powder into the river that flowed down the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth Hattaavah.

Deuteronomy 9:23 When the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, he said, "Go and take possession of the land I'm giving you." But you rebelled against the word of the LORD your God. You didn't believe him or obey him.

Deuteronomy 9:24 You've rebelled against the LORD as long as I've known you.

Deuteronomy 9:25 I threw myself down in front of the LORD for 40 days and 40 nights because the LORD said he would destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:26 I prayed to the LORD and said, "Almighty LORD, don't destroy your people. They belong to you. You saved them by your great power and used your mighty hand to bring them out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 9:27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Disregard the stubbornness, wickedness, and sin of these people.

Deuteronomy 9:28 Otherwise, the country we left will say, "The LORD wasn't able to bring them to the land he promised them. He hated them. That's why he brought them out-to let them die in the desert."

Deuteronomy 9:29 They are your people. They belong to you. You used your great strength and powerful arm to bring them out [of Egypt].

Deuteronomy 10:1 At that time the LORD said to me, "Cut two [more] stone tablets like the first ones, and come up to me on the mountain. Also make an ark out of wood.

Deuteronomy 10:2 I will write on the tablets the same words that were on the first tablets, which you smashed. Then you will put them in the ark."

Deuteronomy 10:3 I made an ark out of acacia wood. I cut two [more] stone tablets like the first ones. I carried the two tablets up the mountain.

Deuteronomy 10:4 The LORD wrote on these tablets the same words as before, the ten commandments. He had spoken these words to you from the fire on the mountain on the day of the assembly. Then the LORD gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 I came back down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made. They are still there, where the LORD commanded me to put them.

Deuteronomy 10:6 The Israelites moved from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. Aaron died there and was buried, and his son Eleazar succeeded him as priest.

Deuteronomy 10:7 They moved from there to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with rivers that don't dry up.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the LORD's promise, to stand in the LORD's presence when they serve him as priests, and to praise his name, as they still do today.

Deuteronomy 10:9 This is why the tribe of Levi has no land of their own as the other tribes have. The LORD your God is their only possession, as he promised them.

Deuteronomy 10:10 I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights as I did the first time. Once again the LORD listened to me and agreed not to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 The LORD said to me, "Lead the people on their journey. They will enter and take possession of the land I will give them, as I swore to their ancestors."

Deuteronomy 10:12 Israel, what does the LORD your God want you to do? He wants you to fear him, follow all his directions, love him, and worship him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 10:13 The LORD wants you to obey his commands and laws that I'm giving you today for your own good.

Deuteronomy 10:14 Remember that the sky, the highest heaven, the earth and everything it contains belong to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 10:15 The LORD set his heart on your ancestors and loved them. Because of this, today he chooses you, their descendants, out of all the people of the world.

Deuteronomy 10:16 So circumcise your uncircumcised hearts, and don't be impossible to deal with any longer.

Deuteronomy 10:17 The LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, powerful, and awe-inspiring God. He never plays favorites and never takes a bribe.

Deuteronomy 10:18 He makes sure orphans and widows receive justice. He loves foreigners and gives them food and clothes.

Deuteronomy 10:19 So you should love foreigners, because you were foreigners living in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 Fear the LORD your God, worship him, be loyal to him, and take your oaths in his name.

Deuteronomy 10:21 He is your glory. He is your God, who did for you these spectacular and awe-inspiring deeds you saw with your own eyes.

Deuteronomy 10:22 When your ancestors went to Egypt, there were 70 of them. Now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 11:1 Love the LORD your God, and do what he wants you to do. Always obey his laws, rules, and commands.

Deuteronomy 11:2 Remember today the discipline you learned from the LORD your God. ([I'm not talking] to your children. They didn't see or experience any of this.) You saw and experienced his great power-his mighty hand and powerful arm.

Deuteronomy 11:3 You saw the miraculous signs and deeds he did in Egypt to Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) and to his whole country.

Deuteronomy 11:4 You saw what he did to the Egyptian army, its horses and chariots. He drowned them in the Red Sea when they pursued you. So the LORD destroyed them forever.

Deuteronomy 11:5 You saw what he did for you in the desert until you came here.

Deuteronomy 11:6 You also saw what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, from the tribe of Reuben. In the middle of all the Israelites the ground opened up and swallowed them, their families, their tents, and every living creature with them.

Deuteronomy 11:7 You saw with your own eyes all these spectacular things that the LORD did.

Deuteronomy 11:8 Obey all the commands I'm giving you today. Then you will have the strength to enter and take possession of the land once you've crossed [the Jordan River].

Deuteronomy 11:9 Then you will also live for a long time in the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors and their descendants-a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 11:10 The land you're about to enter and take possession of isn't like the land you left in Egypt. There you used to plant your seed, and you had to water it like a vegetable garden.

Deuteronomy 11:11 The land you're about to enter is a land with hills and valleys, watered by rain from the sky.

Deuteronomy 11:12 It is a land the LORD your God cares about. He watches over it all year long.

Deuteronomy 11:13 If you faithfully obey the commands that I'm giving you today, love the LORD your God, and serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deuteronomy 11:14 I will send rain on your land at the right time, both in the fall and in the spring. Then you will gather your own grain, new wine, and olive oil.

Deuteronomy 11:15 I will provide grass in the fields for your animals, and you will be able to eat all you want.

Deuteronomy 11:16 Be careful, or you'll be tempted to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.

Deuteronomy 11:17 The LORD will become angry with you. He'll shut the sky so that there'll be no rain. Then the ground won't grow any crops, and you'll quickly disappear from this good land the LORD is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 Take these words of mine to heart and keep them in mind. [Write them down,] tie them around your wrist, and wear them as headbands as a reminder.

Deuteronomy 11:19 Teach them to your children, and talk about them when you're at home or away, when you lie down or get up.

Deuteronomy 11:20 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 11:21 Then you and your children will live for a long time in this land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors-as long as there's a sky above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 Faithfully obey all these commands I'm giving you. Love the LORD your God, follow all his directions, and be loyal to him.

Deuteronomy 11:23 Then the LORD will force all these people out of your way. Then you will take possession of [the land belonging to] people taller and stronger than you.

Deuteronomy 11:24 I will give you every place on which you set foot. Your borders will be from the desert to Lebanon, from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea.

Deuteronomy 11:25 No one will be able to stop you. As the LORD your God promised, he will make people terrified of you wherever you go in this land.

Deuteronomy 11:26 Today I'm giving you the choice of a blessing or a curse.

Deuteronomy 11:27 You'll be blessed if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 11:28 You'll be cursed if you disobey the commands of the LORD your God, if you turn from the way I'm commanding you to live today, and if you worship other gods you never knew.

Deuteronomy 11:29 When the LORD your God brings you into the land you're about to enter, recite the blessing from Mount Gerizim and the curse from Mount Ebal.

Deuteronomy 11:30 (These mountains are on the west side of the Jordan, beyond the road that goes west, in the region of the Canaanites who live on the plains facing Gilgal, next to the oak trees of Moreh.)

Deuteronomy 11:31 You're about to cross the Jordan River to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you take possession of it and live there, Deuteronomy 11:32 be careful to obey all the laws and rules I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 Here are the laws and rules you must faithfully obey in the land that the LORD God of your ancestors is giving you as your own. You must obey them as long as you live in the land.

Deuteronomy 12:2 Completely destroy all the worship sites on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every large tree. The people you're forcing out worship their gods in these places.

Deuteronomy 12:3 Tear down their altars, crush their sacred stones, burn their poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah, cut down their idols, and wipe out the names of their gods from those places.

Deuteronomy 12:4 Never worship the LORD your God in the way they worship their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:5 The LORD your God will choose a place out of all your tribes to live and put his name. Go there and worship him.

Deuteronomy 12:6 Bring him your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one-tenth of your income, your contributions, the offerings you vow to bring, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats.

Deuteronomy 12:7 There, in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your families will eat and enjoy everything you've worked for, because the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 Never worship in the way that it’s being done here today, where everyone does whatever he considers right.

Deuteronomy 12:9 Up until now you haven’t come to your place of rest, the property the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 But you will cross the Jordan River and settle in the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own property. He will give you peace from all your enemies around you so that you will live securely.

Deuteronomy 12:11 Then the LORD your God will choose a place where his name will live. You must bring everything I command you to that place. Bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one-tenth of your income, your contributions, and all the best offerings you vow to bring to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:12 Enjoy yourselves in the presence of the LORD your God along with your sons, daughters, male and female slaves, and the Levites. (The Levites live in your cities because they have no land of their own as you have.)

Deuteronomy 12:13 Be careful that you don’t sacrifice your burnt offerings wherever you want.

Deuteronomy 12:14 Instead, sacrifice them [only] at the place that the LORD will choose in one of your tribes. There you must do everything I command you.

Deuteronomy 12:15 In whatever city you live, you may slaughter and eat as much meat as you want from what the LORD your God has blessed you with. Clean and unclean people may eat it as if they were eating a gazelle or a deer.

Deuteronomy 12:16 But never eat the blood. Pour it on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 You may not eat [the LORD’s offerings] in your cities. Those offerings are: one-tenth of your grain, new wine, and olive oil; the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, or goats; the offerings you vow to bring; your freewill offerings; and your contributions.

Deuteronomy 12:18 Instead, you, your sons and daughters, male and female slaves, and the Levites who live in your cities must eat these in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose. There in the presence of the LORD your God enjoy everything you’ve worked for.

Deuteronomy 12:19 Don’t forget to take care of the Levites as long as you live in your land.

Deuteronomy 12:20 The LORD your God will expand your [country’s] borders as he promised. You will say, “I’m hungry for meat.” Then eat as much meat as you want.

Deuteronomy 12:21 If the place the LORD your God chooses to put his name is too far away from you, you may slaughter an animal from the herds or flocks that the LORD has given you. Eat as much as you want in your city. I have commanded you to do this.

Deuteronomy 12:22 Eat it as you would eat a gazelle or a deer: Clean and unclean people may eat it together.

Deuteronomy 12:23 However, be sure you never eat blood, because blood contains life. Never eat the life with the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:24 Never eat blood. Pour it on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 If you don't eat blood, things will go well for you and your descendants. You will be doing what the LORD considers right.

Deuteronomy 12:26 Take the holy things and the offerings you have vowed to bring, and go to the place the LORD will choose.

Deuteronomy 12:27 Sacrifice the meat and the blood of your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God. The blood of your sacrifices is to be poured out beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:28 Be sure you obey all these instructions I'm giving you. Then things will always go well for you and your descendants because you will be doing what the LORD your God considers good and right.

Deuteronomy 12:29 The LORD your God will destroy the nations where you're going and force them out of your way. You will take possession of their land and live there.

Deuteronomy 12:30 After they've been destroyed, be careful you aren't tempted to follow their customs. Don't even ask about their gods and say, "How did these people worship their gods? We want to do what they did."

Deuteronomy 12:31 Never worship the LORD your God in the way they worship their gods, because everything they do for their gods is disgusting to the LORD. He hates it! They even burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices to their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:32 Be sure to do everything I command you. Never add anything to it or take anything away from it.

Deuteronomy 13:1 One of your people, claiming to be a prophet or to have prophetic dreams, may predict a miraculous sign or an amazing thing.

Deuteronomy 13:2 What he predicts may even take place. But don't listen to that prophet or dreamer if he says, "Let's worship and serve other gods." (Those gods may be gods you've never heard of.)

Deuteronomy 13:3 The LORD your God is testing you to find out if you really love him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 13:4 Worship the LORD your God, fear him, obey his commands, listen to what he says, serve him, and be loyal to him.

Deuteronomy 13:5 That prophet or dreamer must be put to death because he preached rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt and freed you from slavery. He was trying to lead you away from following the directions the LORD your God gave you. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 13:6 Your own brother, son, or daughter, the wife you love, or your best friend may secretly tempt you, saying, “Let’s go worship other gods.” (Those gods may be gods that you and your ancestors never knew.

Deuteronomy 13:7 They may be the gods of the people around you, who live near or far, from one end of the land to the other.)

Deuteronomy 13:8 Don’t be influenced by any of these people or listen to them. Have no pity on them. Don’t feel sorry for them or protect them.

Deuteronomy 13:9 You must put them to death. You must start the execution. Then all the other people will join you in putting them to death.

Deuteronomy 13:10 Stone them to death because they were trying to lead you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 13:11 All Israel will hear about it and be afraid. Then no one among you will ever do such a wicked thing again.

Deuteronomy 13:12 You may hear that the residents in one of the cities which the LORD your God is giving you to live in Deuteronomy 13:13 have been led away from the LORD your God by worthless people. You may hear that these people have been saying, “Let’s worship other gods.” (Those gods may be gods you’ve never heard of.)

Deuteronomy 13:14 Then make a thorough investigation. If it is true, and you can prove that this disgusting thing has been done among you,

Deuteronomy 13:15 you must kill the residents of that city with swords and destroy that city and everyone in it, including the animals, because they are claimed by God.

Deuteronomy 13:16 Gather their goods into the middle of the city square. Then burn their city and all their goods as a burnt offering to the LORD your God. It must remain a mound of ruins and never be rebuilt.

Deuteronomy 13:17 Don’t ever take any of the things claimed for destruction. Then the LORD will stop being angry and will show you mercy. In his mercy he will make your population increase, as he swore to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 13:18 The LORD your God will do this if you listen to him, obey all the commands that I’m giving you today, and do what he considers right.

Deuteronomy 14:1 You are the children of the LORD your God. So when someone dies, don’t [mourn] by cutting yourselves or shaving bald spots on your head.

Deuteronomy 14:2 You are people who are holy to the LORD your God. Out of all the people who live on earth, the LORD has chosen you to be his own special possession.

Deuteronomy 14:3 Never eat anything that is disgusting to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 14:4 Here are the [kinds of] animals you may eat: oxen, sheep, goats,

Deuteronomy 14:5 deer, gazelles, fallow deer, wild goats, mountain goats, antelope, and mountain sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 You may eat all animals that have completely divided hoofs and that also chew their cud.

Deuteronomy 14:7 But some animals chew their cud, while others have completely divided hoofs. You may not eat these [kinds of] animals. They include camels, rabbits, and rock badgers. (Although they chew their cud, they don’t have divided hoofs. They are unclean for you.)

Deuteronomy 14:8 Also, you may not eat pigs. (Although their hoofs are divided, they don’t chew their cud.) Never eat their meat or touch their dead bodies.

Deuteronomy 14:9 Here’s what you may eat of every creature that lives in the water: You may eat any creature that has fins and scales.

Deuteronomy 14:10 But never eat anything that doesn’t have fins and scales. It is unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:11 You may eat any clean bird.

Deuteronomy 14:12 But here are the birds that you should never eat: eagles, bearded vultures, black vultures,

Deuteronomy 14:13 buzzards, all types of kites,

Deuteronomy 14:14 all types of crows,

Deuteronomy 14:15 ostriches, nighthawks, seagulls, all types of falcons,

Deuteronomy 14:16 little owls, great owls, barn owls,

Deuteronomy 14:17 pelicans, ospreys, cormorants,

Deuteronomy 14:18 storks, all types of herons, hoopoes, and bats.

Deuteronomy 14:19 Every swarming, winged insect is also unclean for you. They must never be eaten.

Deuteronomy 14:20 However, you may eat any [other kind of] flying creature that is clean.

Deuteronomy 14:21 Never eat any creature that dies naturally. You may give it to the foreigners who live in your cities, and they may eat it. You may also sell it to foreigners who are visiting. But you are people who are holy to the LORD your God. Never cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 Every year be sure to save a tenth of the crops harvested from whatever you plant in your fields.

Deuteronomy 14:23 Eat the tenth of your grain, new wine, and olive oil, and eat the firstborn of your cattle, sheep, and goats in the presence of the LORD your God in the place he will choose to put his name. Then you will learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 14:24 But the place the LORD your God will choose to put his name may be too far away. He may bless you with so much that you can't carry a tenth of your income that far.

Deuteronomy 14:25 If so, exchange the tenth part of your income for silver. Take the silver with you, and go to the place the LORD your God will choose.

Deuteronomy 14:26 Use the silver to buy whatever you want: cattle, sheep, goats, wine, liquor-whatever you choose. Then you and your family will eat and enjoy yourselves there in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14:27 Never forget to take care of the Levites who live in your cities. They have no land of their own as you have.

Deuteronomy 14:28 At the end of every third year bring a tenth of that year's crop, and store it in your cities.

Deuteronomy 14:29 Foreigners, orphans, and widows who live in your cities may come to eat all they want. The Levites may also come because they have no land of their own as you have. Then the LORD your God will bless you in whatever work you do.

Deuteronomy 15:1 At the end of every seven years, you must cancel debts.

Deuteronomy 15:2 This is what you will do: If you've made a loan, don't collect payment on the debt your neighbor still owes you. Don't demand that your neighbor or relative pay you, because the [time] for suspending payments on debts has been proclaimed in the LORD's honor.

Deuteronomy 15:3 You may demand that a foreigner pay, but don't collect payment on the debt another Israelite still owes you.

Deuteronomy 15:4 In any case, there shouldn't be any poor people among you, because the LORD your God will certainly bless you in the land he is giving you as your own possession.

Deuteronomy 15:5 He will bless you only if you listen carefully to the LORD your God and faithfully obey all these commands I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 The LORD your God will bless you, as he promised. You will make loans to many nations, but you will not have to borrow from any of them. You will rule many nations, but no nation will ever rule you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 This is what you must do whenever there are poor Israelites in one of your cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 15:8 Be generous to these poor people, and freely lend them as much as they need. Never be hard-hearted and tight-fisted with them.

Deuteronomy 15:9 When the seventh year-the year when payments on debts are canceled-is near, you might be stingy toward poor Israelites and give them nothing. Be careful not to think these worthless thoughts. The poor will complain to the LORD about you, and you will be condemned for your sin.

Deuteronomy 15:10 Be sure to give to them without any hesitation. When you do this, the LORD your God will bless you in everything you work for and set out to do.

Deuteronomy 15:11 There will always be poor people in the land. That's why I command you to be generous to other Israelites who are poor and needy.

Deuteronomy 15:12 Whenever Hebrew men or women are sold to you as slaves, they will be your slaves for six years. In the seventh year you must let them go free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 But when you let them go, don't send them away empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 15:14 Generously give them provisions-sheep from your flocks, grain from your threshing floor, and wine from your winepress. Be as generous to them as the LORD your God has been to you.

Deuteronomy 15:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God freed you. That's why I'm giving you this command today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 But suppose a male slave says to you, "I don't want to leave you," because he loves you and your family and is happy with you.

Deuteronomy 15:17 Then take an awl and pierce it through his ear lobe into a door, and he will be your slave for life. Do the same to a female slave [if she doesn't want to leave].

Deuteronomy 15:18 If you have to let your slave go free, it won't be a hardship for you. It would have cost you twice as much to hire someone to do the same work for those six years. Besides, the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 You must dedicate every firstborn male from your herds and flocks to the LORD your God. Never use a firstborn ox for work, and never shear a firstborn sheep.

Deuteronomy 15:20 Every year you and your family must eat these animals in the presence of the LORD your God in the place the LORD will choose.

Deuteronomy 15:21 But if an animal is lame or blind or has any other serious defect-never sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 15:22 Eat it in your city. Clean and unclean people may eat them together as if they were eating a gazelle or a deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 But never eat the blood. Pour it on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 Honor the LORD your God by celebrating Passover in the month of Abib. In the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt at night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 Slaughter an animal from your flock or herd as the Passover sacrifice to the LORD your God. Do this at the place where the LORD will choose for his name to live.

Deuteronomy 16:3 Never eat leavened bread with the meat from this sacrifice. Instead, for seven days you must eat unleavened bread at this festival. (It is the bread of misery because you left Egypt in a hurry.) Eat this bread so that, as long as you live, you will remember the day you left Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:4 There should be no yeast anywhere in your land for seven days. Never leave until morning any of the meat you slaughter on the evening of the first day.

Deuteronomy 16:5 You're not allowed to slaughter the animals for Passover in any of the cities the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:6 Instead, slaughter your animals for Passover in the place where the LORD your God will choose for his name to live. Do this in the evening as the sun goes down. This is the same time you did it when you left Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 Cook the meat, and eat it at the place the LORD your God will choose. In the morning you may go back to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 For six days eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day hold a religious assembly dedicated to the LORD your God. Don't do any work that day.

Deuteronomy 16:9 Count seven weeks from the time you start harvesting grain.

Deuteronomy 16:10 Then celebrate the Festival of Weeks to the LORD your God. Bring a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:11 Enjoy yourselves in the presence of the LORD your God along with your sons, daughters, male and female slaves, the Levites who live in your cities, the foreigners, orphans, and widows who live among you. Enjoy yourselves at the place the LORD your God will choose for his name to live.

Deuteronomy 16:12 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and obey these laws carefully.

Deuteronomy 16:13 After you have gathered the grain from your threshing floor and made your wine, celebrate the Festival of Booths for seven days.

Deuteronomy 16:14 Enjoy yourselves at the festival along with your sons, daughters, male and female slaves, the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows who live in your cities.

Deuteronomy 16:15 For seven days you will celebrate this festival dedicated to the LORD your God in the place he will choose. You will enjoy yourselves, because the LORD your God will bless all your harvest and all your work.

Deuteronomy 16:16 Three times a year all your men must come into the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths. But no one may come into the presence of the LORD without an offering.

Deuteronomy 16:17 Each man must bring a gift in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given him.

Deuteronomy 16:18 Appoint judges and officers for your tribes in every city that the LORD your God is giving you. They are to judge the people fairly.

Deuteronomy 16:19 Never pervert justice. Instead, be impartial. Never take a bribe, because bribes blind wise people and deny justice to those who are in the right.

Deuteronomy 16:20 Strive for nothing but justice so that you will live and take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 When you build the altar for the LORD your God, never plant beside it any tree dedicated to the goddess Asherah.

Deuteronomy 16:22 Never set up a sacred stone. These are things the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17:1 Never offer an ox or a sheep that has a defect or anything seriously wrong with it as a sacrifice to the LORD your God. That would be disgusting to him.

Deuteronomy 17:2 In one of the cities the LORD your God is giving you, there may be a man or woman among you who is doing what the LORD considers evil. This person may be disregarding the conditions of the LORD's promise

Deuteronomy 17:3 by worshiping and bowing down to other gods, the sun, the moon, or the whole army of heaven. I have forbidden this.

Deuteronomy 17:4 When you are told about it, investigate it thoroughly. If it's true and it can be proven that this disgusting thing has been done in Israel,

Deuteronomy 17:5 then bring the man or woman who did this evil thing to the gates of your city, and stone that person to death.

Deuteronomy 17:6 The person can only be sentenced to death on the testimony of two or three witnesses, but no one should ever be sentenced to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 The witnesses must start the execution, then all the other people will join them in putting the person to death. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 17:8 There may be a case that is too hard for you to decide. It may involve murder, assault, or a dispute-any case which may be brought to court in your cities. Take this case to the place that the LORD your God will choose.

Deuteronomy 17:9 Go to the Levitical priests and the judge who is serving at that time. Ask for their opinion, and they will give you their verdict

Deuteronomy 17:10 at the place that the LORD will choose. Do what they tell you. Follow all their instructions carefully, Deuteronomy 17:11 and do what they tell you to do in their verdict. Do exactly what they tell you to do in their decision.

Deuteronomy 17:12 If anyone deliberately disobeys the priest (who serves the LORD your God) or the judge, that person must die. You must get rid of this evil in Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:13 When all the people hear about it, they will be afraid and will never defy [God's law] again.

Deuteronomy 17:14 You will enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you. You will take possession of it and live there. You will say, "Let's have our own king like all the other nations around us."

Deuteronomy 17:15 Be sure to appoint the king the LORD your God will choose. He must be one of your own people. Never let a foreigner be king, because he's not one of your own people.

Deuteronomy 17:16 The king must never own a large number of horses or make the people return to Egypt to get more horses. The LORD has told you, "You will never go back there again."

Deuteronomy 17:17 The king must never have a large number of wives, or he will turn away [from God]. And he must never own a lot of gold and silver.

Deuteronomy 17:18 When he becomes king, he should have the Levitical priests make him a copy of these teachings on a scroll.

Deuteronomy 17:19 He must keep it with him and read it his entire life. He will learn to fear the LORD his God and faithfully obey everything found in these teachings and laws.

Deuteronomy 17:20 Then he won't think he's better than the rest of his people, and he won't disobey these commands in any way. So he and his sons will rule for a long time in Israel.

Deuteronomy 18:1 The Levitical priests-in fact, the whole tribe of Levi-will receive no land or property of their own like the rest of the Israelites. They will eat what has been sacrificed to the LORD. These sacrifices will be what they receive.

Deuteronomy 18:2 So the Levites will have no land of their own like the other Israelites. The LORD will be their inheritance, as he promised them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 This is what the people owe the priests whenever they sacrifice an ox, a sheep, or a goat: the shoulder, jaws, and stomach.

Deuteronomy 18:4 Also, give them the first produce harvested: grain, new wine, olive oil, and the first wool you shear from your sheep.

Deuteronomy 18:5 Out of all your tribes, the LORD your God has chosen the Levites and their descendants to do the work of serving in the name of the LORD forever.

Deuteronomy 18:6 A Levite from any of your cities in Israel may come from where he has been living to the place the LORD will choose. He may come as often as he wants Deuteronomy 18:7 and may serve in the name of the LORD his God like all the other Levites who do their work in the LORD's presence.

Deuteronomy 18:8 If he does, he'll get the same amount of food as they do, in addition to what he gets from selling his family's goods.

Deuteronomy 18:9 When you come to the land that the LORD your God is giving you, never learn the disgusting practices of those nations.

Deuteronomy 18:10 You must never sacrifice your sons or daughters by burning them alive, practice black magic, be a fortuneteller, witch, or sorcerer,

Deuteronomy 18:11 cast spells, ask ghosts or spirits for help, or consult the dead.

Deuteronomy 18:12 Whoever does these things is disgusting to the LORD. The LORD your God is forcing these nations out of your way because of their disgusting practices.

Deuteronomy 18:13 You must have integrity [in dealing] with the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 These nations you are forcing out listen to fortunetellers and to those who practice black magic. But the LORD your God won’t let you do anything like that.

Deuteronomy 18:15 The LORD your God will send you a prophet, an Israelite like me. You must listen to him.

Deuteronomy 18:16 This is what you asked the LORD your God to give you on the day of the assembly at Mount Horeb. You said, “We never want to hear the voice of the LORD our God or see this raging fire again. If we do, we’ll die!”

Deuteronomy 18:17 The LORD told me, “What they’ve said is good.

Deuteronomy 18:18 So I will send them a prophet, an Israelite like you. I will put my words in his mouth. He will tell them everything I command him.

Deuteronomy 18:19 Whoever refuses to listen to the words that prophet speaks in my name will answer to me.

Deuteronomy 18:20 But any prophet who dares to say something in my name that I didn’t command him to say or who speaks in the name of other gods must die.”

Deuteronomy 18:21 You may be wondering, “How can we recognize that the LORD didn’t speak this message?”

Deuteronomy 18:22 If a prophet speaks in the LORD’s name and what he says doesn’t happen or come true, then it didn’t come from the LORD. That prophet has spoken on his own authority. Never be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19:1 The LORD your God will destroy all the nations that are living in the land that he’s giving you. You will force them out and live in their cities and houses.

Deuteronomy 19:2 When all this is done, set aside three cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 19:3 Provide a route to each of these cities and divide the land that the LORD your God is giving you into three regions. Whoever kills someone may run to one of these cities.

Deuteronomy 19:4 A person who unintentionally kills someone he never hated in the past may run to one of these cities to save his life.

Deuteronomy 19:5 Suppose two people go into the woods to cut wood. As one of them swings the ax to cut down a tree, the head flies off the handle, hits, and kills the other person. The one who accidentally killed the other person may run to one of these cities and save his life.

Deuteronomy 19:6 Otherwise, in a rage the relative who has the authority to avenge the death will pursue him. If the place is too far away, the relative may catch up with him and take his life even though he didn't deserve the death penalty, because in the past he never hated the person he killed.

Deuteronomy 19:7 This is why I'm commanding you to set aside three cities for yourselves.

Deuteronomy 19:8 The LORD your God may expand your country's borders as he promised your ancestors with an oath. He may give you the whole land he promised to give them.

Deuteronomy 19:9 He may do this because you faithfully obey all these commands I am now giving you-to love the LORD your God and follow his directions as long as you live. If this happens, you may add three more cities of refuge to these three.

Deuteronomy 19:10 That way, innocent people won't be killed in the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you won't be guilty of murder.

Deuteronomy 19:11 Suppose someone hates another person, waits in ambush for him, attacks him, takes his life, and runs to one of these cities.

Deuteronomy 19:12 If someone does this, the leaders of your city must send for that person. They must take him from that city and hand him over to the relative who has the authority to avenge the death. He must die.

Deuteronomy 19:13 They must have no pity on him. The guilt of murdering an innocent person must be removed from Israel. Then things will go well for Israel.

Deuteronomy 19:14 Never move your neighbor's original boundary marker on any property in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 19:15 One witness is never enough to convict someone of a crime, offense, or sin he may have committed. Cases must be settled based on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Deuteronomy 19:16 This is what you must do whenever a witness takes the stand to accuse a person falsely of a crime.

Deuteronomy 19:17 The two people involved must stand in the LORD's presence, in front of the priests and judges who are serving at that time.

Deuteronomy 19:18 The judges must make a thorough investigation. If it is found that the witness lied when he testified against the other Israelite, Deuteronomy 19:19 then do to him what he planned to do to the other person. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 19:20 When the rest of the people hear about this, they will be afraid. Never again will such an evil thing be done among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 Have no pity on him: [Take] a life for a life, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, and a foot for a foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 When you go to war against your enemies, you may see horses, chariots, and armies larger than yours. Don't be afraid of them, because the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, will be with you.

Deuteronomy 20:2 Before the battle starts, a priest must come and speak to the troops.

Deuteronomy 20:3 He should tell them, "Listen, Israel, today you're going into battle against your enemies. Don't lose your courage! Don't be afraid or alarmed or tremble because of them.

Deuteronomy 20:4 The LORD your God is going with you. He will fight for you against your enemies and give you victory."

Deuteronomy 20:5 The officers should tell the troops, "If you have built a new house but not dedicated it, you may go home. Otherwise, you might die in battle, and someone else will dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 If you have planted a vineyard and not enjoyed the grapes, you may go home. Otherwise, you might die in battle, and someone else will enjoy the grapes.

Deuteronomy 20:7 If you are engaged to a woman but have not married her, you may go home. Otherwise, you might die in battle, and someone else will marry her."

Deuteronomy 20:8 The officers should also tell the troops, "If you are afraid or have lost your courage, you may go home. Then you won't ruin the morale of the other Israelites."

Deuteronomy 20:9 When the officers finish speaking to the troops, they should appoint commanders to lead them.

Deuteronomy 20:10 When you approach a city to attack it, offer its people a peaceful way to surrender.

Deuteronomy 20:11 If they accept it and open [their gates] to you, then all the people there will be made to do forced labor and serve you.

Deuteronomy 20:12 If they won't accept your offer of peace but declare war on you, set up a blockade around the city.

Deuteronomy 20:13 When the LORD your God hands the city over to you, kill every man in that city with your swords.

Deuteronomy 20:14 But take the women and children, the cattle and everything else in the city, including all its goods, as your loot. You may enjoy your enemies' goods that the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 20:15 This is what you must do to all the cities that are far away which don’t belong to the nations nearby.

Deuteronomy 20:16 However, you must not spare anyone’s life in the cities of these nations that the LORD your God is giving you as your property.

Deuteronomy 20:17 You must claim the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites for the LORD and completely destroy them, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 20:18 Otherwise, they will teach you to do all the disgusting things they do for their gods, and you will sin against the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 This is what you must do whenever you blockade a city for a long time in order to capture it in war. Don’t harm any of its fruit trees with an ax. You can eat the fruit. Never cut those trees down, because the trees of the field are not people you have come to blockade.

Deuteronomy 20:20 You may destroy trees that you know are not fruit trees. You may cut them down and use them in your blockade until you capture the city.

Deuteronomy 21:1 This is what you must do if you find a murder victim lying in a field in the land that the LORD your God is giving you. If no one knows who committed the murder,

Deuteronomy 21:2 your leaders and judges must go and measure the distance from the body to each of the neighboring cities.

Deuteronomy 21:3 When it has been determined which city is nearest the body, the leaders from that city must choose a heifer that has never been put to work and never worn a yoke.

Deuteronomy 21:4 The leaders of that city will bring the heifer down to a river, to a location where the land hasn’t been plowed or planted. At the river they must break the heifer’s neck.

Deuteronomy 21:5 The priests, the descendants of Levi, must come forward. The LORD your God has chosen them to serve him as priests and to bless people in the LORD’s name. Their decision is final in all cases involving a disagreement or an assault.

Deuteronomy 21:6 All the leaders from the city which was nearest the murder victim must wash their hands over the dead heifer.

Deuteronomy 21:7 Then they must make this formal statement: “We didn’t commit this murder, and we didn’t witness it.

Deuteronomy 21:8 LORD, make peace with your people Israel, whom you freed. Don’t let the guilt of this unsolved murder remain among your people Israel.” Then there will be peace with the LORD despite the murder.

Deuteronomy 21:9 This is how you will get rid of the guilt of an unsolved murder by doing what the LORD considers right.

Deuteronomy 21:10 When you go to war with your enemies and the LORD your God hands them over to you, you may take them captive.

Deuteronomy 21:11 If you see a beautiful woman among the captives and have your heart set on her, you may marry her.

Deuteronomy 21:12 Bring her into your home. She must shave her head, cut her nails,

Deuteronomy 21:13 and no longer wear the clothes she was wearing when you captured her. Then she may live in your house and mourn [the loss of] her father and mother for one month. After that, you may sleep with her. Then you will become husband and wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 But if it happens that you are no longer pleased with her, let her go wherever she wants. You must never sell her or mistreat her as if she were a slave, since you've already had sex with her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 A man might have two wives and love one but not the other. Both wives might have children, and the firstborn son might belong to the wife that the man doesn't love.

Deuteronomy 21:16 When the day comes for the father to give his sons their inheritance, he can't treat the son of the wife he loves as if that son were the firstborn. This would show a total disregard for the real firstborn (the son of the wife he doesn't love).

Deuteronomy 21:17 Instead, he must recognize the son of the wife he doesn't love as the firstborn. He must give that son a double portion of whatever he owns. That son is the very first son he had. The rights of the firstborn son are his.

Deuteronomy 21:18 Parents might have a stubborn and rebellious son who doesn't obey them. Even though they punish him, he still won't listen to them.

Deuteronomy 21:19 His father and mother must take him to the leaders of the city at the city gate.

Deuteronomy 21:20 They will say to the leaders of the city, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He won't obey us. He eats too much and is a drunk."

Deuteronomy 21:21 All the men of the city should stone him to death. You must get rid of this evil. When all Israel hears about it, they will be afraid.

Deuteronomy 21:22 When a convicted person is put to death,

Deuteronomy 21:23 never leave his dead body hung on a pole overnight. Be sure to bury him that same day, because anyone whose body is hung on a pole is cursed by God. The land that the LORD your God is giving you must never become unclean.

Deuteronomy 22:1 If you see another Israelite's ox or sheep out where it doesn't belong, don't pretend that you don't see it. Make sure you take it back.

Deuteronomy 22:2 If the owner doesn't live near you or you don't know who owns it, take the animal home with you. Keep it until the owner comes looking for it. Then give it back.

Deuteronomy 22:3 Do the same if you find a donkey, some clothes, or anything else that another Israelite may have lost. Don't pretend that you don't know what to do.

Deuteronomy 22:4 If you see another Israelite's donkey or ox lying on the road, don't pretend that you don't see it. Make sure you help him get it back on its feet.

Deuteronomy 22:5 A woman must never wear anything men would wear, and a man must never wear women's clothes. Whoever does this is disgusting to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 22:6 Whenever you're traveling and find a nest containing chicks or eggs, this is what you must do. If the mother bird is sitting on the nest, never take her with the chicks.

Deuteronomy 22:7 You may take the chicks, but make sure you let the mother go. Then things will go well for you, and you will live for a long time.

Deuteronomy 22:8 Whenever you build a new house, put a railing around the edge of the roof. Then you won't be responsible for a death at your home if someone falls off the roof.

Deuteronomy 22:9 Never plant anything between the rows in your vineyard. Otherwise, you will have to give everything that grows there to the holy place. This includes the crop you planted and the grapes from the vineyard.

Deuteronomy 22:10 Never plow with an ox and a donkey harnessed together.

Deuteronomy 22:11 Never wear clothes made of wool and linen woven together.

Deuteronomy 22:12 Make tassels on the four corners of the shawl you wear over your clothes.

Deuteronomy 22:13 A man might marry a woman, sleep with her, and decide he doesn't like her.

Deuteronomy 22:14 Then he might make up charges against her and ruin her reputation by saying, "I married this woman. But when I slept with her, I found out she wasn't a virgin."

Deuteronomy 22:15 The girl's father and mother must go to the city gate where the leaders of the city are and submit the evidence that their daughter was a virgin.

Deuteronomy 22:16 The girl's father will tell the leaders, "I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he doesn't like her.

Deuteronomy 22:17 Now he has made up charges against her. He says he found out that my daughter wasn't a virgin. But here's the evidence!" Then the girl's parents must spread out the cloth in front of the leaders of the city.

Deuteronomy 22:18 The leaders of that city must take the man and punish him.

Deuteronomy 22:19 They will fine him 21/4 pounds of silver and give it to the girl's father. The husband ruined the reputation of an Israelite virgin. She will continue to be his wife, and he can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:20 But if the charge is true, and no evidence that the girl was a virgin can be found,

Deuteronomy 22:21 they must take the girl to the entrance of her father's house. The men of her city must stone her to death because she has committed such a godless act in Israel: She had sex before marriage, while she was still living in her father's house. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 22:22 If a man is caught having sexual intercourse with a married woman, both that man and the woman must die. You must get rid of this evil in Israel.

Deuteronomy 22:23 This is what you must do when a man has sexual intercourse with a virgin who is engaged to another man. If this happens in a city,

Deuteronomy 22:24 take them to the gate of the city and stone them to death. The girl must die because she was in a city and didn't scream for help. The man must die because he had sex with another man's wife. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 22:25 But if a man rapes an engaged girl out in the country, then only the man must die.

Deuteronomy 22:26 Don't do anything to the girl. She has not committed a sin for which she deserves to die. This is like the case of someone who attacks and murders another person.

Deuteronomy 22:27 The man found the girl out in the country. She may have screamed for help, but no one was there to rescue her.

Deuteronomy 22:28 This is what you must do when a man rapes a virgin who isn't engaged. When the crime is discovered,

Deuteronomy 22:29 the man who had sexual intercourse with her must give the girl's father 11/4 pounds of silver, and she will become his wife. Since he raped her, he can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:30 A man must never marry his father's wife because this would disgrace his father.

Deuteronomy 23:1 A man whose testicles are crushed or whose penis is cut off may never join the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:2 A man born from an illicit union may not join the assembly of the LORD. No descendant of his may join the assembly of the LORD for ten generations.

Deuteronomy 23:3 Ammonites or Moabites may not join the assembly of the LORD. Not one descendant of theirs may join the assembly of the LORD for ten generations.

Deuteronomy 23:4 They cannot join because they didn't greet you with food and water on your trip from Egypt. They even hired Balaam, son of Beor, from Pethor in Aram Naharaim, to curse you.

Deuteronomy 23:5 But the LORD your God refused to listen to Balaam. Instead, he turned Balaam's curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you.

Deuteronomy 23:6 Never offer them peace or friendship as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 23:7 Never consider the Edomites disgusting. They're your relatives. Never consider the Egyptians disgusting. You once were foreigners living in their country.

Deuteronomy 23:8 Their grandchildren may join the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:9 When you're at war and have set up camp to fight your enemies, stay away from anything that will make you unclean.

Deuteronomy 23:10 If one of your men becomes unclean from a nocturnal emission, he must go outside the camp and stay there.

Deuteronomy 23:11 Toward evening he must wash, and at sunset he may come back to camp.

Deuteronomy 23:12 Choose a place outside the camp where you can go [to relieve yourself].

Deuteronomy 23:13 You must carry a pointed stick as part of your equipment. When you go outside to squat, dig a hole with it. When you're done, cover up your excrement.

Deuteronomy 23:14 The LORD your God moves around in your camp to protect you and hand your enemies over to you. So your camp must always be holy. This way, the LORD will never see anything offensive among you and turn away from you.

Deuteronomy 23:15 If a slave escapes from his master and comes to you, don't return him to his master.

Deuteronomy 23:16 Let him stay with you [and live] among your people wherever he chooses, in any of your cities that seems best to him. Never mistreat him.

Deuteronomy 23:17 No Israelite man or woman should ever become a temple prostitute.

Deuteronomy 23:18 Never bring gifts or money earned by prostitution into the house of the LORD your God as an offering you vowed to give. These earnings are disgusting to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 23:19 Never charge another Israelite any interest on money, food, or anything else that is borrowed.

Deuteronomy 23:20 You may charge a foreigner interest, but not an Israelite. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do once you've entered the land and taken possession of it.

Deuteronomy 23:21 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, don't avoid keeping it. The LORD your God expects you to keep it. You would be guilty of a sin if you didn't.

Deuteronomy 23:22 If you didn't make a vow, you would not be guilty.

Deuteronomy 23:23 Make sure you do what you said you would do [in your vow]. You freely chose to make your vow to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 23:24 If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you like until you're full. But never put any in your basket.

Deuteronomy 23:25 If you go into your neighbor's grain field, you may pick grain by hand. But never use a sickle to cut your neighbor's grain.

Deuteronomy 24:1 This is what you must do if a husband writes out a certificate of divorce, gives it to his wife, and makes her leave his house. (He divorced her because he found out something indecent about her and she no longer pleased him.)

Deuteronomy 24:2 She might marry another man after she leaves his house.

Deuteronomy 24:3 If her second husband doesn't love her and divorces her, or if he dies,

Deuteronomy 24:4 her first husband is not allowed to marry her again. She has become unclean. This would be disgusting in the LORD's presence. Don't pollute with sin the land that the LORD your God is giving you as your property.

Deuteronomy 24:5 A man who has recently been married will be free from military duty or any other public service. For one year he is free to stay at home and make his new wife happy.

Deuteronomy 24:6 Never let a family's handmill for grinding flour-or even part of a handmill-be taken to guarantee a loan. The family wouldn't be able to prepare food in order to stay alive.

Deuteronomy 24:7 Whoever kidnaps another Israelite must die. The kidnapper must die, whether he treated the other person like a slave or sold him. You must get rid of this evil.

Deuteronomy 24:8 Guard against outbreaks of serious skin diseases. Be very careful to do exactly as the Levitical priests instruct you. Make sure you do what I commanded them.

Deuteronomy 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your trip from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 24:10 When you make a loan to your neighbor, don't go into his house to take a security deposit.

Deuteronomy 24:11 Wait outside, and the person to whom you're making the loan will bring the deposit out to you.

Deuteronomy 24:12 If the person is poor, don't keep the coat you took as a deposit overnight.

Deuteronomy 24:13 Make sure you bring it back to him at sunset. When he wears his coat to bed [that night], he'll bless you. You will have done the right thing in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 24:14 Don't withhold pay from hired workers who are poor and needy, whether they are Israelites or foreigners living in one of your cities.

Deuteronomy 24:15 Pay them each day before sunset because they are poor and need their pay. Otherwise, they will complain to the LORD about you, and you will be condemned for your sin.

Deuteronomy 24:16 Parents must never be put to death for the crimes of their children, and children must never be put to death for the crimes of their parents. Each person must be put to death for his own crime.

Deuteronomy 24:17 Never deprive foreigners and orphans of justice. And never take widows' clothes to guarantee a loan.

Deuteronomy 24:18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God freed you from slavery. So I'm commanding you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19 This is what you must do when you're harvesting wheat in your field. If you forget to bring in one of the bundles of wheat, don't go back to get it. Leave it there for foreigners, orphans, and widows. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 24:20 When you harvest olives from your trees, never knock down all of them. Leave some for foreigners, orphans, and widows.

Deuteronomy 24:21 When you pick the grapes in your vineyard, don't pick all of them. Leave some for foreigners, orphans, and widows.

Deuteronomy 24:22 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. So I'm commanding you to do this.

Deuteronomy 25:1 This is what you must do whenever [two] people have a disagreement that is brought into court. The judges will hear the case and decide who's right and who's wrong.

Deuteronomy 25:2 If the person who's in the wrong deserves to be beaten, the judge will order him to lie down. Then the judge will have him beaten with as many lashes as the crime deserves.

Deuteronomy 25:3 Forty lashes may be given, but no more. If an Israelite were given more than that, he would be publicly humiliated.

Deuteronomy 25:4 Never muzzle an ox when it's threshing grain.

Deuteronomy 25:5 When brothers live together and one of them dies without having a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband's brother must marry her and sleep with her. He must do his duty as her brother-in-law.

Deuteronomy 25:6 Then the first son she has will carry the dead brother's name so that his name won't die out in Israel.

Deuteronomy 25:7 But if the man doesn't want to marry his brother's widow, she must go to the leaders of the city at the city gate. She must say, "My brother-in-law refuses to let his brother's name continue in Israel. He doesn't want to do his duty as my brother-in-law."

Deuteronomy 25:8 Then the leaders of the city must summon him and talk to him. If he persists in saying that he doesn't want to marry her,

Deuteronomy 25:9 his brother's widow must go up to him in the presence of the leaders. She must take off one of his sandals and spit in his face. She must make this formal statement: "This is what happens to a man who refuses to continue his brother's family line."

Deuteronomy 25:10 Then in Israel his family will be called the Family of the Man Without a Sandal.

Deuteronomy 25:11 This is what you must do when two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from the man who is beating him. If she tries to stop the fight by grabbing the other man's genitals, Deuteronomy 25:12 cut off her hand. Have no pity on her.

Deuteronomy 25:13 Never carry two sets of weights, a heavier one and a lighter one.

Deuteronomy 25:14 Never have two kinds of measures in your house, a larger one and a smaller one.

Deuteronomy 25:15 Use accurate and honest weights and measures. Then you will live for a long time in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 Everyone who uses dishonest weights and measures is disgusting to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 25:17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you on your trip from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 25:18 They attacked you when you were tired and exhausted and killed all those who were lagging behind. They weren't afraid of God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 So when the LORD your God gives you peace from all your enemies around you in the land that he is giving you as your own property, don't forget to erase every memory of the Amalekites from the earth.

Deuteronomy 26:1 Soon you will enter and take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving you as your property. When you have settled there,

Deuteronomy 26:2 take some of the first produce harvested from the fields in the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket. Then go to the place where the LORD your God will choose for his name to live.

Deuteronomy 26:3 Go to the priest who is serving at that time, and tell him, "I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the land that the LORD is giving us, as he swore to our ancestors."

Deuteronomy 26:4 Then the priest will take the basket from you and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:5 You will make this formal statement in the presence of the LORD your God: "My ancestors were wandering Arameans. There were only a few of them when they went to Egypt and lived as foreigners. But then they became a great, powerful, and large nation.

Deuteronomy 26:6 So the Egyptians treated us cruelly, oppressed us, and made us do back-breaking work for them.

Deuteronomy 26:7 We cried out to the LORD God of our ancestors, and he heard us. He saw our misery, suffering, and oppression.

Deuteronomy 26:8 Then the LORD used his mighty hand and powerful arm to bring us out of Egypt. He used spectacular and awe-inspiring deeds, miraculous signs, and amazing things.

Deuteronomy 26:9 He brought us to this place and gave us this land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 26:10 So now I've brought the first produce harvested from the fields you gave me, LORD." You will place the basket in the presence of the LORD your God and bow down in front of him.

Deuteronomy 26:11 Then you, the Levites, and the foreigners who live among you can enjoy all the good things which the LORD your God has given you and your family.

Deuteronomy 26:12 Every third year is the year when you will store a tenth of that year's crops [in your houses]. During that year distribute what you have stored to the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows in your cities, and they may eat all they want.

Deuteronomy 26:13 When you have distributed all that was stored, say to the LORD your God, "Nothing is left of the holy offering stored in my house. I distributed it to the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows as you commanded me. I disobeyed none of your commands, and I didn't forget to do what you commanded.

Deuteronomy 26:14 I didn't eat any of this holy offering while I was in mourning. I didn't distribute any of it while I was unclean. I didn't offer any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God. I have done everything you commanded me.

Deuteronomy 26:15 Look down from your holy place in heaven. Bless your people Israel and the land flowing with milk and honey that you have given us, as you promised with an oath to our ancestors."

Deuteronomy 26:16 Today the LORD your God is commanding you to obey these laws and rules. You must faithfully obey them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 26:17 Today you have declared that the LORD is your God and that you will follow his directions, obey his laws, commands, and rules, and listen to him.

Deuteronomy 26:18 Today the LORD has declared that you are his people, his own special possession, as he told you. But you must be sure to obey his commands.

Deuteronomy 26:19 Then he will place you high above all the other nations he has made. He will give you praise, fame, and honor, and you will be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

Deuteronomy 27:1 Moses and the leaders of Israel told the people, "Obey every command I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 "The day you cross the Jordan River and enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and cover them with plaster.

Deuteronomy 27:3 The LORD God of your ancestors is giving you a land flowing with milk and honey, as he promised you. After you're in that land, write all the words of these teachings on the stones.

Deuteronomy 27:4 After you cross the Jordan River, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, and cover them with plaster, following the command I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 27:5 Build an altar of stones there dedicated to the LORD your God. Don't use an iron chisel on the stones.

Deuteronomy 27:6 You must use uncut stones to build the altar of the LORD your God. Sacrifice burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:7 Sacrifice fellowship offerings, eat them there, and enjoy yourselves in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 Write clearly and carefully all the words of these teachings on the stones you set up."

Deuteronomy 27:9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests said to all Israel, "Be quiet and listen, Israel. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and laws which I'm giving you today."

Deuteronomy 27:11 That same day Moses gave the people this command:

Deuteronomy 27:12 After you cross the Jordan River, these are the tribes that will stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Deuteronomy 27:13 These are the tribes that will stand on Mount Ebal to announce the curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

Deuteronomy 27:14 The Levites will declare to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:

Deuteronomy 27:15 "Whoever has a carved or metal statue, anything disgusting to the LORD that was made by a craftsman, and sets it up in secret will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:16 "Whoever curses his father or mother will himself be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:17 "Whoever moves his neighbor's boundary marker will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:18 "Whoever leads blind people in the wrong direction will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:19 "Whoever deprives foreigners, orphans, or widows of justice will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:20 "Whoever has sexual intercourse with his father's wife will be cursed. He has disgraced his father." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:21 "Whoever has sexual intercourse with any animal will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:22 "Whoever has sexual intercourse with his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter will be cursed." Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:23 “Whoever has sexual intercourse with his mother-in-law will be cursed.” Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:24 “Whoever kills another person secretly will be cursed.” Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:25 “Whoever accepts money to kill an innocent person will be cursed.” Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 27:26 “Whoever doesn’t obey every word of these teachings will be cursed.” Then all the people will say amen.

Deuteronomy 28:1 Carefully obey the LORD your God, and faithfully follow all his commands that I’m giving you today. If you do, the LORD your God will place you high above all the other nations in the world.

Deuteronomy 28:2 These are all the blessings that will come to you and stay close to you because you obey the LORD your God:

Deuteronomy 28:3 You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:4 You will be blessed. You will have children. Your land will have crops. Your animals will have offspring. Your cattle will have calves, and your flocks will have lambs and kids.

Deuteronomy 28:5 The grain you harvest and the bread you bake will be blessed.

Deuteronomy 28:6 You will be blessed when you come and blessed when you go.

Deuteronomy 28:7 The LORD will defeat your enemies when they attack you. They will attack you from one direction but run away from you in seven directions.

Deuteronomy 28:8 The LORD will bless your barns and everything you do. The LORD your God will bless you in the land that he is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 You will be the LORD’s holy people, as he promised you with an oath. He will do this if you obey the commands of the LORD your God and follow his directions.

Deuteronomy 28:10 Then all the people in the world will see that you are the LORD’s people, and they will be afraid of you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 The LORD will give you plenty of blessings: You will have many children. Your animals will have many offspring. Your soil will produce many crops in the land the LORD will give you, as he swore to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 28:12 The LORD will open the heavens, his rich storehouse, for you. He will send rain on your land at the right time and bless everything you do. You will be able to make loans to many nations but won’t need to borrow from any.

Deuteronomy 28:13 The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. You will always be at the top, never at the bottom, if you faithfully obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 28:14 Do everything I’m commanding you today. Never worship other gods or serve them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 Obey the LORD your God, and faithfully follow all his commands and laws that I am giving you today. If you don’t, all these curses will come to you and stay close to you:

Deuteronomy 28:16 You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:17 The grain you harvest and the bread you bake will be cursed.

Deuteronomy 28:18 You will be cursed. You will have few children. Your land will have few crops. Your cattle will be cursed with few calves, and your flocks will have few lambs and kids.

Deuteronomy 28:19 You will be cursed when you come and cursed when you go.

Deuteronomy 28:20 The LORD will send you curses, panic, and frustration in everything you do until you’re destroyed and quickly disappear for the evil you will do by abandoning the LORD.

Deuteronomy 28:21 The LORD will send one plague after another on you until he wipes you out of the land you’re about to enter and take possession of.

Deuteronomy 28:22 The LORD will strike you with disease, fever, and inflammation; heat waves, drought, scorching winds, and ruined crops. They will pursue you until you die.

Deuteronomy 28:23 The sky above will look like bronze, and the ground below will be as hard as iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 The LORD will send dust storms and sandstorms on you from the sky until you’re destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 The LORD will let your enemies defeat you. You will attack them from one direction but run away from them in seven directions. You will become a thing of horror to all the kingdoms in the world.

Deuteronomy 28:26 Your dead bodies will be food for all the birds and wild animals. There will be no one to scare them away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 The LORD will strike you with the same boils that plagued the Egyptians. He will strike you with hemorrhoids, sores, and itching that won’t go away.

Deuteronomy 28:28 The LORD will strike you with madness, blindness, and panic.

Deuteronomy 28:29 You will grope in broad daylight as blind people grope in their blindness. You won’t be successful in anything you do. As long as you live, you will be oppressed and robbed with no one to rescue you.

Deuteronomy 28:30 You will be engaged to a woman, but another man will have sex with her. You will build a house, but you won’t live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you won’t enjoy the grapes.

Deuteronomy 28:31 Your ox will be butchered as you watch, but you won’t eat any of its meat. You will watch as your donkey is stolen from you, but you’ll never get it back. Your flock will be given to your enemies, and no one will rescue it.

Deuteronomy 28:32 You will watch with your own eyes as your sons and daughters are given to another nation. You will strain your eyes looking for them all day long, but there will be nothing you can do.

Deuteronomy 28:33 People you never knew will eat what your land and your hard work have produced. As long as you live, you will know nothing but oppression and abuse.

Deuteronomy 28:34 The things you see will drive you mad.

Deuteronomy 28:35 The LORD will afflict your knees and legs with severe boils that can’t be cured. The boils will cover your whole body from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 The LORD will lead you and the king you choose to a nation that you and your ancestors never knew. There you will worship gods made of wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 You will become a thing of horror. All the nations where the LORD will send you will make an example of you and ridicule you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 You will plant many crops in your fields, but harvest little because locusts will destroy your crops.

Deuteronomy 28:39 You will plant vineyards and take care of them, but you won’t drink any wine or gather any grapes, because worms will eat them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 You will have olive trees everywhere in your country but no olive oil to rub on your skin, because the olives will fall off the trees.

Deuteronomy 28:41 You will have sons and daughters, but you won’t be able to keep them because they will be taken as prisoners of war.

Deuteronomy 28:42 Crickets will swarm all over your trees and the crops in your fields.

Deuteronomy 28:43 The [standard of living for the] foreigners who live among you will rise higher and higher, while your [standard of living] will sink lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 They will be able to make loans to you, but you won't be able to make loans to them. They will be the head, and you will be the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 All these curses will come to you. They will pursue you and stay close to you until you're destroyed, because you didn't obey the LORD your God or follow his commands and laws, which I'm giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 These curses will be a sign and an amazing thing to warn you and your descendants forever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 You didn't serve the LORD your God with a joyful and happy heart when you had so much.

Deuteronomy 28:48 So you will serve your enemies, whom the LORD will send against you. You will serve them even though you are already hungry, thirsty, naked, and in need of everything. The LORD will put a heavy burden of hard work on you until he destroys you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 The LORD will bring against you a nation from far away, from the ends of the earth. The nation will swoop down on you like an eagle. It will be a nation whose language you won't understand.

Deuteronomy 28:50 Its people will be fierce-looking. They will show no respect for the old and no pity for the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 They'll eat the offspring of your animals and the crops from your fields until you're destroyed. They'll leave you no grain, no new wine, no olive oil, no calves from your herds, and no lambs or kids from your flocks. They'll continue to do this until they've completely ruined you.

Deuteronomy 28:52 They will blockade all your cities until the high, fortified walls in which you trust come down everywhere in your land. They'll blockade all the cities everywhere in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 Because of the hardships your enemies will make you suffer during the blockade, you will eat the flesh of your own children, the sons and daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 Even the most tender and sensitive man among you will become stingy toward his brother, the wife he loves, and the children he still has left.

Deuteronomy 28:55 He will give none of them any of the flesh of his children that he is eating. It will be all that he has left, because of the hardships your enemies will make you suffer during the blockade of all your cities.

Deuteronomy 28:56 The most tender and sensitive woman among you-so sensitive and tender that she wouldn't even step on an ant-will become stingy toward the husband she loves or toward her own son or daughter.

Deuteronomy 28:57 She won’t share with them the afterbirth from her body and the children she gives birth to. She will secretly eat them out of dire necessity, because of the hardships your enemies will make you suffer during the blockade of your cities.

Deuteronomy 28:58 You might not faithfully obey every word of the teachings that are written in this book. You might not fear this glorious and awe-inspiring name: the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:59 If so, the LORD will strike you and your descendants with unimaginable plagues. They will be terrible and continuing plagues and severe and lingering diseases.

Deuteronomy 28:60 He will again bring all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 The LORD will also bring you every kind of sickness and plague not written in this Book of Teachings. They will continue until you’re dead.

Deuteronomy 28:62 At one time you were as numerous as the stars in the sky. But only a few of you will be left, because you didn’t obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 At one time the LORD was more than glad to make you prosperous and numerous. Now the LORD will be more than glad to destroy you and wipe you out. You will be torn out of the land you’re about to enter and take possession of.

Deuteronomy 28:64 Then the LORD will scatter you among all the people of the world, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will serve gods made of wood and stone that neither you nor your ancestors ever knew.

Deuteronomy 28:65 Among those nations you will find no peace, no place to call your own. There the LORD will give you an unsettled mind, failing eyesight, and despair.

Deuteronomy 28:66 Your life will always be hanging by a thread. You will live in terror day and night. You will never feel sure of your life.

Deuteronomy 28:67 In the morning you’ll say, “If only it were evening!” And in the evening you’ll say, “If only it were morning!” You’ll talk this way because of the things that will terrify you and because of the things you’ll see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 The LORD will bring you back to Egypt in ships on a journey that I said you would never take again. There you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies, but no one will buy you.

Deuteronomy 29:1 These are the terms of the promise that the LORD commanded Moses to give to the Israelites in Moab. This was in addition to the promise the LORD gave them at Mount Horeb.

Deuteronomy 29:2 Moses summoned all the people of Israel and said to them: You’ve seen with your own eyes everything that the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to his whole country.

Deuteronomy 29:3 You also saw those terrible plagues, those miraculous signs, and those spectacular, amazing things.

Deuteronomy 29:4 But to this day the LORD hasn’t given you a mind that understands, eyes that see, or ears that hear.

Deuteronomy 29:5 For 40 years I led you through the desert. During that time your clothes and shoes never wore out.

Deuteronomy 29:6 You ate no bread and drank no wine or liquor. I did this so that you would know that I am the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 29:7 When you came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out to fight us, but we defeated them.

Deuteronomy 29:8 We took their land and gave it to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and half of the tribe of Manasseh as their property.

Deuteronomy 29:9 Faithfully obey the terms of this promise. Then you will be successful in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 29:10 All of you are standing here today in the presence of the LORD your God. The heads of your tribes, your leaders, your officers, and all the men of Israel are here.

Deuteronomy 29:11 Your children, your wives, and the foreigners who cut wood and carry water in your camp are also here.

Deuteronomy 29:12 You are ready to accept the terms and conditions of the promise that the LORD your God is giving you today.

Deuteronomy 29:13 With this promise the LORD will confirm today that you are his people and that he is your God. This is what he told you, and this is what he promised your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob with an oath.

Deuteronomy 29:14 You aren’t the only people to receive this promise and its conditions.

Deuteronomy 29:15 It is for those of you who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God and also for those who are not here today.

Deuteronomy 29:16 You know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through other countries on our way here.

Deuteronomy 29:17 You saw their disgusting gods and idols made of wood, stone, silver, and gold.

Deuteronomy 29:18 Make sure there is no man, woman, family, or tribe among you today who turns from the LORD our God to worship the gods of those nations. Make sure that no one among you is the source of this kind of bitter poison.

Deuteronomy 29:19 Someone may hear the conditions of this promise. He may think that he is so blessed that he can say, “I’ll be safe even if I go my own stubborn way. After all, [the LORD would never] sweep away well-watered ground along with dry ground.”

Deuteronomy 29:20 The LORD will never be willing to forgive that person, because the LORD’s burning anger will smolder against him. All the curses described in this book will happen to him. The LORD will erase [every memory of] that person’s name from the earth.

Deuteronomy 29:21 And the LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster based on all the conditions of the promise written in this Book of the Teachings.

Deuteronomy 29:22 Then the next generation of your children and foreigners who come from distant countries will see the plagues that have happened in this land and the diseases the LORD sent here.

Deuteronomy 29:23 They will see all the soil poisoned with sulfur and salt. Nothing will be planted. Nothing will be growing. There will be no plants in sight. It will be as desolate as Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, cities the LORD destroyed in fierce anger.

Deuteronomy 29:24 Then all the other nations in the world will ask, “Why has the LORD done this to their land? Why is he so angry?”

Deuteronomy 29:25 The answer will be, “Because they abandoned the promise of the LORD God of their ancestors. He made this promise to them when he brought them out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 29:26 They worshiped other gods and bowed down to them. These were gods they never heard of, gods the LORD didn’t permit them to have.

Deuteronomy 29:27 So the LORD became angry with this land and brought on it all the curses described in this book.

Deuteronomy 29:28 In his fierce anger and fury the LORD uprooted these people from their land and deported them to another country, where they still are today.”

Deuteronomy 29:29 Some things are hidden. They belong to the LORD our God. But the things that have been revealed in these teachings belong to us and to our children forever. We must obey every word of these teachings.

Deuteronomy 30:1 All these blessings and curses I have spoken about will happen to you. Take them to heart when you are among all the nations where the LORD your God will scatter you.

Deuteronomy 30:2 If you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart and with all your soul, doing everything I command you today, Deuteronomy 30:3 he will restore your fortunes. He will have mercy on you and gather you from all the nations of the world where he will scatter you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 Even if you are scattered to the most distant country in the world, the LORD your God will gather you and bring you back from there.

Deuteronomy 30:5 The LORD your God will bring you to the land your ancestors owned. You will take possession of it, and the LORD will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors were.

Deuteronomy 30:6 The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants. You will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and you will live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 Then the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, those who hate you and persecute you.

Deuteronomy 30:8 You will again obey the LORD and follow all his commands that I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 30:9 The LORD your God will give you many blessings in everything you do: You will have many children. Your animals will have many offspring. Your soil will produce many crops. The LORD will again delight in making you as prosperous as he made your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 30:10 He will do this if you obey him and follow his commands and laws that are written in this Book of Teachings and return to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 30:11 This command I'm giving you today isn't too hard for you or beyond your reach.

Deuteronomy 30:12 It's not in heaven. You don't have to ask, "Who will go to heaven to get this command for us so that we can hear it and obey it?"

Deuteronomy 30:13 This command isn't on the other side of the sea. You don't have to ask, "Who will cross the sea to get it for us so that we can hear it and obey it?"

Deuteronomy 30:14 No, these words are very near you. They're in your mouth and in your heart so that you will obey them.

Deuteronomy 30:15 Today I offer you life and prosperity or death and destruction.

Deuteronomy 30:16 This is what I'm commanding you today: Love the LORD your God, follow his directions, and obey his commands, laws, and rules. Then you will live, your population will increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you're about to enter and take possession of.

Deuteronomy 30:17 But your hearts might turn away, and you might not listen. You might be tempted to bow down to other gods and worship them.

Deuteronomy 30:18 If you do, I tell you today that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live for a long time in the land that you're going to take possession of when you cross the Jordan River.

Deuteronomy 30:19 I call on heaven and earth as witnesses today that I have offered you life or death, blessings or curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants will live.

Deuteronomy 30:20 Love the LORD your God, obey him, and be loyal to him. This will be your way of life, and it will mean a long life for you in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 31:1 Moses continued to speak to all the Israelites:

Deuteronomy 31:2 "I'm 120 years old now, and I'm not able to lead you anymore. Besides, the LORD has told me that I cannot cross the Jordan River.

Deuteronomy 31:3 The LORD your God is the one who will cross the river ahead of you. He will destroy those nations as you arrive, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua will also cross the river ahead of you, as the LORD told you.

Deuteronomy 31:4 The LORD will do to those nations what he did to King Sihon and King Og of the Amorites and to their lands when he destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 31:5 The LORD will hand them over to you, and you must do to them everything that I commanded you.

Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong and courageous. Don't tremble! Don't be afraid of them! The LORD your God is the one who is going with you. He won't abandon you or leave you."

Deuteronomy 31:7 Then Moses called for Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous. You will go with these people into the land that the LORD will give them, as he swore to their ancestors. You will help them take possession of the land.

Deuteronomy 31:8 The LORD is the one who is going ahead of you. He will be with you. He won't abandon you or leave you. So don't be afraid or terrified."

Deuteronomy 31:9 Moses wrote down these teachings and gave them to the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the LORD's promise and to all the leaders of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:10 Then Moses commanded them, "At the end of every seventh year you must cancel debts. At that time, during the Festival of Booths, Deuteronomy 31:11 all the Israelites will come into the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose. Read these teachings so that they can hear them.

Deuteronomy 31:12 Assemble the men, women, and children, as well as the foreigners who live in your cities. Have them listen and learn to fear the LORD your God and faithfully obey every word of these teachings.

Deuteronomy 31:13 Their children, who don't know these teachings, must hear them and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land that you are going to take possession of when you cross the Jordan River."

Deuteronomy 31:14 The LORD said to Moses, "The time of your death is coming soon. Call for Joshua. Both of you come to the tent of meeting, and I will give him his instructions." Moses and Joshua came to the tent of meeting.

Deuteronomy 31:15 Then the LORD appeared in a column of smoke at the entrance to the tent.

Deuteronomy 31:16 The LORD said to Moses, "Soon you are going to lie down in death with your ancestors. When these people enter the land and are living among the foreigners there, they will chase after foreign gods as though they were prostitutes. They will abandon me and reject the promise I made to them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 On that day I will become angry with them. I will abandon them and turn away from them. They will be destroyed, and many terrible disasters will happen to them. On that day they will ask, 'Haven't these disasters happened to us because our God isn't with us?'

Deuteronomy 31:18 On that day I will certainly turn away from them because of all the evil they've done in turning to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 "Write down this song, teach it to the Israelites, and have them sing it. This song will be a witness for me against the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 31:20 I will bring them into the land that I swore to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. When they have eaten all they want and have become fat, they will turn to other gods and worship them. They will despise me and reject my promise.

Deuteronomy 31:21 When many terrible disasters happen to them, this song will testify against them, because it will never be forgotten by their descendants. I know what their hearts are set on doing, even now before I bring them into the land that I swore to give them."

Deuteronomy 31:22 That day Moses wrote down this song and taught it to the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 31:23 The LORD gave this command to Joshua, son of Nun: "Be strong and courageous, because you will bring the Israelites into the land that I swore to give them, and I will be with you."

Deuteronomy 31:24 Finally, Moses finished writing all the words of these teachings in a book.

Deuteronomy 31:25 He gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of the LORD's promise:

Deuteronomy 31:26 "Take this Book of Teachings, and put it next to the ark of the promise of the LORD your God, where it will be a witness against you.

Deuteronomy 31:27 I know how rebellious you are. You are impossible to deal with. While I am alive and still with you, you are rebelling against the LORD. How much more rebellious will you be after I die?

Deuteronomy 31:28 Assemble all the leaders of your tribes and your officers in front of me. As they listen, I will speak these words and call on heaven and earth to testify against them.

Deuteronomy 31:29 I know that after I die you will become thoroughly corrupt and turn from the way I have commanded you to live. In the days to come disasters will happen to you because you will make the LORD furious by doing what he considers evil."

Deuteronomy 31:30 Then, as the whole congregation of Israel listened, Moses recited all the words of this song:

Deuteronomy 32:1 Listen, heaven, and I will speak. Earth, hear the words from my mouth.

Deuteronomy 32:2 Let my teachings come down like raindrops. Let my words drip like dew, like gentle rain on grass, like showers on green plants.

Deuteronomy 32:3 I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Give our God the greatness he deserves!

Deuteronomy 32:4 He is a rock. What he does is perfect. All his ways are fair. He is a faithful God, who does no wrong. He is honorable and reliable.

Deuteronomy 32:5 He recognizes that his people are corrupt. To their shame they are no longer his children. They are devious and scheming.

Deuteronomy 32:6 Is this how you repay the LORD, you foolish and silly people? Isn't he your Father and Owner, who made you and formed you?

Deuteronomy 32:7 Remember a time long ago. Think about all the past generations. Ask your fathers to remind you, and your leaders to tell you.

Deuteronomy 32:8 When the Most High gave nations their land, when he divided the descendants of Adam, he set up borders for the tribes corresponding to the number of the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:9 But the LORD's people were his property. Jacob was his own possession.

Deuteronomy 32:10 He found his people in a desert land, in a barren place where animals howl. He guarded them, took care of them, and protected them because they were helpless.

Deuteronomy 32:11 Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, hovers over its young, spreads its wings to catch them, and carries them on its feathers,

Deuteronomy 32:12 so the LORD alone led his people. No foreign god was with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 He made them ride on the heights of the earth and fed them with the produce of the fields. He gave them honey from rocks and olive oil from solid rock.

Deuteronomy 32:14 They ate cheese from cows and drank milk from sheep and goats. He gave them fat from lambs, rams from the stock of Bashan, male goats, and the best wheat. They drank the blood-red wine of grapes.

Deuteronomy 32:15 Jeshurun got fat and disrespectful. (You got fat! You were stuffed! You were gorged!) They abandoned the God who made them and treated the rock of their salvation like a fool.

Deuteronomy 32:16 They made him furious because they worshiped foreign gods and angered him because they worshiped worthless idols.

Deuteronomy 32:17 They sacrificed to demons that are not God, to gods they never heard of. These were new gods, who came from nearby, gods your ancestors never worshiped.

Deuteronomy 32:18 (You ignored the rock who fathered you and forgot the God who gave you life.)

Deuteronomy 32:19 The LORD saw this and rejected them, because his own sons and daughters had made him angry.

Deuteronomy 32:20 He said, “I will turn away from them and find out what will happen to them. They are devious people, children who can’t be trusted.

Deuteronomy 32:21 They made him furious because they worshiped foreign gods and angered him because they worshiped worthless idols. So I will use those who are not my people to make them jealous and a nation of godless fools to make them angry.

Deuteronomy 32:22 My anger has started a fire that will burn to the depths of hell. It will consume the earth and its crops and set the foundations of the mountains on fire.

Deuteronomy 32:23 I will bring one disaster after another on them. I will use up all my arrows on them.

Deuteronomy 32:24 They will be starved by famines and ravaged by pestilence and deadly epidemics. I will send vicious animals against them along with poisonous animals that crawl on the ground.

Deuteronomy 32:25 Foreign wars will kill off their children, and even at home there will be horrors. Young men and young women alike will die as well as nursing babies and gray-haired men.

Deuteronomy 32:26 I said that I would cut them in pieces and erase everyone's memory of them.

Deuteronomy 32:27 But I didn't want their enemies to make me angry. I didn't want their opponents to misunderstand and say, 'We won this victory! It wasn't the LORD who did all this!'"

Deuteronomy 32:28 My people have lost their good sense. They are not able to understand.

Deuteronomy 32:29 If only they were wise enough to understand this and realize what will happen to them!

Deuteronomy 32:30 How could one person chase a thousand or two people make ten thousand flee? Their rock used these people to defeat them and the LORD gave them no help.

Deuteronomy 32:31 Their rock isn't like our rock. Even our enemies will agree with this.

Deuteronomy 32:32 Their grapevines come from the vineyards of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are poisonous, and their clusters are bitter.

Deuteronomy 32:33 Their wine is snake venom, the deadly poison of cobras.

Deuteronomy 32:34 Isn't this what I've stored under lock and key in my storehouses?

Deuteronomy 32:35 I will take revenge and be satisfied. In due time their foot will slip, because their day of disaster is near. Their doom is coming quickly.

Deuteronomy 32:36 The LORD will judge his people and have compassion on his servants when he sees that their strength is gone and that no one is left, neither slaves nor free people.

Deuteronomy 32:37 Then he will ask, "Where are their gods? Where is the rock they took refuge in?

Deuteronomy 32:38 Where are the gods who ate the fat from their sacrifices and drank the wine from their wine offerings? Let them come to help you! Let them be your refuge!"

Deuteronomy 32:39 See, I am the only God. There are no others. I kill, and I make alive. I wound, and I heal, and no one can rescue you from my power.

Deuteronomy 32:40 I raise my hand toward heaven and solemnly swear: As surely as I live forever, Deuteronomy 32:41 I will sharpen my flashing sword and take justice into my own hands. Then I will take revenge on my enemies and pay back those who hate me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 My arrows will drip with blood from those who were killed and taken captive. My sword will cut off the heads of the enemy who vowed to fight.

Deuteronomy 32:43 Joyfully sing with the LORD's people, you nations, because he will take revenge for the death of his servants. He will get even with his enemies and make peace for his people's land.?and[his people.">]

Deuteronomy 32:44 Moses came with Hoshea, son of Nun, and recited all the words of this song as the people listened.

Deuteronomy 32:45 When Moses had finished reciting all these words to Israel,

Deuteronomy 32:46 he said to them, "Pay attention to all these warnings I've given you today. Then you will command your children to faithfully obey every word of these teachings.

Deuteronomy 32:47 Don't think these words are idle talk. They are your life! By these words you will be able to live for a long time in the land that you are going to take possession of when you cross the Jordan River."

Deuteronomy 32:48 That same day the LORD said to Moses,

Deuteronomy 32:49 "Go into the Abarim Mountains, to Mount Nebo in Moab, across from Jericho. Take a look at the land of Canaan that I'm giving the Israelites as their own property.

Deuteronomy 32:50 On this mountain where you're going, you will die and join your ancestors in death, as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor.

Deuteronomy 32:51 This is because both of you were unfaithful to me at the oasis of Meribah at Kadesh in the Desert of Zin. You didn't show the Israelites how holy I am.

Deuteronomy 32:52 You may see the land from a distance, but you may not enter the land I'm giving the Israelites."

Deuteronomy 33:1 Moses, the man of God, blessed the Israelites with this blessing before he died.

Deuteronomy 33:2 He said, "The LORD came from Sinai. For his people he rose from Seir [like the sun]. He appeared like sunshine from Mount Paran. He came with tens of thousands of holy ones. On his right was a raging fire for them.

Deuteronomy 33:3 You certainly love your people. All your holy ones are in your hands. They bow at your feet to receive your instructions.

Deuteronomy 33:4 Moses gave us these teachings. They belong to the assembly of Jacob.

Deuteronomy 33:5 The LORD was king of Jeshurun when the leaders of the people assembled together with all the tribes of Israel.

Deuteronomy 33:6 “May the tribe of [Reuben] live and not die out, though their people are few in number.”

Deuteronomy 33:7 This is what he said about the tribe of [Judah]: “Hear the cry of Judah, O LORD, and bring them to their people. They must defend themselves. Help them against their enemies.”

Deuteronomy 33:8 About the tribe of [Levi]he said, “Your Thummim and Urim belong to your faithful people. You tested your people at Massah. You quarreled with them at the oasis of Meribah.

Deuteronomy 33:9 They said that they didn’t know their father and mother. They didn’t recognize their own brothers. They didn’t acknowledge their own children. But they obeyed your word and were faithful to the terms of your promise.

Deuteronomy 33:10 They teach Jacob your rules and give Israel your teachings. They burn incense for you to smell and sacrifice burnt offerings on your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 LORD, bless them with strength and be pleased with the work they do. Break the backs of those who attack them and hate them so that they can never get up again.”

Deuteronomy 33:12 About the tribe of [Benjamin]he said, “The LORD’s beloved people will live securely with him. The LORD will shelter them all day long, since he, too, lives on the mountain slopes.”

Deuteronomy 33:13 About the tribes of [Joseph]he said, “May the LORD bless their land with [water,] the best gift heaven can send, with dew and deep springs below the ground.

Deuteronomy 33:14 May the LORD bless their land with crops, the best gift the sun can give, the best produce of each month,

Deuteronomy 33:15 the finest fruits from the oldest mountains, the best from the ancient hills,

Deuteronomy 33:16 and the most plentiful crops of the earth. May the LORD bless their land with the favor of the one who was in the burning bush. May these blessings come to the tribes of Joseph. May they crown the people who are like princes in Israel.

Deuteronomy 33:17 They will be as majestic as a firstborn bull. Their horns will be like the horns of a wild ox. They will use them to push away nations including those at the ends of the earth. The tens of thousands from the tribe of Ephraim and the thousands from the tribe of Manasseh will be like this.”

Deuteronomy 33:18 About the tribe of [Zebulun]he said, “People of Zebulun, enjoy yourselves when you go to war, and you people of [Issachar], enjoy yourselves when you stay at home.

Deuteronomy 33:19 They will invite nations to their mountain, and there they will offer the proper sacrifices. They will be nourished by the abundance from the seas and the treasures hidden in the sand.”

Deuteronomy 33:20 About the tribe of [Gad]he said, “Blessed is the one who gives the people of Gad more land. They wait there like a lion. They can tear off an arm or a head.

Deuteronomy 33:21 They chose the best land for themselves. Indeed, a commander’s piece of land was reserved for them. They were leaders of the people and did for Israel what the LORD considers fair and honorable.”

Deuteronomy 33:22 About the tribe of [Dan]he said, “The people of Dan are a lion cub. Out of Bashan they pounce [on their enemies].”

Deuteronomy 33:23 About the tribe of [Naphtali]he said, “The people of Naphtali enjoy the LORD’s favor and are filled with the LORD’s blessings. They will take possession of the lake and the land south of it.”

Deuteronomy 33:24 About the tribe of [Asher]he said, “The people of Asher are the most blessed of the sons of Israel. May they be the Israelites’ favorite tribe and wash their feet in olive oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 May the locks and bolts of your gates be made of iron and copper. May your strength last as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 33:26 “There’s no one like your God, Jeshurun! He rides through the heavens to help you. In majesty he rides through the clouds.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The eternal God is your shelter, and his everlasting arms support you. He will force your enemies out of your way and tell you to destroy them.

Deuteronomy 33:28 So Israel will live securely. Jacob’s spring will be [left] alone in a land of grain and new wine. Dew will drip from Israel’s skies.

Deuteronomy 33:29 You are blessed, Israel! Who is like you, a nation saved by the LORD? He is a shield that helps you and a sword that wins your victories. Your enemies will come crawling to you, and you will stomp on their backs.”

Deuteronomy 34:1 Then Moses went up on Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab. He went to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. The LORD showed him the whole land. He could see Gilead as far as Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 all of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the territory of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea,

Deuteronomy 34:3 the Negev, and the Jordan Plain-the valley of Jericho (the City of Palms)-as far as Zoar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land I promised with an oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I said I would give it to their descendants. I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you may not go there.”

Deuteronomy 34:5 As the LORD had predicted, the LORD’s servant Moses died in Moab.

Deuteronomy 34:6 He was buried in a valley in Moab, near Beth Peor. Even today no one knows where his grave is.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Moses was 120 years old when he died. His eyesight never became poor, and he never lost his physical strength.

Deuteronomy 34:8 The Israelites mourned for Moses in the plains of Moab for 30 days. Then the time of mourning for him was over.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Joshua, son of Nun, was filled with the Spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him. The Israelites obeyed him and did what the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Deuteronomy 34:10 There has never been another prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD dealt with face to face.

Deuteronomy 34:11 He was the one the LORD sent to do all the miraculous signs and amazing things in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to his whole country.

Deuteronomy 34:12 Moses used his mighty hand to do all the spectacular and awe-inspiring deeds that were seen by all the Israelites.

Joshua

1:1 After the death of the LORD’s servant Moses, the LORD said to Moses’ assistant Joshua, son of Nun,

Joshua 1:2 “My servant Moses is dead. Now you and all these people must cross the Jordan River into the land that I am going to give the people of Israel.

Joshua 1:3 I will give you every place on which you set foot, as I promised Moses.

Joshua 1:4 Your borders will be the desert [on the south], nearby Lebanon to the Euphrates River (the country of the Hittites) [on the north], and the Mediterranean Sea on the west.

Joshua 1:5 No one will be able to oppose you successfully as long as you live. I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will never neglect you or abandon you.

Joshua 1:6 Be strong and courageous, because you will help these people take possession of the land I swore to give their ancestors.

Joshua 1:7 “Only be strong and very courageous, faithfully doing everything in the teachings that my servant Moses commanded you. Don’t turn away from them. Then you will succeed wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 Never stop reciting these teachings. You must think about them night and day so that you will faithfully do everything written in them. Only then will you prosper and succeed.

Joshua 1:9 “I have commanded you, ‘Be strong and courageous! Don’t tremble or be terrified, because the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.’”

Joshua 1:10 Then Joshua ordered the officers of the people,

Joshua 1:11 “Go through the camp. Tell the people, ‘Get your supplies ready. In three days you will cross the Jordan River to take possession of the land the LORD your God is going to give you.’”

Joshua 1:12 Next, Joshua said to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh,

Joshua 1:13 “Remember what the LORD’s servant Moses commanded you. Moses said, ‘The LORD your God will give you this land-a place to rest.’

Joshua 1:14 Your wives, children, and livestock may stay in the land that Moses gave you east of the Jordan River. However, all your best soldiers must march in battle formation ahead of your relatives. You must help your relatives

Joshua 1:15 take possession of the land the LORD your God is going to give them. Then they will have a place to rest like you do. After that, you may go back and take possession of the land east of the Jordan River which the LORD’s servant Moses gave you.”

Joshua 1:16 The people responded to Joshua, “We’ll do everything you tell us and go wherever you send us.

Joshua 1:17 We will obey you as we obeyed Moses. May the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses.

Joshua 1:18 Whoever rebels against your authority or does not obey your orders will be put to death. Just be strong and courageous!”

Joshua 2:1 From Shittim Joshua, son of Nun, secretly sent out two men as spies. He told them, “Go, look at that country, especially the city of Jericho.” So they went to Jericho and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab to spend the night there.

Joshua 2:2 The king of Jericho was told, “Some Israelites have entered the city tonight. They came to gather information about our land.”

Joshua 2:3 So the king of Jericho sent messengers to Rahab, who told her, “Bring out the men who came to your house. They came here to gather information about the entire land.”

Joshua 2:4 But the woman had already taken the two men inside and hidden them. So she said, “Yes, the men did come here. But I didn’t know where they had come from.

Joshua 2:5 When it was dark and the gate was just about to close, they left. I don't know where they went. If you hurry, you'll catch up with them."

Joshua 2:6 (She had taken them up to the roof and covered them with the flax which she had laid up there.)

Joshua 2:7 The king's men pursued them on the road leading to a shallow place to cross the Jordan River. As soon as the king's men had left, the gate was closed.

Joshua 2:8 Before the spies fell asleep, Rahab went up to them on the roof.

Joshua 2:9 She said to them, "I know the LORD will give you this land. Your presence terrifies us. All the people in this country are deathly afraid of you.

Joshua 2:10 We've heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea in front of you when you left Egypt. We've also heard what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites, who ruled east of the Jordan River. We've heard how you destroyed them for the LORD.

Joshua 2:11 When we heard about it, we lost heart. There was no courage left in any of us because of you. The LORD your God is the God of heaven and earth.

Joshua 2:12 Please swear by the LORD that you'll be as kind to my father's family as I've been to you. Also give me some proof

Joshua 2:13 that you'll protect my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and their households, and that you'll save us from death."

Joshua 2:14 The men promised her, "We pledge our lives for your lives. If you don't tell anyone what we're doing here, we'll treat you kindly and honestly when the LORD gives us this land."

Joshua 2:15 So she let them down by a rope from her window since her house was built into the city wall. (She lived in the city wall.)

Joshua 2:16 She told them, "Go to the mountains so that the men who are pursuing you will not find you. Hide there for three days until they return to Jericho. Then you can go on your way."

Joshua 2:17 The men told her, "We will be free from the oath which you made us swear, [if you tell anyone what we're doing here].

Joshua 2:18 When we invade your land, tie this red cord in the window through which you let us down. Also, gather your father, mother, brothers, and all your father's family into your house.

Joshua 2:19 Whoever leaves your house will be responsible for his own life. We will be free from that responsibility. But we will take responsibility if anyone inside your house is harmed.

Joshua 2:20 If you tell anyone what we're doing here, we will be free from the oath which you made us swear."

Joshua 2:21 “I agree,” she said. So she let them go and tied the red cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 The men went to the mountains and stayed there for three days until the king’s men returned to Jericho. The king’s men had searched for them all along the road but had not found them.

Joshua 2:23 Then the two spies came down out of the mountains, crossed the Jordan River, and returned to Joshua, son of Nun. They told him everything that had happened to them.

Joshua 2:24 They told Joshua, “The LORD has given us the whole country. The people who live there are deathly afraid of us.”

Joshua 3:1 Joshua got up early the next morning. He and all the Israelites left Shittim. They came to the Jordan River, where they camped before crossing.

Joshua 3:2 Three days later the officers went through the camp.

Joshua 3:3 They told the people, “As soon as you see the ark of the promise of the LORD your God and the Levitical priests who carry it, break camp and follow them.

Joshua 3:4 However, stay about half a mile behind them. Don’t come any closer to them so that you will know which way to go because you have not gone this way before.”

Joshua 3:5 Joshua told the people, “Perform the ceremonies to make yourselves holy because tomorrow the LORD will do miracles among you.”

Joshua 3:6 Joshua also told the priests, “Take the ark of the promise, and go ahead of the people.” They did as they were told.

Joshua 3:7 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to honor you in front of all the people of Israel. I will do this to let them know that I am with you just as I was with Moses.

Joshua 3:8 Order the priests who carry the ark of the promise, ‘When you step into the water of the Jordan River, stand there.’”

Joshua 3:9 So Joshua said to the people of Israel, “Come here, and listen to the words of the LORD your God.”

Joshua 3:10 Joshua continued, “This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly force the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites out of your way.

Joshua 3:11 Watch the ark of the promise of the Lord of the whole earth as it goes ahead of you into the Jordan River.

Joshua 3:12 Choose one man from each of the 12 tribes of Israel.

Joshua 3:13 The priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of the whole earth, will stand in the water of the Jordan. Then the water flowing from upstream will stop and stand up like a dam.”

Joshua 3:14 So they broke camp to cross the Jordan River. The priests who carried the ark of the promise went ahead of the people.

Joshua 3:15 (The Jordan overflows all its banks during the harvest season.) When the priests who were carrying the ark came to the edge of the Jordan River and set foot in Joshua 3:16 the water, the water stopped flowing from upstream. The water rose up like a dam as far away as the city of Adam near Zarethan. The water flowing down toward the Sea of the Plains (the Dead Sea) was completely cut off. Then the people crossed from the east side [of the Jordan River] directly opposite Jericho.

Joshua 3:17 The priests who carried the ark of the LORD's promise stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan until the whole nation of Israel had crossed the Jordan River on dry ground.

Joshua 4:1 The whole nation finished crossing the Jordan River. The LORD had told Joshua, Joshua 4:2 "Choose one man from each of the 12 tribes.

Joshua 4:3 Order them to pick up 12 stones from the middle of the Jordan, where the priests' feet stood firmly. Take the stones along with you, and set them down where you will camp tonight."

Joshua 4:4 Joshua called the 12 men whom he had selected (one from each tribe).

Joshua 4:5 He said to them, "Go to the middle of the Jordan River in front of the ark of the LORD your God. Each man must take a stone on his shoulder, one for each tribe of Israel.

Joshua 4:6 This will be a sign for you. In the future your children will ask, 'What do these stones mean to you?'

Joshua 4:7 You should answer, 'The water of the Jordan River was cut off in front of the ark of the LORD's promise. When the ark crossed the Jordan, the river stopped flowing. These stones are a permanent reminder for the people of Israel.'"

Joshua 4:8 The people of Israel did as Joshua had ordered. They took 12 stones, one for each of the tribes of Israel. They took them from the middle of the Jordan as the LORD had told Joshua. They carried them to the camp and set them down there.

Joshua 4:9 Joshua also set 12 stones in the middle of the Jordan River, where the priests who carried the ark of the promise had stood. The stones are still there today.

Joshua 4:10 The priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan. They stood there until everything the LORD had ordered Joshua to tell the people had been carried out. This was as Moses had told Joshua. The people hurried to the other side.

Joshua 4:11 As soon as everyone had crossed, the priests with the LORD's ark crossed and went ahead of them.

Joshua 4:12 The men of Reuben, Gad, and half of the tribe of Manasseh did as Moses had told them. They marched across in battle formation ahead of the people of Israel.

Joshua 4:13 About 40,000 armed men crossed the river in front of the LORD to the plains of Jericho for battle.

Joshua 4:14 On that day the LORD honored Joshua in the presence of all the Israelites. As long as Joshua lived, the Israelites respected him in the same way they had respected Moses.

Joshua 4:15 The LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 4:16 "Order the priests who carry the ark of the testimony to come out of the Jordan River."

Joshua 4:17 So Joshua ordered the priests, "Come out of the Jordan."

Joshua 4:18 The priests who carried the ark of the LORD's promise came out of the middle of the Jordan. When their feet stepped onto dry land, the water of the Jordan returned to its seasonal flood level.

Joshua 4:19 On the tenth day of the first month, the people came out of the Jordan River. They made their camp at Gilgal, just east of Jericho.

Joshua 4:20 At Gilgal Joshua set up the 12 stones they had taken from the Jordan.

Joshua 4:21 He said to the people of Israel, "In the future when children ask their parents, 'What do these stones mean?'

Joshua 4:22 the children should be told that Israel crossed the Jordan River on dry ground.

Joshua 4:23 The LORD your God dried up the Jordan ahead of you until you had crossed, as he did to the Red Sea until we had crossed.

Joshua 4:24 The LORD did this so that everyone in the world would know his mighty power and that you would fear the LORD your God every day of your life."

Joshua 5:1 All the Amorite kings west of the Jordan River and all the Canaanite kings along the Mediterranean Sea heard that the LORD had dried up the Jordan River so that the Israelites could cross. So they lost heart and had no courage left to face the people of Israel.

Joshua 5:2 At that time the LORD spoke to Joshua, "Make flint knives, and circumcise the men of Israel."

Joshua 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the men of Israel at the Hill of Circumcision.

Joshua 5:4 This is the reason Joshua circumcised them: All the soldiers had died on the way through the desert after they left Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 The men who left Egypt had been circumcised. However, the men born later, on the way through the desert, were not circumcised.

Joshua 5:6 For 40 years the Israelites wandered through the desert until all their soldiers who left Egypt died. They died because they disobeyed the LORD. The LORD swore that he would not let them see this land flowing with milk and honey which he had sworn to give our ancestors.

Joshua 5:7 The sons who took their place had not been circumcised on the way. So Joshua circumcised them.

Joshua 5:8 When all the men had been circumcised, they remained in the camp until they recovered.

Joshua 5:9 The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have removed the disgrace of Egypt from you.” So Joshua named the place Gilgal, the name it still has today.

Joshua 5:10 The people of Israel camped at Gilgal in the Jericho plain. There they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month.

Joshua 5:11 On the day after the Passover, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened bread and roasted grain.

Joshua 5:12 The day after that, the manna stopped. The people of Israel never had manna again. That year they began to eat the crops that grew in Canaan.

Joshua 5:13 When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, “Are you one of us or one of our enemies?”

Joshua 5:14 He answered, “Neither one! I am here as the commander of the LORD’s army.” Immediately, Joshua bowed with his face touching the ground and worshiped. He asked, “Sir, what do you want to tell me?”

Joshua 5:15 The commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take off your sandals because this place where you are standing is holy.” So Joshua did as he was told.

Joshua 6:1 Jericho was bolted and barred shut because the people were afraid of the Israelites. No one could enter or leave.

Joshua 6:2 The LORD said to Joshua, “I am about to hand Jericho, its king, and its warriors over to you.

Joshua 6:3 All the soldiers will march around the city once a day for six days.

Joshua 6:4 Seven priests will carry rams’ horns ahead of the ark. But on the seventh day you must march around the city seven times while the priests blow their horns.

Joshua 6:5 When you hear a long blast on the horn, all the troops must shout very loudly. The wall around the city will collapse. Then the troops must charge straight ahead into the city.”

Joshua 6:6 Joshua, son of Nun, summoned the priests. He said to them, “Pick up the ark of the promise, and have seven priests carry seven rams’ horns ahead of the LORD’s ark.”

Joshua 6:7 He told the troops, “March around the city. Let the armed men march ahead of the LORD’s ark.”

Joshua 6:8 After Joshua had given orders to the troops, the seven priests carrying the seven rams’ horns ahead of the LORD marched off as they blew their horns. The ark of the LORD’s promise followed them.

Joshua 6:9 The armed men went ahead of the priests, who blew their horns. The rear guard followed the ark while the priests continued to blow their horns.

Joshua 6:10 Joshua ordered the troops, “Don’t shout, make any noise, or let one word come out of your mouth until I tell you to shout. Then shout!”

Joshua 6:11 So the LORD’s ark went around the city once. Then they went back to the camp and stayed there for the night.

Joshua 6:12 Joshua got up early in the morning. The priests carried the LORD’s ark.

Joshua 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven rams’ horns were ahead of it. The priests blew their horns as they went. The armed men were ahead of them, and the rear guard followed the LORD’s ark while the horns blew continually.

Joshua 6:14 They went around the city once on the second day and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

Joshua 6:15 On the seventh day they got up at dawn. They marched around the city seven times the same way they had done it before. That was the only day they marched around it seven times.

Joshua 6:16 When they went around the seventh time, the priests blew their rams’ horns. Joshua said to the troops, “Shout, because the LORD has given you the city!

Joshua 6:17 The city has been claimed by the LORD. Everything in it belongs to the LORD. Only the prostitute Rahab and all who are in the house with her will live because she hid the messengers we sent.

Joshua 6:18 But stay away from what has been claimed by the LORD for destruction, or you, too, will be destroyed by the LORD. If you take anything that is claimed by the LORD, you will bring destruction and disaster on the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:19 All the silver and gold and everything made of bronze and iron are holy and belong to the LORD. They must go into the LORD’s treasury.”

Joshua 6:20 So the troops shouted very loudly when they heard the blast of the rams’ horns, and the wall collapsed. The troops charged straight ahead and captured the city.

Joshua 6:21 They claimed everything in it for the LORD. With their swords they killed men and women, young and old, as well as cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

Joshua 6:22 But Joshua said to the two spies, “Go to the prostitute’s house. Bring the woman out, along with everything she has, as you swore you would do for her.”

Joshua 6:23 The spies went and brought out Rahab, her father, mother, brothers, everything she had, and even all of her relatives. They gave them a place outside the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:24 Then Israel burned the city and everything in it. But they put the silver and gold and everything made of bronze and iron into the LORD’s treasury.

Joshua 6:25 Joshua spared the prostitute Rahab, her father’s family, and everything she had. She still lives in Israel today because she hid the messengers Joshua had sent to look at Jericho.

Joshua 6:26 At that time Joshua pronounced this curse: “The LORD will curse whoever comes to rebuild the city of Jericho. It will cost him his firstborn son to lay the foundation. It will cost him his youngest son to set up the city doors.”

Joshua 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

Joshua 7:1 The people of Israel proved to be disloyal about the things claimed by the LORD. Achan, son of Carmi, grandson of Zabdi, great-grandson of Zerah, and a member of the tribe of Judah, took something that had been claimed by the LORD. So the LORD became angry with the people of Israel.

Joshua 7:2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai. Ai is near Beth Aven, east of Bethel. He said to them, “Go, look at that country.” So the men went and looked at Ai.

Joshua 7:3 They came back to Joshua and told him, “You don’t need to send all the troops. Only about two or three thousand men are needed to destroy Ai. Don’t tire the troops out by sending all of them. There are only a few troops in Ai.”

Joshua 7:4 So about three thousand men were sent. However, they fled from the men of Ai.

Joshua 7:5 The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of them, chasing them from the city gate to the slope of the stone quarries. Israel’s troops lost heart and were scared stiff.

Joshua 7:6 Joshua and the leaders of Israel tore their clothes in grief. They put dust on their heads and bowed down to the ground in front of the LORD’s ark. They stayed there until evening.

Joshua 7:7 Joshua said, “Almighty LORD, why did you bring these people across the Jordan River? Was it to hand us over to the Amorites so that they could destroy us? I wish we had been content to live on the other side of the Jordan!

Joshua 7:8 Lord, what else can I say after Israel ran away from its enemy?

Joshua 7:9 When the Canaanites and everyone who lives in the land hears about it, they will surround us and remove every memory of us from the earth. What will you do then so that your great name [will be remembered]?"

Joshua 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! What are you doing bowing on the ground?

Joshua 7:11 Israel has sinned. They have ignored the requirements that I have placed on them. They have taken what I claimed for myself and put it among their own goods. They have not only stolen, but they have also lied.

Joshua 7:12 "The people of Israel will not be able to defend themselves against their enemies. They will run away from their enemies because the people of Israel are now claimed for destruction. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy what I have claimed for myself.

Joshua 7:13 "Get up! Tell the people, 'Get ready for tomorrow by performing the ceremonies to make yourselves holy. This is what the LORD God of Israel says: You have what I claimed for myself, Israel. You will not be able to defend yourselves against your enemies until you get rid of what I have claimed.

Joshua 7:14 In the morning come forward by tribes [to the tent of meeting]. The tribe the LORD selects will come forward by families. Then the family the LORD selects will come forward by households, and the household the LORD selects will come forward man by man.

Joshua 7:15 The man who is selected, along with everything he has, must be burned because he has [stolen] what the LORD has claimed. He has ignored the LORD's requirements and done a godless thing in Israel.'"

Joshua 7:16 Joshua got up early in the morning. He had Israel come forward by tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected.

Joshua 7:17 Then he had the families of Judah come forward, and the family of Zerah was selected. Then he had the family of Zerah come forward man by man, and Zabdi was selected.

Joshua 7:18 Then he had Zabdi's household come forward man by man, and Achan was selected. Achan from the tribe of Judah was the son of Carmi, grandson of Zabdi, and great-grandson of Zerah.

Joshua 7:19 Joshua said to Achan, "Son, give honor and praise to the LORD God of Israel! Tell me what you have done. Don't hide anything from me."

Joshua 7:20 Then Achan answered Joshua, “It’s true. I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel. This is what I did:

Joshua 7:21 I saw a fine robe from Babylonia, five pounds of silver, and a bar of gold weighing about one pound among the loot. I wanted them, so I took them. You will find them buried inside my tent with the silver beneath them.”

Joshua 7:22 Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. The loot was buried inside with the silver beneath it.

Joshua 7:23 They took the loot from the tent and brought it to Joshua and all the people of Israel. Then they laid it out in the presence of the LORD.

Joshua 7:24 Joshua and all Israel took Achan (son of Zerah), the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, and his tent-everything he had-and brought them to the valley of Achor [Disaster].

Joshua 7:25 Then Joshua said, “Why did you bring this disaster on us? The LORD will bring disaster on you today!” And all Israel stoned Achan and his family to death. Then they burned the bodies and piled stones over them.

Joshua 7:26 They made such a large pile of stones over Achan that it is still there today. Then the LORD withdrew his burning anger. For this reason that place is still called the valley of Achor today.

Joshua 8:1 The LORD said to Joshua, “Don’t be terrified or afraid. Take all the troops with you, and march against Ai. I am about to hand the king of Ai, his people, city, and land over to you.

Joshua 8:2 You will do the same thing to Ai and its king that you did to Jericho and its king. However, you may take its loot and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

Joshua 8:3 So Joshua and all the soldiers started to march against Ai. Joshua picked 30,000 of his best soldiers and sent them out at night

Joshua 8:4 with these orders: “Set an ambush behind the city. Don’t go very far away from the city. Everyone must be ready.

Joshua 8:5 I’ll approach the city with the rest of the troops. When they come out to attack us as they did the first time, we will run away from them.

Joshua 8:6 They’ll come out after us, and we will lure them away from the city. They’ll say, ‘They’re running away from us just like the first time.’ As we run away from them,

Joshua 8:7 you come out of hiding and capture the city. The LORD your God will hand it over to you.

Joshua 8:8 When you have captured the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD says. These are your orders.”

Joshua 8:9 So Joshua sent them out, and they hid. They took their position west of Ai, between Bethel and Ai. Joshua spent the night with the troops.

Joshua 8:10 Joshua got up early in the morning and assembled the troops. Then he and the leaders of Israel led the army to Ai.

Joshua 8:11 All the troops with him marched until they were near the city. They camped north of Ai with the ravine between them and Ai.

Joshua 8:12 Joshua had taken about five thousand men and had them hide between Bethel and Ai, west of the city.

Joshua 8:13 All the troops were positioned. The main camp was north of the city, and the other troops were hiding west of the city. That night Joshua went down into the middle of the valley.

Joshua 8:14 When the king of Ai saw the main camp, he and all his troops got up early in the morning. They rushed out toward the plains to meet Israel for battle, just where [Joshua] expected. However, the king didn't know there were troops behind the city waiting to attack him.

Joshua 8:15 Joshua and all Israel pretended to be defeated. They ran away toward the desert.

Joshua 8:16 All the troops in the city were called out to chase them. As they chased Joshua, they were lured away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 Not one man was left in Ai or Bethel; they all went after Israel. So the city was left unprotected as they chased Israel.

Joshua 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Hold out the spear in your hand toward the city, because I am handing Ai over to you." So Joshua held out his spear.

Joshua 8:19 The men who were hiding got up as soon as he stretched out his hand. They entered the city, captured it, and quickly set it on fire.

Joshua 8:20 When the men of Ai looked back, they could see the city going up in smoke. They had no place to go, since the Israelites, who had been running toward the desert, had now turned back on them.

Joshua 8:21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men who had been hiding had captured the city and that it was going up in smoke, they turned and attacked the men of Ai.

Joshua 8:22 The men who had captured the city also came out and attacked them. The men of Ai were caught between the battle lines of Israel. So Israel attacked them on both sides. None of them survived or escaped.

Joshua 8:23 But they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

Joshua 8:24 Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the fields and in the desert where they had been pursued. They put them all to death; not one person survived. Then the Israelites went back to Ai and killed everyone left there.

Joshua 8:25 Twelve thousand men and women from Ai died that day.

Joshua 8:26 Joshua did not lower his hand holding the spear until he had completely destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

Joshua 8:27 Israel took the loot and the livestock of that city for themselves, as the LORD had commanded Joshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a deserted mound of ruins. It is still in ruins today.

Joshua 8:29 Joshua hung the king of Ai's [dead body] on a pole and left him there until evening. When the sun went down, Joshua gave the order to take his body down. They threw it in the entrance of the city and made a large pile of stones over it. That pile is still there today.

Joshua 8:30 At that time Joshua built an altar on Mount Ebal to the LORD God of Israel.

Joshua 8:31 He built an altar with uncut stones on which no iron chisels had been used. This was as the LORD's servant Moses had commanded the people of Israel in the Book of Moses' Teachings. They made burnt offerings to the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings on the altar.

Joshua 8:32 There in front of the people of Israel he wrote on stone slabs a copy of the Teachings which Moses had written down.

Joshua 8:33 All the people of Israel, whether foreigners or native Israelites, the leaders, officers, and judges were standing on opposite sides of the ark. They faced the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the LORD's promise. Half of the people were in front of Mount Gerizim and the other half in front of Mount Ebal. Right from the beginning, the LORD's servant Moses had commanded the priests to bless the people of Israel this way.

Joshua 8:34 Afterwards, Joshua read all the Teachings-the blessings and curses-as they had all been written down by Moses.

Joshua 8:35 Joshua read [Moses' Teachings] in front of the whole assembly of Israel, including women, children, and foreigners living among them. He did not leave out one word from everything Moses had commanded.

Joshua 9:1 When all the kings west of the Jordan River heard about these events,

Joshua 9:2 they joined together to fight Joshua and Israel. (They were the kings in the mountains, the foothills, and along the whole Mediterranean coast as far as Lebanon, the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.)

Joshua 9:3 When the people living in Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

Joshua 9:4 they devised a scheme. They posed as messengers. They took worn-out sacks on their donkeys. Their wineskins were old, split, and patched.

Joshua 9:5 Their sandals were worn-out and repaired, and their clothes were tattered. All their bread was dried out and crumbling.

Joshua 9:6 They came to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal. They told Joshua and the men of Israel, “We have come from a distant country. Make a treaty with us right now.”

Joshua 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “What if you’re living in this area? We wouldn’t be able to make a treaty with you.”

Joshua 9:8 They responded to Joshua, “We’re at your mercy.” Joshua asked them, “Who are you, and where did you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 They answered him, “We came from a country very far away because the LORD your God has become famous. We heard stories about him and everything he did in Egypt.

Joshua 9:10 We also heard everything he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan in Ashtaroth.

Joshua 9:11 Our leaders and everyone who lives in our country told us, ‘Take what you need for the trip, and go meet them. Tell them, “We’re at your mercy. Make a treaty with us right now.”‘

Joshua 9:12 Our bread was warm when we left home to meet with you. Look at it now! It’s dry and crumbling.

Joshua 9:13 These were new wineskins when we filled them. Look at them now! See how they are splitting! Our clothes and sandals are also worn-out because we have come such a long way.”

Joshua 9:14 The men believed the evidence they were shown, but they did not ask the LORD about it.

Joshua 9:15 So Joshua made peace with them by making a treaty which allowed them to live. The leaders of the congregation swore to it with an oath.

Joshua 9:16 But three days after the treaty was made, the Israelites heard that these people were their neighbors and lived with them.

Joshua 9:17 The Israelites broke camp. They came to the cities of Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim two days later.

Joshua 9:18 The Israelites didn’t destroy these other people, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn an oath about them to the LORD God of Israel. The whole congregation complained about the leaders.

Joshua 9:19 But all the leaders said to them, “We have sworn an oath about them to the LORD God of Israel, so we cannot touch them now.

Joshua 9:20 We must let them live to avoid [the LORD’s] anger because of the oath we swore.”

Joshua 9:21 The leaders said that they should be allowed to live. So they became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole congregation, as the leaders had said.

Joshua 9:22 Joshua sent for the people of Gibeon and asked, “Why did you deceive us by saying, ‘We live very far away from you,’ when you live here with us?

Joshua 9:23 You are under a curse now. You will always be servants. You will be woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.”

Joshua 9:24 They answered Joshua, “We were told that the LORD your God commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and destroy all who live there. We deceived you because we feared for our lives.

Joshua 9:25 Now we’re at your mercy. Do to us what you think is good and right.”

Joshua 9:26 So Joshua rescued them and did not let the people of Israel kill them.

Joshua 9:27 But that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation. They served the LORD’s altar, wherever he chose to put it. They still serve today.

Joshua 10:1 King Adoni Zedek of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai and claimed it for the LORD the same way he had destroyed Jericho and its king. He also heard that the people of Gibeon had made peace with the people of Israel and were living with them.

Joshua 10:2 He and his people were terribly afraid because Gibeon was a large city. It was like one of the royal cities, larger than Ai. All its men were warriors.

Joshua 10:3 So King Adoni Zedek of Jerusalem sent [this message] to King Hoham of Hebron, King Piram of Jarmuth, King Japhia of Lachish, and King Debir of Eglon:

Joshua 10:4 “Come, help me destroy Gibeon because it has made peace with Joshua and the people of Israel.”

Joshua 10:5 So the five Amorite kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon combined their armies. They marched to Gibeon, camped there, and attacked it.

Joshua 10:6 The men of Gibeon sent this message to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal: “Don’t abandon us! Come quickly, and save us. Help us because all the Amorite kings who live in the mountains have united against us.”

Joshua 10:7 So Joshua, with all his soldiers and best warriors, set out from Gilgal.

Joshua 10:8 The LORD told Joshua, “Don’t be afraid of them. I have handed them over to you. None of them can stand up to you.”

Joshua 10:9 So Joshua marched all night from Gilgal and took them by surprise.

Joshua 10:10 The LORD threw the enemy into disorder in front of Israel and defeated them decisively at Gibeon. He chased them along the road that goes to the slope of Beth Horon and continued to defeat them all the way to Azekah and Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 As they fled from the Israelites down the slope of Beth Horon toward Azekah, the LORD threw huge hailstones on them. More died from the hailstones than from Israelite swords.

Joshua 10:12 The day the LORD handed the Amorites over to the people of Israel, Joshua spoke to the LORD while Israel was watching, “Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and moon, stand still over the valley of Aijalon!”

Joshua 10:13 The sun stood still, and the moon stopped until a nation got revenge on its enemies. Isn’t this recorded in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in the middle of the sky, and for nearly a day the sun was in no hurry to set.

Joshua 10:14 Never before or after this day was there anything like it. The LORD did what a man told him to do, because the LORD fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:15 Then Joshua and all Israel returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 The five kings ran away and hid in the cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:17 Someone told Joshua, “The five kings have been found. They are hiding in the cave at Makkedah.”

Joshua 10:18 Joshua replied, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and post a guard there.

Joshua 10:19 But don’t stop. Chase your enemies! Cut off their rear guard. Don’t let them get back into their own cities, because the LORD your God has handed them over to you.”

Joshua 10:20 Joshua and the Israelites defeated them decisively, almost destroying them. But some who survived got back into the fortified cities.

Joshua 10:21 Then the whole army returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah. Not a single person dared to speak against any of the Israelites.

Joshua 10:22 Joshua said, “Open the cave, and bring me the five kings!”

Joshua 10:23 So they brought him the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 When they brought them to Joshua, he called for all the men of Israel. He told the officers who had gone with him, “Come forward and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So that’s what they did.

Joshua 10:25 Joshua told them, “Don’t be afraid or terrified! Be strong and courageous, because this is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you’re fighting against.”

Joshua 10:26 After this, Joshua put them to death and hung their bodies on five poles until evening.

Joshua 10:27 When the sun went down, Joshua gave the order to take them down from the poles. Then they threw them into the cave where they had been hiding and put large stones over the mouth of the cave. These stones are still there today.

Joshua 10:28 That same day Joshua captured Makkedah, and the Israelites killed its people and king with swords. He claimed them for the LORD by destroying them. There were no survivors. He did the same thing to the king of Makkedah that he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:29 Joshua and all Israel marched from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it.

Joshua 10:30 The LORD also handed Libnah and its king over to Israel. He killed all the people. There were no survivors. He did the same thing to the king of Libnah that he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:31 Joshua and all Israel marched from Libnah to Lachish, camped there, and attacked it.

Joshua 10:32 The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel. He captured it on the next day and killed all the people, the same way he had captured Libnah.

Joshua 10:33 At that time King Horam of Gezer had come to help Lachish. But Joshua killed him and his troops. There were no survivors.

Joshua 10:34 Joshua and all Israel marched from Lachish to Eglon, camped there, and attacked it.

Joshua 10:35 They captured it that day and killed everyone in it. He claimed it for the LORD by destroying it the same way he had destroyed Lachish.

Joshua 10:36 Then Joshua and all Israel marched from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it.

Joshua 10:37 They captured it and its neighboring villages and killed its king and all the people. There were no survivors, the same as at Eglon. He claimed the city and all its people for the LORD by destroying them.

Joshua 10:38 Then Joshua and all Israel went back to Debir and attacked it.

Joshua 10:39 He captured it and its king and all its neighboring villages and killed everyone. So they claimed them all for the LORD by destroying them. There were no survivors. He did the same thing to Debir and its king that he had done to Hebron and Libnah and their kings.

Joshua 10:40 So Joshua captured the whole land-the mountains, the Negev, the foothills, and the slopes. There were no survivors. He claimed every living creature for the LORD by destroying it, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

Joshua 10:41 So Joshua defeated the people from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from all the country of Goshen as far as Gibeon.

Joshua 10:42 Joshua captured all these kings and their territories in one campaign because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:43 Then Joshua and all Israel returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 King Jabin of Hazor heard [what had happened]. So he sent messengers to King Jobab of Madon and to the kings of Shimron and Achshaph.

Joshua 11:2 He also sent messengers to the northern kings in the mountains, the plains south of Chinneroth, the foothills, and Naphoth Dor in the west,

Joshua 11:3 the Canaanites from east and west, the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, the Jebusites in the mountains, and the Hivites at the foot of Mount Hermon in Mizpah.

Joshua 11:4 They came out with all their armies. Their troops were as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore. They also had horses and chariots.

Joshua 11:5 All these kings camped together by the Springs of Merom in order to fight Israel.

Joshua 11:6 The LORD told Joshua, “Don’t be afraid of them because I am going to give them to Israel. About this time tomorrow they will all be dead. You must disable their horses so that they cannot be used in battle. You must burn their chariots.”

Joshua 11:7 Joshua and all his troops arrived suddenly at the Springs of Merom and attacked the Canaanite armies.

Joshua 11:8 The LORD handed them over to Israel, and the Israelites defeated them. The Israelites chased them as far as Great Sidon, Misrephoth Maim, and the valley of Mizpah in the east. There were no survivors.

Joshua 11:9 Joshua disabled their horses and burned their chariots, as the LORD had told him.

Joshua 11:10 Then Joshua turned back and captured Hazor. He killed its king with a sword. (Hazor was formerly the head of all these kingdoms.)

Joshua 11:11 They claimed everyone for the LORD by destroying them with swords. Not one person survived. Joshua also burned Hazor.

Joshua 11:12 So Joshua captured all these cities and their kings. He claimed them for the LORD by destroying them, as the LORD's servant Moses had commanded him.

Joshua 11:13 Israel did not burn cities built on mounds. However, Joshua made an exception and burned Hazor.

Joshua 11:14 The people of Israel took all the loot and livestock from these cities. But they put everyone to death until they were all destroyed. Not one person survived.

Joshua 11:15 So Joshua carried out what the LORD had commanded his servant Moses and what Moses had commanded him. He did not leave out anything the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:16 Joshua took all this land, the mountains, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the foothills, the plains, and the mountains and foothills of Israel.

Joshua 11:17 The land extended from Mount Halak which ascends to Seir as far as Baal Gad in the Lebanon Valley at the foot of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and killed them.

Joshua 11:18 Joshua waged war with all these kings for a long time.

Joshua 11:19 Not one city had made a peace treaty with the people of Israel except Gibeon, where the Hivites lived. Israel captured everything in battle.

Joshua 11:20 The LORD made their enemies stubborn enough to continue fighting against Israel so that he could claim them all for destruction without mercy, as he had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:21 At that time Joshua also wiped out the people of Anak in the mountains, in Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and in all the hills of Judah and Israel. Joshua claimed them for the LORD by destroying them and their cities.

Joshua 11:22 None of the people of Anak remained in Israel. Some of them were left in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

Joshua 11:23 Joshua captured the whole land as the LORD had promised Moses. He gave it to Israel as a possession, dividing it among the tribes. So the land had peace.

Joshua 12:1 These are the kings of the land east of the Jordan River that the people of Israel defeated. Israel also took possession of their lands from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern plains.

Joshua 12:2 Sihon was the Amorite king who lived in Heshbon. His rule extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley to the Jabbok River, which is the border of Ammon. This included the middle of the valley and half of Gilead.

Joshua 12:3 It included the eastern plains from the Sea of Galilee to the Sea of the Plains (the Dead Sea) and the road that goes south from Beth Jeshimoth to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

Joshua 12:4 The territory of King Og of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei was captured. He was the last of the Rephaim.

Joshua 12:5 He ruled Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of Geshur and Maacath, and half of Gilead to the border of King Sihon of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 The LORD's servant Moses and the people of Israel defeated them. Then he gave their land as a possession to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 12:7 These are the kings of the land west of the Jordan River that Joshua and the people of Israel defeated. [Their lands extended] from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak which rises toward Seir. Joshua gave it as a possession to Israel, dividing it among the tribes.

Joshua 12:8 It included the mountains, foothills, plains, slopes, desert, and the Negev [that the] Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites [had possessed]. The kings were

Joshua 12:9 the king of Jericho, the king of Ai (near Bethel),

Joshua 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron,

Joshua 12:11 the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish,

Joshua 12:12 the king of Eglon, the king of Gezer,

Joshua 12:13 the king of Debir, the king of Geder,

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah, the king of Arad,

Joshua 12:15 the king of Libnah, the king of Adullam,

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah, the king of Bethel,

Joshua 12:17 the king of Tappuah, the king of Hepher,

Joshua 12:18 the king of Aphek, the king of Sharon,

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon, the king of Hazor, Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron, the king of Achshaph,

Joshua 12:21 the king of Taanach, the king of Megiddo,

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh, the king of Jokneam in Carmel,

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor in Naphoth Dor, the king of Goiim in Gilgal,

Joshua 12:24 the king of Tirzah. The total was 31 kings.

Joshua 13:1 Joshua was old, near the end of his life. So the LORD said to him, "You are old, near the end of your life, and there is a lot of land left to be conquered.

Joshua 13:2 The land that is left includes all the districts that belong to the Philistines and Geshur.

Joshua 13:3 It extends from the Shihor River, east of Egypt, northward as far as the border of Ekron. This is considered to be Canaanite territory, even though there are five Philistine rulers over Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron, as well as the Avvim people

Joshua 13:4 in the south. This territory includes all the land of the Canaanites as well as Mearah which belongs to Sidon as far as Aphek, the Amorite border.

Joshua 13:5 It also includes the land of the people of Gebal, all Lebanon eastward from Baal Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to the border of Hamath.

Joshua 13:6 I will force out of the way of the people of Israel everyone who lives in the mountains from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim and all the people of Sidon. However, you must distribute the land as an inheritance to Israel by drawing lots, as I commanded you.

Joshua 13:7 So divide this land. It will be an inheritance for the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh."

Joshua 13:8 The tribes of Reuben and Gad with half of the tribe of Manasseh had received their inheritance east of the Jordan River, since the LORD's servant Moses had already given it to them.

Joshua 13:9 The border extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, including the city in the middle of the valley, and the whole plateau from Medeba to Dibon.

Joshua 13:10 It included all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites up to the border of Ammon. Sihon's capital was Heshbon.

Joshua 13:11 It also included Gilead, the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacath, all of Mount Hermon, and all of Bashan as far as Salecah

Joshua 13:12 (the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan). Og ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. He was the last of the Rephaim. Moses had defeated them and forced them out.

Joshua 13:13 But the Israelites did not force out the people of Geshur and Maacath. So they still live in Israel today.

Joshua 13:14 Moses did not give any land as an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The sacrifices offered to the LORD God of Israel are what the Levites inherited, as the LORD had promised them.

Joshua 13:15 Moses gave some land as an inheritance to the tribe of Reuben for their families.

Joshua 13:16 Their territory extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, including the city in the middle of the valley and the whole plateau near Medeba.

Joshua 13:17 It included Heshbon and all its cities on the plateau, Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,

Joshua 13:18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Joshua 13:19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the mountain in the valley,

Joshua 13:20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth.

Joshua 13:21 It also included all the cities of the plateau, the whole kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon. Moses defeated him and Midian’s leaders-Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. They were princes of Sihon, who lived in that country.

Joshua 13:22 Along with these leaders, the people of Israel also killed Balaam, son of Beor, who used black magic.

Joshua 13:23 The border of Reuben’s territory was the Jordan River. This was Reuben’s inheritance for its families. It included cities with their villages.

Joshua 13:24 Moses gave some land as an inheritance to the tribe of Gad for its families.

Joshua 13:25 Their territory included Jazer, all the cities of Gilead, and half of Ammon as far as Aroer, which is by Rabbah.

Joshua 13:26 It extended from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim as far as the border of Lidbir.

Joshua 13:27 In the Jordan Valley it included Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon. The Jordan River served as its western border, extending to the end of the Sea of Galilee.

Joshua 13:28 This was Gad’s inheritance for its families. It included cities with their villages.

Joshua 13:29 Moses gave some land as an inheritance to half of the tribe of Manasseh. It was only for the families of that half of the tribe.

Joshua 13:30 Their territory extended from Mahanaim and included all of Bashan (the whole kingdom of King Og of Bashan) and all 60 settlements of Jair that were in Bashan.

Joshua 13:31 It also included half of Gilead with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the royal cities of Og in Bashan. They were given to half the families of Machir, son of Manasseh, [for their inheritance].

Joshua 13:32 This is the land that Moses distributed on Moab’s plains, east of the Jordan River near Jericho.

Joshua 13:33 Moses did not give any land as an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The LORD God of Israel is what they inherited, as he had promised them.

Joshua 14:1 This is the land that the people of Israel inherited in Canaan. The priest Eleazar, Joshua (son of Nun), and the heads of Israel’s tribes distributed it to the people.

Joshua 14:2 The land inherited by the nine-and-a-half tribes was determined by drawing lots as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 14:3 Moses had given the two-and-a-half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan River. He did not give any land as an inheritance to Levi’s tribe,

Joshua 14:4 because Joseph’s descendants, Manasseh and Ephraim, formed two tribes. The Levites were not given a share of the land. Joseph’s descendants gave the Levites cities to live in with pasturelands for their cattle and everything they had.

Joshua 14:5 So the people of Israel divided the land as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 14:6 Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb, son of Jephunneh and grandson of Kenaz, said to him, “You know what the LORD said to Moses, the man of God, at Kadesh Barnea about you and me.

Joshua 14:7 I was 40 years old when the LORD’s servant Moses sent me from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land. I reported to him exactly what I thought.

Joshua 14:8 But my companions discouraged the people. However, I was completely loyal to the LORD my God.

Joshua 14:9 On that day Moses swore this oath: ‘The land your feet walked on will be a permanent inheritance for you and your descendants because you were completely loyal to the LORD my God.’

Joshua 14:10 “So look at me. The LORD has kept me alive as he promised. It’s been 45 years since Israel wandered in the desert when the LORD made this promise to Moses. So now look at me today. I’m 85 years old.

Joshua 14:11 I’m still as fit to go to war now as I was when Moses sent me out.

Joshua 14:12 Now give me this mountain region which the LORD spoke of that day. You heard that the people of Anak are still there and that they have large, fortified cities. If the LORD is with me, I can force them out, as he promised.”

Joshua 14:13 So Joshua blessed Caleb, son of Jephunneh, and gave him Hebron as his inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 Hebron is still the inheritance of Caleb, son of Jephunneh and grandson of Kenaz, because Caleb was completely loyal to the LORD God of Israel.

Joshua 14:15 In the past Hebron was called Kiriath Arba. Arba was the greatest man among the people of Anak. So the land had peace.

Joshua 15:1 The lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Judah. Their territory extends as far south as the territory of Edom and the desert of Zin.

Joshua 15:2 The southern border starts from the south end of the Dead Sea

Joshua 15:3 and goes south of the Akrabbim Pass. It then passes Zin and goes up south of Kadesh Barnea. From there it goes to Hezron, up to Addar, around to Karka, Joshua 15:4 and on to Azmon. It comes out at the River of Egypt so that the border ends at the Mediterranean Sea. This is the southern border.

Joshua 15:5 The eastern border is the Dead Sea as far north as the mouth of the Jordan River. The northern border starts from the north end of the Dead Sea at the mouth of the Jordan

Joshua 15:6 and goes up to Beth Hoglah. It then passes north to Beth Arabah and goes up to the Rock of Bohan, son of Reuben.

Joshua 15:7 From the valley of Achor, the border goes up to Debir and turns north to the region that faces the Adummim Pass, south of the valley. Then the border passes the Springs of En Shemesh and ends at En Rogel.

Joshua 15:8 It continues up the valley of Ben Hinnom to the south slope of the Jebusite city Jerusalem. It then goes to the top of the mountain that overlooks the valley of Hinnom to the west at the north end of the valley of Rephaim.

Joshua 15:9 From the top of that mountain the border goes around to the spring of Nephtoah. From there it goes to the cities of Mount Ephron and around to Baalah (now called Kiriath Jearim).

Joshua 15:10 From Baalah the border turns west to Mount Seir and over to the north slope of Mount Jearim (now called Chesalon). Then it goes down to Beth Shemesh and on to Timnah.

Joshua 15:11 From there the border goes on the north side of Ekron and turns to Shikkeron, on to Mount Baalah, and comes out at Jabneel. The border ends at the Mediterranean Sea.

Joshua 15:12 The western border is the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea. These are the borders around Judah that belong to their families.

Joshua 15:13 Joshua gave Caleb, son of Jephunneh, a share of land among the people of Judah as the LORD had told them. It was Kiriath Arba (now called Hebron). Arba was the father of Anak.

Joshua 15:14 Caleb forced out Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, three descendants of Anak from Hebron.

Joshua 15:15 From there he marched against the people living in Debir. (In the past Debir was called Kiriath Sepher.)

Joshua 15:16 Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Achsah as a wife to anyone who attacks Kiriath Sepher and captures it.”

Joshua 15:17 Then Othniel, son of Caleb’s brother Kenaz, captured it. So Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife.

Joshua 15:18 When she came to Othniel, she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. When she got down from her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What do you want?”

Joshua 15:19 She answered, “Give me a blessing. Since you’ve given me some dry land, also give me some springs.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Joshua 15:20 This is the land inherited by the families of the tribe of Judah.

Joshua 15:21 On the farthest edge of the Negev, on the border of Edom, they gave the tribe of Judah 29 cities with their villages: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Joshua 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Joshua 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Joshua 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Joshua 15:25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (now called Hazor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Joshua 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,

Joshua 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,

Joshua 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Joshua 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Joshua 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon.

Joshua 15:33 In the foothills they gave Judah 14 cities with their villages: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, Joshua 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim.

Joshua 15:37 They also gave Judah 16 other cities with their villages: Zenan, Hadashah, Migdalgad,

Joshua 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,

Joshua 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Chitlish,

Joshua 15:41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah.

Joshua 15:42 An additional nine cities with their villages were given to Judah: Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,

Joshua 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah.

Joshua 15:45 Judah also received Ekron with its cities and villages.

Joshua 15:46 This included all the cities with their villages between Ekron and the Mediterranean Sea and alongside Ashdod.

Joshua 15:47 Added to this were Ashdod and Gaza with their cities and villages as far as the River of Egypt and the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.

Joshua 15:48 In the mountains they gave Judah 11 cities with their villages: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,

Joshua 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (now called Debir),

Joshua 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

Joshua 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh.

Joshua 15:52 They also gave Judah nine other cities with their villages: Arab, Dumah, Eshan,

Joshua 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

Joshua 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba (now called Hebron), and Zior.

Joshua 15:55 They also received another ten cities with their villages: Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

Joshua 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

Joshua 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah.

Joshua 15:58 Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor,

Joshua 15:59 Maarath, Bethanoth, and Eltekon were six other cities with their villages that were given to Judah.

Joshua 15:60 The two cities of Kiriath Baal (now called Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah with their villages [were given to Judah].

Joshua 15:61 In the desert Judah was given six cities with their villages: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah, Joshua 15:62 Nibshan, Ir Hamelah, and En Gedi.

Joshua 15:63 However, Judah was not able to force out the people of Jebus who lived in Jerusalem. So they still live with Judah in Jerusalem today.

Joshua 16:1 The lot was drawn for Joseph. The border of Joseph's territory goes from the Jordan River at Jericho to the springs of Jericho on the east, through the desert that goes up from Jericho, and through the mountains to Bethel.

Joshua 16:2 From Bethel the border goes to Luz and over to Ataroth at the border of the Archites.

Joshua 16:3 Then it descends west to the border of Japhlet and Lower Beth Horon, on to Gezer, and ends at the Mediterranean Sea.

Joshua 16:4 So Joseph's sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, received this land as their inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 This is the territory for the families descended from Ephraim. The eastern border of the land they inherited is from Ataroth Addar to Upper Beth Horon.

Joshua 16:6 From there the border goes west, with Michmethath on the north. The border then turns east to Taanath Shiloh and passes east to Janoah.

Joshua 16:7 From Janoah it descends to Ataroth and Naarah, touches Jericho, and ends at the Jordan River.

Joshua 16:8 At Tappuah the border goes west along the Kanah River and ends at the Mediterranean Sea. This is the land given as an inheritance to the families of the tribe of Ephraim Joshua 16:9 with all the cities and their villages selected for Ephraim in Manasseh's territory.

Joshua 16:10 However, they did not force out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. So the Canaanites still live in Ephraim today, but they are required to do forced labor.

Joshua 17:1 The lot was drawn for the tribe of Manasseh, because Manasseh was Joseph's firstborn. Machir, Manasseh's firstborn, the ancestor of the people living in Gilead, had received Gilead and Bashan because he was a soldier.

Joshua 17:2 The land was given to the rest of the families descended from Manasseh, to the descendants of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These were the male descendants of Joseph's son Manasseh listed by their families.

Joshua 17:3 Zelophehad, son of Hepher, grandson of Gilead, and great-grandson of Machir, whose father was Manasseh, had no sons-only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Joshua 17:4 They came to the priest Eleazar, Joshua (son of Nun), and the leaders. They said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us some land as an inheritance among our male relatives." So they gave them an inheritance among their father's relatives as the LORD had required.

Joshua 17:5 Ten portions of land went to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan River.

Joshua 17:6 These portions were distributed because Manasseh's daughters were given an inheritance along with his sons, while Gilead belonged to Manasseh's other descendants.

Joshua 17:7 Manasseh's border extends from Asher to Michmethath, which faces Shechem. Then the border goes south toward the people who live in En Tappuah.

Joshua 17:8 (The land of Tappuah belongs to Manasseh, but Tappuah itself, on the border of Manasseh, belongs to Ephraim.)

Joshua 17:9 The border then descends southward to the Kanah River. These cities belong to Ephraim, although they are among Manasseh's cities. Manasseh's [southern] border is the river, which ends at the Mediterranean Sea.

Joshua 17:10 What is south [of the river] belongs to Ephraim, and what is north [of it] belongs to Manasseh. So the Mediterranean Sea [is its western border], Asher its northern border, and Issachar its eastern border.

Joshua 17:11 In Issachar and Asher, Manasseh possessed Beth Shean and Ibleam with their villages and the people living in Dor, En Dor, Taanach, and Megiddo and their villages. The last three are on mountain ridges.

Joshua 17:12 But Manasseh was not able to take possession of these cities since the Canaanites were determined to stay in this land.

Joshua 17:13 When the Israelites became strong enough, they made the Canaanites do forced labor, since they didn't force all of them out.

Joshua 17:14 Joseph's descendants asked Joshua, "Why did you give us only one region for an inheritance? We have a lot of people because the LORD has blessed us."

Joshua 17:15 Joshua replied, "If there are so many of you, go into the forest! Clear ground for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaim if the mountains of Ephraim are too confining for you."

Joshua 17:16 Joseph's descendants responded, "The mountains are not enough for us either. Besides, all the Canaanites living in the valley, in Beth Shean and its villages, and in the valley of Jezreel have chariots made of iron."

Joshua 17:17 Then Joshua said to the descendants of Joseph, [the tribes of] Ephraim and Manasseh, "You are an important and very powerful people. One region is really not enough for you.

Joshua 17:18 The mountain region will be yours as well. It is a forest, so you will have to clear it. All of it will be yours. But you must force out the Canaanites, even though they are strong and have chariots made of iron.”

Joshua 18:1 The whole congregation of Israel gathered at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there. The land was under their control.

Joshua 18:2 There were still seven tribes in Israel who had not yet received any land as their inheritance.

Joshua 18:3 So Joshua asked the Israelites, “How long are you going to waste time conquering the land which the LORD God of your ancestors has given you?

Joshua 18:4 Choose three men from each tribe, and I will send them out. They will survey the land and write a description of it which shows [the borders of] their inheritance. Then they will come back to me.

Joshua 18:5 They will divide the land into seven parts. Judah will stay within its territory in the south, and Joseph’s descendants will stay within their territory in the north.

Joshua 18:6 You must describe the seven parts of the land and report to me here. I will draw lots for you here in the presence of the LORD our God.

Joshua 18:7 Levi’s tribe has no separate region among you, because their inheritance is to serve the LORD as priests. The tribes of Gad and Reuben and half of the tribe of Manasseh have received the inheritance that the LORD’s servant Moses gave them on the east side of the Jordan River.”

Joshua 18:8 As the men got ready to go, Joshua ordered them to write a description of the land. He said, “Go survey the land. Write a description of it, and return to me. Then I will draw lots for you in the presence of the LORD here in Shiloh.”

Joshua 18:9 The men surveyed the land. They described it in a book. The land was divided into seven parts according to its cities. Then they returned to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.

Joshua 18:10 So Joshua drew lots for them in the presence of the LORD in Shiloh. There Joshua divided the land among the tribes of Israel.

Joshua 18:11 The lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Their territory lies between Judah’s and Joseph’s.

Joshua 18:12 Their northern border starts at the Jordan, goes up the slope north of Jericho, west through the mountains, and ends at the desert of Beth Aven.

Joshua 18:13 From there the border goes to the south slope of Luz (now called Bethel). Then the border goes down to Ataroth Addar over the mountains south of Lower Beth Horon.

Joshua 18:14 The border turns and goes around on the west side, south of the mountain that faces Beth Horon, and ends at Kiriath Baal (now called Kiriath Jearim), a city of Judah.

Joshua 18:15 The southern border begins just outside Kiriath Jearim and goes west, to the springs of Nephtoah.

Joshua 18:16 Then the border descends to the foot of the mountain that overlooks the valley of Ben Hinnom, in the north end of the valley of Rephaim. It descends to the valley of Hinnom, to the south slope of the city of Jebus, and down to En Rogel.

Joshua 18:17 Then it turns north and goes to En Shemesh and from there to the region opposite the Adummim Pass. It descends to the Rock of Bohan, son of Reuben.

Joshua 18:18 Then it continues on to the north side of the slope facing the plains and down into the plains.

Joshua 18:19 The border continues to the north slope of Beth Hoglah and ends at the northern bay of the Dead Sea at the south end of the Jordan River. This is its southern border.

Joshua 18:20 The Jordan River is its eastern border. These are the borders surrounding the inheritance given to Benjamin for its families.

Joshua 18:21 These are the 12 cities with their villages that belong to the tribe of Benjamin for its families: Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Joshua 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Joshua 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Joshua 18:24 Chephar Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba.

Joshua 18:25 There were 14 other cities with their villages: Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Joshua 18:26 Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah,

Joshua 18:27 Rekem, Ir Peel, Taralah,

Joshua 18:28 Zela, Eleph, Jebus (now called Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath. This is Benjamin’s inheritance for its families.

Joshua 19:1 The second lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Simeon. Their inheritance was within Judah.

Joshua 19:2 In their inheritance they received 13 cities and their villages: Beersheba (Sheba), Moladah,

Joshua 19:3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,

Joshua 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,

Joshua 19:6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen.

Joshua 19:7 There were four other cities with their villages: Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan.

Joshua 19:8 All the villages around these cities as far as Baalath Beer and Ramath Negev were also included. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon for its families.

Joshua 19:9 Simeon’s inheritance was a part of Judah’s because Judah had more land than it needed. So Simeon received its inheritance inside Judah’s borders.

Joshua 19:10 The third lot was drawn for the families descended from Zebulun. The border of their inheritance goes as far as Sarid.

Joshua 19:11 Toward the west the border ascends to Maralah and touches Dabbesheth and the river near Jokneam.

Joshua 19:12 But from Sarid it turns directly east toward the border of Chisloth Tabor, on to Daberath, and then ascends toward Japhia.

Joshua 19:13 From there it goes directly east to Gath Hepher, Eth Kazin, and Rimmon, where it turns to Neah.

Joshua 19:14 There the border turns north to Hannathon and ends at the valley of Iphtah El.

Joshua 19:15 This also includes Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem. There were 12 cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:16 These cities with their villages are the inheritance given to the families descended from Zebulun.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot was drawn for the families descended from Issachar.

Joshua 19:18 Their territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Joshua 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Joshua 19:21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.

Joshua 19:22 The border touches Tabor, Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh and ends at the Jordan River. There were 16 cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:23 These cities with their villages are the inheritance for the families of the tribe of Issachar.

Joshua 19:24 The fifth lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Asher.

Joshua 19:25 Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,

Joshua 19:26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal. The border touches Carmel and Shihor Libnath in the west.

Joshua 19:27 Then it turns east to Beth Dagon and touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtah El in the north and goes to Beth Emek and Neiel. From there it goes northward to Cabul, Joshua 19:28 Abdon, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, and as far as Great Sidon.

Joshua 19:29 Then it turns at Ramah and goes on to the fortified city of Tyre. The border then turns to Hosah and ends at the Mediterranean Sea. The territory includes Meheleb, Achzib, Joshua 19:30 Umma, Acco, Aphek, and Rehob. There were 22 cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:31 These cities with their villages are the inheritance for the families of the tribe of Asher.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot was drawn for the families descended from the tribe of Naphtali.

Joshua 19:33 Their border starts from Heleph at the oak tree at Zaanannim. It continues to Adami Nekeb, Jabneel, to Lakkum, and ends at the Jordan River.

Joshua 19:34 The border turns west to Aznoth Tabor, and from there to Hukok. It touches Zebulun in the south, Asher in the west, and Judah in the east at the Jordan.

Joshua 19:35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

Joshua 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Joshua 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

Joshua 19:38 Yiron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemeth. There were 19 cities with their villages.

Joshua 19:39 These cities with their villages are the inheritance for the families of the tribe of Naphtali.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Dan.

Joshua 19:41 The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Joshua 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Joshua 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

Joshua 19:46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border passing in front of Joppa.

Joshua 19:47 The border of Dan extended beyond them. Dan's descendants went up and attacked Leshem, captured it, and killed everyone there. They took it, settled there, and renamed the city Dan after their ancestor Dan.

Joshua 19:48 These cities with their villages are the inheritance for the families of the tribe of Dan.

Joshua 19:49 When they all had finally received the land they were to inherit, the people of Israel also gave land within their territory as an inheritance to Joshua, son of Nun.

Joshua 19:50 They gave him the city he asked for, as the LORD had instructed them to do. It was Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim. He rebuilt the city and lived there.

Joshua 19:51 This is the land that the tribes of Israel drew by lot. The priest Eleazar, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of the families divided the land by drawing lots. They did this in Shiloh in the presence of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20:1 The LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 20:2 "Tell the people of Israel, 'Now choose for yourselves the cities of refuge about which I spoke to you through Moses.

Joshua 20:3 Choose them so that anyone who unintentionally kills someone may run to them. They will be a place of refuge from any relative who can avenge the death.

Joshua 20:4 " 'A person who kills someone accidentally can run to one of these cities. There he will stand at the entrance to the city, where court is held, and present his case to the leaders of that city. Then they will take him into their city and give him a place to live with them.

Joshua 20:5 " 'If the relative who can avenge the death pursues him, the leaders must not hand him over to the relative because he didn't intend to kill the other person. He didn't even hate the person he killed.

Joshua 20:6 The accused person may remain in that city until he can stand trial in front of the congregation or until whoever is chief priest at that time dies. Then he may go back to his home in the city from which he ran away.'"

Joshua 20:7 Kedesh in Galilee in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (now called Hebron) in the mountains of Judah were chosen as cities of refuge.

Joshua 20:8 Bezer on the desert plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh were chosen as cities of refuge on the east side of the Jordan River, east of Jericho.

Joshua 20:9 These are the cities chosen as cities of refuge for all Israelites, including the foreigners living among them. Anyone who accidentally kills someone may escape to these cities. Then he will not be handed over to the relative who can avenge a death before he stands trial in front of the congregation.

Joshua 21:1 Then the leaders of the families of Levi came to the priest Eleazar, to Joshua (son of Nun), and to the leaders of the families of the other Israelite tribes

Joshua 21:2 at Shiloh in Canaan. They said to them, “The LORD commanded through Moses that we should receive cities to live in and pasturelands for our livestock.”

Joshua 21:3 So, as the LORD had instructed, Levi’s descendants were given the following cities with pasturelands from the Israelites’ inheritance.

Joshua 21:4 These are the cities for the families of Kohath that were chosen by drawing lots. These descendants of the priest Aaron the Levite received 13 cities from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of Kohath’s descendants received 10 cities from the families of the tribes of Ephraim and Dan and half of the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 21:6 Gershon’s descendants received 13 cities from the families of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and half of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 Merari’s descendants received 12 cities for their families from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

Joshua 21:8 The Israelites gave these cities with pasturelands to Levi’s descendants by drawing lots, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 21:9 These are the names of the cities from the tribes of Judah and Simeon

Joshua 21:10 that they gave Aaron’s descendants who were from the families of Kohath in the tribe of Levi. Their lot was the first one drawn.

Joshua 21:11 They gave them Kiriath Arba (Arba was Anak’s father) and the pastureland around it. This is the city of Hebron located in the mountains of Judah.

Joshua 21:12 But they gave its fields and villages to Caleb, son of Jephunneh, as his possession.

Joshua 21:13 So they gave the following cities with pasturelands to the descendants of Aaron, the priest. The nine cities from those two tribes were Hebron (a city of refuge for murderers), Libnah,

Joshua 21:14 Jattir, Eshtemoa,

Joshua 21:15 Holon, Debir,

Joshua 21:16 Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh.

Joshua 21:17 The tribe of Benjamin also gave them four cities: Gibeon, Geba,

Joshua 21:18 Anathoth, and Almon.

Joshua 21:19 In all, 13 cities with pasturelands were given to the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Joshua 21:20 Cities were chosen by lot from the tribe of Ephraim to give to the rest of Levi's descendants who were from the families of Kohath.

Joshua 21:21 These four cities with pasturelands were Shechem (a city of refuge for murderers) in the mountains of Ephraim, Gezer, Joshua 21:22 Kibzaim, and Beth Horon.

Joshua 21:23 The tribe of Dan gave them four cities: Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Joshua 21:24 Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon.

Joshua 21:25 Half of the tribe of Manasseh gave them two cities with pasturelands: Taanach and Gath Rimmon.

Joshua 21:26 In all, ten cities with pasturelands were given to the rest of the families of Kohath.

Joshua 21:27 They gave the families of Gershon's descendants, who were in the tribe of Levi, two cities with pasturelands from half of the tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for murderers) and Ashtaroth.

Joshua 21:28 Four cities with pasturelands were also given to them from the tribe of Issachar: Kishion, Daberath, Joshua 21:29 Jarmuth, and En Gannim.

Joshua 21:30 Another four cities with pasturelands were given to them from the tribe of Asher: Mishal, Abdon,

Joshua 21:31 Helkath, and Rehob.

Joshua 21:32 Also three cities with pasturelands were given to them from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for murderers), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan.

Joshua 21:33 In all, 13 cities with pasturelands were given to Gershon's families.

Joshua 21:34 To the families of Merari, who were from the tribe of Levi, the tribe of Zebulun gave four cities with pasturelands: Jokneam, Kartah, Joshua 21:35 Dimnah, and Nahalal.

Joshua 21:36 The tribe of Reuben also gave them four cities with pasturelands: Bezer, Jahaz,

Joshua 21:37 Kedemoth, and Mephaath.

Joshua 21:38 The tribe of Gad also gave them four cities with pasturelands: Ramoth in Gilead (a city of refuge for murderers), Mahanaim,

Joshua 21:39 Heshbon, and Jazer.

Joshua 21:40 All these cities belonged to the families of Merari. They were the last of the families of Levi. These 12 cities were chosen by lot.

Joshua 21:41 Within the territory owned by the Israelites there were 48 cities in all for Levi's descendants.

Joshua 21:42 Each of these cities had its own pastureland around it.

Joshua 21:43 So the LORD gave Israel the whole land he had sworn to give their ancestors. They took possession of it and settled there.

Joshua 21:44 The LORD allowed them to have peace on every side, as he had sworn with an oath to their ancestors. Not one of their enemies stood up to them. The LORD handed all their enemies over to them.

Joshua 21:45 Every single good promise that the LORD had given the nation of Israel came true.

Joshua 22:1 Joshua summoned the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 22:2 He said to them, "You have done everything the LORD's servant Moses commanded you. You have also obeyed me in everything I commanded you.

Joshua 22:3 All this time, to this day, you have never deserted your relatives. You have carefully kept the commands of the LORD your God.

Joshua 22:4 "Now the LORD your God has given your relatives peace, as he promised them. So return home, to the land that is your own possession. It is the land that the LORD's servant Moses gave you east of the Jordan River.

Joshua 22:5 Carefully follow the commands and teachings that the LORD's servant Moses gave you. Love the LORD your God, follow his directions, and keep his commands. Be loyal to him, and serve him with all your heart and soul."

Joshua 22:6 Then Joshua blessed them. He sent them on their way, and they went to their homes.

Joshua 22:7 Moses had given land in Bashan as an inheritance to half of Manasseh, and Joshua had given the other half of the tribe their land with their relatives west of the Jordan. When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them.

Joshua 22:8 He also said to them, "Return to your homes with your vast wealth, large herds of livestock, silver, gold, bronze, iron, and loads of clothing. Divide the loot from your enemies with your relatives."

Joshua 22:9 So the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh left the rest of the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan. They returned to Gilead. This was their own possession which they had captured as the LORD had instructed them through Moses.

Joshua 22:10 Reuben, Gad, and half of the tribe of Manasseh came to the region of the Jordan that was still in Canaan. They built an altar by the Jordan River. The altar was very large and highly visible.

Joshua 22:11 The rest of the Israelites heard about it and said, “See there! Reuben, Gad, and half of the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the border of Canaan. It’s in the region near the Jordan River on Israel’s side.”

Joshua 22:12 When the people of Israel heard about it, the whole congregation of Israel gathered at Shiloh. They intended to wage war against them.

Joshua 22:13 The Israelites sent Phinehas, son of the priest Eleazar, to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh in Gilead.

Joshua 22:14 Ten leaders, one from each tribe in Israel, went with him. Each man was a leader of a household and head of a family division in Israel.

Joshua 22:15 When they arrived these leaders said to the people of Gilead, Joshua 22:16 “All of the LORD’s congregation is asking, ‘What is this faithless act you have committed against the God of Israel?’ Today you have turned away from following the LORD by building an altar for yourselves. Today you have rebelled against the LORD!

Joshua 22:17 Does the sin we committed at Peor mean nothing to us anymore? Didn’t we cleanse ourselves from it? Because of that sin there was a plague on the LORD’s congregation!

Joshua 22:18 You have turned away from following the LORD! Today you rebel against the LORD, and tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

Joshua 22:19 If your land is unclean, come over here to the LORD’s land. The LORD’s tent is standing here. Take some property for yourselves among us. Don’t rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar for yourselves in addition to the altar of the LORD our God.

Joshua 22:20 Didn’t Achan, son of Zerah, act faithlessly with the things claimed by the LORD? Didn’t the LORD become angry with the whole congregation of Israel? Achan wasn’t the only one who died because of his sin.”

Joshua 22:21 Then the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh answered the heads of the divisions of Israel.

Joshua 22:22 They said, “The LORD is [the only true] God! The LORD is [the only true] God! He knows, so let Israel know! If our act is rebellious or unfaithful to the LORD,

Joshua 22:23 don’t spare us today. If we built an altar with the intention of no longer following him, and if we built it for making burnt offerings, grain offerings, or fellowship offerings, let the LORD punish us.

Joshua 22:24 “We were worried because of the situation we’re in. We thought sometime in the future your children might say to our children, ‘What relationship do you have with the LORD God of Israel?

Joshua 22:25 The LORD has made the Jordan River a dividing line between us and you, the descendants of Reuben and Gad. You have no connection with the LORD!’ So your descendants would stop our descendants from worshiping the LORD.

Joshua 22:26 Then we said, ‘Let’s build an altar for ourselves. It will not be for burnt offerings or sacrifices,

Joshua 22:27 but it will stand as a witness between us for generations to come. It will stand as a witness that we may worship in the presence of the LORD with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and fellowship offerings.’ Then your descendants cannot say to our descendants, ‘You have no connection with the LORD!’

Joshua 22:28 So we thought, if this statement is made to us or to our descendants in the future, we will answer, ‘Look at the model of the LORD’s altar our ancestors made. They didn’t make it for burnt offerings or sacrifices but to stand as a witness between us.’

Joshua 22:29 It would be unthinkable for us to rebel against the LORD or to turn back today from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, or sacrifices in addition to the altar of the LORD our God that is in front of his tent.”

Joshua 22:30 When the priest Phinehas, the leaders of the congregation, and the heads of the divisions of Israel heard what the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh said, they were satisfied.

Joshua 22:31 Then Phinehas, son of the priest Eleazar, said to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, “Today we know the LORD is among us, because you did not commit an unfaithful act against the LORD. Now you have rescued the people of Israel from the LORD’s punishment.”

Joshua 22:32 Then Phinehas (son of the priest Eleazar) and the leaders returned from Reuben and Gad in Gilead to Israel in Canaan and gave them the report.

Joshua 22:33 The people of Israel were satisfied with the report. So they praised God and didn’t talk anymore about going to war against Reuben and Gad and destroying the land where they were living.

Joshua 22:34 The tribes of Reuben and Gad gave the altar a name: Witness Between Us That the LORD Is [the Only True] God.

Joshua 23:1 A long time afterward, the LORD gave the Israelites peace with all their enemies around them. Joshua was old, near the end of his life.

Joshua 23:2 So he called all the leaders, chiefs, judges, and officers of Israel together. He said to them, “I am old, near the end of my life.

Joshua 23:3 You have seen for yourselves everything the LORD your God did to all those nations. The LORD your God fought for you!

Joshua 23:4 I have given you the territory of the nations that still remain as an inheritance for your tribes. This includes the territory of all the nations I have already destroyed from the Jordan River westward to the Mediterranean Sea.

Joshua 23:5 The LORD your God will expel them right in front of your eyes and force them out of your way. You will take their land as the LORD your God told you.

Joshua 23:6 Now you must be very strong to keep and to do everything written in the Book of Moses' Teachings. Don't turn away from them.

Joshua 23:7 Don't get mixed up with the nations left in your territory. Don't ever mention the names of their gods or swear an oath to them. Don't ever serve their gods or bow down to them.

Joshua 23:8 But you must be loyal to the LORD your God, as you have been until now.

Joshua 23:9 The LORD has forced important and powerful nations out of your way. Not one person has ever been able to stand up to you.

Joshua 23:10 One of you used to chase a thousand. That was because the LORD your God was fighting for you, as he had promised you.

Joshua 23:11 Be very careful to love the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:12 "But if you turn away and go along with the other nations within your [borders], if you intermarry with them or associate with them,

Joshua 23:13 then you should know that the LORD your God will never again force these people out of your way. Instead, they will be a snare and a trap for you, a whip laid to your sides, and thorns in your eyes until none of you are left in this good land that the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 "Pay attention, because I will soon die like everyone else. You know with all your heart and soul that not one single promise which the LORD your God has given you has ever failed to come true. Every single word has come true.

Joshua 23:15 "Every good word the LORD your God has promised you has come true for you. In the same way the LORD will bring about every evil curse until he has destroyed you from this good land that he has given you.

Joshua 23:16 When you ignore the conditions placed on you by the LORD your God and follow other gods, serve them and bow down to them, the LORD will be angry with you. Then you will quickly disappear from the good land he has given you."

Joshua 24:1 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem. He called together Israel's leaders, chiefs, judges, and officers, and they presented themselves to God.

Joshua 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Long ago your ancestors, Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor, lived on the other side of the Euphrates River and served other gods.

Joshua 24:3 But I took your ancestor Abraham from the other side of the Euphrates River. I led him through all of Canaan and gave him many descendants. I also gave him Isaac.

Joshua 24:4 To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the mountains in Seir as his own. However, Jacob and his sons went to Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 "Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I struck Egypt with plagues. Later I led you out.

Joshua 24:6 When I led your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea. The Egyptians with their chariots and horsemen chased your ancestors to the Red Sea.

Joshua 24:7 When your ancestors cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians. He made the sea flow back and cover them. You saw for yourselves what I did to Egypt. Then you lived in the desert for a long time.

Joshua 24:8 "After that I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived on the east side of the Jordan River. They fought you. However, I handed them over to you. So you took their land, and I destroyed them in front of you.

Joshua 24:9 Then Balak, son of King Zippor of Moab, fought Israel. He summoned Balaam, son of Beor, to curse you.

Joshua 24:10 But I refused to listen to Balaam. All he could do was bless you. So I saved you from his power.

Joshua 24:11 "Then you crossed the Jordan River and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho, the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites fought you. But I handed them over to you.

Joshua 24:12 I sent hornets ahead of you to force out the two kings of the Amorites ahead of you. These things didn't happen because of your battle skills or fighting ability.

Joshua 24:13 So I gave you a land that you hadn't farmed, cities to live in that you hadn't built, vineyards and olive groves that you hadn't planted. So you ate all you wanted!

Joshua 24:14 "Fear the LORD, and serve him with integrity and faithfulness. Get rid of the gods your ancestors served on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve only the LORD.

Joshua 24:15 But if you don't want to serve the LORD, then choose today whom you will serve. Even if you choose the gods your ancestors served on the other side of the Euphrates or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live, my family and I will still serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:16 The people responded, "It would be unthinkable for us to abandon the LORD to serve other gods.

Joshua 24:17 The LORD our God brought us and our ancestors out of slavery in Egypt. He did these spectacular signs right before our eyes. He guarded us wherever we went, especially as we passed through other nations.

Joshua 24:18 The LORD forced out all the people ahead of us, including the Amorites who lived in this land. We, too, will serve the LORD, because he is our God."

Joshua 24:19 But Joshua answered the people, "Since the LORD is a holy God, you can't possibly serve him. He is a God who does not tolerate rivals. He will not forgive your rebellious acts and sins.

Joshua 24:20 If you abandon the LORD and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you. He will destroy you, although he has been so good to you."

Joshua 24:21 The people answered Joshua, "No! We will [only] serve the LORD!"

Joshua 24:22 Joshua said to the people, "You have testified that you have chosen to serve the LORD." They answered, "Yes, we have!"

Joshua 24:23 "Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Turn yourselves entirely over to the LORD God of Israel."

Joshua 24:24 The people replied to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey him."

Joshua 24:25 That day Joshua made an agreement for the people and set up laws and rules for them at Shechem.

Joshua 24:26 Joshua wrote these things in the Book of God's Teachings. Then he took a large stone and set it up under the oak tree at the LORD's holy place.

Joshua 24:27 Joshua told all the people, "This stone will stand as a witness for us. It has heard all the words which the LORD spoke to us. It will stand as a witness for you. You cannot deceive your God."

Joshua 24:28 Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own property.

Joshua 24:29 After these events, the LORD's servant Joshua, son of Nun, died. He was 110 years old.

Joshua 24:30 He was buried on his own land at Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

Joshua 24:31 Israel served the LORD as long as Joshua and the older leaders, who outlived him and who knew everything the LORD had done for Israel, were alive.

Joshua 24:32 Joseph's bones, which the people of Israel had brought from Egypt, were buried at Shechem. They were placed in the plot of ground Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, father of Shechem, for 100 pieces of silver. The plot was inherited by Joseph's descendants.

Joshua 24:33 Aaron's son Eleazar also died. He was buried on the hill that had been given to his son Phinehas in the mountains of Ephraim.

Judges

1:1 After Joshua's death the Israelites asked the LORD, "Who will go first to fight the Canaanites for us?"

Judges 1:2 The LORD answered, "Judah's troops will go first. I am about to hand the Canaanites over to you."

Judges 1:3 The tribe of Judah said to the tribe of Simeon, "Come with us into the territory given to us when we drew lots, and together we will fight the people of Canaan. Then we'll go with you into your territory." So the tribe of Simeon went along with Judah.

Judges 1:4 Judah's troops went into battle, and the LORD handed the Canaanites and Perizzites over to them. They defeated 10,000 men at Bezek.

Judges 1:5 At Bezek they also caught up with Adoni Bezek. They fought him and defeated the Canaanites and Perizzites.

Judges 1:6 Adoni Bezek fled. Judah's troops chased him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 Adoni Bezek said, "Seventy kings who had their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up food under my table. God has paid me back for what I did to them." Judah's troops brought Adoni Bezek to Jerusalem, where he died.

Judges 1:8 The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem and captured it. They killed everyone there and set the city on fire.

Judges 1:9 After that, the men of Judah went to fight the Canaanites who lived in the mountains, the Negev, and the foothills.

Judges 1:10 Then they went to fight the Canaanites who lived at Hebron. (In the past Hebron was called Kiriath Arba.) There they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 From there Judah's troops went to fight the people living at Debir. (In the past Debir was called Kiriath Sepher.)

Judges 1:12 Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Achsah as a wife to whoever defeats Kiriath Sepher and captures it.”

Judges 1:13 Then Othniel, son of Caleb’s younger brother Kenaz, captured it. So Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife.

Judges 1:14 When she came to Othniel, she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. When she got down from her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What do you want?”

Judges 1:15 She answered, “Give me a blessing. Since you’ve given me some dry land, also give me some springs.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Judges 1:16 The descendants of Moses’ father-in-law, the Kenite, went with the people of Judah from the City of Palms into the desert of Judah. There they lived with the people of Judah in the Negev near Arad.

Judges 1:17 The tribe of Judah went to fight along with the tribe of Simeon, their close relatives. They defeated the Canaanites who lived in Zephath and claimed it for the LORD by destroying it. So the city was called Hormah [Claimed for Destruction].

Judges 1:18 Judah also captured Gaza, Ashkelon, and Ekron with their territories.

Judges 1:19 The LORD was with the men of Judah so that they were able to take possession of the mountains. But they could not force out the people living in the valley who had chariots made of iron.

Judges 1:20 As Moses had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb, who forced out the three sons of Anak.

Judges 1:21 The men of Benjamin did not force out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem. The Jebusites still live with the tribe of Benjamin in Jerusalem today.

Judges 1:22 The descendants of Joseph also went into battle against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

Judges 1:23 They sent men to spy on Bethel. (In the past the city was called Luz.)

Judges 1:24 The spies saw a man coming out of the city. They told him, “Show us how we can get into the city, and we’ll treat you kindly.”

Judges 1:25 He showed them. So they got into the city and killed everyone there. But they let that man and his whole family go free.

Judges 1:26 The man went to the land of the Hittites. There he built a city and called it Luz. The city still has that name today.

Judges 1:27 Now, the tribe of Manasseh did not force out the people of Beth Shean, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, and Megiddo or their villages. The Canaanites were determined to live in this land.

Judges 1:28 When the Israelites were strong enough, they made the Canaanites do forced labor. But they did not force all of them out.

Judges 1:29 The tribe of Ephraim did not force out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. So the Canaanites continued to live with them in Gezer.

Judges 1:30 The tribe of Zebulun did not force out those who lived at Kitron or Nahalol. So the Canaanites continued to live with them and were made to do forced labor.

Judges 1:31 The tribe of Asher did not force out those who lived at Acco or Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphek, or Rehob.

Judges 1:32 So the tribe of Asher continued to live with the Canaanites because they did not force them out.

Judges 1:33 The tribe of Naphtali did not force out those who lived at Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath. So they continued to live with the Canaanites. But the people of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were made to do forced labor.

Judges 1:34 The Amorites forced the tribe of Dan into the mountains and would not let them come down into the valley.

Judges 1:35 The Amorites were determined to live at Har Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. But when the tribes of Joseph became stronger, they made the Amorites do forced labor.

Judges 1:36 The territory of the Amorites extended from the Akrabbim Pass-from Selah northward.

Judges 2:1 The Messenger of the LORD went from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, “I brought you out of Egypt into the land that I swore to give to your ancestors. I said, ‘I will never break my promise to you.

Judges 2:2 You must never make a treaty with the people who live in this land. You must tear down their altars.’ But you didn’t obey me. What do you think you’re doing?

Judges 2:3 So I have this to say, ‘I will not force them out of your way. They will be like thorns in your sides, and their gods will become a trap for you.’”

Judges 2:4 While the Messenger of the LORD was saying this to all the people of Israel, they began to cry loudly.

Judges 2:5 So they called that place Bochim [Those Who Cry]. They offered sacrifices there to the LORD.

Judges 2:6 Now, Joshua sent the people of Israel home. So each family went to take possession of the territory they had inherited.

Judges 2:7 The people served the LORD throughout Joshua’s lifetime and throughout the lifetimes of the leaders who had outlived him and who had seen all the spectacular works the LORD had done for Israel.

Judges 2:8 The LORD’s servant Joshua, son of Nun, died at the age of 110.

Judges 2:9 He was buried at Timnath Heres within the territory he had inherited. This was in the mountains of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

Judges 2:10 That whole generation had joined their ancestors in death. So another generation grew up after them. They had no personal experience with the LORD or with what he had done for Israel.

Judges 2:11 The people of Israel did what the LORD considered evil. They began to serve other gods-the Baals.

Judges 2:12 The Israelites abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors, the God who brought them out of Egypt. They followed the other gods of the people around them. They worshiped these gods, and that made the LORD angry.

Judges 2:13 They abandoned the LORD to serve the god Baal and the goddess Astarte.

Judges 2:14 So the LORD became angry with the people of Israel. He handed them over to people who robbed them. He also used their enemies around them to defeat them. They could no longer stand up against their enemies.

Judges 2:15 Whenever the Israelites went to war, the power of the LORD brought disaster on them. This was what the LORD said he would do in an oath. So he made them suffer a great deal.

Judges 2:16 Then the LORD would send judges to rescue them from those who robbed them.

Judges 2:17 But the people wouldn’t listen to the judges. The Israelites chased after other gods as though they were prostitutes and worshiped them. They quickly turned from the ways of their ancestors who had obeyed the LORD’s commands. They refused to be like their ancestors.

Judges 2:18 But when the LORD appointed judges for the Israelites, he was with each judge. The LORD rescued them from their enemies as long as that judge was alive. The LORD was moved by the groaning of those who were tormented and oppressed.

Judges 2:19 But after each judge died, the people went back to their old ways and acted more corruptly than their parents. They followed, served, and worshiped other gods. They never gave up their evil practices and stubborn ways.

Judges 2:20 The LORD became angry with Israel. He said, “Because the people of this nation have rejected the promise I gave their ancestors and have not obeyed me, Judges 2:21 I will no longer force out the nations Joshua left behind when he died.

Judges 2:22 I will test the people of Israel with these nations to see whether or not they will carefully follow the LORD's ways as their ancestors did."

Judges 2:23 So the LORD let these nations stay. He had not handed them over to Joshua or forced them out quickly.

Judges 3:1 These are the nations the LORD left behind to test all the Israelites who had not experienced any war in Canaan.

Judges 3:2 The LORD left them to teach Israel's descendants about war, at least those who had known nothing about it in the past.

Judges 3:3 He left the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon from Mount Baal Hermon to the border of Hamath.

Judges 3:4 These nations were left to test the Israelites, to find out if they would obey the commands the LORD had given their ancestors through Moses.

Judges 3:5 So the people of Israel lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

Judges 3:6 The Israelites allowed their sons and daughters to marry these people. Israel also served their gods.

Judges 3:7 The people of Israel did what the LORD considered evil. They forgot the LORD their God and served other gods and goddesses-the Baals and the Asherahs.

Judges 3:8 The LORD became angry with the people of Israel. He used King Cushan Rishathaim of Aram Naharaim to defeat them. So Israel served Cushan Rishathaim for eight years.

Judges 3:9 Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help. The LORD sent a savior to rescue them. It was Othniel, son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz.

Judges 3:10 When the LORD's Spirit came over him, he became the judge of Israel. He went out to war. The LORD handed King Cushan Rishathaim of Aram Naharaim over to him, and Othniel overpowered him.

Judges 3:11 So there was finally peace in the land for 40 years. Then Othniel, son of Kenaz, died.

Judges 3:12 Once again, the people of Israel did what the LORD considered evil. So the LORD made King Eglon of Moab stronger than Israel, because Israel did what the LORD considered evil.

Judges 3:13 Eglon got the Ammonites and the Amalekites to help him, and they defeated the Israelites and occupied the City of Palms.

Judges 3:14 The Israelites served King Eglon of Moab for 18 years.

Judges 3:15 Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help. The LORD sent a savior to rescue them. It was Ehud, a left-handed man from the tribe of Benjamin. (Ehud was the son of Gera.) The people sent him with their tax payment to King Eglon of Moab.

Judges 3:16 Ehud made a two-edged dagger for himself. He fastened it to his right side under his clothes.

Judges 3:17 Then he brought the tax payment to King Eglon. (Eglon was a very fat man.)

Judges 3:18 When Ehud had finished delivering the payment, he sent back the men who had carried it.

Judges 3:19 However, Ehud turned around at the stone idols near Gilgal [and returned to Eglon]. He said, “Your Majesty, I have a secret message for you.” The king replied, “Keep quiet!” Then all his advisers left the room.

Judges 3:20 Ehud came up to him as he sat alone in his room on the roof. He said to the king, “I have a message from God for you.” As the king rose from his throne,

Judges 3:21 Ehud reached with his left hand, took the dagger from his right side, and plunged it into Eglon’s belly.

Judges 3:22 Even the handle went in after the blade. Eglon’s fat covered the blade because Ehud didn’t pull the dagger out. The blade stuck out in back.

Judges 3:23 Ehud left the room. (He had closed and locked the doors of the room before he left.)

Judges 3:24 After Ehud went out, Eglon’s advisers came in. They were surprised that the doors were locked. “He must be using the toilet,” they said.

Judges 3:25 They waited and waited, but Eglon didn’t open the doors. So they took the key and opened the door. They were shocked to see their ruler lying on the floor, dead.

Judges 3:26 While they had been waiting, Ehud escaped. He went past the stone idols and escaped to Seirah.

Judges 3:27 When he arrived there, he blew a ram’s horn in the mountains of Ephraim [to summon the troops]. So the troops of Israel came down from the mountains with him, and he led them.

Judges 3:28 He told them, “Follow me! The LORD will hand your enemy Moab over to you.” They followed him and captured the shallow crossings of the Jordan River that led to Moab and refused to let anyone cross.

Judges 3:29 At that time they killed about ten thousand of Moab’s best fighting men. Not one of them escaped.

Judges 3:30 The power of Moab was crushed by Israel that day. So there was finally peace in the land for 80 years.

Judges 3:31 After Ehud came Shamgar, son of Anath. He killed 600 Philistines with a sharp stick used for herding oxen. So he, too, rescued Israel.

Judges 4:1 After Ehud died, the people of Israel again did what the LORD considered evil.

Judges 4:2 So the LORD used King Jabin of Canaan, who ruled at Hazor, to defeat them. The commander of King Jabin's army was Sisera, who lived at Harosheth Haggoyim.

Judges 4:3 The people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help. King Jabin had 900 chariots made of iron and had cruelly oppressed Israel for 20 years.

Judges 4:4 Deborah, wife of Lappidoth, was a prophet. She was the judge in Israel at that time.

Judges 4:5 She used to sit under the Palm Tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. The people of Israel would come to her for legal decisions.

Judges 4:6 Deborah summoned Barak, son of Abinoam, from Kedesh in Naphtali. She told him, "The LORD God of Israel has given you this order: 'Gather troops on Mount Tabor. Take 10,000 men from Naphtali and Zebulun with you.

Judges 4:7 I will lead Sisera (the commander of Jabin's army), his chariots, and troops to you at the Kishon River. I will hand him over to you.'"

Judges 4:8 Barak said to her, "If you go with me, I'll go. But if you don't go with me, I won't go."

Judges 4:9 Deborah replied, "Certainly, I'll go with you. But you won't win any honors for the way you're going about this, because the LORD will use a woman to defeat Sisera." So Deborah started out for Kedesh with Barak.

Judges 4:10 Barak called the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali together at Kedesh. Ten thousand men went to fight under his command. Deborah also went along with him.

Judges 4:11 Heber the Kenite had separated from the other Kenites (the descendants of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law). Heber went as far away as the oak tree at Zaanannim near Kedesh and set up his tent.

Judges 4:12 The report reached Sisera that Barak, son of Abinoam, had come to fight at Mount Tabor.

Judges 4:13 So Sisera summoned all his chariots

Judges 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, "Attack! This is the day the LORD will hand Sisera over to you. The LORD will go ahead of you." So Barak came down from Mount Tabor with 10,000 men behind him.

Judges 4:15 The LORD threw Sisera, all his chariots, and his whole army into a panic in front of Barak's deadly assault. Sisera got down from his chariot and fled on foot.

Judges 4:16 Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth Haggoyim. So Sisera's whole army was killed in combat. Not one man survived.

Judges 4:17 Meanwhile, Sisera fled on foot toward the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. Sisera did this because King Jabin of Hazor and Heber's family were on peaceful terms.

Judges 4:18 When Jael came out [of her tent], she met Sisera. She told him, "Sir, come in here! Come into my tent. Don't be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she hid him under a tent curtain.

Judges 4:19 Sisera said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink. I'm thirsty." But instead she gave him milk to drink and covered him up again.

Judges 4:20 He said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent. If anyone comes and asks if there has been a man around here, tell them no."

Judges 4:21 When Sisera had fallen sound asleep from exhaustion, Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent peg and walked quietly toward him with a hammer in her hand. She hammered the tent peg through his temples into the ground. So Sisera died.

Judges 4:22 Barak was still pursuing Sisera. When Jael came out [of her tent], she met him. She said to him, "Come in! I have something to show you-the man you've been looking for." So Barak went into her tent. He saw Sisera lying there dead with the tent peg through his temples.

Judges 4:23 So on that day, God used the people of Israel to crush the power of King Jabin of Canaan.

Judges 4:24 The Israelites became stronger and stronger until they destroyed him.

Judges 5:1 On that day Deborah and Barak, son of Abinoam, sang this song:

Judges 5:2 Praise the LORD! Men in Israel vowed to fight, and people volunteered for service.

Judges 5:3 Listen, you kings! Open your ears, you princes! I will sing a song to the LORD. I will make music to the LORD God of Israel.

Judges 5:4 O LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the country of Edom, the earth quaked, the sky poured, the clouds burst,

Judges 5:5 and the mountains shook in the presence of the LORD God of Sinai, in the presence of the LORD God of Israel.

Judges 5:6 In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, in the days of Jael, roads were deserted. Those who traveled took back roads.

Judges 5:7 Villages in Israel were deserted- deserted until I, Deborah, took a stand- took a stand as a mother of Israel.

Judges 5:8 When the people chose new gods, war broke out inside the city gates. Not a weapon was seen among 40,000 in Israel.

Judges 5:9 My heart goes out to Israel's commanders, to those people who volunteered. Praise the LORD!

Judges 5:10 You people who ride on brown donkeys, who sit on saddle blankets, and who walk on the road-think.

Judges 5:11 Listen to the voices of those singing at the wells. Over and over again they repeat the victories of the LORD, the victories for his villages in Israel. Then the LORD's people went down to the city gates.

Judges 5:12 Get up! Get up, Deborah! Get up! Get up and create a song! Barak, attack! Take your prisoners, son of Abinoam.

Judges 5:13 Then those mighty men who were left came down. The LORD's people went into battle for me against the mighty soldiers.

Judges 5:14 Those who had settled in Amalek's country came down from Ephraim. Benjamin came with its troops after Ephraim. Commanders from Machir went into battle. The officers from Zebulun also went.

Judges 5:15 Issachar's commanders were with Deborah. They were also with Barak, sent into the valley under his command. Among Reuben's divisions important men had second thoughts.

Judges 5:16 Why did you sit between the saddlebags? Was it to listen to the shepherds playing their flutes? Reuben's divisions of important men had second thoughts.

Judges 5:17 Gilead remained east of the Jordan River. And Dan... Why did he stay by the ships? Asher sat on the seashore and remained along the inlets.

Judges 5:18 But Zebulun mocked death, and Naphtali risked his life on the battlefield.

Judges 5:19 Kings came and fought. Then the kings of Canaan fought. They fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo. But they didn't carry off any rich loot.

Judges 5:20 The stars fought from heaven. They fought against Sisera from their heavenly paths.

Judges 5:21 The Kishon River swept them away- that old river, the Kishon. I must march on with strength!

Judges 5:22 Then the horses' hoofs pounded. The mighty war horses galloped on and on.

Judges 5:23 "Curse Meroz!" said the Messenger of the LORD. "Bitterly curse those who live there! They did not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD and his heroes."

Judges 5:24 Jael, wife of Heber the Kenite, should be the most blessed woman, the most blessed woman living in a tent.

Judges 5:25 Sisera asked for water. She gave him milk. She offered him buttermilk in a royal bowl.

Judges 5:26 She reached for a tent peg with one hand, for a workman's hammer with the other. She struck Sisera. She crushed his head. She shattered and pierced his temples.

Judges 5:27 He sank. He fell. He lay between her feet! He sank. He fell between her feet. Where he sank, he fell dead.

Judges 5:28 Sisera's mother looked through her window and cried as she peered through the lattice. "Why is his chariot taking so long? Why don't I hear the clatter of his chariots?"

Judges 5:29 Her wisest servants gave her an answer. But she kept repeating to herself,

Judges 5:30 "They're really finding and dividing the loot: A girl or two for each soldier, colorful clothes for Sisera, colorful, embroidered clothes, and two pieces of colorful, embroidered cloth for the neck of the looter."

Judges 5:31 May all your enemies die like that, O LORD. But may those who love the LORD be like the sun when it rises in all its brightness. So the land had peace for 40 years.

Judges 6:1 The people of Israel did what the LORD considered evil. So the LORD handed them over to Midian for seven years.

Judges 6:2 Midian's power was too strong for Israel. The Israelites made hiding places in the mountains, caves, and mountain strongholds [to protect themselves] from Midian.

Judges 6:3 Whenever Israel planted crops, Midian, Amalek, and Kedem came and damaged the crops.

Judges 6:4 The enemy used to camp on the land and destroy the crops all the way to Gaza. They left nothing for Israel to live on-not one sheep, cow, or donkey.

Judges 6:5 Like swarms of locusts, they came with their livestock and their tents. They and their camels could not be counted. They came into the land only to ruin it.

Judges 6:6 So the Israelites became very poor because of Midian and cried out to the LORD for help.

Judges 6:7 When the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help because of what the Midianites had done to them, Judges 6:8 the LORD sent a prophet to them. He said, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I brought you out of Egypt. I took you away from slavery.

Judges 6:9 I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of those who oppressed you. I forced people out of your way. I gave you their land.

Judges 6:10 I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God. You must never fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you will live.' But you have not obeyed me."

Judges 6:11 The Messenger of the LORD came and sat under the oak tree in Ophrah that belonged to Joash from Abiezer's family. Joash's son Gideon was beating out wheat in a winepress to hide it from the Midianites.

Judges 6:12 The Messenger of the LORD appeared to Gideon and said, "The LORD is with you, brave man."

Judges 6:13 Gideon responded, "Excuse me, sir! But if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all the miracles our ancestors have told us about? Didn't they say, 'The LORD brought us out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned us and has handed us over to Midian."

Judges 6:14 The LORD turned to him and said, "You will rescue Israel from Midian with the strength you have. I am sending you."

Judges 6:15 Gideon said to him, "Excuse me, sir! How can I rescue Israel? Look at my whole family. It's the weakest one in Manasseh. And me? I'm the least important member of my family."

Judges 6:16 The LORD replied, "I will be with you. You will defeat Midian as if it were [only] one man."

Judges 6:17 Gideon said to him, "If you find me acceptable, give me a sign that it is really you speaking to me.

Judges 6:18 Don't leave until I come back. I want to bring my gift and set it in front of you." "I will stay until you come back," he said.

Judges 6:19 Then Gideon went into [his house] and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread made with 18 quarts of flour. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot. then he went out and presented them to the messenger of the LORD under the oak tree.

Judges 6:20 The Messenger of the LORD told him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, put them on this rock, and pour the broth over them." Gideon did so.

Judges 6:21 Then the Messenger of the LORD touched the meat and the bread with the tip of the staff that was in his hand. Fire flared up from the rock and burned the meat and the bread. Then the Messenger of the LORD disappeared.

Judges 6:22 That's when Gideon realized that this had been the Messenger of the LORD. So he said, "LORD God! I have seen the Messenger of the LORD face to face."

Judges 6:23 The LORD said to him, “Calm down! Don’t be afraid. You will not die.”

Judges 6:24 So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD. He called it The LORD Calms. To this day it is still in Ophrah, which belongs to Abiezer’s family.

Judges 6:25 That same night the LORD said to Gideon, “Take a bull from your father’s herd, a bull that is seven years old. Tear down your father’s altar dedicated to the god Baal and cut down the pole dedicated to the goddess Asherah that is next to it.

Judges 6:26 Then, in the proper way, build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this fortified place. Take this second bull and sacrifice it as a burnt offering on the wood from the Asherah pole that you have cut down.”

Judges 6:27 Gideon took ten of his servants and did what the LORD had told him to do. However, he didn’t do anything during the day. He was too afraid of his father’s family and the men of the city, so he did it at night.

Judges 6:28 When the men of the city got up early in the morning, they saw that the Baal altar had been torn down. The Asherah pole next to it had also been cut down. They saw that the second bull had been sacrificed as a burnt offering on the altar that had been built.

Judges 6:29 They asked each other, “Who did this?” While they were investigating the matter, someone said, “Gideon, son of Joash, did this.”

Judges 6:30 Then the men of the city told Joash, “Bring your son out. He must die. He has torn down the Baal altar and cut down the Asherah pole that was beside it.”

Judges 6:31 But Joash said to everyone standing around him, “You’re not going to defend Baal, are you? Do you think you should save him? Whoever defends him will be put to death in the morning. If he’s a god, let him defend himself when someone tears down his altar.”

Judges 6:32 So that day they nicknamed Gideon “Jerubbaal” [Let Baal Defend Himself], because they said, “When someone tears down Baal’s altar, let Baal defend himself.”

Judges 6:33 All of Midian, Amalek, and Kedem combined their armies, crossed [the Jordan River], and camped in the valley of Jezreel.

Judges 6:34 Then the LORD’s Spirit gave Gideon strength. So Gideon blew the ram’s horn to summon Abiezer’s family to follow him.

Judges 6:35 He also sent messengers throughout Manasseh to summon the people to follow him. The tribes of Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali were also summoned to follow him, and they went to meet the enemy in battle.

Judges 6:36 Then Gideon said to God, “You said that you would rescue Israel through me.

Judges 6:37 I’ll place some wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the wool while all the ground is dry, then I’ll know that you will rescue Israel through me, as you said.”

Judges 6:38 And that is what happened. The next morning Gideon got up early. He squeezed out a bowl full of water from the wool.

Judges 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, “Don’t be angry with me. But let me ask one more thing. Let me make one more test with the wool. Let the wool be dry while all the ground is covered with dew.”

Judges 6:40 During the night, God did what Gideon asked. The wool was dry, but all the ground was covered with dew.

Judges 7:1 Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the troops with him got up early and camped above En Harod. Midian’s camp was north of him at the hill of Moreh in the valley.

Judges 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, “You have too many men with you for me to hand Midian over to you. Israel might brag and say, ‘We saved ourselves.’

Judges 7:3 Announce to the troops, ‘Whoever is scared or frightened should leave Mount Gilead and go back home.’ “ So 22,000 men went back home, and 10,000 were left.

Judges 7:4 The LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many men. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say to you, ‘This one will go with you,’ he must go with you. And if I say to you, ‘This one won’t go with you,’ he must not go.”

Judges 7:5 So Gideon took the men down to the water. The LORD said to him, “Separate those who lap water with their tongues like dogs from those who kneel down to drink.”

Judges 7:6 Three hundred men lapped water with their hands to their mouths. All the rest of the men knelt down to drink water.

Judges 7:7 Then the LORD said to Gideon, “With the 300 men who lapped water I will save you and hand Midian over to you. All the other men should go home.”

Judges 7:8 So Gideon sent the other men of Israel home, but the 300 men who stayed kept all the supplies and rams’ horns. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Judges 7:9 That night the LORD said to Gideon, “Attack! Go into the camp! I will hand it over to you.

Judges 7:10 But if you’re afraid to go, take your servant Purah to the camp with you.

Judges 7:11 Listen to what people are saying. After that, you will have the courage to go into the camp and attack it.” So Gideon and his servant Purah went to the edge of the camp.

Judges 7:12 Midian, Amalek, and all of Kedem were spread out in the valley like a swarm of locusts. There were so many camels that they could not be counted. They were as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13 When Gideon got there, he heard a man telling his friend a dream. The man said, “I had a strange dream. There was a loaf of barley bread rolling around in the camp of Midian. When it got to the command post, the loaf of bread hit that tent so hard that the tent collapsed, turned upside down, and fell flat.”

Judges 7:14 His friend replied, “That can only be the sword of Gideon, son of Joash, from Israel. God is going to hand Midian and the whole camp over to him.”

Judges 7:15 When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped the LORD. Then he went back to the camp of Israel and said, “Attack! The LORD will hand Midian’s camp over to you.”

Judges 7:16 Gideon divided the 300 men into three companies. He gave them each rams’ horns and jars with torches inside.

Judges 7:17 He said to them, “Watch me, and do what I do. When I come to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do.

Judges 7:18 When I and those with me blow our rams’ horns, then the rest of you around the camp do the same and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’”

Judges 7:19 Gideon and his 100 men came to the edge of the camp. It was the beginning of the midnight watch just at the change of the guards. They blew their rams’ horns and smashed the jars they were holding in their hands.

Judges 7:20 The three companies also blew their rams’ horns and broke their jars. They held the torches in their left hands and the rams’ horns in their right hands so that they could blow them. They shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Judges 7:21 While each man kept his position around the camp, everyone in the Midianite camp began to run away, screaming as they fled.

Judges 7:22 The 300 men kept on blowing their rams’ horns, and the LORD caused the whole camp of Midian to fight among themselves. They fled as far as Beth Shittah, toward Zererah, and as far as the bank of the stream at Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Judges 7:23 The men of Israel were summoned from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh to help pursue the troops of Midian.

Judges 7:24 Gideon also sent messengers to the whole mountain region of Ephraim with this message, “Go into battle against Midian. Capture the watering holes as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan River.”

All the men of Ephraim were also summoned to help. They captured the watering holes as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan River.

Judges 7:25 They also captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two Midianite commanders. They killed Oreb at the Rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the Winepress of Zeeb and kept on pursuing Midian. Then they brought the severed heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan River.

Judges 8:1 The men from Ephraim strongly protested Gideon's actions. They said, "Why did you do this to us? You didn't invite us to go fight Midian with you."

Judges 8:2 Gideon replied, "I haven't done anything compared with what you have done. Aren't the grapes that Ephraim picked after the harvest better than all the grapes in Abiezer's entire harvest?

Judges 8:3 God handed Oreb and Zeeb, Midian's commanders, over to you. What have I done compared with that?" When they heard what Gideon said, they weren't angry with him anymore.

Judges 8:4 Gideon and his 300 men headed toward the Jordan River. They were exhausted when they crossed it, but they kept pursuing the enemy.

Judges 8:5 So Gideon said to the men of Succoth, "Please give me some food for the men under my command. They're exhausted, and I'm pursuing King Zebah and King Zalmunna of Midian."

Judges 8:6 The generals at Succoth replied, "We shouldn't give your army food. You haven't captured Zebah and Zalmunna yet."

Judges 8:7 Gideon responded, "Alright, then. When the LORD hands Zebah and Zalmunna over to me, I'll whip your bodies with thorns and thistles from the desert."

Judges 8:8 Then Gideon went to Penuel and asked the people there for the same help. But they gave him the same reply that the men of Succoth gave.

Judges 8:9 So he told them, "When I come back after my victory, I'll tear down this tower."

Judges 8:10 Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with an army of about 15,000 men. This was all that was left of Kedem's entire army. In the battle, 120,000 soldiers died.

Judges 8:11 So Gideon went up Tent Dwellers Road, east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and defeated the unsuspecting Midianite army.

Judges 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled as Gideon pursued them. He captured King Zebah and King Zalmunna of Midian, and the whole Midianite army panicked.

Judges 8:13 Gideon, son of Joash, returned from the battle through the Heres Pass

Judges 8:14 and captured a young man from Succoth. He questioned him, and the young man wrote down for him the names of the 77 officials and leaders of Succoth.

Judges 8:15 Gideon went to the men of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna! You insulted me when you said, ‘We shouldn’t give your exhausted men food before you’ve captured Zebah and Zalmunna.’”

Judges 8:16 So Gideon took the leaders of the city and taught them a lesson using thorns and thistles from the desert.

Judges 8:17 Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of that city.

Judges 8:18 He asked Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?” They answered, “They were like you. Each one looked like a king’s son.”

Judges 8:19 Gideon replied, “They were my brothers, my mother’s sons. I solemnly swear, as the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not have to kill you now.”

Judges 8:20 Then he told Jether, his firstborn son, “Get up and kill them!” But Jether didn’t draw his sword. He was afraid because he was only a young man.

Judges 8:21 Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Get up and do it yourself! It’s a man’s job!” So Gideon got up and killed them. Then he took the half-moon ornaments that were on their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:22 The men of Israel said to Gideon, “You, then your son, and then your grandson, must rule us. You rescued us from Midian.”

Judges 8:23 Gideon replied, “I will not rule you nor will my son. The LORD will rule you.”

Judges 8:24 Then Gideon said to them, “Do me a favor. Each of you give me the earrings from your loot.” (Their enemies, the Ishmaelites, wore gold earrings.)

Judges 8:25 The men of Israel answered, “Yes, we’ll give them to you.” So they spread out a coat. Each man took the earrings from his loot and dropped them on it.

Judges 8:26 The gold earrings Gideon had asked for weighed 40 pounds. This did not include the half-moon ornaments, the earrings, the purple clothes worn by the kings of Midian, and the chains from their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:27 Then Gideon used the gold to make an idol and placed it in his hometown, Ophrah. All Israel chased after it there as though it were a prostitute. It became a trap for Gideon and his family.

Judges 8:28 The power of Midian was crushed by the people of Israel, and Midian never again became a threat. So the land had peace for 40 years during Gideon’s life.

Judges 8:29 Jerubbaal, son of Joash, went home to live.

Judges 8:30 Gideon had 70 sons because he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 His concubine at Shechem also gave birth to a son. That son was named Abimelech.

Judges 8:32 Gideon, son of Joash, died at a very old age. He was buried in the tomb of his father Joash at Ophrah, the city belonging to Abiezer's family.

Judges 8:33 As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel chased after other gods-the Baals-as though they were prostitutes. They made Baal Berith their god.

Judges 8:34 The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from all the enemies around them.

Judges 8:35 And they were not kind to the family of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) despite all the good he had done for Israel.

Judges 9:1 Abimelech, son of Jerubbaal [Gideon], went to Shechem to see the uncles on his mother's side of the family. He spoke to them and his mother's whole family.

Judges 9:2 He said, "Please ask all citizens of Shechem, 'What seems best to you? Do you really want all of Jerubbaal's 70 sons to rule you or just one man? Remember, I'm your own flesh and blood.'"

Judges 9:3 His uncles repeated everything he said to all citizens of Shechem. They were persuaded to follow Abimelech because he was their relative.

Judges 9:4 So they gave him 70 pieces of silver from the temple of Baal Berith. With the silver, Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men to follow him.

Judges 9:5 Then he went to his father's home in Ophrah. There he executed his 70 brothers, Jerubbaal's sons. But Jotham, Jerubbaal's youngest son, survived because he hid.

Judges 9:6 All the citizens from Shechem and Beth Millo united. They went to the oak tree that was still standing in Shechem and proclaimed Abimelech king.

Judges 9:7 When Jotham was told about this, he went to a high spot on Mount Gerizim. He shouted to them, "Listen to me, you citizens of Shechem, so that God might listen to you.

Judges 9:8 "The trees went to anoint someone to be king over them. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king!'

Judges 9:9 But the olive tree responded, 'Should I stop producing oil, which people use to honor gods and humans, in order to rule the trees?'

Judges 9:10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and be our king!'

Judges 9:11 But the fig tree responded, 'Should I stop producing my good, sweet fruit in order to rule the trees?'

Judges 9:12 Then the trees said to the grapevine, 'You come and be our king!'

Judges 9:13 But the grapevine responded, 'Should I stop producing my wine, which makes gods and humans happy, in order to rule the trees?'

Judges 9:14 Then all the trees said to the thornbush, 'You come and be our king!'

Judges 9:15 But the thornbush responded to the trees, 'If you really want to anoint me to be your king, then come and take shelter in my shade. But if not, fire will come out of the thornbush and burn up the cedars of Lebanon.'

Judges 9:16 "If you acted with sincerity and integrity when you made Abimelech king, [be happy.] If you treated Jerubbaal and his family well, if you treated him as he deserved, be happy.

Judges 9:17 My father fought for you. He risked his life and rescued you from Midian.

Judges 9:18 But today you have attacked my father's family. You have executed his 70 sons. You have made Abimelech, who is the son of my father's slave girl, king over the citizens of Shechem just because he's your brother.

Judges 9:19 So if you are now acting with sincerity and integrity toward Jerubbaal and his family, then be happy with Abimelech and let Abimelech be happy with you.

Judges 9:20 But if that's not the case, let fire come out of Abimelech and burn up citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo. Also let fire come out of citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo and burn up Abimelech."

Judges 9:21 Then Jotham ran away quickly. He went to Beerah and lived there [to avoid] his brother Abimelech.

Judges 9:22 Abimelech ruled Israel for three years.

Judges 9:23 Then God sent an evil spirit to cause problems between Abimelech and citizens of Shechem. So citizens of Shechem turned against Abimelech.

Judges 9:24 God did this so that the bloody violence committed against Jerubbaal's 70 sons would happen to Abimelech and citizens of Shechem. Citizens of Shechem had helped Abimelech execute his brothers.

Judges 9:25 So citizens of Shechem set ambushes for Abimelech on top of the mountains. They also robbed everyone who passed by them on the road. This was reported to Abimelech.

Judges 9:26 Then Gaal (son of Ebed) and his brothers moved into Shechem. Citizens of Shechem trusted him.

Judges 9:27 They went into the country and harvested grapes in the vineyards to make wine. Then they made an offering of praise in the temple of their gods. They ate, drank, and cursed Abimelech.

Judges 9:28 Gaal (son of Ebed) said, “Who’s Abimelech, and who are we, the people of Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn’t he Jerubbaal’s son, and isn’t Zebul his officer? Serve the descendants of Hamor, Shechem’s father! Why should we serve Abimelech?

Judges 9:29 How I wish I controlled these people! Then I’d get rid of Abimelech. I would tell him, ‘Get yourself a big army and come out.’ “

Judges 9:30 Zebul, Shechem’s ruler, heard what Gaal (son of Ebed) had said, and he became angry.

Judges 9:31 He secretly sent messengers to Abimelech. “Watch out! Gaal (son of Ebed) and his brothers have come to Shechem. They have turned the city against you.

Judges 9:32 You and your men must start out tonight. Set an ambush [for them] in the fields [around Shechem].

Judges 9:33 In the morning, when the sun rises, get up quickly and raid the city. When Gaal and his men come out to attack you, do whatever you want to him.”

Judges 9:34 Abimelech and all his troops started out at night. He used four companies to set ambushes around Shechem.

Judges 9:35 Gaal (son of Ebed) went out and stood at the entrance to the city. Then Abimelech and his troops rose from their ambush.

Judges 9:36 When Gaal saw the troops, he said to Zebul, “Look, troops are coming down from the mountaintops!” Zebul replied, “The shadows of the mountains look like men to you.”

Judges 9:37 Gaal spoke again, “No, there are troops coming down from Tabbur Haares. One company is coming along the road by the Fortunetellers’ Tree.”

Judges 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your big mouth now? You were the one who said, ‘Who’s Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Aren’t these the troops [whose ruler] you despised? Now go out and fight him.”

Judges 9:39 Then Gaal led citizens of Shechem out to fight Abimelech.

Judges 9:40 Abimelech chased Gaal so that he ran away from him. Many were killed at the entrance of the city.

Judges 9:41 Abimelech continued to live at Arumah. Zebul threw Gaal and his brothers out and would not let them live in Shechem.

Judges 9:42 The next day the people [of Shechem] went into the fields. Abimelech was told about it.

Judges 9:43 So he took his troops, divided them into three companies, and set an ambush in the fields. He watched and saw the people coming out of the city. Then he began to attack them.

Judges 9:44 Abimelech and his company charged the city and captured its entrance. The other two companies charged at everyone in the fields and attacked them.

Judges 9:45 Abimelech attacked the city all day long. He captured the city and killed the people in it. He also tore down the city and scattered salt all over the land.

Judges 9:46 All the citizens of Shechem's Tower heard about it and went into the basement of the temple of El Berith.

Judges 9:47 When Abimelech was told that they had gathered there,

Judges 9:48 he and all his men went to Mount Zalmon. Abimelech took an ax, cut some brushwood, and carried it on his shoulder. He told his men, "Hurry and do what you've seen me do!"

Judges 9:49 So all his troops also cut brushwood and followed Abimelech. They piled the brushwood on top of the basement and set it on fire with the people inside. So all the people in Shechem's Tower died too. There were about a thousand men and women.

Judges 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, camped there, and captured it.

Judges 9:51 Now, there was a strong tower inside the town. All the men, women, and leaders of the town fled to it. They locked the door behind them and went up on the roof of the tower.

Judges 9:52 Abimelech came to the tower. He began to fight against it and went near the entrance of the tower to burn it down.

Judges 9:53 Then a woman threw a small millstone that hit Abimelech on the head and cracked his skull.

Judges 9:54 He quickly called his armorbearer. He told him, "Take your sword and kill me! I don't want anyone to say, 'A woman killed Abimelech.' " His armorbearer did as he said, so Abimelech died.

Judges 9:55 When the people of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

Judges 9:56 So God paid back Abimelech for the evil he had done to his father when he killed his 70 brothers.

Judges 9:57 God also paid back the men of Shechem for all their evil. So the curse of Jotham, son of Jerubbaal, came true.

Judges 10:1 After Abimelech, Tola, who was the son of Puah and grandson of Dodo, came to rescue Israel. Tola was from Issachar and lived in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim.

Judges 10:2 He judged Israel for 23 years. Tola died and was buried in Shamir.

Judges 10:3 After Tola, Jair from Gilead became a judge. He judged Israel for 22 years.

Judges 10:4 Jair had 30 sons who rode on 30 donkeys. He also had 30 towns that are still called Havvoth Jair to this day. They are in the region of Gilead.

Judges 10:5 Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

Judges 10:6 The people of Israel again did what the LORD considered evil. They began to serve other gods and goddesses-the Baals and the Astartes-and the gods of Aram, Sidon, Moab, Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD and did not serve him.

Judges 10:7 The LORD became angry with the people of Israel. So he used the Philistines and Ammonites to defeat them.

Judges 10:8 They oppressed and crushed the people of Israel that year. For 18 years they oppressed all who lived east of the Jordan River in the land of the Amorites in Gilead.

Judges 10:9 Ammon also crossed the Jordan River to fight the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. So Israel suffered a great deal.

Judges 10:10 Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help. They said, “We have sinned against you. We have abandoned our God and served other gods-the Baals.”

Judges 10:11 The LORD said to the people of Israel, “When the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines,

Judges 10:12 the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites oppressed you, you cried out to me for help. Didn’t I rescue you from them?

Judges 10:13 But you still abandoned me and served other gods. That’s why I won’t rescue you again.

Judges 10:14 Cry out for help to the gods you chose. Let them rescue you when you’re in trouble.”

Judges 10:15 The people of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned. Do to us whatever you think is right. But please rescue us today!”

Judges 10:16 Then they got rid of the foreign gods they had and served the LORD. So the LORD could not bear to have Israel suffer any longer.

Judges 10:17 The troops of Ammon were summoned to fight, and they camped at Gilead. The people of Israel also gathered together and camped at Mizpah.

Judges 10:18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, “Whoever starts the fight against Ammon will rule everyone who lives in Gilead.”

Judges 11:1 Jephthah was a soldier from the region of Gilead. Jephthah’s father was named Gilead. His mother was a prostitute.

Judges 11:2 Gilead’s wife also gave birth to sons. When his wife’s sons grew up, they threw Jephthah out. They told him, “You’ll get no inheritance from our father. You’re the son of that other woman.”

Judges 11:3 Jephthah fled from his brothers. He went to live in the land of Tob. Worthless men gathered around Jephthah and went out [on raids] with him.

Judges 11:4 Later, Ammon waged war with Israel.

Judges 11:5 When the Ammonites attacked Israel, Gilead’s leaders went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Judges 11:6 They said to Jephthah, “Come and be our commander so that we can wage war against Ammon.”

Judges 11:7 But Jephthah replied to Gilead’s leaders, “Don’t you hate me? Didn’t you throw me out of my father’s house? So why are you coming to me now when you’re in trouble?”

Judges 11:8 Gilead’s leaders answered Jephthah, “The reason we’ve turned to you now is that we want you to go with us and wage war against Ammon. You will be the ruler of everyone who lives in Gilead.”

Judges 11:9 Jephthah told them, “If you take me back to fight against Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me, I will be your leader.”

Judges 11:10 Gilead’s leaders said to Jephthah, “The LORD is a witness between us. We will certainly do what you say.”

Judges 11:11 Jephthah went with them, and the people made him their leader and commander. So Jephthah went to Mizpah and repeated all these things in the presence of the LORD.

Judges 11:12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of Ammon. They asked the king, “Why did you invade my land and wage war against me?”

Judges 11:13 The king of Ammon answered Jephthah’s messengers, “When the people of Israel left Egypt, they took my land. It stretched from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River and the Jordan River. Now give it back peacefully.”

Judges 11:14 Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of Ammon.

Judges 11:15 They said, “This is what Jephthah says: The people of Israel didn’t take away the land belonging to Moab or Ammon.

Judges 11:16 When the people of Israel left Egypt, they went through the desert to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

Judges 11:17 The people of Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom. They said, ‘Please let us go through your country.’ But the king of Edom wouldn’t listen to them. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab. But he wouldn’t allow it, either. So the people of Israel remained at Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 “Then they went through the desert, by-passing Edom and Moab. They camped east of Moab-east of the Arnon River. They did not cross the Arnon River because it was Moab’s border.

Judges 11:19 “Then the people of Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites. Sihon ruled from Heshbon. The people of Israel said to him, ‘Please let us go through your land to our own.’

Judges 11:20 But Sihon did not trust the Israelites enough to let them go through his territory. Sihon assembled all his troops. He camped at Jahaz and attacked Israel.

Judges 11:21 But the LORD God of Israel handed Sihon and all his people over to Israel. Israel defeated them and took possession of all the land of the Amorites who lived there.

Judges 11:22 Israel took all the Amorite territory from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River and from the desert to the Jordan River.

Judges 11:23 “The LORD God of Israel forced the Amorites out of the way of his people Israel. So what right do you have to take it back?

Judges 11:24 Shouldn’t you take possession of what your god Chemosh took for you? Shouldn’t we take everything the LORD our God took for us?

Judges 11:25 You’re not any better than Balak, son of King Zippor of Moab, are you? Did he ever have a case against Israel? Or did he ever fight against Israel?

Judges 11:26 Israel has now lived in Heshbon, Aroer, all their villages, and in all the cities along the Arnon River for 300 years. Why didn’t you recapture these cities during that time?

Judges 11:27 I haven’t sinned against you. But you have done wrong by waging war against me. The LORD is the judge who will decide today whether Israel or Ammon is right.”

Judges 11:28 But the king of Ammon didn’t listen to the message Jephthah sent him.

Judges 11:29 Then the LORD’s Spirit came over Jephthah. Jephthah went through Gilead, Manasseh, and Mizpah in Gilead [to gather an army]. From Mizpah in Gilead Jephthah went to attack Ammon.

Judges 11:30 Jephthah made a vow to the LORD. He said, “If you will really hand Ammon over to me, Judges 11:31 then whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return safely from Ammon will belong to the LORD. I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering."

Judges 11:32 So Jephthah went to fight against Ammon. The LORD handed the people of Ammon over to him.

Judges 11:33 He defeated them from Aroer to Minnith and on to Abel Keramim, 20 cities in all. It was a decisive defeat. So the Ammonites were crushed by the people of Israel.

Judges 11:34 When Jephthah went to his home in Mizpah, he saw his daughter coming out to meet him. She was dancing with tambourines in her hands. She was his only child. Jephthah had no other sons or daughters.

Judges 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes in grief and said, "Oh no, Daughter! You've brought me to my knees! What disaster you've brought me! I made a foolish promise to the LORD. Now I can't break it."

Judges 11:36 She said to him, "Father, you made a promise to the LORD. Do to me whatever you promised since the LORD has punished your enemy Ammon."

Judges 11:37 Then she said to her father, "Do me a favor. Give me two months for my friends and me to walk in the mountains and mourn that I will never have an opportunity to get married."

Judges 11:38 "Go!" he said, and he sent her off for two months. She and her friends went to the mountains, and she cried about never being able to get married.

Judges 11:39 At the end of those two months she came back to her father. He did to her what he had vowed, and she never had a husband. So the custom began in Israel

Judges 11:40 that for four days every year the girls in Israel would go out to sing the praises of the daughter of Jephthah, the man from Gilead.

Judges 12:1 The men of Ephraim were summoned to fight. They crossed [the Jordan River] to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why did you fight against Ammon without inviting us to go with you? Now we're going to burn your house down with you in it."

Judges 12:2 Jephthah answered, "My people and I were involved in a legal dispute with Ammon. I asked you for help, but you didn't rescue me from them.

Judges 12:3 When I saw that you would not rescue me, I risked my life and went to fight the people of Ammon. The LORD handed them over to me. So why did you come to fight against me today?"

Judges 12:4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim. The men of Gilead defeated Ephraim. [They did this because] Ephraim had said, “You people from Gilead are nothing but fugitives from Ephraim and Manasseh.”

Judges 12:5 The men of Gilead captured the shallow crossings of the Jordan River leading back to Ephraim. Whenever a fugitive from Ephraim said, “Let me cross,” the men of Gilead would ask, “Are you from Ephraim?” If he answered, “No,”

Judges 12:6 they would tell him, “Say the word [shibboleth].” If the fugitive would say [sibboleth], because he couldn’t pronounce the word correctly, they would grab him and kill him at the shallow crossings of the Jordan River. At that time 42,000 men from Ephraim died.

Judges 12:7 Jephthah judged Israel for six years. Then Jephthah of Gilead died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

Judges 12:8 After Jephthah, Ibzan from Bethlehem judged Israel.

Judges 12:9 He had 30 sons and 30 daughters. His sons and daughters married people from outside their own families. He judged Israel for seven years.

Judges 12:10 When Ibzan died, he was buried in Bethlehem.

Judges 12:11 After Ibzan, Elon from the tribe of Zebulun judged Israel. He judged Israel for ten years.

Judges 12:12 When Elon died, he was buried in Aijalon in the territory of Zebulun.

Judges 12:13 After Elon, Abdon, son of Hillel, from Pirathon judged Israel.

Judges 12:14 He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons who rode on 70 donkeys. He judged Israel for eight years.

Judges 12:15 When Abdon died, he was buried in Pirathon, in the territory of Ephraim, in the mountains of Amalek.

Judges 13:1 The people of Israel again did what the LORD considered evil. So the LORD handed them over to the Philistines for 40 years.

Judges 13:2 There was a man from Zorah named Manoah. Manoah was from the family of Dan. His wife was not able to have children.

Judges 13:3 The Messenger of the LORD appeared to her and said, “You’ve never been able to have a child, but now you will become pregnant and have a son.

Judges 13:4 Now you must be careful. Don’t drink any wine or liquor or eat any unclean food.

Judges 13:5 You’re going to become pregnant and have a son. You must never cut his hair because the boy will be a Nazirite dedicated to God from birth. He will begin to rescue Israel from the power of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:6 The woman went to tell her husband. She said, “A man of God came to me. He had a very frightening appearance like the Messenger of God. So I didn’t ask him where he came from, and he didn’t tell me his name.

Judges 13:7 He told me, ‘You’re going to become pregnant and have a son. So don’t drink any wine or liquor or eat any unclean food because the boy will be a Nazirite dedicated to God from the time he is born until he dies.’”

Judges 13:8 Then Manoah pleaded with the LORD, “Please, Lord, let the man of God you sent come back to us. Let him teach us what we must do for the boy who will be born.”

Judges 13:9 God did what Manoah asked. The Messenger of God came back to his wife while she was sitting out in the fields. But her husband Manoah was not with her.

Judges 13:10 The woman ran quickly to tell her husband. She said, “The man who came to me the other day has just appeared to me [again].”

Judges 13:11 Manoah immediately followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked him, “Are you the man who spoke to my wife?” “Yes,” he answered.

Judges 13:12 Then Manoah asked, “When your words come true, how should the boy live and what should he do?”

Judges 13:13 The Messenger of the LORD answered Manoah, “Your wife must be careful to do everything I told her to do.

Judges 13:14 She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevines, drink any wine or liquor, or eat any unclean food. She must be careful to do everything I commanded.”

Judges 13:15 Manoah said to the Messenger of the LORD, “Please stay while we prepare a young goat for you to eat.”

Judges 13:16 But the Messenger of the LORD responded, “If I stay here, I will not eat any of your food. But if you make a burnt offering, sacrifice it to the LORD.” (Manoah did not realize that it was the Messenger of the LORD.)

Judges 13:17 Then Manoah asked the Messenger of the LORD, “What is your name? When your words come true, we will honor you.”

Judges 13:18 The Messenger of the LORD asked him, “Why do you ask for my name? It’s a name that works miracles.”

Judges 13:19 So Manoah took a young goat and a grain offering and sacrificed them to the LORD on a rock he used as an altar. While Manoah and his wife watched, the LORD did something miraculous.

Judges 13:20 As the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the Messenger of the LORD went up in the flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they immediately bowed down with their faces touching the ground.

Judges 13:21 The Messenger of the LORD didn't appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah knew that this had been the Messenger of the LORD.

Judges 13:22 So Manoah said to his wife, "We will certainly die because we have seen God."

Judges 13:23 But Manoah's wife replied, "If the LORD wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted our burnt offering and grain offering. He would not have let us see or hear all these things just now."

Judges 13:24 So the woman had a son and named him Samson. The boy grew up, and the LORD blessed him.

Judges 13:25 The LORD's Spirit began to stir in him while he was at Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14:1 When Samson went to Timnah, he saw a young Philistine woman.

Judges 14:2 He went [home] and told his father and mother, "I've seen a Philistine woman at Timnah. Now get her for me so that I can marry her."

Judges 14:3 His father and mother asked him, "Aren't there any women among our relatives or all our people? Do you have to marry a woman from those godless Philistines?" But Samson told his father, "Get her for me! She's the one I want!"

Judges 14:4 His father and mother didn't know that the LORD was behind this. The LORD was looking for an opportunity to do something to the Philistines. (At that time the Philistines were ruling Israel.)

Judges 14:5 Samson went with his father and mother to Timnah. When they were coming to the vineyards of Timnah, a young roaring lion met Samson.

Judges 14:6 The LORD's Spirit came over him. With his bare hands, he tore the lion apart as if it were a young goat. He didn't tell his parents what he had done.

Judges 14:7 Then he went to talk to the young woman. She was the one he wanted.

Judges 14:8 Later he went back to marry her. [On his way] he left the road to look at the lion he had killed. He saw a swarm of bees and some honey in the lion's dead body.

Judges 14:9 He scraped [the honey] into his hands and ate it as he walked along. When he came to his father and mother, he gave them some of the honey to eat. He didn't tell them he had scraped it out of the lion's dead body.

Judges 14:10 After his father went to see the woman, Samson threw a party. (This is what young men used to do.)

Judges 14:11 When [her family] saw him, they chose 30 of their friends to be with him.

Judges 14:12 Then Samson said to them, “Let me tell you a riddle. If you solve it during the seven days of the party, I’ll give you 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes.

Judges 14:13 But if you can’t solve it, you will give me the same things.” They responded, “Tell us your riddle! Let’s hear it!”

Judges 14:14 So Samson said to them, “From the eater came something to eat. From the strong one came something sweet.” For three days they couldn’t solve the riddle.

Judges 14:15 On the fourth day they said to Samson’s wife, “Trick your husband into solving the riddle for us. If you don’t, we’ll burn you and your family to death. Did the two of you invite us [just to make us poor]?”

Judges 14:16 So Samson’s wife cried on his shoulder. She said, “You hate me! You don’t really love me! You gave my friends a riddle and didn’t tell me the answer.” Samson replied, “I haven’t even told my father and mother, so why should I tell you?”

Judges 14:17 But she cried on his shoulder for the rest of the seven days of the party. Finally, on the seventh day he told her the answer because she made his life miserable. Then she told her friends the answer to the riddle.

Judges 14:18 So before sundown on the seventh day, the men of the city said to him, “What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?” Samson replied, “If you hadn’t used my cow to plow, you wouldn’t know my riddle now.”

Judges 14:19 When the LORD’s Spirit came over him, he went to Ashkelon and killed 30 men there. He took their clothes and gave them to the men who solved the riddle. He was angry, and he went to his father’s house.

Judges 14:20 Samson’s wife was given to his best man.

Judges 15:1 Later, during the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife. He took a young goat along for her. He said, “I’m going to sleep with my wife in her bedroom.” But her father would not let him go in.

Judges 15:2 Her father said, “I thought you hated her. So I gave her to your best man. Isn’t her younger sister better looking? Marry her instead!”

Judges 15:3 Samson said to him, “This time I won’t be guilty when I get even with the Philistines, even though I’m going to do something terrible to them.”

Judges 15:4 So Samson caught 300 foxes. He tied them together in pairs by their tails. Then he fastened a torch between their tails.

Judges 15:5 He set the torches on fire and released the foxes in the Philistines' grain fields. So he set fire to all their grain, whether it was stacked or in the fields. Their olive orchards also caught on fire.

Judges 15:6 Some Philistines asked, "Who did this?" They were told, "Samson! He's the son-in-law of the man at Timnah. Samson did it because the man at Timnah took Samson's wife and gave her to his best man." So the Philistines burned Samson's wife and her father to death.

Judges 15:7 Samson said to them, "If that's how you're going to act, I'll get even with you before I stop."

Judges 15:8 So he attacked them violently and slaughtered them. Then he went to live in a cave in the cliff at Etam.

Judges 15:9 The Philistines came, camped in Judah, and overran Lehi.

Judges 15:10 The men of Judah asked, "Why did you come to fight us?" The Philistines answered, "We've come to tie up Samson and do to him what he did to us."

Judges 15:11 So 3,000 men from Judah went to the cave in the cliff at Etam. They said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines rule us? Why have you done this to us?" Samson replied, "I did to them what they did to me."

Judges 15:12 So the men from Judah told him, "We've come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines." Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you won't harm me yourselves."
